CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY OF IDIOMS

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

PUBLISHED BY THE PRESS SYNDICATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE The Pitt Building, Trumpington Street, Cambridge, United Kingdom

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
The Edinburgh Building, Cambridge CB2 2RU, UK
40 West 20th Street, New York, NY 10011–4211, USA
477 Williamstown Road, Port Melbourne, VIC 3207, Australia
Ruiz de Alarcón 13, 28014 Madrid, Spain
Dock House, The Waterfront, Cape Town 8001, South Africa
http://www.cambridge.org

© Cambridge University Press 1998

The pages in this book marked PHOTOCOPIABLE © Cambridge University Press 1998 may be photocopied free of charge by the purchasing individual or institution. This permission to copy does not extend to branches or additional schools of an institution. All other copying is subject to permission from the publisher.

First published 1998 Fifth printing 2002

Printed in the United Kingdom at the University Press, Cambridge

Typeset in Adobe Frutiger and Monotype Nimrod

A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library

Library of Congress Cataloguing in Publication data applied for

ISBN 0 521 62364 2 hardback ISBN 0 521 62567 X paperback

Cambridge International Dictionary of Idioms

Academic Consultant Professor Michael McCarthy

> Commissioning Editor Elizabeth Walter

> > Project Manager Glennis Pye

Lexicographers
Kerry Maxwell
Clea McEnery
Elaine McGregor
Susannah Wintersgill
Kate Woodford
Stephen Curtis
Alice Grandison
Sandra Pyne

American English Consultants Carol-June Cassidy Sabina Sahni

Australian English Consultants Barbara Gassmann Sue Bremner

> Design and Production Samantha Dumiak Andrew Robinson

Software Development Robert Fleischman

Editorial contributions have been made by Annetta Butterworth
Dominic Gurney
Emma Malfroy
Geraldine Mark

make in the contract of the section of dry .

1

ales and the contract

Contents

Introduction	vi
How to use this dictionary	x
Idioms A–Z	1
Theme panels
Anger
Business	441
Dishonesty
Happiness & Sadness	443
Health	444
Helping	445
Intelligence & Stupidity	446
Interest & Boredom	447
Liking & not Liking	448
Money	449
Power & Authority	450
Remembering & Forgetting	451
Speaking & Conversation	452
Success & Failure	453
Understanding	454
Exercises	455
Answer Key	467

Introduction

Idioms are a colourful and fascinating aspect of English. They are commonly used in all types of language, informal and formal, spoken and written. Your language skills will increase rapidly if you can understand idioms and use them confidently and correctly. One of the main problems students have with idioms is that it is often impossible to guess the meaning of an idiom from the words it contains. In addition, idioms often have a stronger meaning than non-idiomatic phrases. For example, look daggers at someone has more emphasis than look angrily at someone, but they mean the same thing. Idioms may also suggest a particular attitude of the person using them, for example disapproval, humour, exasperation or admiration, so you must use them carefully.

The Cambridge International Dictionary of Idioms explains the meaning and use of around 7,000 idioms in a clear and helpful way. It is a truly international dictionary: it covers current British, American and Australian idioms.

It includes:

- traditional idioms (e.g. turn a blind eye to sth, throw the baby out with the bathwater)
- idiomatic compounds (e.g. fall guy, turkey shoot)
- similes and comparisons (e.g. as dull as ditchwater, swear like a trooper)
- exclamations and sayings (e.g. Bully for you!, Over my dead body!)
- clichés (e.g. all part of life's rich tapestry, There's many a true word spoken in jest.)

The definitions are clear and precise. They have been written using a carefully controlled defining vocabulary of under 2, 000 words. Every idiom is illustrated with examples based on sentences from the Cambridge International Corpus. This means that all of the examples reflect natural written and spoken English. Information about grammar is shown clearly, without complicated grammar codes. The origins of idioms are explained, where appropriate, to help understanding.

In addition, there are theme panels showing idioms grouped according to their meaning or function. There are also photocopiable exercises at the back of the dictionary. This dictionary aims to help you not only as a comprehensive reference book but also as a valuable learning aid.

How to use this dictionary

Finding an idiom

Where do you look?

The best way to search for an idiom is to look in the index at the back of the dictionary. You can look under any important word in the idiom to find out where the entry for that idiom is. The keyword (the word where you will find the entry) is shown in dark type:

take pot luck

give someone a taste of their own medicine

(pot is the keyword, so the entry is at 'pot') (medicine is the keyword, so the entry is at 'medicine')

acid

Each entry is listed under a keyword. The keyword is shown in dark type in the index.

an acid test

a test which will really prove the value, quality, or truth of something • The new show was well received but viewing figures for the next episode will be the real acid test.

Idioms are not usually listed in the index under words like 'a', 'the', 'all', 'these', 'where' or 'no', except when the whole idiom is made of such words, e.g. be all in, be out of it.

Words are listed in the index in the same form as they appear in the idiom. For instance, look up 'pushing up the daisies' at 'pushing' or 'daisies', not 'push' or 'daisy'.

When there are several idioms listed under one keyword, the entries are ordered as follows:

- · entries beginning with the keyword
- · entries beginning with 'a'+ keyword
- · entries beginning with 'the' + keyword
- all other entries in alphabetical order of the words they begin with

For example, the entries under the keyword 'tongue' are ordered like this:

tongue in cheek

tongue-in-cheek

a tongue-lashing

bite your tongue

find your tongue

get your tongue round/around sth

hold your tongue

loosen your tongue

trip off the tongue

Where British and American idioms have different spellings, e.g. take centre stage (British)/take center stage (American), the idiom is at the British keyword, but you can look up the American spelling in the index to find out where it is.

This is the basic form of the idiom.

paint the town red informal

to go out and enjoy yourself in the evening, often drinking a lot of alcohol and dancing • Jack finished his exams today so he's gone off to paint the town red with his friends.

Many idioms have different possible forms. When that difference is just in one word, it is shown like this.

put/stick the knife in British &

Australian, informal

to do or say something unpleasant to someone in an unkind way • 'No one in the office likes you, you know, Tim,' she said, putting the knife in. • The reviewer from The Times really stuck the knife in, calling it the worst play he'd seen in years.

When the difference is more than one word, the alternative forms are shown on different lines.

raise (sb's) hackles

make (sb's) hackles rise to annoy someone A Hackles are the hairs on the back of a dog's neck which stand up when it is angry. • The politician's frank interview may have raised hackles in his party. • The movie's pro-war message made many people's hackles rise.

Words in brackets can be omitted, and the meaning will be the same.

have had it (up to here) informal

to be so angry about something that you do not want to continue with it or even think about it any more • I've had it! From now on they can clear up their own mess. • (often + with) I've had it up to here with lawvers!

Idioms with different forms in British, American or Australian are shown on separate lines. There is a list of regional labels on page xv.

blow a raspberry British & Australian,

informal [

give a raspberry American, informal

to make a rude noise by putting your tongue between your lips and blowing • (often + at) A boy of no more than six appeared, blew a raspberry at me and then ran away.

If an idiom is formal, informal, old-fashioned, etc., this is shown with a label. There is a list of register labels on page xv.

be/go (out) on the razzle British,

informal, old-fashioned

to enjoy yourself by doing things like going to parties or dances • We're going out on the razzle on New Year's Eve—do you fancy coming?

'sb' means 'somebody'. It can be replaced by a person's name or by 'him/her/you/them/ me/us'. give sb the push

1 British & Australian, informal to end someone's employment • After twenty years' loyal service, they gave her the push.

'sth' means 'something'. It can be replaced by a non-human object.

let sth ride

to not take action to change something wrong or unpleasant • Don't panic about low sales. Let it ride for a while till we see if business picks up.

'your' can be replaced by 'his/her/their/our/my'.

blow your stack/top informal

to suddenly become very angry • My mother blew her top when she saw the mess we'd made in the kitchen.

'swh' means 'somewhere'. It can be replaced by the name of a place.

be fresh from swh British

be fresh out of swh American &

Australian

to have just finished education or training in a particular school or college and not have much experience • Our course is taught by a young professor fresh out of law school.

Some idioms have more than one possible meaning. In such cases, the different meanings are numbered.

without fail

- 1 if something happens without fail, it always happens Every Tuesday afternoon, without fail, Helga went to visit her father:
- 2 something that you say in order to emphasize that something will be done or will happen 'You will meet me at the airport, won't you?' 'Don't worry, I'll be there without fail.'

Sub-entries

Sometimes idioms have a basic form but are often found in slightly different constructions. If they are common, these different constructions are shown in sub-entries.

have your head in the clouds

to not know what is really happening around you because you are paying too much attention to your own ideas • He's an academic. They've all got their heads in the clouds.

with your head in the clouds • He was walking along with his head in the clouds as usual when he tripped over a paving stone.

Sometimes different parts of speech can be formed from the basic idiom. In this case, the main form is a verb phrase and the sub-entry is an adjective.

catch sb's eye

- 1 to be noticed by someone because you are looking at them She lit a cigarette while he tried to catch the waiter's eye.
- 2 to be attractive or different enough to be noticed by people There were lots of dresses to choose from, but none of them really caught my eye.

eye-catching • There is an eye-catching mural in the hall.

Opposites are shown as sub-entries.

strike a blow for sth/sb

to do something to support an idea or to change a situation to something which you believe is good • He claims to be striking a blow for gender equality by employing an equal number of men and women. • This latest agreement will strike a blow for free trade within the EU.

• The court's decision strikes a blow against minority rights.

The definitions

All definitions use simple words to make them easy to understand.

at the top of your voice

if someone says something at the top of their voice, they say it as loudly as they can • 'Stop it Nathan!' she shouted at the top of her voice.

Definitions show the most typical range of objects for an idiom.

on top of sth

if you are on top of a situation, you are dealing with it successfully • We had a lot of work to do, but I think we're on top of it now.

Definitions show the typical range of subjects for an idiom.

see eye to eye

if two people see eye to eye, they agree with each other • (often negative; often + with) He's asked for a transfer because he doesn't see eye to eye with the new manager.

For adjectival idioms, the definition explains what the idiom usually describes.

day-to-day

a day-to-day activity is one of the things you have to do every day, usually as part of your work • (always before noun) It's Sheila who's responsible for the day-to-day running of the school.

The emotions or attitude of the person using the idiom are explained in the definition.

On yer bike! British & Australian, very informal

an impolite way of telling someone to go away • 'Can you lend me some money?' 'On yer bike, mate!'

Individual words in the idioms are explained when this helps to understand the meaning of the idiom.

an eager beaver

someone who works very hard and is eager to do things A beaver is a small animal which people traditionally believe to be hard-working. • Who's the eager beaver who came in at the weekend to finish this work off?

The history of idioms is explained when this helps to understand the meaning of the idiom.

be in the doldrums

1 if a business, an economy or a person's job is in the doldrums, it is not very successful and nothing new is happening in it The doldrums was the name for an area of sea where ships were not able to move because there was no wind.

Examples

Examples show how idioms are used in natural speech and writing.

put a bomb under sth/sb British &

Australian

if you want to put a bomb under a person or an organization, you want to make them do things faster • I'd like to put a bomb under those solicitors.

Very common collocations are shown in dark type.

blow-by-blow

a blow-by-blow description of an event gives every detail of how it happened • She gave me a blow-by-blow account of her car crash.

Grammar

The basic grammatical structure of an idiom is shown in its entry:

This idiom is followed by an infinitive.

be man enough to do sth

to be brave enough to do something • He was man enough to admit he had made a mistake.

This idiom is followed by an -ing form.

be on the brink of doing sth

to be likely to do something very soon • The club's manager dismissed reports that he was on the brink of buying Peter Beardsley.

This idiom is always reflexive.

tie yourself (up) in knots

to become very confused or worried when you are trying to make a decision or solve a problem

This idiom is always used in continuous tenses.

pushing

be pushing up (the) daisies humorous to be dead • It won't affect me anyway. I'll be pushing up the daisies long before it happens.

Idioms which are whole sentences start with a capital letter and end with a full stop or other punctuation.

Act your age!

something that you say to someone who is being silly to tell them to behave in a more serious way • Oh, act your age, Chris! You can't expect to have your own way all the time.

This idiom is always used in negative sentences.

not look a gift horse in the mouth

if someone tells you not to look a gift horse in the mouth, they mean that you should not criticize or feel doubt about something good that has been offered to you • Okay, it's not the job of your dreams but it pays good money. I'd be inclined not to look a gift horse in the mouth if I were you.

Common grammatical features are labelled at examples which demonstrate them:

This idiom is often followed by the preposition 'of'.

a rich seam formal

a subject which provides a lot of opportunities for people to discuss, write about or make jokes about • (often + of) Both wars have provided a rich seam of drama for playwrights and novelists alike.

This idiom is often followed by a question word.

not have the faintest (idea)

to have no knowledge of or no information about something • 'Do you know where Anna is?' 'I haven't the faintest.' • (often + question word) I haven't the faintest idea what you're talking about.

This idiom is often an order.

get a move on informal

to hurry • (often an order) Get a move on, man! We don't have all day.

This idiom is usually used in a passive construction.

bring sb to book British & Australian to punish someone • (usually passive) A crime has been committed and whoever is responsible must be brought to book.

This adjectival idiom is always used before the noun it describes.

up-and-coming

becoming more and more successful in a job • (always before noun) She founded a summer school for up-and-coming musicians.

Figurative meanings

Some keywords have groups of idioms which all use the same figurative meaning of the keyword. In such cases, a note explains the figurative meaning and all the idioms which follow it have that meaning.

Knife is used in the following phrases connected with unpleasant behaviour.

have your knife into sb British & Australian, informal to try to cause problems for someone because you do not like them • Mike's had his knife into me ever since he found out I was seeing his ex-girlfriend.

put/stick the knife in British &

Australian, informal

to do or say something unpleasant to someone in an unkind way • 'No one in the office likes you, you know, Tim,' she said, putting the knife in. • The reviewer from The Times really stuck the knife in, calling it the worst play he'd seen in years.

turn/twist the knife

to do or say something unpleasant which makes someone who is already upset feel worse • Having made the poor girl cry, he twisted the knife by saying she was weak and unable to cope with pressure.

a turn/twist of the knife • 'I never loved you,' she said, with a final twist of the knife.

Common idioms

Idioms which are highlighted are very common and useful for learners of English to learn.

not have a clue informal

to have no knowledge of or no information about something • 'How much do houses cost in Yorkshire?' 'I haven't got a clue.'
• (often + about) Internet researchers in the 1980s didn't have a clue about the exciting online landscapes of the future.

Regional labels

British this idiom is only used in British English

American this idiom is only used in American English

Australian this idiom is only used in Australian English mainly British this idiom is mainly used in British English mainly American this idiom is mainly used in American English

Register labels

informal idioms which are used with friends and family or people you know in relaxed situations

formal idioms which are used in a serious or polite way, for example in business documents, serious newspapers and books, lectures, news broadcasts, etc.

very informal idioms which are used in a very informal or not very polite way, often between members of a particular social group old-fashioned idioms which are still used but sound old-fashioned taboo idioms which are likely to offend people and are not used in formal situations

humorous idioms which are intended to make people laugh literary idioms which are mainly used in literature

Suplanta lates

A

from A to Z

including all the facts about a subject
• This book tells the story of Diana's life
from A to Z.

get/go from A to B

to travel from one place to another place • When I'm travelling, I try to work out the quickest way of getting from A to B.

about-face

an about-face mainly American X a sudden and complete change of someone's ideas, plans, or actions • In an about-face on the morning of his trial, the accused changed his plea to guilty. • Both papers did an about-face and published a condemnation of his actions.

above

above and beyond sth

more than • The support given to us by the police was above and beyond what we could have expected. • She doesn't receive any extra money, above and beyond what she's paid by the council. • The number of hours she puts into her job is definitely above and beyond the call of duty. (= more than is expected of her)

absence

Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

something that you say which means being apart from someone that you love makes you love them even more • 'My boyfriend's going to South America and I won't see him for six months.' 'Ah well, absence makes the heart grow fonder.'

accident

an accident waiting to happen

a very dangerous situation in which an accident is very likely • The speed that people drive along this road, it's an accident waiting to happen.

(whether) by accident or design

whether intended to be this way or not

• The system, whether by accident or design, benefits people who live in the cities more than people who live in the country.

more by accident than (by) design

because of luck and not because of skill
• I kicked the ball and, more by accident than design, it found its way into the net.

accidentally

accidentally on purpose humorous

if you do something accidentally on purpose, you intend to do it but you pretend that it was an accident • If I, accidentally on purpose, forget to bring her address with us, we won't be able to visit her after all.

accidents

accidents will happen

something that you say in order to make someone feel less guilty when they have just damaged something that does not belong to them • Oh well, accidents will happen. I can always buy another bowl.

accord

of your own accord X

if you do something of your own accord, you do it without being asked to do it • She left of her own accord. I didn't tell her to go.

account

be brought/called to account formal

to be forced to explain something you did wrong, and usually to be punished • What concerns us most is that the people responsible for the violence should be brought to account.

on sb's account

if you do something on someone's account, you do it because of that person • Don't cook anything special on my account. I'm not even very hungry.

on your own account

if you do something on your own account, you do it by yourself or for yourself • I decided to ask a few questions about the accident on my own account.

on no account must/should sb do sth

formal

if you tell someone that on no account must they do something, you mean that they must never, for any reason do that thing • On no account must the contents of this document be shown to any other person.

take sth/sb into account take account of sth/sb

to think about something or someone when you are making a decision or a judgement • I hope they'll take her age into account when they're judging her work. • (often + that) They took into account that he'd never been in trouble before. • Her book takes no account of (= does not consider) recent research carried out in America.

accounting

There's no accounting for taste!

something that you say when you cannot understand why someone likes something or someone • 'I love having a cold shower before breakfast.' 'Well, there's no accounting for taste!'

ace

An ace is a playing card which usually has the highest value in a game and which you need to win. It is used in the following phrases connected with achieving success.

an ace in the hole American

an advantage that you have that other people do not know about • The local team has an ace in the hole with their new player.

come within an ace of sth/doing sth

to almost achieve something • Linford Christie came within an ace of the world indoor record for the 100m last night.

be within an ace of sth/doing sth • Her ambition to star in a musical is within an ace of being (= is almost) fulfilled following talks with a West End producer.

have an ace up your sleeve

to have an advantage that other people do not know about • The new game show has an ace up its sleeve. It will allow viewers to play from home and win prizes.

play your ace

to do the thing that you know will bring you success • The prosecutor played her ace, the results of the DNA tests on samples taken from the victim's clothing.

aces

have/hold all the aces

to be in a strong position when you are competing with someone else, because you have all the advantages • In the battle between road builders and environmentalists, the road builders seem to hold all the aces.

Achilles

an Achilles' heel

a small fault in a person or system which might cause them to fail Achilles was a man in Greek mythology (= an ancient set of stories) who was killed when he was injured on the heel. This was the only part of his body where he could be harmed. • As a team they're strong on attack but they have a weak defence that might prove to be their Achilles' heel.

acid

an acid test 🗸

a test which will really prove the value, quality, or truth of something • The new show was well received but viewing figures for the next episode will be the real acid test.

act

a balancing/juggling act

a difficult situation in which you try to achieve several different things at the same time • It's so exhausting having to perform the balancing act between work and family. • Keeping both sides in the dispute happy was a difficult juggling act which required an extraordinary degree of diplomacy.

be a hard/tough act to follow

to be so good it is not likely that anyone or anything else that comes after will be as good • Last year's thrilling Super Bowl, when the New York Giants beat the Buffalo Bills 20-19 will be a hard act to follow. • The new Chairman knows his predecessor is a tough act to follow.

catch ${ m sb}$ in the act imes

to discover someone doing something wrong • I was trying to clear up the mess on the carpet before anyone noticed it, but Isobel came in and caught me in the act.

clean up your act informal

to stop doing things that other people do not approve of and start to behave in a more acceptable way • There's a very strong anti-press feeling at the moment. A lot of people think it's time they cleaned up their act.

get your act together informal

to organize your activities so that you do things in an effective way • If these people could ever get their act together, they could produce unbeatable wines. • You'd better get your act together and start looking for a job.

get in on the act

to become involved in something successful that someone else has started so that you can become successful yourself • We ran a successful local delivery business until other local companies started trying to get in on the act.

action

be out of action

1 if a machine or vehicle is out of action, it is not working or cannot be used • I'm afraid the TV's out of action.

put sth out of action • The freezing weather has put many trains out of action.

- 2 if someone who plays sport is out of action, they are injured and cannot play Towers is out of action with a broken wrist.
  - put sb out of action A bad fall put him out of action for 2 months.

a piece/slice of the action informal being involved in something successful that someone else started • Now research has proved that the new drug is effective, everyone wants a piece of the action.

actions

Actions speak louder than words.

something that you say which means that what you do is more important than what you say • Of course the government have made all sorts of promises but as we all know, actions speak louder than words.

Adam

not know sb from Adam

to have never met someone and not know anything about them • Why should I lend him money? I don't know him from Adam.

ad hoc

ad hoc

an ad hoc organization or process is not planned but is formed or arranged when it is necessary for a particular purpose • An ad hoc group of 75 parents is leading the protest to demand the resignation of the headteacher. • He doesn't charge a set amount for his work but negotiates fees on an ad hoc basis.

ad infinitum

ad infinitum

if something happens or continues ad infinitum, it happens again and again in the same way, or it continues forever • The TV station just shows repeats of old comedy programmes ad infinitum. • Her list of complaints went on and on ad infinitum.

ad nauseam

ad nauseam

if someone discusses something ad nauseam, they talk about it so much that it becomes very boring • She talks ad nauseam about how brilliant her children are.

ado

much ado about nothing

a lot of trouble and excitement about something which is not important Much Ado about Nothing is the title of a famous play by Shakespeare. • People have been getting very upset about the seating arrangements for the Christmas dinner, but as far as I'm concerned it's all much ado about nothing.

without further/more ado

without any delay • And so, without further ado, let me introduce you to tonight's speaker.

afraid

be afraid of your own shadow

to be extremely nervous and easily frightened • She's always having panic attacks, she's the kind of person who's afraid of her own shadow.

age

Act your age!

something that you say to someone who is being silly to tell them to behave in a more serious way • Oh, act your age, Chris! You can't expect to have your own way all the time.

come of age slightly formal

- 1 to reach the age when you are an adult and are legally responsible for your behaviour • So what of all the fiftythousand youngsters who come of age this spring? Who will they be voting for?
- 2 something or someone that has come of age has reached full, successful, development After years of sophisticated mimicry, Japanese design has come of age.

agenda

An agenda is a list of subjects to be discussed at a meeting. Agenda is used in the following phrases connected with discussing or achieving something.

at the top of the/sb's agenda high on the/sb's agenda

if a subject or plan is at the top of someone's agenda, it is the most important thing they want to discuss or deal with • The government has put education at the top of its agenda. • When the schoolteachers meet, classroom violence will be high on the agenda. (= one of the most important subjects to discuss)

a hidden agenda

a reason for doing something that you are hiding by pretending that you have a different reason • He stressed that the review was to identify staffing needs and there was no hidden agenda to cut jobs.

on the/sb's agenda

if a subject, plan, or activity is on the agenda, people are willing to talk about it, or to try to make it happen • He made it clear that strike action was not on the agenda

OPPOSITE off the/sb's agenda • Foreign travel is off the agenda (= not going to happen) until we've got some money together.

set the agenda

to decide what subjects other people should discuss and deal with, often in a way which shows that you have more authority than them • Opposition parties have managed to set the agenda during this election by emphasizing the public's fear of crime.

agony

pile on the agony British & Australian, informal

to try to get sympathy from other people by making your problems seem worse than they really are • (usually in continuous tenses) He was really piling on the agony, saying he was heart-broken and hadn't got anything left to live for.

aid

What's sth in aid of? British & Australian, informal something that you say when you want to know why someone has done something • I heard the shouting from the other side of the building. What was that in aid of? • A present! What's this in aid of?

aide-mémoire

an aide-mémoire formal

a piece of writing or a picture that helps you to remember something • I write notes to myself and put them on the board. It serves as an aide-mémoire.

air

be floating/walking on air

to be very happy and excited because something very pleasant has happened to you • When the doctor told me I was going to have a baby, I was walking on air.

be in the air

- 1 if a feeling, especially excitement, is in the air, everyone is feeling it at the same time • There was excitement in the air as people gathered in the main square to hear the proclamation.
- 2 to be going to happen very soon The daffodils are in flower and spring is definitely in the air. I get the feeling that change is in the air.

be up in the air

if a matter is up in the air, no decision has been made, often because other matters have to be decided first • I may be moving to New Zealand, but it's still up in the air.

clear the air

if an argument or discussion clears the air, it causes bad feelings between people to disappear • The meeting didn't solve anything, but at least it cleared the air.

pluck sth out of the air

if you pluck a number out of the air, you say any number and not one that is the result of careful calculation • That figure of eighty thousand pounds isn't something we've just plucked out of the air. We've done a detailed costing of the project.

airs

airs and graces

false ways of behaving that are intended to make other people feel that you are important and belong to a high social class • The other children started calling her 'princess' because of her airs and graces. • It's no good putting on airs and graces with me. I knew you when you were working in a shop! • Look at you giving yourself airs and graces – think you're better than us, do you?

airy-fairy

airy-fairy British, informal

not practical or not useful in real situations • She's talking about selling her house and buying an old castle in Ireland. It all sounds a bit airy-fairy to me.

à la carte

à la carte

if you eat à la carte, you choose each dish from a separate list instead of eating a fixed combination of dishes at a fixed price • I don't know whether to have the set menu or go à la carte.

à la carte • I'm just going to pick a starter and a main course from the à la carte menu.

Aladdin

an Aladdin's cave British

a place that contains many interesting or valuable objects • (often + of) We found a shop that was a real Aladdin's cave of beautiful antiques.

à la mode

à la mode

fashionable • Velvet trousers are à la mode this season.

alarm

set (the) alarm bells ringing

if something sets alarm bells ringing, it makes you feel worried because it is a sign that there may be a problem • Symptoms which should set alarm bells ringing are often ignored by doctors.

ring/sound alarm bells • The huge vote for fascist candidates should ring alarm bells (= cause people to worry) across Europe.

alarm bells start to ring • Alarm bells started to ring (= I became worried) when I found out that he still lived with his mother.

albatross

albatross around/round your neck

literary

something that you have done or are connected with that keeps causing you problems and stops you from being successful An albatross is a large white bird. In the poem The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, by Samuel Taylor Coleridge, a man on a ship kills an albatross which is then hung round his neck to show that he has brought bad luck. • The company that he founded in 1983 is now an albatross around his neck, making losses of several hundreds of thousands a year.

alert

be on full/red alert

if soldiers are on full alert, they know that a situation is dangerous and are prepared to act immediately if necessary • The British flagship in the area went to battle stations and remained on full alert for twenty minutes.

be put on full/red alert • The army was put on red alert as the peace talks began to break down.

al fresco

al fresco

outside • We ate al fresco under the olive trees. • An al fresco performance of The Tempest was the highlight of our visit.

alive

be alive and kicking $\vee$

to continue to live or exist and be full of energy • She said she'd seen him last week and he was alive and kicking. • Theatre in Madrid is alive and kicking.

be alive and well

to continue to be popular or successful

Despite rumours to the contrary, feminism is alive and well. (often + and doing sth) Quadrophonic sound is alive and well and making money for its inventor.

be alive with sth

to be covered with or full of something that is moving • Don't sit there – the grass is alive with ants.

eat sb alive

to criticize someone very angrily • If we get our facts wrong we'll be eaten alive by the press.

skin sb alive

to punish someone very severely • Sharon will skin me alive if I'm late.

all

all in all

thinking about all parts of a situation together • All in all, I think we can say the visit was a success.

all or nothing

completely or not at all • If she can't be the best she won't even compete. It's all or nothing with her. • Tom has an all or nothing approach to relationships.

all told

in total • There were 550 people there, all told.

be all in old-fashioned

to be very tired and unable to do any more • I've had six children to look after today and I'm all in.

be all over sb

to touch and kiss someone sexually again and again in a public situation • He was all over her at the party last night. • (humorous) It was disgusting, he was all over her like a rash.

be all over the shop British, informal be all over the lot American, informal

1 to be scattered in a lot of different places

• What have you been doing with your clothes? They're all over the shop!

2 to be confused and badly organized • I've been so unimpressed by their campaign. They're all over the shop. • How can I tell what's the best deal when lending rates are all over the lot?

be all sweetness and light

to be very pleasant and friendly, especially when other people are not expecting you to be • I was expecting her to be in a foul mood but she was all sweetness and light.

all is sweetness and light if all is sweetness and light, everyone is being friendly and pleasant with each other, especially when this was not expected • They had a furious argument last night but this morning all was sweetness and light.

not be all there informal

to be slightly crazy • Some of the things she said made me think she's not quite all there.

be all very well be all well and good

if you say that something is all very well, you mean that although it is good in some ways, it is bad in some ways too • (usually

+ but) Electric heating is all very well, but what happens if there's a power cut?

be as [fast/hot/thin etc.] as all get out

American & Australian, informal to be extremely fast, hot, thin etc. • He's a terrific runner – as fast as all get out.

be [faster/hotter/thinner etc.] than all get out • It's hotter than all get out (= extremely hot) in here.

for all sb cares informal

if you say that someone can do something unpleasant for all you care, you mean that you do not care about what happens to them • She can go to hell for all I care.

for all sb knows informal

if you say that a situation could be true for all you know, you are emphasizing that you do not know anything about it • Heidi could be married with ten children for all I know! We haven't spoken for years.

give your all

to do everything you can in order to achieve something • You've really got to give your all in the championships.

give it your all

to do everything you can in order to achieve something • I want the job badly and I'm prepared to give it my all.

go all out

to use all your effort and energy to achieve something • (often + to do sth) They went all out to make the party a success. • (often + for) The team is going all out for victory.

all-out • (always before noun) We made an all-out effort to finish decorating the hall by the end of the weekend.

it's all (that) sb can do to do sth

if it's all someone can do to do something, they just manage to do it although it is difficult • It was all I could do to stop myself screaming with pain.

It's all the same to me. British, American & Australian

It's all one to me. Australian

something that you say when it is not important to you what happens • 'Would you prefer to go out for a meal or eat in?'
'It's all the same to me.'

That's sb all over! informal

something that you say when you are talking about something bad that someone has done and you want to say that it is typical of their character • She's always complaining. That's Claire all over:

That's all she wrote! American, informal something that you say when something has come to an end and there is nothing more that you can say about it • We went out twice – once to the movies and once to a restaurant and that's all she wrote.

to cap/crown/top it all

something that you say when you want to tell someone the worst event in a series of bad events that has happened to you • He spilled red wine on the carpet, insulted my mother, and to cap it all, broke my favourite vase.

alley

be (right) up sb's alley informal be (right) down sb's alley American &

Australian, informal

if something is right up someone's alley, it is exactly the type of thing that they know about or like to do • The job should be right up Steve's alley – working with computers, software and stuff.

all-rounder

an all-rounder British & Australian

someone who is good at many different things, especially in sport • The most recent member of the England team is a good all-rounder.

all-singing

all-singing, all-dancing humorous

very modern and technically advanced
• She showed us the new all-singing, all-dancing graphics software she'd bought for her computer.

alma mater

your alma mater formal

the school, college, or university where you studied • She has been offered the position of professor of international economic policy at Princeton, her alma mater.

the alma mater American

the official song of a school, college, or university • We ended our class reunion by singing the alma mater.

alone

go it alone

to do something by yourself and without help from other people • Honda has chosen to go it alone rather than set up a joint venture with an American partner.

leave/let well alone British, American & Australian

leave/let well enough alone American

to leave something the way it is, because trying to improve it might make it worse • In cases of back trouble, it's difficult to know whether to operate or leave well alone. • I'm not doing any more on that painting — it's time to let well enough alone.

altogether

in the altogether humorous

naked • He was just standing there in the altogether.

amber

an amber gambler British, informal

someone who drives very fast past the lights that control traffic when the signal is about to tell them to stop • She's an impatient driver – a bit of an amber gambler.

ambulance

an ambulance chaser informal

a lawyer who finds work by persuading people who have been hurt in accidents to ask for money from the person who injured them • He was a notorious ambulance chaser. He made millions out of other people's misfortunes.

American

be as American as apple pie

to be typically American • Country and western music is as American as apple pie.

amiss

not go amiss British, American & Australian, informal not come amiss British & Australian, informal

if something would not go amiss, it would be useful and might help to improve a situation • (usually in conditional tenses) A word of apology would not go amiss. • Some extra helpers never come amiss.

amour propre

amour propre formal

the good feelings and respect you have for yourself • The critics' negative reaction to his first novel wounded his amour propre.

another

live to fight another day

to lose a fight or competition but not be completely defeated and therefore be able to try again in the future • The antipollution campaigners lost the debate but lived to fight another day.

answer

sb's answer to sb/sth

someone or something that is just as good as a more famous person or thing in the place where it comes from • The Kennedy clan was America's answer to the royal families of Europe.

the answer to sb's prayers

someone or something that someone has needed very much for a long time • A new supermarket delivery service was the answer to my prayers.

have a lot to answer for

to be the main cause of a problem or an unpleasant situation • People who sell drugs to kids have a lot to answer for.

ante

raise/up the ante

to increase your demands or to increase the risks in a situation, in order to achieve a better result The ante is an amount of money that must be paid in card games before each part of the game can continue. • The government has upped the ante by refusing to negotiate until a ceasefire has been agreed.

ants

have ants in your pants humorous

to not be able to keep still because you are very excited or worried about something

• She's got ants in her pants because she's going to a party tonight.

anybody

anybody who is anybody humorous

if anybody who is anybody is doing something, all the most famous and important people are doing that thing • Anybody who is anybody will be at the Queen's birthday celebrations.

go ape informal go apeshit taboo

to become very angry • Vicky'll go ape when she sees this mess.

apology

be an apology for sth humorous

to be a very bad example of something • That old thing is an apology for a car.

appearances

keep up appearances

to hide your personal or financial problems from other people by continuing to live and behave in the same way that you did in the past • Simply keeping up appearances was stretching their resources to the limit.

appetite

whet sb's appetite

if an experience whets someone's appetite for something, it makes them want more of it • That first flying lesson whetted her appetite. • (often + for) I did a short course last year, and it's whetted my appetite for study.

apple

An apple a day keeps the doctor away.

old-fashioned

something that you say which means eating an apple every day will keep you healthy • If 'an apple a day keeps the doctor away,' then why have I got this terrible cold?

the apple of sb's eye

the person who someone loves most and is very proud of • His youngest son was the apple of his eye.

a bad/rotten apple

one bad person in a group of people who are good • You'll find the occasional rotten apple in every organization.

applecart

upset the applecart

to cause trouble, especially by spoiling someone's plans • I don't want to upset the applecart now by asking you to change the date for the meeting.

apple-pie

be in apple-pie order

to be very tidy and in good order • Wendy kept all her belongings in apple-pie order.

apples

apples and oranges American

if two people or things are apples and oranges, they are completely different • You can't compare inner city schools and schools in the suburbs—they're apples and oranges.

How do you like them apples!

- 1 American & Australian, informal something that you say when you want someone to know how clever or successful you are, especially when you have done something better than they have You know that girl we were talking to last night with the long blond hair? Well, I got her number. How do you like them apples!
- 2 American & Australian, informal something that you say to show you are surprised or disappointed by something that has happened • So Marilyn has moved to Florida? Well, how do you like them apples!

She'll be apples. Australian, informal She's apples. Australian, informal something that you say in order to tell someone that they do not need to worry and that everything will happen as it should • 'What if it rains for the wedding?' 'Don't worry, she'll be apples.'

aprés-ski

aprés-ski

the social activities that take place in the evening at hotels and restaurants in towns where people go to ski • If it's aprés-ski you're after, this town with its hundred or so bars is the resort for you. • Bars and dancing are among the aprés-ski activities for the adults.

a priori

a priori formal

accepted without being thought about or questioned • The existence of God is a priori for most people with a religious faith. • In a court of law, a priori assumptions about guilt and innocence can be dangerous.

argy-bargy

argy-bargy British, informal

loud arguments • Did you hear all that argy-bargy outside the Kingston Arms last night?

ark

The ark is a large wooden ship in a story from the Bible. It is used in the following phrases connected with things that are old or old-fashioned.

be out of the ark British & Australian to be very old-fashioned • My granny's hat was straight out of the ark.

went/had gone out with the ark British

& Australian, humorous if an object or method went out with the ark, it is not used any more • These old manual printing presses went out with the ark – everything's computerized these days.

arm

chance your arm British & Australian, informal

to take a risk in order to get something that you want • Aren't you chancing your arm a bit giving up a secure job to start a business?

cost (sb) an arm and a leg informal X to be very expensive • These opera tickets cost us an arm and a leg!

hold/keep sb at arm's length

to not allow someone to become too friendly with you • I always had the feeling she was keeping me at arm's length.

put the arm on sb American, informal to try to force someone to do something

• If he won't pay up, we'll get Rick to put the arm on him.

twist sb's arm

to persuade someone to do something that they do not want to do • He might help us with the painting if you twist his arm. • (humorous) 'Have a cream cake?' 'Oh, go on then, if you twist my arm.'

armed

be armed to the teeth

if a person or a country is armed to the teeth, they have many weapons • We walked past a group of soldiers, armed to the teeth.

armpit

be the armpit of the world/universe

humorous

to be a very unpleasant and often dirty place • For some people it's an exciting, big city – for others it's the armpit of the universe.

arms

be up in arms

to be very angry • (often + about) The students are up in arms about the standard of teaching at the college.
• (often + over) Local traders are up in arms over the effect of the new parking regulations on their businesses.

around

have been around (a bit) informal

if someone has been around, they have had a lot of experience of life and know a lot of things • She's been around a bit – she should know how to look after herself.

arco

arse about face British & Australian, very informal

if something is arse about face, it is placed or arranged the opposite way to the way it should be • No wonder it doesn't look right, mate, you've got the whole frame in arse about face.

arse over tip British, very informal arse over tit British & Australian, very informal

if you go arse over tip, you turn upside down with your feet above your head • He put on the front brake too hard and went arse over tip over the handlebars.

be (right) up sb's arse British, very informal

to be driving too close to the car in front of you • That police car's been up my arse since we left London.

kiss/lick sb's arse British & Australian, taboo

to try too hard to please someone and to agree with everything they say, in a way which other people find unpleasant • I'm not interested in promotion if you have to lick the boss's arse to get it.

arse-licker/kisser British & Australian, taboo • He surrounded himself with arselickers.

lick my arse! British & Australian, taboo something that you say in order to tell someone that you will not do what they want you to • 'I think you'd better leave right now.' 'Lick my arse!'

In the following phrases, arse is used in British and Australian English, and ass in American English.

can't tell your arse from your elbow very informal

not know your arse from your elbow very informal

if you can't tell your arse from your elbow, you are stupid and become confused about simple things • It's no good asking him to organize anything – he can't tell his arse from his elbow.

get your arse in gear very informal

to force yourself to start working or to hurry • If she doesn't get her arse in gear she'll be late again.

get off your arse very informal

to stop being lazy and start doing something • Tell that lazy sod to get off his arse and get some work done!

Kiss my arse! taboo

something that you say in order to tell someone that you will not do what they want you to • He asked for money, and I told him he could kiss my arse!

Move/Shift your arse! very informal something that you say to tell someone to hurry or to get out of your way • Shift your arse! We're late.

My arse! very informal

something that you say after repeating something someone has just said, in order to show that you do not believe it

• 'She's offering good money.' 'Good money, my arse! I can't feed my kids on that!'

Shove/Stick sth up your arse! taboo

something that you say in order to tell someone in a very angry way that you do not want or need something they could give you • Tell Mr Peabody he can take his job and shove it up his arse!

sit on your arse very informal

to do nothing, especially when other people are busy or need your help • It's time you stopped sitting on your arse, and found yourself a job.

talk out of your arse very informal talk through your arse very informal

to say things which are stupid or wrong
• She says she'll sue us, but she's talking out of her arse.

arsed

can't be arsed British, taboo

if you can't be arsed, you will not make the necessary effort to do something • (often + to do sth) I can't be arsed to go to the party. It's too far away.

article

an article of faith X

something that someone believes very strongly without thinking about whether it could be wrong • It was an article of faith with Mona that everything she used should be recycled.

arty-farty

arty-farty British, informal artsy-fartsy American, informal something or someone that is arty-farty tries too hard to seem connected with serious art, and is silly or boring because of this • Rob's friends were a couple of arty-farty types who talked endlessly about the decline of the modern American novel.

as

as is

exactly as something is without any changes or improvements made to it • I'll have to hand this report in as is – there's no time to update it.

ashes

rake over the ashes

to think about or to talk about unpleasant events from the past Ashes are what is left of something after it has been destroyed by fire. • There is no point in raking over the ashes now, you did what you thought was right at the time.

ask

ask for it

if you say that someone who gets hurt or punished was asking for it, you mean that they deserved what happened to them • Picking a fight with those hooligans was really asking for it. • Fired? Well, she asked for it, didn't she?

Don't ask me. informal

something that you say when you do not know the answer to a question • 'Who's in charge round here?' 'Don't ask me. I'm as confused as you.' • (often + question word) She's decided to dye her hair bright green, don't ask me why.

I ask you! informal something that you say in order to show your surprise or anger at something someone has done • They stayed for a month and left without even saying thank you! Well, I ask you!

You may well ask! humorous

Well may you ask! humorous, formal something that you say when someone asks you about something which you think is strange, funny, or annoying • 'Why is Timothy sitting in the kitchen with a saucepan balanced on top of his head?' 'You may well ask!' • 'What happened to the money you gave Sharon to buy food?' 'Well may you ask! She says she lost it.'

asking

be sb's for the asking

if something is someone's for the asking, they only have to ask for it and it will be given to them • The contract was Ron's for the asking.

be asking for trouble X

to behave stupidly in a way that is likely to cause problems for you • Drinking and driving is just asking for trouble.

asleep

be asleep at the switch American

if someone is asleep at the switch, they are not ready to act quickly to avoid problems and do their job well • Let's face it, if employees were stealing all that money, then management was asleep at the switch.

fall asleep at the switch • The Party was simply too confident of victory and fell asleep at the switch.

aspersions

cast aspersions on sb/sth formal

to criticize someone or someone's character • His opponents cast aspersions on his patriotism.

ass

sb's ass is on the line American, very

informal

if someone's ass is on the line, they are in a situation where they will be blamed if things go wrong • I hope this conference is a success—my ass is on the line here.

ass over teacup/teakettle American, very informal

if you go ass over teacup, you turn upside down with your feet above your head • She slipped and fell ass over teakettle down the hill.

be on sb's ass

1 American, very informal! to annoy someone by always watching what they are doing and criticizing them • She was on my ass all morning telling me the things I was doing wrong. 2 American, very informal! to be driving too close to the car in front of you
 • There's a Mercedes on my ass and he's making me nervous.

bust your ass American, very informal to work very hard • He'll just have to bust his ass to make sure the job is finished on time.

chew sb's ass (out) American, very informal

to speak or shout angrily at someone because they have done something wrong • His boss will chew his ass if he doesn't finish the report on time.

haul ass American, very informal to move very quickly, especially in order to escape • When the shooting started we hauled ass out of there.

kick (sb's) ass mainly American, very informal

to punish someone or to defeat someone with a lot of force • The General saw the conflict as a chance for the Marines to go in and kick ass. • We want to go into the game and kick some ass.

kiss (sb's) ass American, very informal to try too hard to please someone and to agree with everything they say, in a way which other people find unpleasant • If you want promotion around here, you're going to have to kiss ass.

ass-kisser American, taboo • They're just a load of ass-kissers!

get sb's ass American, very informal to find someone and punish them for something they have done • Don't worry – the cops'll get that maniac's ass.

You bet your (sweet) ass! American, very informal something that you say in order to emphasize what you have said • You bet your ass I feel bad about her leaving. • You can bet your sweet ass he's guilty!

make an ass of yourself

to behave in a silly way • Simon drank too much and made a complete ass of himself at the party.

astray

lead sb astray

- 1 to influence someone so that they do bad things • Parents always worry about their children being led astray by unsuitable friends.
- 2 to cause someone to make a mistake
  The police were led astray by false information from one of the witnesses.

at

be at it informal

- 1 informal if two people are at it, they are having sex • They're at it the whole time!
- 2 informal if two or more people are at it, they are talking too much in a way that annoys other people • I wish they'd shut up-they've been at it all morning.

atmosphere

you could cut the atmosphere with a knife

something that you say to describe a situation in which everyone is feeling very angry or nervous and you feel that something unpleasant could soon happen • There was a lot of tension between Diane and Carol; you could cut the atmosphere in that room with a knife.

au courant

au courant

- 1 formal if you are au courant, you have the most recent information about something or someone • (usually + with) I bought a copy of Hello magazine in an attempt to be au courant with the lives of the rich and famous.
- 2 mainly American modern and fashionable • If you want to keep your au courant status this winter, you won't be wearing black.

au fait

be au fait with sth

to know a lot about a subject • Are you au fait with the latest developments in computer technology?

au naturel

au naturel formal

1 without clothes or without make-up (= substances that women put on their faces to improve their appearance) • I thought I'd leave off the lipstick for a couple of days and go au naturel.

2 without having been cooked, or cooked in a very simple way with nothing added · You can stew these berries briefly with a little sugar or you can eat them au naturel.

automatic

on automatic pilot informal on autopilot informal

if you are on automatic pilot, or do something on automatic pilot, you do something without thinking about what you are doing, usually because you have done it many times before . By the second week of the election campaign she was making all her speeches on automatic pilot.

autumn

autumn years literary

the later years of a person's life. especially after they have stopped working • He spent his autumn years surrounded by family and friends.

avant-garde

the avant-garde

the artists, writers, musicians etc. of any period whose work is very modern and very different to what has been done before . Since 1948, the exhibition has been a major showcase for the avantgarde.

avant-garde They are currently exhibiting a collection of postwar avantgarde art from Japan.

awkward

an awkward customer

a person, group, or thing that causes problems, usually because they will not behave in the way you want or expect them to . There's usually at least one awkward customer who insists on doing everything according to the rule book.

axe

Ax is the American spelling of axe.

get the axe be given the axe

- 1 if a person gets the axe, they lose their job . Senior staff are more likely to get the axe because the company can't afford their high salaries.
- 2 if a plan or a service gets the axe, it is stopped · My research project was the first thing to be given the ax when the new boss took over

have an axe to grind

to have a strong opinion about something, which you are often trying to persuade other people is correct . As a novelist, he has no political axe to grind.

babe

a babe in the woods American &

Australian

someone who has not had much experience of life and trusts other people too easily • When it comes to dealing with men, she's a babe in the woods.

baby

a baby boomer mainly American

someone who was born between 1945 and 1965, a period in which a lot of babies were born • Clinton was the first baby boomer in the White House. • The ads are supposed to appeal to the baby boomer generation.

the baby blues

a feeling of sadness that some women experience after they have given birth to a baby • According to this article, as many as 60% of women suffer from the baby blues.

cry like a baby

to cry a lot • When I heard that she was safe, I cried like a baby.

throw the baby out with the bath water

to get rid of the good parts as well as the bad parts of something when you are trying to improve it • I don't think we should throw the baby out with the bath water. There are some good features of the present system that I think we should retain.

back

back and forth

if someone or something moves back and forth between two places, they move from one place to the other place again and again • Nurses went back and forth among the wounded, bringing food and medicine.

back-to-back mainly American

back-to-back events happen one after the other • He appeared in three back-to-back interviews on television last night. • His idea of a good time is to go to three French movies back-to-back.

at the back of your mind

if a thought that worries you is at the back of your mind, it is always in your mind although you do not spend time thinking about it • It's always at the back of my mind that the illness could recur.

at/in the back of beyond

in a place which is far away from other towns and difficult to get to • He lives in some tiny, remote village in the back of beyond.

be fed up/sick to the back teeth $\mathit{British}$

& Australian, informal

to be bored or angry because a bad situation has continued for too long or a subject has been discussed too much • (often + with) He's been treating me badly for two years and, basically, I'm fed up to the back teeth with it. • (often + of) You're probably sick to the back teeth of hearing about my problems!

be on sb's back informal

to keep asking someone to do something, or to keep criticizing someone in a way that annoys them • He's still on my back about those end of term reports.

be on the back burner

if a plan is on the back burner, no one is dealing with it at present, but it has not been completely forgotten • For the moment, strike action is on the back burner.

put sth on the back burner • Plans for a new sports complex have been put on the back burner.

be [glad/happy/pleased etc.] to see the back of sb/sth

to be pleased when someone leaves or when something ends because you did not like them • She was an absolute pain when she stayed with us and we were both really pleased to see the back of her. • I'll be glad to see the back of this thesis. It's been going on far too long.

behind sb's back

if you do something behind someone's back, you do it without them knowing, in a way which is unfair • I don't want to talk about it behind his back. • She was accused of going behind her colleagues' backs to talk to management.

break your back informal

to put a lot of effort into doing something • (often + doing sth) I'm not going to break my back working for £120 a week!

by/through the back door

not in a direct, official, or honest way • He accused the government of privatizing the health service through the back door.

back-door • The minister dismissed suggestions that the move was a back-door attempt to introduce national identity cards.

could do sth with one arm/hand tied behind their back informal

if someone could do something with one hand tied behind their back, they can do it very easily • Her part in the film was not very demanding – she could have played it with one hand tied behind her back

fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp

if you say you could write what you know about a subject on the back of a postage stamp, you mean you know very little about that subject • What I know about car maintenance could be written on the back of a postage stamp.

get sb off your back informal

to stop someone trying to force you to do something, or to stop someone criticizing you • I had to sell my house to get the creditors off my back.

get off sb's back informal • Can't you just get off his back and let him rest for a while?

get/put sb's back up informal

to do or say something which annoys someone When a cat feels angry it raises its back. • She put my back up immediately by interrupting everything I said.

have your back against/to the wall

to have very serious problems which limit the ways in which you can act • With rising labour costs, industry has its back to the wall. • When his back was against the wall he became very aggressive.

know sth like the back of your hand informal

to know a place very well • He knew East London like the back of his hand.

off the back of a lorry British, humorous off the back of a truck Australian.

humorous

if you say that you got something off the back of a lorry, you mean that it was probably stolen • I don't know where he gets this stuff – probably off the back of a lorry. • There's a new stereo too which, I suspect, fell off the back of a lorry.

put your back into sth

to use a lot of physical effort to try to do something • You could dig this plot in an afternoon if you put your back into it.

ride on the back of sth

to use something successful which already exists or has already happened in order to achieve something else • Poetry performances are riding on the back of the popularity of stand-up comedy.

stab sb in the back to do something harmful to someone who trusted you • He had been lied to, stabbed in the back, by people he thought were his friends.

a stab in the back • To have your brother tell the press about your private life. That must feel like a real stab in the back.

take a back seat

- if an activity takes a back seat, you spend less time doing that than other things He's been putting all his energies into
  - house-hunting recently so his studies have had to take a back seat. (sometimes + to) In my early twenties, politics very much took a back seat to sport and socializing.
- 2 to let other people take a more active and responsible part in an organization or a situation • I was content to take a back seat and let the rest of my family deal with the crisis.

talk out of the back of your head British & Australian, informal to talk nonsense • (usually in continuous tenses) He's talking out of the back of his head – you can't get a flight to Australia for less than £500 these days.

turn your back on sb X

to refuse to help someone • These people are appealing to our government to help them. We can't just turn our backs on them.

turn your back on sth

to stop being involved in something • Spain cannot afford to turn its back on tourism.

watch your back informal

to be careful of the people around you, making sure that they do nothing to harm you • It's a rough neighbourhood so watch your back when you're walking around the streets.

when/while sb's back is turned

while someone is somewhere else or unable to notice what is happening • When my mother's back was turned, my grandmother would give me chocolates.

the minute sb's back is turned • The minute the teacher's back is turned (= as soon as she cannot see them), they start messing around and throwing things at each other.

You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine.

something that you say to tell someone that you will help them if they will help you • I do have some information you might be interested in, but what can you offer me in return? You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

backing

backing and filling American

continuously changing or delaying a decision • After much backing and filling she finally agreed to hand over the company's books.

backroom

a backroom boy informal

someone who does a lot of work in the type of job where they are not often seen by the public • (often plural) Editors are very much the backroom boys of the film world.

backs

live off the backs of sb

to use what other people produce in order to live, without giving them anything in exchange • He was one of the wealthiest dictators of all time and he lived off the backs of the people.

backseat

a backseat driver

- 1 a passenger in a car who continuously tells the driver how they should drive Mike's a real backseat driver and I find it so irritating.
- 2 mainly American someone who expects to control things although it is not their responsibility to do this • Tell her you're in charge now. It's time she stopped being a backseat driver:

backside

get off your backside British &

Australian, very informal

to stop being lazy and start doing something • It's time the government got off its backside and did something about improving the railways.

sit (around) on your backside British & Australian, very informal to do nothing, especially when other people are busy or need your help • How do people expect things to change if they just sit on their backsides and don't bother to vote?

backward

not be backward in coming forward

British & Australian, humorous to be confident and always ready to express an opinion • If he doesn't like it, he'll tell you. He's not exactly backward in coming forward.

without a backward glance

if you leave without a backward glance, you are completely happy to leave and have no sad feelings about it • She left the city she had lived in all her life without a backward glance.

backwards

bend/lean over backwards to do sth British. American & Australian fall over backwards to do sth Australian to try very hard to do something, especially to help or please someone else

Banks are bending over backwards to help those in difficulties.

know sth backwards British & Australian know sth backwards and forwards

American

if you know a subject or a piece of writing backwards, you know it very well • Ed knows the play backwards – he's seen it eight or nine times. • After 30 years in the business she knows it backwards and forwards.

bacon

bring home the bacon informal

- 1 to earn money to live on If Jo's going to be at home looking after the kids, someone needs to bring home the bacon.
- 2 to do something successfully, especially to win a game or race • Racegoers crowded the stand to see him bring home the bacon. (= win the race)
- save sb's bacon mainly British, informal to save someone from failure or difficulties You saved my bacon there. I'd probably have lost my job if you hadn't been ready with an explanation.

bad

bad blood

feelings of hate between people because of arguments in the past • (often + between) Police say the arson attack may have been the result of bad blood between the two families.

a bad egg mainly American, informal someone who behaves in a bad or dishonest way • He's a bad egg - don't believe anything he says.

A bad workman blames his tools.

something that you say when someone blames the objects they are using for their own mistakes • 'This oven burns everything.' 'You know what they say, a bad workman blames his tools.'

be bad news

to be unpleasant and to have a bad effect on other people or situations • I've worked with her in the past and I'm telling you she's bad news. • (often + for) The government's failure to be firm on air quality is bad news for the environment.

be in a bad way British & Australian to be ill, unhappy, or in a bad state • She was thin and tired-looking and generally in a bad way. • After 17 years of Conservative government, the country

in a bad way. • After 17 years of Conservative government, the country was in a bad way. be in bad odour with sb British &

Australian, old-fashioned

be in bad odor with sb American, oldfashioned

if you are in bad odour with someone, they are angry with you because of something you have done • (often + with) He's in bad odour with his business partners for having pulled out of the deal at the last minute.

give sth/sb a bad name

to cause people to lose respect for something or someone • A few badly behaved football fans give all football supporters a bad name.

have a bad name • Foreign aid has a bad name because it often fails to help the people most in need.

give sth up as a bad job

to stop doing something because you do not feel it is worth continuing • After three attempts to explain the joke I gave it up as a bad job.

go from bad to worse

if a situation goes from bad to worse, it gets worse than it already was • The troubles started when John lost his job last March and things have gone from bad to worse ever since.

have a bad hair day

- 1 humorous to not feel attractive or happy all day because you cannot make your hair look nice • I'm having a bad hair day today – I just couldn't do a thing with it this morning.
- 2 humorous if a machine has a bad hair day, it does not work as it should all day
  • My computer's having a bad hair day.

have got it bad informal, humorous

to be very much in love • He missed the football game to see her – he must have got it had!

leave a bad taste in your mouth X

if an experience leaves a bad taste in your mouth, you have an unpleasant memory of it • I think we all felt that he'd been treated unfairly and it left a bad taste in people's mouths.

take the bad with the good

to accept the unpleasant parts of a situation as well as the pleasant parts • Bringing up children certainly has its problems, but you learn to take the bad with the good.

turn up like a bad penny old-fashioned to arrive at a place or event where you are not wanted • She'll turn up again, like a bad penny, just you see.

bad-mouth X

bad-mouth sb/sth

to say unpleasant things about someone or something, especially in order to spoil other people's opinions of them • She's always bad-mouthing her colleagues.
• Bad-mouthing the police is hardly an original occupation.

bag

bag and baggage slightly formal

with all the things that you own • We were told we'd have to be out of the house, bag and baggage. in a week's time.

sb's bag of tricks

all the clever methods by which someone achieves something • It remains to be seen what this side will pull out of their bag of tricks for the semi-final.

a bag lady

a woman who has no home and carries everything she owns around with her in plastic bags • Did you see that bag lady looking through the rubbish at the side of the road?

a bag of bones informal

a person or animal that is extremely thin
• All the plumpness she'd acquired in middle age had gone. She was a bag of bones.

not be your bag informal

to not be something that you are interested in • Country music isn't really my bag.

in the bag informal

if something is in the bag, you are certain to get it or to achieve it someone who hunts puts what they have killed in a bag. • Once we'd scored the third goal, the match was pretty much in the bag. • Nobody knows who'll get the job, despite rumours that Keating has it in the bag.

pull something out of the bag

to suddenly do something which solves a problem or improves a bad situation • They're really going to have to pull something out of the bag tonight if they want to qualify for the championship.

bags

pack your bags

to leave a place or a job and not return
• The Chief of Police has defied the order to pack his bags.

bait

Fish or cut bait. American

something that you say to someone when you want them to make a decision and take action without any more delay • Your relationship's going nowhere. It's time to fish or cut bait.

Bait is a small amount of food put onto a hook in order to catch a fish. It is used in the following phrases to mean something that is being said or offered which makes people react.

rise to the bait

to react to something that someone has said in exactly the way that they wanted you to react, usually by becoming angry • (often negative) Anthony keeps saying that women make bad drivers but I refuse to rise to the bait.

swallow/take the bait

to accept something that is only being offered to you so that you will do something • The offer of a free radio with every television proved very popular, and hundreds of shoppers swallowed the bait.

baker

a baker's dozen old-fashioned

thirteen • The judges selected a baker's dozen of promising entries from the hundreds they received.

balance

be/hang in the balance

if something hangs in the balance, no one knows whether it will continue to exist in the future or what will happen to it • Judd's career hung in the balance last night after his team lost their sixth successive game. • The financial situation is by no means resolved and the club's future is still very much in the balance.

on balance

after thinking about all the different facts or opinions • On balance, I would say that it hasn't been a bad year. • The report found that, on balance, most people would prefer a female doctor to a male one.

swing/tip the balance

to make something more likely to happen, or to make someone more likely to succeed • They were both well-qualified for the job but Ian had more experience and that tipped the balance. • The success of this film could tip the balance in favour of other British films in the future.

throw sb off balance

to confuse or upset someone for a short time by saying or doing something that they are not expecting • (usually passive) I wasn't expecting any interaction with the audience and was thrown off balance by his question.

bald

be as bald as a coot humorous

to be completely bald (= having no hair on your head) \( \hat{\alpha} \) A coot is a small, dark grey bird with a circle of white feathers on its head. • Then he took off his hat and he was as bald as a coot.

ball

a ball and chain

something which limits your freedom

A ball and chain was a heavy metal ball that was fastened to a prisoner's leg by a chain, used to stop them moving.

 The house had become a ball and chain – we couldn't sell it and neither could we rent it out.

a ball-breaker British & Australian, very informal

a woman who does not like men and is unpleasant towards them • I don't think you're going to like your new flat mate – she's a bit of a ball-breaker.

the ball is in sb's court

if the ball is in someone's court, they have to do something before any progress can be made in a situation in In a game of tennis, if the ball is in your court then it is your turn to hit the ball. • I've told him he can have his job back if he apologizes. The ball's in his court now. put the ball in sb's court • This pay offer has put the ball firmly in the court of the union.

be no ball of fire American & Australian, informal

to lack energy and interest • It's a little ironic that he criticizes Bill for not being dynamic. He's no ball of fire himself.

be on the ball informal

to be quick to understand and to react to things • I rely on my co-driver to be on the ball. • I didn't sleep well last night and I'm not really on the ball today.

carry the ball American

to take control of an activity and do what is needed to get a piece of work done
• The people who carried the ball for his campaign were mainly volunteers.

drop the ball American, informal X

to make a mistake, especially by doing something in a stupid or careless way • For god's sake don't drop the ball – we're relying on you.

have a ball old-fashioned

to enjoy yourself very much • 'So how was the party last night?' 'It was wonderful—we had a ball!'

pick up/take the ball and run (with it)

mainly American

to take an idea or plan and develop it further • This is a good proposal. I think we should pick up the ball and run with it.

play ball informal .

to agree to do what someone asks you to do, or to agree to work with someone in order to achieve something together • (usually negative) Fourteen out of the fifteen nations have agreed to the new restrictions but one country still refuses to play ball.

set/start the ball rolling

to do something which starts an activity, or to start doing something in order to encourage other people to do the same • I've started the ball rolling by setting up a series of meetings. • The hospital appeal received a gift for $1 million to set the ball rolling.

keep the ball rolling • The product has been a great success, and we hope this advertising campaign will keep the ball rolling.

the whole ball of wax American,

informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • She started working on the project in '96 and within six months was running the whole ball of wax.

a whole new ball game

a totally different ball game

a completely different situation, often one which is difficult or which you know very little about • We'd done a lot of climbing in Scotland, but the Himalayas were a whole new ball game.

ballistic

go ballistic informal

to become very angry and start shouting or behaving violently • Apparently, he told Sandra that he'd been out for a drink with his ex-girlfriend and she went ballistic.

balloon

the balloon goes up

if the balloon goes up, a situation suddenly becomes very serious or unpleasant • The balloon went up last Friday when the scandal became public.

ballpark

a ballpark estimate/figure

a number which is only approximate, but which should be near to the correct number • We're expecting sales of the book to generate around $10 000 dollars, although obviously that's just a ballpark figure.

be in the same ballpark

to be of a similar amount or cost • Jamie makes over two hundred thousand dollars and I don't know exactly how much Tom makes but I guess it's in the same ballpark.

be in the (right) ballpark • 'And do you think the projected sales figures are realistic?' 'They're in the right ballpark.' (= they are close to the right amount)

balls

have sb by the balls very informal

to have someone in a situation where you have complete power over them • I owe them £5,000. They've got me by the balls.

balls-up

a balls-up British & Australian, very informal a situation in which everything goes wrong • The trip was a complete balls-up from beginning to end.

banana

a banana republic informal

a small, poor country with a weak or dishonest government • People fear that the country will become a banana republic if the economy doesn't pick up.

a banana skin British

something which causes or is very likely to cause embarrassing problems • The new tax has proved to be a banana skin for the government.

bananas

go bananas informal

to become very angry • She'll go bananas if she sees the room in this state.

band-aid X

a Band-Aid American

a temporary solution to a problem, or something that seems to be a solution but has no real effect Band-Aid is a trademark for a thin piece of sticky material used to cover small cuts on the body. • A few food and medical supplies were delivered to the region but it was little more than a Band-Aid.

Band-Aid American • He criticized what he called 'the government's Band-Aid approach' to serious environmental issues.

bandwagon

get/jump/leap on the bandwagon

to become involved in an activity which is successful so that you can get the advantages of it yourself • The success of the product led many companies to jump on the bandwagon. • Publishers are rushing to get on the CD-ROM bandwagon.

the bandwagon effect • The bandwagon effect accounts for the increasing number of girl groups on the pop scene.

bane

the bane of your life

someone or something that is always causing problems for you and upsetting you • I have a sister who's always getting into trouble and expecting me to sort her out. She's the bane of my life.

bang

Bang goes sth! informal

something that you say when you have just lost the opportunity to do something • I've just been told I'm working late this evening. Oh well, bang goes the cinema!

a bang up job American, informal a very successful piece of work • You've done a bang up job clearing out the garage.

be bang on informal X

to be exactly correct • You said she'd be in her early forties, didn't you? You were bang on.

go with a bang British & Australian, informal go over with a bang American, informal if an event, especially a party, goes with a bang, it is very exciting and successful A karaoke machine? That should help your party go with a bang!

not with a bang but with a whimper

literary

if something ends not with a bang but with a whimper, it ends in a disappointing way • The concert ended not with a bang but with a whimper, the rainforcing the performance to stop fifteen minutes early.

[more/a bigger etc.] bang for your buck American, informal

if something that you buy gives you more bang for your buck, you get more value for your money by buying this product than from buying any other (2) 'Buck', in American English is an informal way of saying 'dollar'. (= a unit of money in America) • If all you want is death-benefit cover, this type of insurance policy will give you more bang for your buck.

bank

not break the bank

to not be too expensive • And at £12.99 a bottle, this is a champagne that won't break the bank.

banner

under the banner of sth

if you do something under the banner of a belief or idea, you say that you are doing it in order to support that belief or idea • The pro-lifers are campaigning under the banner of traditional family values.

baptism

a baptism by/of fire

a very difficult first experience of something • I was given a million-dollar project to manage in my first month. It was a real baptism by fire.

bare

bare your heart/soul

to tell someone your secret thoughts and feelings • (often + to) We don't know each other that well. I certainly wouldn't bare my heart to her.

the bare bones

the most basic parts of something, without any detail • We believe we have the bare bones of an agreement. • Reduced to its bare bones, the theory states that animals adapt to suit their surroundings.

bare-bones • (always before noun) Even from this bare-bones plot summary, we can deduce that the story is highly implausible.

lay bare sth

to discover or tell people about something that was not previously known or was previously kept secret • It's been promoted as the biography that lays bare the truth behind the legend.

with your bare hands

without using any type of tool or weapon
• The court heard how Roberts strangled the woman with his bare hands.

bargain

into the bargain British, American & Australian

in the bargain American

in addition to the other facts previously talked about • Caffeine is a brainstimulant, does not have any beneficial effects on health and is mildly addictive into the bargain.

bargaining

a bargaining chip British, American & Australian

a bargaining counter British

something that you can use to make someone do what you want • The workers' strongest bargaining chip in the negotiations is the threat of strike action.

• Hostages were used as a hargaining

• Hostages were used as a bargaining counter during the seige.

bark

sb's bark is worse than their bite

if someone's bark is worse than their bite, they are not as unpleasant as they seem, and their actions are not as bad as their threats • I wouldn't be scared of her if I were you. Her bark's a lot worse than her bite.

barking

be barking mad British & Australian, oldfashioned to be crazy • You went swimming in the sea in the middle of winter? You must be barking mad!

be barking up the wrong tree informal

to be wrong about the reason for something or the way to achieve something • New evidence suggests that we have been barking up the wrong tree in our search for a cure.

barrel

not be a barrel of laughs informal to not be enjoyable • 'He's a bit serious, isn't he?' 'Yeah, not exactly a barrel of laughs.'

be more fun than a barrel of monkeys American

be as funny as a barrel of monkeys

American

to be very funny or enjoyable • Their show was one of the funniest I've ever seen – more fun than a barrel of monkeys!

have sb over a barrel

to put someone in a very difficult situation in which they have no choice about what to do • She knows I need the work, so she's got me over a barrel in terms of what she pays me.

scrape the barrel informal

to use something or someone that you do not want to use because nothing or no one else is available • (usually in continuous tenses) You know you're really scraping the barrel when you have to ask your old mother to come to the cinema with you.

bars

behind bars informal

in prison • He spent ten years behind bars after being convicted for armed robbery.

base

be off base American & Australian to be wrong • The company chairman dismissed the experts' report as completely off base.

touch base

to talk to someone in order to find out how they are or what they think about something • (usually + with) I had a really good time in Paris. I touched base with some old friends and made a few new ones.

bases

cover all the bases American & Australian

touch all the bases American

to deal with every part of a situation or activity • It's a pretty full report. I think we've covered all the bases.

bash

have a bash British & Australian,

informal

to try to do something, or to try an activity that you have not tried before • (often + at) I thought I'd have a bash at fixing the washing machine tonight. • I've never programmed a video before but I'll have a bash if you want.

basket

a basket case

- 1 informal someone who is crazy and unable to organize their life • She'll never get a job. She's a basket case.
- 2 a very poor country which needs economic help from other countries, or a business that is in a very bad financial situation • Twenty years ago the country was an economic basket case.

bat

not bat an eye/eyelash/eyelid

to not show any shock or surprise • 'So what did she say when you told her you were leaving?' 'She didn't bat an eyelid.'

go to bat for sb American & Australian to give help and support to someone who is in trouble, often by talking to someone else for them • Give me some decent evidence and I'll go to bat for you.

like a bat out of hell

if you go somewhere like a bat out of hell, you go very fast • He ran out of the building like a bat out of hell.

off your own bat British & Australian

if you do something off your own bat, you do it without anyone else telling you or asking you to do it • He chose to talk to the press off his own bat.

(right) off the bat American & Australian immediately • I could tell right off the bat there was something different about this man.

bated

with bated breath >

if you wait for something with bated breath, you feel very excited or anxious while you are waiting • 'His name wasn't by any chance, Max Peters?' Helena asked with bated breath. • We were waiting with baited breath for the prizes to be announced.

baton

pass the baton

to give responsibility for something important to another person in If someone running in a race passes the baton, they give a stick to the next person to run. • (often + to) Dougal resigns as the head of the treasury this month, passing the baton to one of his closest associates.

bats

have bats in the belfry old-fashioned

to be crazy • Don't tell anyone else I said that or they'll think I've got bats in the belfry.

batteries

recharge your batteries

to rest in order to get back your strength and energy • A week away would give you time to rest and recharge your batteries.

batting

be batting a thousand American

to do something extremely well and better than you had hoped to do it • Gloria felt she was batting a thousand. She'd got everything she asked for when she saw her boss.

battle

a battle of wills

a situation in which there are two competing people or groups, and both sides are equally determined to get what they want • I'm sure there was some point to the original dispute but it's become a battle of wills over the months.

a battle of wits

a situation in which two people or groups try to defeat each other by using their intelligence • (often + between) It appears that the battle of wits between the two negotiating teams is set to continue for some time.

the battle lines are drawn

something that you say when two arguing groups have discovered exactly what they disagree about, and are ready to fight each other • The battle lines are drawn for the leadership contest.

the battle of the sexes

the disagreements and fight for power that exist between men and women • So has equality brought an end to the battle of the sexes?

bay

keep sth/sb at bay

to prevent something or someone unpleasant from coming too near you or harming you • If we can keep the rabbits at bay, we should have a good crop of vegetables in the garden. • For me, overeating is a way of keeping my feelings at bay.

be

be that as it may formal

something that you say which means although you accept a piece of information as a fact, it does not make you think differently about the subject that you are discussing • He certainly was under pressure at the time. Be that as it may, he was still wrong to react in the way that he did.

bead

draw/take a bead on sb/sth American

to aim a gun at someone or something • He drew a bead on the last truck in line and fired at the fuel tank.

beady

have your beady eye on sth/sb humorous to watch someone or something very carefully • We'd better not talk – Miss Stricket's got her beady eye on us.

be-all

the be-all and end-all

the most important thing Def This phrase comes from the play Macbeth by William Shakespeare. • (often + of) It would be wrong to see Manhattan as the be-all and end-all of the financial world. • We all agreed that winning was not the be-all and end-all.

beam

be off beam British & Australian

to be wrong • Overall the article was wellwritten although one or two points that she made were a little off beam. • I'm afraid your calculations are way off beam.

bean

a bean counter informal

an impolite way of describing someone who is responsible for the financial decisions within a company • When decisions that affect people's lives are in the hands of bean counters, it's bad news.

not have a bean British & Australian

to have no money • Most people in the area are unemployed and don't have a bean to spend.

beans

not know beans about sth American &

Australian, informal

to know nothing about something • I don't know beans about computers – I've never even used one.

spill the beans

to tell people secret information • It was then that she threatened to spill the beans about her affair with the president.

bear

bear testimony/witness to sth formal

if something bears testimony to a fact, it proves that it is true • The numerous awards on his walls bear witness to his great success.

a bear hug

an action in which you put your arms tightly around someone and hold them close to you in order to show them affection • Her cousin gave her an affectionate bear hug which almost took her breath away.

be like a bear with a sore head British &

Australian, humorous

to be in a bad mood which causes you to treat other people badly and complain a lot . If his newspaper doesn't arrive by breakfast time he's like a bear with a sore head.

bring sth to bear formal

to use influence, arguments, or threats in order to change a situation • (often + on) Pressure should be brought to bear on the illegal regime and support given to the resistance.

beast

a beast of burden literary

a large animal, such as a donkey (= an animal like a small horse with long ears), which is used for pulling vehicles or carrying heavy loads . Huskies are traditionally used in the Arctic as beasts of hurden

beat

beat sb to it informal

to do something before someone else does it . I was just about to open some wine but I see you've beaten me to it.

Beat it! mainly American, informal

a rude way of telling someone to go away

· OK vou kids, beat it!

If you can't beat 'em, (join 'em)!

informal

something that you say when you decide to do something bad because other people are getting an advantage from doing it and you cannot stop them. . If everyone else is making a bit of money out of it I will too. If you can't beat 'em, join 'em, is what I say.

beaten

be off the beaten track British. American & Australian

be off the beaten path American

if a place is off the beaten track, not many people go there . Unfortunately, because the gallery's a bit off the beaten track, it doesn't get many visitors.

beating

take a beating

to be defeated or to lose a lot of money · The Knicks really took a beating in last night's game. . The company took a beating last year, losing $50 million in profits.

beats

(it) beats me informal

something that you say when you cannot understand something . (often + question word) It beats me how he managed to survive for three weeks alone in the mountains.

what beats me informal . What beats me is how he persuaded Pam to lend him the money.

That beats everything! British, American & Australian, informal

That beats all! American, informal something that you say when something has surprised you, or you find something hard to believe . I can't believe he expected you to drive all that way in the middle of the night. That beats everything!

beau monde

the beau monde formal

rich and fashionable people . She took no interest in the glittering beau monde that she had married into.

beauty

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

something that you say which means that each person has their own opinion about what or who is beautiful . Personally, I can't understand why she finds him attractive, but they do say beauty is in the eve of the beholder.

Beauty is only skin deep.

something that you say which means a person's character is more important than their appearance . She may not be conventionally pretty but you know what they say, beauty's only skin deep.

sb's beauty sleep humorous

the sleep that someone needs in order to feel healthy and look attractive • If you don't mind, I'm going to bed now. I have to get my beauty sleep.

beck

be at sb's beck and call

to be always willing and able to do what someone asks you to do . She had a dozen servants at her beck and call. . TV companies should not be at the beck and call of government ministers.

bed

be a bed of nails

if a situation, especially a job, is a bed of nails, it is difficult or unpleasant • He resigned last week, describing the post as a bed of nails.

be in bed with sb

to work with a person or organization, or to be involved with them, in a way which causes other people not to trust you • They were accused of being in bed with the communists.

climb/get/hop into bed with sb • Rather than hopping into bed with a leading merchant bank, it chose to remain an independent partnership.

be no bed of roses not be a bed of roses

if a situation is no bed of roses, it is difficult or unpleasant • It's no bed of roses, raising two kids on one salary, that's for sure. • Life isn't a bed of roses, you know.

get out of bed on the wrong side British, American & Australian

get up on the wrong side of the bed American

if someone got out of bed on the wrong side, they are in a bad mood and are easily annoyed all day • What's the matter with you? Did you get out of bed on the wrong side or something?

go to bed with sb

to have sex with someone • I can't believe she went to bed with him on their first date!

get sb into bed to persuade someone to have sex with you • It took 3 months before she finally got him into bed.

put sth to bed

if you put something that is printed, for example a book or magazine, to bed, you finish writing it • We put the first edition to bed an hour before the deadline.

You've made your bed (and you'll have to lie in it).

You made your bed (now lie in it).

something that you say in order to tell someone that they must accept that they will suffer as a result of something bad that they have done • Don't come crying to me if it all goes wrong. You've made your bed and you'll have to lie in it.

bedroom

bedroom eyes

if someone has bedroom eyes, they look as if they are interested in sex • He told me I had bedroom eyes.

bee

be the bee's knees British & Australian, informal

to be extremely good • Have you tried this double chocolate-chip ice cream? It's the bee's knees, it really is.

have a bee in your bonnet

to keep talking about something again and again because you think it is important, especially something that other people do not think is important • (often + about) She's got a real bee in her bonnet about people keeping their dogs under control.

beef

Where's the beef? American, informal something that you say when you think someone does not have enough ideas to make their plans work • Where's the beef? The Senator has no new political initiatives or ideas.

beeline

make a beeline for sb/sth

to move quickly and directly towards a particular person or thing • Phil arrived at about nine and made a beeline for the champagne.

beer

not be all beer and skittles British &

Australian, old-fashioned

if a situation or activity is not all beer and skittles, it has unpleasant parts as well as pleasant ones • It's not all beer and skittles, this job. It's hard work.

beeswax

none of your beeswax American &

Australian, informal

an impolite way of saying that you do not want someone to know about your private life • 'So where the heck have you been?' 'None of your beeswax!'

beet

go beet red American go as red as a beet American

to become very red in the face, usually because you are embarrassed 🖒 A beet is a small, round vegetable that is a very dark red/purple colour. • I only had to smile at him and he went beet red.

beetroot

go beetroot (red) British & Australian go as red as a beetroot British &

Australian

to become very red in the face, usually because you are embarrassed 🔊 A beetroot is a small, round vegetable that is a very dark red/purple colour.

• Whenever the kids asked him about his

beg

I beg to differ/disagree formal girlfriend he'd go beetroot.

a polite way of saying that you disagree with something that someone has said • I beg to differ with Mr Stahl's final assertion.

beggars

Beggars can't be choosers.

something that you say which means when you cannot have exactly what you want, you must accept whatever you can get • I would have preferred a house of my own rather than sharing but I suppose beggars can't be choosers.

begging

be going begging

if something is going begging, it is available to be taken because no one else wants it • There's a big box of apples going begging.

beginning

the beginning of the end

the time at which it becomes clear that a situation or process will end, although it does not end immediately • (often + for) The ban on tobacco advertising may be the beginning of the end for the cigarette companies.

believe

I'll believe it when I see it.

something that you say in order to show that you do not think something will happen, and you will not believe it until it does happen • He says he's going to decorate the house, but I'll believe it when I see it.

If you believe that, you'll believe

anything! informal

something that you say in order to emphasize that something is obviously not true • He said the car in front backed into him, and if you believe that, you'll believe anything!

make believe

imaginary or invented • I had to explain to Sam that it was only make believe and that they weren't real monsters.

bell

give sb a bell British & Australian,

informal

to telephone someone • Give me a bell when you get home so I know you're OK.

ring a bell

ring any bells

if a phrase or a word, especially a name, rings a bell, you think you have heard it before • Does the name 'Fitzpatrick' ring a bell? • (often + with) No, I'm sorry, that description doesn't ring any bells with me.

Saved by the bell.

something that you say when a difficult situation is ended suddenly before you have to do or say something that you do not want to 🔊 In a boxing match, a bell rings when it is time for the fighting to stop. • Luckily, my bus arrived before I had time to reply. Saved by the bell.

bells

bells and whistles

the things that something, especially a device or machine, has or does that are not necessary but that make it more exciting or interesting • Your computer software may have all the latest bells and whistles, but is it good value for money?

with bells on

1 British, humorous if you describe something as a particular thing with bells on, you mean that it has similar qualities to that thing but they are more extreme • This latest series is melodrama with bells on.

2 American & Australian, humorous if you go somewhere or do something with bells on, you do it with a lot of interest and energy • I'll be at the party with bells on.

belly

a belly laugh

a loud laugh which cannot be controlled

 It's not often you hear the kind of jokes that give you a real belly laugh.

go belly up informal

if a business goes belly up, it fails

• Factories and farms went belly up because of the debt crisis.

bellyful

have had a bellyful of sth informal

if you have had a bellyful of an unpleasant situation or someone's bad behaviour, you have had much too much of it and it has made you angry • He's probably had a bellyful of your moaning.

belt

be below the belt

if something someone says is below the belt, it is cruel and unfair in In a boxing match it is wrong to hit the person you are fighting against below the belt. • It was below the belt to mention his brother's criminal record.

aim/hit below the belt • In the run-up to the election, politicians won't hesitate to aim below the belt.

tighten your belt

to spend less than you did before because you have less money • I've had to tighten my belt since I stopped working full-time.

under your belt

if you have an experience or a qualification under your belt, you have completed it successfully, and it may be useful to you in the future • She was a capable individual, with fourteen years as managing director under her belt. • He has several major drama awards under his belt.

bend

drive/send sb round the bend informal

to make someone very angry, especially by continuing to do something annoying • You're driving me round the bend with your constant complaining.

round the bend informal

crazy • Tell me frankly: do you think my father's round the bend? • I was sure I'd locked that door. I must be going round the bend.

bended

on bended knee/knees humorous

if you ask for something on bended knee, you ask very politely or with a lot of emotion for something that you want very much • I had to go down on bended knee and beg my Dad to let me have the party. • He begged me on bended knee to marry him.

benefit

give sb the benefit of the doubt

to believe something good about someone, rather than something bad, when you have the possibility of doing either • After hearing his explanation, I was prepared to give him the benefit of the doubt.

bent

get bent out of shape American,

informal

to become very angry or upset • It's ok, don't worry about returning the books. I don't get bent out of shape about things like that.

beside

be beside vourself

to feel an emotion that is so strong it is impossible to control • He was beside himself when she didn't come home last night. • (often + with) We were beside ourselves with excitement as we watched the race.

best

sb's best bet

the thing someone should do which is most likely to achieve the result they want • If you want a cheap jacket, your best best is to try the second-hand shops. • I told him his best bet would be to get a bus as there are no direct trains.

your best bib and tucker old-fashioned, humorous

the best or most formal clothes that you own • We were all dressed in our best bib and tucker for my aunt's wedding.

as best you can British & Australian as best as you can American

if you do something that is difficult as best you can, you do it as well as you are able to do it • If one of us loses our job we'll just have to cope as best we can.
• Just clean up the mess as best as you can.

at the best of times

even with the best possible conditions or in the best possible situation • Journalism is a highly competitive profession at the best of times. • Even at the best of times, this region is hard to farm.

be for the best

if an action is for the best, it seems unpleasant now but it will improve a situation in the future • I know it's hard to end a long-term relationship, but in this case it's for the best.

be on your best behaviour British & Australian

be on your best behavior American & Australian

to behave very well, usually because you are in an important or formal situation • Now children, I want you all to be on your best behaviour when grandma arrives.

be the best of a bad bunch/lot British & Australian

to be slightly less bad than other bad people or things in a group • This picture isn't exactly what I would have chosen, but it was the best of a bad lot.

give it your best shot

to do something as well as you possibly can, although you are not sure whether you will be able to succeed • Greg will be a tough opponent to beat, but I'll give it my best shot.

make the best of sth British, American & Australian

make the best of a bad job British & Australian

to try to think and act in a positive way when you have to accept a situation which you do not like but cannot change
• The room they've given us is too small really, but we'll just have to make the best of it. • It was a difficult speech to give, but I think she made the best of a bad job.

May the best man win.

something that you say just before a competition starts to say that you hope the person who deserves to win will win • Is everyone ready? Then may the best man win.

put your best foot forward

- 1 to do something as well as you can Make sure you put your best foot forward for tonight's performance.
- 2 to start to walk more quickly You'll have to put your best foot forward if you want to be there by nine.

with the best will in the world

if something cannot be done with the best will in the world, it is impossible, although you would make it possible if you could • With the best will in the world, if you don't have a passport you can't go.

bet

you can bet your life/your bottom dollar

if you say you can bet your life that something will happen or is true, you mean you are completely certain • You can bet your life she won't apologize.

bet the farm/ranch American

to spend almost all the money you have on something that you think might bring you success • (often + on) TV networks are obviously willing to bet the ranch on special sports events – they paid millions to broadcast the Olympics.

Don't bet on it. informal

I wouldn't bet on it. informal

something that you say when you do not think that something is likely to happen or to be true • 'Do you think the builders will finish by Friday?' 'I wouldn't bet on it.'

- a safe bet British, American & Australian
- a sure bet American
- 1 something that you are certain will happen It's a safe bet that those two will settle down and have children. Wheeler is a sure bet for a place on the team.
- 2 someone or something that you are certain will win or succeed • She is still a safe bet for re-election. • Simplicity of design is a sure bet in the fashion world.

bête noire

sb's bête noire

someone or something that you really hate or that really annoys you • People who use jargon are his particular bête noire.

bets

hedge your bets

to try to avoid giving an opinion or choosing only one thing, so that whatever happens in the future you will not have problems or seem stupid • (sometimes + on) Journalists are hedging their bets on the likely outcome of the election. • I decided to hedge my bets by buying shares in several different companies.

better

Better (to be) safe than sorry. X

something that you say which means it is best not to take risks even if it seems boring or hard work to be careful • I'll hold the ladder while you climb up. Better safe than sorry.

Better late than never.

something that you say which means it is better for someone or something to be late than never to arrive or to happen • 'Karen's card arrived 2 weeks after my birthday.' 'Oh well, better late than never.'

against your better judgement

if you do something against your better judgement, you do it although you think it is wrong • I lent him the money against my better judgement.

for better or (for) worse of for better, for worse

if a situation exists or happens for better or for worse, it exists or happens whether its results are good or bad © This phrase is used in a traditional marriage ceremony in which the man and woman promise to stay together whether their life is good or bad. • France has a new government, for better or for worse. • We cannot deny that our childhood experiences affect us, for better, for worse.

get the better of sb

if a feeling gets the better of you, it becomes too strong to control • Finally curiosity got the better of her and she opened the letter. • Try to remain calm – don't let your anger get the better of you.

think better of sth X

to decide not to do something you had intended to do • I nearly told him I was leaving, but then I thought better of it.

You('d) better believe it! informal

something that you say to emphasize that something strange or shocking is true • 'Does he really know the President?' 'You better believe it!'

between

between you and me British, American & Australian

between you, me and the bedpost/gatepost British & Australian, humorous something that you say when you are going to tell someone something you do not want them to tell anyone else • Just between you and me, I don't think his work is quite up to standard. • Between you, me and the gatepost, I'm thinking of leaving.

bible

- a Bible-basher British & Australian, informal
- a Bible-thumper mainly American,

informal

an insulting way of describing someone who tries very hard to persuade other people to believe in Christianity • I have nothing against religion, but I hate Biblebashers.

the Bible Belt

the southern and central area of the United States, where many people have very strong traditional Christian beliefs  Country music is very popular in the Bible Belt.

biblical

but not in the biblical sense humorous

if you say you know someone but not in the biblical sense, you mean you have not had sex with them 🖒 In the Bible, 'to know' someone meant to have sex with them. • 'Did you know her then?' 'Yes, but not in the biblical sense.'

bidding

do sb's bidding old-fashioned

to do what someone tells or asks you to do
• In some societies, men still assume their wives are there to do their bidding.

big

Big Brother

a government or a large organization which tries to control every part of people's lives and to know everything about them in the book 1984 by George Orwell, Big Brother is the very powerful ruler. • Many people are concerned about Big Brother having computer files on them to which they do not have access.

Big Brother • (always before noun) Employees have complained about the 'Big Brother' approach of the new security measures.

Big deal! informal

something that you say in order to show that you do not think that something is either important or interesting • 'Did I tell you Ann got a new car?' 'Big deal!'

big ticket American & Australian

very expensive • (always before noun) It's a good time to buy a big ticket item like a car or household appliance, as prices have fallen.

big time informal

very much • He really owes her big time for everything she has done for him. • The school was into discipline big time.

a big ask Australian

a request to someone to do something for you that you know will be difficult for them • It's a big ask but could you feed our cats for the two weeks we're away?

a big cheese humorous

an important or powerful person in a group or organization • Apparently her father is a big cheese in one of the major banks.

a big deal

a subject, situation, or event which people think is important • I don't know why this issue has become such a big deal. • Losing the match was no big deal. • All I said was, I'm going to have a baby—what's the big deal? • Yes, it's his birthday today, but he doesn't want to make a big deal of it. (= make people notice it by having a special celebration)

a big fish informal

an important or powerful person in a group or organization • Mrs Coughlin is one of the directors – a big fish.

a big fish in a small pond

one of the most important people in a small group or organization, who would have much less power and importance if they were part of a larger group or organization • As the manager of a local company, he enjoys being a big fish in a small pond.

a big girl's blouse British & Australian, humorous

a man or a boy who behaves in a way which other men think is how a woman would behave, especially if they show they are frightened of something • Come on you big girl's blouse, drink up and I'll get you another pint.

a big gun/noise informal

an important or powerful person in a group or organization • She's a big gun in city politics.

a big mouth informal

if you have a big mouth, you talk too much, especially about things that should be secret • Helen's got such a big mouth – the news'll be all over the town by tonight. • I knew I shouldn't have mentioned the letter. Oh dear, me and my big mouth!

a big-mouth • Dave's a real big-mouth, so don't tell him anything.

a big shot/wheel American & Australian, informal

an important or powerful person in a group or organization • Mr Madison is a big shot in the world of finance.

the big daddy American & Australian

the biggest or most important person, animal or thing in a group • It's the largest electronics company in the world – the big daddy of them all • Shamu the killer whale is the big daddy of the aquarium.

the big picture X

the most important facts about a situation and the effects of that situation on other things • In my political work I try to concentrate on the big picture and not be distracted by details.

the big time informal

the time when someone is famous or successful • Miss Lee hit the big time (= became famous) after winning a talent contest. • The band is hoping to return to the big time.

big-time • He played the saxophone with big-time swing bands. • It's a film about drug dealers and big-time gangsters.

be big of you

if an action is big of you, it is kind, good, or helpful This phrase is usually used humorously or angrily to mean the opposite. It was big of him to admit that these problems are really his fault. You can spare me an hour next week? That's really big of you!

be big on sth

to be very interested in something and think that it is important • The magazine is big on research into what their readers want. • He's not big on self-analysis – it's no good asking him why he left her.

have big ears Australian, informal

to listen to other people's private conversations • Don't talk so loudly unless you want everyone to know. Bill has big ears you know.

make a big thing (out) of sth

to behave as if something is very important • He always makes a big thing out of helping me cook. • I want some sort of party, but I don't want to make a big thing of it.

make it big informal

to become very successful or famous • After years of trying, he finally made it big in America.

think big

to have big plans and ideas and be keen to achieve a lot • When it comes to starting your own business, it can pay to think big.

too big for your boots British, American & Australian, informal

too big for your britches American,

informal

someone who is too big for their boots behaves as if they are more important or more clever than they really are • Since he was made team captain, he's been ordering us all around and generally getting much too big for his boots.

What's the big idea? informal something that you say when you want to know why someone has done something that annoys you • What's the big idea? That's my lunch you're eating.

bigger

The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

something that you say which means the more power or success a person has, the harder it is for them to accept losing it • She's very bitter about losing the directorship. The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

big-head

a big-head British & Australian

someone who believes that they are very clever or very good at an activity and who thinks that other people should admire them • Dan's such a big-head, always reminding us what fantastic results he got in his exams.

big-headed British, American & Australian • Mary's got so big-headed since she won the geography prize.

bike

On yer bike! British & Australian, very informal

an impolite way of telling someone to go away • 'Can you lend me some money?' 'On yer bike, mate!'

bill

bill and coo old-fashioned

if you bill and coo with someone you love, you talk quietly to them and kiss them Dif birds bill and coo, they touch beaks and make noises to each other.

• (often in continuous tenses) I don't know why they bother to come out if they're going to spend all their time billing and cooing.

fit the bill British, American & Australian fill the bill American & Australian × to have the qualities or experience which are needed • I'm looking for someone with several years of publishing experience and you seem to fit the bill. • The city needs a strong leader, and the new mayor just doesn't fill the bill.

foot the bill

to pay for something  $\bullet$  (often + for) Who's going to foot the bill for all the repairs?

sell sb a bill of goods American

to make someone believe something that is not true • Politicians have sold all of us a bill of goods, that if we put more people in prison we're going to be safer. • The electrician said I'd need the outdoor lighting on a different circuit – is he just selling me a bill of goods?

billet-doux

a billet-doux humorous

a love letter • They've been exchanging billets-doux, but I don't know how serious it is.

bird

A bird in the hand (is worth two in the bush).

something that you say which means it is better to keep what you have than to risk losing it by trying to get something better • If I were you I'd accept the money they're offering. After all, a bird in the hand...

The bird has flown.

something that you say which means that someone has escaped or disappeared • It's no use searching any more. The bird has flown.

a bird's eye view

a view from a very high place which allows you to see a large area • We had a bird's eye view of the old town from the top of the city walls.

eat like a bird

to eat very little • We went out for a meal, but she ate like a bird and hardly said a word.

flip/give sb the bird American &

Australian, very informal

to make a very impolite sign by raising your middle finger towards someone in order to show that you are angry with them • If he'd shouted at me like that I'd have flipped him the bird.

bird-brain

a bird-brain informal

a stupid person • He's just a bird-brain – he can't get anything right.

bird-brained informal very stupid (always before noun) I'm not listening to her bird-brained schemes any longer.

birds

Birds of a feather flock together.

something that you say which means people who have similar characters or similar interests will often choose to spend time together • I saw the boy who stole my bag with that gang of trouble makers last night – well, birds of a feather flock together, they say.

birds of a feather people who are similar • The survey reports that people who are 'birds of a feather' make better marriages than those who are opposites.

the birds and the bees humorous

if you tell someone, especially a child, about the birds and the bees, you tell them about sex • My parents never actually sat down and told me about the birds and the bees.

be (strictly) for the birds American &

Australian, informal

if you think something is for the birds, you think it is stupid and has no use • Gambling, games of chance—that sort of thing is strictly for the birds.

birthday

in your birthday suit humorous

not wearing any clothes \( \alpha \) Babies are naked at the time of their birth. • He walked out of the bathroom in his birthday suit – obviously not expecting to find anyone in the flat.

bit

- a bit of all right British, very informal if you describe someone as a bit of all right, you mean that they are sexually attractive Cor! She's a bit of all right.
- a bit of fluff/skirt British & Australian, old-fashioned, very informal a sexually attractive woman • Who was that nice bit of skirt I saw you with last night?
- a bit of how's your father British & Australian, humorous sexual activity Apparently he came home and discovered them having a bit of how's your father in the kitchen.
- a bit of rough British, humorous someone, usually a man, from a lower social class than their sexual partner Jenny's chatting up the barman again.
  She likes a bit of rough.
- a bit on the side British & Australian, informal

if someone has a bit on the side, they are involved in a sexual relationship with someone who is not their usual partner • He had a bit on the side for years until his wife found out. • I knew she'd never leave her husband for me. I was just her bit on the side.

be a bit much

if you say something is a bit much, you think that it is not fair or that it is more than you can deal with • I think it's a bit much to expect her to play 3 matches in one day.

get a bit much . It gets a bit much sometimes having to listen to other people's problems all the time.

It's/That's a bit steep! British &

Australian

something that you say when you think something is not fair • Keith, calling me boring? That's a bit steep!

the whole bit American, informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • And what a night it was – moonlight, wine, good food, soft music – the whole bit.

In the following phrases, 'bit' refers to a piece of metal which is put in a horse's mouth and which can be pulled to control its movements or to stop it. These phrases are all connected with being free and able to do what you want without being controlled.

be champing/chomping at the bit be chafing at the bit

to be very keen to start an activity or to go somewhere • By the time he arrived to pick us up we were champing at the bit with impatience. • I'm not sure if he's ready for extra responsibility yet, but he's chafing at the bit.

get/take the bit between your teeth British, American & Australian

take the bit in your teeth American to start doing something in a very keen way • When the team really gets the bit between their teeth, they are almost impossible to beat.

have the bit between your teeth British, American & Australian • Caroline had the bit between her teeth and nothing would stop her from finding out the truth.

bite

a bite of the cherry British & Australian

a part of something good, especially when there is not enough for everyone who wants it • Job-sharing would give twice as many people a bite of the cherry.

another bite at the cherry British

a second bite at the cherry British another opportunity to achieve something or to get something you want

• He just missed a gold medal in the 100 metres, but got another bite at the cherry in the 400 metres. • She failed the exam but she will get a second bite at the cherry next year.

put the bite on sb American, informal to ask someone for something that you want, especially money • (often + for) She put the bite on her sister for $20.

sb/sth won't bite humorous

something that you say in order to tell someone not to be frightened of someone or something • I think you should talk to your uncle about this. Go on, he won't bite.

biter

the biter (is) bit British, old-fashioned someone who has caused harm to other people in the past has now been hurt • It's a case of the biter bit. After years of breaking girls' hearts, he finally fell for someone who didn't love him.

biting

What's biting sb? informal

something that you say in order to ask why someone is in a bad mood • What's biting her? She hasn't said a word all morning.

bits

bits and pieces British, American & Australian

bits and bobs British

small things of different types • Can you tidy away all your bits and pieces before you go to bed? • I put all the bits and bobs I can't find a home for in this drawer.

love sb/sth to bits informal >< to like or to love someone or something a lot • Clive's the nicest person I know. I love him to bits. • 'Do you like your new bike, then?' 'Oh, I love it to bits!'

bitter

a bitter pill (to swallow) bitter medicine

a situation that is unpleasant but must be accepted • Losing the championship to a younger player was a bitter pill to swallow. • Cuts in salaries are a dose of bitter medicine that may help the company to survive.

the bitter fruits literary

the unpleasant results of something • Disease and malnutrition are the bitter fruits of an inefficient social healthcare policy.

be bitter and twisted

to be angry and unhappy, usually because you are unable to forget bad things which have happened to you in the past • I had a difficult childhood, but there's no point getting all bitter and twisted about it.

to the bitter end

if you do something to the bitter end, you continue it until it is finished, although it is difficult and takes a long time • Many climbers gave up before they reached the summit, but I was determined to stick it out to the bitter end.

black

black and blue

if a person or part of their body is black and blue, their skin is covered with bruises (= black marks caused by being hit) • He was beaten black and blue at boarding school.

black and white

if you think facts or situations are black and white, you have a simple and very certain opinion about them, often when other people think they are really more complicated • The issue of nuclear weapons isn't as black and white as it used to be.

in black and white

written down • I wouldn't have believed him capable of fraud, but there it was, in black and white.

pretend/say that black is white

to say the opposite of what is really true • She'll say that black is white if she thinks it's to her advantage.

Black is used in the following phrases connected with sad or unpleasant things.

a black day

a day when something very unpleasant or sad happens • (usually + for) A bomb went off early this morning. This is a black day for the peace process.

a black mark

if you get a black mark, people think that something you have done is bad and they will remember it in future • This administrative error will be a black mark on his record. • (often + against) If I'm late for work it'll be another black mark against me.

the black sheep (of the family)

someone who is thought to be a bad person by the rest of their family • My father was the black sheep – he ran away at 16 to become an actor and his parents never forgave him.

not be as black as you are/it is painted

if people or situations are not as black as they are painted, they are not as bad as people say they are • I've met him a few times. He's not as black as he's painted.

blank

a blank cheque X

as much money to spend as is wanted or needed • (not used with the) We are not giving the redevelopment project a blank cheque. The organizers will be working within a strictly limited budget.

draw a blank

to be unable to get information, think of something, or achieve something • Ask them about the car's performance and you'll draw a blank. • We've asked 2000 schools to join the campaign, but so far we've drawn a blank. (= none of them agreed)

blanks

fire/shoot blanks humorous

if a man is firing blanks, there is no sperm (= the cells which combine with the female's egg to start life) in his semen (= the liquid produced in the male sexual organs) • (usually in continuous tenses) They had a series of fertility tests done and found out that basically Tony was firing blanks.

blast

a blast from the past informal

something that suddenly and strongly makes you remember a previous time in your life • Hearing that record again was a real blast from the past.

blazes

Go to blazes! old-fashioned, informal

a rude and angry way of telling someone to go away and that you do not care what happens to them • Just go to blazes! I'm sick of your rudeness! • If he's going to start making demands, he can go to blazes.

[What/Why/Who etc.] the blazes old-

fashioned, informal

if you start a question with what/who/why etc. the blazes, you show that you are very surprised or angry about the thing you are asking about • What the blazes are they doing up on the roof?

bleeding

a bleeding heart

someone who shows too much sympathy for everyone • The anti-hunting campaigners are just a bunch of bleeding hearts who don't understand the countryside.

blessing

be a blessing in disquise

to be something which has a good effect, although at first it seemed that it would be bad or not lucky • Losing my job turned out to be a blessing in disguise because it forced me to think carefully about my future.

blessings

count your blessings

to think about the good things in your life, often to stop yourself becoming too unhappy about the bad things • School children today should count their blessings. At least they're not beaten for talking in class as we were.

blind

a blind alley

a method of thinking or acting which is not effective because it does not produce any results • The latest evolutionary theory may turn out to be a blind alley.

a blind date

an arranged meeting for two people who have never met each other before, in order to try to start a romantic relationship • I agreed to go on a blind date with one of Savita's ex-boyfriends.

a blind spot

something that you do not understand at all, often because you are not willing to try • He had a complete blind spot where public relations were concerned, so his political career was doomed from the start. • Languages are my blind spot – I was always terrible at French.

the blind leading the blind

a situation where someone is trying to show someone else how to do something which they do not know how to do themselves • I tried to explain how the software works, but it was a case of the blind leading the blind, really.

be as blind as a bat humorous X

to be completely blind • I'm as blind as a bat without my glasses.

fly blind

to try to do something new without any help or instructions • (usually in continuous tenses) We've never dealt with Eastern Europe before, so we're flying blind.

not take a blind bit of notice British & Australian, informal

to not give someone or something any attention at all • Protesters were shouting and waving banners outside the embassy, but no-one took a blind bit of notice. • (often + of) They didn't take a blind bit of notice of our objections.

turn a blind eve

to choose to ignore behaviour that you know is wrong • I knew Kenny was taking the money but I turned a blind eye because he was my sister's child. • (often + to) Management often turn a blind eye to bullying in the workplace.

blinder

play a blinder British, informal

to perform with a lot of skill, especially when you are playing sport • He's played a blinder in every game so far this season.

blink

be on the blink informal

if a machine is on the blink, it is not working as it should • I think the photocopier's on the blink.

before sb could blink

very quickly or suddenly • Before you could blink, he'd grabbed the purse and was halfway down the street.

in the blink of an eye X

extremely quickly • In the blink of an eye the handsome prince was transformed into an ugly frog.

block

knock sb's block off informal

if you say you will knock someone's block off, you mean you will hit them very hard • Say that again and I'll knock your block off!

on the block American

if something is on the block, it is for sale, especially at an auction (= a sale where the person who offers most money for something can buy it) • The best pieces of furniture from the old mansion are going on the block next month. • The Seattle radio station has been on the block for a year with no offers to buy it.

put your head/neck on the block

to risk doing something which will make other people lose their good opinion of you if it fails in In the past, the block was a large piece of wood on which criminals had their heads cut off. • He put his head on the block by promising his team wouldn't lose any more matches this year.
• I'm not going to put my head on the block for you – it could cost me my promotion.

blocks

be off the (starting) blocks be out of the (starting) blocks

to have started an activity • Rival telephone companies were quick off the blocks with their reduced price offers.
• The project for rebuilding the theatre is now off the starting blocks.

on the/your (starting) blocks to be ready and waiting to start an activity
The management is on its starting blocks, prepared for a flood of orders.

blood

blood and guts informal violence shown on television, film, or in the theatre, where people are seen being injured or killed • It was all blood and guts. I came out feeling guite ill.

be after sb's blood X

to want to catch someone in order to hurt them or punish them • He'd cheated them and now they were after his blood.

be baying for blood British

if a group of people are baying for blood, they want someone to be hurt or punished • Families of the victims were baying for blood during the trial.

be out for blood

if you are out for blood, you are determined to find someone to attack or blame for something • These people are out for blood and if they find out you're involved you're in serious trouble.

blood, sweat and tears

a lot of effort and suffering • This house is the result of 3 years' blood, sweat and tears.

burst/bust a blood vessel informal

- 1 to use a lot of effort doing something I'd like the designs as soon as possible, but don't bust a blood vessel!
- to become very angry and start shouting
  He nearly burst a blood vessel when he heard what they'd done to his car.

get blood out of a stone

if making someone give or tell you something is like getting blood out of a stone, it is very difficult • Collecting the rent money from him each month is like getting blood out of a stone. • I tried to talk to her, but I may as well have tried to get blood out of a stone.

have blood on your hands have sb's blood on your hands

to be responsible for someone's death

• The leaders of this war have the blood of many thousands of people on their hands.

have tasted blood

if you have tasted blood, you have achieved a small victory which has made you believe you can win a more important victory • The Welsh team tasted blood in the local championships and want to play at national level now.

scent blood

to believe that someone you are competing against is having difficulties or problems and to use this to get an advantage for yourself • The manager has already made some serious errors of judgement and it is clear that other employees scent blood.

sweat blood X

- 1 to work very hard He says that writing does not come naturally to him and he sweats blood over every sentence. • I sweat blood every week just to earn enough money to feed my family.
- 2 to feel very worried or anxious We sweated blood as we waited for the police to phone, not knowing if Charlie was alive or dead.

Blood is used in the following phrases connected with people's feelings and emotions.

blood and thunder

a speech or performance that is loud and full of emotion, especially anger • We sat through 2 hours of blood and thunder and came out feeling exhausted.

sb's blood is up

if someone's blood is up, they are very angry or excited about something and may act in a violent way • Now Tom's blood was up – he ran at Bob waving his fists.

draw blood

to make someone very angry or upset
• He always draws blood with his film reviews.

make sb's blood boil

to make someone very angry  $\bullet$  When I saw the rude way she talked to him it made my blood boil.

sb's blood boils • His blood boiled when he thought about how unfairly he'd been treated.

make sb's blood run cold make sb's blood curdle

if something makes someone's blood run cold, it makes them very frightened

 I heard a scream which made my blood run cold.

sb's blood runs cold

sb's blood curdles • Steph's blood ran cold as she heard someone move in the shadows.

spit blood

to speak or behave in a way that shows you are very angry • After her speech, people who she had criticized were spitting blood.

Blood is also used in the following phrases to refer to the connections that exist between members of the same family.

Blood is thicker than water.

something that you say which means family relationships are stronger and more important than other kinds of relationships, such as being friends • They say blood is thicker than water, so how come so many families hate each other?

a blood brother

a man who has promised to treat another man as his brother, often in a ceremony in which they cut themselves and mix their blood together • We were blood brothers – I was ready to die for him.

be in the/your blood

if an ability or a skill is in someone's blood, they have it naturally, usually because it already exists in their family or is a tradition of their social group • She's a wonderful dancer just like her mother. It must be in her blood.

bloodied

bloodied but unbowed literary

harmed but not defeated by an unpleasant situation or competition • I emerged bloodied but unbowed from my oral exam.

bloody

bloody minded British & Australian,

informal

someone who is bloody minded makes difficulties for other people, usually by arguing against their actions or ideas without a good reason • There's no reason why we shouldn't do aerobics in the squash court - the sports committee are just being bloody minded.

give sb a bloody nose

to defeat or damage someone, but not permanently or seriously • The proeuropeans gave their opponents a bloody nose in the debate.

get a bloody nose • They got a bloody nose when their new satellite channel failed due to lack of funding.

blot

a blot on the landscape

something which looks unpleasant and spoils a pleasant view • That new chemical factory is a real blot on the landscape.

blow

blow your stack/top informal

to suddenly become very angry • My mother blew her top when she saw the mess we'd made in the kitchen.

blow a fuse/gasket informal >

to become very angry and shout or behave in a violent way • Jim'll blow a fuse if he finds you here. • When her husband realised how much she'd spent he blew a gasket.

blow-by-blow

a blow-by-blow description of an event gives every detail of how it happened • She gave me a blow-by-blow account of her car crash.

blow it informal

to spoil your chance of achieving something you want because of something you do or say • She was hoping for promotion but she blew it when she got pregnant. • They want to publish his autobiography so let's hope he doesn't blow it by arguing with the publishers.

a blow job taboo

the sexual activity of touching a man's penis with your mouth and tongue to give him pleasure • She gave him a blow job.

cushion/soften the blow

to make a difficult experience less unpleasant • Free street parking is to be abolished, but residents are being offered reduced price parking permits in an attempt to cushion the blow.

strike a blow for sth/sb

to do something to support an idea or to change a situation to something which you believe is good • He claims to be striking a blow for gender equality by employing an equal number of men and women. • This latest agreement will strike a blow for free trade within the EU.

OPPOSITE Strike a blow against/at sth/sb • The court's decision strikes a blow against minority rights.

blows

come to blows

to have a fight or a serious argument with someone • Demonstrators nearly came to blows with the police during the march.

• (often + over) It seems increasingly unlikely that the two countries will come to blows over this latest territorial dispute

blue

blue blood

someone who has blue blood is from a family of the highest social class • He has a fair bit of blue blood coursing through his veins.

blue-blooded • He comes from the blueblooded section of the ruling classes.

into the wide/wild blue yonder literary

if you go into the wide blue yonder, you go somewhere far away that seems exciting because it is not known • I have a sudden desire to escape, to head off into the wide blue yonder and never return.

like blue blazes American & Australian, old-fashioned

if someone or something does something like blue blazes, they do it a lot • This sweater itches like blue blazes.

out of the blue British, American & Australian

out of a clear (blue) sky American & Australian

if something happens out of the blue, it happens suddenly and you are not expecting it • Then one day, completely out of the blue, I had a letter from her.

 The invasion came out of a clear blue sky and caught everyone off guard.

talk a blue streak American

to say a lot very fast • She talked a blue streak and we just had to listen.

until you are blue in the face

if you say something until you are blue in the face, you keep saying the same thing again and again but no one listens to you • I can tell him to tidy his room until I'm

 I can tell him to tidy his room until I'm blue in the face, but it's always a mess.

blue-arsed

[run around/rush around etc.] like a blue-arsed fly British & Australian, informal

to move around quickly trying to finish your work when you are very busy • I've been running around like a blue-arsed fly trying to get everything organized before I go on holiday.

blue-collar

blue-collar

a blue-collar worker is someone who does physical work, often in a factory • (always before noun) Blue collar workers in the factories and shipyards were demanding wage increases. • They are hoping the new factory will create many more blue collar jobs. (= jobs for blue collar workers)

bluff

call sb's bluff

to make someone prove that what they are saying is true, or to make someone prove that they will really do what they say they will do, because you do not believe them it if you are playing a card game and you call someone's bluff, you force them to show you the cards they have. • Alice called his bluff and dared him to tell everyone what he knew about her.

blushes

save/spare sb's blushes British &

Australian

to do something to prevent someone feeling embarrassed • Granger saved the team's blushes by scoring the only goal in the last five minutes of the game. • The audience's blushes were spared because the censors had removed all the explicit sex scenes from the film.

47

board

across the board

be above board

to be honest and legal • The deal was completely above board.

go by the board British, American & Australian

go by the boards American

if something that has been planned or arranged goes by the board, it does not happen, and if something that exists goes by the board, it ends • All our careful arrangements went by the board when the trip was cancelled at the last minute. • When modern machinery was introduced, old-fashioned printing methods went by the board.

on board X

if someone is on board, they are working with an organization or group of people • A new financial director has been brought on board to help us assess the cost of the project. • We hope to have a new doctor on board by the end of the month.

sweep the board British

to win all the prizes or votes in a competition or an election • Her latest film swept the boards at last night's cinema awards. • The liberals look set to sweep the board in the local elections.

take on board sth

to understand and accept ideas and opinions which may change the way you behave in the future • Banks need to take on board the views of their customers. • It seems that young people are finally taking on board the message that it's not cool to smoke.

boards

tread the boards

to act in the theatre • So you're treading the boards these days, Emma. Earning any money?

boat

miss the boat

push the boat out British

to spend a lot of money or more money than you usually do, especially when you are celebrating • As it's your birthday, I think we can push the boat out and have a bottle of champagne. • (sometimes + for) They really pushed the boat out for Jane's wedding.

rock the boat informal X

to do or say something that causes problems, especially if you try to change a situation which most people do not want to change • We certainly don't want anyone rocking the boat just before the election. • I tried to suggest a few ways in which we might improve our image and was told very firmly not to rock the boat.

bob

Bob's your uncle! British & Australian,

informal

something that you say after you have explained how to do something, to emphasize that it will be simple and successful • You simply put on the stain remover, leave it for an hour and Bob's your uncle, the stain's gone.

bodice-ripper

a bodice-ripper humorous

a romantic book, usually where the story happens a long time ago, in which the characters show very strong emotions • She's written a serious novel, not some sort of bodice-ripper.

body

body and soul

if you do something or believe something body and soul, you do it or believe it completely • She dedicated herself to her research, body and soul.

a body blow mainly British something that causes serious diffic something that causes serious difficulty or disappointment • Losing the court case was a body blow to animal rights campaigners. • Her hopes of competing in the Olympics were dealt a body blow when she fell and injured her back.

keep body and soul together

to just be able to pay for the things that you need in order to live • We can barely keep body and soul together on what he earns.

bog

bog standard British, informal

completely ordinary • I just want a completely bog standard washing machine.

boil

go off the boil

- 1 British & Australian to become less successful After winning their first two matches this season, the French team seem to have gone off the boil.
- 2 British if a situation or feeling goes off the boil, it becomes less urgent or less strong • The housing issue has gone off the boil recently, despite attempts to revive public interest. • Our affair went off the boil when I discovered he was married.

on the boil British

if a situation or feeling is on the boil, it is very strong or active • The corruption scandal is being kept on the boil by a series of new revelations.

boiling

reach boiling point

if a situation or an emotion reaches boiling point, it becomes impossible to control because the emotions involved are so strong • Public anger reached boiling point when troops were called in to control protesters.

bold

as bold as brass

with too much confidence • He walked up to me bold as brass and asked if I had any spare change.

bolt

bolt upright

in a position where you are sitting up with your back very straight • He woke to see her sitting bolt upright beside him and wondered what was the matter.

a bolt from the blue

a bolt out of the blue

something that you do not expect to happen and that surprises you very much • The news that they had got married was a bolt from the blue. • He seemed to be very happy in his job, so his resignation came as a bolt out of the blue.

shoot your bolt

to use all your energy trying to do something, so that you do not have enough energy left to finish it • (never in continuous tenses) By the end of the third lap it was obvious that she had shot her bolt, and the Canadian runner took the lead.

bomb

go (like) a bomb British & Australian,

informal

to be very successful • Judging from the noise they're making, the party must be going like a bomb.

${\bf go\ like\ a\ bomb\ } British\ \&\ Australian,$

informal

if a vehicle goes like a bomb, it can move very fast • Henry's new sportscar goes like an absolute bomb.

put a bomb under sb British & Australian if you want to put a bomb under someone, you want to make them do things faster • I'd like to put a bomb under those solicitors.

bona fide

bona fide

if someone or something is bona fide, they are what they seem to be and they are not trying to deceive you • The new immigration policy is so severe it risks rejecting bona fide political refugees.

bone

be bone dry

be as dry as a bone

to be completely dry • The ground was bone dry after 3 weeks without rain.

be bone idle British

to be very lazy • She's bone idle – she just sits around the house all day watching TV.

be close to the bone be near the bone

if something you say or write is close to the bone, it is close to the truth in a way that may offend someone • He said he was only joking, but his comments were a bit close to the bone. • Your remark about people who've been in trouble with the police was very near the bone.

be cut to the bone

if a service or an amount of money is cut to the bone, it is reduced as much as possible • How can we create quality programmes when our funding has been cut to the bone?

he/she doesn't have a [jealous, mean, unkind etc.] bone in his/her body

something that you say in order to emphasize that someone is not jealous, mean, unkind etc. • He'd never deliberately hurt someone's feelings – he doesn't have a mean bone in his body.

there isn't a [mean, jealous, unkind etc.] bone in sb's body • She wasn't the possessive type, and there wasn't a jealous bone in her body.

Bone is used in the following phrases connected with arguing or feeling annoyed about something

a bone of contention

something that people argue about for a long time • The main bone of contention was deciding who would take care of the children after the divorce.

have a bone to pick with sb

something that you say when you want to talk to someone about something they have done that has annoyed you • I have a bone to pick with you. Did you eat that chocolate mousse I was saving for my tea?

bones

I (can) feel it in my bones.

something that you say when you are certain something is true or will happen, although you have no proof • Something terrible is going to happen. I feel it in my bones.

make no bones about sth

to say clearly what you think or feel although you may embarrass or offend someone • He made no bones about his dissatisfaction with the service in the hotel. • She makes no bones about wanting John to leave.

bon mot

a bon mot

a funny or clever remark • Wilde's bons mots are legendary.

bon viveur

a bon viveur mainly British

someone who enjoys good food and wine
• A noted bon viveur, he had a passion for French cuisine.

boo

not say boo American, informal to say nothing • She expected the boss to be really angry, but he didn't say boo.

wouldn't say boo to a goose British, informal wouldn't say boo American, informal wouldn't say boo to a fly Australian,

informal

if someone wouldn't say boo to a goose, they are shy and nervous • She wouldn't say boo to a goose, so I don't think she's cut out for a career in the police. • I remember her as a quiet little girl who wouldn't say boo.

book

crack a book American, informal

to open a book in order to study • (usually negative) I haven't seen her crack a book and the French test is tomorrow.

go by the book do sth by the book

to do something exactly as the rules tell you • My lawyer always goes strictly by the book. • This is a private deal—we don't have to do everything by the book.

in my book informal

in my opinion • She's never lied to me, and in my book that counts for a lot.

read sb like a book

if you can read someone like a book, you know exactly what they are feeling or thinking without having to ask • You're bored, aren't you? I can read you like a book.

You can't judge a book by its cover.

something that you say which means you cannot judge the quality or character of someone or something just by looking at them • She doesn't look very intelligent, but you can't judge a book by its cover.

Book is used in the following phrases connected with punishing people.

bring sb to book British & Australian to punish someone • (usually passive) A crime has been committed and whoever is responsible must be brought to book.

throw the book at sb informal

to punish or criticize someone as severely as possible • It was the fifth time Frank had been arrested for drinkdriving, so the judge threw the book at him.

books

be in sb's good books informal

if you are in someone's good books, they are pleased with you • I cleaned the bathroom yesterday so I'm in Mum's good books

OPPOSITE be in sb's bad books informal

• He's in Melanie's bad books because he arrived 2 hours late.

cook the books informal

to record false information in the accounts of an organization, especially in order to steal money • (usually in continuous tenses) One of the directors had been cooking the books and the firm had been losing money for years.

hit the books American & Australian, informal

to study • I can't go out tonight. I've got to hit the books.

That's/There's one for the books. British, American & Australian, informal

That's/There's a turn-up for the books

British & Australian, informal something that you say when something strange or surprising happens • My sister stayed in on a Saturday night! There's one for the books. • That's a turn-up for the books – a Frenchman who loves English food.

boom

lower the boom American, informal

to suddenly stop someone doing something you do not approve of • Dad lowered the boom. I have to stay in the next two weekends.

boot

give sb the boot

- 1 informal to stop employing someone
   They gave him the boot for swearing at his manager.
- get the boot informal Did she tell you why she got the boot?
- 2 informal to end a romantic relationship with someone • She gave him the boot because he wouldn't stop talking about his ex-girlfriends.

put the boot in British, informal

- 1 to make a bad situation worse He lost his job and then his wife put the boot in by announcing she was leaving him.
- 2 to attack someone by kicking them again and again, usually when they are lying on the ground • Four lads pushed him down and then put the boot in.

boots

die with your boots on

to die while you are still actively involved in your work • I never want to retire – I'd rather die with my boots on.

hang up your boots

to permanently stop playing a sport • After a disastrous season it is rumoured that Gregory may hang up his boots once and for all. lick sb's boots informal to try too hard to please someone important • I'm not prepared to lick someone's boots to get a promotion.

boot-licking • Far too much boot-licking goes on in this office.

bootstraps

haul/pull yourself up by your bootstraps to improve your situation by your own efforts without any help from other people • My father pulled himself up by his bootstraps to become one of the richest men in the country.

bore

bore the arse off sb British & Australian, very informal bore the ass off sb American, very informal to make someone very bored • These wildlife programmes bore the arse off me.

bored

be bored to death/tears informal X be bored stiff informal to be very bored • The speeches went on for an hour. I was bored to death.

bore sb to death/tears
bore sb stiff • That film bored me to tears.

born

born and bred

if you were born and bred in a place, you were born and grew up in that place and have the typical character of someone who lives there • (often + in) She was born and bred in Jamaica but now lives in France. • He's a Londoner born and bred.

be born with a silver spoon in your mouth

to be the son or daughter of a very rich family • His complete lack of concern about money is natural of someone who was born with a silver spoon in their mouth.

I/he/she wasn't born yesterday!

something that you say in order to tell someone that a person is not stupid and cannot be easily deceived • You'd better think of a better excuse about the dent in my car. I wasn't born yesterday, you know!

• You can't expect your mother to believe that - she wasn't born yesterday!

bosom

in the bosom of sb literary

if you are in the bosom of a group of people, especially your family, you are with people who love you and make you feel safe • She was glad to be home again, back in the bosom of her family.

bossy

a bossy boots British & Australian, informal an impolite way of describing someone who always tells other people what to do

• Karen's such a bossy boots – ordering us around all the time.

bottle

hit the bottle

to start drinking too much alcohol regularly, usually in order to forget your problems • He lost his job and hit the bottle.

be on the bottle • She wasn't making much sense when I talked to her. I think she's on the bottle again.

bottom

sb's bottom drawer

the things a young woman collects to use in her home after she is married • I've given her some silver cutlery for her bottom drawer.

sh's bottom line

the lowest amount of money that someone is willing to give or receive in payment for something • My bottom line on this job is $5000 – I can't do it for less.

the bottom drops/falls out of the market

if the bottom drops out of the market of a product, people stop buying it • The bottom fell out of the art market and dealers were left with hundreds of unsaleable paintings.

the bottom line

- 1 the most important fact in a situation
   The bottom line is that people's health is at risk if they smoke.
- 2 the total amount of money that a business makes or loses The bottom line is what counts in most companies these days.

at the bottom of the heap/pile

in a worse situation than anyone else in a group of people • Those at the bottom of the heap feel that society has failed them.
• The homeless are at the bottom of the pile with little hope of improving their situation.

be bumping along the bottom British

if an economic system is bumping along the bottom, it is working very slowly • With the economy bumping along the bottom, it seems unlikely any new jobs will be created.

be/lie at the bottom of sth

to be the real reason for something unpleasant • I don't know for certain why she dislikes you, but I suspect jealousy is at the bottom of it.

from the bottom of your heart

with sincere feeling • We would like to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all your help.

get to the bottom of sth

to discover the truth about a situation
• (often + question word) The family finally got to the bottom of why their boy was killed. • How will investigators get to the bottom of the affair with so little evidence?

knock the bottom out of sth informal

to harm something and make it weaker, especially by taking away the thing it needs in order to continue or be successful • Ben losing his job has knocked the bottom out of our plans to buy a house.

bottomless

a bottomless pit X

someone or something that always needs or wants more of whatever they are given, especially money • It's a poor country with a bottomless pit of debt.
• Seb'll eat any food that's left over. He's a bottomless pit!

bound

be bound and determined American

to have a strong wish to do something and to not allow anything to stop you from doing it • (often + to do sth) She's bound and determined to make her career in medical research.

bounds

be out of bounds

- 1 if an area is out of bounds, you are not allowed to go there • All military sites are totally out of bounds.
- 2 if an activity or object is out of bounds, it is not approved of or not allowed • High fat foods are out of bounds on this diet.

know no bounds formal

if an emotion or quality knows no bounds, it is not limited • Tom's loyalty to the company knows no bounds.

bow

bow and scrape

to try too hard to please someone in a position of authority • (often in continuous tenses) It's embarrassing to see staff bowing and scraping to the new Prime Minister.

boy

a blue-eyed boy British & Australian

a fair-haired boy American & Australian a man who is liked and admired by someone in authority • He was very much the blue-eyed boy in the office.

a mummy's/mother's boy British & Australian

a mama's boy American

a boy or man who allows his mother to have too much influence on him • Derek's a bit of a mummy's boy. He finished with his last girlfriend because his mother disapproved. • He was often depicted as a weak-willed mama's boy with a domineering mother.

boys

Boys will be boys.

something that you say which means it is not surprising when boys or men behave in a noisy, rude, or unpleasant way • He goes drinking on a Friday night and always ends up in a fight. Boys will be boys.

the boys in blue British & Australian

the police • The boys in blue were round again last night, asking questions.

brain

a brain box British & Australian, informal a very intelligent person • Come on brain box, what's the answer?

a brain drain

the movement of people with education and skills from their own country to another country where they are paid more for their work • There is a brain drain of British mathematicians to the United States.

a brain trust American & Australian a group of people with special knowledge or skills who give advice to someone in a position of authority • He joined the President's brain trust for the election campaign.

be brain dead humorous

if someone is brain dead, their mind is not working effectively, usually because they are very tired or very bored • By the time I leave work I'm completely brain dead.

be out of your brain British, very informal

to be very drunk • By the time I arrived at the party he was out of his brain.

get your brain in gear informal

to make yourself start thinking clearly and effectively • I've got to get my brain in gear for the meeting this afternoon.

have sth on the brain informal

to not be able to stop thinking or talking about one particular thing • You've got cars on the brain. Can't we talk about something else for a change?

rack your brain/brains

to think very hard, usually in order to remember something or to find a solution to a problem • I've been racking my brains but I still can't remember who wrote that play.

brains

be the brains behind sth

to be the person who plans and organizes something, especially something successful • He was the brains behind many of the best movies ever made.

beat your brains out

to spend a lot of time worrying about a problem and thinking about how to deal with it • (often + doing sth) I've been beating my brains out trying to think of a way of getting the money to her in time.

blow sb's brains out

to kill someone by shooting them in the head • After two unsuccessful suicide attempts, she finally blew her brains out.

pick sb's brains

to ask for information or advice from someone who knows more about a subject than you do • I'd love to pick your brains about computers – you seem to be the expert around here.

brakes

put the brakes on

to stop an activity • The government has put the brakes on any further spending.

brass

brass monkey weather British, very informal

extremely cold weather • It's brass monkey weather today, isn't it!

be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey British, very informal

 We were in Moscow, and it was cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey.

the brass ring American success or a reward that you try to achieve, often by competing against other people • Our aim is to have the best team in the league – the brass ring is there guys, go and get it.

get down to brass tacks

to start talking about the most important or basic facts of a situation Brass tacks is Cockney rhyming slang (= an informal kind of language said to be used in parts of London) for facts. • Let's get down to brass tacks. Who's paying for all of this?

have the brass (neck) to do sth British, informal

have the brass (balls) to do sth American & Australian, very informal

to have the confidence to do something that is rude or shows a lack of respect, without caring whether people approve • How does she have the brass to ask for a day off during our busiest period? • He had the brass balls to announce his engagement to Sally in front of his exwife.

brave

put a brave face/front on sth

to behave in a way that makes people think you are happy when you are not • They've had some bad luck, but they've put a brave face on their problems. • She's very ill but she's putting a brave front on tt. (= making people believe her illness does not worry her) put on a brave face/front • He doesn't seem upset about losing. Do you think he's just putting on a brave face?

brawn

be all brawn and no brains

to be physically strong but not very intelligent • I agree he's got a good body, but he's all brawn and no brains.

breach

step into the breach formal

to do someone's work when they are suddenly not able to do it • Professor Collier stepped into the breach when the guest lecturer failed to turn up.

bread

sb's bread and butter informal

a job or activity that provides you with the money you need to live • Teaching at the local college is his bread and butter.

bread and butter a bread and butter subject or problem is about things that people need in order to live, such as money and jobs • Unemployment and taxes are the bread and butter issues of this campaign.

bread and circuses

activities that are intended to keep people happy so that they do not complain about problems • Tax cuts are just bread and circuses designed to distract attention from the underlying economic crisis.

breadline

be/live on the breadline British &

Australian

to be very poor In America, breadlines were very poor people standing in a line waiting for free food provided by the government. • Most families of the unemployed are on the breadline. • How many elderly people in Britain are living on the breadline?

belive below the breadline • There are immigrant families living below the breadline in some areas.

break

give sb a break informal

to stop criticizing or behaving in an unpleasant way to someone • Give her a break – she's only a child and she didn't mean any harm.

Give me/us a break! American &

Australian, informal

something that you say when you do not believe what someone has just said • 'You're going to run a marathon? Give me a break!'

breakfast

eat sb for breakfast

to speak angrily to someone, or to criticize someone • My boss would eat me for breakfast if I asked for more money.

breast

beat your breast

to publicly pretend that you feel sad or guilty • Managers are beating their breasts about the loss of 50 jobs, but staff suspect more redundancies are on the way. breast-beating • No amount of breastbeating will bring back those who died in the crash.

breath

a breath of fresh air

someone or something that is new and different and makes everything seem more exciting • Angela's like a breath of fresh air when she comes to stay. • After all the criticism, his positive comments came as a breath of fresh air.

catch your breath

- 1 to stop breathing for a moment because something surprises or frightens you • I caught my breath when I saw the scar on her face.
- 2 to rest for a moment after doing physical exercise and wait until you can breath regularly again • She stopped to catch her breath at the top of the hill.

Don't hold your breath.

something that you say in order to tell someone that an event is not likely to happen • She said she'd phone but don't hold your breath.

take your breath away

if something takes your breath away, you feel surprise and admiration because it is very beautiful, good, or exciting • The beauty of the Taj Mahal took my breath away.

under your breath

if you say something under your breath, you say it very quietly so that people cannot hear the exact words • 'I don't believe you.' she muttered under her breath.

waste your breath

to tell or ask someone something although this will have no effect • (often negative) Don't waste your breath. I've already asked her to help and she said no. • You'd be wasting your breath reporting it to the police – they never look for stolen bikes.

a waste of breath • I could try and persuade her to stay, but it would probably be a waste of breath.

brick

be/come up against a brick wall

to not be able to continue an activity or do something you want to do • I've tried everywhere I can think of for funding but I've come up against a brick wall. • My brother wants to leave home but he can't find a job. He's up against a brick wall.

shit a brick taboo

to be very frightened or worried • My niece took me on the rollercoaster and I nearly shit a brick.

bricks

You can't make bricks without straw.

something that you say which means you cannot do something correctly without the necessary materials • I need an electric drill to put these shelves up. You can't make bricks without straw.

bridge

I'll/We'll cross that bridge when I/we come to it.

something that you say in order to tell someone that you will not worry about a possible problem but will deal with it if it happens • 'What if the flight is delayed?' 'I'll cross that bridge when I come to it.'

bridges

build bridges

to improve relationships between people who are very different or do not like each other • (often + between) A local charity is working to build bridges between different ethnic groups in the area.

bright

bright and early

very early in the morning • You're up bright and early.

a bright spark British & Australian

an intelligent person Description This phrase is often used humorously to mean the opposite. • Some bright spark was clearing up and threw my invitation away.

a bright spot

a pleasant or successful event or period of time when most other things are unpleasant or not successful • (often + in) The only bright spot in Liverpool's disastrous performance was a stunning goal in the second half.

the bright lights

exciting and attractive people and places in big cities • I went in search of the bright lights, but all I found was poverty and loneliness.

be as bright as a button British & Australian

to be intelligent and able to think quickly
• She was bright as a button – always asking questions and quick to help.

be bright and breezy

to be happy and confident • I get a bit depressed at times, whereas Gill's always bright and breezy.

look on the bright side

to try to see something good in a bad situation • Look on the bright side. The accident insurance might pay for a new car.

bright-eyed

be bright-eyed and bushy-tailed

humorous

to be full of energy and eager to do things
• She was bright-eyed and bushy-tailed the next morning, despite having been up half the night.

bring

bring out the best in sb

to make someone show or use the good qualities they have • Stressful situations don't usually bring out the best in people.

OPPOSITE bring out the worst in sb • I can't stop criticizing her – she just brings out the worst in me.

brink

be on the brink of doing sth

to be likely to do something very soon
• The club's manager dismissed reports that he was on the brink of buying Peter Beardsley.

on the brink of sth

if someone or something is on the brink of a situation, that situation is likely to happen soon • The country is on the brink of civil war. • We are teetering on the brink of bankruptcy. • She is on the brink of international stardom.

broad

broad (brush) strokes

if you describe a situation with broad strokes, you describe it in a very general way without giving any details • The novel's historical background is filled in with broad brush strokes. • In a few broad strokes he summed up his beliefs.

a broad church British

an organization that includes many different types of people with different opinions • The Congress remains a broad church with members from a diversity of backgrounds.

be broad in the beam old-fashioned

to have a large bottom • Tess has always been rather broad in the beam, despite all those diets.

in broad daylight

if a crime is committed in broad daylight, it happens during the day when it could easily have been seen and prevented • The man was shot at close range in broad daylight in front of his house.

broke

go for broke informal X

to risk everything in order to achieve the result you want • She decided to go for broke and pursue her acting career full-time.

If it ain't broke, don't fix it.

something that you say which means if a system or method works well there is no reason to change it • We're happy with our exam system in Scotland, and as they say, if it ain't broke, don't fix it.

Bronx

a Bronx cheer American, informal

a rude sound you make by holding your tongue between your lips and blowing • Cindy turned around and blew a Bronx cheer at the kids who'd been teasing her.

brown

be as brown as a berry British &

Australian

if someone is as brown as a berry their skin has become much darker because of the effects of the sun • She's as brown as a berry after a month in Greece.

brown-bagging

brown-bagging American, informal

taking your own food, usually in a brown paper bag, to eat in the middle of the day when you are not at home • We've stopped brown-bagging – it's too cold now to eat in the park.

brown-bag • (always before noun) We had our meeting over a brown-bag lunch.

brownie

earn/get brownie points informal

to get praise or approval for something you have done • I thought I might get some brownie points by helping to organize the party.

brown-nose

brown-nose informal

to try too hard to please someone, especially someone in a position of authority, in a way that other people find unpleasant • The rest of the class were sick of watching him brown-nose.

brows

knit your brows literary

to move your eyebrows (= the hair above your eyes) closer together when you are worried or thinking carefully • Sasha knitted her brows as she listened to the storm forecast.

brunt

bear/take the brunt of sth

to receive the worst part of something unpleasant or harmful, such as an attack • The oldest parts of the town bore the brunt of the missile attacks.

bubble

the bubble bursts

a very happy or successful period of time suddenly ends • (usually in past tenses) The economy was booming, then the bubble burst with the stockmarket crash of October 1987.

burst the bubble • Their first argument burst the bubble.

buck

buck naked American & Australian,

informal

completely naked • I got a shock when I saw her sitting buck naked, drink in hand, watching TV.

The buck stops here.

something that you say in order to tell someone that you will take responsibility for a situation or problem • We carry out all the safety tests in this department, so the buck stops here.

The buck stops with sb. • The police authorized the raid and they must accept that the buck stops with them.

make a fast/quick buck American &

Australian, informal 💢

to earn money quickly and often in a way that is not honest  $\triangleq$  A buck is an informal word for a dollar (= a unit of money in America). • Times are hard – you have to make a fast buck wherever and however you can.

pass the buck

to blame someone or to make them responsible for a problem that you should deal with yourself in the card game poker, the buck is an object passed to the person who wins in order to remind them that they must be the first person to give money for the prize in the next game.

• (sometimes + to) Parents often try to pass the buck to teachers when children misbehave in school. • Bus companies are just passing the buck by saying their drivers are responsible for delays.

bucket

kick the bucket informal to die • Didn't you hear? He kicked the bucket. Had a heart attack, I think.

buckets

sweat buckets informal

to sweat (= lose water through your skin) a lot • I was sweating buckets under my plastic rain jacket.

bucks

a bucks party Australian

a party for a man who is going to get married to which only his male friends are invited • I got a bit drunk at Pete's bucks party and disgraced myself.

bud

nip sth in the bud

to prevent a small problem from getting worse by stopping it soon after it starts • The strike was nipped in the bud by some clever negotiation.

buff

in the buff old-fashioned

naked • He came out of the bedroom in the buff.

buffers

hit the buffers British

if a plan or activity hits the buffers, it fails to develop or is stopped De The buffers are two pieces of metal at the end of a railway line that a train will hit if it does not stop. • The talks hit the buffers after only 4 hours.

built

be built like a brick shithouse British & Australian, very informal

if someone is built like a brick shithouse, they are very strong and very big • I wasn't going to argue with him – he was built like a brick shithouse.

be built like a tank

if a person or a vehicle is built like a tank, they are very strong and very big • These cars are built like tanks. • I should imagine he's pretty strong – he's built like a tank.

be built on sand

if something is built on sand, it is not firmly established and is likely to fail
• They seem quite happy now but I have a feeling that this marriage is built on sand.

bull

be like a bull in a china shop

to often drop or break things because you move awkwardly or roughly • Rob's like a bull in a china shop – don't let him near those plants. • She's like a bull in a china shop when it comes to dealing with people's feelings. (= behaves in a way that offends people)

like a bull at a gate

if you do something like a bull at a gate, you do it very quickly • Al wants to finish the shelves today so he's going at them like a bull at a gate.

take the bull by the horns

to do something difficult in a determined and confident way • Why don't you take the bull by the horns and tell him to leave?

bullet

bite the bullet

to make yourself do something or accept something difficult or unpleasant Note: When army doctors performed painful operations without drugs, they gave patients a bullet to put between their teeth. • They decided to bite the bullet and pay the extra for the house they really wanted. • Car drivers are biting the bullet after another rise in petrol prices.

bullets

sweat bullets American, informal

to be very worried or frightened • He was sweating bullets by the time the police had finished questioning him.

bull-headed

bull-headed

someone who is bull-headed is determined to do exactly what they want to do, and does not think about what other people want • He's completely bull-headed. I asked him not to throw out that old table, but he did it anyway.

bully

Bully for you! informal

something that you say when you do not think what someone has done deserves praise or admiration, although they think it does • 'I cleaned the whole house yesterday.' 'Bully for you!'

a bully pulpit American

an important job or position that someone can use to persuade other people to accept their ideas • The presidency is a wonderful bully pulpit to convince the country of the need for a balanced budget.

bum

a bum rap American, informal

blame or punishment that is not fair • Teachers are getting a bum rap from people who say they don't work hard enough. • She was sent up to the penitentiary on a bum rap.

a bum steer American & Australian, informal

information that is not correct or not helpful • The bus driver gave us a bum steer and we ended up miles from where we wanted to go. • Her suggestion to eat at that little Italian restaurant was a bum steer. (= a bad suggestion)

the bum's rush American, informal

the action of getting rid of someone who is not wanted • The photographer was given the bum's rush by two policemen guarding the office. • Why do I feel I'm getting the bum's rush? Where are you off to?

bump

like a bump on a log American, informal if someone sits or stands somewhere like a bump on a log, they do not react in a useful or helpful way to the activities happening around them • Don't just sit there like a bump on a log, come and help us!

bumper

bumper to bumper

vehicles that are bumper to bumper are in a line one after another and are moving very slowly or stopped • Cars were lined up bumper to bumper along the whole length of the road.

bumper-to-bumper • (always before noun) We were caught in bumper-tobumper traffic for over an hour.

bun

have a bun in the oven British &

Australian, humorous to be pregnant • I hear Wendy's got a bun in the oven.

bundle

a bundle of joy informal

a baby • Three days after the birth, Sandra took home her little bundle of joy.

not be a bundle of laughs informal

to not be entertaining or enjoyable • She's not a bundle of laughs, your cousin. • The funeral wasn't exactly a bundle of laughs.

not go a bundle on sth British, informal to not like something • I don't go a bundle on Anne's new haircut.

bunnies

fuck like bunnies American, taboo if people fuck like bunnies they produce too many babies very quickly • Ten kids! Those people fuck like bunnies.

burn

burn your boats British & Australian burn your bridges British, American & Australian to do something that makes it impossible for you to change your plans and go back to the situation you were in before • She didn't want to burn her boats by asking for a divorce, so she suggested a trial separation instead. • I'd already burned my bridges with my previous employer by publicly criticizing their products.

burning

have sth burning a hole in your pocket

humorous

if someone has money burning a hole in their pocket, they want to spend it as soon as possible • I had a fifty dollar bill that was burning a hole in my pocket, so I figured I'd go out and have a really good time.

bush

bush league American, informal

not done to the usual or accepted standards • His article was a bush league stunt to discredit the company, and he has apologized.

the bush telegraph British & Australian the way in which people quickly pass important information to other people, especially by talking • News of the redundancies spread immediately on the bush telegraph.

beat about/around the bush X

to avoid talking about a difficult or embarrassing subject because you are worried about upsetting the person you are talking to • (usually negative) Don't beat around the bush. Just tell me where my brother is. • There is no point in beating about the bush. I'm leaving you.

bushes

beat the bushes American

to try very hard to get or achieve something • She's not out there beating the bushes for a job – she's just as happy not working.

business

business is business

something that you say which means the purpose of business is to make a profit, and that other things, such as personal feelings, must not be allowed to prevent this • Business is business, and if your friend can't produce the work on time, I'll have to find someone else.

the business end informal

the business end of a weapon or tool is the end which does the damage or work · She screamed when she found herself facing the business end of his gun.

not in the business of doing sth

if you are not in the business of doing something, you do not do it, usually because you think it is wrong . I'm not in the business of causing trouble.

mix business with pleasure

to combine work with social activities or enjoyment . (usually negative) Let's keep this relationship strictly professional. I prefer not to mix business with pleasure.

business as usual X

a situation that has returned to its usual state again after an unpleasant or surprising event • It was business as usual at the school yesterday only a month after the fire.

be in business informal X

to be able to start doing something because you have everything you need to do it . As soon as I find my map and my kevs we're in business.

do the business British & Australian. informal

- 1 to achieve what is wanted or needed in a situation • As long as he does the business on the football field, the club is happy with
- 2 to have sex . So he went home with her. Do you think they did the business?

mean business

to be serious about achieving something, even if other people disagree with you · The changes the new government has made show they mean business.

busman

a busman's holiday

time away from work that is spent doing something that is similar to your usual job . Going to the beach is too much of a busman's holiday for him - he's a lifeguard!

bust

bust your ass/balls American, very informal bust your arse Australian, very informal to use a lot of effort to do something • I busted my balls getting him that ticket, and now he's changed his mind! . He bust his arse for ten years in that job and got no thanks for it.

busy

be as busy as a bee old-fashioned be a busy bee old-fashioned to be very busy or very active . She's as busy as a bee, always going to meetings and organizing parties.

butt

sb's butt is on the line American & Australian, very informal

if someone's butt is on the line, they are in a situation where they will be blamed if things go wrong . It's my butt on the line if we don't make this delivery today. so get moving guys.

kick (sb's) butt American & Australian, very informal to punish someone or to defeat someone with a lot of force . The officer told his men to move in on the protestors and kick butt-show them who's boss! . We went out with the gang to kick some butt.

butter

butter wouldn't melt in sb's mouth

if butter wouldn't melt in someone's mouth, they look as if they would never do anything wrong although you think they would . She looks as though butter wouldn't melt in her mouth but I've seen her fighting with the younger kids.

butterflies

have butterflies (in your stomach)

to feel very nervous, usually about something you are going to do • She had butterflies in her stomach as she walked out onto the stage.

button

Button it! informal

an impolite way of telling someone that you want them to stop talking • Button it, OK! I'm trying to think.

on the button mainly American, informal if something happens at a particular time or is a particular amount on the button, it happens at exactly that time or is exactly that amount • We always sit down to eat at 6.00 on the button.

(right) on the button mainly American, informal

if a remark is on the button, it is exactly right • Your remarks about Tim were right on the button. He's arrogant, rude and selfish.

buzz

a buzz word

a word or phrase that people in a particular group start to use a lot because they think it is important • Minimalism is the latest buzz word in modern architecture.

give sb a buzz

- 1 informal to telephone someone Give me a buzz when you get home.
- 2 if something gives you a buzz, it makes you feel excited • Watching live bands really gives me a buzz.

get a buzz from sth/doing sth informal
I get a real buzz from seeing my name in print.

bygones

Let bygones be bygones. slightly formal something that you say in order to tell someone to forget about unpleasant things that have happened in the past • Why can't you put all that bad feeling behind you and let bygones be bygones?

by-your-leave

without so much as a by-your-leave oldfashioned

if you say that someone does something without so much as a by-your-leave, you mean you are angry because they did not ask your permission to do it • That's twice now he's just marched in here without so much as a by-your-leave and picked a book off my shelf!

caboodle

the whole (kit and) caboodle informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • I like everything about Christmas – the presents, the food, the carols – the whole caboodle.

cack-handed

cack-handed

- 1 British & Australian, informal lacking skill with your hands • Rob made a cackhanded attempt to fix the door and now it won't close at all. • She doesn't strike me as the practical sort – she's a bit cack-handed.
- 2 British & Australian, informal lacking skill in the way that you deal with people
  - What struck me was the cack-handed way that he dealt with the whole situation.

cage

rattle sb's cage

to make someone angry on purpose, often in order to make them seem silly • She tried to rattle his cage with questions about his failed army career.

cahoots

be in cahoots

to be secretly planning something together, especially something dishonest • (usually + with) There are theories that someone in the government was in cahoots with the assassin.

Cain

raise Cain old-fashioned

to complain angrily about something and to cause a lot of trouble for the people who are responsible for it • They know that the children's parents will raise Cain if they're excluded from classes.

cake

have your cake and eat it (too)

to have or do two good things that it is usually impossible to have or do at the same time • He wants to have his cake and eat it. He wants the security of marriage and the excitement of affairs. • You can't have your cake and eat it. If you want better local services, you have to pay more tax.

the icing on the cake British, American & Australian

the frosting on the cake American

something which makes a good situation even better • I was just content to see my daughter in such a stable relationship but a grandchild, that was really the icing on the cake.

call

call the shots/tune

to be the person who makes all the important decisions and who has the most power in a situation • She was used to calling the shots, to being in charge.

a call girl

a woman who has sex with men for money, especially one who arranges her meetings by telephone • His ex-wife claimed that call girls had visited his apartment each week.

answer the call of nature humorous

to urinate (= pass liquid from the body)
• I had to go into the woods to answer the call of nature.

calling

a calling card

- 1 something that shows a person or animal has been in a place The beetles leave behind their calling cards: little white balls on the outside of the trees.
- 2 mainly American a quality or achievement that gives someone an advantage • This performance acted as the calling card that landed Taylor her first major film role.

calm

the calm before the storm

a peaceful and quiet period before a period of activity or trouble • The family are arriving this afternoon so I'm just sitting down with a cup of coffee, enjoying the calm before the storm.

camp

a camp follower

someone who strongly supports a person or group although they are not a member of an official organization • The campaign for real ale had gathered quite a number of camp followers.

can

a can of worms informal

a situation which causes a lot of trouble for you when you start to deal with it • Quite what we do with all the waste generated by this industry is another can of worms. • Once you start making concessions to individual members of staff, you really open up a can of worms. (= cause a lot of trouble for yourself)

be in the can

if a film is in the can, it has been completed and is now ready to be shown
• We started filming in April so the final sequence should be in the can at the end of the month.

carry the can British & Australian

to take the blame or responsibility for something that is wrong or has not succeeded • (often + for) She suspected that she'd be left to carry the can for her boss's mistakes.

candle

burn the candle at both ends

to get little sleep or rest because you are busy until late every night and you get up early every morning • (usually in continuous tenses) She'd been burning the candle at both ends studying for her exams and made herself ill.

can't hold a candle to sb/sth

if someone or something cannot hold a candle to someone or something else, they are not as good as that other person or thing • These pop bands that you hear nowadays can't hold a candle to the groups we used to listen to in the sixties.

can-do

can-do

willing to try different ways to solve problems and confident that you will succeed • (always before noun) Her cando attitude is the reason we chose her for the job.

candy

eye/mind candy American

something that is intended to be pleasant to look at but has no real meaning • A lot of these books are little more than eye candy: cute photos with one-line captions and that's about all.

cannon

cannon fodder X

soldiers who are not believed to be important and who are sent to fight in the most dangerous places where they are likely to die • Inexperienced troops were used as cannon fodder.

canoe

paddle your own canoe informal

to be independent and not need help from anyone else • We hoped that after he left college he'd paddle his own canoe.

cap

to cap it all

if you have been describing bad things which happened and then say that to cap it all something else happened, you mean that the final thing was even worse • He spilled red wine on the carpet, insulted my mother, and, to cap it all, he broke my favourite vase.

capital

with a capital [A/B/C etc.]

- 1 something that you say in order to emphasize a particular quality You're trouble with a capital T, you are!
- 2 if you talk about a subject with a capital A/B/C etc., you mean the most formal and often limited understanding of that subject • The Academy has been criticized for being too traditional and only supporting Art with a capital A.

carbon

a carbon copy

someone or something that is extremely similar to someone or something else • (usually + of) He's a carbon copy of his father.

card

be one card/several cards short of a full deck humorous

if someone is one card short of a full deck, they are stupid or crazy • Do you think your cousin might be one card short of a full deck?

have a card up your sleeve X

to have an advantage that other people do not know about • I still had a card up my sleeve in the form of a letter from his father.

cardboard

cardboard city X

an area of a large city where many people without a home sleep outside Cardboard is a type of thick, stiff paper used to make the type of boxes that people living outside sometimes sleep in to keep warm. • Young people come to the capital full of hope and end up in cardboard city.

cards

the cards are stacked against sb

if the cards are stacked against someone, they are not at all likely to succeed in a particular situation because they have a lot of problems • He fought a brilliant campaign, but the cards were stacked against him from the start.

(if you) play your cards right informal x something that you say to someone which means that if they behave in the right way, they might succeed at something • Play your cards right and you could be managing this place in a year or so.

be on the cards British, American & Australian

be in the cards American & Australian

to be likely to happen 🔊 Tarot cards are a special set of cards with pictures on them, which some people believe can be used to find out what is going to happen in the future. • 'Do you think there'll be an election next year?' I think it's on the cards'. • (often + for) There are some big changes in the cards for next year.

have/hold all the cards

to be in a strong position when you are competing with someone else, because you have all the advantages • There isn't much hope of him getting custody of the children – as far as the law goes, she holds all the cards.

Cards is used in the following phrases connected with telling or not telling people your thoughts or plans.

keep/play your cards close to your chest to not tell anyone what you plan to do • I never know what Martin's next move will be. He plays his cards close to his chest.

lay/put your cards on the table X

to tell someone honestly what you think or what you plan to do • I'll put my cards on the table: I don't like the way you've been behaving. • She thought it was time to put her cards on the table and tell him that she had no intention of marrying him.

care

not have a care in the world

to be completely happy and not have any worries • I was sixteen years old and didn't have a care in the world. • He was walking along the street whistling, looking as if he didn't have a care in the world.

without a care in the world • This time last week I was lying on a sunny beach without a care in the world.

carried

be carried out feet first

if someone will not leave a place until they are carried out feet first, they will not leave until they are dead • James would never leave his home to go to a retirement village – he'd be carried out feet first!

carrot-and-stick

if you use a carrot-and-stick method to make someone do something, you both offer rewards and threaten punishments • (always before noun) I've had to take the carrot-and-stick approach to disciplining my kids. The harder they work, the more money they get.

carrot-top

a carrot-top informal

a person with hair that is an orange colour • Joe's blond and Rosie's a carrottop.

cart

put the cart before the horse X

to do things in the wrong order • Deciding what to wear before you've even been invited to the party is rather putting the cart before the horse, isn't it?

carte blanche

give sb carte blanche slightly formal

to let someone do whatever they want in a particular situation • (usually + to do sth) She gave her interior decorator carte blanche to do up her apartment.

get/have carte blanche slightly formal • He had carte blanche when it came to choosing which actors he wanted to work with.

case

a case in point X

an example which shows that what you are saying is true or helps to explain why you are saying it • Lack of communication causes relationships to fail. Your parents' marriage is a case in point.

be on the case

to be doing what needs to be done in a particular situation • We need to book a flight before it's too late.' 'Don't worry, I'm on the case, just leave it to me.'

get on sb's case informal X

to criticize someone in an annoying way for something that they have done • I just don't want him getting on my case for being late for work.

be on sb's case informal • Some feminists decided that my remarks were sexist and they've been on my case ever since.

OPPOSITE get off sb's case informal • Itold him very straightforwardly that the problem had already been dealt with and he was to get off my case. (= stop criticizing me)

I rest my case.

something that you say when someone says or does something that proves the truth of something you have just said • 'It's time Nigel left home, or he'll never learn to be independent.' 'He doesn't even know how to boil an egg.' 'Irest my case.'

make (out) a case for sth/doing sth

to give good reasons why something should be done • You've certainly made out a case for us buying a dishwasher.

cash

cash on the barrelhead American

money that is paid immediately when something is bought • She's asking $6000 for the car – cash on the barrelhead.

a cash cow

a business or a part of a business that always makes a lot of profit • The British newspapers are the group's biggest cash cow, earning nearly 40% of group profits.

hard cash British, American & Australian cold cash American & Australian

money in the form of coins or notes (= paper money) • We gave him half the money in hard cash and wrote a cheque for the rest.

casting

the casting couch humorous

a situation in which an actor, usually a woman actor, agrees to have sex with someone in order to get a part in a film or play • Thankfully, the casting couch is no longer the only route to success for aspiring young actresses.

cast-iron

cast-iron

a cast-iron promise or arrangement is one that can be trusted completely (always before noun) No new business comes with a cast-iron guarantee of success.

castles

castles in the air

plans or hopes that have very little chance of happening • She tells me she's planned out her whole career, but as far as I can see it's all just castles in the air. • Before you start building castles in the air, just think how much all this is likely to cost.

cat

be like a cat on a hot tin roof

to be nervous and unable to keep still • What's the matter with her? She's like a cat on a hot tin roof this morning.

be the cat's whiskers British &

Australian

to be better than everyone else • I thought I was the cat's whiskers in my new dress.

fight like cat and dog British & Australian

fight like cats and dogs British & American

to argue violently all the time • We get on very well as adults but as kids we fought like cat and dog.

Has the cat got your tongue?

something that you say to someone when you are annoyed because they will not speak • Well, has the cat got your tongue? I'm waiting for an explanation.

not have a cat in hell's chance British.

to have no chance at all of achieving something • (usually + of + doing sth)

Thay haven't a cat in hell's chance of getting over the mountain in weather like this.

let the cat out of the bag

to tell people secret information, often without intending to • I was trying to keep the party a secret, but Jim went and let the cat out of the bag.

like the cat that got the cream British & Australian

like the cat that ate the canary American if someone looks like the cat that got the cream, they annoy other people by looking very pleased with themselves because of something good that they have done • Of course Mark got a glowing report so he was sitting there grinning like the cat that got the cream.

look like something the cat

brought/dragged in informal

if someone looks like something the cat brought in, they are very untidy and dirty • You can't possibly go to school like that – you look like something the cat dragged in!

Look what the cat's dragged in!

informal

an insulting way of saying that someone has just arrived, suggesting that they are ugly and badly dressed • Well, look what the cat's dragged in. Did you make that dress or borrow it from your mother?

play cat and mouse

to try to defeat someone by tricking them into making a mistake so that you have an advantage over them • (often + with) The 32-year-old actress spent a large proportion of the week playing cat and mouse with the press.

a cat and mouse game • It's just the latest manoeuvre in the eternal cat and mouse game between the police and drug runners.

put/set the cat among the pigeons

British & Australian

to do or say something that causes trouble and makes a lot of people angry or worried • Tell them all they've got to work on Saturday. That should set the cat among the pigeons.

When/While the cat's away (the mice will play).

something that you say which means when the person in authority is absent, people will not do what they should do • Do you think it's wise to leave the children alone for so long? You know, while the cat's away...

catbird

be (sitting) in the catbird seat American, old-fashioned

to be in a position of power and importance • He'll be sitting in the cathird seat when the boss retires.

catch

catch 22

a catch 22 situation

a situation where one thing must happen in order to cause another thing to happen, but because the first thing does not happen the second thing cannot happen (a) Catch 22 is the title of a book by Joseph Heller about the experiences of an American pilot. • If you don't have a place to stay, you can't get a job and with no job, you can't get an apartment. It's a catch 22 situation.

you'll catch it British, informal

something that you say in order to tell someone they will be punished for something bad they have done • You'll catch it if dad sees you smoking.

catch-as-catch-can

catch-as-catch-can American

achieved any way that is possible and not in a planned way • We were working round the clock to finish the project so food and sleep were catch-as-catch-can.

catty-corner

catty-corner American

catty-cornered American

in a direction from one corner of a square to the opposite, far corner • (often + to) Catty-corner to the theatre, there's a drugstore.

caught

be caught in the crossfire

to be badly affected by a situation where two people or groups are arguing with each other • (often + of) Unhappy children are often caught in the crossfire of arguing parents. • (often + between) She became caught in the crossfire between two bosses with different ideas about what her job involved.

be caught napping

to not be ready to deal with something at the time when it happens • Arsenal's defence was caught napping as Andrews chipped in a goal from the right.

be caught short

1 British & Australian, informal to have a sudden urgent need to go to the toilet

- You should go to the toilet before you leave. You don't want to be caught short on the journey.
- 2 American & Australian, informal to suddenly find you are not prepared for a situation, especially to be without money when you need it • I'm caught short. Can you you lend me some money so I can pay for my lunch?

be caught with your pants/trousers down

- 1 to be suddenly discovered doing something that you did not want other people to know about, especially having sex Apparently he was caught with his pants down. His wife came home to find him in bed with the neighbour.
- 2 to be asked to do or say something that you are not prepared for • He asked me where I'd been the previous evening and I was caught with my trousers down.

cause célèbre

a cause célèbre

a famous event or legal case which people discuss a lot because it is so interesting or shocking • The relationship between Edward Prince of Wales and Wallis Simpson became an international cause célèbre in the 1930s.

caution

throw caution to the wind(s)

to take a risk • You could always throw caution to the wind and have another glass of wine.

centre

be/take centre stage British be/take center stage American

to be the most important thing or person at an event or in a situation, or to be the thing or person that people notice most • A new range of electric cars will be centre stage at next month's exhibition.

certain

sb of a certain age humorous

used to avoid saying that a person, usually a woman, is no longer young but is not yet old • It's a clothes boutique which caters for women of a certain age.

c'est la vie

C'est la vie.

something that you say when something happens that you do not like but which you have to accept because you cannot change it • I've got so much work that I can't go away this weekend. Oh well, c'est la vie.

chain

pull/yank sb's chain American &

Australian, informal

to say or do something that upsets another person, especially because you enjoy upsetting them • Boy, she really knows how to pull your chain!

chalk

be (like) chalk and cheese British & Australian

be as different as chalk and cheese

British & Australian

if two people are like chalk and cheese, they are completely different from each other • I don't have anything in common with my brother. We're like chalk and cheese.

chalkface

at the chalkface

a teacher who is at the chalkface is teaching students, and is not working in any other kind of job connected with education • The media give a picture of falling standards in schools, but there is optimism at the chalkface.

chance

Chance would be a fine thing! British, informal

something that you say which means that you would very much like something to happen but there is no possibility that it will • He said I could do it in my spare time. Spare time? Chance would be a fine thing!

stand a chance

to have a chance of success • (usually negative) If government funding is withdrawn, small, independent theatres don't stand a chance. • (often + of + doing sth) We might stand a chance of winning

if we continue to play as well as we did today.

change

a change of heart

if someone has a change of heart, they change their opinion or the way they feel about something • The revised legislation follows a change of heart by the government. • She was going to sell the house but had a change of heart at the last minute.

the change of life

the time in a woman's life when she is no longer young and stops having a monthly flow of blood • For the last ten years she's been blaming all her health problems on the change of life.

get no change out of $\operatorname{sb} British \&$

Australian, informal

if you say that someone will get no change out of another person, you mean that person will not help them • You'll get no change out of Chris. He'll just say it's not his problem.

changes

ring the changes British & Australian

to make something more interesting by changing it in some way • Bored with your old look? Ring the changes with our new-look hairstyles and make-up!

chapter

be a chapter of accidents British &

Australian, formal

to be a series of unpleasant events • The whole trip was a chapter of accidents.

give/quote (sb) chapter and verse

to give exact information about something, especially something in a book • The strength of the book is that when it makes accusations it gives chapter and verse, often backed up by photographic evidence. • I can't quote you chapter and verse, but I'm pretty sure it's a line from 'Macbeth'.

charity

Charity begins at home.

something that you say which means you should try to help your family and friends before you help other people • You ought to stay in and look after your father. Charity begins at home.

charley

a charley horse American, informal a sudden, painful tightening of a muscle in your arm or leg • She got a charley horse in her leg and had to stop dancing.

charm

work like a charm

if a plan or method works like a charm, it has exactly the effect that you want it to • I tried that stain remover you gave me on my tablecloth and it worked like a charm.

charmed

have/lead/live a charmed life

to always be lucky and safe from danger
• After her miraculous escape from the fire we've decided she leads a charmed life.

chase

cut to the chase informal

to talk about or deal with the important parts of a subject and not waste time with things that are not important • I didn't have long to talk to him so I cut to the chase and asked whether he was still married.

chasing

be chasing your tail

to be very busy doing a lot of things, but achieving very little • I've been chasing my tail all morning trying to fix a day when everyone can attend.

chattering

the chattering classes British, humorous educated people who like to discuss and give their opinions about political and social matters • Football has recently become a trendy topic among the chattering classes.

cheap

cheap and cheerful British, informal costing little money but attractive, pleasant, or enjoyable • They specialize in cheap and cheerful package holidays to Spain and Portugal.

cheap and nasty British & Australian

costing little money and of bad quality
• You know the sort of cheap and nasty clothes that are sold on market stalls.

Cheap at half the price! British &

Australian, humorous

something that you say when something is very expensive • 'That'll be £3.20 please.' What? For one bottle of beer! Cheap at half the price.'

a cheap shot X

a criticism of someone that is not fair
• She dismissed his comments as a 'cheap shot', saying that he was only concerned to defend himself. • Federal bureaucracy is the target for every cheap shot artist (= someone who likes criticizing other people) in America.

on the cheap

if you buy or do something on the cheap, you buy or do it for very little money, often with the result that it is of bad quality • The buildings would have been a whole lot better if they hadn't been built on the cheap.

check

hold/keep sth/sb in check

to keep something or someone under control, usually to stop them becoming too large or too powerful • The natural order of things is that the predators of an animal keep the population in check. • The central banks' action seemed at the time to be holding the dollar in check.

checks

checks and balances

rules intended to prevent one person or group from having too much power within an organization • A system of checks and balances exists to ensure that our government is truly democratic.

cheddar

Hard/Tough cheddar! British &

Australian, informal

Stiff cheddar! Australian, informal

something that you say to or about someone to whom something bad has happened in order to show that you have no sympathy for them • It's about time Richard realized that he can't have everything his own way – tough cheddar, that's what I say!

cheek

cheek by jowl

very close together \( \otimes \) Jowl is a word for the loose flesh by the lower jaw, which is very close to the cheek. • The poor lived cheek by jowl in industrial mining towns in Victorian England.

cheese

Hard/Tough cheese! British & Australian, informal

Stiff cheese! Australian, informal

something that you say to or about someone to whom something bad has happened in order to show that you have no sympathy for them • So he's fed up because he's got to get up early one morning in seven, is he? Well hard cheese!

Say cheese! informal something that someone who is taking a photograph of you tells you to say so that your mouth makes the shape of a smile • OK everyone, look at the camera and say cheese.

cheese-paring

cheese-paring British

actions that show you are not willing to spend or give money • I'm fed up with all this cheese-paring. You've got to spend money if you want to make money.

chef d'oeuvre

a chef d'oeuvre formal

an artist's or writer's best piece of work

• The Decameron is widely regarded as Boccaccio's chef d'oeuvre.

cherry-pick

cherry-pick sb/sth

to choose only the best people or things in a way that is not fair • (usually in continuous tenses) Isn't there a danger that the state schools might start cherrypicking the pupils with the best exam results?

cherry-picking • I suspect there's some cherry-picking going on, with lawyers only taking on the sort of cases that they're likely to win.

chest

get it off your chest X

to tell someone about something that has been worrying you or making you feel guilty for a long time, in order to make you feel better • It was something that had been bothering me for some time and it felt good to get it off my chest.

chew

chew the fat British, informal chew the rag American, informal to have a long friendly conversation with someone • We spent the evening watching the TV and chewing the fat.

chicken

chicken feed

a very small amount of money, especially money that is paid for doing a job • He pays his labourers chicken feed.

a chicken and egg situation

a situation in which it is impossible to say which of two things existed first and which caused the other • It's a chicken and egg situation – I don't know whether I was bad at the sciences because I wasn't interested in them or not interested in them and therefore not good at them.

like a headless chicken British like a chicken with its head cut off

American

if you do something like a headless chicken, you do it very quickly and without thinking carefully about what you are doing • (usually in continuous tenses) I've got so much work to do – I've been running around like a headless chicken all week. • He was racing around like a chicken with its head cut off trying to do the work of two people.

chicken-hearted

chicken-hearted American

not brave • These chicken-hearted bosses always seem to give in at the first sign of a strike.

chickens

chickens come home to roost

if you say that chickens are coming home to roost, you mean that bad or silly things done in the past are beginning to cause problems • There was too much greed in the past, and now the chickens are coming home to roost with crime and corruption soaring.

come home to roost • The city's budget problems are coming home to roost and everybody is paying with higher taxes.

Don't count your chickens (before they're hatched).

something that you say in order to warn someone to wait until a good thing they are expecting has really happened before they make any plans about it • You might be able to get a loan from the bank, but don't count your chickens.

chief

be chief cook and bottle washer

humorous

to be the person who is responsible for cooking meals and washing the pans and dishes • It's my birthday party, so Alan is chief cook and bottle washer tonight.

chiefs

too many chiefs (and not enough Indians)

too many bosses, and not enough people to do the work • I can't find anyone to do the photocopying. There are too many chiefs and not enough Indians in this company.

child

be child's play

to be very easy • Using this new computer is child's play.

be like a child in a sweetshop British

to be very happy and excited about the things around you, and often to react to them in a way which is silly and not controlled • Give him a room full of old books and he's like a child in a sweetshop.

be with child old-fashioned

to be pregnant • Emily was unable to make the journey, being heavy with child.

children

Children should be seen and not heard.

something that you say which means that children should be quiet • I can't stand all that shouting. Children should be seen and not heard, in my opinion.

chill

chill sb to the bone/marrow

to make someone feel very frightened
• The sound of scraping at the window chilled me to the bone.

chilled

be chilled to the bone/marrow

to be very cold • After an hour standing at the bus stop I was chilled to the bone.

chills

send chills down/up sb's spine

to make someone feel very frightened

Just thinking about walking back through the dark streets sent chills down her spine.

chin

Chin up! old-fashioned

something that you say to someone in a difficult situation in order to encourage them to be brave and to try not to be sad • Chin up, you'll feel better after a few days' rest.

keep your chin up • We're pleased to hear that you're keeping your chin up despite all your difficulties.

take it on the chin

- 1 to be brave and not to complain when bad things happen to you or people criticize you • Atkinson took it all on the chin, though some members of his team were very upset by the criticism they received.
- 2 to have a lot of bad things happen to you or to be criticized a lot • The company has been taking it on the chin in recent months, but the future looks much brighter now and their sales are picking up.

chink

a chink in sb's armour British & Australian

a chink in sb's armor American & Australian

if someone or something which seems to be strong has a chink in their armour, they have a small fault which may cause them problems • She's a brilliant businesswoman, but her lack of political awareness may be the chink in her armour.

chinless

a chinless wonder British & Australian,

humorous

an English man from a high social class, who thinks he is intelligent and important, but who other people think is weak and stupid • He's just another chinless wonder doing a job that his Daddy got for him.

chip

a chip off the old block

if someone is a chip off the old block, they are very similar in character to one of their parents or to another older member of their family • (not used with the) Look at her bossing everyone around -she's a real chip off the old block!

have a chip on your shoulder

to blame other people for something bad which has happened to you and to continue to be angry about it so that it affects the way you behave • (often + about) Even though he went to university, he's always had a chip on his shoulder about his poor upbringing.

chips

be in the chips American, informal if someone is in the chips, they have suddenly got a lot of money • Apparently his uncle's left him everything, so he's really in the chips.

call/cash in your chips

- 1 humorous to die He cashed in his chips shortly before his ninetieth birthday.
- 2 to sell things that you own, especially shares (= parts of a business), because you need some money Chips are the round pieces of plastic that are used in some games played for money. I think it's time to cash in our chips. It's the only way we can pay the bill.

have had your chips

1 British, informal if you have had your chips, something bad is going to happen to you, usually a punishment for something bad you have done • When the police knocked on his door early in the morning, he knew he'd had his chips.

2 British, informal to miss an opportunity to achieve something you want • John's had his chips. I gave him the chance of a promotion and he threw it away.

have had its chips informal

something that has had its chips is going to end because it is not wanted or needed any more • It looks as though the mainframe computer has had its chips.

let the chips fall where they may

American

to do something without worrying about the effects of your actions • She promised to ask a series of questions in her interview and let the chips fall where they may.

when the chips are down

when you are in a difficult or dangerous situation, especially one which tests whether you can trust people or which shows people's true opinions • When the chips are down, you need people around you that you can depend on. • When the chips were down, she found she didn't really love him as much as she thought.

chocolate

chocolate box

a chocolate box place or thing is very attractive in a way that does not seem real • (always before noun) We drove through a series of chocolate box villages on our way down to Brighton.

choice

be spoilt for choice mainly British be spoiled for choice mainly American to have so many good possible choices that it is difficult to make a decision • With 51 flavours of ice-cream to choose from you are spoiled for choice.

chop

chop and change British & Australian

to keep changing what you do or what you plan to do, often in a way that is confusing and annoying for other people

After six months of chopping and changing, we've decided to go back to our old system.

68

Chop chop! British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to tell someone to hurry • Come on, chop chop, up to bed!

get the chop be given the chop

1 British, informal if a person gets the chop, they lose their job • Anyone who argued with the foreman was liable to be given the chop.

be for the chop British, informal • The boss has asked to see Henry this morning. I've a feeling he's for the chop.

2 British, informal if a plan or a service gets the chop, it is stopped • Our local bus service got the chop, so I have to walk to work or use the car.

be for the chop British, informal • There are rumours that children's hearing tests may be for the chop.

chord

strike a chord X

if something you hear or see strikes a chord, it seems familiar to you • Carson? That name strikes a chord.

strike/touch a chord

if something strikes a chord with someone, they are interested in it and like it because it is connected with their own lives or opinions • Clearly the book has struck a chord, as we can see from the hundreds of letters we have received from readers. • (often + with) Her ideas on social reform will strike a chord with poor people everywhere.

chosen

the chosen few

a small group of people who are treated differently or better than other people, often when they do not deserve it • There's a special entrance with revolving doors for the chosen few in the company.

chump

be off your chump British, old-fashioned to be crazy • Don't listen to him. He's off his chump.

circle

square the circle

to find a good solution to a problem when that seems impossible, especially because the people involved have very different needs or opinions about it • Few poor countries can afford to look after their works of art properly, but neglect is unwise if you want to attract tourists. Thailand is attempting to square the circle.

circles

go around/round in circles

if you go round in circles when you are discussing something or trying to achieve something, you do not make any progress because you keep going back to the same subjects or the same problems.

- I need some more data to work on, otherwise I'm just going round in circles.
- We can't go round in circles all day someone will have to make a decision.

go around/round in circles run around/round in circles

to use a lot of time and effort trying to do something, without making any progress • We spent the whole day running around in circles looking for a document which everyone thought was lost but which wasn't.

circulation

out of circulation

if someone is out of circulation they are no longer taking part in social activities • Work on my latest book has kept me out of circulation for the past few months.

OPPOSITE back in circulation • I hear she's back in circulation again after her accident.

civil

keep a civil tongue in your head slightly formal

if you tell someone to keep a civil tongue in their head, you are telling them to be polite, especially after they have said something rude • (often an order) Try to keep a civil tongue in your head. We want him on our side.

claim

sh's claim to fame

a reason for a person or place to be well known or famous • The town's main claim to fame is that the President was born here. • (humorous) His only claim to fame is that he nearly met Princess Diana.

stake a/your claim

to make it clear that you want something, and that you think you deserve to get it • (often + to) Descendants of the original settlers are going to court to stake their claim to the land. • In order to stake a claim for world prominence in astronomy, the university is building a huge new optical telescope.

clam

shut up like a clam

to suddenly stop talking and to refuse to say any more \( \epsilon \) A clam is a fish with a shell which closes up very quickly if something attacks it. • When I asked him about his trip to Korea, he shut up like a clam.

clanger

drop a clanger British & Australian, informal

to say something by accident that embarrasses or upsets someone • I dropped a clanger by asking John how his dog was when it's been dead three months.

clapham

the man/woman on the Clapham omnibus British

an imaginary person whose opinions and behaviour are thought to be typical of ordinary British people • (usually singular) The man on the Clapham omnibus probably knows nothing about Rwanda.

clapped-out

clapped-out British & Australian,

informal

if something, especially a car, is clappedout, it is in a very bad condition because it is old or has been used a lot • He still drives a clapped-out Mini which he bought when he was at college.

clappers

like the clappers British, informal

very quickly • He works like the clappers – he'll have it finished in no time! • They ran like the clappers when the policeman came round the corner.

clarion

a clarion call literary

a strong and clear request for people to do something • (often + for) The charity commission's clarion call for more donations has produced an immediate response. • (often + to) Her unification speech was seen as a clarion call to party members.

claws

get your claws into sb informal

to find a way of influencing or controlling someone • If the loan company gets its claws into you, you'll still be paying off this debt when you're 50.

get her claws into sb informal

if a woman gets her claws into a man, she manages to start a relationship with him, often because she wants to control him or get something from him • If she gets her claws into that young man she'll ruin his political career.

clean

a clean bill of health

if you give someone or something a clean bill of health, you examine them and state that they are healthy, in good condition, or legal • John will have to stay at home until the doctors give him a clean bill of health. • Of 30 countries inspected for airline safety only 17 received a clean bill of health.

a clean break

if you make a clean break from someone or something, you leave them quickly and completely, and are not involved with them at all in the future • (often + with) Sometimes we need to make a clean break with the past. • (often + from) The Japanese are planning a clean break from the old television technologies.

a clean sheet

1 mainly British if you are given a clean sheet, you can start something again, and all the problems caused by you or other people in the past will be forgotten • I want us to forget all the arguing of the past, and start the New Year with a clean sheet.

2 British if a football team or a goalkeeper (= the player who stands in the goal) has a clean sheet, they do not allow the other team to score any goals • United kept a clean sheet in an away match for the first time this season.

a clean slate

if you are given a clean slate, you can start something again, and all of the problems caused by you or other people in the past will be forgotten • The company's debts have been paid so that the new manager can start with a clean slate.

wipe the slate clean to make it possible to start something again, without any of the mistakes or problems of the past
• The time he spent in prison should have wiped the slate clean.

a clean sweep

if you make a clean sweep, you win a competition or an election very easily or you win all the prizes in a competition • China's women divers achieved a clean sweep in yesterday's competitions. • Analysts are predicting a clean sweep for the ruling party in the forthcoming elections.

be as clean as a whistle

if someone is as clean as a whistle, they are not involved in anything illegal • He hasn't got a criminal record – he's clean as a whistle.

be as clean as a whistle be as clean as a new pin

to be very clean • The café's as clean as a whistle, and the food's excellent.

come clean X

to tell the truth, often about something bad that you have been trying to keep a secret • I felt it was time to come clean and tell her what the doctor had told me.
• (often + about) It's time for the Chancellor to come clean about the proposed tax rises.

make a clean breast of it

to tell the truth about something, especially something bad or illegal that you have done, so that you do not have to feel guilty any more • After months of lying about the money, I decided to make a clean breast of it and tell the truth.

show sb a clean pair of heels British

to go faster than someone else in a race • Butler showed them all a clean pair of heels as he raced for the finishing line.

cleaner

take sb to the cleaner's

- 1 informal to get a lot of money from someone, usually by cheating them • He got into a game of poker with two professional gamblers and, of course, they took him to the cleaner's.
- 2 informal to defeat someone by a very large amount • They don't like playing us because we took them to the cleaner's last year and the year before.

cleanliness

Cleanliness is next to Godliness. old-

fashioned

something that you say which means that except for worshipping God, the most important thing in life is to be clean • Could you try to wash behind your ears occasionally? Cleanliness is next to Godliness, you know.

clear

be as clear as crystal

to be very easy to see or understand • 'Are the instructions easy to understand?' 'Yes, clear as crystal.'

crystal clear • She made it crystal clear that she was only helping us because she had to.

be as clear as mud humorous

to be impossible to understand • 'Does that make sense?' 'Yes, it's as clear as mud.'

be in the clear

to not be guilty of a crime, or not be responsible for a mistake • Video evidence proved that the boys were in the clear:

steer clear of sth/sb

to avoid something or someone because they are dangerous or bad for you • I'd steer clear of Joe if I were you – he'll only cause trouble. • I try to steer clear of heavy meals these days.

clear-cut

clear-cut

clear and certain, so that there is no doubt about something • She has clear-cut evidence that the company cheated her.
• The link between alcohol and crime is clear-cut.

clear-eyed

clear-eyed mainly American

a clear-eyed understanding of a situation is correct • (always before noun) John's clear-eyed assessment of the company's problems saved it from bankruptcy.

cleft

in a cleft stick British & Australian, oldfashioned

if someone is in a cleft stick, they have a problem which is very difficult to solve • I'm in a real cleft stick because I can't sell my house. • Because of new employment laws, these companies are caught in a cleft stick.

clever

a clever clogs British & Australian, humorous

a clever boots Australian, humorous if you call someone a clever clogs, you mean that they are very clever • I bet old clever clogs here knows the answer.

a clever dick British & Australian someone who tries too hard to show that they are clever, in a way which annoys other people • He's such a clever dick, talking loudly on the phone in lots of different languages.

be too clever by half British

to be too confident of your own intelligence in a way that annoys other people • At school he had a reputation for arrogance. 'Too clever by half' was how one former teacher described him.

box clever British to behave in a clever and sometimes slightly dishonest way to try to achieve a result you want  $ext{\ensuremath{\triangle}}$  A good boxer (= man who fights as a sport) is a person who uses skill as well as strength to win fights. • Obviously he would have to box clever in the witness stand to avoid implicating himself.

climbing

be climbing the walls informal

to be extremely nervous, worried, bored, or annoyed • I was practically climbing the walls at her stupidity.

cloak-and-dagger

cloak-and-dagger

cloak-and-dagger behaviour is when people behave in a very secret way, often when it is not really necessary & A cloak is a type of long, loose coat and a dagger is a small sharp knife used as a weapon. In 17th century Spanish theatre, cloak-and-dagger was worn by a dishonest character in the play. • (always before noun) Is all this cloak-and-dagger stuff necessary? Why can't we just meet in a café like everyone else?

clock

around/round the clock

all day and all night • Doctors and nurses worked around the clock to help the people injured in the train crash. • This station broadcasts news round the clock.

around-the-clock • (always before noun)
The police are mounting an around-theclock guard on the embassy.

put/turn the clock back

to make things the same as they were at an earlier time • The court's decision has put the clock back a hundred years.
• (often + to) Let's turn back the clock to 1963 and listen to the Beatles singing 'Love, love me do'.

race against the clock

in sport, if people race against the clock, they try to race faster than a particular time instead of racing against other people • In time trials, cyclists race against the clock.

run out the clock American & Australian kill the clock American

to keep the ball away from the team competing against you at the end of a game so that they cannot score any points • The Pistons thought they were running out the clock but lost the ball and the game in the last nine seconds.

watch the clock

to keep looking to see what the time is because you are eager to stop what you are doing • I can tell if a film isn't holding my attention because I find myself watching the clock and changing position a lot.

clock-watching • A lot of clock-watching goes on during the general lectures, especially in the second hour.

work against the clock

to work very fast because you know you only have a limited period of time to do something • Scientists were working against the clock to collect specimens before the volcano erupted again.

clockwork

go/run/work like clockwork

if an event or a system goes like clockwork, it happens exactly as it was planned, without any problems • The whole ceremony went like clockwork. • The Swiss railways run like clockwork.

like clockwork

if something happens like clockwork, it happens at regular times • He arrived at 7 every evening, like clockwork.

clogs

pop your clogs British, humorous to die • This place hasn't been the same since poor old Harry popped his clogs.

close

a close call

- 1 a situation where something very unpleasant or dangerous nearly happened We managed to get out of the car before it caught fire, but we had a very close call. The business survived, but it was a close call.
- 2 if a competition or an election is going to be a close call, more than one person has a good chance of winning • It's going to be a close call. The vote could go either way.

be too close to call if a competition or an election is too close to call, it is impossible to guess who will win • The election result is still too close to call.

a close shave

a situation where something unpleasant or dangerous nearly happened • I had a close shave when a tree fell just where I had been standing.

be close to home

if a subject is close to home, it affects you in a personal way, and it can upset you if someone says something unpleasant about it • His comments about working mothers were a bit close to home for me.

be too close for comfort

to make people worried or frightened by being too close in distance or too similar in amount • Those lions were much too close for comfort. • The party will have to work hard to improve its image – the last election result was too close for comfort.

Close, but no cigar. American &

Australian, humorous

something that you say to someone if what they tell you or what they do is nearly correct but not completely \( \extstyle \) A cigar (= a type of thick cigarette) was sometimes used as a prize in games and competitions people paid to play. \( \cdot \) Ts his name Howard?' 'Close, but no cigar. It's Harold.'

sail close to the wind

to take risks which could cause problems or danger • (often in continuous tenses) We may have just enough fuel to get there, but we'll be sailing a bit close to the wind.

closed

be a closed book

to be something that you know or understand nothing about • (usually + to) I'm afraid physics will always be a closed book to me.

behind closed doors

if something is done behind closed doors, it is done in private • The United Nations Security Council met behind closed doors in New York.

closed-door a closed-door event is one that is secret and not open to the public (always before noun) At a special closeddoor session of the UN, the ambassador confirmed the withdrawal of his country's troops.

closet

come out of the closet

- 1 to talk in public about something which you kept secret in the past because you were embarrassed about it • It's time hairy women came out of the closet. It's a problem that affects all women to a greater or lesser degree.
- 2 to tell people that you are homosexual (= sexually attracted to people of the same sex as you) so that it is no longer a secret • He finally decided to come out of the closet so his mother would stop asking him why he wasn't married.

OPPOSITE in the closet • You can't live your life in the closet. At some stage you've got to come out and admit you're gay.

cloth

cloth ears British, old-fashioned,

humorous

something you call someone who has not heard something you said • Hey, cloth ears, I asked if you wanted a drink.

cut your coat according to your cloth cut your cloth according to your means to only buy what you have enough money to pay for • Of course we'd love a huge expensive house, but you have to cut your coat according to your cloth.

take the cloth formal

to become a priest • He took the cloth in 1945.

cloud

be on cloud nine informal

to be very happy • For a few days after I heard I'd got the job, I was on cloud nine.

Cloud is used in the following phrases connected with a problem or an unpleasant situation.

a cloud hangs over sb/sth

if a cloud hangs over someone or something, people believe something bad about them and do not trust them or like them completely because of it • There's  still a cloud hanging over the school's director because of the allegations of former pupils. • A dark cloud still hung over the research project despite denials that any animals had been harmed.

a cloud on the horizon

a problem or difficulty which you expect to happen in the future • The only cloud on the horizon is the physics exam in June – I'm sure I'll do fine in all the others.

be under a cloud

if someone or something is under a cloud, they are not trusted or not popular because people think they have done something bad • The bishop's brother resigned from his job under a cloud. • The hotel business is under a cloud at the moment after newspapers revealed that many tourists were being systematically overcharged.

Every cloud has a silver lining.

something that you say which means that there is something good even in an unpleasant situation • As the trip's been cancelled I'll be able to go to the match this Saturday. Every cloud has a silver lining.

cloud-cuckoo

live in cloud-cuckoo land

to believe that things you want will happen, when really they are impossible • Anyone who thinks this project will be finished within six weeks is living in cloud-cuckoo land.

clover

be in clover

to be in a very pleasant situation, especially because you have a lot of money • With the income from the family estate, she's in clover

club

be in the club British, old-fashioned to be pregnant • Is Tina in the club? She's looking quite large around the tummy.

Join the club! British, American & Australian

Welcome to the club! American &

Australian

something that you say to someone who has just told you about an experience or problem that they have had in order to show that you have had the same experience or problem too • 'I can't stop eating chocolate.' 'Join the club!' • 'We can't afford a vacation this year.' 'Welcome to the club!'

clue

not have a clue informal

to have no knowledge of or no information about something • 'How much do houses cost in Yorkshire?' 'I haven't got a clue.' • (often + about) Internet researchers in the 1980s didn't have a clue about the exciting online landscapes of the future.

clutches

fall into sb's clutches

to become influenced or controlled by someone who is likely to use their power in a bad way • He fell into the clutches of a nationalist terrorist group. • There were fears that the weapons might fall into the enemy's clutches.

be in sb's clutches • She couldn't bear to think of her precious daughter being in the clutches of a religious fanatic.

C-note

a C-note American, informal

a piece of paper American money that is worth 100 dollars • Joe took a wad of bills out of his pocket, peeled off a C-note and handed it over:

coach

drive a coach and horses through sth

British

if someone drives a coach and horses through a rule, an opinion, a plan, or a tradition, they destroy it by doing something against it which it is too weak to prevent • His company drove a coach and horses through employment legislation. • She produced statistics which drove a coach and horses through the chairman's argument.

coalface

at the coalface British & Australian

someone who is at the coalface is doing the work involved in a job, not talking about it, planning it, or controlling it
• You sit in your office looking at consultants' reports, but it's the men and women at the coalface who really understand the business.

coals

74

carry/take coals to Newcastle British

to take something to a place or a person that has a lot of that thing already Dewcastle is a town in Northern England which is in an area where a lot of coal was produced. • Exporting pine to Scandinavia is a bit like carrying coals to Newcastle.

drag/haul sb over the coals

to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong • If I make a spelling mistake, I get hauled over the coals by my boss. • (often + for) They dragged her over the coals for being late with her assignment.

rake over the coals

to talk about unpleasant things from the past that other people would prefer not to talk about • (usually in continuous tenses) There's no point in raking over the coals – all that happened twenty years ago, and there's nothing we can do about it now.

coast

(from) coast to coast

from one side of a country to the other

• We travelled across America coast to coast.

coast-to-coast • It was the first fully paved coast-to-coast US highway, between New York and San Francisco.

the coast is clear

if the coast is clear, you can do something or go somewhere because there is no one near who might see or hear you • You can come out now, the coast is clear. • I waited outside the house until the coast was clear, then softly tapped on the window.

coat-tails

on sb's coat-tails

if you achieve something on someone's coat-tails, you only achieve it because of their help or influence • She'd risen to fame on the coat-tails of her half-sister.

cobwebs

blow away the cobwebs British & Australian

to do something which makes you feel less tired or bored, especially to spend time outside in the fresh air 🔊 Cobwebs are made by spiders (= small insects with 8 legs) and are usually found in rooms or places that no one uses very much. • A stroll along the cliffs will blow away the cobwebs.

cock

the cock of the walk British, old-

fashioned

a man who acts as if he is more fashionable or important than other people • He acts like the cock of the walk around the office.

cock-and-bull

a cock-and-bull story

a story or explanation which is obviously not true • She told me some cock-and-bull story about her car breaking down.

cockles

warm the cockles of your heart old-

fashioned

if something you see or hear warms the cockles of your heart, it makes you feel happy because it shows that people can be good and kind • It's an old-fashioned romance that will warm the cockles of your heart.

coffee

a coffee table book

a large, expensive book with a lot of pictures, that is often kept on a table for people to look at • A glossy coffee table book of his art work will be published next year.

Wake up and smell the coffee!

something that you say in order to tell someone that they should try to understand the true facts of a situation or that they should give more attention to what is happening around them • It's time you woke up and smelled the coffee,

Don. We're just not getting enough business any more.

cog

a cog in the machine/wheel

one part of a large system or organization • He was just a small cog in the large wheel of organised crime. • This warehouse is an important cog in our distribution machine.

coining

be coining it British & Australian, informal

be coining money American &

Australian, informal

to be earning a lot of money quickly
• The magazine has been coining it since the new editor took over.

cold

cold turkey

the unpleasant physical and mental effects someone suffers when they suddenly stop taking drugs • The addict himself must make the decision that he wants to go cold turkey. • The nurses are there to encourage patients through cold turkey.

cold-turkey • (always before noun) Coldturkey treatment of addicts will always produce withdrawal symptoms.

a cold fish

a person who does not seem very friendly and does not show their emotions • He isn't very demonstrative, but his mother was a cold fish so he probably gets it from her.

a cold snap

a sudden and short period of cold weather • The recent cold snap has led to higher food prices.

be as cold as ice

to be very cold • Come in and get warm, your hands are as cold as ice.

be cold comfort

if something someone tells you to make you feel better about a bad situation is cold comfort, it does not make you feel better • (usually + to) The doctor said only his legs are paralysed, not his whole body, but I think that will be cold comfort to him.

catch sb cold American informal to surprise someone with an event, a question, or a piece of news they are not expecting • You caught me cold with this news – I didn't know anything about it.

get cold feet

to suddenly become too frightened to do something you had planned to do, especially something important like getting married • We're getting married next Saturday – that's if Trevor doesn't get cold feet! • I'm worried she may be getting cold feet about our trip to Patagonia.

give sb the cold shoulder

to behave towards someone in a way that is not at all friendly, sometimes for reasons that this person does not understand • What have I done to him? He gave me the cold shoulder the whole evening at the party.

cold-shoulder sb • After their argument, Peter cold-shouldered Jonathan for the rest of the week.

in cold blood

if you do something, especially kill someone, in cold blood, you do it in a way which is cruel because you plan it and do it without emotion • Four men were charged with the killing, in cold blood, of a French tourist last summer. • An unarmed boy was shot in cold blood outside his home yesterday.

in the cold light of day

if you think about something in the cold light of day, you think about it clearly and calmly, without the emotions you had at the time it happened, and you often feel sorry or ashamed about it • The next morning, in the cold light of day, Sarah realized what a complete idiot she had been.

leave sb cold

if something leaves you cold, it does not cause you to feel any emotion • Mary said the book had her in tears, but it left me cold.

pour/throw cold water on sth informal

if you pour cold water on opinions or ideas, you criticize them and stop people believing them or being excited about them • Margaret Thatcher poured cold water on the idea of a European central bank.

take a cold shower humorous

if you tell someone to take a cold shower, you mean they should do something to stop themselves thinking about sex • She's clearly not interested, so why don't you just take a cold shower?

when sb/sth sneezes, sb/sth catches a cold mainly British

if sb/sth catches a cold, sb/sth gets pneumonia mainly British

when one person or organization has a problem, this problem has a much worse effect on another person or organization • When New York sneezes, I'm afraid London catches a cold—that is just the way the stock markets operate now. • If the country's economy catches a cold, local businesses get pneumonia.

Cold is used in the following phrases connected with not being part of a group or activity.

come in from the cold

if someone comes in from the cold, they become part of a group or an activity which they were not allowed to join before • Turkey is now keen to come in from the cold and join the European community. • After four years away from the fashion scene, Jasper has come in from the cold with his new 1997 designer collection.

bring sb in from the cold • (usually passive) South African cricket has finally been brought in from the cold after years of exclusion from the international cricket scene.

leave sb out in the cold

to not allow someone to become part of a group or an activity • The government's transport policy leaves people who do not own cars out in the cold. • Women's football teams feel they are left out in the cold as far as media coverage is concerned.

collision

be on a collision course

if two people or groups are on a collision course, they are doing or saying things which are certain to cause a serious disagreement or a fight between them • All attempts at diplomacy have broken down and the two states now appear to be on a collision course. • (often + with) The British government is on a collision course with the American administration over trade tariffs.

put/set sb on a collision course • (usually + with) Her statements to the press have put her on a collision course with the party leadership.

colonel

a Colonel Blimp British, old-fashioned

an old man who has old-fashioned ideas and believes he is very important • He's very much a Colonel Blimp with his comments about foreign influences dividing our society.

colour

Color is the American spelling of colour. Australians use both spellings.

see the colour of sb's money

to make sure that someone can pay for something before you let them have it • I want to see the colour of his money before I say the car's his.

colours

Colors is the American spelling of colours. Australians use both spellings.

nail your colours to the mast

to publicly state your opinions about a subject • Nobody knows which way he's going to vote because he has so far refused to nail his colours to the mast.

show sb in their true colours

to show what someone's real character is, especially when it is unpleasant • By showing the terrorists in their true colours, the government hopes to undermine public support for them.

show your true colours • When someone is faced with such a terrible ordeal, it shows their true colours.

see sb in their true colours • At last he saw her in her true colours as a liar and a cheat.

see sb's true colours • It wasn't until we started to live together that I saw her true colours.

come

Come again? informal

something that you say when you want someone to repeat what they have just said because you did not hear or understand it • 'What's amazing is that Pauline's half sister's son is the father of her cousin's child.' 'Come again?'

come out fighting British, American & Australian

come out swinging mainly American

if someone comes out fighting, they defend themselves or something they believe in, in a very determined way • They were criticized from all sides but they came out fighting. • The candidates came out swinging in the first few minutes of the debate.

come what may

whatever happens • I shall be there tonight come what may. • It's always good to know that, come what may, your job is safe

be as [crazy/rich etc.] as they come to be very crazy, rich etc. • Jenny's as crazy as they come.

comes

as it comes British & Australian

if someone asks you how they should prepare your drink and you say as it comes, you mean that any way they prepare it will be acceptable • 'How do you like your coffee?' 'Oh, as it comes, please - I'm not fussy.'

comeuppance

get your comeuppance

if you get your comeuppance, something bad happens to you as a result of something bad that you have done to someone else • He'll get his comeuppance, you'll see. You can't treat people the way he does and not go unpunished in this world.

coming

had it coming informal

if someone had it coming, something bad happened to them which they deserved • (often + to) I wasn't at all surprised to hear he'd been fired. With all that unexplained time off he had it coming to him.

have sth coming out of your ears

informal

to have more of something than you want or need • He's going to have money coming out of his ears if this deal comes off.

comings

the comings and goings

the movements of people arriving at places and leaving places • One of our neighbours is always at her window watching the comings and goings of everyone in the street.

comme il faut

be comme il faut formal

behaviour that is comme il faut is correct because it follows the formal rules of social behaviour • It's not exactly comme il faut to be seen making jokes at a funeral.

common

common ground

shared opinions between two people or groups of people who disagree about most other subjects • It seems increasingly unlikely that the two sides will find any common ground.

the common touch

the ability of a rich or important person to communicate well with and understand ordinary people • It was always said of the princess that she had the common touch and that's why she was so loved by the people. • He was a dedicated and brilliant leader but he lacked the common touch.

as common as muck British & Australian, informal

an impolite way of describing someone who is from a low social class • You can tell from the way she talks she's as common as muck.

make common cause with sb formal

if one group of people makes common cause with another group, they work together in order to achieve something that both groups want • Environment protesters have made common cause with local people to stop the motorway from being built.

common-or-garden

common-or-garden British

very ordinary • (always before noun) I just want a common-or-garden bike – it doesn't have to have special wheels or lots of gears or anything like that.

comparison

pale by/in comparison

to seem less serious or less important when compared with something else • (often + with) I thought I was badly treated but my experiences pale in comparison with yours.

compliment

a back-handed compliment British, American & Australian

a left-handed compliment American

a remark which seems approving but which is also negative • He gave me that classic back-handed compliment. He said I played football very well 'for a woman'.

return the compliment

to do something for someone because they have done something for you • Thanks for looking after the house while we were away. I hope I'll be able to return the compliment some time.

compliments

fish for compliments X

to try to make someone praise you, often by criticizing yourself to them • (usually in continuous tenses) Emma, you know you don't look fat in that dress. Are you fishing for compliments?

compos

be compos mentis humorous

if someone is compos mentis, they are able to think clearly and are responsible for their actions • My mother was quite old at the time but she was perfectly compos mentis.

conclusions

jump to conclusions

to guess the facts about a situation without having enough information • I might be jumping to conclusions but I've seen them together twice in town.

conniption

${\bf have\ a\ conniption\ fit\ } American, old-$

fashioned

to be very angry or upset • My mother would have a conniption fit if she could see me now.

conscience

prick sb's conscience

to make someone feel guilty • Seeing pictures of starving children pricks my conscience, but I rarely give money to charity.

conspicuous

be conspicuous by your absence

humorous

if someone is conspicuous by their absence, people notice that they are not present in a place where they are expected to be • Helen was conspicuous by her absence at the meeting yesterday.

contradiction

a contradiction in terms

a phrase that is confusing because it contains words that seem to have opposite meanings • A British summer is a bit of a contradiction in terms. • Euro Disney always seems to me a contradiction in terms because Disney is so typically American.

contrary

contrary to popular belief/opinion

something that you say before you make a statement that is the opposite of what most people believe • Contrary to popular belief, bottled water is not always better than tap water.

conversation

a conversation piece

a strange or interesting object that people talk about • Charlotte's collection of Victorian cards were a good conversation piece.

converted

preach to the converted X

to try to persuade people to believe things they already believe • (usually in continuous tenses) There's no need to tell us about the benefits of recycling. You're preaching to the converted.

cookie-cutter

cookie-cutter American ×

a cookie-cutter building or plan is exactly similar to many others of the same type • (always before noun) The architects were determined that it wouldn't be just another cookie-cutter mall. • Management too often uses a cookie-cutter approach to solving problems.

cooking

be cooking on gas British, informal be cooking with gas American, informal

to be making good progress and to be likely to succeed • We're cooking on gas. Keep the work coming in like this and we'll meet the deadline.

What's cooking? American, old-fashioned something that you say in order to ask someone what is happening • Hey, you guys, what's cooking? Are we going out for a drink or not?

cooks

Too many cooks (spoil the broth).

something that you say which means that if too many people try to work on the same piece of work, they will spoil it • There were so many people working on the same project, no one knew what anyone else was doing. I think it was a case of too many cooks.

cool

Cool it! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone to stop arguing or fighting  Hey, cool it, you guys, fighting's not going to solve anything.

a cool customer informal

someone who stays calm and does not show their emotions, even in a difficult situation • I can imagine Pete being good at negotiating. He's a pretty cool customer:

a cool head

the ability to stay calm and think clearly in a difficult situation • These are high pressure situations and you have to keep a cool head.

be as cool as a cucumber humorous

to be very calm and relaxed, especially in a difficult situation • I expected him to be all nervous before his interview but he was as cool as a cucumber.

keep your cool

to remain calm, especially in a difficult situation • If you see a difficult question in the exam, don't panic. Just keep your cool.

lose your cool

to suddenly become very angry and start shouting • I try to be patient with her but she was so irritating in that meeting, I just lost my cool.

play it cool informal

to pretend to be calmer, or to be less interested in something or someone, than you really are • Sometimes if you play it cool with a guy he gets more interested. • (often an order) Play it cool. Don't let them know how much you need the money.

coop

fly the coop mainly American

to leave somewhere, especially to leave your home for the first time in order to live away from the family \( \approx \) A coop is a place where chickens are kept. • The last of our kids has finally flown the coop so we have the whole house to ourselves.

cop

not be much cop British, informal

to not be very good • These scissors aren't much cop – do you have any sharper ones?

copper-bottomed

copper-bottomed

a copper-bottomed plan, agreement, or financial arrangement is completely safe • (always before noun) She has a copper-bottomed contract with a very successful company.

copybook

blot your copybook British & Australian to do something which spoils someone's opinion of you • She blotted her copybook by arriving late to a meeting.

cord

cut the (umbilical) cord

to stop needing someone else to look after you and start acting independently An umbilical cord is a long narrow tube of flesh which connects a baby to its mother when it is growing inside her. • In order to achieve true independence, smaller nations must cut the cord and stop depending on the United States for financial aid.

cordon bleu

cordon bleu

cordon bleu cooking is food which is prepared to the highest standard and a cordon bleu cook is someone who cooks to a very high standard • (always before noun) She spent five years working as a cordon bleu chef before opening her own restaurant.

core

to the core

in every part Def The core is the central part of something, for example an apple or the earth. • He's convinced that the army is rotten to the core. • I'd never heard anything like it. I was shocked to the core. (= extremely shocked)

corner

around the corner

going to happen very soon • With the end of the century just around the corner, major celebrations are being planned.

be backed into a corner

to be forced into a difficult situation which you have little control over • I feel

I've been backed into a corner and I have no choice but to sign the contract.

fight your corner British

to defend something that you believe in by arguing • You'll have to be ready to fight your corner if you want them to extend the project.

have sb in your corner

to have the support or help of someone • We're lucky we've got James in our corner. No one can beat him in a debate.

paint yourself into a corner X

to do something which puts you in a very difficult situation and limits the way that you can act • I've painted myself into a corner here. Having said I won't take less than £20 an hour, I can't then be seen to accept a job that pays less.

turn the corner

if something or someone turns the corner, their situation starts to improve after a difficult period • Certainly, the company's been through difficult times but I think we can safely say that we have now turned the corner. • I was really ill on Tuesday and Wednesday but I think I've finally turned the corner.

corners

cut corners X

to do something in the easiest, quickest, or cheapest way, often harming the quality of your work • We've had to cut corners to make a film on such a small budget. • Companies are having to cut corners in order to remain competitive in the market.

corridors

the corridors of power

the highest level of government where the most important decisions are made • His laziness became a legend in the corridors of power.

cost

count the cost

to start to understand how badly something has affected you • I didn't read the contract fully before I signed it but I'm counting the cost now.

costs

at all costs

if something must be done or avoided at all costs, it must be done or avoided whatever happens • The only other option is working on Saturdays which is something I want to avoid at all costs. • He appears to have decided that he must stay in power at all costs.

cotton

Bless her/his cotton socks. British &

Australian, humorous

something that you say when you want to express affection for someone • My little niece – bless her cotton socks – won the school poetry prize this year.

wrap sb up in cotton wool British & Australian

to protect someone too much without allowing them to be independent enough • She wraps that child up in cotton wool as if he's some precious jewel.

cotton-picking

cotton-picking American & Australian,

informal

something that you say before a noun to express anger • Get your cotton-picking feet off my chair!

couch

a couch potato informal

a person who does not like physical activity and prefers to sit down, usually to watch television (2) A couch is a piece of furniture that people sit on. • The remote control television was invented for couch potatoes.

counsel

keep your own counsel slightly formal

to not tell other people about your opinions or plans • He was a quiet man who kept his own counsel.

count

be out for the count

to be sleeping deeply \( \epsilon \) When boxers (= men who fight as a sport) are still not conscious after ten seconds have been counted they are described as 'out for the count'. • I was out for the count so I didn't hear any of it going on.

counter

over the counter

if a type of medicine is available over the counter, you can buy it without the permission of a doctor • You can't buy antibiotics over the counter – they're a prescription drug.

over-the-counter • (always before noun) Many over-the-counter painkillers contain paracetamol.

under the counter X

if something is bought or sold under the counter it is bought or sold secretly or in a way that is not legal • Many of his books are banned and only available under the counter.

country

go to the country British & Australian, slightly formal

if a government or the leader of a government goes to the country, they have an election • The Prime Minister has decided to go to the country next spring.

coup de grâce

a coup de grâce formal

an action or event which ends or destroys something that is gradually becoming worse • Jane's affair delivered the coup de grâce to her failing marriage.

courage

have the courage of your convictions

to have the confidence to do or say what you think is right even when other people disagree • Have the courage of your convictions – don't go out to work if you feel your children need you at home.

screw up your courage

to force yourself to be brave and do something that makes you nervous • She screwed up her courage and asked to see the manager.

course

be on course for sth

to be very likely to succeed at something • If he keeps playing like this, Henman is on course for his third victory.

run its course

if something runs its course, it continues naturally until it has finished • Many people believe that feminism has run its course. • The doctor insisted I rest for a few days while the infection ran its course.

stay the course

to continue to do something that is difficult or takes a long time until it is finished • Giving up smoking won't be easy – you must be prepared to stay the course.

court

hold court humorous

to get a lot of attention from a group of people by talking in a way that is entertaining, especially on social occasions in the past, a king or queen held court when they talked to the people who gave them advice. • You'll find Mick holding court in the kitchen.

laugh sth/sb out of court

to refuse to think seriously about an idea, belief or a possibility • (usually passive) At the meeting, her proposal was laughed out of court. • Anyone who had made such a ludicrous suggestion would have been laughed out of court

Coventry

send sb to Coventry British, informal

if a group of people send someone to Coventry, they refuse to speak to them, usually in order to punish them • The other workers sent him to Coventry for not supporting the strike.

cover

cover your back British, American & Australian

cover your ass American & Australian, very informal

to make sure that you cannot be blamed or criticized later for something you have done • The race organizers cover their backs by saying they can't take responsibility for any injuries. • I'm gonna cover my ass and get written permission before I go.

blow sb's cover

to let people know secret information about who someone is or what someone is doing • Someone recognised him and phoned the newspapers, which blew his cover.

cow

have a cow American

to be very worried, upset, or angry about something • I thought he was going to have a cow when I told him I'd lost his key.

cows

until the cows come home X

for a very long time • We could talk about this problem until the cows come home, but it wouldn't solve anything.

crack

at the crack of dawn

very early in the morning • We had an early flight so we were up at the crack of dawn.

have/take a crack at sth

to try to do something although you are not certain that you will succeed • He didn't win the tennis championships, but he plans to have another crack at it next year.

get a crack at sth • Don't worry, you'll all get a crack at using the camera.

cracked

not be all it's cracked up to be

if something is not all it's cracked up to be, it is not as good as people say it is • Her latest book isn't all it's cracked up to be. I wouldn't bother reading it if I were you. • It's a good restaurant, but it's not all it's cracked up to be.

cracking

Get cracking! informal X

something that you say in order to tell someone to hurry • Get cracking! We're leaving in 5 minutes.

cracks

fall/slip through the cracks

to get lost or be forgotten, especially within a system • It seems that important information given to the police may have fallen through the cracks.

paper/smooth over the cracks

to hide problems or faults, especially arguments between people, in order to make a situation seem better than it really is • The two-party coalition has so far been successful in papering over the cracks. • (sometimes + in) I'm tired of smoothing over the cracks in our marriage—I want a divorce!

cradle

from the cradle to the grave

during the whole of your life • Free medical care might not be with us from the cradle to the grave, as we once hoped.

cradle-robber

a cradle-robber American, humorous

someone who has a romantic or sexual relationship with a much younger partner • He's a cradle-robber. He married a 16-year-old and he's nearly 30!

 rob the cradle American, humorous People are always telling her she's robbing the cradle. She's ten years older than Joe.

cradle-snatcher

a cradle-snatcher British & Australian,

humorous

someone who has a romantic or sexual relationship with a much younger partner • He's three years younger than you? You cradle-snatcher!

cradle-snatching British & Australian, humorous • Pete's new girlfriend's only 15. I'd call that cradle-snatching.

crap

Cut the crap! very informal

an impolite way of telling someone to stop saying things that are not true or not important • Just cut the crap, will you, and tell me what really happened last night.

crash

crash and burn American & Australian, informal

to fail suddenly and completely • While the big companies merge, the small companies crash and burn.

craw

stick in your craw

1 old-fashioned if a situation or someone's behaviour sticks in your craw, it annoys you, usually because you think it is wrong • I do lots of jobs in the house but my brother says I'm lazy, and that really sticks in my craw.

2 Australian if someone sticks in your craw, they annoy you • She sticks in my craw every time I have to deal with her.

crazy

like crazy informal

if you do something like crazy, you do it a lot or very quickly • We'll have to work like crazy to finish the decorating by the weekend.

cream

the cream of the crop

the best of a particular group • These artists are the best of this year's graduates – the cream of the crop.

creature

creature comforts

things that make life more comfortable and pleasant, such as hot water and good food • I hate camping. I can't do without my creature comforts.

credibility

a credibility gap

a difference between what someone says about a situation and what you know or see is true • There's a credibility gap developing between me and my builders. This is the third week they've told me they'll finish by Friday.

creek

be up the creek (without a paddle) informal

be up shit creek (without a paddle) very informal

to be in a very difficult situation that you are not able to improve • If the car breaks down we're really up the creek. • He'll be up shit creek unless he finds the money to pay off his loan.

crème de la crème

the crème de la crème

the best people or things in a group or of a particular type • (often + of) The crème de la crème of young designers will be showing their collections at London Fashion Week.

crest

be on the crest of a wave

to be very successful so that many good things happen to you very quickly • The band are currently on the crest of a wave, with a new album and a concert tour planned for next year.

ride the crest of a wave • (usually in continuous tenses) Our local team are riding the crest of a wave with their third win this season.

cricket

It's/That's (just) not cricket! British &

Australian, humorous

something that you say when you think something someone has said or done is not right or not fair • You can't make me do the washing up after I did all the cooking – it's just not cricket!

crime

Crime doesn't pay.

something that you say which means if you do something illegal, you will probably be caught and punished • Police arrests are being given maximum publicity as a reminder that crime doesn't pay.

crisp

be burnt to a crisp mainly British

be burned to a crisp mainly American to be very burnt • By the time I remembered the pizza was in the oven, it was burnt to a crisp.

crock

be a crock of shit American & Australian,

to be stupid or not true • He says he's not to blame? What a crock of shit.

crocodile

shed/weep crocodile tears

to show sadness that is not sincere

Some stories say that crocodiles cry while they are eating what they have attacked. • Political leaders shed crocodile tears while allowing the war to continue.

cropper

come a cropper

Paris fashion show.

- British, informal to fall to the ground Supermodel Naomi Campbell came a cropper last week on the catwalk of a
- 2 British, informal to make a mistake or to have something bad happen to you which makes you less successful than before
   The leading actor came a cropper when he forgot his lines halfway through the second act.

cross

- a cross (sb has) to bear British & Australian
- a cross (sb has) to carry American & Australian

an unpleasant situation or responsibility that you must accept because you cannot change it in the past, criminals were made to carry crosses as a form of punishment. • Someone has to look after mother and because I live the closest it's a cross I have to bear.

Everyone has their cross to bear. • I hate my red hair and pale skin, but everyone has their cross to bear.

crossed

get your lines/wires crossed

if two people get their lines crossed, they do not understand each other correctly Delta When telephone lines get crossed, a mistake is made and you are connected to the wrong person. • Somehow we got our lines crossed because I'd got the 23rd written down in my diary and Jenny had the 16th.

cross-purposes

at cross-purposes

if two people are at cross-purposes, they do not understand each other because they are trying to do or say different things but they do not know this • I think we're talking at cross-purposes here. You mean the old building, but I was talking about the new one.

crow

as the crow flies

if the distance between two places is measured as the crow flies, it is measured as a straight line between the two places

• 'How far is it from Cambridge to London?' 'About 50 miles as the crow flies.'

crowd-puller

a crowd-puller British & Australian something or someone that many people are keen to go and see • This year's final will be a major crowd-puller.

crows

Stone the crows! British & Australian, informal, old-fashioned something that you say in order to show that you are very surprised • So she's a film director now. Well, stone the crows!

cruel

You have to be cruel to be kind.

something that you say when you do something to someone that will upset them now because you think it will help them in the future • I told her she's just not good enough to be a professional dancer – sometimes you have to be cruel to be kind.

crunch

if/when it comes to the crunch

if you talk about what someone will do if it comes to the crunch, you mean what they will do if a situation becomes serious or they have to make an important decision • If it comes to the crunch, will she play well enough to win?

cry-baby

a cry-baby informal

someone, usually a child, who cries too easily and too often • Don't be such a crybaby – I hardly touched you.

crying

For crying out loud! informal

something that you say when you are annoyed • For crying out loud! Can't you leave me alone even for a minute!

It's a crying shame!

something that you say when you think a situation is wrong • (often + that) It's a crying shame that she only gets one month's maternity leave.

It's no good/use crying over spilt milk. There's no point crying over spilt milk.

something that you say which means you should not get upset about something bad that has happened that you cannot change • Sometimes I regret not taking that job in London. Oh well, there's no point crying over spilt milk.

cud

chew the cud informal

to think about something carefully and for a long time • He sat chewing the cud all morning.

cudgels

take up the cudgels for sb/sth British & Australian

take up the cudgels on behalf of sb/sth British & Australian

to argue strongly in support of someone or something \( \sigma \) A cudgel is a short, heavy stick which is used as a weapon.

• Relatives have taken up the cudgels for # two British women accused of murder. opposite take up the cudgels against sb/sth British & Australian

• Environmental groups have taken up the cudgels against multinational companies.

culture

a culture shock

feelings of being confused or surprised that you have when you are in a country or social group that is very different from your own • The first time she went to Japan, Isabel got a huge culture shock.

a culture vulture humorous

someone who is very keen to see and experience art, theatre, literature, music etc. • She's a bit of a culture vulture. She'll only visit places that have at least one art gallery.

cup

not be sb's cup of tea

if someone or something is not your cup of tea, you do not like them or you are not interested in them • If Yeats isn't your cup of tea, why not try some of the more contemporary Irish poets?

cupboard

cupboard love British & Australian

love that you give in order to get something from someone • I suspected all along it was just cupboard love, and what she really liked about him was his car.

cups

be in your cups old-fashioned

to be very drunk • When he was in his cups he would recite lines of poetry in a loud voice.

curate

a curate's egg British

something which has both good and bad parts \( \subseteq \) A curate is a priest. There is a joke about a curate who was given a bad egg and said that parts of the egg were good because he did not want to offend the person who gave it to him. \( \circ \) Queen's College is something of a curate's egg, with elegant Victorian buildings alongside some of the ugliest modern architecture.

curiosity

Curiosity killed the cat.

something that you say in order to warn someone not to ask too many questions about something • 'Why are you going away so suddenly?' 'Curiosity killed the cat.'

curl

want to curl up and die

to feel very embarrassed about something that you have said or done • I spilt coffee all over their precious new rug and I just wanted to curl up and die.

curtain

the curtain comes down on sth

if the curtain comes down on something, especially a period of time, it ends In a theatre the large curtains above the stage are brought down at the end of a performance. • Last night, the curtain came down on 14 years of Tory rule.

curtains

it's curtains informal

something that you say when you believe something will end or someone will have to stop doing something • (usually + for) If audience figures don't improve, it's curtains for DJ Mike Hamilton.

curve

throw (sb) a curve (ball) American & Australian, informal

to surprise someone with something that is difficult or unpleasant to deal with

The weather threw a curve at their barbecue and they had to eat indoors.

cut

cut a fine figure British, American & Australian, old-fashioned

cut a dash British, old-fashioned

if someone cuts a fine figure, people admire their appearance, usually because they are wearing attractive clothes • Giles cut a fine figure in his black velvet suit. • Lucy cut a dash in her purple satin ballgown.

cut and run

to avoid a difficult situation by leaving suddenly • When his business started to fail, he decided to cut and run, rather than face financial ruin.

the cut and thrust of sth

lively discussion or activity • James enjoys the cut and thrust of debating.

be a cut above sth/sb

to be better than other things or people • This dark chocolate contains 70% cocoa solids. It's a cut above ordinary chocolate.

 Our new luxury apartments are a cut above the rest.

be cut from the same cloth

to be very similar • Despite differences in age and in experience, these two great writers are cut from the same cloth.

can't cut the mustard British, American & Australian

can't cut it British

if you can't cut the mustard, you cannot deal with problems or difficulties • If she can't cut the mustard, we'll have to find someone else to do the job.

cut-and-dried

cut-and-dried

- if a decision or agreement is cut-and-dried, it is final and will not be changed Although a deal has been agreed, it is not yet cut-and-dried.
- 2 if a subject, situation, or idea is cut-anddried, it is clear and easy to understand • The human rights issue is by no means cut-and-dried.

cute

be as cute as a button American &

Australian

to be very attractive • At 14, she was as cute as a button and the boys were starting to notice her.

cutting

at/on the cutting edge

in the area of a subject or activity where the most recent changes and developments are happening • (often + of) New, young, Italian designers are at the cutting edge of fashion.

dab

be a dab hand British & Australian

to be very good at an activity • (often + at) You should get Ann to have a look at that. She's a dab hand at getting stains out of clothes. • (often + with) I hear you're a dab hand with the paintbrush. (= you are good at painting)

daft

be as daft as a brush British, informal

if someone is as daft as a brush, they behave in a very silly way • I remember him as a kid and he was as daft as a brush then.

daggers

be at daggers drawn British &

Australian

if two people or groups are at daggers drawn, they are angry and ready to fight or argue with each other 🔊 A dagger is a sharp pointed knife that was used in the past as a weapon. • (often + with) Local residents are at daggers drawn with the council over rubbish collection. • (often + over) The two countries have several times been at daggers drawn over the future of the island.

look daggers at sb

to look very angrily at someone • I suddenly noticed David looking daggers at me and thought I'd better shut up.

damn

not give a damn informal

to not be interested in or worried about something or someone • He can think what he likes. I don't give a damn. • (often + about) Most companies don't give a damn about the environment. • (often + question word) I've made my decision and I don't give a damn what they think.

damned

be damned if you do and damned if you don't

if you say that someone is damned if they do and damned if they don't, you mean they will be criticized whatever they do • When it comes to removing children from parents suspected of abuse, social workers are damned if they do and damned if they don't.

damp

a damp squib British & Australian

an event which people think will be exciting but which is disappointing when it happens A squib is a type of firework (= a small container filled with chemicals which explodes to produce bright lights and loud noises) and if it becomes wet, it will not explode. • The party turned out to be a bit of a damp squib. Half the people who'd been invited didn't turn up.

damper

put a damper/dampener on sth

to stop an occasion from being enjoyable A damper is a device used on piano strings to make the sound less loud.

Steve lost his wallet so that rather put a damper on the evening. We were both ill while we were in Boston, which put a bit of a dampener on things.

dance

lead sb a (merry) dance old-fashioned

to confuse someone or to cause problems for them by deceiving them or behaving in a way that they cannot understand • She's led us a merry dance over the plans for the party.

dark

a dark horse

- 1 British & Australian, humorous a person who does not tell other people about their ideas or skills and who surprises people by doing something that they do not expect I didn't know Linda had written a novel. She's a bit of a dark horse, isn't she?
- 2 a person who wins a race or competition although no one expected them to
  - (sometimes + for) 17-year-old Karen

Pickering could also be a dark horse for (= she could win) a medal in the European Championships.

dark-horse American • (always before noun) She's a dark-horse candidate for the position of company director.

be in the dark

to not know about something that other people know about • I'm totally in the dark. I don't know what's going on. • (often + about) We're still in the dark about whether any jobs are going to be cut.

keep/leave sb in the dark to not tell someone about something • She claims she knew nothing about the deal and was deliberately kept in the dark.

keep sth dark

to keep something secret • If he did know that Anna was leaving, he certainly kept it dark.

darkest

The darkest hour is just before the something that you say which means a bad situation often seems worse just before it improves • There's still a chance she might recover. The darkest hour is just before the dawn.

Davy Jones

Davy Jones's locker humorous

the bottom of the sea • No one knows how many wrecked ships there are in Davy Jones's locker:

day

day in, day out day in and day out

if you do something day in, day out, you do it every day over a long period, often causing it to become boring • Life can become very tedious if you do the same work day in, day out. • Dave wore the same tie day in and day out.

the day of reckoning

the time when an unpleasant situation has to be dealt with, or the time when you are punished or criticized for the things you have done wrong In the Bible, the day of reckoning is the day at the end of the world when God will judge everyone.

 Taking out a further loan to cover your debts will only postpone the day of reckoning.

be all in a day's work

if something difficult or strange is all in a day's work for someone, it is a usual part of their job • (often + for) Drinking champagne with Hollywood stars is all in a day's work for top celebrity reporter Gloria Evans. • We worked in blizzard conditions to restore all the power lines, but it's all in a day's work.

be as clear/plain as day

to be obvious or easy to see • She's in love with him – it's as plain as day.

call it a day informal

to stop doing something, especially working • After playing together for 20 years the band have finally decided to call it a day. • It's almost midnight – I think it's time to call it a day.

carry the day

- 1 to win a war or a fight At the beginning of the American Civil War, many southerners believed their soldiers and statesmen would carry the day.
- 2 if you carry the day, you persuade people to support your ideas or opinions, or if a particular idea carries the day, it is accepted by a group of people The Republicans carried the day in the dispute over the new jet fighter. Her argument in favour of pay increases eventually carried the day.

Don't give up the day job! humorous

something that you say to someone who is performing in order to tell them that you do not think they are very good at it • 'What did you think of my singing, then?' 'Er, don't give up the day job!'

get/have your day in court American & Australian

to get an opportunity to give your opinion on something or to explain your actions after they have been criticized day in court and the TV interview would give it to her.

have had its/your day

to be much less popular than before • The general view in the country is that socialism has had its day. • She was a best-selling author in the 1950s and 60s, but I think she's had her day.

in this day and age

in modern times • She said she was appalled that so much injustice could exist in this day and age.

make sb's day

to make someone very happy • Go on, tell him you like his jacket. It'll make his day!
• I was so pleased to hear from Peter. It really made my day.

name the day

to announce when you plan to do something important, especially get married • Have you and Chris named the day yet?

save the day

to do something that solves a serious problem • Schwarzenegger saves the day by arriving just in time to shoot the kidnappers and rescue the hostages.

seize the day formal

to use an opportunity to do something that you want and not to worry about the future • Seize the day, young man. You may never get the chance to embark on such an adventure again.

take each day as it comes take it one day at a time to deal with things as they happen, and not to make plans or to worry about the future • I've lived through a lot of changes recently, but I've learnt to take each day as it comes.

That'll be the day!

something that you say in order to show you think an event or action is not likely to happen • A pay rise? That'll be the day!

win the day

if you win the day, you persuade people to support your ideas or opinions, or if a particular idea wins the day, it is accepted by a group of people • By the end of the meeting it became clear that the radicals had won the day. • I was pleased to hear that common sense had won the day and the proposal had been accepted.

daylights

beat/knock the (living) daylights out of sb

to hit someone very hard many times
• I'll knock the living daylights out of him if I catch him doing it again!

frighten/scare the (living) daylights out of $\ensuremath{\mathrm{sb}}$

to frighten someone very much • Don't come up behind me like that. You scared the living daylights out of me!

days

sb's/sth's days are numbered

if someone's or something's days are numbered, they will not exist for much longer • As our local cinema struggles to survive, it seems clear that its days are numbered.

I've never [felt/heard/seen etc.] sth in all my (born) days! old-fashioned

something that you say when you are shocked or very surprised by something • There were two men kissing in the street. I've never seen anything like it in all my born days!

Those were the days!

something that you say which means life was better at the time in the past that you are talking about • We had no money but we were young and madly in love. Oh, those were the days!

day-to-day

day-to-day

a day-to-day activity is one of the things that you have to do every day, usually as a part of your work • (always before noun) It's Sheila who's responsible for the day-to-day running of the school.

dead

Dead men tell no tales.

something that you say which means people who are dead cannot tell secrets • I suspect they killed him because he knew too much. Dead men tell no tales.

a dead duck

1 British, American & Australian, informal something or someone that is not successful or useful • The project was a dead duck from the start due to a lack of funding. • My first agent turned out to be a bit of a dead duck and he failed to find me any work.

2 American & Australian, informal someone who is going to be punished severely for something they have done
If Dad finds out you used the car, you'll be a dead duck.

a dead end

a situation in which no progress can be made \( \beta \) A dead end is also a road which is closed at one end and does not lead anywhere. • Negotiators have reached a dead end in their attempts to find a peaceful solution to the crisis.

dead-end • (always before noun) He found himself stuck in a low-paid, dead-end job. • She moved to London to escape from a dead-end relationship.

a dead weight

- 1 if someone is a dead weight, they are very heavy and difficult to carry, often because they are not conscious • Tom was a dead weight and her muscles ached as she carried him upstairs.
- 2 something or someone who prevents other people from making progress • We must free ourselves from the dead weight of history. • She's just a dead weight on the business at the moment.

the dead hand of sth

something that stops progress from being made • Economic development has been held back by the dead hand of bureaucracy.

be a dead cert British & Australian,

informal

to be certain to happen or to be certain to achieve something • (often + for) He's a dead cert for an Oscar nomination.

be a dead loss

1 informal if something or someone is a dead loss, they disappoint you because they are of bad quality or because they are not able to do what you want them to do • The meeting was a dead loss. We didn't come to a single decision. • He may have been a great poet, but he was a dead loss as a husband.

2 informal to be very bad at a particular activity or subject • (sometimes + at) I was an absolute dead loss at sport when I was at school.

be a dead ringer for sb/sth

to look very similar to someone or something • He's a dead ringer for Bono from U2 – people often come up to him in the street and ask for his autograph.

be as dead as a doornail informal

to be dead • I found the fish, dead as a doornail, floating on the surface of the water.

be dead and buried

to be ended completely • As far as I'm concerned the matter's dead and buried.
• I won't rest until fascism is dead and buried in this country.

be dead from the neck up humorous

if a person is dead from the neck up, they are very stupid • Her last boyfriend was dead from the neck up.

be dead from the waist down humorous if someone is dead from the waist down, they do not experience sexual excitement • It's no good flirting with him – he's dead

 It's no good flirting with him – he's dead from the waist down.

be dead meat American & Australian, informal

if you say that someone is dead meat, you mean that they will be punished severely for something they have done • You touch any of my things again and you're dead meat!

be dead on your feet

to be very tired • I've spent the whole day cleaning the house and I'm dead on my feet.

be dead to the world

to be sleeping very deeply • Guy was curled up on the sofa, dead to the world.

be the dead spit of sb British

to look very much like someone else • He's the dead spit of this bloke I used to know.

come back from the dead rise from the dead

to become successful or popular again after a period of not being successful or popular • This was a company that had  risen from the dead under the new direction of Tom Wiles.

cut sb dead

to ignore someone when you see them or when they speak to you because you are angry with them or do not like them • I asked her about it in the meeting and she just cut me dead.

Drop dead! very informal

a rude way of telling someone that you are very angry at something they have just said or done • A guy started hassling me while I was ordering drinks at the bar, so I told him to drop dead.

in the dead of night/winter

in the middle of the night or in the middle of winter • The fire broke out in the dead of night.

knock them/'em dead informal

to perform so well or to look so attractive that other people admire you a lot • You'll knock them dead at the party tonight in your new black dress! • (often an order) Just go out there tonight and knock 'em dead!

over my dead body

if you say that something will happen over your dead body, you mean that you will do everything you can to prevent it • 'Josh says he's going to buy a motorbike.' 'Over my dead body!' • If they cut down those trees, they'll do it over my dead body.

if someone wouldn't be seen dead in a particular place or doing a particular thing, they would never do it, usually because it would be too embarrassing • (often + adv/prep) John's dad won't go to the christening, he wouldn't be seen dead in a church. • (often + doing sth) Chris wouldn't be seen dead driving a Lada.

Dead is used in the following phrases connected with people or things that are not useful, effective, or successful.

dead wood

people in a group or organization who are not useful any more and who need to be removed • There's a lot of dead wood in the team which needs to be cleared out.

a dead letter

an agreement or a law which still exists but which people do not obey or which is not effective any more • The ceasefire agreement was a dead letter as soon as it was signed since neither side had any intention of keeping to it.

be as dead as a dodo informal

if something is as dead as a dodo, it is not important or popular any more Dead The dodo was a large bird which could not fly and which does not exist any more. • Who cares about socialism any more? Socialism's as dead as a dodo.

be dead in the water

if something is dead in the water, it has failed, and it seems impossible that it will be successful in the future • So how does a government revive an economy that is dead in the water?

flog a dead horse British, American & Australian

beat a dead horse American

to waste time trying to do something that will not succeed • (usually in continuous tenses) You're flogging a dead horse trying to persuade Simon to come to Spain with us – he hates going abroad. • Do you think it's worth sending my manuscript to other publishers or I am just beating a dead horse?

deaf

be as deaf as a post British, American & Australian, informal

be as deaf as a doorknob/doornail Australian

to be completely deaf • She's 89 and as deaf as a post.

fall on deaf ears

if a request or advice falls on deaf ears, people ignore it • Appeals to release the hostages fell on deaf ears. • Warnings that sunbathing can lead to skin cancer have largely fallen on deaf ears in Britain.

turn a deaf ear

to ignore someone when they complain or ask for something • (often + to) In the past they've tended to turn a deaf ear to such requests.

deal

cut a deal American

to make an agreement or an arrangement with someone, especially in business or politics • The property developer tried to cut a deal with us to get us out of the building.

What's the deal? informal X

something that you say in order to ask someone to explain what they have been doing or what they are planning to do

'You haven't been at work all week — what's the deal?' So, what's the deal—are we going out to dinner?

dear

a Dear John letter humorous

a letter that you send to a man telling him you want to end a romantic relationship with him • I've always thought Dear John letters a cowardly way of ending a relationship.

cost sb dear

if something that someone does, especially something stupid, costs them dear, it causes them a lot of problems

• Later that year he attacked a photographer, an incident that cost him dear.

hang/hold on (to sth/sb) for dear life

to hold something or someone as tightly as you can in order to avoid falling • I sat behind Gary on the bike and hung on for dear life as we sped off. • A rope was passed down and she held on to it for dear life as she was pulled to safety.

death

a death trap

a building, road, or vehicle which is very dangerous and which could cause people to die • The whole house was a death trap with faulty gas fires, broken stairs, and bad wiring. • The road becomes a death trap in icy weather:

be at death's door informal

to be nearly dead • Don't exaggerate, it was only flu – you were hardly at death's door.

be done to death informal

if a particular style or subject is done to death, it is used or discussed so many times that it is not interesting any more
• The military look was done to death in last season's fashion shows.

You'll catch your death (of cold)! informal something that you say to warn someone that they will become ill if they go outside while they are wet or wearing too few clothes • You can't go out dressed like that in this weather – you'll catch your death of cold!

dice with death

to do something very dangerous • (often in continuous tenses) You're dicing with death driving at that sort of speed on icy roads.

flog sth to death British, American & Australian, informal # beat sth to death American

to use a particular style or to discuss a particular subject so many times that it is not interesting any more • He basically takes one theme and flogs it to death for three hundred and fifty pages. • No sporting event is beaten to death more than the Sugar Bowl – it is analyzed again and again by the commentators.

frighten/scare sb to death

to make someone feel very frightened • David suddenly appeared in the doorway and scared me to death.

be frightened/scared to death • I'm scared to death she's going to tell him.
• (often + of) She's frightened to death of dogs.

like death (warmed up) British & Australian

like death (warmed over) American

if you feel or look like death warmed up, you feel or look very ill • I wish I'd got to bed earlier last night – I feel like death warmed up. • The poor guy looked like death warmed over.

to death

if someone is worried or bored to death, they are very worried or bored • Why didn't you ring and say you were going to 94 be late? I was worried to death. • You must be bored to death, sitting here all day with nothing to do.

Death is used in the following phrases connected with things that fail or end.

a death blow

an action or an event which causes something to end or fail • (usually + to) This renewed outbreak of fighting has been seen as a death blow to any chance for peace. • The scandal dealt a death blow to (= ended) his political ambitions.

die a death British

die a natural death American &

Australian

to fail and end • The principle of free health care for everyone is likely to die a death in the next ten years. • The play, like so many others, died a natural death after only one week.

sign your own death warrant

to do something which will stop you from being successful A death warrant is an official document which orders someone to be killed as a punishment.

- The company signed its own death warrant by choosing to remain independent rather than going into partnership.
- sign sth's death warrant to cause an organization or an activity to fail or end
   The cancellation of the multi-million dollar order signed the company's death warrant.

sound/toll the death knell

to cause an organization, system, or activity to fail or end A knell is the sound of a bell being rung slowly to tell people that someone has died. • (often + for) The new superstore will sound the death knell for hundreds of small independent shops. • (sometimes + of) The closure of the local car factory tolled the death knell of the town.

the death knell the reason why something fails and ends • (often + for) Computer-operated machinery has been seen as the death knell for traditional skills.

deck

on deck

- 1 American & Australian if someone is on deck, they are present and ready to do something • Bill's batting next - tell him to get on deck. • Ann, if you can be on deck at 9.00 I'll give you a lift to the meeting.
- 2 Australian, informal alive Don't tell me old Bill's still on deck. I thought he died years ago.

stack the deck mainly American

to arrange something in a way that is not fair in order to achieve what you want in this phrase comes from the idea of arranging a set of cards in a card game so that you will win. • The manager stacked the deck in Joe's favor so he got the promotion.

decks

clear the decks informal

to finish dealing with what you are doing so that you can start to do something more important © If navy officers clear the decks they prepare a ship for war.

• His company is clearing the decks for major new investment in the Far East.

deep

deep down

if you know or feel something deep down, you are certain that it is true or you feel it strongly although you do not admit it or show it • Deep down, she knew that what she was doing was wrong. • He tried to convince himself that he was enjoying his job, but deep down he was really miserable.

deep pockets

if an organization or a person has deep pockets, they have a lot of money • Anyone who tries to help that company will need deep pockets — it is nearly bankrupt.

be in deep water

to be in a difficult situation which is hard to deal with • We're going to be in deep water if the bank refuses to authorize a bigger loan.

get into deep water to become involved in a difficult situation • I think we're getting into deep water here talking about gender issues.

be in too deep informal

to be so involved in a situation or relationship that you are unable to stop being involved • I knew I should leave him but I was in too deep.

dig deep

to use a lot of your own money to pay for something • Church members dug deep into their pockets to pay for a new roof.
• The city will have to dig deep if it wants to host the next Olympics.

go off the deep end informal

to suddenly become very angry or upset and start shouting at someone • One minute we were having a perfectly reasonable discussion and the next minute you just went off the deep end!

go/run deep

if a feeling or a problem goes deep, it is very strong or serious and has existed for a long time • Feelings of anger went deep on both sides. • Underlying problems in the company run deep and it is unlikely that a new director will be able to solve them.

throw sb in at the deep end

to make someone do something difficult, especially a job, without preparing them for it or giving them any help • I had to deal with a strike threat on my first day—talk about being thrown in at the deep end!

jump in at the deep end to start a new job or activity without being prepared for it • Philips is jumping in at the deep end, acting as captain in his first match with the team.

deep-six

deep-six sb/sth American, informal to get rid of someone or something • They want to deep-six the project because it's costing too much money.

de facto

de facto formal

a de facto situation is one which exists or is true although it has not been officially accepted or agreed • (always before noun) Edwards has established himself as the defacto leader of the group.

de facto formal • The United Nations has recognized de facto the country as independent.

déjà vu

déjà vu

the strange feeling that you have already seen or experienced something • As I walked into the house, I had a strange sense of déjà vu.

delusions

delusions of grandeur

the belief that you are much more important or powerful than you really are • Young bands sometimes get delusions of grandeur after their first number one hit.

demon

the demon drink humorous

a way of referring to alcohol when you are talking about the unpleasant effects it can have • My grandfather used to lecture us about the dangers of the demon drink.

den

beard sb in their den

beard the lion in their den

to visit an important person in the place where they work, in order to tell or ask them something unpleasant • A group of journalists bearded the director in his den to ask how he was going to deal with the crisis. • Who's going to beard the lion in her den and explain what's gone wrong?

dent

make a dent in sth British, American & Australian

put a dent in sth American

to reduce the amount or level of something • The roof repairs made quite a dent in our savings. • (often negative) Police efforts have hardly put a dent in the level of drug trafficking on the streets.

department

not be sb's department informal

if something is not your department, you are not responsible for dealing with it or you do not know much about it • As regards getting your computer fixed, you'll have to ask someone else — I'm afraid it's not my department. • In general doctors don't know much about nutrition: that's not their department.

OPPOSITE be sb's department informal • I've chosen the paint and wallpaper, but the actual job of decorating is Neil's department.

depth

be out of your depth

to not have the knowledge, experience, or skills to deal with a particular subject or situation • When Ruth started talking about the differences between the databases, I knew I was out of my depth.
• By half-time, England was losing 40 and the English players were looking hopelessly out of their depth.

depths

plumb the depths

- 1 to experience extreme sadness (usually + of) His wife left him in May and during the following months he plumbed the depths of despair.
- 2 to understand something in detail, especially something that is difficult to understand (usually + of) In hypnosis we plumb the depths of the unconscious.
- 3 if something that someone does or says plumbs the depths, it is very bad (often + of) I read one review which said the show plumbed the depths of tastelessness. plumb new depths to become even worse than before Man's inhumanity to man has plumbed new depths in this conflict. Industrial relations had plumbed new depths, even for Hackney, with a series of disputes and strikes.

sink to such depths

to behave very badly • I find it hard to believe that human beings could sink to such depths.

de rigeur

de rigeur formal

if something is de rigeur, it is necessary if you want to be thought fashionable or if you want to follow a custom • Leather jackets and jeans are still de rigeur for hard rock fans.

designated

a designated driver American

one person in a group who agrees not to drink alcohol in order to drive the other people to and from a place where they will drink alcohol • Tom said he'd be the designated driver when we go out tonight.

designs

have designs on sb

to want to have a sexual relationship with someone • She suspected that Helen had designs on her husband.

have designs on sth

to want to have something and to plan to get it • I knew that David had designs on my half of the business.

de trop

de trop formal

more than is needed or wanted • (always after verb) I thought his comments at the meeting were a little de trop.

deus ex machina

a deus ex machina formal

a way of ending a play or event that seems false and that involves problems being dealt with too easily • Shakespeare produces a very unsatisfying deus ex machina in 'The Winter's Tale' when a statue of the queen comes to life.

devil

The devil finds work for idle hands.

something that you say which means people who have no work or activity are more likely to do things they should not do, such as commit crimes • There's plenty more tidying to do if you've finished the bedroom. The devil finds work for idle hands.

(let) the devil take the hindmost old-

fashioned

something that you say to mean that you should only think about yourself and your own success and not care about other people • You've got to be tough to survive in this business – grab what you can and let the devil take the hindmost.

better the devil you know (than the devil you don't)

something that you say to mean it is better to deal with a person or thing you know, even if you do not like them, than to deal with a new person or thing who could be even worse • I know Mike can be difficult to work with sometimes, but better the devil you know.

between the devil and the deep blue

if you are between the devil and the deep blue sea, you must choose between two equally unpleasant situations • For most people a visit to the dentist is the result of a choice between the devil and the deep blue sea – if you go you suffer, and if you don't go you suffer.

Go to the devil! old-fashioned

an impolite way of telling someone to go away because you are annoyed with them • I told him that if he wasn't prepared to change his ideas he could go to the devil!

have the devil's own job doing sth/to do sth old-fashioned

to spend a long time trying to do something difficult • I had the devil's own job to find a parking space near here.

have the devil's own luck old-fashioned to be very lucky • He found a job and an apartment within a week – he really has the devil's own luck, that man.

play devil's advocate

to pretend to be against an idea or plan which a lot of people support in order to make people discuss it in more detail and think about it more carefully A The 'Advocatus Diaboli' was a person employed by the Roman Catholic church to argue against someone being made a saint (= someone given the honour of being called Saint by the Roman Catholic church). • I don't think he was really in favour of getting rid of the scheme, he was just playing devil's advocate. • I know that most people here support the project, but let me play devil's advocate for a moment and ask if anyone has considered the cost?

speak/talk of the devil humorous

something that you say when a person you are talking about arrives and you are not expecting them • Apparently, Lisa went there and wasn't very impressed – oh, talk of the devil, here she is.

devil-may-care

devil-may-care old-fashioned

relaxed and not worried about the results of your actions • He had a rather devilmay-care attitude towards money which impressed me at the time.

dibs

have dibs on sth American, informal

to make it clear that something belongs to you or that you should be the next person to use something • I have dibs on the Sunday paper.

dice

the dice are loaded against sb

if the dice are loaded against someone, they are not likely to succeed • When I realized I was the only male applicant I knew that the dice were loaded against me.

diddly-squat

${\bf diddly\hbox{-}squat}\, American, informal$

nothing at all • What does he know about the South? Diddly-squat! • The lyrics in his songs aren't worth diddly-squat – it's the melodies that make you feel good.

die

the die is cast

something that you say when a decision has been made or something has happened which will cause a situation to develop in a particular way A die is a small block of wood or plastic with different numbers of spots on each side, used in games, and 'cast' means to throw.

• From the moment the first shot was fired, the die was cast and war became inevitable.

to die for informal

if something is to die for, it is extremely good • The weather's fantastic, the people are warm and friendly and the food is to die for. • She's a beautiful-looking girl with a voice to die for.

98

difference

make all the difference

if something makes all the difference, it has a very good effect on a thing or a situation • It's that little bit of salt that you add to the dressing – it makes all the difference. • (often + to) Working with a nice bunch of people can make all the difference to your job.

different

(It's) different strokes for different

folks. mainly American something that you say which means that different people like or need different things • I've never enjoyed winter sports, but different strokes for different folks.

march to a different drummer mainly American

march to a different tune British

to behave in a different way or to believe in different things from the people around you • While most of the country supported military action, Santini was marching to a different drummer.

dignity

stand on your dignity

to demand to be treated with more respect than other people because you think you are more important • And although he held a senior position in the company he would never stand on his dignity.

dime

be a dime a dozen American &

Australian, informal

to be common and not have much value • Romantic novels like these are a dime a dozen.

not be worth a dime American, informal to have little or no value • It turns out her precious painting isn't worth a dime – it's a fake.

on a dime American, informal

if a vehicle or its driver turns or stops on a dime, they turn or stop in a very small space • His car is great for parking – it can turn on a dime.

dinner

be done like a (dog's) dinner Australian,

to be completely defeated • Whatever possessed her to play tennis against Sue? She was done like a dinner.

dire

be in dire straits

to be in a very difficult or dangerous situation • The earthquake and the war will leave the country in dire straits for a long time. • They are in dire financial straits.

dirt

dirt cheap informal

extremely cheap • This may seem like a great deal of money but in advertising terms it is dirt cheap.

dirt-poor informal

extremely poor • Most of the population in this undeveloped area were dirt-poor and jobless.

dig the dirt

to try to find out bad things about someone in order to to stop other people admiring them • (often + on) No effort is being spared to dig up dirt on the enemy.

dish the dirt informal

to tell people unpleasant or shocking personal information about someone • (often + on) Shauna agreed to dish the dirt on her millionaire ex-lover for a fee of £5,000. • Some journalists just enjoy dishing the dirt.

do sb dirt American, informal

to behave unfairly or badly towards someone, often without them knowing • Mack really did me dirt – he stopped me from getting my promotion.

treat sb like dirt

to behave badly towards someone in a way that shows that you do not respect them • I don't know why she stays with him. He treats her like dirt.

dirty

a dirty old man informal

an older man who shows a strong and unpleasant interest in sex • On the top shelf they've got all those horrible magazines for dirty old men.

a dirty weekend British & Australian, humorous

a weekend when two people who are not married go away somewhere to have sex
• At first I thought he was asking me to go away for a dirty weekend.

a dirty word 🗶

if something is a dirty word, people do not generally approve of it • For the environmentally conscious, 'disposable' has become a dirty word.

give/shoot sb a dirty look

to look at someone in an angry way • I didn't know what I'd said that was so offensive but she gave me a really dirty look.

talk dirty informal

to talk rudely about sex, usually in order to make someone sexually excited  $\bullet$  I love it when you talk dirty to me.

wash your dirty laundry/linen in public British & Australian

air your dirty laundry/linen in public

American & Australian

to talk to other people about personal things that you should keep private • I was brought up to believe that it was wrong to wash your dirty linen in public.

Dirty is used in the following phrases connected with doing something dishonest or unpleasant.

a dirty trick

a dishonest action • He resigned after allegations of dirty tricks during the election campaign. • Telling her you needed the money for a friend was a dirty trick.

do sb's dirty work to do something unpleasant or difficult for someone else because they do not want to do it themselves • Well next time, Kevin can do his own dirty work. • (often + for) Tell her yourself – I'm not going to do your dirty work for you!

do the dirty on sb British & Australian, informal

to behave unfairly or very badly towards someone, often without them knowing • And then he did the dirty on her and went and had an affair with her best friend.

play dirty informal

to behave dishonestly, especially by cheating in a game • He loses his temper from time to time, but he never plays dirty.

disaster

a disaster area

- if a place is a disaster area, it is very untidy A disaster area is also a place where an event like a storm or a flood causes serious damage and the government gives help for the emergency.
   The kitchen was a disaster area, with greasy plates piled high in the sink.
- 2 if a subject, a piece of work, or an organization is a disaster area, it causes many problems, often because it is badly organized Government housing policy is a complete disaster area.

discretion

Discretion is the better part of valour. British & Australian, literary

Discretion is the better part of valor.

American & Australian, literary something that you say which means that it is better to be careful and think before you act than it is to be brave and take risks • She decided not to voice her opposition to the Chairman's remarks. Perhaps discretion was the better part of valour.

distance

go the (full) distance

to continue to do something until it is successfully completed • It's a really tough course – I'm just worried that I won't be able to go the distance.

in/within spitting distance in/within striking distance

very close to something or someone • (often + of) The great thing about the house is that it's within spitting distance of the sea. • The move to Ascot put us within striking distance of London.

distraction

drive sb to distraction

to make someone very angry or very bored • Looking after six children every day is enough to drive you to distraction. • There's a constant buzzing noise and it's driving me to distraction.

divide

divide and conquer/rule

a way of keeping yourself in a position of power by making the people under you disagree with each other so that they are unable to join together and remove you from your position • A small minority have continued to govern by a policy of divide and conquer.

divide-and-conquer/rule • (always before noun) They used divide-and-rule tactics to isolate their opponents.

dividends

pay dividends

if something you do pays dividends, it causes good results at a time in the future in the financial world a dividend is part of the profit of a company that is paid to the people who own shares in it.

• Plenty of practice early in the season will pay dividends later on.

do

It's do or die.

something that you say when you are in a situation in which you must take a big risk in order to avoid failure • It's now or never – do or die – risk everything or regret it for the rest of your life.

do-or-die • (always before noun) It was a do-or-die save by the goalkeeper that won the game.

doctor

be just what the doctor ordered

humorous

to be exactly what is wanted or needed • 'Andy's making us some lunch.' 'Great, just what the doctor ordered.' • A night out on their own was just what the doctor ordered.

dog

dog eat dog

if a situation is dog eat dog, people will do anything to be successful, even if what they do harms other people • In showbusiness it's dog eat dog – one day you're a star, the next you've been replaced by younger talent.

dog-eat-dog • It's a dog-eat-dog world out there so you've got to know who your real friends are.

a dog and pony show American

a show or other event that has been organized in order to get people's support or to persuade them to buy something • The film is part of the dog and pony show the company puts on for the benefit of foreign journalists.

a dog in the manger

someone who keeps something that they do not really want in order to prevent anyone else from having it • Stop being such a dog in the manger and let your sister ride your bike if you're not using it. dog-in-the-manger • (always before noun) The British have a dog-in-the-manger attitude to the island, no longer needing it themselves, but wanting to deny it to others.

the dog days

the hottest days of the summer Some people believe there is a star called the dog star which can only be seen during a hot period in the summer. • (usually + of) At times, during the dog days of summer, the stream dries up completely.

be like a dog with two tails

to be very happy • Ben's team won the match. Their manager was like a dog with two tails.

a dog's breakfast/dinner British &

Australian, informal

something that has been done very badly
• She tried to cut her hair and made a real dog's breakfast of it. • You should have seen the ceiling after he'd finished painting it. It was a complete dog's breakfast.

done up/dressed up like a dog's dinner British & Australian

wearing clothes which make you look silly when you have tried to dress for a formal occasion • There she was, all dressed up like a dog's dinner, in a ridiculous frilly shirt and a skirt that was far too short.

Every dog has its day.

something that you say which means that everyone is successful during some period in their life • He'll get that promotion eventually. Every dog has its day.

not have a dog's chance informal

to not have any chance of doing something that you want to do • (usually + of + doing sth) He hasn't a dog's chance of getting that job.

It's a dog's life.

something that you say which means that life is hard and unpleasant • I've got to go to the supermarket, then cook a meal, then pick Dave up from the station – it's a dog's life!

put on the dog American & Australian, informal

to try to seem richer or more important than you really are • They really put on the dog in front of their guests.

Why keep a dog and bark yourself?

British & Australian

something that you say which means there is no purpose in doing something yourself when there is someone else who will do it for you • Just leave the glasses on the table – the bar staff will collect them. After all, why keep a dog and bark yourself?

doggo

lie doggo British & Australian, oldfashioned

to hide, especially in order to avoid doing something that someone wants you to do

• 'Where's Mike?' 'Probably lying doggo till the washing up's done.'

doghouse

be in the doghouse informal

if someone is in the doghouse, another person is annoyed with them because of something they have done • I forgot to turn the oven off and the dinner's ruined, so I'm really in the doghouse.

dogs

call off the dogs

to stop attacking or criticizing someone
• The bank has agreed to call off the dogs until we can get the business up and running again.

go to the dogs

if a country or an organization is going to the dogs, it is becoming less successful than it was in the past • (usually in continuous tenses) They sat in the bar the night before the election, moaning that the country was going to the dogs.

throw sb to the dogs

to allow someone to be criticized or attacked, often in order to protect yourself from being criticized or attacked • I really felt as if I'd been thrown to the dogs just to save other people's reputations.

dog-tired

dog-tired informal

extremely tired • He usually got home at around seven o'clock, dog-tired after a long day in the office.

doldrums

be in the doldrums

1 if a business, an economy or a person's job is in the doldrums, it is not very successful and nothing new is happening in it The doldrums was the name for an area of sea where ships were not able to move because there was no wind.

 High-street spending remains in the doldrums and retailers do not expect an imminent recovery.

OPPOSITE OUT OF THE COLORNY OF THE

2 to feel sad and to lack the energy to do anything • He's been in the doldrums these past couple of weeks and nothing I do seems to cheer him up.

dollars

dollars to donuts/doughnuts American, informal

if you say that something will happen, dollars to donuts, you mean you are sure it will happen • Dollars to donuts the company is going to fold. • I'll bet you dollars to doughnuts she won't come to the party.

dollar signs in sb's eyes American & Australian

if someone has dollar signs in their eyes, they are thinking about the money they could get • Local taxi drivers approached us with dollar signs in their eyes.

dollars-and-cents

dollars-and-cents American & Australian if something is discussed or thought about in a dollars-and-cents way, the exact amounts of money involved are thought about • (always before noun) The dollars-and-cents details of the new budget will be presented tomorrow by the government.

domino

a domino effect

the effect which a situation or event has on a series of other situations or events Dominoes are a set of small, rectangle-shaped pieces of wood or plastic, marked with spots on one side. If dominoes are placed standing next to each other, each one will knock the next one over. Young couples can't afford even the small houses, so the people in those houses can't move on to the bigger houses. It's the domino effect.

done

a done deal mainly American

a final decision or agreement • (often negative) It's not a done deal – we're still talking about who to hire for the job.

be done in British, American & Australian, informal

be all done in American

to be too tired to do any more • She was done in by the time she had cleared up after the party. • I'm all done in – sorry, but I can't walk any further without a rest.

don juan

a Don Juan 🗡

a man who has had sex with a lot of women • At 47 he detests his image as a Don Juan.

donkey

donkey's years informal

a very long time • I've been doing this job for donkey's years.

doom

doom and gloom X

the feeling that a situation is bad and is not likely to improve • Come on, it's not all doom and gloom, if we make a real effort we could still win.

door

close/shut the door on sth

to make it impossible for something to happen, especially a plan or a solution to a problem • There are fears that this latest move might have closed the door on a peaceful solution.

get alyour foot in the door British,

American & Australian

get a leg in the door Australian

to start working at a low level for an organization because you want a better job in the same organization in the future • I know it's not the job you'd hoped for, but at least you can use it to get your foot in the door.

give sb a foot in the door • The freelance work I did gave me a foot in the door.

lay sth at sh's door

to blame someone for something bad that has happened • The blame for their deaths was laid firmly at the government's door.

never darken your door again old-

fashioned

if you tell someone never to darken your door again, you mean you never want to see them again • Did her father really tell you never to darken his door again? How melodramatic.

open the door to sth

to allow something new to start • The ceasefire opens the door to talks between the two sides. • A new kind of fat-free fat could open the door to a revolution in snack foods.

show sb the door

to make it clear that someone must leave
• I told her that I wasn't interested in her scheme and she showed me the door in no uncertain terms.

doors

open (new) doors

to give someone new opportunities • (sometimes + for) The success of that film opened new doors for him.
• (sometimes + to) Early results show that the new system would open doors to disadvantaged people.

doorstep

on sb's doorstep

very near to where someone lives • The great thing is we've got all the local amenities right on our doorstep.

dos

dos and don'ts

rules about what you must do and what you must not do in a particular situation
• In the back of the guide there's a list of the dos and don'ts of local etiquette.

dose

go through sb/sth like a dose of salts old-fashioned

if something you eat goes through your body like a dose of salts, it goes through you very quickly • Those beans went through me like a dose of salts.

dot

dot the/your i's and cross the/your t's informal

to do something very carefully and in a lot of detail • She writes highly accurate reports - she always dots her i's and crosses her t's.

on the dot

if something happens at a particular time on the dot, it happens at exactly that time • Shops in this part of the city shut at 5.30pm on the dot. • (sometimes + of) The first customers arrived on the dot of 9am.

dotted

sign on the dotted line

to formally agree to something by signing a legal document • According to promoter Andrew James, the band has signed on the dotted line and will be playing at the Coliseum on November 2. 3 and 4.

double

double Dutch British & Australian

speech or writing that is nonsense and cannot be understood • He came out with a load of sophisticated grammatical codes and it all sounded like double Dutch.

a double bind

a situation in which you cannot succeed because whatever you decide to do, there will be bad results • Women find themselves in a double bind. If they stay at home with their kids they're regarded as non-achievers and if they go out to work, people say they're neglecting their family.

a double whammy informal

a situation where two bad things happen at the same time • Critics claim that the cuts in public spending coupled with a pay freeze is a double whammy which will affect low-paid workers badly.

at the double British & Australian on the double American & Australian

if you go somewhere or do something at the double, you go there or do it very quickly • Two surgeons arrived in the emergency room at the double.

do a double take

to look at something or someone twice because you are so surprised at what you have seen • He walked past her and she did a double take. Without his beard he was quite transformed.

double-dipping

double-dipping American

the activity of receiving money from two different places or two different jobs, often when it is not honest or legal • The government has introduced tighter rules on employees' pensions to discourage double-dipping.

double-dip American • It is tempting for physicians to double-dip by sending their patients to labs they have a financial interest in.

double entendre

a double entendre

a word or phrase which has two different meanings, one of which is sexual or rude • His speech at the dinner was full of bad jokes and double entendres.

double-talk

double-talk British, American & Australian

Australian
double-speak mainly American

a way of speaking that confuses people in order to avoid telling them the truth • He said the new train service would run fewer trains, but would provide a better service – sheer double-talk.

doubting

a doubting Thomas

a person who refuses to believe anything until they are given proof  $\stackrel{>}{\approx}$  In the Bible, Thomas would not believe that Jesus had come back from the dead until he saw him. • He's a real doubting Thomas – he simply wouldn't believe I'd won the car until he saw it with his own eyes.

down

down-and-dirty

- 1 American, informal down-and-dirty behaviour is not pleasant or honest • He ran a down-and-dirty political campaign.
- 2 American, informal something that is down-and-dirty is shocking, often because it is connected with sex • He likes his films down-and-dirty.

down the drain British, American & Australian, informal down the gurgler Australian, informal if work or money goes down the drain, it is wasted • Then our funding was withdrawn and two years' work went down the drain. • Say he gives up his training, that's four thousand pounds down the gurgler.

down the toilet British, American & Australian, informal down the pan British, informal

if something goes down the toilet, it is wasted or spoiled • After the drug scandal, his career went down the toilet.
• If the factory closes, that'll be a million pounds' worth of investment down the pan.

Down Under informal

Australia and New Zealand, or in or to Australia and New Zealand • The British rugby team are going on a tour Down Under later this year. • I think she's from down under judging by her accent.

a down and out British & Australian

a down-and-outer American

someone who has no home, no job and no money • I just assumed he was a down and out, begging on the street corner. • She was one of the many down-and-outers waiting for the soup kitchen to open.

down-and-out • (always before noun) His next film was about two down-and-out drifters who met in New York.

down-at-heel

down-at-heel British, American & Australian

down-at-the-heel American

badly dressed or in a bad condition because of a lack of money • When I first met her she was down-at-heel but still respectable. • The play was set in a downat-heel hotel in post-war Germany.

downer

have a downer on sb British &

Australian, informal

to not like someone • I didn't realise she felt like that about Julian. She's got a real downer on him.

downhill

go downhill

to gradually become worse • The area has started to go downhill economically in the last ten years. • We started to argue soon after we got married, and things went downhill from there.

down-home

down-home American

down-home things are simple and typical of life in the countryside • (always before noun) It's a diner with down-home American cooking where you can take all the family. • He's a folksy, down-home sort of guy.

down-to-earth

down-to-earth

down-to-earth people or ideas are practical and work well • David's very arty and a bit of a dreamer – Ruth's much more down-to-earth, • I like her down-to-earth approach to problem-solving.

dozen

by the dozen

if something is being produced by the dozen, large numbers of that thing are being produced • The government is producing new policies by the dozen.

nineteen/ten to the dozen British &

Australian, informal

if someone is talking nineteen to the dozen, they are talking very fast, without stopping • Gaby was chatting away nineteen to the dozen behind me and I couldn't concentrate.

drag

drag your feet/heels

to deal with something slowly because you do not really want to do it • (often + on) He was asked why the government had dragged its feet on the question of a single European currency. • (often + over) We don't want to look as if we're dragging our heels over promoting women to senior positions.

dragon

chase the dragon

to take heroin (= a powerful drug which is taken illegally for pleasure) by smoking it • The drug can be smoked, which is known as chasing the dragon.

drain

laugh like a drain British & Australian to laugh very loudly • I told her what had happened and she laughed like a drain.

draw

be quick on the draw

to be fast at understanding or reacting to a situation • He was quick on the draw answering the reporter's questions.

OPPOSITE be slow on the draw mainly American • You're a bit slow on the draw aren't you? Can't you see the joke?

drawing

a drawing card American & Australian

a famous person who attracts a lot of people to a public event • Babe Ruth was the outstanding player of his time – the real drawing card for Yankee Stadium.

back to the drawing board X

if you go back to the drawing board, you have to start planning a piece of work again because the previous plan failed • If the education reform is too expensive to implement, it's back to the drawing board for the committee. • Our proposal might not be accepted, in which case we'll have to go back to the drawing board.

dreaded

the dreaded lurgy British & Australian,

humorous

an illness that is not serious but passes easily from person to person • My throat is sore and my head hurts. I think I've caught the dreaded lurgy.

dream

Dream on! humorous

something that you say to someone who has just told you about something they are hoping for, in order to show that you do not believe it will happen • Tive a feeling I'll win something on the lottery this week.' 'Dream on!'

a dream ticket

two politicians who have joined together to try to win an election and who are likely to succeed because together they have the support of many different 106 groups of people • Clinton and Gore transformed themselves into a dream ticket in the last American election.

be/live in a dream world

to have ideas or hopes which are not practical and are not likely to be successful • (usually in continuous tenses) If she thinks he's suddenly going to turn into the perfect boyfriend, she's living in a dream world.

like a dream

if something or someone does something like a dream, they do it very well • Everything had happened as it was meant to. Oscar's plan had worked like a dream. • Our new car goes like a dream.

wouldn't dream of doing sth

if someone wouldn't dream of doing something, they would never do it because they think it is wrong or silly • I wouldn't dream of asking my father for money.

dreams

In your dreams! humorous

something that you say to someone who has just told you about something they are hoping for, in order to show that you do not believe it will happen • Dave, buy you a car? In your dreams!

the man/woman/sth of your dreams

the person or thing that you would like more than any other • I'm not sure I'll ever meet the man of my dreams, or if he even exists. • At last, we'd found it, the house of our dreams.

dressed

be all dressed up and/with nowhere to go

to be dressed and ready to go somewhere nice, but not have anywhere to go • Rob rang up and said he had to work late, so there I was, all dressed up with nowhere to go.

be dressed to kill

to be wearing clothes which are intended to make people sexually attracted to you • Rosie emerged from the house, dressed to kill and clutching a bottle of champagne.

be dressed up to the nines informal

to be wearing very fashionable or formal clothes for a special occasion • They must have been on their way to a wedding or something. They were dressed up to the nines.

dribs

in dribs and drabs

in small amounts or a few at a time • We could only afford to pay the builder in dribs and drabs. • The hostages have been released in dribs and drabs.

drift

get sb's/the drift informal

catch sb's/the drift informal to understand what someone is saying • Can you explain that again? I don't quite get your drift. • I didn't understand everything he was saying but I think I caught the drift.

if you catch/get my drift informal

if you catch/get the drift informal something that you say to suggest that you have left out information or your opinion from what you have just told someone • She always has to be the centre of attention, if you catch my drift.

drink

drive sb to drink humorous

to make someone extremely anxious and unhappy • I just couldn't live with someone like Malcolm. It would drive me to drink.

drop

drop a bombshell British, American &

Australian

drop a bomb American

to suddenly tell someone a piece of news that upsets them very much • My sister dropped a bombshell by announcing she was leaving her job. • Her husband dropped a bomb over dinner. 'I'm seeing another woman.' he said.

drop everything

if you drop everything, you suddenly stop what you are doing in order to do something else instead • I can't just drop everything and go into town with you. I have to finish this letter.

a drop in the ocean British, American & Australian

a drop in the bucket American

a very small amount in comparison to the amount that is needed • A hundred thousand may seem a lot but it's a drop in the ocean compared to the millions that need to be spent.

at the drop of a hat

if you do something at the drop of a hat, you do it suddenly and easily, often without any preparation • I can't go rushing off to Florida at the drop of a hat.
• We now have a situation where laws may be changed at the drop of a hat.

fit/ready to drop

extremely tired • I'd just walked 10 miles and I was ready to drop.

drop-dead

drop-dead informal

a drop-dead person or piece of clothing is very beautiful • (always before noun) Her exquisite figure was shown off to the full in a drop-dead black dress. • He turned up to the concert with a drop-dead gorgeous woman on his arm.

dropping

be dropping like flies

if people are dropping like flies, large numbers of them are dying or becoming ill or injured within a short period of time • The heat was overwhelming and people were dropping like flies.

drowned

look like a drowned rat

to be very wet, especially because you have been in heavy rain • I had to cycle home in the rain and came in looking like a drowned rat.

drum

bang/beat the drum

to speak eagerly about something that you support • (often + for) Once again she was banging the drum for pre-school nurseries. • The opposition parties are always beating the environmental drum.

drunk

as drunk as a lord/skunk

very drunk • He rolled out of the club into a taxi, drunk as a lord. • We'd get drunk as a skunk at lunch and sleep all afternoon.

dry

be as dry as a bone

to be extremely dry • I don't think he's been watering these plants – the soil's as dry as a bone.

bleed sb dry

to take someone's money until most or all of it has gone • Repayments on the new furniture were bleeding me dry.

There wasn't a dry eye in the house.

something that you say which means that all the people in a particular place were very sad about what they had seen or heard and many of them were crying • She began to talk about her son who had died and by the end of her speech there wasn't a dry eye in the house.

duck

be duck soup American, informal

to be very easy to do • Winning your case in court ought to be duck soup.

take to sth like a duck to water

to learn how to do something very quickly and to enjoy doing it • Sue just took to motherhood like a duck to water. • He's taken to his new school like a duck to water.

ducking

ducking and diving informal

if you spend your time ducking and diving, you are involved in many different activities, especially ones which are not honest • What do you do for a living?' This and that, ducking and diving.'

ducks

get your ducks in a row American.

informal

to organize things well • The government talks about tax changes but they won't fix a date or an amount – they just can't get their ducks in a row.

due

give sb their due give the devil his due

something that you say when you want to describe someone's good qualities after they have done something wrong or after you have criticized them • She might be bad at writing letters but I'll give her her due, she always phones me at the end of the month. • Geoff usually forgets my birthday, but give the devil his due, he always buys me a lovely Christmas present.

in due course slightly formal

if you say that something will happen in due course, you mean that it will happen at a suitable time in the future • You will receive notification of the results in due course.

dues

pay your dues

to work hard or do something unpleasant over a long period in order to achieve something • I've looked after four kids for sixteen years, I've paid my dues, and now I want some time to enjoy myself.

duff

be up the duff British & Australian, informal

to be pregnant • Oh, don't tell me Kylie's up the duff again!

dull

be as dull as dishwater/ditchwater

informal

to be very boring • He loved the book but I thought it was as dull as ditchwater.

dumps

be down in the dumps informal

to be unhappy • Things hadn't been going so well for her at work and she was feeling a bit down in the dumps.

dust

the dust settles

if the dust settles after an argument, a problem, or an event which has caused a lot of changes, the situation becomes calmer • We decided to let the dust settle before trying to deal with any other problems. • You'd better wait until the dust settles before you mention anything else.

bite the dust

- 1 informal to fail or to stop existing Three hundred more people lost their jobs in the same region when another firm bit the dust. • She can't make it on Saturday? Oh, well, another good idea bites the dust!
- 2 humorous to die Two Hollywood stars of the thirties have recently bitten the dust.

gather dust X

to not be used for a long time • (often in continuous tenses) If these books are going to sit around gathering dust in the garage you might as well give them to Frank.

not see sb for dust British & Australian, informal

if you say that you won't see someone for dust, you mean that they will leave a place very quickly, usually in order to avoid something • If you tell her that Jim's coming, you won't see her for dust!

dutch

Dutch courage humorous

the confidence that you get by drinking alcohol before you do something that you are frightened of doing • He had another drink to give him Dutch courage for what he might find at home.

a Dutch treat

an occasion when two or more people agree to share the cost of something, especially a meal • She and Callahan often met for lunch. It was always a Dutch treat.

go Dutch

to share the cost of something, especially a meal • 'Will you let me take you out tonight?' 'As long as we go Dutch.'

duty

be duty bound to do sth

if you are duty bound to do something, you have to do it because it is your duty
• The government is duty bound to compensate those who lost money. • I've been given a certain amount of training so I feel duty bound to stay in the job for at least a year.

do (double) duty as/for sth American & Australian

to also have another purpose • They make an electronic identity card that will do duty for a credit card and pocket calculator. • She's really the secretary but she does double duty as the receptionist during Katrina's lunch hour.

dyed-in-the-wool

dyed-in-the-wool

if you describe someone as dyed-in-thewool, you mean they have very strong opinions and will not change • (always before noun) He's a dyed-in-the-wool traditionalist where cooking is concerned -he won't have any modern gadgets in the kitchen.

each

each to his/her own

something that you say which means that it is acceptable for people to like or believe in different things • I find it hard to believe that anyone enjoys gardening. Ah well each to his own.

eager

an eager beaver

someone who works very hard and is very eager to do things \(\alpha\) A beaver is a small animal which people traditionally believe to be hard-working. • Who's the eager beaver who came in at the weekend to finish this work off?

eagle

watch sb/sth with an eagle eye watch sb/sth with eagle eyes

to watch someone or something very closely and carefully & An eagle is a large bird which can see very well. • The teacher was watching the children with an eagle eye, making sure they behaved themselves.

an eagle eye • if someone has an eagle eye, they are good at noticing small details because they watch things very carefully • Nothing escapes his eagle eye. eagle-eyed • This article is full of printer's errors, which an eagle-eyed proofreader would have spotted.

ear

be out on your ear informal

to be forced to leave your job because you have done something wrong, or because your work is not good enough • You'll be out on your ear if you don't start doing some work around here.

can do sth on their ear Australian,

informal

if someone can do something on their ear, they can do it very easily • Ask Jane to make it, she can bake a soufflé on her ear.

grin/smile from ear to ear

to look extremely happy • (usually in continuous tenses) We've had a fantastic response,' he said, grinning from ear to ear.

play it by ear

to decide how to deal with a situation as it develops rather than planning how you are going to react • I'm not sure how long I'll stay at the party. I'll just play it by ear.

Ear is used in the following phrases connected with listening and talking to people.

bend sb's ear informal

to talk to someone for a long time, usually about something boring • (often + about) Don't let her bend your ear about how overworked she is.

have sh's ear

if someone has the ear of an important and powerful person, that person is willing to listen to their ideas • He's a powerful industrialist who has the President's ear.

have an ear for sth

if someone has an ear for music, poetry, or languages, they are good at hearing, repeating, or understanding these sounds • (often negative) She's never had much of an ear for languages.

keep an/your ear to the ground

to watch and listen carefully to what is happening around you so that you know about everything American Indians used to put their ear against the ground to help them discover where animals or other people were. • I'll keep an ear to the ground and tell you if I hear of any vacancies.

lend an ear

to listen carefully and in a friendly way to someone, especially someone who is telling you about a problem • If you have any problems, go to Claire. She'll always lend a sympathetic ear.

earful

give sb an earful informal

to tell someone how angry you are with them • You can just imagine the earful he gave her when they got home.

early

an early bath British & Australian,

informal
if you take an early bath, you are forced to stop doing an activity sooner than you intended to This phrase is often used about sports such as football. • The spokesman took an early bath after a series of embarrassing and incorrect statements. • And that's his second yellow card so it looks like an early bath for Taylor.

an early bird

someone who gets up early in the morning • Ellen's the early bird in this house, not me.

The early bird catches the worm.

something that you say in order to tell someone that if they want to be successful they should do something immediately • If you see a job that interests you, apply as soon as possible. The early bird catches the worm.

it's early days (yet) British & Australian something that you say which means that it is too soon to make a judgement about something • Both teams are near the bottom of the league, but it's early days yet.

ears

(sb's) ears are flapping informal

something that you say when you think that someone is listening to your private conversation • I can't talk now. Ears are flapping.

your ears must be burning

something that you say to someone who is being talked about • All that talk about William - his ears must have been burning.

Were your ears burning? • Were your ears burning? We were just talking about you.

about/around sb's ears

if something falls, or is brought about someone's ears, it suddenly fails completely and destroys someone's hopes and plans • His business folded and collapsed about his ears. • Her entire world seemed to have come crashing around her ears when he died.

be all ears informal

to be very eager to hear what someone is going to say • 'Do you want to hear what happened at the party last night?' 'Oh yes, I'm all ears'.

box sb's ears old-fashioned

to hit someone, usually as a punishment
• I'll box your ears, young man, if you come home late again!

can't believe your ears

if you can't believe your ears, you are very surprised at something that someone tells you • (usually in past tenses) She couldn't believe her ears when they told her Jim had been arrested.

have nothing between the/your ears

informal

to be stupid • He's very good-looking but has absolutely nothing between the ears, I'm afraid.

pin back your ears British

to listen carefully to something • (often an order) Pin back your ears – she could be about to say something important.

prick your ears up informal

to start to listen carefully to what someone is saying, often because you think you may find out something interesting Many animals prick up (= raise) their ears when they hear something. • Eve pricked her ears up when she heard her name being mentioned.

earth

an earth mother

a woman who has children and who has a natural ability as a mother • My older sister's a real earth mother. She has four kids and she's completely happy to stay at home all day with them.

the earth moved humorous

something that you say to describe how good a sexual experience was • 'How was it for you?' 'Ooh, the earth moved!'. • Did the earth move for you?

come (back) down to earth (with a bang/bump/jolt)

to have to start dealing with the unpleasant or boring things that happen every day after a period of excitement and enjoyment • We came down to earth with a bump when we got back from our holidays to find we had a burst pipe.

bring sb (back) down to earth • I had a huge pile of work waiting for me on my desk so that brought me back down to earth.

go to earth British & Australian

to go away somewhere where people will not be able to find you • I'll go to earth in my uncle's holiday cottage until all the publicity has died down.

run sb to earth British & Australian

to find someone after searching for them

 The film star was run to earth by reporters in an exclusive golf complex.

earth-shattering

[hardly/scarcely etc.] earth-shattering

not very surprising or shocking • We were all expecting the announcement. It wasn't exactly earth-shattering news.

easier

easier said than done

something that you say when something seems like a good idea but it would be difficult to do • The doctor says I should stop smoking but that's easier said than done.

easy

easy come, easy go informal

something that you say in order to describe someone who thinks that everything is easy to achieve, especially earning money, and who therefore does not worry about anything • Les could certainly spend money. Easy come, easy go it was with him.

Easy does it! informal something that you say in order to tell someone to do something carefully • 'Easy does it!' Bob shouted, as I steered the boat into the dock

easy money

money that you earn with very little work or effort • It must be easy money writing for one of those magazines.

be as easy as abc

to be very easy • You won't have any problems assembling your new bed – it's as easy as abc.

be as easy as falling off a log British, American & Australian

be as easy as rolling off a log American to be very easy • She said writing stories was as easy as falling off a log for her.

be as easy as pie

to be very easy • Oh, come on! Even a child could do that, it's as easy as pie.

be easy meat British & Australian, informal

be an easy mark American

someone or something that is easy meat is easy to beat, criticize, or trick • United were easy meat in the semifinal on Wednesday. • The elderly living alone are an easy mark for con-men.

make easy meat of sth/sb British & Australian, informal • Our team made easy meat of them in the final.

be easy on the ear

if music is easy on the ear, it has a pleasant and relaxing sound • When I'm driving, I like to listen to music that's easy on the ear and not too demanding.

be easy on the eye X

to have an attractive appearance • It's not a painting which is easy on the eye, but it attracts your attention for other reasons.

go easy informal

to not take or use too much of something • (often + on) Avoid fried foods and go easy on the snacks. • Go easy! There's not much left!

go easy on sb informal

to treat someone in a gentle way and not punish them severely if they have done something wrong • They'll probably go  easy on him since he hasn't been in trouble before.

It's easy to be wise after the event.

British, American & Australian

It's easy to be smart after the fact.

American

something that you say which means that it is easy to understand what you could have done to prevent something bad from happening after it has happened • In retrospect I suppose we should have realised that she was in trouble and tried to help her but then I suppose it's easy to be wise after the event. • People often tell me they'd never have taken out a loan if they'd thought about it more carefully – but it's easy to be smart after the fact.

take it easy

to relax and not use up too much energy • You'd better take it easy for a while – you don't want to get ill again.

Take it easy!

something that you say in order to tell someone to be calm and not to get too angry or excited • Take it easy! I didn't mean any offence.

eat

eat humble pie British, American & Australian

eat crow American

to be forced to admit that you are wrong and to say you are sorry • The producers of the advert had to eat humble pie and apologize for misrepresenting the facts.

eating

what's eating sb? informal

something that you ask when someone is angry and you want to know why • He suddenly noticed I wasn't joining in the conversation. 'What's eating you tonight?' he asked.

ebb

the ebb and flow

the way in which the level of something frequently becomes higher or lower in a situation • (often + of) The government did nothing about the recession, hoping it was just part of the ebb and flow of the economy.

echo

cheer sb to the echo British, old-

fashioned

to shout and clap a lot in order to support someone • The team captain was cheered to the echo when he was presented with the cup.

eclipse

be in eclipse literary

if something is in eclipse, it is less successful than it was before • His career was in eclipse until he made a comeback in this surprise hit film.

economical

be economical with the truth humorous

to not be completely honest about something • He was economical with the truth – he gave her a censored account of what was discussed.

edge

be on edge

to be nervous or worried about something • The players were all a little on edge before the big game.

put sb on edge • Knowing that I might be called on to answer a question at any point always puts me on edge.

have the edge on/over sb/sth

to be slightly better than someone or something else • He's got the edge over other teachers because he's so much more experienced. • The new Renault has the edge on other similar models – it's larger and cheaper.

keep sb on the edge of their seat British, American & Australian

keep sb on the edge of their chair

American

if a story keeps you on the edge of your seat, it is very exciting and you want to know what is going to happen next • You must rent this video. It keeps you on the edge of your seat right up to the end.

live on the edge $\times$

to have a type of life in which you are often involved in exciting or dangerous activities • If you were always living on the edge like that I'm sure you wouldn't live past the age of sixty.

lose your edge

to lose the qualities or skills that made you successful in the past • She's still competing, but she's two years older now and she's lost her edge.

push/drive sb over the edge informal

if an unpleasant event pushes someone over the edge, it makes them start to behave in a crazy way • She had been driven over the edge by the separation from her husband.

take the edge off sth

to make something unpleasant have less of an effect on someone • Have an apple. It'll take the edge off your hunger for a while. • His apology took the edge off her anger.

edges

fray around/at the edges

to start to become less effective or successful • This songwriting partnership began to fray at the edges after both partners got married.

educated

an educated guess

a guess that is likely to be correct because you have enough knowledge about a particular subject • Scientists can do no more than make educated guesses about future climate changes.

effing

effing and blinding British & Australian, informal

swearing angrily Effing here represents the letter 'F' as a way of avoiding saying 'fuck' or 'fucking'. Blinding comes from an old-fashioned phrase 'Blind me!'. • I could hear Bill effing and blinding as he tried to repair the washing machine.

egg

can't boil an egg humorous

if someone can't boil an egg, they are not able to cook 🖎 This phrase comes from the idea that boiling an egg is a very easy thing to do. • Don't expect a dinner invitation from Laura – she can't boil an egg.

have egg on your face informal

to seem stupid because of something you have done • You'll be the one who has egg on your face if it goes wrong.

lay an egg American, informal

to fail to make people enjoy or be interested in something • Our first two sketches got big laughs, but the next two laid an egg.

eggs

put all your eggs in one basket

to risk losing everything by putting all your efforts or all your money into one plan or one course of action • If you're going to invest the money, my advice would be don't put all your eggs in one basket.

eggshells

be walking/treading on eggshells

if you are walking on eggshells, you are trying very hard not to upset someone An eggshell is the hard outside covering of an egg which breaks very easily. • It was like walking on eggshells with my father. The smallest thing would make him angry.

ego

an ego trip

something that you do in order to make yourself feel important • Running the university Film Society is a big ego trip for her.

eight

be behind the eight ball American &

Australian, informal

to be in a difficult situation and unable to make progress in a game of pool (= a game in which you hit numbered balls into holes around a table), if you are behind the black, number eight ball you are in a difficult position to take your next turn. • The police are very much behind the eight ball – they've had no more leads on these burglaries.

elbow

elbow grease humorous

hard work, especially when you are cleaning something • With determination and elbow grease we soon transformed the filthy kitchen.

elbow room

- 1 space which allows you to move around There's no elbow room at all in this kitchen.
- 2 the freedom to do what you want to do

   The President should be given as much elbow room as he needs to solve these international problems.

at sb's elbow

near someone, often in order to help them
• She hovered constantly at Charles's elbow to make sure he had everything he wanted.

give sb the elbow British, informal to end a romantic relationship with someone • They went out together for a month and then she gave him the elbow.

elders

your elders and betters old-fashioned people who are older than you and who should be treated with respect • When we were children, we were always taught to respect our elders and betters.

element

be in your element

to feel happy and relaxed because you are doing something that you like doing and are good at • You should have seen her when they asked her to sing, she was in her element.

be out of your element

to feel unhappy or strange because you are in a situation that you are not familiar with • He felt out of his element at such a formal occasion.

elevator

elevator music American

pleasant but boring recorded music that is played in public places • You can't get away from elevator music in some shopping malls.

eleventh

at the eleventh hour

almost too late • Negotiators reached agreement at the eleventh hour, just in time to avoid a strike.

eleventh-hour • (always before noun) The accused was saved from execution by an eleventh-hour confession from her father:

else

if all else fails

if you decide that you will do something if all else fails, you decide that that is what you will do if none of your ideas or plans succeed • Well, if all else fails you'll just have to get a part-time job to earn a bit of extra money.

embarrassment

an embarrassment of riches formal

if you have an embarrassment of riches, you have more of something than you need and this makes it difficult for you to make a choice • This club has an embarrassment of riches. All their players are good, so who do they pick for their side?

éminence grise

an éminence grise formal

someone who has a lot of power and influence but no official position • Although he never became a minister, he was the party's éminence grise for 15 years.

empty

empty nest syndrome

the sad feelings which parents have when their children grow up and leave home • The last of her children had recently moved out and she was suffering from empty nest syndrome.

Empty vessels make (the) most noise/sound.

something that you say which means that people who talk a lot and frequently express their opinions are often stupid • David talks as if he's an expert on

 Davia takes as ty he's an expert on everything, but empty vessels make most noise.

enchilada

the whole enchilada informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • We had the flowers, the speeches, the presents—the whole enchilada.

end

end it all informal

to kill yourself • After his wife died, he was so depressed he decided to end it all.

End of story. informal X

something that you say when you think that the opinion you have just expressed about something is correct and that there is no other possible way of thinking about it • If you don't have the money, you don't spend it. End of story.

an end in itself

if an activity or action is an end in itself, it is important to you not because it will help you to achieve something else, but because you enjoy doing it or think that it is important • Education should be an end in itself.

The end justifies the means.

something that you say which means that in order to achieve an important aim, it is acceptable to do something bad • Unfortunately, we'll have to cut down the forest to make space for the golf course, but I feel the end justifies the means.

at the end of the day informal

something that you say before you say what you believe to be the most important fact of a situation • Sure we missed our best player but at the end of the day, John, we just didn't play well enough to win the game. • At the end of the day, what matters is that you're safe.

be at the end of your tether British,

American & Australian be at the end of your rope American

to be so tired, worried, or annoyed by something that you feel unable to deal with it any more An animal which is tied up by a rope cannot reach the grass which is further away than the end of the rope and becomes hungry and unhappy.

• After a day with four screaming kids I'm at the end of my tether. • He's out of work, hanging around the house all day and at the end of his rope.

reach the end of your tether British, American & Australian reach the end of your rope American

• She finally reached the end of her tether and told him exactly what she thought of his behaviour.

be the end of the line/road

to be the end of a situation or process • After losing his title in last night's fight, the former heavyweight champion knows that this is the end of the road. • (often + for) When she found out that Jim had been seeing another woman, it was the end of the line for their marriage.

reach the end of the line/road • I think our friendship has reached the end of the road—you've lied to me once too often.

not be the end of the world

if you say that if something happens it won't be the end of the world, you mean it will not cause very serious problems • If Idon't get the job, it won't be the end of the world.

can't see beyond/past the end of your nose

if you can't see beyond the end of your nose, you think so much about yourself and what affects you that you do not see what is really important • These people are so busy making money, they can't see beyond the end of their nose.

get/have your end away British, very informal

if a man gets his end away, he has sex
• Did you get your end away last night, then?

hold/keep your end up British, informal to do what you are expected to do • After my maternity leave, I made sure I kept my end up at work. I didn't want to give my boss an excuse to complain about working mothers.

You'll never hear the end of it. informal something that you say which means that someone will continue to talk about something they have achieved for a long time and in an annoying way • If she wins you know we'll never hear the end of it.

[days/months/weeks etc.] on end

if something happens or continues for days, months etc. on end, it continues for several days, months, or weeks without stopping • We sometimes don't see each other for months on end, but we're still good friends.

ends

go to the ends of the earth

to do everything possible in order to achieve something • (often + to do sth) Some journalists would go to the ends of the earth to get a story.

make (both) ends meet

to have just enough money to pay for the things that you need • My wages were so low that I had to take a second job just to make ends meet.

play both ends against the middle

American, informal

to try to make two people or groups compete with each other in order to get an advantage for yourself • He's playing both ends against the middle – telling two prospective employers that the other has offered a higher salary.

enfant terrible

an enfant terrible

a famous or successful person who likes to shock people by behaving badly • (usually + of) Jean Paul Gaultier, the enfant terrible of French fashion, arrived at the show wearing a mini kilt.

Englishman

An Englishman's home is his castle.

British, old-fashioned

something that you say which means that British people believe they should be able to control what happens in their own homes, and that no one else should tell them what to do there • An Englishman's home is his castle. The government has no right to interfere in our private lives!

enough

Enough is as good as a feast. British, oldfashioned

something that you say which means you should not have more of something than you need • No, thank you, nothing more to drink for me. Enough is as good as a feast.

enough is enough

something that you say in order to tell someone that you think what is happening should stop • Look, enough is enough. He's borrowed £300 already.

Enough said. X

something that you say in order to tell someone that you have clearly understood what they have just said and do not need any more explanation • 'His father's a duke.' 'Enough said.'

en route

en route

if you are en route to a place, you are on your way there • (usually + to) They were en route to Geneva when they heard the news.

error

see the error of your ways

to understand that you have been behaving badly and to decide to improve your behaviour • It's the story of a corrupt policeman who finally sees the error of his ways.

esprit de corps

esprit de corps formal

feelings of pride and loyalty that are shared by members of a group • Companies that involve their employees in planning have the best esprit de corps.

essence

be of the essence

to be the most important thing for achieving success • Time is of the essence because the building must be completed by June. • For successful military strategy, secrecy is of the essence.

et al.

et al.

something that you say after a name or list of names to refer to other people in the group • This issue is discussed in more detail in the article by Cooper et al.

even

even stevens British, informal even steven American & Australian, informal

if two or more people are even stevens, they have the same amount of something or are at the same level • Give me £20 and we're even stevens – I'm not worried about a few pence.

break even

if a person or a business breaks even, they do not make or lose any money from their business • After a bad year in 1995, the company just about broke even in 1996.

get an even break American & Australian if someone gets an even break, they get the same opportunity to improve their situation as other people • This guy has the talent. He just needs to get an even break and he could be up there with the best of them.

give sb an even break American & Australian • Until now no one had given her an even break to prove what she could do.

get even informal

if you get even with someone who has done something bad to you, you do something bad to them • Vinnie's a spiteful kind of guy. Who knows what he might think up to get even. • (often + with) He swore he'd get even with Lee for humiliating him.

on an even keel

calm and not likely to change suddenly • My main priority is to keep my life on an even keel for the sake of my two boys.

every

every man jack (of us/them) old-fashioned every last man (of us/them) old-fashioned every single person • If you sack me the others will walk out too, every man jack of them. • Every last man of us is ready to fight for their country.

every now and again/then every so often sometimes • Every now and then I go to town and spend loads of money.

every other

happening or existing regularly on every second one of the things you are counting • Our discussion group meets every other Friday at eight o'clock. • Every other shelf on the bookcase was full of books.

every time sb turns around/round informal

something that you say when you think something happens very often or too often • Every time I turn around she's giving me some new rule about recycling the trash.

every which way American & Australian, informal in many different directions • The documents lay scattered every which way on his desk.

everyone

everyone and his brother American

a very large number of people • We couldn't get in to see the movie – everyone and his brother had decided to go.

everything

Everything's coming up roses.

something that you say when a situation is successful in every way • Everything's coming up roses for George at the moment – he's been promoted at work and he's just got engaged.

evidence

turn king's/queen's evidence turn state's evidence

if someone who has been accused of a crime turns king's evidence, they give information in a court of law about other people involved in the crime in order to have their own punishment reduced • She was given a lenient sentence in exchange for turning king's evidence.

evil

give sb the evil eye

to look at someone in an angry or unpleasant way • I arrived late for the meeting and Steve Thomson gave me the evileye.

ex cathedra

ex cathedra formal

if someone speaks ex cathedra or makes an ex cathedra statement, they say something in an official way as if it must be obeyed or accepted • His policy pronouncements made ex cathedra angered many of his colleagues.

exception

be the exception that proves the rule

if you say something is the exception that proves the rule, you mean that although it does not support the statement you have made, the statement is usually true • This woman is the exception that proves the rule that it is impossible to be a warmonger and a feminist at the same time.

ex gratia

ex gratia

an ex gratia payment is one which someone makes in order to show that they are kind and not because it is legally necessary • (always before noun) The company has refused to admit it acted unlawfully but it has offered the victims an ex gratia payment of £5.000 each.

exhibition

make an exhibition of yourself

to do something that makes you look stupid and attracts other people's attention • If he keeps on drinking he's going to end up making an exhibition of himself!

expense

no expense is spared

if no expense is spared in arranging something, a lot of money is spent to make it extremely good • No expense was spared in making the guests feel comfortable.

no expense spared • It was only the best for his daughter's wedding, no expense spared.

experience

put sth down to experience British, American & Australian

chalk sth up to experience American & Australian to decide that instead of being upset about something bad that you have done or that has happened, you will learn from it • 'I'm so ashamed. I let him take advantage of me.' 'Don't be so hard on yourself. Just put it down to experience.'

extra

extracurricular

extracurricular activity humorous

sexual activity, especially when it is secret Extracurricular activities can also mean things that you do which are not part of your school or college course. • You're looking very tired these days, Ron. Been indulging in too much extracurricular activity?

eye

An eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth).

something that you say which means if someone does something wrong, they should be punished by having the same thing done to them Description This phrase comes from the Bible. • If you murder someone you deserve to die. An eye for an eye.

be in the eye of the storm

to be very much involved in an argument or problem that affects a lot of people • International aid agencies were in the eye of the storm when war broke out in the country.

cast/run your/an eye over sth

to look at something quickly without looking at the details • Would you mind casting an eye over my essay and giving me your comments?

catch sb's eye

- 1 to be noticed by someone because you are looking at them She lit a cigarette while he tried to catch the waiter's eye.
- 2 to be attractive or different enough to be noticed by people • There were lots of dresses to choose from, but none of them really caught my eye.

eye-catching • There is an eye-catching mural in the hall.

get your eye in British & Australian

to become very good at a sport or other activity by practising it • It'll take me a while to get my eye in. I haven't played for years.

keep your eye in British & Australian • I try to play regularly to keep my eye in.

give your eye teeth for sth informal give your eye teeth to do sth informal

if you would give your eye teeth for something, you would very much like to have or be that thing • I'd give my eye teeth for a house like that. • Most women would give their eye teeth to be tall and thin like you.

have your eye on sth

to have seen something that you want and that you intend to get  $\bullet$  I've got my eye on a really nice sofa – I just hope we can afford it.

have an eye for sth

to be good at noticing a particular type of thing • She has an eye for detail. • He had an eye for the unusual and the exotic which made him a very good shopping companion.

have an eye for/on the main chance

British & Australian

if someone has an eye for the main chance, they are always looking for opportunities to make money and to improve their situation • She was someone who had an eye on the main chance and who never missed an opportunity to exploit others.

keep your eye on the ball

to give your attention to what you are doing all the time • You have to keep your eye on the ball in business.

OPPOSITE take your eye off the ball • If you're a manager, you can't afford to take your eye off the ball for one minute.

keep your/an eve on sth/sb

to watch or look after something or someone • Could you keep an eye on the baby for me a while? • I kept my eye on him all the time as I felt sure he was about to do something stupid.

keep an eye out for sb/sth

to watch carefully for someone or something to appear • Keep an eye out for signposts for Yosemite.

look sb in the eye/eyes

to look directly at someone without fear or shame • Look me in the eyes and tell me the truth. • I felt so embarrassed – I just couldn't look him in the eye.

see eye to eye

if two people see eye to eye, they agree with each other • (often negative; often + with) He's asked for a transfer because he doesn't see eye to eye with the new manager. • (often + on) We see eye to eye on most important issues.

There is more to sth/sb than meets the eye.

something that you say when you think that something or someone is less simple than they seem to be at first • There's more to this than meets the eye. I suspect Tom's not telling the truth. • There must be more to him than meets the eye, or else why would she be interested in him?

with an eye to sth

if you do something with an eye to something else, you do it for that reason

- With an eye to the upcoming election the President has hired a new speechwriter.
- A lot of costume drama is produced with an eye to American sales.

eyeball

eyeball to eyeball

if you are eyeball to eyeball with an enemy or someone that you are arguing with, you deal with them in a direct way

- Troops on the ground are likely to remain eyeball to eyeball for a while yet.
- eyeball-to-eyeball (always before noun) The public wants to see an eyeball-to-eyeball confrontation between the two party leaders.

eyebrows

raise (a few) eyebrows

to shock or surprise people • Anna's miniskirt raised eyebrows at the board meeting. • The player's huge transfer fee raised a few eyebrows in the football world.

raised eyebrows • There were raised eyebrows and coughs of disapproval when the speaker turned up drunk for the lecture.

eyeful

get an eyeful informal

to clearly see someone or something that is surprising • Ed got an eyeful on the beach when a woman took her top off right in front of him. • (often an order) Get an eyeful of this! (= Look at this) I bet you've never seen so much money in one place before.

eyes

sb's eyes are bigger than their belly/stomach humorous

something that you say when someone has taken more food than they can eat • I can't finish this piece of cake. I'm afraid my eyes were bigger than my stomach as usual.

sb's eyes are out on stalks informal sb's eyes are popping out of their head informal

if someone's eyes are out on stalks, they are looking at someone or something in a way that shows that they think that person or thing is extremely surprising or attractive  $\rightleftharpoons$  In funny drawings, people and animals are often drawn with their eyes coming out of their head to show that they are very surprised. • You should have seen Pete when Bec turned up in her short skirt. His eyes were out on stalks.

all eyes are on sb/sth

if all eyes are on someone or something, everyone is watching that person or thing and waiting to see what will happen • All eyes are on the Prime Minister to see how he will respond to the challenge to his leadership.

be all eyes

to watch something or someone with a lot of interest • We were all eyes as the prince and princess emerged from the palace.

can't take/keep your eyes off sb/sth

if you can't take your eyes off someone or something, you are unable to stop looking at them because they are so attractive or interesting • I thought he was so beautiful – I couldn't take my eyes off him. • I couldn't keep my eyes off her amazing hairdo.

Close your eyes and think of England.

mainly British, humorous

if you close your eyes and think of England when you have sex with someone, you do not enjoy it, but do it because you think you should • Just close your eyes and think of England. He'll never notice.

close/shut your eyes to sth

to pretend that something bad does not exist because you do not want to deal with it • She was besotted with him and closed her eyes to his character defects.

• You can't just shut your eyes to your.

You can't just shut your eyes to your problems and hope that they'll go away.

 The shape your eyes to sthe He's.

opposite open your eyes to sth • He's finally opened his eyes to what has been going on behind his back.

sb could do sth with their eyes

closed/shut

if someone could do something with their eyes shut, they can do it very easily, usually because they have done it so many times before • I've driven along this route so often, I could do it with my eyes shut.

couldn't believe your eyes

if you say that you couldn't believe your eyes when you saw something, you mean that you were very surprised by it • She couldn't believe her eyes when she saw him drive up in his new car. • I could hardly believe my eyes. They'd made so many changes, it looked like a completely different house.

cry your eyes out informal

to cry a lot and for a long time • I cried my eyes out when my cat died.

feast your eves on sth

to look at something with a lot of pleasure • Just feast your eyes on this fabulous painting.

have eyes in the back of your head

informal

to know everything that is happening around you • Parents of young children have to have eyes in the back of their heads.

have eyes like a hawk

if someone has eyes like a hawk, they notice everything • The supervisor has eyes like a hawk, so be careful she doesn't catch you eating at your desk.

hit sb (right) between the eyes informal if something hits someone between the eyes, it shocks them • I remember when I read that article. It hit me right between the eyes.

in sb's eyes

in someone's opinion • And although she was probably just an ordinary-looking kid, in my eyes she was the most beautiful child in the world.

keep your eyes peeled/skinned informal to watch very carefully for something (often + for) Keep your eyes peeled for a signpost.

lay/set eyes on sb/sth British, American & Australian clap eyes on sb/sth British & Australian to see someone or something for the first time • I've loved him ever since I first set eyes on him. • I wish I'd never clapped eyes on that money.

make eyes at sb

to look at someone in a way that shows them that you think they are sexually attractive • (usually in continuous tenses) Sally spent the whole evening making eyes at Stephen.

only have eyes for sb

to be interested in or attracted to only one person • You've no need to be jealous. Ionly have eyes for you.

open sb's eyes to sth

to make someone understand something for the first time and know how difficult or unpleasant it is • Having children of my own opened my eyes to the hurt I had caused my parents.

an eye-opener a surprising experience that you learn something new from Living in an Indian village was a real eye-opener for all of us.

with your eyes open

knowing about all the problems there could be with something that you want to do • 'You want to get married? But you're only 18!' 'I'm doing this with my eyes open, so don't worry about me.' • It was difficult to succeed in the acting profession but I went into it with my eyes open.

face

sb's face doesn't fit

if someone's face doesn't fit, their appearance or personality are not suitable for a particular job or activity • He'd always wanted to star in action movies but his face just didn't fit.

sb's face is a picture

if someone's face is a picture, their face shows that they are very surprised or angry • Her face was a picture when I told her the news.

face to face

if two people meet or talk face to face, they meet or talk when they are both together in the same place •  $\Gamma d$  prefer to sort this problem out face to face rather than over the phone. • She's been writing to her cousin in Australia for years but they've never met face to face.

face-to-face • (always before noun) He's refused a face-to-face interview but he's agreed to answer our questions in a letter.

a face as long as a wet week Australian, informal

a very sad expression • (not used with the) As soon as I saw her I knew it was bad news. She had a face as long as a wet week.

be in your face American, informal

if someone is in your face, they criticize you all the time • One of the managers is always in my face.

be in your face informal

to be shocking or annoying in a way that is difficult to ignore • It's pop music that's sexy, colourful and in your face.

in-your-face • (always before noun) We ran an in-your-face poster campaign to promote the magazine.

blow up/explode in sb's face

if a plan or situation blows up in your face, it has a bad effect on you instead of the result you expected • The government's attempts at reform have blown up in its face, with demonstrations taking place all over the country.

come face to face with sb

to suddenly meet someone by chance • As I was going into the restaurant, I came face to face with my ex-husband who was just leaving.

come face to face with sth

to see or experience a problem for the first time • It was only after I started working for the charity that I came face to face with poverty.

bring sb face to face with sth • They were brought face to face with the fact that their son was a drug addict when he took an overdose.

disappear/vanish off the face of the earth British, American & Australian

fall off the face of the earth American to disappear completely • We lost contact with Ed after he left college – he just disappeared off the face of the earth.

fly in the face of sth slightly formal X to be the opposite of what is usual or accepted • These recommendations fly in the face of previous advice on safe limits for alcohol consumption.

Get out of my face! very informal
something that you say in order to tell someone to stop annoying you • Just get out of my face and leave me alone!

laugh in sb's face

to show someone that you do not respect them and do not think their ideas are important • He asked them to put out their cigarettes but they just laughed in his face.

look sb in the face

to look directly at someone without fear or shame • I don't know how you can look your sister in the face after what you've done.

make/pull a face

to show that you do not like something or someone by making an unpleasant expression • 'I hate pepperoni pizza!' he said, making a face.

on the face of it

something that you say when you are describing the way a fact or situation seems in order to show that you think it may really be completely different • On the face of it, the trip seems quite cheap, but there could be extra expenses we don't know about yet.

set your face against sth/doing sth formal

to be determined not to do something • Despite fierce competition from rival companies, they've set their face against price cuts.

show your face

if you show your face in a place, you go there, even when you feel embarrassed about something that you have done • (always + adv/prep) I don't know how he dares show his face in this pub after how he behaved the other night! • If he ever shows his face in this town again, I'll get the police.

stuff your face very informal

to eat a lot of food • (usually in continuous tenses) We've been stuffing our faces with Susannah's delicious chocolate cake.

take sth at face value

to accept something because of the way it first looks or seems, without thinking about what else it could mean Definition The face value of a note or a coin is the number written on it. • (often negative) These results should not be taken at face value — careful analysis is required to assess their full implications.

throw sth back in sb's face

to refuse to accept someone's advice or help in an angry or unpleasant way • Each time I make a suggestion she just throws it back in my face and says I don't understand.

to sb's face

if you say something unpleasant to someone's face, you say it to them directly, without worrying whether they will be upset or angry • Everyone refers to him as 'Junior' but no one would dare call him that to his face.

what's his/her face informal

a way of talking about someone whose name you have forgotten • Have you seen the new Bond film with Pierce Brosnan and what's her face, that model?

lose face

to do something which makes other people stop respecting you • He refused to admit he made a mistake because he didn't want to lose face.

save face

to do something so that people will continue to respect you • Are the ministers involved more interested in saving face than telling the truth?

face-saving • (always before noun) They denied that the decision to sack the director was simply a face-saving exercise.

faces

make (funny) faces

to make silly expressions with your face in order to make people laugh • (usually in continuous tenses) Karl was making faces at me across the library and I couldn't stop giggling.

fact

a fact of life

an unpleasant fact or situation which people accept because they cannot change it • (not used with the) She grew up in Northern Ireland during the 1970s when violence had become a fact of life.

factory

factory farming

a system for producing eggs, meat, and milk quickly and cheaply by keeping animals in small closed areas and giving them food which makes them grow quickly • They've launched a campaign against the abuses of factory farming.

a factory farm • The use of antibiotics in some factory farms has been linked to the recent increase in food poisoning.

factory-farmed mainly British factory farm American • Factory-farmed chickens contain a lot of fat because they're kept indoors and don't get any exercise.

on the factory floor

1 if someone works on the factory floor, they are one of the ordinary people who work in a factory • He spent five years on the factory floor before being promoted to supervisor.

the factory floor • She's worked her way up from the factory floor to a top job in the union.

2 in the part of a factory where goods are produced • The problem was only discovered when the system was tested on the factory floor.

the factory floor • The new computer system ensures that orders reach the factory floor in less than 24 hours.

facts

the facts of life

if you tell someone, especially a child, the facts of life, you tell them about sex and how babies are born • Parents are often embarrassed about telling their children the facts of life.

fag

a fag hag very informal

an impolite way of referring to a woman with a lot of male friends who are homosexual (= sexually attracted to other men) (=) 'Fag' is an offensive word for a homosexual man, and 'hag' is an offensive word for an old woman. • Have you been out clubbing with Mark and Jim again? You're turning into a real fag hag!

fag-end

the fag-end of sth British & Australian, informal

the last part of a period of time, usually the least interesting or least exciting part • We went away at the fag-end of summer when all the shops and restaurants were

fail

without fail

starting to close.

- 1 if something happens without fail, it always happens • Every Tuesday afternoon, without fail, Helga went to visit her father.
- 2 something that you say in order to emphasize that something will be done or will happen • 'You will meet me at the airport, won't you?' 'Don't worry, I'll be there without fail.'

faint

damn sb/sth with faint praise

to praise something or someone in such a weak way that it is obvious you do not really admire them • She damned Reynolds with faint praise, calling him one of the best imitators in the world.

faintest

not have the faintest (idea)

to have no knowledge of or no information about something • 'Do you know where Anna is?' I haven't the faintest.' • (often + question word) I haven't the faintest idea what you're talking about.

faint-hearted

not be for the faint-hearted

if something is not for the faint-hearted, it is not suitable for people who become frightened easily • The drive along the winding coast road is not for the faint-hearted, particularly when it's foggy.

fair

fair and square

- 1 in an honest way and without any doubt
  We won the match fair and square.
- 2 if you hit someone fair and square on a particular part of their body, you hit them hard exactly on that part • She hit me fair and square on the nose.

fair dinkum Australian, informal

true or honest • I didn't believe her at first but she swore the story was fair dinkum. • He's a fair dinkum sort of guy – he wouldn't lie to you.

Fair dos British, informal

something that you say in order to tell someone that you think something is fair

 Fair do's, Josh. You've been on the computer for hours – let your sister use it for a while!

fair enough

something that you say in order to show that you understand why someone has said or done something • 'I don't feel like going out tonight – I've got a bit of a headache.' 'Fair enough.' • Having health warnings on cigarette packets is fair enough but I do think alcohol should carry warnings too.

fair play

- 1 if there is fair play in a game or competition, people obey the rules and do not cheat • The World Cup organizers are keen to promote the idea of fair play.
- 2 a way of treating people that is fair and equal • Ministers are demanding fair play and more access to European markets for British companies. • The committee's decision offended her sense of fair play. (= she believed their decision was not fair)

fair to middling informal

neither very good nor very bad • 'What's your French like?' 'Oh, fair to middling.'

a fair shake American, informal

a way of treating someone that is fair

They want a lawyer who will make sure they get a fair shake in the courts.

All's fair in love and war.

something that you say which means behaviour that is unpleasant or not fair is acceptable during an argument or competition • We weren't cheating, we were just playing to win. Anyway, all's fair in love and war:

be fair game

to be easy to criticize, or to deserve criticism • Members of the Royal family are considered fair game by journalists.

by fair means or foul

if you try to achieve something by fair means or foul, you use any method you can to achieve it, even if it is not honest or fair • He was determined to become senator, by fair means or foul.

Fair's fair. informal

something that you say in order to tell someone that a particular type of behaviour is fair • Fair's fair, Chris. You chose where to eat last time so it's my turn this time.

the fair/fairer sex old-fashioned

women extstyle Some women think this phrase is offensive. • My father hated the idea of me joining the army. He always said it wasn't a suitable occupation for the fair sex.

give sb a fair crack of the whip British & Australian, informal

to give someone an opportunity to do something • Will you make sure all the speakers are given a fair crack of the whip in the debate?

get/have a fair crack of the whip

We'll take turns to host the conference.
 That way we'll all get a fair crack of the whip.

have had more than your fair share of

to have had more of something unpleasant than other people when you do not deserve it • Jane's had more than her fair share of bad luck recently, what with losing her job and getting divorced.

It's a fair cop. British & Australian, very informal something that you say in order to admit that someone has caught you doing something wrong • It's a fair cop. I was driving way too fast.

with your own fair hands humorous

if you do something with your own fair hands, you do it yourself without any help • 'Did you buy this cake?' 'No, I made it with my own fair hands.'

fairer

I/You can't say fairer than that. British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to tell someone that an offer you have made is fair and that you think they should accept it • I'll wash the dishes if you cook dinner. You can't say fairer than that, can you?

fair-weather

a fair-weather friend

someone who is only your friend when you are happy and successful • I had a lot of money and I knew a lot of people, but most of them turned out to be fair-weather friends.

fairy

a fairy godmother

someone who helps you solve your problems, usually by giving you money in children's stories, a fairy godmother is a woman with magic powers who helps someone who is in trouble. • A local company acted as fairy godmother to the theatre by giving a £1 million donation.

fait accompli

a fait accompli

a decision or action which has already been made or done and which cannot be changed • The sudden change in policy was presented to the party as a fait accompli, without any consultation.

faith

in good faith

if you act in good faith, you believe that what you are doing is right and legal • His defence was that he had acted in good faith. He did not know when he bought the car that it had been stolen.

OPPOSITE in bad faith if you do something in bad faith, you know that it is not honest or legal • The court ruled that the sellers had acted in bad faith.

Faith is used in the following phrases connected with support for an idea or person.

break faith with sth/sb formal

to stop supporting an idea or person, especially by not doing what you promised to do • She claims that the government has broken faith with teachers by failing to give additional funds to education.

keep faith with sth/sb formal

to continue to support an idea or person, especially by doing what you promised to do • Has the company kept faith with its promise to invest in training?

fall

fall over yourself to do sth British, American & Australian fall all over yourself to do sth American

- to be very eager to do something (usually in continuous tenses) They were falling over themselves to be helpful.
- a fall guy mainly American, informal someone who is blamed for another person's mistake or crime • The book claims Lee Harvey Oswald didn't kill President Kennedy – he was just the fall guy.

be heading/riding for a fall be headed for a fall

to be behaving in a way that is likely to cause problems for you • Greg's riding for a fall – he gets to work late and spends hours talking to his friends on the phone.

take the fall for sb/sth mainly American, informal to accept the blame for something bad or not legal that another person has done • Bob'll take the fall for the director – he'd do anything to save his boss.

fallen

Fallen is used in the following phrases connected with someone who has lost the good opinion that people had about them.

a fallen angel

a company or sports team that was successful in the past but is not successful now • (usually plural) Derby County were this season's fallen angels, being sent into the Second Division after losing all their matches.

a fallen idol

a person who was admired in the past but who is not admired any more • Highly respected during his lifetime, he became a fallen idol after his death when his research was found to be full of errors.

a fallen woman old-fashioned

a woman who is not respected any more because she had sex without being married • Many fallen women were forced to work as prostitutes, some were shut away in asylums.

false

a false alarm

a situation when you think that something bad or dangerous is going to happen but you discover you were wrong • Someone called to say there was a bomb inside the building, but it turned out to be a false alarm.

a false dawn

something which seems to show that a successful period is beginning or that a situation is improving when it is not False dawn is the light which appears in the sky just before the sun rises in the morning. • His victory in the French Open proved to be a false dawn after he failed to win another title for the next five years.

a false economy

something that you think will save you money but which means you will have to spend a lot more money later • She told me that buying a cheap washing machine was a false economy because it was more likely to break down.

a false start

a failed attempt to begin an activity or event  $\stackrel{>}{\approx}$  In a race, a false start is when one person starts before the signal has been given. • After a false start when he left his first job after only a week, he was offered some modelling work.

lull sb into a false sense of security give sb a false sense of security

to make someone feel safe when they are not • Wearing suntan lotion can lull people into a false sense of security and make them spend longer in the sun than they should.

sail under false colours $British\ &$

Australian

sail under false colors American &

Australian

not in order to deceive people of If a ship sails under false colours, it uses the flag of another country in order to deceive people. • Lewis was sailing under false colours – he never told her he was a journalist.

under false pretences

if you do something under false pretences, you do it when you have lied about who you are or what you are doing

• The police charged him with obtaining money under false pretences.

familiar

have a familiar ring (to it)

if something has a familiar ring, you believe that you have heard it before • I thought that name had a familiar ring. I went to school with that girl.

familiarity

Familiarity breeds contempt.

something that you say which means if you know someone very well or experience something a lot, you stop respecting them • You two are going to find it difficult living and working together. Familiarity breeds contempt, you know.

family

a family man

a man who likes to spend a lot of time with his wife and children • He was known as a devoted family man who was closely involved in community life.

in the family way old-fashioned

pregnant • Have you heard that Jean's in the family way?

run in the family

if a particular quality or ability runs in the family, a lot of people in that family have it • Athletic ability runs in the family: his father played basketball in college and his mother was a high school athlete.

famous

Famous last words, humorous

something that you say in order to emphasize that what someone said is wrong or is very likely to be wrong • James assured me it was always sunny in Italy in June. Famous last words. It rained every day of our trip.

fancy

take/tickle sb's fancy informal

if something takes someone's fancy, they suddenly think it seems interesting • She's got enough money to buy whatever takes her fancy.

fancy-pants

fancy-pants American & Australian,

informal

trying to seem too attractive or too clever in a way that is false • (always before noun) We liked the restaurant's food but not the fancy-pants decor. • I don't know what she sees in that fancy-pants college professor of hers.

far

far be it from me to do sth

something that you say when you are giving advice or criticizing someone and you want to seem polite • Far be it from me to tell you what to do, but don't you think you should apologize?

Far from it.

something that you say in order to tell someone that something is not true • T thought Jeff spoke fluent French.' 'Far from it – all he can say is "bonjour"!'

be a far cry from sth

to be very different from something • His new luxury mansion is a far cry from the one-bedroom cottage he lived in as a child.

be far and away the #### [best/greatest/worst etc.]

to be much better or much worse or to have much more of a particular quality than anyone or anything else • He's far and away the best tennis player I've ever seen.

So far so good.

something that you say which means an activity is continuing successfully, especially when you think something may go wrong • The first round of talks went well. So far so good. The next stage will involve much tougher negotiation.

fashion

a fashion victim humorous

an impolite way of referring to someone who buys too many fashionable clothes • She's a complete fashion victim! Why else would she pay £100 for a pair of jeans?

after a fashion

- 1 if you do something after a fashion, you manage to do it although not very well • I can paint after a fashion, but I'm certainly not as good as you.
- 2 almost, but not completely 'A vegetarian diet is much healthier.' 'That's true after a fashion, although I don't believe all meat is bad for you.'

fast

fast and furious

if an activity is fast and furious, it is done quickly and with a lot of energy • The first half of the game was fast and furious with both teams scoring three goals each.

a fast talker American & Australian, informal

someone who can talk in a clever way in order to persuade people to do or believe something, often something that is not honest or not true • Don't trust him Sal, he's a fast talker who's always out for his own good.

a fast track

a very quick way of achieving something or dealing with something • (often + to) Management training offers a fast track to the top of the company. • The government has announced that the reforms will be put on the fast track. (= dealt with very quickly) fast-track • (always before noun) We are introducing a fast-track procedure for dealing with applications.

play fast and loose with sth/sb

to treat something or someone without enough care • Like many film-makers, he plays fast and loose with the facts to tell his own version of the story.

pull a fast one informal X

to successfully deceive someone • (often + on) I paid him for six bottles of champagne, but he pulled a fast one on me and gave me six bottles of cheap wine.

fat

Fat chance! informal X

something that you say which means something is not very likely to happen • 'D'you think your Dad'll drive us to the disco?' 'Fat chance!'

a fat cat informal X

an impolite way of referring to someone who is very rich and powerful • He's just another fat cat – a corporate tycoon from Boston.

fat-cat informal • (always before noun) There's a lot of resentment against fat-cat lawyers who've made huge amounts from the case.

a fat lot of good/use informal

not helpful or useful • She can't lift anything heavy, so she's a fat lot of use! • Tm going to tell him exactly what I think of him.' 'A fat lot of good that'll do vou!'

the fat is in the fire old-fashioned

something that you say which means there will soon be problems because of something that has happened • Susie knows you've been seeing her boyfriend, so the fat's in the fire.

It's not over until the fat lady sings. informal

something that you say when someone is losing a game or competition but you think there is still a chance they might win • Tony's only two games behind. And as they say, it's not over until the fat lady sings.

live off the fat of the land

to have enough money to live in a very comfortable way without having to do much work • Times have changed for the upper classes, many of whom are no longer able to live off the fat of the land.

fate

be a fate worse than death humorous

to be the worst thing that can happen to you • When you're 16, an evening at home with your parents is a fate worse than death.

seal sb's fate

if an event seals someone's fate, they are certain to fail or to have an unpleasant experience in the future • His father's illness sealed his fate – Sam gave up his hopes of a college education and stayed home to run the family business.

fatted

kill the fatted calf

to celebrate in order to welcome a friend or relative that you have not seen for a long time in This phrase comes from a story in the Bible when a father killed a young cow in order to celebrate the return of his son who he thought was dead. • Annie's coming home, let's kill the fatted calf!

fault

to a fault

if someone is generous or has another good quality to a fault, they are very generous or have more of that good quality than other people • Nigel was generous to a fault, taking me out to dinner and buying me flowers and chocolates.

faux pas

a faux pas

an embarrassing mistake made in public
• I realized I'd made a real faux pas by eating my soup with my dessert spoon.

favour

Do me a favour! British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to tell someone that what they have just said is stupid • 'Why don't you go out with Brian?' 'Oh, do me a favour! He's almost 50, and he still lives with his mother!'

In the following phrases, favor is the American spelling of favour. Australians use both spellings.

curry favour

to try to make someone like you or support you by doing things to please them • (usually + with) The government has promised lower taxes in an attempt to curry favour with the voters.

do yourself a favour

something that you say when you are advising someone to do something which will have a good effect or will give them an advantage • (often + and + do sth) You're looking really tired. Why don't you do yourself a favour and take a break?

do me/us a favour informal

if you tell someone to do you a favour, you are telling them to stop doing something that is making you angry • (often + and + do sth) Why don't you do us all a favor and keep your opinions to yourself!

favourite

- a favourite son British & Australian
- a favorite son American & Australian

a famous person, especially a politician, who is supported and praised by people in the area they come from • Let me introduce to you the favorite son of Russell, Kansas: Bob Dole.

favours

not do sb any favours British, American & Australian

not do sb any favor American

to do something that is likely to have a bad effect on you or on another person • (often reflexive) You're not well, and you're not doing yourself any favours by taking on extra work. • (usually in continuous tenses; often + by + doing sth) The government isn't doing the families of the victims any favor by hiding the truth about what really happened.

fear

put the fear of God into sb

to frighten someone very much • What were you doing up on the roof? You put the fear of God into me!

feast

feast or famine

something that you say which means that you either have too much of something or you have too little • It's either feast or famine on television; last week there was nothing I wanted to see and this week there are three good films on at the same time.

the ghost/spectre at the feast British, literary

something or someone that spoils your enjoyment by making you remember something unpleasant • John was the spectre at the feast, always reminding her of her broken promise.

feather

a feather in sb's cap old-fashioned something very good that someone has something very good that someone has done • A new television series will be another feather in his cap.

You could have knocked me down/over with a feather! humorous

something that you say in order to emphasize how surprised you were when something happened • I only entered for a joke and I won first prize. You could have knocked me down with a feather.

feathers

the feathers fly American

if the feathers fly, people fight or argue a lot • The feathers'll fly if he finds out you've borrowed his car.

ruffle sb's feathers

to make someone annoyed • He wasn't asked to speak at the conference, and I know that ruffled his feathers a bit.

federal

make a federal case (out) of sth

American

to make something seem more important or serious than it really is • (usually negative) He only swore at you – there's no need to make a federal case out of it!

feeding

a feeding frenzy

a situation where people try to get as much information as possible about an event, or to make as much profit as they can from it, especially in an unpleasant way If hungry animals have a feeding frenzy, they become very excited by the smell of food and fight each other to get a share of it. • Her sudden tragic death sparked off a feeding frenzy in the media.

It's feeding time at the zoo! humorous

something that you say when a group of people are eating together in a way that is not controlled or organized • I see it's feeding time at the zoo. I'd better help myself to some food before it's all gone.

feel

cop a feel American, very informal

to touch someone's body without their permission in order to get sexual excitement • He saw she was drunk and tried to cop a feel.

feelers

put out feelers

to try to discover what people think about something that you might do 🖨 An insect's feelers are the two long stick parts on its head which it uses to touch things and discover what is around it.

• I've been putting out a few feelers and it seems that most people are against changing the way we elect the committee.

feet

feet of clay

if you say that someone you admire has feet of clay, you mean they have hidden faults • Some of the greatest geniuses in history had feet of clay.

be run/rushed off your feet

to have to work very hard or very fast • There's only one secretary working for the whole accounts department and the poor woman is run off her feet. • We weren't exactly rushed off our feet – there was only one visitor all afternoon.

be under your feet

if someone is under your feet, they annoy you because they are always near you in a way that makes it difficult for you to do something • The children have been under my feet all morning so I haven't been able to get any work done.

get under sb's feet • Why don't you ask Kelly to sit in the other room for a while? That way she won't keep getting under my feet.

find your feet

to become familiar with a new place or situation • It's important to give new students a chance to find their feet.

get your feet under the table British

to become familiar with and confident in a new job or situation • It's better to wait until you've got your feet firmly under the table before you make any big changes.

get your feet wet mainly American

to experience something for the first time, especially something that involves taking a risk • Investors are encouraged to get their feet wet by buying just a few shares to begin with.

jump in with both feet jump in feet first

to become involved in something very quickly, often without thinking carefully about it first • Take time to think things over before you make a decision, don't jump straight in with both feet.

keep your/both feet on the ground

to not have your character spoilt by becoming famous or successful • Friends say she's kept her feet firmly on the ground —fame hasn't changed her.

have your/both feet on the ground
• Acting is a tough profession and you need to have both feet on the ground if you're going to survive.

land on your feet British, American & Australian

fall on your feet British & Australian

to be lucky or successful after you have been in a difficult situation • She really landed on her feet — she found an apartment right in the middle of San Francisco. • Richard takes the most awful risks, but he always seems to fall on his feet.

put your feet up

to relax, especially by sitting with your feet supported above the ground • I'm going to make myself a cup of coffee and put my feet up for half an hour.

sweep sb off their feet

if someone sweeps you off your feet, you fall suddenly and completely in love with them • She was hoping that some glamorous young Frenchman would come along and sweep her off her feet.

think on your feet

to think and react quickly, especially in a situation where things are happening very fast • An ability to think on your feet is a definite advantage when you're doing live comedy shows.

vote with your feet

to show that you do not support something, especially an organization or a product, by not using or not buying it any more • Parents are voting with their feet and moving their children to schools where there is better discipline.

fell

at/in one fell swoop

if you do something at one fell swoop, you do everything you have to do at the same time • I'd prefer to do the paperwork in one fell swoop. At least then we know it's finished with.

femme fatale

a femme fatale

a woman who is sexually attractive but who is likely to cause trouble for men who are attracted to her • She plays a Russian femme fatale in the latest Bond film.

fence

sit on the fence

to delay making a decision when you have to choose between two sides in an argument or a competition • She criticized members of the committee for sitting on the fence and failing to make a useful contribution to the debate.

fences

mend (your) fences

to try to become friendly again with someone after an argument • (usually + with) China is trying to mend fences with Russia after the recent border dispute.

fender

a fender bender American, informal

a car accident in which a car is slightly damaged • We got into a fender bender just as we were leaving the parking lot at the mall.

fever

fever pitch

if you say that a feeling or a situation has reached fever pitch, you mean that people's emotions have become so strong that they can only just control themselves • By the time the princess appeared on the balcony, excitement among the crowd was at fever pitch.

 Tension reached fever pitch as reports came in of further bomb attacks in the north.

few

be few and far between

to be very few • There are plenty of houses for sale, but buyers are few and far between.

hoist a few American, informal

to drink several glasses of beer or other alcoholic drink • We stopped at Donovan's on the way home and hoisted a few.

fiddle

be on the fiddle British & Australian,

informal

to get money in a way that is not honest or not legal • If he's not on the fiddle, how did he afford that huge car?

field

have a field day

to have an opportunity to do a lot of something you want to do, especially to criticize someone • The newspapers would have a field day if their affair ever became public knowledge.

lead the field

- 1 if you lead the field in a race or a sports event, you are better than all the people competing against you and are likely to win At the end of the second day's play, Ballasteros is leading the field.
- 2 if you lead the field in an activity or business, you are more successful than anyone else • There are some areas of medical research where Russian scientists still lead the field.

leave the field clear for sb

to stop competing with someone, which gives them a better chance of achieving success • John decided not to apply for the job, which left the field clear for Emma.

play the field

to have many romantic or sexual relationships • She's not interested in marriage at this stage, so she's quite happy to play the field.

fifth

I take/plead the Fifth (Amendment)

American, humorous

something that you say in order to tell someone you are not going to answer a question in The Fifth Amendment is the part of American law that says someone does not have to answer questions about themselves in a law court. • (sometimes + on) 'So who do you like best, Jenny or Kim?' 'Sorry, I take the Fifth on that.'

fifty-fifty fifty-fifty

if something is divided fifty-fifty, it is divided equally between two people • We decided to split the money fifty-fifty. • Let's go fifty-fifty on the expenses for our trip.

a fifty-fifty chance

if there is a fifty-fifty chance of something happening, it is equally likely to happen or not to happen • (usually + of + doing sth) I'd say he's got a fifty-fifty chance of winning the race.

fig

a fig leaf

something that you use to try to hide an embarrassing fact or problem in the Bible, Adam and Eve used fig leaves to cover their sexual organs when they discovered they were naked. • Are the peace talks simply providing a fig leaf for the continuing aggression between the two countries?

not be worth a fig old-fashioned

to not be important or useful • She's just an ignorant old busybody and her opinions aren't worth a fig.

not care/give a fig old-fashioned

if you say that you don't care a fig, you mean that something or someone is not important to you at all • They can say what they like, I don't give a fig.

fighting

a fighting chance

a small but real possibility that you might do or achieve something • (often + of + doing sth) If we can raise another thousand pounds we'll have a fighting chance of saving the theatre. • A good education will ensure that even the most disadvantaged children are given a fighting chance.

be fighting fit

to be very healthy • She was fighting fit after 10 weeks of intense physical training.

be fighting for your life

- to be so ill or injured that you might die
  One of the passengers was fighting for her life last night after receiving multiple injuries in the collision.
  - a fight for life Throughout Christopher's fight for life, his parents never left his bedside.
- 2 if an organization or system is fighting for its life, people are trying very hard to prevent it from being defeated or destroyed • With debts of over $2 million dollars, the corporation is fighting for its life.

be fighting mad American & Australian, informal

to be very angry • When Dad finds out you've crashed the car, he'll be fighting mad.

be in fighting trim mainly American

ready to deal with a situation, especially because you are in good physical condition • It was a challenging performance, but the dancers were in fighting trim.

figment

be a figment of your/the imagination

if something is a figment of your imagination, it seems real although it is not • I thought I saw someone standing in the shadows, but it was just a figment of my imagination.

figure

a figure of fun

someone who people laugh at because they seem silly or stupid • She's fed up with being treated as a figure of fun and insists that her ideas deserve serious attention.

cut an [interesting/ridiculous/unusual etc.] figure

if someone cuts an interesting, ridiculous, unusual etc. figure, they seem interesting, ridiculous, unusual etc. • My Russian uncle cut an unusual figure among the very British audience.

fill

have had your fill

to have had enough to eat or drink • No more pudding thanks, I've had my fill.

have had your fill of sth

if you have had your fill of an unpleasant situation, you will not accept it any longer • People have had their fill of empty promises and want action.

final

the final curtain

the end of something, usually something that has lasted for a long time  $\bullet$  As the final curtain fell on the longest match in tennis history, Agassi emerged victorious.

in the final analysis

something that you say when you are talking about what is most important or true in a situation • In the final analysis, the only people who will benefit are property owners.

finders

Finders keepers (losers weepers).

something that you say when you find something that belongs to someone else and decide you are going to keep it • 'Finders keepers,' he said, putting the money away in his pocket.

fin de siècle

fin de siècle

typical of or existing at the end of a century, especially the 19th century • The fin de siècle despair increased in the last few years of the century. • Tanya chose a course in fin de siècle literature.

fine

be a fine figure of a man/woman old-

fashioned

to be someone who is big and strong with an attractive body • She's a fine figure of a woman – not like all these skinny models.

be in fine fettle

to be very healthy or working well • She was in fine fettle when she came back from her trip to the States. • The business is in fine fettle and we're even planning to expand.

cut it/things fine

to only leave yourself just enough time to do something • Only allowing half an hour to get from the station to the airport is cutting it fine, isn't it?

have sth down to a fine art British, American & Australian

have sth off to a fine art $\mathit{British}\ \&$

Australian

to be able to do something very well, usually because you have been doing it for a long time • He's got sandwich making down to a fine art.

not to put too fine a point on it

something that you say when you are going to say exactly what you mean, even if other people may not like it • Well, not to put too fine a point on it, it's entirely your fault.

You're a fine one to talk! informal

something that you say when someone criticizes another person for doing something that they do themselves • 'He's always complaining.' 'You're a fine one to talk!'

fine-tooth

with a fine-tooth comb

if you examine something with a finetooth comb, you examine every part of it very carefully • I'd advise you to examine your insurance policy with a fine-tooth comb to make sure you're covered if you take your car abroad.

finger

get/pull your finger out British &

Australian, very informal

if you tell someone to get their finger out, you mean they should start working hard • You'd better pull your finger out, you should have finished this job hours ago.

give sb the finger American, very informal

to make an offensive sign at someone by raising your middle finger towards them • When the kids were told to leave the store, they gave the manager the finger and ran

have your finger on the pulse

to be familiar with the most recent developments • Whoever designed the new model obviously had their finger on the pulse – it's precisely the sort of computer everyone's been waiting for.

keep your finger on the pulse • As editor of a fashion magazine, she keeps her finger firmly on the pulse of the London scene.

have a finger in every pie

to be involved in and have influence over many different activities, often in a way that other people do not approve of • You can't make a decision on any kind of funding without consulting him – he has a finger in every pie.

have a finger in the pie to be involved in a particular activity • When it comes to trade in the underdeveloped parts of the world, most Western countries want to have a finger in the pie.

have a/your finger on the button

to be the person who controls the nuclear weapons (= weapons that use power made by dividing atoms) that a country has and decides whether to fire them • If Europe has its own nuclear deterrent, whose finger would be on the button?

lay a finger on sb/sth

to touch or harm someone or something • (usually negative) Honestly, I never laid a finger on him, he just fell over. • If you so much as lay a finger on my sister, I'll break your arm!

not lift a finger

to not help someone to do something, usually because you are lazy • (usually + to do sth) He spends all day stretched out on the sofa and never lifts a finger to help.

point the finger at sb

to accuse someone of being responsible for something that has happened • Critics were quick to point the finger at the board of directors when the theatre started losing money.

put your finger on sth

to discover the exact reason why a situation is the way it is, especially when something is wrong • (often negative) I know there's something wrong, but I can't put my finger on exactly what it is. • I think you've just put your finger on the biggest problem facing the Conservative party in this election.

put the finger on sb very informal

to tell someone in authority, especially the police, that someone has committed a crime • If Big Joe finds out you put the finger on him, you won't live long enough to spend the reward money.

fingernails

cling on/hang on by your fingernails

if you are clinging on by your fingernails, you are only just managing to avoid danger or failure • (usually in continuous tenses) We're hanging on by our fingernails and hoping that it rains before we lose our entire crop.

fingers

burn your fingers

have/get your fingers burned/burnt

to suffer unpleasant results of an action, especially loss of money, so you are not keen to try the same thing again • Many investors burn their fingers when they are tempted by get-rich-quick schemes.
• Several art dealers got their fingers burned on old master paintings that later turned out to be fakes.

can count sth on the fingers of one hand

if you say that you can count things on the fingers of one hand, you are emphasizing that they are very rare • I can count on the fingers of one hand the number of times she's actually offered to buy me a drink.

cross your fingers

keep your fingers crossed

to hope that things will happen in the way you want them to People often cross their middle finger over their first finger as a sign that they are hoping for luck. • We're crossing our fingers and hoping that the weather stays fine. • (often an order) Keep your fingers crossed, everyone, Jane's only got to answer one more question.

fingers crossed something that you say to show that you hope that what you have just said will happen or be true • Fingers crossed, we'll get the job done in time, but there's still an awful lot to do.

slip through your fingers

- 1 if something you hope to achieve slips through your fingers, you do not manage to achieve it He has seen the world championship slip through his fingers twice. This is my big chance to make a career in journalism. I can't let it slip through my fingers.
- 2 if someone slips through your fingers they manage to escape from you • We've got men guarding all the exits and more men on the roof. He won't slip through our fingers this time.

wear/work your fingers to the bone

to work very hard for a very long time • I've been working my fingers to the bone to get the dress ready in time for the wedding.

fingertips

at your fingertips

if you have information at your fingertips, you are able to get it very easily • Every fact and figure he needed was at his fingertips.

be an [artist/patriot/professional etc.] to your fingertips

if you say that someone is an artist, patriot, professional etc. to their fingertips, you mean that they behave in a way which is completely typical of such a person, and it is the most important part of their character • Mark, a professional to his fingertips, insisted that we should make proper joints, not simply nail the pieces of wood together.

cling on/hang on by your fingertips

if you are clinging on by your fingertips, you are only just managing to avoid danger or failure • (usually in continuous tenses) We were clinging on by our fingertips, desperately trying to stop them scoring another goal.

fire

fire in your/the belly

if you have fire in your belly, you are ready to fight with energy and determination for what you believe is right • He will approach the committee with plenty of fire in his belly.

breathe fire X

to be very angry about something • (sometimes + over) The bishop was breathing fire over the press release made a few days ago.

come under fire

to be criticized • (often + from) Last night's announcement quickly came under fire from the trade unions. • (sometimes + for) Mr Johnson has since come under fire for being sarcastic and dismissive of his clients.

draw (sb's) fire mainly American

if something or someone draws fire, they are criticized • (often + from) The advertisements have drawn fire from antismoking campaigners • His radical approach is expected to draw fire.

fight fire with fire

to attack someone with a lot of force because they are attacking you with force • In the face of stiff competition from rival firms we had to fight fire with fire and slash our prices.

go through fire and water old-fashioned

to experience many difficulties or dangers in order to achieve something • (often + to do sth) They went through fire and water to ensure the prince's safety.

hang/hold fire

to delay doing something, especially making a decision, because you are waiting to see what will happen • It would have been good to settle the matter now, but I think we should hang fire until the general situation becomes clearer: • (often + on) The chancellor has said he will continue to hold fire on a further reduction in interest rates.

light your fire informal

to make someone excited, especially sexually • I've met some decent men but none that light my fire.

light a fire under sb mainly American

to make someone work better or harder

• It's time you lit a fire under those guys or they'll never finish painting the house.

play with fire

to be involved in an activity that could be dangerous • (usually in continuous tenses) We're playing with fire if we continue with genetic modification of our food.

firing

be firing on all cylinders

to be operating as powerfully and effectively as possible • Dawson will be firing on all cylinders after 2 months of fitness training.

be in the firing line British, American & Australian

be on the firing line American &

Australian

if someone or something is in the firing line, they are likely to be criticized, attacked, or got rid of • The judge found himself in the firing line from women's groups after his controversial comments about sexual assault. • Recent cuts in council budgets mean that concessionary fares were next on the firing line.

OPPOSITE OUT OF the firing line • As the president's wife, there was little hope of her staying out of the firing line during the election campaign.

first

first and foremost

more than anything else • He remains first and foremost a businessman, not a politician. • In order to be successful a film has to be, first and foremost, a good story.

First come, first served.

something that you say which means that the people who ask for something first will be the ones who get it, when there is not enough for everyone • We've got ten cheap computers on offer. It's first come, first served.

first-come, first-served • Tickets for the show are limited and we operate on a first-come, first-served basis.

first hand

if you experience something first hand, you experience it yourself • Many reporters based in the capital are experiencing the war first hand. • It is difficult to appreciate the scale of the problem without seeing the effects of the famine at first hand.

first-hand • (always before noun) I've been a teacher for a long time, and have first-hand experience of the way these students behave.

First in, best dressed, Australian

something that you say which means that the first people to do something will get something first or will have an advantage • I've got ten free tickets to the movies to hand out, so it's first in, best dressed.

First things first.

something that you say in order to tell someone that more important things should be done before less important things • I know you want to talk about my trip, but first things first, how have you been while I was away?

the first string American, informal

the group of people who are regularly chosen to play in the best sports team, or to do the most important work in a job • He didn't make first string on the football team until his senior year at college.

first-string American, informal • She's a first-string reporter on the paper.

at first blush mainly American

when you first start to think about something • His decision isn't as odd as it may seem at first blush.

at first glance/sight

if something or someone seems a particular way at first glance, they seem that way when you first look at them
• The system is more complicated than it appears at first glance.

be first among equals

to officially be on the same level as other members in a group, but in fact have slightly more responsibility or be slightly more important • The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff was always considered first among equals.

be first past the post British &

Australian

if someone is first past the post in a competition, they are the first to achieve something • The Russian team were first past the post in the race to complete the expedition.

first-past-the-post in a first-past-thepost system of voting, a person is elected if they get the most votes in a particular area, even if their political party did not get most votes in the whole country • (always before noun) Many people think the British first-past-the-post system is unfair.

be in the first flush of sth

if someone is in the first flush of something, they are at the start of it  You're no longer in the first flush of youth, you know, Dad!

get to first base

- 1 American & Australian, informal to begin to have success with something that you want to do & First base is the first place a player must run to after they hit the ball in a game of baseball. They won't even get to first base with the directors with a proposal like that.
- 2 mainly American, humorous to get to the first stage of a sexual relationship, where partners kiss and touch each other

   Jimmy hasn't even gotten to first base yet with his girlfriend.

give sb (the right of/to) first refusal to offer to sell someone something before you offer it to anyone else • (often + on) I have given my existing publishers first refusal on my next book.

have (the right of/to) first refusal • Manfield has the right of first refusal on any surplus stock.

have first call on sth

to have the right to use something first • John has first call on the car as he needs it for work.

If at first you don't succeed, (try, try, and try again).

something that you say in order to tell someone they must keep trying in order to achieve something • My novel has been rejected by three publishers already. Still, if at first you don't succeed ...

in the first place

in the beginning • We should never have agreed to this in the first place. • We only had four of these glasses in the first place, and now I've broken two of them.

not know the first thing about sth

to not know anything about a particular subject • I don't know why you're asking Rob, he doesn't know the first thing about classical music.

fish

be like a fish out of water

to feel awkward because you are not familiar with a situation or because you are very different from the people around you • All the other children in the school had rich, middle-class parents, and she was beginning to feel like a fish out of water.

be neither fish nor fowl

if something is neither fish nor fowl, it is difficult to describe or understand because it is like one thing in some ways but like another thing in other ways • The hovercraft has always suffered from the fact that it is neither fish nor fowl.

drink like a fish informal

to regularly drink a lot of alcohol • Harriet had two bottles of wine with her meal – that girl drinks like a fish!

have bigger/other fish to fry

to have something more important or more interesting to do • I couldn't waste my time trying to reach an agreement with them, I had other fish to fry.

fishing

a fishing expedition mainly American

an attempt to discover the facts about something by collecting a lot of information, often secretly • The investigators' request for the company's accounts is simply a fishing expedition—they have no real evidence of wrongdoing.

fishy

smell fishy informal

if a situation or an explanation smells fishy, it causes you to think that someone is being dishonest • Webbers's account of what he was doing that evening smells a bit fishy to me.

fist

make a good fist of sth/doing sth British & Australian, old-fashioned

to do something well • He made a good fist of explaining why we need to improve our public transport system. • He built the house himself and made a surprisingly good fist of it.

OPPOSITE make a bad/poor fist of sth/doing sth British & Australian, old-fashioned • Our lawyer made a poor fist of advising us.

fit

fit

be as fit as a fiddle British, American & Australian be as fit as a flea British & Australian to be very healthy • My Dad's nearly eighty now but he's as fit as a fiddle.

be fit to be tied American

to be very angry or upset • She was fit to be tied when she discovered she'd left her purse on the train.

have/throw a fit informal to be very angry • My mother threw a fit when she saw the mess we'd made.

fits

If the cap fits (wear it). British, American & Australian

If the hat/shoe fits (wear it). American something that you say to tell someone that if they are guilty of something bad, they should accept criticism • Look, I didn't say who was to blame for this mess but if the cap fits, wear it.

in fits and starts

if something happens in fits and starts, it often stops and then starts again • Replies are arriving in fits and starts.

five

Give me five! mainly American, informal something that you say when you want someone to hit your open hand with theirs, in order to greet them or to show how pleased you are • Hi there little buddy, give me five!

Give me a high five! American, informal something that you say when you want someone to hit your open hand with theirs, at a level above your shoulder • Yo, Bob! Give me a high five!

Take five! American, informal

something that you say in order to tell other people to take a short rest from work or exercise • 'OK everybody, take five.'

fix

be in a fix

to be in a difficult situation • I'm in a real fix, the tyre's flat and I haven't got a spare.

flag

140

drape/wrap yourself in the flag

to pretend to do something for your country when you are really doing it for your own advantage • Companies in the UK are finding it useful to wrap themselves in the British flag.

fly/show/wave the flag

to support or to represent your country • (often + for) In the absence of any other Italian film directors, Mr Infascelli bravely flew the flag for his country.

flagpole

run sth up the flagpole mainly American to tell people about an idea in order to see what they think of it • Run your suggestion up the flagpole and see what the others say.

flags

Put the flags out! British, humorous something that you say when you are pleased and surprised that something has happened • John's done the washing up. Put the flags out!

flak

get/take (the) flak informal

to receive strong criticism • (often + from) Channel 4 took the flak from angry viewers protesting about the show. • (often + for) She got a lot of flak for deserting her children.

flames

fan the flames

to cause anger or other bad feelings to increase • (usually + of) His speeches fanned the flames of racial tension.

go up in flames

to fail or come to an end suddenly and completely • Final hopes of a pay settlement went up in flames yesterday after talks broke down.

shoot sth/sb down in flames informal

to strongly criticize an idea or plan, or to refuse to accept it • Several months ago this highly impractical idea would have been shot down in flames. • I thought I'd made a sensible suggestion, but they just shot me down in flames.

flash

a flash in the pan

something that happens only once or for a short time and will not be repeated

* We're happing that this is a long-term

 We're hoping that this is a long-term opportunity, and not just a flash in the pan.

flat

flat out

- 1 if a person or a machine is doing something flat out, they are doing it as fast and with as much energy as they can (often + to do sth) The decorators have been working flat out to get the job finished. My car only does 60 mph, even when it's going flat out.
- 2 American if someone says something flat out, they say it in a very clear and direct way, even if it might upset people • He called up and flat out asked if I was having an affair with Bob.

be as flat as a pancake

to be very flat • My cake hasn't risen – it's as flat as a pancake!

be flat broke informal

to have no money at all • I can't even pay the rent this month. I'm flat broke.

fall flat

- 1 if an entertainment or a joke falls flat, people do not enjoy it and do not think it is funny • Several attempts at humour during his speech fell flat.
- 2 if an attempt to influence people's behaviour or opinions falls flat, it fails
   The advertising campaign which had worked so well in the US fell flat in China.
   The statement that pregnancy is not an illness falls flat with many morning

sickness sufferers. fall flat on your/its face

to fail or make a mistake in an embarrassing way • The new scheme fell flat on its face in spite of all the financial support that was given. • It's always amusing to see a newscaster fall flat on his face.

flattery

Flattery will get you nowhere. humorous something that you say to someone in order to tell them that their praise will not persuade you to do anything that you do not want to do • Well, I'm glad you liked the meal, but flattery will get you nowhere!

flaunt

If you've got it, flaunt it! informal

something that you say which means if you have something you are proud of, such as beauty or wealth, you should make it obvious • If I had legs like yours I'd wear really short dresses. If you've got it, flaunt it!

flavour

the flavour of the month British & Australian

the flavor of the month American & Australian

someone or something that has suddenly become very popular, but may not remain popular for long • Role-playing games are suddenly the flavour of the month.

flea

send sb away with a flea in their ear

British & Australian, informal to angrily tell someone to go away • A young kid came asking for money but I sent him away with a flea in his ear.

flesh

flesh and blood

- 1 human Many of the cartoon characters are more popular than their flesh and blood counterparts.
- 2 if you say that someone is flesh and blood, you mean that they have feelings or faults that are natural because they are human I may be a priest, but I'm not immune to pretty women. I'm only flesh and blood, after all.

be sb's (own) flesh and blood

to be someone's relative • How can you be so cruel to him when he's your own flesh and blood?

make sb's flesh crawl/creep

if someone or something makes your flesh creep, you think they are extremely unpleasant or frightening • (often in present tenses) Spiders and insects really make my flesh crawl. • I hate that guy in accounts, he makes my flesh creep.

press the flesh mainly American,

humorous

if politicians or famous people press the flesh, they shake hands with the public • Even after 12 hours on the campaign trail, he was still meeting his supporters and pressing the flesh.

put flesh on (the bones of) sth

to add more detail to something in order to make it more interesting or easier to understand • We need some real figures and evidence to put flesh on the theory. • It would be wise to put flesh on the bones of your basic proposal before you ask them to consider it.

meet/see sb in the flesh

to meet or see someone yourself, instead of watching them in a film or on television, etc. • I knew his face so well from the photographs that it felt a bit strange when I finally saw him in the flesh.

flies

There are no flies on sb.

something that you say which means that someone is intelligent and able to think quickly • The minute she heard the business was for sale she was on the phone making an offer. There are no flies on her.

flight

a flight of fancy/fantasy/imagination

an idea which shows a lot of imagination but which is not practical or useful in real situations • You were talking about cycling across the US, or was that just another flight of fancy?

flip-flop

a flip-flop American

a complete change, especially from one decision or opinion to another • The government has made a policy flip-flop over arms sales.

flip-flop American • (often + on) The Senator wouldn't dare flip-flop on the abortion issue – he'd lose too many votes.

floodgates

open the floodgates

if an action or a decision opens the floodgates, it allows something to happen a lot or allows many people to do something that was not previously allowed • (often + to) If they win their case it could open the floodgates to others with similar compensation claims.

floor

floor it American, informal

to drive a car as fast as it will go • He likes to take his sports car out on the road and floor it.

fall/go through the floor

if the price or value of something falls through the floor, it becomes very low • House prices have gone through the floor this year.

wipe the floor with sb British, American & Australian

mop the floor with sb American

to defeat someone easily • Alex is always really good in a debate, she'll wipe the floor with them.

flotsam

flotsam and jetsam

people or things which are not wanted or have no value Flotsam and jetsam are the pieces of broken wood and other waste material found on the beach or floating on the sea. • Drug addicts, the homeless, all are viewed as the flotsam and jetsam of today's society.

flow

go with the flow

to do what other people are doing or to agree with other people because it is the easiest thing to do • I wasn't very keen on the decision but it was easier just to go with the flow.

OPPOSITE GO against the flow • I decided to go against the flow and try something different from the rest of them.

fly

a fly in the ointment

someone or something that spoils a situation which could have been successful or pleasant • The only fly in the ointment was my mother, who insisted on whispering through the first half of the show.

a fly on the wall

if you say you would like to be a fly on the wall in a certain situation, you mean that you would like to be there secretly to see and hear what happens • I'd give anything to be a fly on the wall when she tells him.

fly-on-the-wall a fly-on-the-wall film or television programme is one where the people involved forget or do not know that they are being filmed • (always before noun) The five-part fly-on-the-wall documentary series focusses on the lives of three student nurses.

It'll never fly. American

something that you say when you think an idea will not be successful • He sent me a movie script but it'll never fly – it's just too unbelievable.

let fly (sth) ×

to start shouting angrily • (sometimes + at) I was so angry I let fly at them as soon as they came in. • Gripping the arms of his chair, he let fly a barrage of offensive comments.

on the fly American

if someone does something on the fly, they do it quickly and without thinking carefully before they do it • She was the sort of person who would make decisions on the fly rather than allowing herself time to think.

wouldn't harm/hurt a fly

if you say that someone wouldn't hurt a fly, you mean that they are a gentle person and that they would not do anything to injure or upset anyone • Damian just isn't the violent type. He wouldn't hurt a fly.

fly-by-night

fly-by-night

a fly-by-night person or organization cannot be trusted because they have not been established long, and could leave or close at any time • (always before noun) They've opened one of those cheap and nasty fly-by-night stores on the High Street. • I'm serious about representing my constituents. I'm not a fly-by-night politician.

flying

be flying high

- 1 if a person or a company is flying high, they are very successful • The company was flying high as a maker of personal computers.
- American, informal to be very excited or happy, often because of the effect of drugs The guy was on drugs flying high and scaring everyone around him.
   When the winter Olympics came to
  - When the winter Olympics came to Canada, the whole country was flying high.

come through/pass with flying colours British & Australian come through/pass with flying colors American & Australian to pass an examination with a very high score or to complete a difficult activity very successfully • She took her university entrance exam in December and passed with flying colours. • The officer training was gruelling, but he came through with flying colours.

get off to a flying start

to begin an activity very successfully • Maria got off to a flying start in her new job. • With several customers on the books already, Tim's new business had got off to a flying start.

foaming

foaming at the mouth

very angry • The court's decision has left bloodsport enthusiasts foaming at the mouth.

foggiest

not have the foggiest (idea/notion)

informal

to not know the answer to a question
• 'Do you know where Kate's gone?' 'I haven't the foggiest.' • (often + question word) The photocopier's broken down again, and nobody has the foggiest idea how to fix it.

food

give sb food for thought

to make someone think seriously about something • What you've suggested has certainly given me food for thought.

fool

A fool and his money are soon parted.

something that you say which means that stupid people spend money without thinking about it enough • Gianni relishes his extravagant lifestyle – but then a fool and his money are soon parted.

act/play the fool

to behave in a silly way, often in order to make people laugh • Come on guys, stop acting the fool and pay attention.

be no/nobody's fool

to be intelligent • John's no fool. He's never going to believe that excuse.

a fool's errand

an attempt to do something that has no chance of success • Billions of dollars have been spent on long-range weather forecasting, but it's a fool's errand.

live in a fool's paradise

to be happy because you do not know or will not accept how bad a situation really is • James is living in a fool's paradise if he thinks things are always going to be this good.

make a fool of yourself

to do something which makes you seem stupid • He's always getting drunk and making a fool of himself at parties.

More fool you! British, American & Australian

The more fool you! American

something that you say in order to show that you think someone has done something stupid • You lent her sixty pounds and expected it back? More fool you! • 'He's volunteered to work late.' 'The more fool him, then.'

play sb for a fool American & Australian to treat someone as if they are stupid, especially by trying to get something from them in a way that is not fair • He's playing you for a fool. Just don't lend him any more money.

fooled

You could've fooled me. informal

something that you say when you do not believe what someone says about something that you saw or experienced yourself • 'No, I wasn't angry, I was just a little surprised.' 'Really? You could've fooled me.'

fools

Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread).

something that you say which means that stupid people do things without thinking about them enough • Alan volunteered to be chairman and now he regrets it. Fools rush in, is all I can say.

not suffer fools gladly

to become angry with people you think are stupid • Jim's a fair boss, but he doesn't suffer fools gladly.

foot

the boot is on the other foot British & Australian

the shoe is on the other foot American

if you say that the boot is on the other foot, you mean that a situation is now the opposite of what it was before, often because a person who was in a weak position is now in a strong position • In the past, we had great influence over their economy, but the boot is on the other foot now.

get off/start off on the wrong foot

1 if you get off on the wrong foot with someone you have just met, your relationship starts badly, often with an argument • (usually in past tenses) I don't really know why, but somehow Clare and I got off on the wrong foot.

opposite get off/start off on the right foot • (usually in past tenses) I got off on the right foot by telling her how impressed I was with her work.

2 to start an activity badly • If I get off on the wrong foot with one of my paintings, I know it will never be right.

opposite get off/start off on the right foot • The commission has started off on the right foot by consulting local people.

have/keep a foot in both camps

to be involved with two groups of people who often have very different aims and opinions • He has moved from fringe to mainstream theatre, but he still keeps a foot in both camps.

My foot! old-fashioned

something that you say after repeating something someone has just said, in order to show that you do not believe it • A fluent French speaker my foot! He knows a few words at the most.

put your foot down

- 1 to tell someone in a strong way that they must do something or that they must stop doing something You can't just let him do what he wants, you'll have to put your foot down. When Anna came home drunk one afternoon I decided it was time to put my foot down.
- 2 mainly British, informal to suddenly increase your speed when you are driving • The road ahead was clear, so I put my foot down and tried to overtake the car in front.

put your foot in it British, American & Australian, informal put your foot in your mouth American to say something by accident which embarrasses or upsets someone • I really put my foot in it with Julie. I didn't realise she was a vegetarian.

put your foot to the floor American

to suddenly increase your speed when you are driving • I put my foot to the floor and reached the apartment in less than an hour.

not put a foot wrong British & Australian to not make any mistakes • Angie has always been good at her job, she never puts a foot wrong.

can't put a foot wrong British & Australian if someone can't put a foot wrong, people like them so much that they think everything they do is perfect • As far as Charles is concerned, she can't put a foot wrong.

shoot yourself in the foot

to do or say something stupid which causes problems for you • He shot himself in the foot by suggesting that women politicians were incompetent.

footloose

be footloose and fancy-free old-

fashioned

if someone is footloose and fancy-free, they can do what they want because they are not married or do not have many responsibilities • Jane's planning to go to parties and clubs every night now that she's footloose and fancy-free.

footsie

play footsie informal

to secretly touch someone's feet under a table with your feet, in order to show that you are sexually attracted to them • (usually in continuous tenses) I think they were playing footsie in the meeting!

play footsie with sb mainly American

to be involved with a person or an organization secretly, because you know that other people will not approve • The government never forgave him for playing footsie with the terrorists.

footsteps

follow in sb's footsteps

to do the same job or the same things in your life as someone else, especially a member of your family • He followed in his father's footsteps and went into the army.

forbidden

forbidden fruit

something that you want very much but are not allowed to have, especially a sexual relationship In the Bible, the forbidden fruit was an apple which God told Adam and Eve they could not eat.

• He'd spent many years lusting after his brother's wife – the forbidden fruit.

force

force of habit

if someone does something from force of habit, they do it without thinking because they have done it so often before • Even though he's gone she still keeps laying the table for two – force of habit, I guess.

be a force to be reckoned with

if an organization or person is a force to be reckoned with, they are very powerful • The Scottish team's performance last month shows that they are once again a force to be reckoned with.

be out in force

to be present in large numbers • The Prince's young supporters were out in force.

foregone

a foregone conclusion

a result that is obvious to everyone even before it happens • (not used with the) It seems like this year's election results are a foregone conclusion. • (often + that) It's certainly not a foregone conclusion that we'll win.

forelock-tugging

forelock-tugging British

showing too much respect towards someone who is in a high position • As the General marched in, the collective forelock-tugging began.

forewarned

Forewarned is forearmed.

something that you say which means that if you know about something before it happens, you can be prepared for it • Apparently Simon has some criticisms of my book. Still, forewarned is forearmed.

forked

speak with (a) forked tongue

to make false promises or to speak in a way which is not honest • The minister is speaking with a forked tongue, promising support he will never deliver.

fort

hold the fort British, American & Australian

hold down the fort American

to be left in charge of a situation or place while someone is away • Someone had to stay at home and hold the fort while my mother was out.

Fort Knox

be like Fort Knox humorous

if a building or an area is like Fort Knox, it is very difficult to enter or leave it because it is so well protected EFort Knox is the building where the United States keeps its supplies of gold. • Our house is like Fort Knox with all these extra security locks.

forty

forty winks informal

a short sleep during the day • She just had time to put her feet up and catch forty winks before dinner.

foul

foul play

- 1 actions which are not fair or honest A virus wiped out all our computer-held records. We suspect foul play on the part of an ex-employee.
- 2 murder It's not clear why the man drowned, but the police haven't ruled out foul play.

fall foul of sb

to upset someone, so that they do not like you and try to harm you • Officials who fall foul of the mayor find themselves exiled to the most boring departments.

fall foul of sth slightly formal

to break a law or a rule, and often be punished • If their market share grows too large, they will fall foul of antimonopoly laws.

foul-mouthed

foul-mouthed

someone who is foul-mouthed swears a lot • He was foul-mouthed and violent.

foundations

rock/shake sth to its foundations rock/shake the foundations of sth

to damage or change an organization or a person's beliefs very much • Allegations of scandal and abuse have rocked the party to its foundations. • The ideas seemed to make sense, but shook the foundations of her own Christian beliefs.

four

the four corners of the earth/world

every part of the world • Wedding guests arrived from the four corners of the world.

four-letter

a four-letter word

a short word that is extremely rude • The player was suspended after using a variety of four-letter words in front of the umpire.

frame

a frame of mind

the way someone feels at a particular time • A few hours later he was in a much more positive frame of mind. • Whether or not you enjoy the film may depend on your frame of mind.

be in the frame British & Australian

to be likely to achieve something or to be chosen for a job or an activity • (often + for) Anderson was in the frame for the job in sales, but decided not to take it. • (sometimes + to do sth) Only Ferrari are in the frame to win the championship.

frankenstein

a Frankenstein's monster

something that cannot be controlled and that attacks or destroys the person who invented it This phrase comes from the book Frankenstein by Mary Shelley.

Giving extra powers to the army turned it into a Frankenstein's monster that is now threatening to overthrow the ruling party.

frav

enter/join the fray

to become involved in an argument or a fight • Members of the royal family rarely enter the political fray.

frazzle

wear sb to a frazzle informal

to make someone feel very tired and nervous • (often reflexive) She's worn herself to a frazzle trying to get that report finished. • You've been looking after her kids for a month? You must be worn to a frazzle.

free

free and easy

relaxed and informal • The atmosphere in our office is always free and easy.

a free agent

someone whose actions are not limited or controlled by anyone else • Once the divorce has come through you'll be a free agent again.

a free ride

an opportunity or advantage that someone gets without having done anything to deserve it • Just because he was the boss's son didn't mean Tim got a free ride.

a free spirit

someone who does what they want and does not feel limited by the usual rules of social behaviour • His brothers describe Nick as something of a free spirit, unconventional and adventurous.

allow/give sb (a) free rein

to allow someone to do what they want or go where they want to • (often + to do sth) The older kids were given free rein to do whatever they wanted. • We shut the kitten out of the bedroom but allowed her free rein in the rest of the apartment.

allow/give sth (a) free rein

if you give ideas or emotions free rein, you allow them to develop and do not try to control them • With all these materials available, we can give our creativity free rein.

as free as a bird

completely free to do what you want and without any worries • She'd been travelling alone round the Greek islands for a year – free as a bird.

feel free

something that you say in order to tell someone that they are allowed to do something • (often + to do sth) The restaurant doesn't sell alcohol, so feel free to bring your own beer and wine. • If you want to use my computer for your report, feel free.

give sb a free hand

to allow someone to do whatever they think is necessary in a particular situation • (often + to do sth) His manager had given him a free hand to make whatever changes he felt necessary.

have a free hand • (sometimes + in + doing sth) The editor said I could have a free hand in designing the cover page.

It's a free country!

something that you say which means that you have the right to do something even if someone else has criticized you for it • I'll shout if I want to – it's a free country!

make free with sth

to use something a lot, even when it does not belong to you • I won't have him in my house, making free with my whiskey.

There's no such thing as a free lunch.

something that you say which means that if someone gives you something, they always expect you to give them something or to do something for them • He offered me a room in his house, but he seems to expect me to do all the housework. I should have known there's no such thing as a free lunch.

free-for-all

a free-for-all

a situation that is not controlled, and where everyone does what they want or fights for what they want to get • This is supposed to be a sensible debate, don't let it degenerate into a free-for-all. • In the economic free-for-all of the final years of communism, he was able to amass a sizeable fortune.

french

French leave old-fashioned, humorous

a period when you are absent from work without asking for permission © In the 18th century in France, it was the custom to leave an official event or party without saying goodbye to the person who had invited you. • Is Ray really ill again, or is he just taking French leave?

a French letter informal, old-fashioned a thin rubber covering that a man can wear on his penis during sex to stop a woman becoming pregnant or to protect him or his partner against infectious diseases • In those days, French letters were the only form of contraceptive we had.

Pardon my French! British, humorous something that you say which means you are sorry because you have said an impolite word • The silly sod never turned up, pardon my French.

fresh

be as fresh as a daisy

to be full of energy and enthusiasm • It's been a long drive but give me a cup of tea and I'll soon feel fresh as a daisy.

be fresh from swh British

be fresh out of swh American &

Australian

to have just finished education or training in a particular school or college and not have much experience • Our course is taught by a young professor fresh out of law school.

be fresh out of sth American &

Australian

to have just finished or sold a supply of something, and have no more left • Sorry, we're fresh out of bread this morning.

get fresh

to show by your actions or words that you want to have sex with someone • (usually + with) If he tries to get fresh with you, tell him to keep his hands to himself.

get fresh with sb American & Australian to talk to someone in an impolite way or behave in a way which shows you do not respect them • Don't you get fresh with me, young lady!

Friday

a girl/man/person Friday

a person who does many different types of usually not very interesting work in an office ( Man Friday is the name of the servant in the book Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe. • The ad said, 'Person Friday required for general office duties'.

friend

A friend in need (is a friend indeed).

something that you say which means that someone who gives you help when you need it is a really good friend • She looked after my dogs while I was in hospital. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

friends

have friends in high places

to know important people who can help you get what you want • He has plenty of friends in high places willing to support his political career.

With friends like that, who needs

enemies? humorous

something that you say when someone you thought was your friend treats you in an unpleasant way • He told my girlfriend I was boring. With friends like that, who needs enemies!

frighteners

put the frighteners on sb British, oldfashioned, informal

to threaten someone • He said he wouldn't pay up so I sent my brothers round to put the frighteners on him.

fritz

be on the fritz American, informal

if a piece of equipment or machinery is on the fritz, it does not work as it should • It will be a long, hot summer – our air conditioning is on the fritz.

frog

have a frog in your throat informal

to be unable to speak clearly until you give a slight cough • Excuse me, I've got a bit of a frog in my throat.

front

the front office American

the managers of a company • The front office has decided to cut back on technical staff.

front-office American • (always before noun) She's one of the key front-office advisers.

be in the front line

to be in an important position where you have influence, but where you are likely to be criticized or attacked  $\bullet$  (often + of) Many social workers are in the front line of racial tension.

put on/up a front X

to pretend to feel a certain way • He hasn't shown any signs of grief over his father's death, but I'm sure he's just putting up a front.

up front

if you give someone an amount of money up front, you pay them before they start a job • Did you pay up front or are you waiting till they've finished the job?

fruit

the fruit of your loins humorous

your children • The fruit of my loins you may be, but that doesn't mean I have to look after you all my life!

bear fruit

if something someone does bears fruit, it produces successful results • The work he began did not bear fruit until after his death.

frving

jump out of the frying pan (and) into the fire

to go from a bad situation to an even worse one • Many kids who run away from unhappy homes discover they've jumped out of the frying pan and into the fire.

fuddy-duddy

a fuddy-duddy informal

someone who has old-fashioned ideas and dresses in an old-fashioned way • You don't want to take any notice of her, she's just a pompous old fuddy-duddy! fuddy-duddy informal • His ideas were irrelevant, boring and fuddy-duddy.

fuel

add fuel to the fire/flames

to make an argument or a bad situation worse • His mild words only added fuel to the fire. Isabelle was furious.

full

(at) full pelt/steam/tilt informal

as fast as possible • He was going full pelt down the motorway but he still didn't make it to the airport in time.

full steam ahead

with all possible energy and enthusiasm
• We're going full steam ahead to expand the business. • Now we've solved a few problems it's full steam ahead.

(at) full throttle

if a person or a machine is at full throttle, they are doing something as well and with as much energy as they can • By the end of May, the assembly line will be working at full throttle. the full monty mainly British, humorous if something is the full monty, it is as complete as possible • Their wedding was magnificent, with a champagne reception, three-course dinner and a band – the full monty.

allow/give sth full play

if something is given full play, it is used or developed as much as possible • The themes of love and bereavement are given full play in Oliver's new novel. • He urges that market forces should be allowed full play in the villages.

come into full play • Here, his genius for networking came into full play.

at full stretch British

if someone or something is at full stretch, they are working as hard as possible • The emergency services are working at full stretch to cope with the accident. • When the plant is operating at full stretch it can employ 800 people.

be as full as a boot/tick Australian, informal

to be very drunk • Old Clive was as full as a boot when he left the hotel last night.

be full of yourself

to think that you are very important in a way that annoys other people • I'm not sure I like Sarah, she's so full of herself all the time.

be full of beans

to have a lot of energy and enthusiasm
• I've never met anyone so full of beans before breakfast.

be full of crap/shit British, American & Australian, taboo be full of bull American, very informal to often say stupid or wrong things • I wouldn't listen to what Jeremy says, he's always full of shit.

be full of holes

if an idea or plan is full of holes, it is not complete or has many faults • His theory is full of holes so we should have no problem convincing people that he's wrong.

be full of piss and vinegar American, very informal

to have a lot of energy • He's full of piss and vinegar this morning.

be full of the joys of spring British & Australian, humorous

to be very happy • He bounced into the office, full of the joys of spring.

be in full cry British & Australian

to criticize someone or something in a noisy and eager way • The opposition was in full cry over the changes to the education bill.

be in full flow/spate British & Australian if an activity is in full flow, it is happening fast and with energy • He had this annoying habit of interrupting her when she was in full spate. • The royal wedding preparations were now in full flow.

be in full swing

if an event is in full swing, it has already been happening for a period of time and there is a lot of activity • When we got to Vicki's place the party was in full swing.

not be the full quid Australian, informal to be slightly crazy or stupid • He's a bit odd—I don't think he's the full quid.

come to a full stop

to end, especially because of a problem or difficulty • After a series of health problems his career came to a full stop.

come/go/turn full circle X

if something or someone has come full circle after changing a lot, they are now the same as they were at the beginning • My career has come full circle and I am back at the school where I started out as a teacher thirty years ago. • In the meantime her opinions have gone full circle and she has decided to rejoin the party.

bring sb full circle • The poem brings us full circle, and leaves us with an image of the daffodils still dancing by the lake.

The wheel has come/turned full circle. something that you say which means a situation is the same now as it was before things started to change • The wheel had finally come full circle; we were together as a family again.

in full force

if a group of people are at a place in full force, all of them are there • Heidi's side of the family were there in full force but Bill's brother was the only one to show up.

full-court

a full-court press American

a big effort to achieve something • The Mayor has urged a full-court press for civil rights and fair housing in the city.

fullness

in the fullness of time

if you say that something will happen in the fullness of time, you mean that it will happen if you wait long enough • Everything will become clear in the fullness of time.

fun

not be all fun and games

if an activity is not all fun and games, parts of it are difficult or unpleasant • Being a tour representative isn't all fun and games, I can tell you.

have fun and games humorous

to have difficulty doing something or dealing with someone • (often + doing sth) We had fun and games trying to give the dog a bath. • (often + with) She's had fun and games with the tax office.

It was fun while it lasted.

something that you say when something good has ended but you are not sorry • I wouldn't have wanted more than 3 years at university, but it was fun while it lasted.

make fun of sb/sth

poke fun at sb/sth

to make a joke about someone or something in an unkind way • At first the kids made fun of her because she spoke with a Dutch accent.

funeral

it's your funeral

something that you say in order to tell someone that if they suffer bad results from their actions it will be their own fault • Tm not coming to the meeting, I can't afford the time.' 'Okay, it's your funeral.'

funk

be in a (blue) funk

to be very worried or unhappy about something • He's been in a real funk since she left him.

funny

funny business informal

dishonest or unpleasant actions • If you try any funny business you'll be sorry.

funny money

money that has been printed by criminals, or which has come from dishonest activities • He was caught passing funny money through the business.

a funny farm humorous

a hospital for people who are mentally ill This expression may be offensive in some situations. • If things get much worse they'll be carrying me off to the funny farm.

fur

the fur flies

if the fur flies, people have a bad argument • The fur was really flying during that meeting.

set the fur flying

make the fur fly • to cause a bad argument • She set the fur flying by demanding to see the letters.

furrow

plough a lone/lonely furrow mainly

British, literary

to do something alone and without help from other people • He'd always been happier working in isolation, ploughing a lone furrow.

gaff

blow the gaff British, old-fashioned,

informal

to cause trouble for someone by letting other people know something that they were trying to keep secret  $\bullet$  (often + on) They killed Green because he was about to blow the gaff on their drug dealing.

gallery

play to the gallery

to spend time doing or saying things that will make people admire or support you, instead of dealing with more important matters • Politicians these days are more interested in playing to the gallery than exercising real influence on world events.

gallows 🔀

gallows humour British & Australian gallows humor American & Australian humour that makes unpleasant things, such as death, seem funny in The gallows are a wooden frame used in the past for killing criminals by hanging them from a rope tied around their neck.

• Many of the patients I worked with knew they were dying. There was a lot of gallows humour.

game

a game plan

a plan for achieving success, especially in business or politics • Part of the firm's game plan is to expand into Eastern Europe.

be ahead of the game X

to know more about the most recent developments in a particular subject or activity than the people or companies with whom you are competing • A very extensive research and development programme ensures that we're ahead of the game.

stay ahead of the game • Staying ahead of the game in these days of rapid technological advancements is no easy task.

be on the game informal

if someone, especially a woman, is on the game, they regularly have sex with men for payment • Her older sister was on the game by the time she was sixteen.

go on the game informal • A lot of these girls find they can't even pay the rent so they go on the game.

The game's up! informal

something that you say to tell someone that their secret plans or tricks have been discovered and they cannot continue • Okay, you two, the game's up! Give me the cigarettes – this time I'm telling your

give the game away

parents.

to spoil a surprise or a joke by letting someone know something that should have been kept secret • We were trying to pretend we didn't know it was her birthday but Sam gave the game away.

play the game

to behave in a way that is accepted or demanded by those in authority • You have to learn to play the game if you want to be successful at work.

raise your game

to make an effort to improve the way that you play a game • They're going to have to raise their game if they want to stay in the Premier Division this season.

What's sb's game? informal

something that you say when you want to know the real reason for someone's behaviour • You're being exceptionally nice today. What's your game?

games

play games

to deceive someone about what you intend to do • (often + with) I don't think they ever really intended to buy the software. They were just playing games with us.

gangbusters

come on like gangbusters American,

informal

to start doing something eagerly and with a lot of energy, especially performing or talking to people © Gangbusters was a radio program in the US about police who went after criminals with much energy and success.

• In one of his most renowned performances, Cagney comes on like gang busters as hoodlum Tom Powers.

like gangbusters American, informal very successfully • Both books have been selling like gangbusters.

garbage

Garbage in, garbage out. mainly

American

something you say which means that something produced from materials of low quality will also be of low quality

• The meals are pretty poor but then they never use fresh ingredients – garbage in, garbage out.

garden

Everything in the garden is rosy.

something that you say which means that there are no problems in a situation • (often negative) But not everything in the garden is rosy. Sales may look good but they're actually 10% down on last year.

lead sb up the garden path British, American & Australian, informal lead sb down the garden path American, informal to deceive someone • We were led up the garden path about the cost of the building work – it turned out really expensive.

garden-variety

garden-variety American & Australian very ordinary • (always before noun) It's just a garden-variety shopping mall, large but not special in any way.

gas

a gas guzzler American, informal a car that uses a lot of fuel • I want to sell this huge gas guzzler and buy something that's cheaper to run.

gauntlet

run the gauntlet

to have to deal with a lot of people who are criticizing or attacking you • (usually + of) The minister had to run the gauntlet of anti-nuclear protesters when he arrived at the plant.

throw down the gauntlet

to invite someone to argue, fight, or compete with you • A price war could break out in the High Street after a leading supermarket threw down the gauntlet to its competitors.

OPPOSITE pick/take up the gauntlet • He challenged me to a game of squash last week and I'm thinking I might just take up the gauntlet.

gear

get in/into gear

to start to work effectively and with energy • After a few days out of the office it always takes me a while to get into gear when I come back.

move/step up a gear

to start to work or play more effectively or quickly than before • With just five lengths to go, the German swimmer stepped up a gear and edged ahead to win the race.

generation

a generation gap

the lack of understanding between older and younger people that is caused by their different experiences, opinions and behaviour • It is unusual for a singer to bridge the generation gap and appeal to both young and old alike. • There's a big age difference between us but we've never been troubled by a generation gap.

genie

let the genie out of the bottle mainly

American

to allow something bad to happen which cannot then be stopped 🔊 In old Arabian stories, a genie was a magic spirit that would do whatever the person who controlled it wanted. • With the Internet, we really let the genie out of the bottle. People now have unlimited access to all manner of material.

put the genie back in the bottle mainly American • Now that these sorts of drugs are so widely available, it may be too late to put the genie back in the bottle.

gentle

a gentle giant

a man who is very tall and strong, but has a very quiet, gentle character that does not match his appearance • As placid and amiable as he was tall, he became known as the gentle giant of the squad.

be as gentle as a lamb

to be very calm and kind • I thought she was gentle as a lamb until I heard her shouting at Richard.

get

Get away with you! British & Australian, old-fashioned something that you say when someone says something that is silly, surprising or not true • 'Be honest with me, do I look fat in these trousers?' 'Get away with you!'

get-up-and-go

get-up-and-go

if someone has get-up-and-go, they have energy and enthusiasm • You need a bit of get-up-and-go if you're going to work in sales.

ghost

not a ghost of a chance

if someone does not have a ghost of a chance, they are not at all likely to succeed • (sometimes + of + doing sth) Against competition like that, they didn't have the ghost of a chance of winning.

give up the ghost

- 1 to stop trying to do something because you know that you will not succeed • She'd been trying to break into acting for ten years without success and was just about to give up the ghost.
- 2 humorous if a machine gives up the ghost, it stops working We've had the same television for fifteen years and I think it's finally about to give up the ghost.

lay the ghost of sth/sb (to rest)

to finally stop being worried or upset by something or someone that has worried or upset you for a long time • With one stunning performance, Chelsea have laid to rest the ghost of their humiliating defeat at Old Trafford last season.

gift

the gift of the gab British, American & Australian

the gift of gab American

an ability to speak easily and confidently and to persuade people to do what you want • An Irishman, he had the gift of the gab. You might hate what he said but you had to listen.

not look a gift horse in the mouth

if someone tells you not to look a gift horse in the mouth, they mean that you should not criticize or feel doubt about something good that has been offered to you • Okay, it's not the job of your dreams but it pays good money. I'd be inclined not to look a gift horse in the mouth if I were you.

ginger

a ginger group British & Australian

a small group within a larger political party or organization that tries to persuade the other members to accept their beliefs and ideas • He was soon won over to the left wing as a member of a marginal ginger group called the New Beginning.

give

give sb the creeps/willies informal

to make you feel frightened and anxious, especially when there is no real reason for this • This old house gives me the creeps. • I've never liked spiders – they give me the willies.

give it a shot/whirl informal

to attempt to do something • I've never danced Salsa before but I'll give it a shot.

Don't give me that! informal something that you say when you do not believe an explanation that someone has given you • Don't give me that! I saw you with him, Karen-I drove right past you!

I'll give you what for! informal

something that you say when you are very angry with someone and intend to punish them • I'll give you what for, young lady, coming home at 2 o'clock in the morning!

give-and-take

give-and-take

a situation in which two people or groups allow each other to have or do some of the things that they want • You can't always insist on your own way – there has to be some give-and-take.

give and take • Partners need to give and take, to make allowances, to find compromises.

a give-and-take American

a conversation in which people give their opinions and listen to those of other people • The candidates entered into a lively give-and-take.

given

given half a/the chance informal

if someone would do something given half a chance, they would certainly do it if they had the opportunity • He'd steal from his own grandmother, given half the chance. • Given half a chance I'd leave this job today.

glad

your glad rags old-fashioned

the clothes that you wear when you are going somewhere special • Put your glad rags on, we're going to a party.

give sb the glad eye British & Australian, old-fashioned to look at someone in a way that makes it obvious that you are sexually attracted to them • I think you have an admirer. That man in the corner is giving you the glad eye.

glamour

- a glamour girl/puss British & Australian
- a glamor girl/puss American & Australian a sexually attractive woman who is very interested in her clothes and appearance
  - His name was always linked to some glamor girl. I think she sees herself as a bit of a glamour puss with her high heels and her blonde hair.

glass

a glass ceiling

the opinions of people in a company which prevent women from getting such important positions as men • The problem for women in broadcasting is the glass ceiling. Women rise but not to the top.

glory

sb's/sth's glory days

a time in the past when someone or something was very successful • The book focusses on the glory days of the jazz scene in the early 1940's and 1950's.

glove

fit (sb) like a glove

if a piece of clothing fits someone like a glove, it fits their body perfectly • My new jeans contain Lycra so they fit like a glove.

gloves

the gloves are off informal

if the gloves are off in an argument or competition, the people involved have started to argue or compete in a more determined or unpleasant way • She gave a second interview later that year but this time the gloves were off. Her ex-boss, she said, was 'a tyrant and a fraud'.

glutton

a glutton for punishment humorous

someone who seems to like working hard or doing things that most people would find unpleasant • So as well as a full-time job and a family to look after, she's started taking an evening class. She's a glutton for punishment, that woman.

gnashing

gnashing of teeth humorous

angry complaining • There was much gnashing of teeth over his omission in the England squad.

go

go to show (sth)

if an event or situation goes to show something, it proves that it is true • (never in continuous tenses; usually + that) There are more women in parliament now than ever before. It just goes to show that things are changing. • (often + question word) The painting was gone for a week before anyone noticed, which only goes to show how unobservant people are.

be on the go informal

to be very busy and active • I've been on the go all morning and I'm exhausted.

have sth on the go British & Australian if you have something on the go, it is happening or being produced now • She's got two films on the go, but still finds time to spend every weekend with her family.

have a go at sb

- 1 British & Australian, informal to criticize someone angrily She had a go at me over breakfast this morning she said I wasn't doing my share of the housework.
- 2 British & Australian, informal to attack someone physically • A couple of kids had a go at him as he was leaving school.

It's all go. British & Australian

something that you say when you are very busy or when lots of things are happening around you • I've got an hour to do the shopping before I pick the children up from school. It's all go, I tell you. • It was all go in the office this morning, the phone never stopped ringing.

make a go of sth

- 1 informal if two people who are in a romantic relationship make a go of it, they try to make that relationship succeed • We decided to try and make a go of it for the sake of the children.
- 2 informal to try to make something succeed, usually by working hard • He's determined to make a go of the bookshop.

goat

act/play the goat informal

to behave in a silly way, sometimes in order to make people laugh • Insecure and lonely, he resorted to acting the goat to get people's attention.

get your goat British, American & Australian, informal get on your goat Australian, informal to annoy you • It really gets my goat when people push past without saying 'Excuse me'. • The kid never stops whingeing – he really gets on my goat.

God

God rest her/his soul. old-fashioned

something that you say when you are talking about someone who is dead, to show that you respect them • My old father – God rest his soul – now he could drink a pint or two.

play God

to behave as if you have the right to make very important decisions that seriously affect other people's lives • Genetic engineers claim that most countries have already put legislation in place that will stop them from playing God.

think you are God's gift to women

humorous

if a man thinks he is God's gift to women, he thinks he is extremely attractive and that all women love him • He's the most arrogant man I've ever met and he thinks he's God's gift to women. • Oh for goodness sake, you really think you're God's gift to women, don't you!

God-given

a God-given right

if someone thinks they have a God-given right to do something, they think they should be allowed to do it even if other people do not like it • (often + to do sth) He seems to think he has a God-given right to tell us all what to do.

go-getter

a go-getter

someone who has a lot of energy and confidence and wants to succeed • I remember him as a real go-getter – someone who you knew would reach the top of whatever profession he chose.

goggle-box

the goggle-box British & Australian, oldfashioned the television • There are plenty of good shows on the goggle box at the moment.

going

be going spare British & Australian

if something is going spare, you can have it because no one else wants it • 'Do you want some more cheesecake?' 'Yes, if it's going spare.'

have a lot going for you to have many good qualities or advantages that will make it easier for you to succeed • She's bound to find a job. She's got such a lot going for her.

• Poor thing, she hasn't got much going for her really. She's neither clever nor attractive.

have something going with sb informal have a thing going with sb informal

if you have something going with someone, you are having a sexual relationship with them • She had something going with a guy on the staff.
• Larry's obviously had a thing going with her for several months now.

like it's going out of fashion informal

if you use something like it's going out of fashion, you use large amounts of it very quickly • Emma spends money like it's going out of fashion.

when the going gets rough/tough

when a situation becomes difficult or unpleasant • I run the farm on my own, but a local boy helps me out when the going gets tough.

if the going gets rough/tough • I'm spending Christmas with my family, but if the going gets tough I might escape back to London.

while the going is good informal

if you do something while the going is good, you do it while it is still easy to do
• If you are unsure about marrying him, get out now while the going is good.

gold

a gold digger old-fashioned

a woman who has relationships with rich men so that they will give her money

 I'm not saying she's a gold digger, but how come all her boyfriends have been rich?

All that glistens/glitters is not gold. British, American & Australian

All that glisters is not gold. British,

literary

something that you say to warn someone that sometimes people or things that appear attractive have no real value  This film has an all-star cast, but all that glisters is not gold. It fails because of its weak story.

like gold dust British & Australian

like gold American

if things or people are like gold dust, they are difficult to get because a lot of people want them • Tickets for the Oasis concert were like gold dust. We were really lucky to get them. • Skilled workers are like gold in the engineering industry.

strike gold informal

- 1 to become rich Some investors have struck gold investing in airlines.
- 2 to win a gold medal (= a round piece of metal given as a prize) in a sports competition • Not since the 1964 Olympics, when Ann Packer and Mary Rand struck gold have women's expectations been so high.

golden

golden handcuffs

financial arrangements given by a company to an important employee in order to influence them to stay with the company • Share options are offered to top executives as golden handcuffs.

a golden boy/girl

someone who is successful and admired • (often + of) Henman is the golden boy of British tennis this season,

a golden handshake

a large sum of money which is given to someone when they leave a company, especially if they are forced to leave • The manager got early retirement and a £600,000 golden handshake when the company was restructured.

a golden oldie

a record that was very popular in the past and that people still know and like today • I listen to the Sunday morning show when they play all the golden oldies.

a golden parachute

if an important manager in a company has a golden parachute, the company agrees to give them a very large sum of money if they lose their job • He insisted on a substantial golden parachute as part of the package before taking up the post.

gone

gone for a burton British, old-fashioned to be broken, spoiled or dead • There's our quiet evening gone for a burton!

be gone on sb informal

to be very attracted to someone • Sue's really gone on this new boyfriend of hers.

good

good and proper informal

if someone does something good and proper, they do it completely and with a lot of force • He warned me off good and proper after I kissed his girlfriend.

Good riddance (to bad rubbish)!

informal

an impolite way of saying that you are pleased someone has left • Good riddance! I hope she never comes back.

a good egg old-fashioned, humorous a person with good qualities such as kindness • He's a good egg, your brother – he visited me every day while I was ill.

a good Samaritan

someone who tries to help people who have problems This phrase comes from a story in the Bible where a Samaritan man helped someone who was injured even though others would not help him. • He's such a good Samaritan. He used to go shopping for my gran when she was ill.

the good old days

if you talk about the good old days, you mean a time in the past when you believe life was better • I wish my grandma would stop going on about the good old days. • In the good old days, we used to tell stories round the fire.

All in good time.

something that you say to tell someone to be patient because the thing they are eager for will happen when the time is right • 'Can we open our presents now?' 'All in good time. Let's wait till Daddy comes.'

be as good as your word

to keep a promise • Jack said he would call and he was as good as his word.

be as good as gold

if a child is as good as gold, they behave very well • The children were as good as gold today.

be as good as new

if something is as good as new, it has either been kept in the same good condition as when it was new, or repaired so that it is as good as it was then • The exterior of the building has been restored and it now looks as good as new.

be in good company

to have done or experienced something bad which someone who people admire has also done or experienced • Don't worry, Einstein did badly at school, so you're in good company.

be on to a good thing informal

to be in a pleasant or successful situation
• 'My wife does all the housework and cooking.' 'You're on to a good thing there!'

• (often + with) He's on to a good thing with this chauffeur service he runs.

be too good to be true

if something is too good to be true, you do not believe it can really be as good as it seems • The job turned out to be really boring. I knew it was too good to be true.

be up to no good informal

if someone is up to no good, they are doing something bad • She thinks her husband has been up to no good because she found long blonde hairs on his jacket.

for good British, American & Australian, informal for good and all American, informal forever • I'm leaving for good this time.

for good measure

if you do something or add something for good measure, you do it or add it in addition to something else • In today's programme we have a full report on today's top football matches, with some cricket and athletics thrown in for good measure. • I swept the floor and polished the table, and then, for good measure, I cleaned the windows.

give as good as you get informal

to be strong and confident enough to treat people in the same way that they treat you, especially in an argument or a fight • When you are a woman working with a lot of men, you have to be able to give as good as you get.

have a good head on your shoulders

to be clever • You can trust Laura with the money – she's got a good head on her shoulders.

have a good mind to do sth informal

if you say you have a good mind to do something, especially to punish someone, you mean that you would like to do it, and might do it, although you probably will not • I have a good mind to report you to the headmaster for playing truant.

have had a good innings British &

Australian

to have had a long and active life or a long and successful period of time in a job in cricket, the innings is the time when one team or player is batting (= hitting the ball). • I've had a good innings but my old heart is very weak now. • He's had a good innings as club president.

have it on good authority

to believe that a piece of information is true because you trust the person who told you • (often + that) I have it on good authority that we're about to be given a pay increase.

hold good

if a statement holds good for something or someone, it is true of that thing or person • (often + for) The saying 'good things come in small packages' holds good for this excellent miniature TV set. • It looks as though my predictions for snow at Christmas are holding good.

if sb knows what's good for them

if you say that someone will do something if they know what's good for them, you mean that they should do that thing or else something bad might happen to them • You'll obey my orders if you know what's good for you.

make (it) good American & Australian

to become successful or to achieve something you want • The film's main character is a poor Mexican boy who made it good in Chicago. • He'll make good, you'll see. He works hard and knows what he's after.

make good on sth American &

Australian, informal

to give back money that you owe someone, or to keep a promise to do something • I want to make good on that loan I got from Joan. • Tom made good on his promise to paint the living room.

put in a good word for sb informal

to try to help someone achieve something by saying good things about them to someone with influence • (sometimes + with) I'm applying for a job in your office. Could you put in a good word for me with your boss?

stand sb in good stead

if an experience, a skill, or a qualification will stand you in good stead, it will be useful in the future • She hoped that being editor of the school magazine would stand her in good stead for a career in journalism later on.

take sth in good part British

if you take criticism or jokes in good part, you are not upset or annoyed by them • His friends used to call him 'Big Ears' but he took it all in good part.

throw good money after bad

to spend more and more money on something that will never be successful • Investors in the project began to pull out as they realised they were simply throwing good money after bad.

too much of a good thing

if you have too much of a good thing, something pleasant becomes unpleasant because you have too much of it • I felt sick after I'd eaten all those chocolates. You can have too much of a good thing.
• All this attention she's getting could prove to be too much of a good thing.

turn/use sth to good account formal

to use something to produce good results
• She turned her natural curiosity to good account by becoming a detective.

You can't keep a good man/woman down. humorous

something that you say which means that a person with a strong character will always succeed, even if they have a lot of problems • When they sacked her, she simply set up a rival company of her own. You can't keep a good woman down.

goodbye

kiss/say/wave goodbye to sth

if you say goodbye to something, you accept that you will not have it any more or that you will not get it • You can say goodbye to your £10. Tom never repays his debts.

good-for-nothing

a good-for-nothing

a person, usually a man, who is lazy and does not do anything useful • That man is a crook and a good-for-nothing.

good-for-nothing • Where's that goodfor-nothing husband of mine?

goods

your goods and chattels formal

all the things that belong to you ② This is an old legal phrase. • Jim arrived at the flat with all his goods and chattels packed into two shopping bags.

deliver the goods informal

come up with the goods informal

if someone or something delivers the goods, they do what people hope they will do • So far the team's new player has failed to deliver the goods. He hasn't scored in his first five games.

goody-goody

a goody-goody

someone who tries too hard to please people in authority, especially teachers or parents • Sandra's a real goody-goody – always doing extra homework and arriving early to lessons.

goose

cook sb's goose informal

if you cook someone's goose, you do something that spoils their plans and prevents them from succeeding • Disgruntled employees cooked Blackledge's goose by leaking private documents to the press.

kill the goose that lays the golden egg

to destroy something that makes a lot of money • If you sell your shares now, you could be killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

What's sauce for the goose (is sauce for the gander). British, American & Australian, old-fashioned

What's good for the goose (is good for the gander). American & Australian, old-fashioned

something that you say to suggest that if a particular type of behaviour is acceptable for one person, it should also be acceptable for another person • If your husband can go out with his friends, then surely you can go out with yours. What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

gooseberry

play gooseberry British, humorous

to be with two people who are having a romantic relationship and who would prefer to be alone • Yes, thank you, I'd love to go to the cinema, if you two are sure you don't mind me playing gooseberry.

Gordian

a Gordian knot formal

a difficult problem in an old story, King Gordius of Phrygia tied a complicated knot which no one could make loose, until Alexander the Great cut it with his sword. • Homelessness in the inner cities has become a real Gordian knot.

cut the Gordian knot to deal with a difficult problem in a strong, simple and effective way • There was so much fighting between staff, she decided to cut the Gordian knot and sack them all.

Gordon Bennett

Gordon Bennett! British, old-fashioned

something that you say when you are surprised, shocked, or angry Dhis phrase was originally said in order to avoid saying 'God'. • Gordon Bennett! The mortgage rate's gone up again!

gory

the gory details humorous

the interesting details about an event • I hear you went away with Stuart. I want to hear all the gory details.

gospel

the gospel truth

the complete truth • I didn't touch your stereo, and that's the gospel truth.

accept/take sth as gospel (truth)

to believe that something is completely true • You shouldn't accept as gospel everything you read in the newspapers.

grab

a grab bag American & Australian

a mixture of different types of things
• (often + of) Airlines are offering a grab bag of discounts, air miles and car rentals to attract customers.

grabs

up for grabs informal

if something is up for grabs, it is available to anyone who wants to compete for it • We've got $1000 up for grabs in our new quiz. All you have to do is call this number.

grace

fall from grace

to do something bad which makes people in authority stop liking you or admiring you • When a celebrity falls from grace, they can find it very difficult to get work in television.

a fall from grace • He used to be one of the president's closest advisers before his fall from grace.

There but for the grace of God (go I).

something that you say which means something bad that has happened to someone else could have happened to you • When you hear about all these people who've lost all this money, you can't help thinking there but for the grace of God go I.

grade

make the grade

to succeed at something, usually because your skills are good enough • (often negative) He wanted to get into medical school but he failed to make the grade.

grain

a grain of truth 📉

a small amount of truth • There's a grain of truth in what she says but it's greatly exaggerated.

go against the grain

if something that you say or do goes against the grain, you do not like saying or doing it and it is not what you would usually say or do • It goes against the grain for William to admit that he's wrong. • I don't think she likes to praise men. It goes against the grain.

grand

the grand old man of sth humorous

a man who has been involved in a particular activity for a long time and is known and respected by a lot of people • It was in this play that he formed a double act with that other grand old man of the Berlin theatre, Bernhard Minetti.

grandmother

teach your grandmother to suck eggs

British & Australian

to give advice to someone about a subject that they already know more about than you • You're teaching your grandmother to suck eggs, Ted. I've been playing this game since before you were born!

granted

take sb for granted

to not show that you are grateful to someone for helping you or that you are happy they are with you, often because they have helped you or been with you so often • One of the problems with relationships is that after a while you begin to take each other for granted.

take sth for granted

to expect something to be available all the time and forget that you are lucky to have it • We take so many things for granted in this country – like having hot water whenever we need it.

take it for granted

to believe that something is true without first thinking about it or making sure that it is true • (usually + that) I'd always seen them together and just took it for granted that they were married.

grapevine

hear sth on/through the grapevine

to hear news from someone who heard the news from someone else • (usually + that) I heard on the grapevine that she was pregnant, but I don't know anything more.

grass

a grass widow humorous

a woman who spends a lot of time apart from her husband, often because he is working in another place • 'Thear Steve's in Florida again.' 'Yes, I've become a grass widow ever since he's had this new job.'

The grass is always greener (on the other side of the fence).

something that you say which means that other people always seem to be in a better situation than you, although they may not be • And when I haven't been out for a while I start to envy Miriam with her great social life. Oh well, the grass is always greener.

the grass roots

the ordinary people in a society or political organization and not the leaders • (often + of) The feeling among the grass roots of the party is that the leaders aren't radical enough.

grass-roots • (always before noun) He's popular enough within the leadership but he doesn't have much grass-roots support.

not let the grass grow under your feet

to not waste time by delaying doing something • We can't let the grass grow under our feet – we've really got to get going with this project.

grave

dig your own grave

to do something stupid that will cause problems for you in the future • He's dug his own grave really. If he'd been a bit more cooperative in the first place they might still employ him.

turn in your grave British, American & Australian

turn over/spin in your grave American

if you say that a dead person would turn in their grave, you mean that they would be very angry or upset about something if they knew • She'd turn in her grave if she knew what he was spending his inheritance on.

graveyard

the graveyard shift

a period of time late at night, when people have to work, often in hospitals or factories • I'm working the graveyard shift this week.

gravy

the gravy train

an activity from which people make a lot of money very quickly and easily • A lot of people thought they'd get on the gravy train in the eighties and make some money out of property.

greased

like greased lightning old-fashioned

if someone does something like greased lightning, they do it very quickly • I mentioned work and he was out of the room like greased lightning.

greasy

a greasy spoon informal

a small, cheap restaurant which mainly serves fried food of a low quality • There's a greasy spoon on the corner of his street where he usually has breakfast.

the greasy pole British & Australian

the attempt to improve your position at work • His ascent up the greasy pole of academic advancement was remarkably quick.

great

Great minds (think alike). humorous

something that you say when someone else has the same idea as you or makes the same suggestion • 'Why don't we take a walk before dinner?' 'I was just going to say the same thing.' 'Ah, great minds think alike.'

the great and the good humorous important people • The move toward a more democratic state will not be universally welcomed by the great and the good.

be going great guns

to be doing something very successfully and quickly • I know he had a little difficulty at the start of the course but he's going great guns now.

be no great shakes informal

to not be very good at doing something • He was a very creative chef but no great shakes on the management side of business.

Greek

It's all Greek to me. informal

something that you say when you do not understand something that is written or said Daniel This phrase comes from Shakespeare's play, Julius Caesar. • I've tried reading the manual but it's all Greek to me.

green

be green about/around the gills

humorous

to look ill, as if you are going to vomit

• He was out drinking last night, was he? I thought he looked a bit green about the gills this morning.

be green with envy imes

to wish very much that you had something that another person has • Sharon's going off to the south of France for three weeks and we're all green with envy.

give sb/sth the green light

to give permission for someone to do something or for something to happen • (often + to do sth) They've just been given the green light to build two new supermarkets in the region. • (often + to) The local prefect has given the green light to the dam at Serre de la Fare.

get the green light • (often + from) As soon as we get the green light from the council we'll start building.

have green fingers British & Australian have a green thumb American

to be good at keeping plants healthy and making them grow • I'm afraid I don't have green fingers. I've killed every plant I've ever owned. • I was just admiring your beautiful plants, Helen. You must have a green thumb.

green-fingered British & Australian green-thumbed American • There's plenty of rainfall from winter through to early spring, which makes it popular with green-fingered gardeners.

greener

greener pastures

a better or more exciting job or place • A lot of scientists are seeking greener pastures abroad because of the scarcity of opportunities at home.

green-eyed

the green-eyed monster humorous

the feeling of being jealous • Do you think his criticisms of Jack are valid or is it just a case of the green-eyed monster?

grey

grey matter British & Australian, humorous

gray matter American, humorous your intelligence • It's an entertaining film but it doesn't exactly stimulate the old grey matter.

a grey area British & Australian

a gray area American

a subject or problem that people do not know how to deal with because there are no clear rules • The legal difference between negligence and recklessness is a bit of a grey area.

grief

come to grief

to suddenly fail in what you are doing, often because you have an accident • The Italian champion was in second position when he came to grief on the third lap.

give sb grief informal

to criticize someone angrily • Don't give me any grief – I've done all I can!

get grief informal • I've been getting a load of grief off Julie because I came home late last night.

grim

the Grim Reaper literary

death Death is sometimes thought of as an old man with a large curved tool for cutting crops. When the Grim Reaper comes for you, there's no escaping.

hang/hold on like grim death British & Australian, informal

to hold something very tightly, usually because you are frightened that you will fall • Darren always drives the bike and I sit behind him, hanging on like grim death.

grin

grin and bear it

to accept an unpleasant or difficult situation because there is nothing you can do to improve it • I don't want to spend the whole weekend working but I guess I'll just have to grin and bear it.

a grin like a Cheshire cat

a very wide smile De The Cheshire cat is a character in Lewis Carroll's book Alice in Wonderland and is famous for its big smile. I just presumed he'd got the job because he walked in here with a grin like a Cheshire cat.

grin like a Cheshire cat • (usually in continuous tenses) What have you got to look so happy about, walking round here grinning like a Cheshire cat?

grind

grind to a halt/standstill

if an organization, system, or process grinds to a halt, it stops working, usually because of a problem • If the computer network crashed, the whole office would grind to a halt.

grip

be in the grip of sth

to be experiencing something unpleasant that you have no control over • The country is currently in the grip of the worst recession for twenty years.

get a grip (on yourself)

to make an effort to control your emotions and behave more calmly • Come on, get a grip, we've got an important meeting in five minutes. • I just think he ought to get a grip on himself – he's behaving like a child.

keep a grip on yourself • I was so angry I could have hit him – I really had to keep a grip on myself.

have a grip on sth

to have control over something • Certainly in the first half England didn't seem to have a grip on the game.

lose your grip

to lose your ability to control or deal with a situation • He was losing his grip at work and knew it was time to retire.
• (often + on) It suggests that the ruling party is losing its grip on the middle classes in some of the bigger cities.

grips

come/get to grips with sth

to make an effort to understand and deal with a problem or situation • It's further proof of the government's failure to get to grips with two of the most important social issues of our time.

grist

(all) grist to the mill British, American & Australian

grist for your mill American

something that you can use in order to help you to succeed • As an actor, all experience is grist to the mill.

groove

be (stuck) in a groove

to feel bored because you are doing the same things that you have done for a long time • We never do anything exciting any more – we seem to be stuck in a groove.

be in the groove

to be having a very successful period
• The early nineties were difficult for Carlton but he's back in the groove again with a new hit series.

ground

be thin on the ground British &

Australian

if things or people are thin on the ground, there are not many of them • Bears are getting rather thin on the ground in European forests. • I get the impression work is a bit thin on the ground at the moment.

OPPOSITE be thick on the ground British & Australian • Traditional English pubs are thick on the ground in this area.

cut the ground from under sb/sb's feet

to make someone or their ideas seem less good, especially by doing something before them or better than them • The opposition claimed today's speech was an attempt to cut the ground from under their feet.

drive/run/work yourself into the ground to work so hard that you become very tired or ill • He'll run himself into the ground if he doesn't take some time off.

gain ground

if a political party or a belief gains ground, it becomes more popular or accepted • (often in continuous tenses) The Republicans are gaining ground in the southern states.

OPPOSITE lose ground • (often + to) Recent polls suggest that the government is fast losing ground to the opposition.

get (sth) off the ground >

if a plan or activity gets off the ground or you get it off the ground, it starts or succeeds • The scheme should get off the ground towards the end of this year. • A lot more public spending will be required to get this project off the ground.

get in on the ground floor

to become involved in something from the beginning • It is potentially a very lucrative market and those who get in on the ground floor might well make a fortune.

give ground

to change your opinions or your demands in a discussion or argument so that it becomes easier to make an agreement • The dispute is set to continue for some time as neither side seems willing to give ground.

go to ground

to hide • (usually + adv/prep) She found the constant media attention intolerable and went to ground in France for a few months.

hit the ground running mainly American to immediately work very hard and successfully at a new activity • If elected, they promise to hit the ground running in their first few weeks of office.

hold/stand your ground

- 1 to refuse to change your opinions or behaviour, even if other people try to force you to do this • The union stood its ground in negotiations despite pressure by management to accept a pay cut.
- 2 to refuse to move backwards, especially when you are being attacked • The small, poorly armed band of guerrillas stood their ground against an overwhelming attacking force.

on dangerous ground

if you are on dangerous ground, you are talking about a subject which might upset or offend people • The author is on dangerous ground when he starts criticizing modern women's literature.

 She sensed she was treading on dangerous ground when her father began to look rather annoved.

OPPOSITE On safe ground • You'll be on safe ground if you ask him about his childhood.

prepare the ground

if you prepare the ground for an activity or a situation, you do something that will help it to happen • (usually + for) The leaders of both countries are preparing the ground for negotiations which may lead to peace.

run sb to ground British & Australian to find someone after searching for a long time • Chinese detectives ran him to ground in a Shanghai night club.

run sth into the ground

to treat something so badly or use something so much that you destroy it • I loaned her my car for 6 months and she ran it into the ground.

run into the ground British & Australian if something such as an activity or a plan runs into the ground, it fails • The talks ran into the ground because the ceasefire was broken.

shift your ground

if you shift your ground in an argument or a discussion, you start to express a different opinion • He's impossible to argue with because he keeps shifting his ground.

sb's stamping/stomping ground

a place where you regularly spend a lot of time • I spent an afternoon in Camden, my old stomping ground.

suit sb down to the ground informal

if something suits someone down to the ground, it suits them perfectly, usually because it is convenient for them • She has a young child so working from home suits her down to the ground.

wish the ground would swallow you up

to wish that you could disappear because you feel very embarrassed • Everyone in the room was staring at me and I stood there wishing the ground would swallow me up.

groves

the groves of academe formal

universities or education • After a year's travelling in South America, Jack returned to the groves of academe to teach Spanish at Cambridge.

growing

growing pains

the problems or difficulties of a new organization or activity • Even highly successful businesses will have experienced growing pains in the early days.

grudge

bear a grudge

to continue to feel angry or not friendly towards someone who has done something to upset you in the past • She got the job I applied for, but I'm not one to bear a grudge. • (sometimes + against) He still bears a grudge against her because she refused to go out with him years ago.

grunt

grunt work American, informal

hard work that is not very interesting • Her job was nothing glamorous – a lot of grunt work drafting agreements for others to sign.

guard

be on (your) guard

to be careful to avoid being tricked or getting into a dangerous situation • I feel I have to be on my guard with her because she's always trying to get information out of me. • (often + against) Shop assistants must always be on guard against shoplifters.

catch/take sb off guard

to surprise someone by doing or saying something they were not expecting • One of the larger airlines caught its rivals off guard yesterday by suddenly announcing a cut in fares. • When they asked me to babysit, I was taken off guard and found myself agreeing to it.

drop/lower your guard

to stop being careful to avoid danger or difficulty • Once he knew I wasn't a journalist, he dropped his guard and even let me take a photograph of him.

quess

be anybody's guess X

if a piece of information is anybody's guess, no one knows it • Why Becky left is anybody's guess. • 'So what's going to happen now?' 'That's anybody's guess.'

Your guess is as good as mine. informal something that you say when you do not know the answer to a question • 'How long do you think this job will take?' 'Your guess is as good as mine.'

guessing

keep sb quessing

if you keep someone guessing, you do not tell them what you are going to do or what will happen next • The clever and complex plot kept the audience guessing right up to the superb final twist.

guest

Be my guest.

something that you say in order to give someone permission to do something

• 'Can I use your toilet, please?' 'Be my guest.'

guiding

a guiding light/spirit

someone who influences a person or group and shows them how to do something successfully • She was the founder of the company, and for forty years its guiding light.

guilt

a guilt trip informal

a strong feeling of guilt • I'm on a guilt trip about not visiting my parents often enough.

send sb on a guilt trip British, informal lay/put a guilt trip on sb American, informal

to make someone feel very guilty • I'm tired of environmentalists who put a guilt trip on the rest of us for causing pollution with our life styles. • She's sent me on a guilt trip about my treatment of Steven.

guinea

a guinea pig

if someone is used as a guinea pig, new ideas or products are tested on them • They're looking for volunteers to act as guinea pigs for a new AIDS vaccine.

gun

be under the gun mainly American

to feel anxious because you have to do something by a particular time or in a particular way • Al's under the gun to decide by the end of the month whether to move with his company.

hold/put a gun to sb's head

to use threats to force someone to do what you want • Management are holding a gun to our heads. If we don't behave we'll lose our jobs.

jump the gun 💥

to do something too soon, especially without thinking carefully about it is If someone running in a race jumps the gun, they start running before the gun has been fired to start the race. • He shouted at me before I had time to explain.

but later he apologised for jumping the gun.

gunboat

gunboat diplomacy

if a country uses gunboat diplomacy, it uses the threat of military force to make another country obey it • Gunboat diplomacy is a dangerous option in the age of nuclear weapons.

gung-ho

too eager to do something, often without thinking about the risks involved in a situation • Our new salesman is rather gung-ho. • I'm not sure I approve of my bank's gung-ho approach to lending.

be gung-ho about/for sth American, informal very interested in or excited by something • He's been gung-ho for football ever since he played in high school.

gunning

be gunning for sb

- 1 informal to try to harm or defeat someone • The coach has been gunning for me from the day I joined the team.
- 2 informal to support someone Which side will you be gunning for in the elections?

guns

spike sb's guns

don't want to.

to spoil someone's plans © In the past, soldiers put spikes (= thin, pointed pieces of metal) into their enemies' guns in order to stop them working. • The African runner spiked her guns, overtaking her in the final minute.

stick to your guns British, American & Australian, informal stand by your guns American, informal to refuse to change your ideas although other people try to make you change them is If a soldier sticks to his guns he continues to shoot at the enemy.

• David's family were against him becoming an actor but he stuck to his guns.

• Stand by your guns and don't let them talk you into working full time if you

with (your) guns blazing all guns blazing

if you do something, especially argue, with guns blazing, you do it with a lot of force and energy • The boy's mother arrived at the school, all guns blazing, furious that her son had been suspended.

gunwales

to the gunwales old-fashioned

if something is filled to the gunwales, it is very full \( \epsilon \) A gunwale is the top part of the side of a boat. • The room was packed to the gunwales with food and crates of wine.

gut

a gut feeling

a feeling that you are certain is right, even if you cannot explain why • My gut feeling was that she was lying.

a gut reaction X

a reaction that is based on your immediate feelings about someone or something • When a tragedy like this happens, I think people's gut reaction is anger and a desire to find someone to blame.

bust a gut informal

to work very hard or to make a big effort to achieve something • I really bust a gut to get that report finished on time.

bust a gut (laughing) informal

to laugh a lot • I bust a gut laughing at his imitation of the Queen.

gut-bucket

a gut-bucket informal

someone who is very fat • She introduced me to her son who was a real gut-bucket with tattoos all over his arms.

guts

hate sb's guts informal

to hate someone • I hate his guts for treating my sister so badly.

have your guts for garters British, informal

if you say that you will have someone's guts for garters, you mean that you intend to punish them very severely • If I catch you smoking again I'll have your guts for garters.

slog/sweat/work your guts out informal to work very hard or to use a lot of effort to do something • You've got this wonderful man slogging his guts out for you, and all you do is criticize him! • After working his guts out at the gym, he spoilt it all by going straight to the pub.

spill your guts American & Australian, informal

to tell someone all about yourself, especially your problems • Why do people take part in these shows and spill their guts on camera in front of a studio audience?

gutser

come a gutser

- 1 Australian, informal to fall while you are walking or running I was in a rush, tripped and came a gutser on the step.
- Australian, informal to fail at something Paul's too confident for his own good. I hope he doesn't come a gutser.

169

habit

kick the habit informal

to stop doing something that is difficult to stop doing, especially taking drugs, smoking, or drinking alcohol • No coffee for me, thanks. I'm trying to kick the habit.
• 'Does she still smoke?' 'No, she kicked the habit a couple of years ago.'

Why break the habit of a lifetime?

British & Australian, humorous something that you say which means that you do not believe that someone will stop doing something bad that they have done all their lives • 'I must stop writing my essays the night before the deadline.' 'Why break the habit of a lifetime?'

hackles

raise (sb's) hackles make (sb's) hackles rise

to annoy someone Deficiency Hackles are the hairs on the back of a dog's neck which stand up when it is angry. • The politician's frank interview may have raised hackles in his party. • The movie's pro-war message made many people's hackles rise.

sb's hackles rise • She spoke to me as if I was about thirteen and I felt my hackles rise.

had

have had it

- 1 informal if you say that if something happens, someone has had it, you mean that they will die or they will fail in what they are trying to do When they run out of ammunition, they've had it. The course is hard, and if you can't face that fact, you've had it.
- 2 informal to be tired or bored with what you are doing and decide to stop it • I've had it for today. Let's go home.

3 informal if something has had it, it is so damaged it cannot be repaired • I think this washing machine's had it.

have had it (up to here) informal

to be so angry about something that you do not want to continue with it or even think about it any more • I've had it! From now on they can clear up their own mess. • (often + with) I've had it up to here with lawyers!

hail-fellow-well-met

hail-fellow-well-met old-fashioned

a man who is hail-fellow-well-met is very friendly and pleasant, often in a way that you do not trust • He was a hail-fellow-well-met sort of a man who'd greet you with a big slap on the back.

hair

not a hair out of place

if someone does not have a hair out of place, their appearance is very tidy • She was immaculate as ever, not a hair out of place.

a hair shirt

if someone wears a hair shirt, they choose to make their life unpleasant by not having or experiencing anything that gives them pleasure • I don't think you have to put on a hair shirt in order to be a socialist.

the hair of the dog (that bit you)

an alcoholic drink that you drink to cure the pain in your head that was caused by drinking too much alcohol the night before in the past people believed that if you were bitten by a crazy dog, the injury could be made better by putting hairs from the dog's tail on it. • It was early in the morning and Catherine reached for her glass. 'Hair of the dog?' asked Lee with a smile.

curl sb's hair American

make sb's hair curl American

to frighten or shock someone • The scene where the guy follows her into the apartment curled my hair.

get in sb's hair informal

to annoy someone, especially by being near them for a long period • Harry usually keeps the kids occupied so they don't get in my hair while I'm cooking.

OPPOSITE out of sb's hair • I don't care where she is now. She's out of my hair and that's all that matters. • I was hoping James would take the kids to the park for a couple of hours just to get them out of my hair. (= stop them annoying me by taking them away)

a hair's breadth

a very small distance or amount • Enemy forces are within a hair's breadth of the city. • We were a hair's breadth away from getting caught. (= we were almost caught)

harm a hair on sb's head

to hurt someone • (often negative) He adores the girl – he wouldn't harm a hair on her head. • If he so much as harms a hair on her head, I won't be responsible for my actions.

let your hair down

to relax and enjoy yourself without worrying what other people will think • It's nice to let your hair down once in a while and go a bit wild.

make sb's hair stand on end

to make someone feel very frightened
• The thought of jumping out of an aeroplane makes my hair stand on end.

pull/tear your hair out

to be very anxious about something • (often in continuous tenses) I've been tearing my hair out trying to get the job finished on time.

put hair(s) on your chest humorous

if you say that food or drink will put hair on someone's chest, you mean that the food will make them strong and healthy or that the drink is very alcoholic • Here, have a swig of this. That should put hair on your chest!

not turn a hair

to not show any emotion when you are told something bad or when something bad happens • I was expecting her to be furious but she didn't turn a hair.

hair-raising

hair-raising

very frightening • Driving through the mountains was a hair-raising experience.

hairs

split hairs

to argue about whether details that are not important are exactly correct • 'She earns three time what I earn.' 'Actually, it's more like two and a half.' 'Oh stop splitting hairs!'

hair-splitting • I don't have very much patience with all this legal hair-splitting.

halcyon

the halcyon days literary

a very happy or successful period in the past A Halcyon days are two weeks of good weather during the winter when the days are the shortest in the year. • (often + of) She recalled the halcyon days of childhood. • That was in the halcyon days of the 1980's when the economy was booming.

hale

hale and hearty

an old person who is hale and hearty is still very healthy and strong • At 77 he is hale and hearty, getting up at six every morning to walk three miles.

half

not half British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to emphasize an opinion or a statement • He didn't half eat a lot. • She isn't half brave, your sister.

Half a loaf is better than none.

something that you say which means it is better to take what you are offered, even if it is less than you wanted, because it is better than nothing • I only got half the salary rise I asked for, but I took it anyway on the grounds that half a loaf is better than none.

not be half bad informal

if something is not half bad, it is good, often better than you thought it would be • Actually, we had dinner there and it wasn't half bad.

be half the battle (won)

to be the most difficult part of a process so that once you have completed this part, you have almost succeeded • When you're training a dog, getting it to trust you is half the battle.

be half the [dancer/writer etc.] you used to be

if you are half the dancer, writer etc. you used to be, you are much less good at doing something than you used to be • She's half the tennis-player she used to be.

sb's better/other half old-fashioned × someone's husband or wife or the person with whom they have a romantic relationship • I should think 3.30 on Wednesday will be fine but I'd better check with my other half.

have half a mind to do sth

- 1 something that you say to a child who you are threatening with punishment • It's the second time this month I've caught you smoking. I've half a mind to report you to your parents!
- 2 if you have half a mind to tell someone something unpleasant, you are very seriously thinking about telling them
   I've half a mind to tell her to rewrite the whole report it's so bad.

have half an ear on sth

to listen to something without giving it all your attention • I had half an ear on the radio as he was talking to me.

listen with half an ear • I listened with half an ear as she explained what she'd been doing.

have/keep half an eye on sth/sb

to watch something or someone without giving them all your attention • I had half an eye on the TV while I was writing my letter. • She kept half an eye on the kids all through our conversation.

with half an eye on sth/sb • I ate my lunch with half an eye on the clock to make sure I didn't miss my train.

how the other half lives

how people who are much richer than you live their lives • As the popularity of such magazines testify, people are always curious to see how the other half lives.
• 'They spend two or three months of the summer on a luxury yacht in the south of France.' 'How the other half lives!'

not know the half of it informal have not heard the half of it! informal

if someone does not know the half of it, they know that a situation is bad but they do not know how bad it is • Tom's not happy with the situation and he doesn't even know the half of it! • 'I hear you're having a few problems with the new guy'. 'A few problems? You haven't heard the half of it!'

Not half! British & Australian, informal something that you say when you agree strongly with something that has just been said or you are keen to accept an offer • 'Do you fancy a drink, then?' 'Not half!' • 'He's a nice-looking bloke, isn't he?' 'Not half!'

That was a [game/meal/walk etc.] and a half! informal

something that you say about something that was very surprising, very good, or took a lot of time • That was a walk and a half! I'm exhausted.

half-arsed

half-arsed British, very informal half-assed American, very informal a half-arsed attempt to do something lacks energy and enthusiasm • I made a half-arsed attempt to write the introduction and then went back to bed.

half-baked

half-baked informal

not thought about or planned carefully
• It was just another half-baked scheme of his – it was never going to work.

half-cock

go off at half-cock old-fashioned go off half-cocked old-fashioned

to suddenly give your opinion without preparing what you are saying or understanding the subject you are talking about, often because you are angry • You don't listen. You just go off at half-cock without even hearing the end of my sentence.

half-cut

be half-cut British & Australian, oldfashioned to be drunk • He was half-cut before he even got to the party.

half-dead

be half-dead informal

to be very tired • We've been walking all day and I'm half-dead.

half-hearted

half-hearted

a half-hearted attempt to do something lacks effort and enthusiasm • I made a half-hearted attempt to start a conversation with him and then gave up. half-heartedly • A few people at the back applauded half-heartedly.

half-mast

be at half-mast British, humorous

if someone's trousers are at half-mast, they are too short • His hair was dirty and his trousers at half-mast.

halfway

a halfway house

something which combines the qualities of two different things, often something which is not as good as either of those things on their own • (often + between) It's sort of a halfway house between classical music and pop.

meet sb halfway

to show that you really want to reach an agreement or improve your relationship with someone by doing some of the things that they ask you to • I really want this relationship, Simon, and I'm prepared to work at it but you have to meet me halfway.

half-wit

a half-wit informal

a stupid person • Some half-wit had filled the kettle too full and water spilt out everywhere.

half-witted • I hope she's not bringing that half-witted brother of hers.

halves

not do anything/things by halves

if you do not do things by halves, you always make a lot of effort and do things very well • 'I didn't realise you were decorating the whole house!" 'Oh, we don't do things by halves round here."

ham-fisted

ham-fisted British

ham-handed American

- 1 lacking skill with the hands I hoped you weren't watching my ham-fisted attempts to get the cake out of the tin.
- 2 lacking skill in the way that you deal with people • The report criticizes the ham-fisted way in which complaints are dealt with.

hammer

be/go at it hammer and tongs informal

to do something, especially to argue, with a lot of energy or violence • You should have heard last night's argument – they were at it hammer and tongs till four o'clock this morning.

come/go under the hammer

to be sold at an auction (= a public sale where objects are bought by the people who offer the most money) • Both collections will come under the hammer and are expected to make £Im at Phillips' in London next month.

hand

hand in glove British, American &

Australian

hand and glove American

if one person or organization is working hand in glove with another, they are working together, often to do something dishonest • It was rumoured at the time that some of the gangs were working hand in glove with the police.

hand over fist

if you make or lose money hand over fist, you make or lose large amounts of it very quickly • Business was good and we were making money hand over fist.

The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world).

something that you say which means women are very powerful because they have most influence over the way in which children develop into adults • The article claimed that most of the world's

hand

dictators had very domineering mothers. You know what they say, the hand that rocks the cradle.

be in hand

if a plan or a situation is in hand, it is being dealt with • The arrangements for the party are all in hand so we don't need to worry about that.

have sth in hand • After days of rioting, the troops now have the situation in hand. (= are dealing with the situation)

take sb/sth in hand to start to deal with someone or something that is causing problems • Their youngest child needs taking in hand, if you ask me.

be on hand

to be near and ready if needed • Extra supplies will be on hand, should they be needed.

have sb/sth on hand • (often + to do sth)
The new store has extra staff on hand to help customers pack their shopping.

bite the hand that feeds you

to treat someone badly who has helped you in some way, often someone who has provided you with money • Leaving the company after they've spent three years training you up – it's a bit like biting the hand that feeds you.

close/near at hand X

very near • To have a few basic shops and services near at hand is a great thing.

come/go cap in hand British, American & Australian #### come/go hat in hand American

to ask someone for money or help in a way which makes you feel ashamed • (often + to) I had to go cap in hand to my parents again to ask for some money.

a firm/steady hand on the tiller

if someone has a firm hand on the tiller, they have a lot of control over a situation A tiller is a long handle which is used to control the direction a boat travels.

What people want is a president with a firm hand on the tiller:

force sb's hand

to make someone do something or to make someone do something sooner than they want to • I'm sure they don't want to reduce the price but if you threaten to pull out of the sale that might force their hand.

get out of hand

173

if a situation gets out of hand, it cannot be controlled any more • Things got a little out of hand at the party and three windows were broken. • In my first year at college my drinking got a bit out of hand.

give sb a hand

to help someone do something, especially something that involves physical effort • (often + with) Could you give me a hand with these boxes, Mike? • Let me know when you're moving and I'll give you a hand.

go hand in hand X

if two things go hand in hand, they exist together and are connected with each other • (often + with) Crime usually goes hand in hand with poor economic conditions.

have a hand in sth

to be involved in something • The party was basically Kim's idea but I think Lisa had a hand in it too.

hold sb's hand

to support someone when they are doing something difficult or frightening by being with them • 'I'm dreading giving that talk.' 'You'll be all right. I'll be there to hold your hand.'

I/You have to hand it to sb

something that you say which means that you admire someone's achievement or you admire a quality in someone, even if you do not admire everything about that person • I don't especially like the man, but you've got to hand it to him, he's brave.

keep your hand in

to practise a skill often enough so that you do not lose the skill • I do a bit of teaching now and then just to keep my hand in.

lay a hand on sb

to hurt someone • If you lay a hand on her I'll report you to the police. • (often negative) I never laid a hand on her.

lend (sb) a hand

to help someone do something, especially something that involves physical effort • Could you lend me a hand with these books? • He's always willing to lend a hand in the kitchen.

live (from) hand to mouth

to have just enough money to live on and nothing extra • My father earned very little and there were four of us kids so we lived from hand to mouth.

hand-to-mouth • (always before noun)

Low wages mean a hand-to-mouth existence for many people.

out of hand

if you refuse something out of hand, you refuse it completely without thinking about it or discussing it • Moving to London is certainly a possibility. I wouldn't dismiss it out of hand.

overplay your hand mainly American to try to get more advantages from a situation than you are likely to get • I'm going to ask for promotion but I think it might be overplaying my hand to ask to work fewer hours as well.

put your hand in your pocket

to give money to charity (= organizations that collect money to give to poor people, ill people etc.) • People are more inclined to put their hands in their pockets to help children.

put your hand on your heart

if you can put your hand on your heart and say something, you can say it knowing that it is the truth • I couldn't put my hand on my heart and say I'd never looked at another man.

hand on heart • Are you telling me, hand on heart, that you have never read anyone's private mail?

raise your hand against/to sb

to hit someone, or to threaten to hit them
• I would never raise my hand against a child.

show your hand

to tell people your plans or ideas, especially if you were keeping them secret before 🖒 When card players show their hand in a game of cards, they show the other players the cards they are holding, usually because they cannot continue to play the game. • I'm a bit reluctant to show my hand at this stage in the proceedings.

throw in your hand British

to stop doing something because you know you cannot succeed or win their hand, they put all their cards onto the table because they know that they will not be able to win the game. • I know it's unlikely that I'll get the job but I'm not going to throw in my hand just yet.

tip your hand American

to let other people know what you are planning to do • (often negative) Rumours still abound about Saling's next project but the actress has so far refused to tip her hand.

try your hand at sth

to try doing something for the first time • I might try my hand at a bit of Indian cooking.

turn your hand to sth

if you say that someone could turn their hand to an activity or skill, you mean they could do it well although they have no experience of it • I'm sure you could turn your hand to a bit of writing if you wanted. • Stella's very talented. She could turn her hand to anything.

wait on sb hand and foot

to do everything for someone so that they do not have to do anything for themselves • He just wants a woman to wait on him hand and foot.

handle

fly off the handle informal

to react in a very angry way to something someone says or does • He really flew off the handle when I suggested selling the house.

get a handle on sth informal

to find a way to understand a situation in order to control it • We need to get a better handle on the effects of climate change.

hand-me-down

a hand-me-down

a piece of clothing that used to belong to an older brother or sister and is now worn by a younger brother or sister • (usually plural) As a child I was always dressed in my sister's hand-me-downs and I longed for something new to wear.

hands

sh's hands are tied

if someone's hands are tied, they are not free to behave in the way that they would like • I'd like to raise people's salaries but my hands are tied.

all hands on deck

all hands to the pumps

something that you say when everyone's help is needed, especially to do a lot of work in a short amount of time • We've got to get all this cleared up before they arrive so it's all hands on deck.

be in sb's hands

to be dealt with or controlled by someone
• The arrangements for the party are now in Tim's hands.

leave sth in sb's hands • So, Sue, regarding the hotel bookings and so on, can I leave all that in your hands?

be out of sb's hands

if a problem or decision is out of someone's hands, they are not responsible for it any more • The court will decide how much money you get – the decision is out of our hands.

can't keep your hands off sb informal

if you can't keep your hands off someone you are having a sexual relationship with, you touch them very often because you feel very attracted to them • They can't keep their hands off each other. It's embarrassing to be in their company.

change hands

to be sold by someone and bought by another person • The hotel has changed hands twice since 1982.

dirty your hands

to become involved in bad activities that might spoil other people's opinions of you • (usually negative) The royal family don't usually dirty their hands with politics.

fall into sb's hands

if something falls into the hands of a dangerous person or an enemy, the dangerous person or enemy starts to own or control it • There were concerns that the weapons might fall into the hands of terrorists.

get your hands dirty informal

to involve yourself in all parts of a job, including the parts that are unpleasant, or involve hard, practical work • Unlike other bosses, he's not afraid to get his hands dirty and the men like that in him.

get your hands on sb informal

if you say you will kill someone when you get your hands on them, you mean you will be very angry with them • You wait till I get my hands on her – I'll kill her!

get/lay your hands on sth

to succeed in obtaining something • As a kid I read anything I could lay my hands on. • If you ever get your hands on a copy, I'd love to have a look.

have sth on your hands

if you have a difficult situation on your hands, you have to deal with it • If the police carry on like this, they'll have a riot on their hands before long. • With four kids I suspect she's got enough on her hands.

have your hands full

to be so busy that you do not have time to do anything else • (often + doing sth) It's no use asking Alice for help, she's got her hands full looking after the kids. • (often + with) Right now I've got my hands full with preparations for the conference.

keep your hands clean

to avoid becoming involved in any activities which are bad or illegal • Politicians can leave the lies and smear campaigns to journalists and keep their own hands clean.

have clean hands • The country's leaders must be seen to have clean hands.

off sb's hands

if someone or something is off someone's hands, they are not responsible for them any more • I've got a lot of freedom now the kids are off my hands.

take sb/sth off sb's hands • I'm willing to take the kids off your hands for a few hours, if you need me to.

play into sb's hands

to do something that gives someone else an advantage over you, although this was not your intention • If we allow terrorists to disrupt our lives to that extent we're just playing into their hands.

sit on your hands

to do nothing about a problem or a situation that needs dealing with • Every day the crisis worsens and yet the government seems content to sit on its hands.

wash your hands of sb/sth

to stop being involved with or responsible for someone or something, usually because they have caused too many problems for you • I should imagine he couldn't wait to wash his hands of the whole project.

win (sth) hands down

to win easily • She won the debate hands down.

beat sb hands down • The last time we played squash he beat me hands down.

wring your hands

to show that you are very sad or anxious about a situation but do nothing to improve it • It's not enough for us to stand by and wring our hands—we've got to take action.

hand-wringing • Until recently, the problem has been a subject for much hand-wringing and little else.

hang

hang (on) in there informal

to continue to try to do something although it is very difficult • All relationships go through rough times. You just have to hang in there. • Just hang on in there. The physical training is tough but it's worth it.

hang a left/right American, informal

if you tell the driver of a car to hang a left/right, you mean turn left/right • You hang a left at the gas station and then drive straight ahead for two miles.

and hang the cost/expense

if you say that you will do or have something and hang the cost, you mean that you will spend whatever is necessary • I thought for once in our lives let's treat ourselves really well and hang the cost.

get the hang of sth informal

to succeed in learning how to do something after practising it • After three weeks of using this computer I think I've finally got the hang of it.

let it all hang out informal

to relax and do or say exactly what you want to • When I'm on holiday I like to let it all hang out.

hanger-on

a hanger-on

a person who spends time with rich or important people, hoping to get an advantage • (usually plural) Wherever there is Royalty, there will always be hangers-on.

hanging

be hanging over you

be hanging over your head

if something is hanging over you, it is causing you to worry all the time • He's got financial worries hanging over him too which can't make life any easier:

hang-up

a hang-up

a feeling of shame or worry about something in your appearance, your behaviour, or your past, especially one that other people do not understand • (often + about) I think Melanie's got a bit of a hang-up about her lack of education. • The English are notorious for their sexual hang-ups.

be hung-up • (often + about) Why are so many women hung-up about their bodies?

hanky-panky

hanky-panky old-fashioned

sexual activity, especially when it is secret • It was alleged that all kinds of hanky-panky went on in the president's office.

happy

a happy accident

a pleasant situation or event that is not planned or intended • We never planned to have a third child – it was a happy accident.

a happy hunting ground

a place where you can find exactly what you want in The happy hunting ground was a Native American way of referring to heaven, or where they went when they died. • Flea markets are a happy hunting ground for people looking for antiques at good prices.

a happy medium

a way of doing something which is good because it avoids being extreme • (often + between) What you want from a holiday is a happy medium between activity and relaxation. • I'm either exercising all the time or I'm doing nothing but I can't seem to find a happy medium.

the happy event humorous

the birth of a child • So when are they expecting the happy event?

not be a happy camper British & American, humorous

not be a happy bunny British, humorous to be annoyed about a situation • Her computer crashed an hour ago and she's lost a morning's work – she's not a happy camper.

be as happy as Larry/a sandboy British & Australian

be as happy as a clam American

to be very happy and to have no worries

• We married nine days after we met, and three years on we're happy as Larry.

• Since he's been at college he's as happy as a clam.

happy-go-lucky

happy-go-lucky

a happy-go-lucky person is happy all of the time and does not worry about anything • He struck me as a happy-golucky kind of guy.

hard

177

hard feelings X

anger towards a person that you have argued with • (usually negative) It's very rare that couples break up and there are no hard feelings on either side. • So we're friends again, are we? No hard feelings?

hard going X

difficult to do or understand • It was a good course but I found it hard going in parts.

Hard lines. British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to express sympathy for someone • 'I failed my driving test again.' 'Hard lines.'

hard to swallow

if something that someone says is hard to swallow, it is difficult to believe • I found her story rather hard to swallow.

the hard stuff humorous

alcoholic drink • He likes a drop of the hard stuff.

be as hard as nails

to have no feelings or sympathy for other people • She'll be good in business – she's as hard as nails.

be hard pressed British, American & Australian, informal

be hard pushed British

to be having difficulty doing something, especially because there is not enough time or money • (usually + to do sth) I'll be hard pressed to get this report done by Friday. • You'd be hard pushed to find a good car for under £1,000. • With cuts in government funding, hospitals are hard pressed at the moment.

be hard put to do sth

if you are hard put to do something, it is not likely that you will be able to do it • You'd be hard put to find a better school for your kids. • She'll be hard put to buy her own home on what she earns.

be hard up informal

to have too little money • We're a bit hard up at the moment so I can't really afford a new coat.

die hard

if a habit, custom, or belief, dies hard, it takes a long time to change or end it • (usually in present tenses) After a successful 30-year career, he no longer has any need to work – but old habits die hard. • These ancient traditions die hard in the isolated communities of rural China.

die-hard • (always before noun) Die-hard (= refusing to change) communists have regrouped to form the Communist Refoundation.

drive a hard bargain

to demand a lot or refuse to give much when making an agreement with someone • I'm impressed that you got £2000 for that car. You certainly drive a hard bargain.

fall on hard times

to have difficulties because you suddenly do not have any money • Millions of workers fell on hard times during the great depression of the 1930s.

feel hard done-by

if you feel hard done-by, you feel you have been treated unfairly • I'm feeling hard done-by because I've been looking after the kids all week while Steve's been out every night.

give sb a hard time

- 1 informal to criticize someone and make them feel guilty about something that they have done • (often + about) I came home late one night last week and she's been giving me a hard time about it ever since.
- 2 to treat someone severely or to cause difficulties for them • She'd always wanted to be a teacher, but those kids gave her a really hard time.

have a hard time (of it) • He had a hard time last year. He lost his job and was unemployed for 6 months.

hit sth hard

to cause something to be much less successful • (usually passive) The tourist trade has been hit hard following the recent spate of bombings.

make hard work of sth/doing sth

to do something in a way which makes it more difficult than it should be • He's really making hard work of that ironing.

no hard and fast rules

if there are no hard and fast rules, there are no clear rules which you must obey
• There are no hard and fast rules about how much weight you can safely gain in pregnancy.

play hard to get informal

to pretend that you are less interested in someone than you really are as a way of making them more interested in you, especially at the start of a romantic relationship • (often in continuous tenses) Why don't you return any of his calls? Are you playing hard to get?

hardball

play hardball American & Australian

to be so determined to get what you want, especially in business, that you use methods that are unfair or harm other people • (often + with) The company is playing hardball with the bank, holding back on payments it owes them to force an agreement.

hard-boiled

hard-boiled informal

a hard-boiled person behaves as if they have no emotions • (always before noun) Bogart plays the hard-boiled detective that women find irresistibly attractive.

hard-nosed

hard-nosed

practical and determined • Keaton has a reputation as a hard-nosed businessman who always gets what he wants. • The new hard-nosed management style is unpopular amongst employees.

hard-on

a hard-on taboo

a hardening of the penis caused by sexual excitement • I can't wait to see you – I've got a hard-on just thinking about it.

hare

run with the hare and hunt with the

hounds old-fashioned

to support two competing sides in an argument • You've got to decide where you stand on this issue. You can't run with the hare and hunt with the hounds.

harness

be back in harness mainly British

to have returned to work after not working for a period of time • How does it feel to be back in harness after 8 months?

in harness

if two or more people work in harness, they work together to achieve something • French and British police are working in harness to solve the problem.

harvest

reap a/the harvest of sth

to receive the good or bad results of past actions • Homelessness is rising. We are reaping the harvest of a lack of investment in housing and social services.

has-been

a has-been

someone who was popular and famous in the past but is now forgotten • I forget who the third guest was – some old hasbeen whose name I didn't even know.

haste

Marry in haste, repent at leisure. old-

fashioned

something that you say which means if you marry someone too soon, without knowing for certain that they are the right person for you, you will have an unhappy marriage • It's true I've only known him for six months and I know you're thinking 'marry in haste, repent at leisure' but I'm telling you, he's the man for me.

hat

be wearing your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.]

have your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.] hat on to be acting as you do when you are working as a teacher, lawyer etc., which may be different from the way you act in other situations • I was wearing my teacher's hat at the meeting.

with your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.] hat on • I'd like to talk to you with your lawyer's hat on.

hang up your hat

to leave your job for ever • When I stop enjoying my work, that'll be the time to hang up my hat.

I take my hat off to sb British, American & Australian

I tip my hat to sb American something that you say which means that you admire and respect someone for something they have done • I take my hat off to people who do voluntary work in their spare time. • I tip my hat to our teachers who've raised standards in the school with very few resources.

I'll eat my hat old-fashioned

if you say you will eat your hat if something happens or does not happen, you mean you will be very surprised if it happens or does not happen • If we can't beat a second-rate team like Sheffield, I'll eat my hat.

keep sth under your hat

to keep something secret • I've got some interesting news, but you must promise to keep it under your hat for the moment.

pass the hat around/round ×

to collect money from a group of people
• We're passing the hat round for Simon's leaving present.

throw/toss your hat in the ring American & Australian

to do something that makes it clear you want to compete with other people, especially to compete for a political position • She's seriously considering throwing her hat in the ring and declaring herself a candidate for the election.

hatch

Down the hatch! informal

something that you say before drinking an alcoholic drink, especially when you are going to drink it all without stopping • And a whisky for you. Down the hatch, as they say.

hatches

batten down the hatches

to prepare yourself for a difficult period by protecting yourself in every possible way when there is a storm, ships batten down the hatches (= close the doors to the outside) as protection against bad weather. • When you're coming down with a cold, all you can do is batten down the hatches and wait for the body to fight it off.

hatchet

a hatchet job informal

strong and unfair criticism of someone or something, especially on television or in a newspaper • She did a real hatchet job on his latest novel in one of the Sunday papers.

a hatchet man informal

someone who is employed by an organization to make changes that people do not like • The hatchet man is called in whenever a company needs to reduce its staff.

bury the hatchet

to forget about arguments and disagreements with someone and to become friends with them again • It had been over a year since the incident and I thought it was time we buried the hatchet.

hats

hats off to sb

something that you say when you want to express your admiration for someone • Hats off to her – it takes a lot of courage to go travelling on your own at that age.

have

have it away British, very informal have it off British & Australian, very informal to have sex with someone • (often + with) She was having it away with her best friend's husband.

have it in for sb informal

to be determined to harm or criticize someone • Zoe's really got it in for me. She went and told my mother I'd been smoking.

have it out with sh

to talk to someone about something they have done which makes you angry, in order to try to solve the problem • She's late for work every morning – I'm going to have to have it out with her.

haw

hum and haw mainly British hem and haw American & Australian to take a long time to say something and speak in a way that is not clear, in order to avoid giving an answer • He hemmed and hawed and finally admitted taking the money.

humming and hawing mainly British hemming and hawing American & Australian • After much hemming and hawing and throat-clearing, she announced that she was leaving.

hawk

watch sb like a hawk

to watch someone very carefully, especially because you expect them to do something wrong • I was being watched like a hawk by the shop assistant.

hav

make hay while the sun shines

to do something while the situation or conditions are right • I've got a few hours to finish the housework before the kids come home so I might as well make hay while the sun shines.

haywire

go haywire informal

if a system or machine goes haywire, it stops working as it should and starts working in a way that is completely wrong • My CD player goes haywire every time my neighbour uses his cordless phone.

head

head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.]

much better than other similar people or things • He's a head and shoulders above the other actors in the film. • When you think back on the other writers of this period, James stands head and shoulders above them all.

sb's head on a plate/platter

if you want someone's head on a plate you are very angry with them and want them to be punished • The director was furious at what had happened and wanted Watt's head on a platter.

the head honcho mainly American, informal

the most important person in an organization • You'll have to ask Alan, he's the head honcho in our department.

be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall

to keep asking someone to do something which they never do * I've been trying to get the rules changed for years now but I'm hitting my head against a brick wall. * He never listens to me – sometimes I feel like I'm banging my head against a brick wall.

be head over heels (in love)

to be in love with someone very much, especially at the beginning of a relationship • It's obvious that they're head over heels in love with each other:

fall head over heels (in love) • As soon as we met we fell head over heels in love. • I fell head over heels in love with Simon on our first date.

be in over your head

to be involved in a situation that is too difficult for you to deal with • I'm in over my head with all these exhibition arrangements.

be out of your head British, American & Australian, informal be off your head British & Australian, informal

- 1 to be crazy He took the car out in this weather He must be off his head!
- 2 to not be in control of your behaviour because of the effects of alcohol or drugs
  She's completely off her head, she is what's she been drinking?

bite/snap sb's head off informal

to answer someone angrily  $\bullet$  I only asked if I could borrow your bike. There's no need to bite my head off! • She snaps his head off every time he opens his mouth.

build/get/work up a head of steam

to get enough energy, support, or enthusiasm to do something effectively A head of steam is the pressure that is needed in the engine of an old-fashioned steam train to make it start moving. • In the last three months the campaign has built up a good head of steam.

bury your head in the sand

to refuse to think about an unpleasant situation, hoping that it will improve so that you will not have to deal with it • Parents said bullying was being ignored, and accused the headmaster of burying his head in the sand.

can't make head nor/or tail of sth

to not be able to understand something at all • We couldn't make head or tail of the film. • 'What does his message say?' 'I don't know – I can't make head or tail of it.'

come to a head

if a problem or a disagreement comes to a head, it becomes so bad that you have to start dealing with it • Things hadn't been good between them for a while but it all came to a head last week when Phil failed to come home one night.

bring sth to a head • The row over the project has brought to a head a more fundamental disagreement over funding.

do sh's head in British & Australian, informal

to make someone feel confused and unhappy • Getting up at 4 o'clock every morning is doing my head in. • I've been trying to make sense of all these figures and it's doing my head in.

get your head around sth informal

to be able to understand something • (usually negative) He's tried to explain the rules of the game dozens of times but I just can't get my head around them.

get your head down British & Australian to work hard at something that involves reading or writing • I'm sure I can finish the article – I just need to get my head down this afternoon.

get/put your head down X

to sleep for a short while • I'm just going to put my head down for an hour – I feel so tired.

give sb their head

to allow someone the freedom to do what they want • He's got some great ideas. Why not give him his head and see what kind of campaign he comes up with.

go head to head

to compete with someone directly • (often + with) The tobacco industry's best lawyers will go head to head with the government in court tomorrow.

go over sb's head

- 1 to talk to or deal with someone's boss without talking to them first • I really don't want to go over her head but if she won't listen to me I have no choice.
- 2 if a piece of information goes over someone's head, they do not understand it • The bit about tax went straight over my head – was it important?

go to sb's head

- 1 if an alcoholic drink goes to someone's head, it makes them feel drunk very quickly • That glass of wine I had before supper went straight to my head.
- 2 if success goes to someone's head, it makes them believe they are more important than they are Just because you won the poetry prize, you won't let it go to your head now, will you?

hang your head (in shame)

to be ashamed • Athletes caught taking drugs should hang their heads in shame.

have your head (stuck) up your arse

British & Australian, taboo

to spend so much time thinking about yourself that you have no time to think about other more important things • 'What does Charles think about it?' 'Who knows? He's got his head stuck so far up his arse he probably isn't even aware that there's a problem.'

have your head in the clouds

to not know what is really happening around you because you are paying too much attention to your own ideas • He's an academic. They've all got their heads in the clouds.

with your head in the clouds • He was walking along with his head in the clouds as usual when he tripped over a paving stone.

have your head screwed on (the right way) informal

if someone has their head screwed on the right way, they do not do stupid things • Don't worry about Sal, she'll be all right – she's got her head screwed on the right way.

have a head start

to have an advantage that makes you more likely to be successful • (often + on) Bigger companies have a head start on us. give sb a head start • (often + over) Bamforth's natural popularity gave him a head start over the other leadership contenders.

hold your head up high

to show that you are proud of something • When this country has full employment and an education system for all, then we can hold our head up high.

keep your head

to stay calm, especially in difficult or dangerous situations • Can you keep your head at times of pressure and stress?

keep your head above water

to have just enough money to live or to continue a business • With extra income from private sponsorship, the club is just about managing to keep its head above water.

keep your head down

to do or say as little as possible in order to avoid problems or arguments • The best we can do is keep our heads down and hope that people will soon get used to the new system.

knock sth on the head British, informal to stop doing something • 'Do you still play football?' 'No, I knocked that on the head a while ago.'

lose your head

to suddenly become very angry or upset
• He usually stays quite calm in stressful situations but this time he really lost his head.

need your head examined/examining

British, American & Australian, humorous need your head testing British,

humorous

if you tell someone they need their head testing, you think that they are crazy because they have done something stupid or strange • You need your head examined if you're willing to spend £120 on a pair of jeans.

an old head on young shoulders a wise head on young shoulders

a child or young person who thinks and talks like an older person who has more experience of life • My little nephew said people who dislike other people don't like themselves very much. That's an old head on young shoulders.

on sb's (own) head be it slightly formal something that you say in order to tell someone what they intend to do is silly and they must accept the blame or responsibility if it goes wrong • If you don't want to take out any insurance, ok, but on your head be it.

put/stick your head above the parapet

to be brave enough to state an opinion that might upset people • Kearton was one of the very few to put his head above the corporate parapet and speak his mind in public.

raise/rear its (ugly) head 🔀

if something unpleasant raises its ugly head, it becomes a problem that people have to deal with • All over Europe, racism is rearing its ugly head once more.

stand/turn sth on its head

to make an idea or belief the opposite of what it was before • The first feminists simply took the accepted view that men were superior to women and turned it on its head.

take it into your head to do sth

to decide to do something, often something that seems silly or surprising • He's taken it into his head to become really jealous.

[laugh/scream/shout etc.] your head off

to laugh/scream/shout etc. very much and very loudly • He laughed his head off when he read the letter.

headlights

be like a deer/rabbit caught in the headlights

to be so frightened or surprised that you cannot move or think • Each time they asked him a question he was like a deer caught in the headlights.

headlines

hit/make the headlines

to become important news and be reported in the newspapers and on the television and radio • The latest scandal to hit the headlines is about a minister's son arrested for drug-dealing.

heads

heads will roll

something that you say which means people will lose their jobs as punishment for making serious mistakes • If the accident was caused by company negligence, then heads will roll.

put their heads together X

if a group of people put their heads together, they think about something in order to get ideas or to solve a problem • If we put our heads together I know we can come up with a design that really works.

turn heads

if something or someone turns heads, people notice them because they look interesting or attractive • Brigitte Bardot still turned heads even in her 40's.

headway

make headway

to make progress • (often negative) Talks between the two countries are making very little headway.

heap

fall in a heap Australian, informal

to lose control of your feelings and start to cry • The case collapsed when the main witness fell in a heap and was escorted from the court.

hear

can't hear yourself think can barely/hardly hear yourself think

if you can't hear yourself think, you mean there is so much noise around you that it is impossible to hear anything

• The music was so loud I could hardly hear myself think.

heart

your heart bleeds

if your heart bleeds for someone who is in trouble, you feel sadness and sympathy for them En This phrase is often used humorously to mean the opposite. • (often + for) My heart bleeds for the poor children caught up in the fighting. • Brenda can't afford another diamond necklace? My heart bleeds!

your heart goes out to sb

if your heart goes out to someone who is in trouble, you feel sympathy for them • Our hearts go out to the families of the victims of this terrible tragedy.

sb's heart is in their boots

if someone's heart is in their boots, they feel sad or worried • His heart was in his boots as he waited for news of the accident.

sb's heart is in their mouth

if someone's heart is in their mouth, they feel extremely nervous • My heart was in my mouth as I walked onto the stage.

sb's heart is in the right place

if someone's heart is in the right place, they are a good and kind person even if they do not always seem to be • Jerry's a bit annoying sometimes but his heart's in the right place.

sb's heart isn't in sth

if someone's heart is not in something that they are doing, they are not very interested in it • She was studying law, but her heart wasn't in it and she gave up after a year.

sb's heart misses/skips a beat

if someone's heart misses a beat, they suddenly feel so excited or frightened that their heart beats faster • Ben walked into the room and her heart skipped a beat.

sb's heart sinks

if someone's heart sinks, they start to feel sad or worried • He looked at the huge pile of work on his desk and his heart sank.

sb, eat your heart out! humorous

something that you say which means that you or someone you know can do something better than a person who is famous for doing that thing • I'm taking singing lessons. Celine Dion, eat your heart out!

be all heart

to be very kind and generous Description This phrase is often used humorously to mean the opposite. • Ellie can't bear to see anyone upset—she's all heart. • T'm sorry they're splitting up, but at least she gets to keep the can.' 'You're all heart!'

break sb's heart

- 1 to make someone who loves you very sad, especially by telling them you do not love them any more He broke my heart, but I'll never forget him.
- 2 if an unpleasant situation or event breaks your heart, it makes you feel very sad • (often + to do sth) It breaks my heart to think about all those poor stray dogs.

close/dear to sb's heart /

if something is dear to someone's heart, it is very important to them • Animal rights is an issue very close to my heart.

Cross my heart (and hope to die).

something that you say in order to emphasize that something is true • I want to go to the party with you, not Sarah – cross my heart!

cry/sob your heart out informal

to cry a lot • Poor little love, her cat died and she's been crying her heart out all afternoon.

harden your heart slightly formal

to make yourself stop feeling kind or friendly towards someone • You've just got to harden your heart and tell him to leave.

have a heart of gold

to be extremely kind and helpful • She'll do anything for anyone – she's got a heart of gold.

have a heart of stone

to be cruel and have no sympathy for people • He wouldn't help his own mother if she needed it – he's got a heart of stone.

Have a heart! humorous

something that you say in order to ask someone to be kinder to you • Have a heart! I can't walk another step!

in your heart of hearts

if you know something in your heart of hearts, you are certain of it although you might not want to admit it • I knew in my heart of hearts that something was wrong, but I just wasn't ready to deal with it. • Do you believe in your heart of hearts that things will get better?

It's/You're breaking my heart! humorous something that you say in order to tell someone you do not feel sad about an event or situation • 'Things are so bad right now she's had to sell one of her houses.' 'You're breaking my heart!'

know/learn sth (off) by heart

if you know or learn something, especially a piece of writing, by heart, you know or learn it so that you can remember it perfectly • He's my favourite poet. I know several of his poems by heart.

let your heart rule your head

to do something because you want to rather than for practical reasons • Don't let your heart rule your head. If you lend him that money you'll never see it again.

the heart rules the head • I can't make her understand how stupid she's being. It's a case of the heart ruling the head.

lose your heart to sb literary

to fall in love with someone • I think he lost his heart to Mary on the day they met.

lose heart

to stop believing that you can succeed • Don't lose heart, there'll be plenty more chances for promotion.

a man/woman after your own heart

if someone is a man or woman after your own heart, you admire them because they do or believe the same things as you

• He likes a good curry – a man after my own heart.

open your heart

to tell someone your secret thoughts and feelings • (often + to) That night, she opened her heart to me and I think that's when I fell in love with her:

pour your heart out

to tell someone your secret feelings and worries, usually because you feel a strong need to talk about them • (often + to) I'd only met him once, and here he was, pouring out his heart to me.

put your heart and soul into sth/doing

to do something with a lot of energy and interest • He put his heart and soul into running that café.

heart and soul • She loves him heart and soul. (= completely)

set your heart on sth/doing sth

to decide to achieve something • She's set her heart on a big wedding.

have your heart set on sth/doing sthJohn had his heart set on becoming a doctor.

strike at the heart of sth

to damage something severely by attacking the most important part of it • The recent recession has struck at the heart of industrial development.

take sth to heart

if you take criticism or advice to heart, you think about it seriously, often because it upsets you • Don't take it to heart – he was only joking about your hair.

take heart

to start to feel more hopeful and more confident • (often + from) House owners can take heart from the news that property prices are starting to rise again.

to your heart's content X

if you do something enjoyable to your heart's content, you do it as much as you want to • The pool is open all day so you can swim to your heart's content.

wear your heart on your sleeve

to make your feelings and opinions obvious to other people • John's always worn his heart on his sleeve, so there's no doubt who he'll be supporting.

hearth

hearth and home literary

your family and home • His first loyalties are to hearth and home.

heartstrings

tear/tug at your heartstrings tear/tug at the heartstrings

if something or someone tugs at your heartstrings, they make you feel strong love or sympathy • It's the story of a lost child – guaranteed to tug at the heartstrings.

heart-to-heart

a heart-to-heart

a serious conversation between two people in which they talk honestly about their feelings • We had a real heart-toheart and we're getting on much better now.

heart-to-heart • (always before noun) Have you tried having a heart-to-heart talk with him?

heat

the heat is on

if the heat is on, you are very busy or in a difficult situation • There are only 3 weeks left before the deadline, so the heat is on.

If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.

something that you say which means if you are not able to deal with a difficult or unpleasant situation, you should leave • He says he didn't realize banking was such a stressful job. Well, if you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.

in the heat of the moment

if you say or do something in the heat of the moment, you say or do it without thinking because you are angry or excited • Frank doesn't hate you. He just said that in the heat of the moment.

put the heat on sb

1 British, American & Australian to try to force or persuade someone to do something • (usually + to do sth) Environmental groups are putting the

- heat on the government to stop pollution from power stations.
- 2 American & Australian if you put the heat on someone who is competing with you, you start to do well so they have to work harder or play better The Dodgers have won three games in a row and are starting to put the heat on the Mets.

take the heat off sb

to stop people criticizing or attacking someone • If your deputy admitted responsibility and resigned, it would take a lot of the heat off you.

turn up the heat

- 1 to make a situation more serious by trying harder to force someone to do something • (often + on) Lorry drivers are discussing whether to turn up the heat on their bosses by holding a one-day strike. • The United States has turned up the heat by threatening military action.
- 2 to start to work or play in a more determined and effective way Nottingham turned up the heat in the second half and forced their opponents back onto the defensive.

Heath Robinson

Heath Robinson British

if a machine or system is Heath Robinson, it is very complicated in a way that is funny, but not practical or effective & Heath Robinson was an English artist who drew strange, complicated machines that could do simple jobs. • My granny's got this great Heath Robinson device for slicing eggs.

heave

give sb the (old) heave ho informal

to make someone leave a job, or to end your relationship with someone • (usually passive) When sales fell, most of the staff were given the old heave ho.

heaven

a marriage/match made in heaven

1 a marriage which is likely to be happy and successful because the two people are very well suited to each other • Jane and Pete had exactly the same likes and interests - it was a marriage made in heaven.

2 a combination of two things or two people which is very successful Strawberries and cream are a marriage made in heaven.

move heaven and earth

to do everything you can to achieve something • (usually + to do sth) I moved heaven and earth to get you that interview, and you didn't even bother to show up for it!

heavens

the heavens opened literary

something that you say which means it started to rain a lot • Suddenly, the heavens opened and we all had to run indoors.

heavy

heavy petting

the activity of kissing and touching someone sexually • That baby couldn't be mine. We never got further than some heavy petting.

a heavy date American & Australian,

humorous

a planned meeting between two people who are very interested in having a romantic or sexual relationship • I think Carol has a heavy date – she's been in the bathroom for over an hour.

a heavy hitter American

someone who is powerful and has achieved a lot • Have you seen his resumé? He's a real heavy hitter.

be heavy going

- 1 if something, especially something you read, is heavy going, it is not easy or enjoyable The first half of the novel is rather heavy going, but don't give up.
- 2 if someone is heavy going, they are boring • Please don't make me sit next to Dennis at the party. I find him really heavy going.

have a heavy foot American, informal to drive a car too fast • She has a heavy foot – does the trip in half the time it takes me!

be heavy-footed American, informal • I don't think he's heard of speed limits. He's pretty heavy-footed.

make heavy weather of sth/doing sth

British & Australian

to take a longer time than necessary to do something • He's making heavy weather of writing his report, Ingrid finished hers days ago.

heavy-duty X

heavy-duty American & Australian,

informal

187

complicated and very serious • (always before noun) Studies show that the homeless develop some heavy-duty health problems living on the streets.

heavy-handed

heavy-handed

- 1 if you try to control someone or something in a heavy-handed way, you use more force than is necessary or suitable • His heavy-handed style of management is extremely unpopular.
- 2 if an attempt to tell or teach someone something is heavy-handed, it is too obvious • The theme of drug abuse is treated in a way that is convincing without being heavy-handed.

heck

(just) for the heck of it American &

Australian

if you do something for the heck of it, you do it only because you want to or because you think it is funny • They spent the afternoon phoning different numbers and talking to strangers – just for the heck of it.

heebie-jeebies

give sb the heebie-jeebies informal

to make someone feel anxious or frightened • Walking across the park after dark gives me the heebie-jeebies.

heel

bring/call sb to heel

to force someone to obey you • He decided that threatening to sue the publishers was the easiest way of bringing them to heel.

come to heel

to stop behaving in a way that annoys someone in authority and to start obeying their orders • A few government rebels refused to come to heel and had to be expelled from the party.

under sb's heel formal

if you are under someone's heel, they have complete control over you • For nine years this isolated community lived under the heel of China.

heels

at sb's heels

- 1 if you are at someone's heels, you are following very close behind them • Dr Grange walked through the ward with a group of student doctors at his heels.
- 2 if you are at the heels of someone that you are competing with, you are very close to defeating them With so many promising young contenders at his heels, Roper can't afford to make any mistakes.
   There are many younger women snapping at her heels, eager to replace her as company director.

cool your heels

if someone leaves you to cool your heels, they force you to wait, often until you become calmer • The youths were left to cool their heels overnight in a police cell.

dig your heels in

to refuse to do what other people are trying to persuade you to do, especially to refuse to change your opinions or plans • We suggested it would be quicker to fly, but she dug her heels in and insisted on taking the train.

hard/hot on sb's heels

- 1 if you are hard on someone's heels, you are following very close behind them, especially because you are trying to catch them She ran down the steps with a group of journalists hard on her heels.
- 2 if you are hard on the heels of someone that you are competing with, you are very close to defeating them They know we're hard on their heels and they've got to win their next three games to retain the championship.

hard/hot on the heels of sth

if something comes hard on the heels of something else, it happens very soon after it • A film contract came hard on the heels of the success of their first album.

kick your heels British

to be forced to wait for a period of time • (usually in continuous tenses) I'm fed up kicking my heels at home while all my friends are out enjoying themselves.

kick up your heels American & Australian to do things that you enjoy • After the exams, we kicked up our heels and had a really good party.

take to your heels

to run away quickly • As soon as they saw the soldiers coming, they took to their heels.

hell

Hell hath no fury (like a woman scorned).

something that you say which means a woman will make someone suffer if they treat her badly • Don't be so sure she'll forgive you. Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned.

(a) hell on earth

a living hell

if a place or a situation is hell on earth, it is extremely unpleasant • Soldiers who survived the war in the jungle described it as hell on earth.

all hell breaks loose informal

if all hell breaks loose, a situation suddenly becomes noisy and violent, usually with a lot of people arguing or fighting • This big guy walked up to the bar and hit Freddie and suddenly all hell broke loose.

be hell on wheels American, informal

to behave in an angry or difficult way

• When he was drinking, Ken was hell on wheels.

catch/get hell American & Australian, informal

if you are going to catch hell, someone will be very angry with you • We're going to catch hell when she finds out we used her car.

come hell or high water

if you say you will do something come hell or high water, you mean you are determined to do it even if it is difficult • I'll get you to the airport by 12 o'clock, come hell or high water.

(just) for the hell of it informal

if you do something for the hell of it, you do it only because you want to, or because you think it is funny • I decided to dye my hair bright green, just for the hell of it.

frighten/scare the hell out of sb informal to make someone feel very frightened • He drives like a madman – frightens the hell out of me.

get the hell out very informal

to leave a place very quickly • (usually + of) We didn't stop to argue, we just got the hell out of there. • (often an order) Get the hell out of my house, before I call the cops.

give sb hell informal

- 1 to speak to someone in a very angry way, because they have done something which has annoyed or upset you • Did your Dad give you hell about the dent in the car?
- 2 to make someone suffer (usually in continuous tenses) The children have been giving me hell all afternoon, so I'm not in a very good mood. His new shoes are giving him hell.

Give them hell!

something that you say in order to tell someone who is going to take part in a competition to try as hard as they can to win • Remember, you're the best. Now go out there and give them hell!

go hell for leather informal

to go somewhere or do something very quickly • He was going hell for leather to get to the supermarket before it closed.

go through hell

to have a very unpleasant experience, especially one that lasts for a long period of time • The poor woman's been going through hell over the last few months, not knowing whether her son was alive or dead.

Go to hell! very informal

an impolite way of telling someone that what they do or say is not important to you • 'I don't think it's a good idea to shout at him.' 'Oh, go to hell!'

go to hell in a handbasket/handcart

American, informal

if a person or system is going to hell in a handbasket, they are in an extremely bad state and becoming worse • (usually in continuous tenses) He believes the welfare system in this country is going to hell in a handcart.

not have a chance/hope in hell

to have no chance at all of achieving something • (usually + of + doing sth) She hasn't a hope in hell of passing these exams.

Hell's bells! old-fashioned

something that you say when you are very surprised or annoyed • Hell's bells, the washing machine's overflowing again!

play (merry) hell informal

to complain a lot or to behave very badly
• She played merry hell about coming on this trip, but I think she enjoyed it in the end.

play (merry) hell with sth informal

to stop something from working as it should • The power cuts played merry hell with our computer systems.

put sb through hell

to make someone suffer • Our coach put us through hell trying to get us fit for the big race.

raise hell

- 1 to complain in a loud and angry way about something • She raised hell when she realized her office had no windows.
- 2 mainly American to behave in a noisy or wild way that upsets other people • A group of kids were raising hell in the street.
  - a hell-raiser someone who behaves in a noisy or wild way that upsets other people • When he was younger he was a real hell-raiser.

there'll be hell to pay informal

something that you say which means someone will be very angry if something happens • There'll be hell to pay if she doesn't get the money in time. to hell with sb/sth very informal an impolite way of saving that someone or something is not important to you any more . To hell with saving money! I'm going shopping.

until hell freezes over informal

if you say that someone can do something until hell freezes over, you mean they will not get the result they want • They can talk until hell freezes over - they won't make me change my mind.

when hell freezes over if you say that something will happen when hell freezes over, you mean that it will never happen Taxes will be abolished when hell freezes over.

what the hell informal >

something that you say when you suddenly change your plans to show that you will not worry about any problems this might cause . I was going to work this evening, but what the hell - let's go to a movie instead.

would see sb in hell before you would dosth

if you say that you would see someone in hell before you would do something, especially something that they have asked you to do, you mean that you would never do that thing . I'd see her in hell before I'd agree to an arrangement like # the [child/house/mother, etc.] from hell humorous

the worst or most unpleasant person or thing of that type that anyone can imagine . His mother's awful. She really is the mother-in-law from hell.

[fight/run/work etc.] like hell

if you fight, run or work like hell, you do it a lot or very quickly . We heard the alarm and ran like hell.

hell-bent

be hell-bent on sth/doing sth /

to be determined to do something, usually something that people think is wrong . Local fans seemed hell-bent on causing as much trouble as possible during the match.

help

God/Heaven help sb

- 1 something that you say in order to warn someone that they may be hurt or punished . Heaven help you if your father catches you wearing his best lacket!
- 2 something that you say when you are worried about someone who is in a very dangerous or unpleasant situation • God help anyone who has to be outdoors on a dreadful night like this!

helter-skelter

helter-skelter

if you do something helter-skelter, you do it very quickly and without organization

· We all ran helter-skelter down the stairs as soon as the alarm sounded.

helter-skelter • (always before noun) Police have been unable to control the helter-skelter growth of the drugs trade.

a hen night/party British & Australian

a party for women only, especially one that is organized for a woman who is soon going to get married . Barbara's having her hen night a week before the wedding.

herd

ride herd on sh/sth American

to be responsible for controlling a group of people and their actions • The new editor will ride herd on the staff, checking on the overall policy and tone of the paper.

hide

tan sb's hide old-fashioned

to hit someone, usually a child, many times as a punishment . I'll tan that boy's hide if he touches my toolbox again.

hiding

be on a hiding to nothing British,

informal

to be in a situation where it is impossible to succeed . We were on a hiding to nothing trying to get more money out of the government.

high

high and mighty

someone who is high and mighty behaves as if they are more important than other people • Ellie's started acting all high and mighty since she got her promotion.

the high and mighty humorous important people • The prince was only allowed to socialize with the high and mighty and had no contact with ordinary people.

high jinks

excited and often silly behaviour when people are enjoying themselves • They were dancing on the tables and getting up to all sorts of high jinks.

a high roller American & Australian someone who spends a lot of money in a careless way, especially risking money in games • He became known as a high roller, and was invited to the biggest gambling tables in town.

the high ground X

- 1 if a person or an organization has the high ground, they are in the best and most successful situation His company holds the high ground in the area of multi-media disks. Both parties could be seen trying to take the high ground on issues such as education.
- 2 if something has the high ground, it is thought to be of good quality, serious, and honest • Our programmes hold the high ground of British broadcast journalism. • We have lost the moral high ground by backing regimes with poor human rights records.

be as high as a kite 🗶

- 1 informal to behave in a silly and excited way because you have taken drugs or drunk a lot of alcohol • I tried to talk to her, but she was as high as a kite.
- informal to feel very happy and excited Winning the prize gave my self-confidence a tremendous boost; I felt as high as a kite for several days afterwards.

be for the high jump British & Australian if someone is for the high jump, they will be punished or severely criticized for something they have done wrong • She'll be for the high jump when her mother finds out she's been smoking.

climb/get on your high horse

if someone gets on their high horse about a subject, they become angry about it and start criticizing other people as if they are better or more clever than them • (often + about) It's no good getting on your high horse about single parents. You can't force people to get married.

come/get (down) off your high horse to stop talking as if you were better or more clever than other people • It's time you came down off your high horse and admitted you might have made a mistake.

from on high

from someone in a position of authority
• All the rules are imposed from on high.

hunt/search high and low

to search everywhere for something • (usually + for) I've been hunting high and low for the certificate, but I still haven't found it.

in high dudgeon humorous

if you do something in high dudgeon, you do it because you are very angry • Slamming the door in Meg's face, she drove off in high dudgeon.

it's high time

if you say it's high time that something happened, you mean that it should already have been done • Her parents decided it was high time she started paying some rent. • (often + that) It's high time that nurses were given better pay and conditions.

leave sb high and dry

to put someone in a very difficult situation which they have no way of making better • The stock market crash left us high and dry with debts of over £200 000.

live high off/on the hog American & Australian

to have a lot of money and live in comfort, especially eating and drinking a lot • He was a millionaire who lived high on the hog at all times.

on high

something or someone on high is in heaven • The angels on high sang His praises.

pile it/them high and sell it/them cheap mainly British

to sell large amounts of something at cheap prices • The shops at the lower end of the clothing market have survived by piling it high and selling it cheap.

smell/stink to high heaven

to smell very bad • That chicken farm stinks to high heaven.

high-flier

a high-flier

a high-flyer

someone who is very successful at their job and soon becomes powerful or rich
• A high-flier in the eighties, he was earning over £200 000 a year.

highly-strung

highly-strung British & Australian high-strung American

nervous and easily upset • Anna has always been highly-strung, whereas her brother is one of the most relaxed people you could meet.

highways

the highways and byways literary

the highways and byways of a place are its roads and paths • (usually + of) They travelled the highways and byways of Britain to find people who could still sing the old traditional folksongs.

hill

be over the hill informal

someone who is over the hill is too old to do things well • In the world of pop music, people think you're over the hill at the age of twenty-five.

not be worth a hill of beans American, informal

to have very little or no value • None of those guys is worth a hill of beans, so don't worry about what they say.

up hill and down dale literary

if you travel up hill and down dale, you travel all over an area • The man carried his basket of goods up hill and down dale.

hill

(up) to the hilt

1 if you do something to the hilt, you do it in the strongest and most complete way that you can • All through the trial, he has backed his wife up to the hilt. • They took the new aircraft and tested it to the hilt.

2 if you borrow to the hilt, you borrow as much money as you can, often so much that it is difficult to pay it back • We can't raise any more money – we're mortgaged up to the hilt as it is. • With the government borrowing up to the hilt we can expect tax rises.

hind

can talk the hind leg(s) off a donkey

British, humorous

if you say that someone can talk the hind leg off a donkey, you mean that they talk a lot • His father could talk the hind leg off a donkey.

hip

be joined at the hip

if you say that two people are joined at the hip, you mean that they are very friendly with each other and spend more time together than is usual • I can go to London without Mike. We're not joined at the hip, you know.

shoot from the hip

to react to a situation very quickly and with a lot of force, without thinking about the possible effects of your actions
• His critics accuse him of shooting from the hip when challenged.

hit

hit sb where it hurts (most)

to do something which will upset someone as much as possible • She hit him where it hurt most – in his bank account. • If you want to hit her where it really hurts, tell her she's putting on weight again.

hit and/or miss

if something is hit and miss, you cannot be certain of its quality because it is sometimes good and sometimes bad • We used a cheap printer, but the quality was a bit hit or miss. • Weather forecasting used to be a very hit-and-miss affair.

hit the ceiling/roof informal X

to become very angry and start shouting
• If I'm late again he'll hit the roof.

hit the deck/dirt American & Australian, informal

to fall to the ground, or to quickly lie on the ground, especially to avoid danger • The shooting started, and I heard someone shout 'Hit the deck!'

hit the sack British, American & X Australian, informal hit the hav American, informal to go to bed  $\bullet$  I'm going to hit the sack – I'm exhausted.

a hit list \chi

- 1 a list of people that someone is planning to kill • His name was on a terrorist hit list.
- 2 a list of people or organizations that someone plans to do bad things to, especially to get rid of There are a hundred schools on the department's hit list, which are threatened with closure if their standards do not improve.

a hit man

a criminal who is paid to kill people • A professional hit man can be hired for around £10,000.

not know what hit you

to feel very shocked and confused because something, usually something bad, happens to you suddenly when you were not expecting it • The poor man stood there not knowing what had hit him, while the police arrested his wife and son.

before sb knows what hit them • We'll break down the door and have the handcuffs on them before they know what's hit them.

hobbyhorse

on your hobbyhorse

if someone is on their hobbyhorse, they are talking about a subject which they think is interesting and important, and which they talk about at any time that they can, even if other people are not interested • Don't mention tax, or Bernard'll get on his hobbyhorse again.

Hobson

Hobson's choice

a situation in which it seems that you can choose between different things or actions, but there is really only one thing that you can take or do E Thomas Hobson was a man who kept horses and did not give people a choice about which horse they could have. • It's Hobson's choice, because if I don't agree to do what they want, I'll lose my job.

hog

go hog wild American, informal

to become too excited and eager about something, often so that you do too much • There's no need to go hog wild just

 There's no need to go hog wild just because it's Sarah's birthday – she won't want such a fuss.

ho-hum

ho-hum American, informal

disappointing or not very interesting • It was a ho-hum speech, no big deal really.
• He still thinks soccer is kind of ho-hum and not worth watching.

hoist

be hoist by/with your own petard formal

if you are hoist by your own petard, something that you did in order to bring you advantages or to harm someone else is now causing serious problems for you • The government, who have made such a point of criticizing the opposition's morals now find themselves hoist by their own petard as yet another minister is revealed as having an illicit affair.

hold

hold your own

to be as successful as other people or things in a situation • She can hold her own in any debate on religion. • (often + against) The French franc held its own against the D-mark.

can't hold their drink/liquor

if someone can't hold their drink, they get drunk after drinking very little alcohol • You can't hold your drink, that's your problem. Two beers and you're under the table.

on hold

if you are on hold when you are using the telephone, you are waiting to speak to someone • Ms Evans is on the other line at the moment – shall I put you on hold?

put sth on hold

to decide that you will leave an activity until a later time • (usually passive) The project has been put on hold until our financial position improves.

be on hold • Everything's on hold again because of the bad weather:

holds

no holds barred

without limits or controls • His new show may offend some viewers. This is comedy with no holds barred.

no-holds-barred • (always before noun) In a no-holds-barred campaign, the nice guys are always the losers.

hole

a hole card American

a secret advantage that is ready to use when you need it • She still had one hole card to get out of police custody – a phone call to an influential friend.

a hole in the wall American

a small, dark shop or restaurant • It's just a hole in the wall, but the food is good.

hole-in-the-wall • (always before noun) We spent the day going around hole-in-thewall antique shops looking for bargains.

be in a hole British & Australian,

informal

to be in a difficult or embarrassing situation • We're in a bit of a hole here, because we've lost the letter they sent telling us what we were supposed to do.

dig yourself into a hole British & Australian, informal to do something which makes you embarrassed or causes you problems which will be difficult to solve • The government is digging itself into an even deeper hole by refusing to admit it made a mistake.

dig/get sb out of a hole British & Australian, informal to help someone who is in a difficult situation • She got me out of a hole by lending me the money for the flight back to New York. • (often reflexive) I managed to dig myself out of a hole by pretending I had only been joking.

be in the hole American, informal

if someone is an amount of money in the hole, they owe that amount of money

• He's $500 in the hole after buying his car.

go into the hole American, informal
The campaign has run out of money and is going into the hole.

blow a hole in sth

if you blow a hole in someone's opinions or arguments, you show that they are not true or right • Bloodstains on the sheets blew a hole in the defence's argument.

blow/make a hole in sth

if something makes a hole in an amount of money, it takes a lot of that money to pay for it • The trip made a hole in our savings, but it was worth it. • The new tax is likely to blow an enormous hole in our profits.

need sth like (you need) a hole in the head humorous

if you say you need something like a hole in the head, you mean you do not need it and do not want it • We need a new shopping centre in our neighbourhood like we need a hole in the head!

hole-and-corner

hole-and-corner British

hole-in-the-corner British hole-and-corner activities are kept secret, usually because they are dishonest • (always before noun) I don't want any more hole-in-the-corner deals, from now all our business will be done in the open.

holes

pick holes in sth

to find mistakes in something someone has done or said, to show that it is not good or not correct • The lawyer did her best to pick holes in the witness's statement.

holier-than-thou

holier-than-thou

someone who is holier-than-thou behaves as if they have better morals than other people • I can't stand that holier-thanthou attitude that some vegetarians have.

hollow

beat sb hollow British & Australian

to defeat someone easily and by a large amount • We played my brother's school at football and beat them hollow.

ring/sound hollow X

if something someone says rings hollow, it does not sound true or sincere • The claims they made two years ago that peace was just around the corner ring very hollow now.

have a hollow ring • In view of the government's financial problems, these promises have a hollow ring.

holy

the holy of holies humorous

a very special place Def The holy of holies is the most special part of a religious building. • This football stadium is the holy of holies to many fans.

home

Home is where the heart is.

something that you say which means that your true home is with the person or in the place that you love most • I don't mind moving round the world with Chris. Home is where the heart is.

a home from home British

a home away from home American & Australian

a place where you feel as comfortable as you do in your own home • I visit Australia so often, it's become a home from home for me.

a home truth

if you tell someone a home truth, you tell them an unpleasant fact, usually something bad about themselves • (usually plural) It's time someone told that boy a few home truths about his behaviour.

the home straight British & Australian

the last part of a long or difficult activity
• We can't give up now we're on the home straight.

the home stretch

the last part of a long or difficult activity

· We've been working on the project for six months, but we're in the home stretch now.

be at home

- 1 if someone is at home in a situation, they feel confident and happy because it is familiar to them and they know how to deal with it (often + in) By the end of the week she was beginning to feel more at home in her new job. He is equally at home in a symphony orchestra or playing jazz with friends.
- 2 if something or someone is at home somewhere, they are suitable for that place and look right in it This painting would be more at home in an art gallery than hanging on someone's living room wall.

be home and dry mainly British be home and hosed Australian

to have completed something successfully • I've just got one more report to write and I'll be home and dry.

be home free American & Australian

to be certain to succeed at something because you have finished the most difficult part of it • Once you leave the expressway and cross the bridge, you're home free – we're the third house after the bridge.

be nothing much to write home about not much to write home about to not be especially good or exciting • The food was OK, but nothing to write home about.

opposite something to write home about • If England won the World Cup, that would be something to write home about!

bring sth home to sb X

to make someone understand something much more clearly than they did before, especially something unpleasant • These photographs finally brought home to us the terrible realities of war. • It took an international crisis to bring it home to British politicians that they desperately needed allies in Europe.

come home to sb • if something comes home to someone, they understand it clearly • It suddenly came home to me that I had made the most awful mistake.

drive/hammer sth home

to say something very clearly and with a lot of force, often repeating it several times, so that you are sure that people understand it • She used charts and statistics to drive home her message that we need to economize.

hit/strike home

- 1 if something that someone says hits home, it has a strong effect on you because it forces you to understand something unpleasant • I could see that the criticism was beginning to hit home.
- 2 if an action or a situation hits home, it has a strong negative effect • Consumer spending has decreased as tax rises have begun to hit home.

keep the home fires burning

to keep your home pleasant and in good order while people who usually live with you are away, especially at war • They relied on their wives and sweethearts to keep the home fires burning when they marched off to war.

make yourself at home

to behave in a relaxed way in a place, as if it was your own home • (often an order) Sit down and make yourself at home while I make some coffee. • We made ourselves at home, using the bathroom and drinking all their beer.

play away from home British &

Australian, informal

to have sex with someone who is not your usual partner • (usually in continuous tenses) How did you discover that your husband was playing away from home?

What's sth when it's at home? British & Australian, informal

Who's sb when he's/she's at home?

British & Australian, informal something that you say when you want to know what something is or who someone is • Feng shui? What's that when it's at home? • Who's Mariella Frostrup when she's at home?

homework

do your homework

to make careful preparations so that you know all you need to know about something and are able to deal with it successfully • They hadn't done their homework, or they'd have known it was a waste of time asking her that question.

honest

honest to God informal

something you say in order to emphasize that you are telling the truth • I didn't mean to hurt him, honest to God I didn't!

be as honest as the day (is long)

to be completely honest • You can be as honest as the day is long and still get into trouble if you fill in your tax form incorrectly.

make an honest woman of sb humorous

if a man makes an honest woman of someone that he is having a relationship with, he marries her • You've been living with Jean for five years, isn't it time you made an honest woman of her?

honest-to-goodness

honest-to-goodness

an honest-to-goodness thing or person is plain, simple, and exactly what they appear to be • (always before noun) I'd much rather have an honest-to-goodness steak than any of the fancy stuff he cooks.

honesty

Honesty is the best policy.

something that you say which means that it is best to be honest • With relationships, as with so many aspects of life, honesty is undoubtedly the best policy.

honeymoon

a honeymoon period

a short period at the beginning of a new job or a new government, when no one criticizes you • Labour's brief honeymoon period only lasted until the first budget.

honour-bound

be/feel honour-bound to do sth British & Australian

be/feel honor-bound to do sth American & Australian

to feel that you must do something because it is morally right, even if you do not want to do it • I'd rather go to

Andrew's party but I feel honour-bound to go to Caroline's because she asked me first.

honours

do the honours British & Australian, humorous do the honors American & Australian to pour drinks or serve food • 'Lets eat. Shall I do the honours?'

hoof

on the hoof

- 1 British & Australian if you make a decision on the hoof, you make it quickly to react to a situation which is happening, and do not have time to think about it carefully
- 2 British & Australian if you do something on the hoof, you do it while you are walking around doing other things • He's so busy, he usually has lunch on the hoof.

hook

be off the hook

if a telephone is off the hook, the part that you speak into is not lying in the part that holds it so the telephone will not ring • He left the telephone off the hook because he didn't want to be disturbed.

by hook or by crook X

if you intend to do something by hook or by crook, you are determined not to let anything stop you doing it and are ready to use any methods • I decided that I was going to get that job by hook or by crook.

fall for sb hook, line and sinker

to fall very much in love with someone • I'd never seen such a good-looking bloke
– I just fell for him hook, line and sinker.

fall for sth hook, line and sinker

to completely believe something someone tells you which is not true • I told him I needed the money for my baby, and he fell for it hook, line and sinker.

get/let sb off the hook

to allow someone to escape from a difficult situation or to avoid doing something that they do not want to do • John's agreed to go to the meeting in my place, so that lets me off the hook.

be off the hook • You're off the hook – someone else has volunteered to do the job.

ring off the hook American, informal

if your telephone rings off the hook, it rings a lot • The box office phones were ringing off the hook all day.

Sling your hook! British, informal, old-fashioned an impolite way of telling someone to go away • When he couldn't pay the rent, she told him to sling his hook.

hooks

get your hooks into sth/sb

to get control or influence over something or someone • We'll all be seeing a lot less of Robert if Joanna gets her hooks into him.

hooky

play hooky American & Australian, informal

to stay away from school without permission • Any kid who's not in school at this time of day must be playing hooky.

hoops $\rightarrow$

go/jump through hoops

to do a lot of difficult things before you are allowed to have or do something you want • They really make you jump through hoops before they allow you to adopt a baby.

put sb through hoops • She was put through far more hoops than a man would have been before the studio allowed her to direct her first film.

hoot

not care/give a hoot informal not care/give two hoots informal

if you do not give a hoot about something or someone, you do not care about them at all • (often + about) I don't give a hoot about keeping the house tidy. • (often + question word) They don't care two hoots who wins as long as it's a good game.

hop

catch sb on the hop

if you catch someone on the hop, you do something when they are not ready for it and may not be able to deal with it well • I'm afraid you've caught me on the hop— I wasn't expecting your call until this afternoon. • If we attack at the very start of the game, we may just catch their defenders on the hop.

hope

hope against hope

to hope very strongly that something will happen, although you know it is not very likely • (usually in continuous tenses; usually + that) We were just hoping against hope that she would be rescued.

a hope chest American

the things a young woman collects to use in her home after she is married • Gloria spent the next few months embroidering sheets for her hope chest.

live in hope

to hope that something you want to happen will happen one day • None of my poems have been published yet, but I live in hope.

hopes

pin your hopes on sth/sb

to hope that something or someone will help you achieve what you want • The party is pinning its hopes on its new leader who is young, good-looking, and very popular with ordinary people.

hopping

be hopping mad old-fashioned

to be very angry • My Dad was hopping mad when I told him I'd crashed his car.

horizon

on the horizon

something that is on the horizon is likely to happen soon • There is no new drug on the horizon that will make this disease easier to treat.

horizons

broaden/widen sb's horizons

to increase the range of things that someone knows about, has experienced, or is able to do • This trip to the Far East has certainly broadened our family's horizons.

hornet

198

a hornet's nest

a situation or subject which causes a lot of people to become angry and upset  $\stackrel{>}{\approx}$  A hornet is a large insect that stings people badly. • His remarks on the role of women have stirred up a hornet's nest amongst feminists. • Animal cloning is a real hornet's nest.

horns

be on the horns of a dilemma

to be unable to decide which of two things to do because either could have bad results • How can we decide which hospital to close? We are on the horns of a dilemma.

draw/pull in your horns

to act in a more careful way than you did before, especially by spending less money • He'll have to draw in his horns, now that he's lost his job.

lock horns

if two people lock horns, they argue about something • (often + over) The mayor and her deputy locked horns over the plans for the new road.

horse

horse sense old-fashioned

ordinary practical knowledge of the best way to deal with people and situations • Has he got enough horse sense not to get into debt?

a horse of another/a different color

American

a situation or a subject that is different from what you had first thought it was • You said you didn't like going to the movies, but if you don't want to go because you're broke, that's a horse of another color.

eat like a horse

if you eat like a horse, you always eat a lot of food • She eats like a horse, so I don't know how she manages to stay so thin.

(straight) from the horse's mouth

if you get information about something from the horse's mouth, you get it from someone who is involved in it and knows a lot about it • 'Are you sure she's leaving?'

'Definitely, I heard it straight from the horse's mouth.'

I could eat a horse.

something that you say when you are very hungry • I've had nothing but a sandwich all day – I could eat a horse.

You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink).

something that you say which means you can give someone the opportunity to do something, but you cannot force them to do it if they do not want to • I made all the arrangements, bought the ticket, and even took him to the airport, but he just wouldn't get on the plane. Well, you can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make him drink.

horses

Horses for courses. British & Australian something that you say which means that it is important to choose suitable people for particular activities because everyone has different skills • Ah well, horses for courses. Just because a plumber can mend your washing machine, it doesn't follow that he can mend your car as well.

Don't spare the horses. Australian, informal something that you say to someone in order to tell them to hurry • Go and buy some milk and don't spare the horses.

Hold your horses! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone to stop doing or saying something because they are going too fast • Just hold your horses, Bill. Let's think about this for a moment.

hostage

a hostage to fortune formal

if something is a hostage to fortune, it could be harmed by things that happen in the future • Inviting terrorists to take part in the talks has created a hostage to fortune.

give a hostage to fortune formal give hostages to fortune formal • if something gives a hostage to fortune, it may cause problems in the future • She could never be president because her journalistic work gives too many hostages to fortune.

hot

hot air informal

if something that someone says is just hot air, it is not sincere and will have no practical results • Their promises turned out to be just so much hot air.

(all) hot and bothered informal

worried or angry, and sometimes physically hot • Dad gets all hot and bothered if someone parks in his parking space.

hot and heavy American, informal

if something or someone is hot and heavy, they are full of strong emotions or sexual feelings • Guess who I saw getting hot and heavy on the dance floor?
• Television news coverage of the fighting has been hot and heavy.

hot dog American, informal

to perform actions in a sport so that people notice you because of your skill or speed • (always + adv/prep) They spent the day hot dogging down the slopes at Aspen.

a hot dog American, informal someone who tries to make people notice them by performing especially fast or well in a sport • Mike's just one hot dog! – it's amazing what he does in front of a big crowd.

Hot dog! American, old-fashioned something that you say when you are very pleased about something • You won the race? Hot dog!

hot under the collar informal

if someone is hot under the collar, they are angry • He got very hot under the collar when I suggested that he might be mistaken. • The issue of waste disposal is getting a lot of people hot under the collar.

a hot button American, informal

a subject that is important to people and which they feel very strongly about • Gender issues have become something of a hot button of late.

hot-button American • (always before noun) Sex discrimination in employment is a hot-button political issue now.

a hot potato informal

something that is difficult or dangerous to deal with • The abortion issue is a political hot potato in the United States.

a hot spot

- 1 a place where people go for exciting entertainment like dancing • The club is one of the city's premiere hot spots.
- 2 a dangerous place where there may be a war or other violent events • I spent my career reporting from the world's hot spots.

the hot ticket American

someone or something that is very popular at the present time • Fashion writers predict that ankle-strap shoes will be the hot ticket this fall.

hot-ticket American • (always before noun) CD-Rom is a hot-ticket item in the stores right now.

be hot off the press

news that is hot off the press has just been printed and often contains the most recent information about something • This is the latest news from Bosnia, hot off the press.

be hot stuff very informal

if someone is hot stuff, they are sexually attractive • There's a new girl in our class. She's hot stuff.

be in hot water

if someone is in hot water, people are angry with them and they are likely to be punished • He found himself in hot water over his speech about immigration.

get (sb) into hot water • You'll get into hot water if your teacher finds out.

be too hot to handle informal

if something or someone is too hot to handle, people cannot deal with them, because they are dangerous or difficult • The book was so sexually explicit, it was considered too hot to handle by most publishers.

blow hot and cold

to sometimes like or be interested in something or someone and sometimes not, so people are confused about how you really feel • It's impossible to have a relationship with someone who blows hot and cold all the time. • (often + about) Sophie kept blowing hot and cold about the idea of working abroad.

drop sb/sth like a hot brick/potato informal

to suddenly get rid of someone or something that you have been involved with because you do not want them any more or you are worried they may cause problems • The government dropped the plan like a hot brick when they realized the bad feeling it was causing.

feel/go hot and cold (all over) British & Australian, informal

to feel that your body is hot and cold at the same time, because you have had a shock • When I suddenly saw him again in the street after all these years, I went hot and cold all over.

go/sell like hot cakes 🗡

if things are going like hot cakes, people are buying a lot of them very fast • (often in continuous tenses) The book has only just been published and copies are already selling like hot cakes in both Britain and America.

have [done/had/seen etc.] more sth than sb has had hot dinners British &

Australian

to have done, had, seen etc. something many times, so that you have had more experience of it than the person you are talking to • Young man, I've been to more football matches than you've had hot dinners, so you don't have to explain the rules of the game to me.

in hot pursuit

if you are in hot pursuit of someone or something, you are following closely behind them and trying hard to catch them • The gang fled from the scene of the crime with the police in hot pursuit. • (often + of) Jean immediately jumped into her car and set off in hot pursuit of the truck.

in the hot seat British, American & Australian

on the hot seat American

in a position where you are responsible for important or difficult things • He suddenly found himself in the hot seat, facing a hundred angry residents at a protest meeting. • She has been the woman in the hot seat at this company during the last five difficult years.

hotfoot

hotfoot it informal

to walk or run quickly • You'd better hotfoot it down to the video shop before it closes.

hots

to have the hots for sb very informal

to be strongly sexually attracted to someone • He's had the hots for Sue ever since he first met her.

hot-to-trot

hot-to-trot American, very informal sexually exciting or sexually excited • He used to buy her hot-to-trot underwear and little red lycra numbers with plunging necklines.

hour

in sb's hour of need

at a time when someone needs help very much • I shall never forget that they were the people who helped me in my hour of need.

hours

at all hours (of the day and night)

at any time of the day or night • They keep calling me on the phone at all hours to ask questions I've already answered.

at all hours (of the night)

very late at night • How do you expect me to sleep when you're playing loud music at all hours?

till all hours (of the night) until very late at night • They sit up till all hours of the night drinking beer and playing cards.

house

a house of cards

an organization or a plan that is very weak and can easily be destroyed • The organization that looked so solid and dependable turned out to be a house of cards.

bring the house down

if someone or something brings the house down during a play or show, they make the people watching it laugh or clap very loudly • The clown sang a duet with the talking horse, which brought the house down every night.

eat sb out of house and home humorous to eat most of the food that someone has in their house • The boys have only been back two days and they've already eaten me out of house and home.

get on like a house on fire informal

if two people get on like a house on fire, they like each other very much and become friends very quickly • I was worried that they wouldn't like each other, but in fact they're getting on like a house on fire.

get/put your own house in order to solve your own problems • You should put your own house in order before you start giving me advice.

not give sth/sb house room

to refuse to become involved with someone or something, because you do not like them or approve of them • A respectable organization shouldn't be giving house room to a bunch of bigoted fanatics.

on the house

if food or drink is on the house in a bar or restaurant, it is provided free by the owner • We had to wait for a table so they gave us all gin and tonics on the house.

houses

go (all) round the houses British

to waste time saying a lot of things that are not important before you get to the subject you want to talk about • There's no need to go all round the houses, just tell me straight out what's wrong.

how

And how! American & Australian

something that you say in order to emphasize that you agree with what someone has just said • 'It was a great game last night.' 'And how!'

huddle

get/go into a huddle

to form a group away from other people to discuss something secretly • They went into a huddle for a minute, then accepted the offer.

hue

a hue and cry

when there is a hue and cry about something, a lot of people complain noisily about it • Local people raised a terrible hue and cry about the plan to close the village school.

huff

huff and puff

- 1 to breathe noisily, usually because you have been doing physical exercise
  They're so unfit they start huffing and puffing if they have to run further than twenty yards.
- 2 informal to complain noisily about something but not be able to do anything about it • They huffed and puffed about the price, but eventually they paid up.

in a huff informal

feeling angry with someone because they have done or said something to upset you • She's in a huff because I forgot to call her last night. • He walked off in a huff because I hadn't saved him a space at the table.

human

To err is human, (to forgive, divine).

forma

something that you say which means it is natural to make mistakes and it is important to forgive people when they do

You'd think he could find it in his heart to forgive her. To err is human and all that.

hump

be over the hump American, informal

to be past the most difficult or dangerous part of an activity or period of time • We're over the hump now. I'm back at work and we've repaid our debts.

get the hump British, informal

to get annoyed or upset with someone because you think they have done something bad to you • Tony got the hump because he thought we hadn't invited him to the party.

have got the hump British, informal • She's got the hump because I forgot her birthday.

hunky-dory X

be hunky-dory informal

if a situation is hunky-dory, there are no problems and people are happy • It's no good pretending everything is hunky-dory. I heard you two arguing last night.

hush

hush money

money that you pay someone to stop them telling anyone else about something that you want to keep secret • His assistant had been paid hush money to stop him from speaking to the press.

hustle

hustle and bustle

busy and noisy activity • (usually + of) He wanted a little cottage far away from the hustle and bustle of city life.

ice

be on ice ×

if plans are on ice, they are not going to be dealt with until some point in the future • Both projects are on ice until the question of funding is resolved.

put sth on ice • Plans for a women-only film screening have been put on ice following threats of legal action.

break the ice

to make people who have not met before feel more relaxed with each other • We played a couple of party games to break the ice.

an ice-breaker • We usually start the session with an ice-breaker in the form of a game.

cut no ice with sb

if something cuts no ice with someone, it does not cause them to change their opinion or decision • I've heard her excuses and they cut no ice with me.

ideas

put ideas into sb's head

to make someone want to do something they had not thought about doing before, especially something stupid • (often in continuous tenses) Don't go putting ideas into his head. We haven't got the money for a car. • Who put all these ideas into her head about becoming an actress?

ifs

no ifs and buts British & Australian no ifs, ands or buts American

something that you say to a child to stop them arguing with you when you want them to do something • I want no ifs and buts, just tidy your room like I told you to! • No ifs, ands or buts, you're going up to bed now!

ignorance

Ignorance is bliss.

something that you say which means if you do not know about a problem or an unpleasant fact, you do not worry about it • I wish the newspapers would stop telling us about the dangers of eating meat. It seems to me ignorance is bliss.

ill

be ill at ease X

to feel anxious or embarrassed • (often + with) He always felt a little ill at ease with strangers. • (sometimes + in) The girl behind the bar looked ill at ease in her uniform.

It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good).

something that you say which means most bad things that happen have a good result for someone • But it's an ill wind. The wettest June in history has replenished the reservoirs.

in

You're in there! British, informal something that you say in order to tell someone that another person is sexually attracted to them • Did you see how that girl was looking at you? You're in there, mate!

in absentia

in absentia formal

if something happens to someone in absentia, they are not present when it happens to them • The court convicted her in absentia and fined her $500.

inch

be every inch sth

to be a particular kind of person in every way • He looked every inch the slick, city businessman.

An inch is a small measurement of length. It is used in the following phrases connected with a small amount.

beat sb to within an inch of their life

to attack someone so violently that they almost die • She was beaten to within an inch of her life on a back street in London.

not budge/give an inch

to refuse to change your opinion or agree to even very small changes that another person wants • I keep asking her to think again, but she won't budge an inch. • (sometimes + on) He refuses to give an inch on health and safety issues.

come within an inch of doing sth

to very nearly do something, especially something dangerous or exciting • I came within an inch of losing my life on the rocks below.

Give sb an inch and thev'll take a mile.

something that you say which means that if you allow someone to behave badly at all, they will start to behave very badly
• I'm always wary about making concessions to these people. Give them an inch and they'll take a mile.

not trust sb an inch British & Australian to not trust someone at all • He's charming enough but I wouldn't trust him an inch.

indian

an Indian summer

- 1 a period of warm weather which sometimes happens in early autumn
  Both the UK and Ireland have been enjoying an Indian summer over the past few weeks.
- 2 a successful or pleasant period in someone's life, especially towards the end of their life • The book describes the last 20 years of Churchill's life, including his Indian summer as prime minister between 1951 and 1955.

in flagrante delicto

in flagrante (delicto) humorous

if someone is discovered in flagrante delicto, they are discovered doing something wrong, especially having sex with someone who is not their husband or wife • She came home to catch her husband in flagrante delicto with the next-door neighbour.

influence

under the influence

if someone is under the influence, they are drunk • Were you serious last night about wanting a baby or was it just because you were under the influence?

• Driving under the influence is a very serious offence.

in loco parentis

in loco parentis formal

to be responsible for a child while the child's parents are absent • Teachers are in loco parentis while children are at school.

ins

the ins and outs informal

the details or facts about something • (usually + of) I don't know all the ins and outs of the situation but I gather Roger and Mark haven't been getting on too well.

inside

an inside job X

a crime committed by someone against the organization that they work for • (not used with the) The computers were taken from a locked room, which makes it look like an inside job.

have the inside track mainly American

to have a special position within an organization or a special relationship with a person that gives you advantages that other people do not have • (often + with) He thinks I have the inside track with the director so he keeps hassling me for information.

know sth inside out informal

to know everything about a subject • Why don't you ask Mike? He knows the system inside out.

insignificance

fade/pale into insignificance

if something pales into insignificance, it does not seem at all important when compared to something else • When your child's ill, everything else pales into insignificance. • With the outbreak of war all else fades into insignificance.

in situ

in situ formal

if something is in situ, it is in its original place • The cave paintings must be viewed in situ because they are considered too delicate to be moved to a museum.

insult

add insult to injury

to make a bad situation even worse for someone by doing something else to upset them • First of all he arrived an hour late and then, to add insult to injury, he proceeded to complain about my choice of restaurant.

intents

to all intents and purposes

in all the most important ways • We've got a few odd things to finish, but to all intents and purposes the job is done.
• They redesigned the old model and created something which was to all intents and purposes a brand new car.

interference

run interference American

to help someone achieve something by dealing with the people or problems that might prevent them from doing so • (usually + for) When it comes to finding a hotel room, you'll be glad to have a tourist guide run interference for you.

inverted

in inverted commas British & Australian something that you say when a phrase you are using to describe something is the phrase that people usually use but it does not really show the truth in Inverted commas are a pair of printed marks put at the beginning and end of a word or phrase to show that someone else has written or said it.

They were the kind of well-meaning people that wanted to 'do good' in inverted commas.

iron

an iron fist/hand in a velvet glove

something that you say when you are describing someone who seems to be gentle but is in fact severe and firm • To enforce each new law the president uses persuasion first, and then force – the iron hand in the velvet glove.

an iron man American & Australian

a man who is physically very strong and can work hard for a long time • He likes to think of himself as some sort of iron man who doesn't need sleep like the rest of us.

pump iron informal

to lift heavy objects for exercise in order to increase your strength or to improve your appearance • These days, both men and women pump iron for fitness.

rule (sb) with a rod of iron British,

American & Australian

rule (sb) with an iron fist/hand American & Australian

to control a group of people very firmly, having complete power over everything that they do • For 17 years she ruled the country with a rod of iron. • My uncle rules the family business with an iron hand.

strike while the iron is hot

to do something immediately while you have a good chance of achieving success • You may not get a better offer – I'd strike while the iron's hot, if I were you.

irons

have [a few/a lot etc.] irons in the fire

to have several jobs at the same time or to have several possibilities of work • If that job application doesn't work out I've got a couple more irons in the fire.

itchy

have itchy feet British & Australian, informal

to want to travel or to do something different • Why've you got all these travel brochures? Do you have itchy feet?

get itchy feet British & Australian, informal • He's been in the same job for too long and he's getting itchy feet.

ivories

tickle/tinkle the ivories humorous

to play the piano De The parts of a piano that you press to play it used to be made of a hard white substance called ivory.

• Grandma could tickle the ivories like a professional.

ivory

an ivory tower

if you are in an ivory tower, you are in a place or situation where you are separated from ordinary life and its problems • How much of the research done by academics in their ivory towers is ever read or published?

206

ivy

ivy

the Ivy League American
a group of old and very good colleges in the north-east of the US • The company thinks the best management trainees come from the Ivy League.

Ivy League American • He doesn't have the Ivy League education of some of his opponents. • He hated the Ivy League conformity of the college.

jack

a jack of all trades X

someone who has many skills or who does many different jobs • Bill can do plumbing, carpentry, or a bit of gardening - he's a jack of all trades, really.

a Jack the Lad British, informal,

old-fashioned

a confident and not very serious young man who behaves as he wants to without thinking about other people • Three children with three different women? Well, he always was a bit of a Jack the Lad.

jackpot

hit the jackpot

to be very successful, often in a way which means you make a lot of money • When my second book was published I thought I'd really hit the jackpot.

jack robinson

before you can say Jack Robinson

old-fashioned

if you say that something happens before you can say Jack Robinson, it happens very suddenly • I offered her a chocolate but before you could say Jack Robinson she'd eaten half the box.

jam

jam tomorrow British

something that you want which you are told you will get soon but which never appears • Nobody will accept a pay cut, and it's not enough to promise jam tomorrow.

be in (a bit of) a jam old-fashioned

to be in a difficult situation • I'm in bit of a jam. Could you possibly lend me some money till next week?

Jane Doe

Jane Doe American

a woman or girl whose name must be kept secret or is not known, especially in a court of law • A former employee, referred to only as Jane Doe, is suing the company for unfair discrimination.

jazz

and all that jazz informal

and other similar things • They sell televisions and all that jazz.

Jekyll

a Jekyll and Hyde

someone whose personality has two different parts, one very nice and the other very unpleasant En This phrase comes from the book The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson. • You can't depend on him to be friendly—he's a Jekyll and Hyde.

Jekyll and Hyde • Many alcoholics develop Jekyll and Hyde personalities.

je ne sais quoi

a je ne sais quoi

a pleasant quality which you cannot describe or name • He's not particularly attractive but he has a certain je ne sais quoi which women find irresistible.

jewel

the jewel in the crown

the best or most valuable thing in a group of things • (often + of) The island of Tresco, with its beautiful tropical gardens, is the jewel in the crown of the Scilly Isles.

jiggery-pokery

jiggery-pokery old-fashioned

secret activities that are not honest • We suspect there's been some financial jiggery-pokery going on in the accounts department.

iim crow

Jim Crow American

a situation that existed until the 1960s in the south of the US, when black people were treated badly, especially by being separated from white people in public places Dim Crow was the name of a black character in a 19th century song and dance act. • Jim Crow meant there were no black kids in white schools.

Jim Crow American • (always before noun) As soon as he moved to Tenessee, he became aware of the Jim Crow laws.

jitters

get the jitters informal

to feel anxious, especially before an important event • I always get the jitters before an interview.

give sb the jitters informal • Don't drive so fast. You're giving me the jitters.

job

a job lot British & Australian a collection of objects that are bought or sold together as a group • I bought a job

do a job on sb/sth mainly American, informal

lot of furniture at an auction.

to hurt or damage someone or something

He really did a job on her, telling her how much he loved her and then leaving her.

 Someone sure did a job on this table – there are scratches all over it.

do the job informal X

if something does the job, it is suitable for a particular purpose • Here, this knife should do the job. • I needed to tie the two parts together and an old stocking did the job perfectly.

fall down on the job

to fail to do something that you should do

The armed forces will take over if the local authorities fall down on the job.

It's more than my job's worth. British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to tell someone that you cannot do what they want you to do because you would lose your job if you did • I'm sorry, but it'd be more than my job's worth to take any money from you.

a Job's comforter old-fashioned

someone who tries to make you feel happier but makes you feel worse instead Job was a character in the Bible who had a lot of bad things happen to him.

She's a real Job's comforter. She keeps telling me I'm going to die soon anyway so I shouldn't worry about anything.

lie down on the job

to not work as hard at something as you should • The new Police Chief fired two officers he accused of lying down on the job.

jobs

jobs for the boys British & Australian

work that is given by someone who is in an important position to their friends or members of their family • They operated a system of jobs for the boys.

Joe Bloggs

Joe Bloggs British & Australian

an ordinary person • There's no point asking your average Joe Bloggs what he thinks about opera.

Joe Blow

Joe Blow American & Australian an ordinary person • Television today is geared to your average Joe Blow.

Joe Public

Joe Public British, informal

the public • The test of any new product is will Joe Public buy it?

John Bull

John Bull old-fashioned

a character who represents a typical English man or the English people This phrase comes from a book called The History of John Bull written by John Arbuthnot in 1712. • In the cartoon, John Bull appears as a short, stocky figure wearing a waistcoat with the British flag on.

John Doe

John Doe American

a man or boy whose real name must be kept secret or is not known, especially in a court of law • The patient was referred to in court documents as John Doe.

John Hancock

your John Hancock American, humorous

your signature S John Hancock's signature was the first signature on the American Declaration of Independence in 1776 • If you put your John Hancock on the last page we'll be finished with the formalities.

Johnny-come-lately

a Johnny-come-lately old-fashioned someone who has only recently started a job or activity and has suddenly become very successful • She denies suggestions that she's a Johnny-come-lately, saying that she has worked for years to get her own show.

Johnny-on-the-spot

Johnny-on-the-spot American, informal someone who is immediately ready to do something, especially to help someone
• This guy had just gotten a flat tire, and there I was, Johnny-on-the-spot with my tools in the back of the car.

John Q Public

John Q Public American, humorous the public • You have to ask yourself what John Q Public will think when he hears about the government overspending.

joie de vivre

joie de vivre

a feeling of happiness and enjoyment of life • She will be remembered above all for her kindness and her great joie de vivre.

joke

get/go beyond a joke

if a situation gets beyond a joke, it becomes extremely serious and worrying • He's drunk more nights than he's sober these days – this has gone beyond a joke.

the joke's on sb

something that you say which means someone who tried to make other people seem silly has made themselves seem silly instead • The burglars managed to lock themselves into the house until the police arrived, so the joke's on them!

joker

the joker in the pack

someone or something that could change a situation in a way that you do not expect • The independent candidate is the joker in the pack in this election.

joking

You must be joking! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone you do not think something they have said is serious because it is not likely to be true or to happen • 'Did Alex get you a present, then?' 'You must be joking! He didn't even remember it was my birthday.'

You're joking! informal something that you say when you are very surprised by what someone has just told you • 'They're getting married, you know' 'You're joking! They've only known each other a month.'

jolly

be jolly hockey sticks British, humorous

if a woman or situation is jolly hockey sticks, the woman or the people involved in that situation belong to a high social class, and often talk in a very happy way that seems false • Well, she's okay, but a little jolly hockey sticks, if you know what I mean.

Joneses

keep up with the Joneses

to try to own all the same things as people you know in order to seem as good as them • Her only concern in life was keeping up with the Joneses.

joy

jump for joy

to be very happy about something good that has happened • Tina jumped for joy when she found out she'd be in the team.

judgment

a judgment call American

a decision someone has to make using their own ideas and opinions in Insport, a judgment call is a decision made by an official in a competition using their own opinion of what they have seen. • It's a judgment call—do we go by plane or risk taking the car to the conference?

sit in judgment on/over sb

to say that what someone has done is morally wrong, believing yourself to be better • We none of us have the right to sit in judgment on our fellow man.

jugular

go for the jugular informal

to criticize someone very cruelly by talking about what you know will hurt them most The jugular is a large vein that carries blood to the heart.

Cunningham, who usually goes straight for the jugular, seemed strangely reluctant to say anything.

juice

stew in your own juice/juices informal

if you leave someone to stew in their own juice, you leave them to worry about something bad that has happened or something stupid they have done • She'll calm down – just leave her to stew in her own juices for a bit.

jump

get a/the jump on sb/sth mainly

American, informal to start doing something before other people start, or before something happens, in order to get an advantage for yourself • If I leave work early on Fridays I can get a jump on the traffic.

jury

the jury is (still) out

if the jury is still out on a subject, no decision has been made or the answer is not yet certain • (usually + on) The jury's still out on whether animal experiments are really necessary. • We asked people to comment on the latest male fashions, but it seems the jury's out.

iust

not be just a pretty face humorous

if someone is not just a pretty face, they are not only attractive but also intelligent • 'How did you know that?' 'Well, I'm not just a pretty face, you know.'

be just the job British & Australian be just the ticket British, old-fashioned to be perfect for a particular purpose • He needed a car to pick her up in and Will's sports car seemed just the job.

get your just deserts

if you get your just deserts, something bad happens to you that you deserve because of something bad you have done • Did you read about the burglar whose own house was broken into? He really got his just deserts.

kangaroo

a kangaroo court

a court of law which is not official and which judges someone in an unfair way

• A kangaroo court was set up by the strikers to deal with people who had refused to stop working.

keen

be as keen as mustard British &

Australian, old-fashioned

to be very eager • Why don't we ask Tom to captain the cricket team? He's as keen as mustard.

keep

Keep your shirt on! British, American & Australian, informal

Keep your hair on! British & Australian, informal a slightly impolite way of telling someone who is angry to try to be calm and patient • Keep your shirt on! I'll be with you in a second.

keep yourself to yourself

if you keep yourself to yourself, you live a quiet life and avoid doing things with or talking to other people • We don't know anything about her, she keeps herself to herself.

keeper

not be your brother's keeper not be sb's keeper

to not be responsible for what someone does or for what happens to them • It's all too easy for us not to intervene in another country's problems, telling ourselves that we're not our brother's keeper. • You shouldn't blame yourself for what's happened to Simon. You're not his keeper, you know.

keeping

in keeping with sth

in a way that is suitable or right for a particular situation, style, or tradition • In keeping with tradition, we always have turkey on Christmas Day. • Her millionaire lifestyle is very much in keeping with her celebrity status.

OPPOSITE OUT OF Keeping with sth • The antique desk seems out of keeping with the modern furniture in the rest of the house.

keeps

for keeps informal 📉

for ever • 'Do you want your tennis racket back?' 'No, it's yours for keeps.' • She said she's left him for keeps this time.

play for keeps American & Australian, informal

to do something very seriously and not just for enjoyment • These arms dealers play for keeps – they want the best weapons available and will do anything to get them.

ken

be beyond sb's ken

if a particular subject is beyond your ken, you do not understand it or know much about it • Don't talk to me about finance – it's beyond my ken. • Most of Derrida's work is beyond the ken of the average student.

kept

a kept man/woman humorous

someone who does not work and who is given money and a place to live by the person who they are having a sexual relationship with • She was determined to find work and not become a kept woman like her sister:

kerb-crawler

a kerb-crawler British & Australian

a curb-crawler American

someone who drives slowly along a road looking for someone to have sex with • I don't like walking down this road at night – it's full of prostitutes and kerb-crawlers. kerb-crawling British & Australian curb-crawling American • There was a big scandal after the judge was prosecuted for kerb-crawling.

kettle

be another/a different kettle of fish

if you say that something or someone is a different kettle of fish, you mean that they are completely different from something or someone else that has been talked about • Andy was never very interested in school, but Anna, now she was a completely different kettle of fish. • I'd driven an automatic for years but learning to handle a car with gears was another kettle of fish altogether.

a fine/pretty kettle of fish mainly American

a difficult situation • That's a fine kettle of fish – the car won't start and I have to leave in five minutes.

key

hold the key

to provide the explanation for something that you could not previously understand • Fiennes, who had been looking for the place for twenty years, became convinced that this road held the key.

kibosh

put the kibosh on sth old-fashioned, informal

to prevent something that is planned from happening • The rain put the kibosh on our plans for a picnic.

kick

kick sb when they're down

to do something bad to someone when you know they already have a lot of problems • His wife left him last month and I don't want to kick a man when he's down, but we simply don't have any more work for him.

kick yourself

if you say that you'll kick yourself when or if something happens, you mean that you will feel angry with yourself because you have done something stupid or missed an opportunity • You'll kick yourself when I tell you who came in just after you left. • If I don't get one now and they've sold out by next week, I'll kick myself.

kick up a fuss/row/stink

to complain loudly in order to show that you are very annoyed about something • Our food was cold so my father kicked up a fuss and refused to pay the service charge.

a kick in the teeth

if you describe the way someone treats you as a kick in the teeth, you mean that they treat you badly and unfairly, especially at a time when you need their support • She was refused promotion, which was a real kick in the teeth after all the extra work she'd done.

kick sb in the teeth • She'd only been trying to help him and she felt that she'd been kicked in the teeth.

a kick up the arse/backside British & Australian, very informal

a kick in the butt/pants American & Australian, very informal

if you give someone a kick up the arse, you do or say something to try to stop them being lazy • He does nothing but watch TV all day. His mother should give him a kick up the backside. • The threat of losing my job was the kick in the pants I needed.

get a kick out of sth/doing sth informal to enjoy doing something very much • Anyone who gets a kick out of horror movies will love this show. • I get a real kick out of shopping for new shoes.

kick-off

for a kick-off informal

something that you say which means that what you are going to say next is the first of a list of things you could say • 'What's wrong with it?' 'Well, for a kick off, it hasn't been cooked properly.'

kicks

for kicks informal

if you do something for kicks, especially something dangerous, you do it because you think it is exciting • Local kids steal cars and race them up and down the street, just for kicks.

kid

be like a kid in a candy store American & Australian

to be very happy and excited about the things around you, and often to react to them in a way which is silly and not controlled • You should have seen him when they arrived. He was like a kid in a candy store.

handle/treat sb with kid gloves

to be very polite or kind to someone who is important or easily upset because you do not want to make them angry or upset Exid gloves are gloves made from very soft leather which would feel very soft if someone touched you with them. • Linda can be a very difficult woman — you've really got to handle her with kid gloves.

kids

kids' stuff British & Australian kid stuff American

an activity or piece of work that is very easy • A five-mile bike ride? That's kids' stuff.

kill

kill or cure British & Australian

a way of solving a problem which will either fail completely or be very successful • Having a baby can be kill or cure for a troubled marriage.

move in for the kill go (in) for the kill

to prepare to defeat someone completely in an argument or competition when they are already in a weak position • After two days of constant media coverage, journalists sensed the minister was weakening and they moved in for the kill. • At 6-3 6-2 up, Sampras went in for the kill and won the final set 6-0.

killing

make a killing informal

to earn a lot of money very easily • (often + on) She made a killing on the house so she can't be short of money.

kilter

out of kilter

1 if something is out of kilter, it is not operating or working as it should • Even

- one sleepless night can throw your body out of kilter.
- 2 if two things are out of kilter, or if one thing is out of kilter with another, they are not similar any more (often + with) A further tax increase on cigarettes would put Britain out of kilter with the rest of Europe.

kindly

not take kindly to sth

to not like something that someone says or does • Be careful what you say to Mike – he doesn't take kindly to criticism. • I didn't take kindly to being thrown out of the team.

kindness

kill sb with kindness

to be too kind to someone • Rob's killing me with kindness – he phones me all the time to see if I'm alright when really I just need to be left alone.

king

king of the castle British

king of the hill American

the most successful or most powerful person in a group of people • Jamie Spence was king of the castle yesterday when he beat the defending champion in the third round. • Our team is sure to be king of the hill this year.

a king's ransom

a very large amount of money • (not used with the) She was wearing a diamond necklace which must have been worth a king's ransom.

live like a king

to live in a very comfortable way with all the luxuries you want • He lived like a king for six months, drinking champagne and driving a Porsche, until the money finally ran out.

kingdom

blast/blow sb/sth to kingdom come

informal

to kill someone or destroy something by using a gun or bomb • Fifteen soldiers were blown to kingdom come in the attack.

· Police discovered a bomb which was large enough to blast the whole town to kingdom come.

214

till/until kingdom come

for a very long time \( \begin{align*} \begin{align*} 'Until Kingdom come' is a phrase from a prayer in the Bible and means 'until the world ends'. \( \begin{align*} I \) don't want to wait until kingdom come for you to decide what you're doing.

kinks

iron out the kinks mainly American

to get rid of any problems that you are having with the way that you are doing something • The team was still trying to iron out the kinks in their game in the last quarter.

kiss

kiss and make up humorous

if two people kiss and make up, they stop being angry with each other and become friendly again • Ian and I used to fight a lot, but we always kissed and made up afterwards.

kiss and tell

to talk on television, in a newspaper etc. about a sexual relationship you have had with a famous person, especially in order to get a lot of money • The singer's exgirlfriend was paid £20,000 by a tabloid newspaper to kiss and tell.

kiss-and-tell • (always before noun) Her kiss-and-tell revelations scandalized Hollywood.

the kiss of death informal

an event or action that causes something to fail or be spoiled • (often + for) Asking Jenny to cook is the kiss of death for any dinner party.

give sb the kiss of life British & Australian

to help someone who has stopped breathing to breathe again by blowing into their mouth and pressing their chest • A doctor who had witnessed the accident gave the victim the kiss of life but failed to revive him.

kissing

a kissing cousin old-fashioned

someone you are related to but not very closely • I didn't realize she knew Tony, but in fact, they're kissing cousins.

kitchen

everything but the kitchen sink

humorous

a lot of different things, many of which you do not need • We were only going away for the weekend, but Jack insisted on taking everything but the kitchen sink.

kitchen-sink

kitchen-sink British & Australian

a kitchen-sink play, film, or style of painting is one which shows ordinary people's lives • (always before noun) Kitchen-sink drama came into fashion in the 1950s. • In his latest work, he is moving away from kitchen-sink realism towards a more experimental style of painting.

kite

kite-flying British & Australian

the act of telling people about an idea or plan so that you can find out what they think about it • Mr Baker's hint about US intervention in the war was undoubtedly an exercise in kite-flying.

Go fly a kite! mainly American, informal something that you say in order to tell someone who is annoying you to go away • Go fly a kite! It's just not funny any more.

kith

kith and kin old-fashioned

friends and relatives Kith is an old-fashioned word which means friends.

 They wanted to keep alive the memory of their kith and kin who had died in the war.

kittens

have kittens informal

to become very worried or upset about something • She nearly had kittens when I said I was going to buy a motorbike.

kitty-corner

kitty-corner American

kitty-cornered American

in a direction from one corner of a square to the opposite, far corner • (often + to) You know the building – it's kitty-corner to my office.

knee

put sb over your knee old-fashioned to punish a child by hitting them on the bottom • Her father threatened to put her over his knee if she missed school again.

knee-deep

be knee-deep in sth

to have too much of something • I'm kneedeep in work at the moment, so I'm not stopping for lunch.

knee-high

be knee-high to a grasshopper

humorous

to be very young  $\stackrel{}{\approx}$  A grasshopper is an extremely small insect. • The last time I came here I was knee-high to a grasshopper:

knees

bring sb/sth to their knees

to destroy or defeat someone or something • Sanctions were imposed in an attempt to bring the country to its knees.
• The strikes brought the economy to its knees.

knickers

get your knickers in a twist British & Australian, informal get your knickers in a knot Australian, informal to become very upset about something, usually something that is not important • Now, before you get your knickers in a twist, let me explain the situation.

knife

cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter

to cut something very easily • A laser beam can cut through metal like a hot knife through butter.

go under the knife

to have a medical operation • More and more women are choosing to go under the knife just to improve their appearance.

under the knife humorous • The hospital is worried about the number of patients who have died under the knife.

Knife is used in the following phrases connected with unpleasant behaviour.

have your knife into sb British &

Australian, informal

to try to cause problems for someone because you do not like them • Mike's had his knife into me ever since he found out I was seeing his ex-girlfriend.

put/stick the knife in British &

Australian, informal

to do or say something unpleasant to someone in an unkind way • 'No one in the office likes you, you know, Tim', she said, putting the knife in. • The reviewer from The Times really stuck the knife in, calling it the worst play he'd seen in years.

turn/twist the knife

to do or say something unpleasant which makes someone who is already upset feel worse • Having made the poor girl cry, he twisted the knife by saying she was weak and unable to cope with pressure.

a turn/twist of the knife • 'I never loved you', she said, with a final twist of the knife.

knife-edge

on a knife-edge

if a person or organization is on a knifeedge, they are in a difficult situation and are worried about what will happen in the future • She's been living on a knifeedge since her ex-husband was released from prison last month. • The theatre is on a financial knife-edge and must sell 75% of its seats every night to survive.

knight

- a knight in shining armour British & Australian
- a knight in shining armor American & Australian someone who helps you when you are in a difficult situation in In stories about medieval times (= the time between 500 and 1500 AD), knights were soldiers who rode on horses and helped women in difficult or dangerous situations. • She looked around the bar to see if there was a knight in shining armour who might come and save her from this awful man.

knitting

stick to your knitting

if a person or company sticks to their knitting, they continue to do what they have always done instead of trying to do something they know very little about • He believes the key to a company's success is to stick to its knitting rather than trying to diversify.

knives

the knives are out British & Australian something that you say which means that a group of people are angry with someone and want to criticize them or cause problems for them • (often + for) The knives are out for Danvers following his team's poor performance in six successive games.

knobs

with (brass) knobs on British &

Australian, humorous

if you describe something as a particular thing with knobs on, you mean it has similar qualities to that thing but they are more extreme • Disney World was like an ordinary amusement park with knobs on.

knock

Knock it off! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone to stop doing something that is annoying you • Knock it off, will you? I can't work with all that noise.

take a knock

to be badly affected by something • His reputation has taken quite a knock following the revelations published in his recent biography.

knock-down-drag-out

knock-down-drag-out American

a knock-down-drag-out fight or argument is very serious and continues for a long time • (always before noun) Look, I don't want to get into a knock-down-drag-out fight with you over this so let's forget it.

knocking

a knocking shop British, very informal

a knock-shop Australian, very informal a place where men pay to have sex with women • People say it's a knocking shop but I've never seen anything going on.

knot

tie the knot informal

to get married • When are you two going to tie the knot? • (often + with) She's planning to tie the knot with her German boyfriend next June.

knots

tie yourself (up) in knots

- 1 to become very confused or worried when you are trying to make a decision or solve a problem • (often + over) They tied themselves in knots over the seating arrangements.
- 2 British & Australian to become very confused when you are trying to explain something • She tied herself up in knots trying to tell me how to operate the video recorder.

knotted

Get knotted! British & Australian,

informal, old-fashioned

an impolite way of telling someone who is annoying you to go away • Oh, get knotted, will you, I'm trying to work!

know

know what's what

if you know what's what, you have a lot of experience and can judge people and situations well • Harry's been in the business for 40 years – he knows what's what.

know where you stand

to know what someone thinks about you, how they expect you to behave, and how they are likely to behave themselves • She's quite a strict boss, but at least you know where you stand with her. • Peter didn't even send me a birthday card, so I know where I stand now.

not know where to put yourself informal to feel very embarrassed • And then he started to sing. Well, I didn't know where to put myself!

not know whether to laugh or cry

to be extremely upset by something bad that has happened • Then they announced that my flight was delayed for ten hours. I didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

not know if/whether you are coming or going to be unable to think clearly and decide what to do because you have so many things to deal with • I had so much to do yesterday that I didn't know whether I was coming or going. • The recent changes in the school curriculum mean that most teachers don't know if they're coming or going.

be in the know informal

to know about something which most people do not know about • The resort is considered by those who are in the know to have the best downhill skiing in Europe.

What you don't know won't hurt you.

something that you say which means that if you do not know about a fact or a problem, you do not worry about it • 'Tell me how much you spent on the car, then.'

'No, what you don't know won't hurt you.'

wouldn't know sth if it hit you in the

wouldn't know sth if you fell over one to not notice something although it is very obvious • Julie wouldn't know a good deal if it hit her in the face!

know-all

- a know-all British & Australian
- a know-it-all American & Australian someone who seems to know everything and annoys other people by showing how clever they are • No one likes him because he's such a know-all.

knuckle

a knuckle sandwich humorous

if you give someone a knuckle sandwich, you hit them • You'll get a knuckle sandwich if you don't shut up.

labour

a labour of love British & Australian a labor of love American & Australian an activity that is hard work but that you do because you enjoy it • He prefers to paint the house himself – it's a real labour of love.

ladder

at the top of the ladder

in the highest position in an organization • He's at the top of the ladder after a long and successful career:

OPPOSITE at the bottom of the ladder

• She started at the bottom of the ladder, but was rapidly promoted.

lady

Lady Bountiful

a woman who enjoys showing people how rich and kind she is by giving things to poor people & Bountiful means generous. • I've got a lot of clothes that they might make use of but I'm worried they they might see me as some sort of Lady Bountiful.

Lady Muck British & Australian,

humorous

a woman who thinks she is very important and should be treated better than everyone else • Look at Lady Muck over there, expecting everyone to wait on her!

lady-killer

a lady-killer old-fashioned

a man who has sexual relationships with a lot of women • With his good looks and charm, he was often cast as the lady-killer in films.

lager

a lager lout British

a young man who drinks too much alcohol and is then noisy, rude, or violent • (often plural) They'd ended up in some cheap holiday resort that was full of

lah-di-dah

lah-di-dah old-fashioned

British lager louts.

la-di-da old-fashioned

a woman who is lah-di-dah thinks she is better than other people and tries to speak as if she is from a high social class

No one really liked her in the village.
 They all thought she was a bit lah-di-dah.

laid-back

laid-back

a person who is laid-back is very relaxed and does not get anxious or angry very often • I can imagine he's good to work for – he seems very laid-back. • He comes across as your typical laid-back Californian.

laissez-faire

laissez-faire

1 the principle that businesses should not be controlled by the government • The previous government had a policy of laissez-faire, whereas this government wants a closer partnership with industry.

laissez-faire • (always before noun) They have adopted a laissez-faire approach to business.

2 the wish not to control people or not to become involved in their actions • There are no effective laws to protect women from abusive husbands. An attitude of laissezfaire prevails.

laissez-faire • (always before noun) The problems in our education system, she said, would not be solved by a laissez-faire approach.

lake

Go jump in a/the lake! informal

an impolite way of telling someone to go away and stop annoying you • This guy just wouldn't leave us alone, so finally I told him to go jump in the lake.

lam

on the lam mainly American, informal running away from the police or someone in authority in order to escape going to prison • He finally gave himself up to the police after 12 years on the lam.

lamb

like a lamb

if you go somewhere that you are being forced to go like a lamb, you go there calmly and without complaining • I thought I was going to have to drag her screaming to school but when the time came she went like a lamb.

like a lamb to the slaughter

something that you say about someone who does something or goes somewhere calmly and happily, not knowing that something unpleasant is going to happen to them Dible. The slaughter is the time when animals are killed for their meat. • Here comes the bride, like a lamb to the slaughter:

lame

a lame duck

- 1 a person or company that is in trouble and needs help • In under two years, it was transformed from a state-owned lame duck into a successful company.
- 2 someone, especially an elected official, who cannot influence events any more, often because their job is going to end soon The Mayor intends to run for reelection to avoid being thought of as a lame duck.

lame-duck mainly American • (always before noun) Having lost control of Congress, he was in danger of becoming a lame-duck president.

land

the land of milk and honey

a country where people from other countries would like to live because they imagine that the living conditions are excellent and it is easy to make money • People in poorer parts of the world still look on the States as the land of milk and honey.

be in the land of nod old-fashioned to be sleeping • Joe's in the land of nod at last.

be in the land of the living humorous

to be awake • She was partying till the early hours so I don't imagine she'll be in the land of the living before lunchtime.

find out/see how the land lies

to get information about a situation before making decisions or taking action • I thought I'd better call my mother and see how the land lies before inviting myself home for the weekend.

the lie of the land British & Australian the lay of the land American & Australian • It's always a good idea to find out the lie of the land before applying to a company.

land-office

do a land-office business American, oldfashioned

if a company does a land-office business, they are very successful in selling their product • They only set up the company eight months ago and they're doing a land-office business.

lap

be in the lap of the gods

if the result of a situation is in the lap of the gods, you cannot control what will happen • I've sent in my application form and I've sorted out my references so it's in the lap of the gods now.

drop/fall into your lap

if something good falls into your lap, you get it without making any effort • You can't expect the ideal job to just fall into your lap – you've got to go out there and look for it.

in the lap of luxury

if you are in the lap of luxury, you live in conditions of much comfort because you have a lot of money • I have to earn enough to keep my wife in the lap of luxury. • They live in the lap of luxury in a huge great house in the south of France.

lard-arse

a lard-arse British, very informal someone who is fat • You could do with a bit of exercise yourself, lard-arse! • Your brother's a bit of a lard-arse, isn't he?

large

by and large

generally or mostly • The films they show are, by and large, American imports.

loom large

if a subject looms large, it causes people to think or worry a lot • The threat of unemployment looms large in these people's lives.

last

last but not least

something that you say before introducing the last person or thing on a list, meaning that they are equally important • This is Jeremy, this is Kath, and, last but not least, this is Artie. • Right, I've got my money, my sunglasses and, last but not least, my lipstick.

a last hurrah mainly American

a final action or performance before someone finishes a job or activity • At 31, he knows this tournament may be his last hurrah.

the last gasp of sth literary

the end of a particular period or process

This period witnessed the decline and last gasp of the British Empire.

the last of the big spenders humorous

something that you say when you are spending very little money or when someone else is spending very little money • Just an orange juice and some peanuts, please. The last of the big spenders!

be on your last legs

- 1 informal to be going to die soon It looks as if her grandfather's on his last legs now.
- 2 informal to be very tired, especially after a lot of physical activity or work • I'd just done fifteen miles and I was on my last legs.

be on its last legs informal

if a machine is on its last legs, it is in bad condition because it is old and it will probably stop working soon • We've had the same vacuum cleaner for twenty years now and it's on its last legs.

be the last word in sth

to be the best or most modern example of something • It's a nice enough restaurant and it's very reasonably priced but it's not exactly the last word in style.

have heard/seen the last of sb/sth

if you have heard the last of someone or something unpleasant, they will not cause you any more problems in the future • (often negative) It's a worrying problem and I dare say we haven't heard the last of it. • He's a very unpleasant man. I sincerely hope we've seen the last of him.

have the last laugh

to make someone who has criticized or defeated you look stupid by succeeding at something more important or by seeing them fail • They fired her last year but she had the last laugh because she was taken on by their main rivals at twice the salary.

last-ditch

last-ditch

a last-ditch attempt to solve a problem is the final attempt that you make after you have failed several times to solve it • (always before noun) The gesture has been seen by many as a last-ditch attempt to win voters. • The UN is trying to secure talks between the two sides in a last-ditch effort to avert war.

last-gasp

last-gasp

achieved at the last possible moment • (always before noun) And with only a minute left, Brinkworth scored a last-gasp equaliser bringing the score to 2-2.

latchkey

a latchkey child/kid mainly American

a child who is often in the house alone because both parents are at work • My dad came home at seven in the evening and my mom only an hour earlier so I was a latchkey kid.

late

late in the day

too late to be useful • (often + for) The new gun laws came a little late in the day for those whose friends or families were killed in the massacre. • (often + to do sth) It seems rather late in the day to announce that diet drinks might cause cancer.

lather

be in a lather informal

to be very anxious about something • She was in a real lather when I left this morning because she couldn't find the tickets.

get (yourself) in/into a lather informal

• It's really not worth getting yourself into a lather over it.

laugh

be a laugh a minute informal

to be very funny and entertaining
This phrase is often used humorously to mean the opposite. • You know what Mark's like – he's not exactly a laugh a minute. • 'A two-hour meeting with Nigel Owen? I bet that was fun.' 'Oh, it was a laugh a minute.'

Don't make me laugh. informal something that you say when someone has suggested something that you think is not at all likely to happen • 'You never know, Pete might help out.' 'Pete? Help out? Don't make me laugh!'

laughing

a laughing stock

someone who does something very stupid which makes other people laugh at them • (usually + of) I can't cycle around on that old thing! I'll be the laughing stock of the neighbourhood.

be laughing all the way to the bank informal

if someone is laughing all the way to the bank, they have made a lot of money very easily, often because someone else has been stupid • If we don't take this opportunity, you can be sure our competitors will and they'll be laughing all the way to the bank.

be laughing on the other side of your face British, American & Australian, informal # be laughing out of the other side of your mouth American & Australian, informal

if you say someone who is happy will be laughing on the other side of their face, you are angry about the thing that is making them happy and think that something will soon happen to upset them • You'll be laughing out of the other side of your face if you fail your exams.

be laughing up your sleeve

to laugh at someone secretly, often in an unkind way • (often + at) He persuaded people to believe in him and all the time he was laughing up his sleeve at them.

be no laughing matter

if a subject is no laughing matter, it is serious and not something that people should make jokes about • Haemorrhoids are all very funny when other people have them, but if you get them yourself, it's no laughing matter.

laughter

Laughter is the best medicine.

something that you say which means that it is good for your physical and mental health to laugh • A visit from Camille always makes me feel better – she's so hilarious. It's like they say, laughter's the best medicine.

laundry

a laundry list mainly American X

a long list of subjects • (usually + of) It wasn't much of a speech – just a laundry list of accusations against the government.

laurels

look to your laurels

to make an extra effort to succeed because there is more competition • Nowadays there are a number of rival products on the market and the older, established companies are having to look to their laurels.

rest on your laurels

to be so satisfied with your own achievements that you make no effort to improve • Just because you passed all your exams, that's no reason to rest on your laurels.

law

the law of averages

the probability that you will get one result about the same number of times as another if you do something often enough • By the law of averages we can't give a good performance every night of the tour.

the law of the jungle

the way in which only the strongest and cleverest people in a society stay alive or succeed • I was brought up on the streets where the law of the jungle applies, so I soon learnt how to look after myself.

be a law unto yourself

if you are a law unto yourself, you do things differently to other people and ignore the usual rules • Charles certainly doesn't stick to the standard company procedures, but then, he's a law unto himself.

lay down the law

to tell people what they should do, without caring about how they feel • I'm not going to have someone come into this office and start laying down the law.

take the law into your own hands

to do something illegal in order to punish someone because you know that the law will not punish that person • One day, after years of violent abuse from her husband, she decided to take the law into her own hands.

there's no law against sth/doing sth informal

something that you say in order to tell someone who is criticizing you that you are not doing anything wrong • 'You were in the pub at lunchtime, weren't you?' 'Well, there's no law against it.' • 'Have you been shopping again?' 'What if I have? There's no law against spending money.'

lay

lay it on thick informal

lay it on with a trowel informal

to make an emotion or experience seem more important or serious than it really is • He'd injured his hand slightly but he was laying it on a bit thick about how painful it was. • They must have told us ten times how wonderful their daughter was – they were really laying it on with a trowel.

lead

go down like a lead balloon humorous

if something that you say or show to people goes down like a lead balloon, they do not like it at all • My joke about the alcoholic went down like a lead balloon.

put lead in your pencil British, humorous to increase a man's sexual ability • You to increase a man's sexual ability • You should eat a few oysters – that'll put some lead in your pencil.

have lead in your pencil British, humorous • 'My uncle's 65 and he's getting remarried.' 'He still has a bit of lead in his pencil then!'

swing the lead British & Australian, oldfashioned

to pretend to be ill so that you do not have to work • (usually in continuous tenses) And is she genuinely ill or is she just swinging the lead?

leading

a leading light

an important and respected person in a group or organization • (often + in) A leading light in the art and ballet world, he was a close friend of Princess Diana. • (often + of) Jeffries, at 23 a leading light of the campaign, was the first to speak.

leaf

shake like a leaf

to shake a lot because you are nervous or frightened • (usually in continuous tenses) I saw her just before her talk and she was shaking like a leaf.

take a leaf out of sb's book

to copy something that someone else does because it will bring you advantages • Maybe I should take a leaf out of Robert's book and start coming in at ten every morning.

league

be out of sb's league

to be too good or too expensive for you
• He was so good-looking and so popular that I felt he was out of my league.

leak

take a leak very informal to pass liquid waste out of the body • I'll be back in a moment - I've gotta take a leak.

leaps

by/in leaps and bounds

if progress or growth happens in leaps and bounds, it happens very quickly • Ashley's reading has come on in leaps and bounds since she's been at her new school. • Leaders of the organization say their membership is growing by leaps and bounds.

leash

have/keep sb on a short/tight leash

to have a lot of control over someone's behaviour and allow them very little freedom to do what they want • He doesn't go out with the lads so much these days. Michelle keeps him on a tight leash.

least

Least said, soonest mended. British &

Australian, old-fashioned something that you say which means a bad event or situation can be forgotten more easily if you do not talk about it • I've always thought it best not to dwell on grievances too long. Least said, soonest mended.

take the line/path of least resistance

to act in the way which will be easiest because you will not have to argue with other people about it • You could always take the line of least resistance and go with the majority vote.

left

the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing something that you say which means that communication in an organization is bad so that one part does not know what is happening in another part • I was sent the same letter from two different departments. I get the feeling the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing.

be left hanging (in the air/in midair)

if a problem or question is left hanging in the air, it is not dealt with or answered • We failed to resolve the issue at the last meeting and it was left hanging in the air.

be left holding the baby British be left holding the bag American

to suddenly have to deal with a difficult problem or responsibility because someone else has decided they do not want to deal with it • He abandoned the project after a year because he felt that it was going to fail and I was left holding the baby.

be out in left field

- 1 American, informal to be completely wrong • They're out in left field, blaming you for this fiasco.
- 2 American, informal to be very strange or very different from other people or things • She's kind of out in left field but she's fun.

left, right and centre British, informal right and left American, informal left and right American, informal

if something bad is happening left, right and centre, it is happening in a lot of places or to a lot of people • They were firing at people left, right and centre. • The Postal Service has been losing customers left and right these past couple of years.

leg

Break a leg!

something that you say to wish someone good luck, especially before they perform in the theatre Some people believe that if you say the words 'good luck' to an actor, you will bring them bad luck.

• (usually an order) 'Tonight's the first night of the play.' 'Is it? Well, break a leg!'

get your leg over British & Australian,

very informal

if a man gets his leg over, he succeeds in having sex with someone • How was the party, then? Did you get your leg over?

give sb a leg up informal

to help someone to be more successful • It must give you a leg up if you want to be an actor and your parents are both in the profession.

get a leg up informal • If you know people in the company you can sometimes get a leg up.

not have a leg to stand on

to be in a situation where you cannot prove something • The problem is, if you don't have a witness, you don't have a leg to stand on. • I haven't even got the receipt to prove where I bought it, so I don't have a leg to stand on.

have a leg up on sb American

to have an advantage over someone else
• She probably has a leg up on the other applicants for the job because she has more experience.

pull sb's leg informal

to tell someone something that is not true as a way of joking with them • (usually in continuous tenses) Is he really angry with me or do you think he's just pulling my leg?

Shake a leg! old-fashioned, informal something that you say in order to tell people to hurry up • Come on, shake a leg! The film starts in 20 minutes.

Show a leg! British, old-fashioned,

informal

something that you say in order to tell someone to get out of bed • Show a leg! It's past 11 o'clock.

legs

can talk the legs off an iron pot

Australian

if someone can talk the legs off an iron pot, they talk a lot  $\bullet$  I dread getting into a conversation with Gillian – she can talk the legs off an iron pot.

have legs mainly American

if a story in the news has legs, it will continue for a long time • This latest scandal has legs - you'll probably still be reading about it in a year's time.

lengths

go to great lengths to do sth

to try very hard to achieve something • I went to great lengths to explain the situation to him but he still didn't seem to understand.

go to any lengths to do sth • Some men will go to any lengths (= try any method) to disguise the fact that they're going bald.

leopard

A leopard can't/doesn't change its spots.

something that you say which means that a person's character, especially if it is bad, will not change, even if they pretend it has • I doubt very much that marriage will change Chris for the better. A leopard doesn't change its spots.

lesser

the lesser of two evils a lesser evil

the less unpleasant of two choices, neither of which are good • I suppose I regard the Democratic candidate as the lesser of two evils.

lesson

learn your lesson

to learn something useful about life from an unpleasant experience • I'm never going to mix my drinks again – I've learnt my lesson.

teach sb a lesson

to punish someone so that they will not behave badly again • The next time she's late, go without her. That should teach her a lesson.

let

let yourself go

- 1 to relax completely and enjoy yourself
  It's a party let yourself go!
  I think she finds it difficult to let herself go.
- 2 to take less care of your appearance
   She's really let herself go since she split up with her husband.

let it/things slide

to allow a situation to become slowly worse • We've really let things slide over the past few months. The accounts are in a terrible state.

letter

the letter of the law formal

the exact words of a law and not its more important general meaning • There is always the danger that a judge may follow the letter of the law rather than its spirit.

to the letter slightly formal

if you follow instructions or obey rules to the letter, you do exactly what you are told to do • I followed the instructions to the letter but I still couldn't get it to work.

level

a level playing field

a fair situation • There are calls for less restrictive laws in order to allow them to compete on a level playing field (= in a way that is fair) with other financial institutions.

be level pegging British & Australian

if two people or groups who are competing in a race or election are level pegging, they are equal and it is not certain who will win • With three weeks to go to the election, Labour and the Alliance are still level pegging.

be on the level old-fashioned

to be honest or true • The offer seems too good to be true. Are you quite sure the man's on the level?

do your level best

to try very hard to do something • (often + to do sth) Tickets are quite hard to come by but I'll do my level best to get you one.

liberties

take liberties

- 1 to change something, especially a piece of writing, in a way that people disagree with • (usually + with) Whoever wrote the screenplay for the film took great liberties with the original text of the novel.
- 2 old-fashioned to be too friendly to someone in a way that shows a lack of respect, especially in a sexual way (often + with) Don't let him take liberties with you.

liberty

take the liberty of doing sth formal to do something that will have an effect on someone else without asking their permission • (usually in past tenses) I took the liberty of reserving us two seats at the conference. I hope that's all right by you.

licence

be a licence to print money British & Australian

be a license to print money American

if a company or activity is a licence to print money, it causes people to become very rich without having to make any effort • These shopping channels are just a licence to print money.

lick

give sth a lick and a promise

- 1 British & Australian, old-fashioned to clean something quickly and not carefully I put on my new suit, gave my shoes a lick and a promise, and left the house.
- 2 American & Australian, old-fashioned to do a job or piece of work quickly and not carefully • We didn't have time to do much clearing up in the yard – just gave the grass a lick and a promise.

lickety-split

lickety-split mainly American, informal very quickly • He drove off lickety-split down the highway.

licking

take a licking American & Australian, informal to be defeated or very strongly criticized • Their latest album took a licking from the critics, but it's selling well.

lid

blow/take the lid off sth lift the lid on sth

to cause something bad that was previously kept secret to be known by the public • In 1989 they started an investigation that was to blow the lid off corruption in the police force.

flip your lid

- 1 humorous to become crazy I thought he'd finally flipped his lid when he bought that old helicopter.
- 2 informal to suddenly become very angry She'll flip her lid when she finds out what's been going on.

keep a lid on sth

to control the level of something in order to stop it increasing • Economic difficulties continued and the government intervened to keep a lid on inflation.

Put a lid on it! mainly American, informal something that you say in order to tell someone to stop talking • Put a lid on it, you two! You've been shouting all afternoon.

put the lid on sth British, old-fashioned if something that happens puts the lid on a plan, it causes the plan to fail • When James resigned that put the lid on the whole project.

lie

give the lie to sth formal

to show that something is not true • The high incidence of cancer in the region surely gives the lie to official assurances that the factory is safe.

live a lie

to live a life that is dishonest because you are pretending to be something that you are not, either to yourself or to other people • Walker, who admitted that he was gay last year, spoke of the relief he felt at no longer having to live a lie.

lies

a pack of lies

a tissue of lies formal

a story that someone has invented in order to deceive people • He dismissed recent rumours that he'd had affairs with a number of women as 'a pack of lies'.
• The entire account of where she'd been and who she'd been with that night was a tissue of lies.

life

life in the fast lane

a way of living which is full of excitement and activity and often danger The fast lane is the part of a motorway (= a large road) where drivers go the fastest. • His was a life in the fast lane - parties, drugs, and a constant stream of glamorous women.

life in the raw

life at its most difficult, without money or the comforts that money brings • Travelling on the cheap exposes you to local life in the raw.

life is cheap

if life is cheap somewhere, people's lives have little value so if they die it is not important • In the city, gunmen rule the streets and life is cheap.

your life is in sb's hands

if your life is in someone's hands, that person is completely responsible for what happens to you, often for whether you live or die • When you fly, your life is in the hands of complete strangers.

place/put your life in sb's hands • Every time you drive a car, you put your life in the hands of other motorists.

Life is just a bowl of cherries.

something that you say which means that life is very pleasant © This phrase is sometimes used humorously to mean the opposite • The hotel is wonderful and the weather too. Life's just a bowl of cherries.

• So as well as cleaning up the apartment and getting the paperwork done, I have three children to look after. Yes, life's just a bowl of cherries!

as large as life British, American & Australian

as big as life American

if you say that someone was somewhere as large as life, you mean that you were surprised to see them there • I looked up from my paper and there he was, as large as life, Tim Taylor!

be larger than life British, American & Australian

be bigger than life American

if someone is larger than life, they attract a lot of attention because they are more exciting and interesting than most people • Most characters in his films are somewhat larger than life.

be another/one of life's great mysteries

humorous

to be something that it is impossible for you to understand • Why people write their names on the walls of public toilets is one of life's great mysteries.

be the life and soul of the party British, American & Australian be the life of the party American & Australian to be the type of person who enjoys social occasions and makes them more enjoyable for other people • He's a very sweet man but he's not exactly the life and soul of the party. • Give him a few drinks and he's the life of the party!

breathe (new) life into sth

to make something that was boring seem interesting again • Breathe new life into a tired old bathroom with a coat of brightly coloured paint in this season's exciting colours.

can't do sth to save your life informal x if you say that someone can't do something to save their life, you mean that they are extremely bad at that thing • I can't draw to save my life.

can't for the life of me

if you say you can't for the life of you remember something, you mean that you cannot remember it at all • I know I filed it somewhere but I can't for the life of me remember where.

depart this life formal >

to die • Here lies Henry Stanford, who departed this life January 13th 1867.

frighten/scare the life out of sb

to make someone feel very frightened
• She frightened the life out of me, shouting like that.

Get a life! informal

something that you say which means someone is boring and they should find more exciting things to do • (often an order) You're surely not going to stay in and clean the house on a Saturday night—oh, come on, get a life! • I hear him talking about his stamp collection and I feel like saying, 'You sad man, get a life!'

give your life

lay down your life slightly formal

to die in order to save other people or in order to defend a belief that you support • Millions of soldiers laid down their lives for their country in the Great War.

lead/live the life of Riley informal

to have a happy life without hard work, problems or worries • He lived the life of Riley, having inherited a huge amount of money.

life's too short

something that you say which means you should not waste time doing or worrying about things that are not important • (often + to do sth) Life's too short to iron your underwear. • I can't get worried over an amount of money as small as that. Life's too short.

Not on your life! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone with a lot of force that you will not do something • 'Would you kiss him?' 'Not on your life!'

put your life on the line

to risk death in order to try to achieve something • Politicians aren't the ones putting their lives on the line fighting wars.

risk life and limb

to do something very dangerous where you might get hurt • These skiers risk life and limb every day for the thrill of speed.

see life

if someone wants or needs to see life, they want or need to experience many different things, especially by travelling around the world and meeting interesting people • Young people should see life before they get jobs and buy houses and do other boring things like that!
• He's decided to do a round-the-world trip, he wants to see life a bit before he starts university.

set sb up for life informal

to provide someone with enough money for the rest of their life • His father died when he was young and the inheritance set him up for life.

Such is life.

That's life.

something that you say when you are talking about bad things that happen or exist which you cannot prevent and must therefore accept • In an ideal world, I'd rather have the child and the career but it's not possible. That's life.

take your life in/into your hands to do something dangerous • I'm sure this elevator isn't properly maintained. I feel as though I'm taking my life into my hands every time I go in it.

There's life in the old dog yet. humorous something that you say which means that although someone is old, they still have enough energy to do things • I may be 90 but there's life in the old dog yet.

This is the life!

something that you say when you are relaxing and very much enjoying the fact that you are not at work • Sun, sand and cocktails – this is the life!

life-saver

a life-saver

someone or something that gives you a lot of help when you are in a very difficult situation • When you're stuck in traffic like this, a mobile phone's an absolute life-saver.

lifetime

once in a lifetime

only likely to happen once in someone's life • Opportunities to play in the Cup Final only come once in a lifetime so we've got to make the most of it.

once-in-a-lifetime • (always before noun) Enter this competition to win a once-in-a-lifetime trip to the Caribbean.

light

light at the end of the tunnel

something which makes you believe that a difficult or unpleasant situation will end • We're halfway through our exams now, so we can see light at the end of the tunnel. • Unemployment is still rising but analysts assure us there is light at the end of the tunnel.

light dawns

if light dawns on you, you suddenly understand something • He was lying to me, but it was months before the light dawned. • (often + on) Light dawned on me when I heard she knew my mother.

light relief

something that is entertaining or relaxing after something that is serious or boring • A lively argument between the two main speakers provided a bit of light relief in an otherwise dull conference.

be as light as a feather

to be very light in weight • I could easily pick you up – you're as light as a feather.

be light years away

to be a very long time in the future • A cure for all kinds of cancer is still light years away. • (often + from + doing sth) Scientists are light years away from understanding (= it will be a very long time before scientists understand) the human brain.

be light years away from sth

if something is light years away from something else, it has made so much progress that the two things are now very different • Modern computers are light years away from the huge machines we used in the seventies.

be the light of sb's life

to be the person you love most • My daughter is the light of my life.

be/go out like a light informal

to go to sleep very quickly • I was out like a light after all that fresh air.

bring sth to light

to discover facts, often about something bad or illegal • (usually passive) When their accounts were examined, several errors were brought to light.

come to light • Several other problems came to light during the course of the investigation.

hide your light under a bushel

to avoid letting people know that you are good at something, usually because you are shy • (often in continuous tenses) I didn't realize you could play the piano — you've been hiding your light under a bushel.

in the light of sth British & Australian in light of sth American & Australian

if something is done or happens in the light of facts, it is done or happens because of those facts • In the light of new evidence, he has been allowed to appeal against his prison sentence. • In light of what you've just told me, I can understand why you and David were fighting.

make light of sth

to suggest by the way that you talk or behave that you do not think a problem is serious • You shouldn't make light of other people's fears.

make light work of sth/doing sth

to do something quickly and easily • Heather made light work of painting the walls. • You made light work of that chocolate cake! (= you ate it quickly)

see the light

- 1 to understand something clearly, especially after you have been confused about it for a long time Sarah used to have very racist views, but I think she's finally seen the light.
- 2 to start believing in a religion, often suddenly • I hope my book will help others to see the light.

see the light (of day) X

- 1 if an object sees the light of day, it is brought out so that people can see it • The archives contain vintage recordings, some of which have never seen the light of day.
- 2 if something, especially an idea or a plan, sees the light of day, it starts to exist
  - It was the year when the equal opportunities bill first saw the light of day.

shed/throw light on sth

to help people understand a situation
• Thank you for shedding some light on what is really a very complicated subject.

trip the light fantastic humorous

to dance • There I was, tripping the light fantastic in a sequinned ballgown.

light-headed

be/feel light-headed

to feel weak and as if you might fall over • Ifeel a bit light-headed. I shouldn't have drunk that second glass of wine.

lightning

Lightning does not strike twice.

something that you say which means that a bad thing will not happen to the same person twice • I know the crash has scared you, but lightning doesn't strike twice.

a lightning rod American

someone or something that takes all the blame for a situation, although other people or things are responsible too • (often + for) In a harsh economic climate, raises for teachers have become a lightning rod for criticism.

lights

The lights are on but nobody's/no-one's

home. humorous

something that you say when you think someone is stupid, or when someone does not react because they are thinking about something else • It's no good expecting John to say anything. The lights are on but no-one's home.

punch sb's lights out informal

to hit someone hard again and again • He wouldn't shut up so I punched his lights out.

like

like it or lump it informal

if you tell someone to like it or lump it, you mean they must accept a situation they do not like, because they cannot change it • The fact remains, that's all we're going to pay him and he can like it or lump it. • Like it or lump it, romantic fiction is read regularly by thousands.

likely

A likely story.

something that you say when you do not believe that an explanation is true • He claims he thought he was drinking low alcohol lager. A likely story. • So he was just giving her a friendly hug because she was upset, was he? That's a likely story if ever I heard one.

lily

gild the lily

to spoil something by trying to improve or decorate it when it is already perfect  $\not \cong$  To gild something is to cover it with a thin layer of gold. A lily is a beautiful white flower. To gild a lily would not be necessary. • Should I add a scarf to this jacket or would it be gilding the lily?

lily-livered

lily-livered literary

not brave • I've never seen such a lilylivered bunch of wimps in my life!

lily-white

lily-white

- 1 British, American & Australian completely white in colour • He marvelled at her lily-white hands.
- 2 American & Australian completely honest • (often negative) He's not exactly lily-white himself, so he has some nerve calling her a cheat!
- 3 American & Australian having only white people near, often because of a wish to keep black people away The black family found it difficult to feel comfortable in this lily-white, prosperous suburb.

limb

be out on a limb

alone and lacking support from other people • Because we're geographically so far removed from the main office, we do sometimes feel as if we're out on a limb.

go out on a limb

if you go out on a limb, you state an opinion or you do something which is very different to most other people • I don't think we're going out on a limb in claiming that global warming is a problem that must be addressed. • Rob Thompson, the producer, admits the series is going out on a limb in that it is quite different to anything else currently on television.

tear sb limb from limb

to attack someone violently • I'm sure if she got hold of the guy she'd tear him limb from limb.

limelight

be in the limelight

to receive attention and interest from the public Limelight was a type of lighting used in the past in theatres to light the stage. • He's been in the limelight recently, following the publication of a controversial novel.

steal the limelight • The whole team played well, but Gascoigne stole the limelight (= got most attention) with two stunning goals.

limits

off limits

- 1 if an area is off limits, you are not allowed to enter it • When we were kids, our parents' bedroom was definitely off limits.
- 2 not allowed Today's magazines tackle the sort of subjects that would once have been considered off limits. • What he does make very clear is that questions about his private life are off limits.

limp-wristed

limp-wristed informal

a man who is limp-wristed seems weak and lacks the qualities that people usually admire in a man • My mother liked him though I suspect my father thought he was a bit limp-wristed.

line

all along the line

all the way down the line

at every stage in a process • The project's been plagued with financial problems all along the line. • Managerial mistakes were made all the way down the line.

be in sb's line old-fashioned

to be a subject or activity that you are interested in or good at • I wouldn't have thought gardening was in your line, Ben.

be in line for sth X

to be likely to get something good • If anyone's in line for promotion, I should think it's Helen. • After his performance last season, it's reckoned that Taylor is next in line for the captaincy.

in the line of fire

likely to be criticized, attacked, or got rid of • Lawyers often find themselves in the line of fire.

be on the line

if something is on the line, it is in a situation in which it could be lost or harmed • I didn't know his job was on the line.

lay/put sth on the line • I feel pretty strongly about the matter, but I'm not going to lay my career on the line for it.

be out of line imes

- 1 if someone's actions or words are out of line, they are not suitable and they should not have been done or said And the way he spoke to her in the meeting that was completely out of line. Her remarks to the papers were way out of line.
- 2 if the amount or cost of something is out of line it is not what is expected or usual (usually + with) His salary is way out of line with what other people in the company get.

cross the line

if someone crosses the line they start behaving in a way that is not socially acceptable • Players had crossed the line by attacking fans on the pitch.

down the line X

if an event is a particular period of time down the line, it will not happen until that period of time has passed • We'll probably want kids too but that's a few years down the line.

draw a line under sth

if you draw a line under something, it is finished and you do not think about it again • Let's draw a line under the whole episode and try to continue our work in a more positive frame of mind.

draw the line

to think of or treat one thing as different from another • (often + between) It all depends on your concept of fiction and where you draw the line between fact and fiction. • So at what point do we consider the foetus a baby? We've got to draw the line somewhere.

draw the line at sth

if someone says that they draw the line at a particular way of behaving, they mean that they do not do it because they think it is wrong or too extreme • I know I swear a lot but I do draw the line at certain words. • I like a beer or two as you know but even I draw the line at sitting in a pub on my own and drinking.

drop sb a line slightly informal X

to write a short letter to someone • If you've got a few minutes to spare you could always drop her a line.

fall in/into line X

231

to start to accept the rules of a company or other organization • (often + with) Employees were expected to fall into line with the company's new practices or face dismissal.

feed sb a line informal X

to tell someone something which may not be completely true, often as an excuse • She fed me a line about not having budgeted for pay increases this year.

a fine/thin line 🗡

if there is a fine line between one thing and another, they are very similar although the second thing is bad • (often + between) There's a thin line between courage and foolishness.

tread a fine/thin line between sth if someone treads a fine line between a good quality and a bad quality, they succeed in having only the good quality • Somehow he manages to tread that fine line between honesty and tactlessness.

get a line on sb/sth American

to get special information that will help you find someone or do something • Detectives hope to get a line on the suspect from the fingerprints he left.

have a line on sb/sth • She talked like she has a line on what it will take to win.

in the line of duty

if you do something in the line of duty, or if something happens to you in the line of duty, you do it or it happens as a part of your job • He was killed in the line of duty.

lay it on the line informal

to tell someone the truth although it will upset them • You're just going to have to lay it on the line and tell her her work's not good enough.

somewhere along the line informal

at some point during a period or an activity • I don't know what went wrong with our relationship but somewhere along the line we stopped loving each other.

step out of line

to not behave as you are ordered or expected to • It was made quite clear to me that if I stepped out of line again I'd be out of a job.

toe/tow the line

to do what you are ordered or expected to do • He might not like the rules but he'll toe the line just to avoid trouble.
• Ministers who refused to toe the Party line were swiftly got rid of.

lines

along the lines of sth along those lines

similar in type • I can't remember exactly what words he used but it was something along those lines. • I was thinking of doing a dinner party along the lines of that meal I cooked for Annie and Dave.

along/on the same lines in a similar way • We've been thinking along the same lines for a while now.

be on the right lines

if you are on the right lines, you are doing something in a way that will bring good results • Do you think we're on the right lines with this project?

read between the lines X

to try to understand someone's real feelings or intentions from what they say or write • Reading between the lines, I'd say that Martin isn't very happy with the situation.

lingua franca

a lingua franca

a language that is used for communication between people whose main languages are different • (often + of) English is the undisputed lingua franca of the business world.

lion

the lion's share

the biggest part of something • The lion's share of the museum's budget goes on special exhibitions.

lions

feed/throw sh to the lions

to cause someone to be in a situation where they are criticized strongly or treated badly and to not try to protect them • No one prepared me for the audience's hostility – I really felt I'd been fed to the lions.

the lions' den

an unpleasant situation in which a person or group of people criticizes you or your ideas • It's your turn for the lions' den. Gordon wants to see you in his office now.

lip

232

curl your lip literary

to lift one side of your mouth in an expression which shows that you do not like or respect something or someone • Don't you curl your lip at me, young miss!

give/pay lip service to sth

to say that you agree with and support an idea or plan but not do anything to help it to succeed • The company pays lip service to the notion of racial equality but you look around you and all you see are white faces.

lips

be on everyone's lips

if a word or question is on everyone's lips, a lot of people are talking about it and interested in it • And the question that's on everyone's lips at the moment is, will he have to resign over the scandal?

lick your lips

to feel pleased and excited about something that is going to happen, usually because you think you will get something good from it • Meanwhile, the property developers are licking their lips at the prospect of all the money they're going to make.

My lips are sealed. humorous

something you say to let someone know that you will not tell anyone else what they have just told you • 'I'd prefer you not to mention this to anyone else.' 'My lips are sealed.'

Read my lips! informal

a slightly impolite way of telling someone to listen to what you are saying • Read my lips. You're not having any more ice-cream.

liquid

liquid refreshment humorous

 a drink, usually an alcoholic drink After 5 hours in front of a computer I'm in need of some liquid refreshment.

a liquid lunch humorous

if someone has a liquid lunch, they drink alcoholic drinks instead of eating food • I had a two hour liquid lunch and nearly fell asleep at my desk in the afternoon.

list

a list as long as your arm

if you say a list is as long as your arm, you mean that it is very long • Anyway, I'd better make a start. I've got a list as long as my arm of jobs to do.

litmus

a litmus test

something that shows clearly what someone's opinions or intentions are ELitmus is a substance used in chemical tests because it changes colour.

• His views on abortion are effectively a litmus test of his views on women's rights.

little

A little bird told me (so).

something that you say in order to let someone know that you are not going to tell them who gave you the information being discussed • 'So who told you she'd got the job?' 'Oh, let's just say a little bird told me so.'

a little horror humorous

a child who behaves very badly • I had six of the little horrors running round the house all day.

too little, too late

if the help that is given to a person is described as too little, too late, there is not enough of it and it was given too late to be useful • The government have finally decided to put some money into research but it's too little, too late.

twist/wrap sb around/round your little finger

to be able to persuade someone to do anything you want, usually because they like you so much • He'd do anything you asked him to. You've got him wrapped around your little finger!

live

233

live and breathe sth

if you live and breathe an activity or subject, you spend most of your time doing it or thinking about it because you like it so much • For twenty years I've lived and breathed dance. It's been my whole life.

live and let live

believing that other people should be allowed to live their lives in the way that they want to • They seem as a society to have a very live and let live attitude towards issues like gay rights.

live it up informal

to enjoy yourself by doing things that involve spending a lot of money • I decided to live it up for a while – at least until the money ran out.

a live wire

someone who is very quick and active, both mentally and physically • I hadn't met Rory before – he's a real live wire.

go live

if a new system, especially a computer system, goes live, it starts to operate • Our new payments system will go live at the beginning of next month.

never live sth down

if you say that you will never live down something bad or embarrassing that you have done, you mean people will not forget it • Three million people saw the singer fall off the edge of the stage. He'll never live it down. • I'll never live down the fact that I spilt champagne down my boss's trousers.

You live and learn. British

Live and learn. American something that you say when you have just discovered something that you did not know • I had no idea they were related. Oh well, you live and learn.

lived

you haven't lived humorous

if you tell someone they haven't lived if they have not experienced something, you mean that this experience is very pleasant or exciting and they should try it • You've never been to a Turkish bath? Oh, you haven't lived!

lively

Look lively! British & Australian, informal, old-fashioned something you say to tell someone to hurry • Look lively – we've got to be there in half an hour!

living

living on borrowed time

if someone is living on borrowed time, they are not expected to live much longer • I've got cancer – I'm living on borrowed time.

a living death

a life that is so full of suffering that it would be better to be dead • She can't walk, she can't feed herself and she can scarcely speak. It's a living death. • For me, marriage to someone like that would be a living death.

be the living end

- 1 American & Australian, old-fashioned to be extremely good • We were big fans of their band. We thought it was the living end in those days.
- 2 American & Australian, old-fashioned to be very annoying • Helen is late again. She really is the living end!

in/within living memory X

events or situations in living memory can be remembered by people who are alive now • Areas of southern Italy are experiencing some of the worst storms in living memory. (= the worst storms that people can remember) • Some of these houses still had outside toilets within living memory.

lo

lo and behold humorous

something that you say when you tell someone about something surprising that happened • I went into a bar just next to our hotel and, lo and behold, who should I see sitting there but Jim Gibson.

load

Get a load of that! very informal

- 1 something that you say when you are very surprised by something, or to show approval • Get a load of that! Is that not the most beautiful car you have ever seen?
- 2 something that you say when you see someone who is very sexually attractive

   Get a load of that, lads! Very nice.

lighten sb's/the load

to make a difficult or upsetting situation easier to deal with • Anyway, we'll be getting a temp in next month to do some of this work so that should lighten your load.

shoot your load very informal

if a man shoots his load, semen (= thick liquid containing a man's seed) comes out of his penis • Man, I was so hot, I was ready to shoot my load!

loaded

loaded for bear American, informal

ready and eager to deal with something that is going to be difficult • Their team came out onto the field, loaded for bear, but our defense stopped them.

loaf

Use your loaf. British & Australian, oldfashioned

if you tell someone to use their loaf, you are telling them in a slightly angry way that they should think more carefully about what they are doing in In Cockney rhyming slang (= an informal kind of language used in parts of London) 'loaf' is short for 'loaf of bread' which means head. • You haven't even switched the thing on. Come on, Jamie, use your loaf!

lock

lock, stock, and barrel

including all or every part of something • He's been pressing for the organization to move, lock, stock, and barrel, from Paris to Brussels.

under lock and key

- 1 kept safely in a room or container that is locked • I tend to keep medicines under lock and key because of the kids.
- 2 in prison I think the feeling from the general public is that people like that should be kept under lock and key for the rest of their lives.

locker-room

locker-room

locker-room jokes or remarks are the type of rude, sexual jokes and remarks that men are thought to enjoy when they are with other men (2) A locker room is a place where people change their clothes before and after playing sport. • (always before noun) There's the usual locker-room banter which I try to stay out of.

loggerheads

be at loggerheads

if two people or groups are at loggerheads, they disagree strongly about something • (often + with) They're constantly at loggerheads with the farmers' union. • (sometimes + over) The Senate and the House are still at loggerheads over the most crucial parts of the bill.

loins

gird (up) your loins humorous

to prepare yourself mentally to do something difficult This phrase comes from the Bible, where girding up your loins meant to tie up long, loose clothes so that they were more practical when you were working or travelling.

• Both sides are presently girding their loins for the legal battles that lie ahead.

lone

a lone wolf

a person who prefers to do things on their own • The typical role for Bogart was the Casablanca character, a lone wolf, cynical but heroic.

long

long on sth and short on sth

having too much of one quality and not enough of another • I've always found his films long on style and short on content.

Long time no see.

something that you say in order to greet someone who you have not seen for a long time • Hi there, Paul. Long time no see.

a long face X

if you have a long face, you look sad • 'Why've you got such a long face?' 'My boyfriend doesn't want to see me any more.'

a long haul

something that takes a lot of time and energy • It's been a long haul but we've finally got the house looking the way we want it.

in/over the long haul American for a long period of time • You have to think how the company will perform over the long haul.

a long shot X

something that will probably not succeed but is worth trying • It's a long shot but I could call Tony and see if he knows her address.

the long and the short of it

something that you say when you intend to tell someone something in the quickest and simplest way possible • Anyway, the long and the short of it is that he's not going to be working for us any more.

the long arm of the law humorous

the police • You know what they say, you can't escape the long arm of the law.

not be long for this world

to be going to die soon • Judging by the look of him, he's not long for this world either.

be long in the tooth humorous

to be too old  $\stackrel{\triangleright}{\approx}$  The older a horse is, the longer its teeth are. • I'd have thought she was a bit long in the tooth to be starring as the romantic heroine.

go a long way X

if you say that someone will go a long way, you mean that they will be successful • 'I like my men older - and richer.' 'You'll go a long way with ideas like that, my girl!'

go back a long way X

if two people go back a long way, they have known each other for a long time

• Justin and I were at college together so we go back a long way.

have come a long way to have made a lot of progress . (often + since) We've come a long way since the days when you had to call an operator to phone another country.

How long is a piece of string? British & Australian something that you say when someone asks you a question that you cannot answer about how big something is or how much time something will take • 'So how long does a project like that take?' 'How long's a piece of string?'

It's a long story.

something that you say when someone has asked you about something that happened and you do not want to explain it to them because it would take too long

• 'So why was Carlo knocking on your door at midnight?' It's a long story.'

not by a long shot informal

not by a long chalk old-fashioned something that you say when you think something is not at all true • 'Do you think it's as good as her last movie?' 'No, not by a long shot.' • It's not over yet, not by a long chalk, we still have a very good chance of winning.

So long. American, informal a friendly way of saying goodbye to a friendly way of saying goodbye to someone • So long – see you tomorrow.

take a long, hard look at sth

to examine something very carefully in order to improve it in the future • We need to take a long, hard look at the way we control gun ownership.

take the long view

to think about the effects that something will have in the future instead of in the present • If you take the long view, of course, you can regard staff training as an investment for the company.

think long and hard

to think very carefully about something before making a decision • I thought long and hard before deciding to leave my husband. • (often + about) He thought long and hard about how to tell the children.

to cut a long story short British & Australian

to make a long story short American something that you say when you are about to stop telling someone all the details of something that happened and tell them only the main facts • Anyway, to cut a long story short, we left at midnight and James left somewhat later:

long-winded

long-winded

long-winded speech or writing continues for too long in a way that is boring • She launched into a long-winded explanation of how she'd found the books and I'm afraid I didn't really listen.

look

Look before you leap. X

something that you say in order to advise someone to think about possible problems before doing something • If you're thinking of buying a house, my advice is, look before you leap.

look right/straight through sb

to behave as if you do not see someone when you look at them, either because you do not notice them or because you are ignoring them • I'm sure I was at school with that girl, but she just looked straight through me.

not be much to look at informal

to not be attractive • She's not much to look at, but she's got a lovely personality.

get a look in British & Australian,

informal

to get a chance to do something that you would like to do or to succeed in something • (usually negative) Chris was so popular with the girls that whenever he was around I didn't get a look in. • The other team were so much better than us. We didn't get a look in.

looks

If looks could kill...

something that you say in order to describe the unpleasant or angry way in which someone looked at you • I'll never forget the expression on her face when she saw me with Pete. If looks could kill...

loop

be in the loop American, informal

to have the special knowledge or power that belongs to a particular group of people • You can tell she's in the loop. She always knows about policy decisions before the rest of us.

OPPOSITE be out of the loop American, informal • I've been out of the loop since I changed jobs. I didn't realize Wendy and Bob had gotten engaged.

knock/throw sb for a loop American, informal

if something that happens knocks you for a loop, it upsets or confuses you because you do not expect it • He knocked me for a loop when he said he was quitting his job.

loose

loose ends 🔌

the last few details that need to be finished or explained in order for something to be complete • The job's nearly done. I'm just tying up one or two loose ends at the moment.

a loose cannon

a person who cannot be completely trusted because their behaviour is sometimes strange or violent • He's seen as a loose cannon by other team members. If anyone's going to get into a fight, it'll be Pete.

be at a loose end British & Australian be at loose ends American

to have nothing to do • If you find yourself at a loose end over the weekend, you could always clean out the garden shed. • Sarah was at loose ends in a strange city when she first met Bob.

be on the loose X

if a dangerous person or animal is on the loose, they have escaped from prison or a cage and are free • A killer who preys on attractive women is feared to be on the loose in Moscow.

cut loose

1 if a person or organization cuts loose, they separate themselves from another person or organization • (usually + from) She cut loose from her sponsors and decided to try to fund herself instead.

cut loose sb/sth to get rid of someone or something that you control or own • We're cutting loose only those teachers whose work is below standard.

2 to behave in a way that is free and relaxed, especially when you are enjoying yourself • After a few glasses of wine everyone just cut loose and started dancing.

Hang loose! American, old-fashioned something that you say in order to tell someone to stay calm and relaxed • Hang loose, guys! The rest of us will be there to back you up.

lord

your lord and master humorous

someone who you must obey because they have power over you • I have to go and cook supper for my lord and master.

lord it over sb

to behave as if you are better than someone else and have the right to tell them what to do • She likes to lord it over the more junior staff in the office.

losing

fight a losing battle

to try hard to do something when there is no chance that you will succeed • (usually in continuous tenses) We try our best to cope with the workload but we're fighting a losing battle.

loss

be at a loss 🛚

to not know what to do or say • (usually + to do sth) He won't accept financial help from me so I'm at a loss to know what to do. • For once I found myself completely at a loss for words. (= I did not know what to say)

losses

cut your losses

to stop doing something that is already failing in order to reduce the amount of time or money that is being wasted on it • I wasn't benefiting from the course and it was costing so much that I thought I'd better cut my losses.

lost

lost in the mists of time

if something is lost in the mists of time, everyone has forgotten it because it happened such a long time ago • The true significance of these symbols has become lost in the mists of time.

lost in the shuffle American & Australian if something or someone gets lost in the shuffle, they do not get the attention that they deserve • Refugee children in the big camps just get lost in the shuffle and are sometimes left without food.

a lost cause X

something or someone that has no chance of success • I tried to stop the kids dropping their clothes on the floor, but finally decided it was a lost cause.

be lost for words

to be unable to speak because you are so surprised • I was so amazed at what she'd said I found myself completely lost for words.

Get lost! very informal

something that you say when you are annoyed with someone or you want someone to go away • Oh, get lost! I'm not in the mood for your jokes.

like a lost soul

if someone is walking around a place like a lost soul, they are walking slowly without direction or purpose in a way that makes them look sad and lost • I found him wandering aimlessly around the hall like a lost soul.

make up for lost time X

to spend a lot of time doing something because you did not have the opportunity to do it previously • I didn't travel much as a young adult but I'm certainly making up for lost time now.

lot

leave a lot to be desired

to be much worse than you would like • (never in continuous tenses)

Apparently, Meg's cooking leaves a lot to be desired.

throw in your lot with sb cast your lot with sb

to join a person or group and accept that whatever happens to them will also happen to you • He's understandably reluctant to throw in his lot with a struggling young company who might not exist in a year's time.

loud

loud and clear

if an idea is expressed loud and clear, it is expressed very clearly in a way that is easy to understand • In all this research, one message comes through loud and clear: excessive exposure to sun causes skin cancer:

loud-mouthed

a loud-mouthed person often says rude or stupid things in a loud voice • So long as he doesn't bring along those loud-mouthed friends of his.

lounge

a lounge lizard mainly American

a man who spends a lot of time trying to meet rich people, especially women, in bars and at social occasions • The bar was empty except for the lounge lizard in the corner, who was obviously waiting for someone.

love

love handles humorous

a layer of extra fat around the middle of a person's body • You wouldn't want me to lose my love handles, would you?

a love child

a child whose parents are not married to each other • He allegedly has a love child in Australia from an affair with a much younger woman.

a love nest

a home where two people who love each other live together, or a home where two people meet secretly in order to have sex • Apparently, they had a love nest in Soho where they used to meet at lunchtime.

the love of your life humorous

the person that you love most in all your life • And there I was, watching the love of my life board a plane to go to the other side of the world.

not for love nor/or money

if you say that you cannot or will not do something for love nor money, you mean that it is impossible to do or that you will not do it whatever happens • It's incredibly popular. You can't get tickets for love nor money. • He's hopeless and unreliable. I wouldn't give him a job for love nor money.

I must/I'll love you and leave you.

humorous

something that you say when you say goodbye to someone that you are leaving • Well, I'm sure you've got work to be doing so I'll love you and leave you.

make love

to have sex with someone • We went back to his apartment and made love. • (often + to) I was just thinking how nice it would be to make love to you.

love-making • It was our conversations more than the love-making that I remembered after the affair was over.

no/little love lost between sb

if there is no love lost between two people, they do not like each other • There's no love lost between those two. They could never work together:

love-in

a love-in informal

a situation where two or more people praise each other a lot, especially when the praise is more than they deserve • The awards ceremony, as usual, was a love-in.

low

low-key

not intended to attract a lot of attention
• She had requested that the funeral be a low-key affair. • The reception itself was surprisingly low-key.

low life ×

the behaviour and activities of people from a low social class, especially criminal activities • She worked as a prostitute and experienced the harsher side of Parisian low life.

a low ebb ×

a bad state • (not used with the) Respect for the police is at a low ebb. • I'd just separated from my wife and was at a fairly low ebb. (= was feeling sad and without hope) • Relations between the two countries have reached their lowest ebb (= are the worst they have been) since the second world war.

the low man on the totem pole

American

someone who has the least important position in an organization • He started as the low man on the totem pole and worked his way up to be manager.

keep a low profile

to avoid attracting attention to yourself
• He's been keeping a low profile at work ever since his argument with Peter.

lay sb low

if an illness lays someone low, they are unable to do what they usually do for a period of time • (usually passive) He was at home at the time, laid low with the flu.

lie low

to remain hidden so that you will not be found • We thought someone might have seen us leaving the building, so we figured we'd better lie low for a while.

low-end

low-end American, informal

a low-end product is cheaper than, and not as good as the best product of its type • (always before noun) You can get low-end color printers that still do a good job.

lowest

the lowest common denominator

the large number of people in society who will accept low-quality products and entertainment • The problem with so much television is that it aims at the lowest common denominator.

the lowest of the low

people who have no moral standards and lack any personal qualities • He regards the police as the lowest of the low. Drugdealers and pimps come a close second.

luck

the luck of the draw

if something is the luck of the draw, it is the result of chance and you have no control over it  $\triangle$  A draw is a competition in which you win if the number on your ticket is chosen. • You can't choose who you play against. It's just the luck of the draw.

be down on your luck

to be suffering because a lot of bad things are happening to you, usually things which cause you to have no money • He plays the manager of a night-club who's down on his luck and resorts to gambling to pay his debts.

be in luck

to be able to have or do something, especially when you do not expect to • 'Have you got any prawn sandwiches left?' 'You're in luck - this is the last one.' OPPOSITE be out of luck • I'm afraid you're out of luck - the concert is fully booked.

have the luck of the devil old-fashioned to be very lucky • Then he won £3000 on the lottery – that man has the luck of the devil!

Just my luck! humorous something that you say when something bad happens to you • So he left five minutes before I got here, did he? Just my

more by luck than judgement X

if you achieve something more by luck than judgement, you achieve it by chance and not because of skill • And somehow I managed to get the ball in the net – more by luck than judgement.

No such luck!

luck.

something that you say in order to express disappointment that you were not able to do something that you wanted to • I had hoped we'd have time for lunch somewhere. No such luck.

push your luck

to try too hard to get a particular result and risk losing what you have achieved • (usually negative) Don't push your luck

- they've agreed to pay your travel expenses, I don't think it would be wise to ask for more money.

try your luck X

to try to achieve something although you know that you might not succeed • She had always wanted to act and, in 1959, came to London to try her luck on the stage.

Your luck's in! British, humorous

something that you say in order to tell someone that you think another person would like a sexual relationship with them • Hey, Sal, your luck's in! He's yours for the asking.

lucky

get lucky informal 🗶

to meet someone who you can have sex with • Why don't you come along? You never know, you might get lucky.

strike it lucky British, American & Australian strike lucky British & Australian to suddenly have some good luck • They struck it lucky with their second album which became an immediate best-seller.

thank your lucky stars

to feel lucky or grateful that you have avoided an unpleasant situation • I'm just thanking my lucky stars that I wasn't there when she was looking for someone to give the talk. • And you can thank your lucky stars (= you should be grateful to me) that I didn't tell him when he asked.

You should be so lucky! informal something that you say in order to tell someone that what they want is not likely to happen • A pay increase? You should be so lucky!

lump

bring a lump to your throat

if something someone says or does brings a lump to your throat, it makes you feel such strong emotions that you want to cry • I thought it was a very moving speech. It almost brought a lump to my throat.

lumps

take your lumps American

to receive and accept criticism or punishment for something you have done • Joe blames nobody but himself for his problems. He takes his lumps and doesn't complain.

lunch

be out to lunch informal

to be behaving in a very strange or silly way • And yet the conversation we had with him this morning suggests that he's not entirely out to lunch.

lurch

leave sb in the lurch

to leave someone at a time when they need you to stay and help them • I hope they can find someone to replace me at work. I don't want to leave them in the lurch.

lying

not take sth lying down

to refuse to be treated badly by someone
• He can't just order you about like that.
Surely you're not going to take that lying down!

Ivrical

wax lyrical

to talk about something with a lot of interest and excitement • I recall Roz waxing lyrical about the flatness of his stomach.

mad

be as mad as a hatter X

to be crazy \( \beta \) A long time ago, people who made hats used a substance that gave them an illness which made people think they were crazy. • Her brother's as mad as a hatter.

be as mad as a hornet American

to be very angry \( \alpha \) A hornet is a large insect which stings people. • He was as mad as a hornet when he heard what she said about him.

be as mad as a March hare old-fashioned to be crazy • This woman was dancing in the road and singing very loudly – I thought she was mad as a March hare.

Don't get mad, get even.

something that you say in order to tell someone not to be angry when someone has upset them, but to do something that will upset them as much • This is my advice to wives whose husbands have left them for a younger woman – don't get mad, get even!

like mad informal

if something hurts like mad it hurts very much, and if you do something like mad you do it very quickly and with a lot of force • This cut stings like mad. • I braked like mad but couldn't stop in time and hit the car in front.

made

be made for sb/sth

to be exactly suitable for someone or something • Paul and Ann were made for each other. • This wallpaper was made for my bedroom.

have (got) it made

someone who has got it made is certain to be successful and have a good life, often without much effort • With his father at the head of the firm, he's got it made.

show (sb) what you are made of

to prove how strong or clever or brave you are • Next week's race will give her a chance to show what she's really made of. see what sb is made of • Tomorrow it's the twelve-mile run. Then we'll see what you're made of.

magic

a magic moment

a short period of time which is very special, especially because something happens which makes you very happy • The young eagle was only in view for a few seconds, but for a bird-lover like me it was a magic moment.

a magic touch

a special ability to do something very well • The film's great success will no doubt please the 46-year old director who was rumoured to have lost his magic touch.

a magic wand

an easy way to solve a problem A magic wand is a stick that a person who performs magic tricks waves to make things happen. • (usually negative) Artiside has warned that he has no magic wand to provide food and work overnight.
• I wish I could just wave a magic wand and make all your troubles go away, but I can't.

What's the magic word? British &

Australian

something that you say to a child in order to make them say 'please' or 'thank you'
• 'Can I have a chocolate, mummy?'

'What's the magic word?' 'Please.'

work your/its magic

to make a situation improve a lot or to make someone feel happy • He was a great football player who is now working his magic as manager of Barnet Football Club. • The city never failed to work its magic on me.

work like magic X

if something works like magic, it is very effective and successful • That new stain remover worked like magic.

main

the main drag American & Australian, informal

the biggest and most important road in a town • We walked up and down the town's main drag looking for a post office.

be sb's main squeeze American, informal to be the person that someone has a romantic or sexual relationship with Didn't you know? Jennifer is Bob's main squeeze.

in the main X

mostly, usually • Bystanders, middle-aged women in the main, protested loudly. • In the main, our students reach exam level after a year.

make

make a [day/night/weekend etc.] of it

to spend a whole day, night, weekend, etc. somewhere, instead of only a short time, so that you can enjoy it more • We decided to go on to a club after the show and really make a night of it.

make as if to do sth

to make a movement which makes people think you are going to do a particular thing • She made as if to reach for the gun.

make do

to manage to live without things you would like to have or with things of a worse quality than you would like • (often + with) When we got married we didn't have any cupboards. We had to make do with wooden boxes. • They didn't have much money, but they made do.

make do and mend British, old-fashioned to manage with less than you would like, by repairing old things instead of buying new ones • Our family never had any new furniture. We just had to make do and mend.

make it informal

1 to manage to arrive at a place or go to an event • She made it to the airport just in time to catch her plane. • We're having a party on Saturday – can you make it?

- 2 to be successful, especially in a job Now he's got his own TV show he feels as though he's really made it. • (sometimes + as) She hasn't got a hope of making it as a dancer.
- 3 to stay alive She was losing so much blood, I really thought she wasn't going to make it.

make it up to sb

to do something good for someone who you have done something bad to in the past, or to someone who has done something good for you • I know I've behaved badly and I've upset you but I'll make it up to you, I promise.

make it with sb American, informal

to have sex with someone • So what happened after the party? Did she make it with him?

make or break sth

to make something a success or a failure
• TV will either make or break courtroom justice in this country.

be make or break for sb/sth • The Milan show will be make or break for his new designs.

make-or-break • (always before noun) It's make-or-break time for Britain's tennis players.

be on the make informal

if a person is on the make, they are trying to get money or power in a way which is not pleasant or honest • I wouldn't trust him – he's always on the make.

Do you want to make something of it?

something that you say to someone who disagrees with you in order to threaten them and offer to fight them • 'That's my beer you're drinking.' 'Do you want to make something of it?'

put the make on sb American, very

informal

to try to have sex with someone • Was that idiot at the party trying to put the make on you?

maker

meet your maker humorous

to die • I'm afraid Zoe's rabbit is no more. He's gone to meet his maker. 244

making

making

be a [athlete/star/writer etc.] in the making

if someone is an athlete, star, writer, etc. in the making, they are likely to develop into that thing • This young swimmer is an athlete in the making.

be a [crisis/disaster etc.] in the making

if something is a crisis, disaster, etc. in the making, it is likely to develop into that thing • What we're witnessing here is a disaster in the making.

be of your own making

if an unpleasant situation is of your own making, you have caused it • The problems she has with that child are all of her own making.

be the making of sb

if you say that an event or experience was the making of someone, you mean that it made them develop good qualities

- (never in present tenses) A spell in the army will be the making of him!
- University was the making of her, because she was able to escape the influence of her family at last.

makings

have (all) the makings of sth

to seem likely to develop into something
• The story has all the makings of a firstclass scandal. • She has the makings of a great violinist.

malice

with malice aforethought humorous

if you say that someone did something bad with malice aforethought, you mean that they intended to do it and it was not an accident This is a legal phrase, but it is used humorously in general language. • She has certainly got me in trouble with my boss, but I'm not sure whether she did it with malice aforethought.

man

Many phrases containing the word 'man' can also be used with the word 'woman'. Those listed here are not usually used with 'woman' except in a humorous way.

man and boy old-fashioned

all a man's life • I've worked down this coal mine man and boy.

Man cannot live by bread alone.

something that you say which means people need things such as art, music and poetry as well as food, in order to live a happy life This phrase comes from the Bible. • Our cultural heritage is important. Man cannot live by bread alone.

a man for all seasons slightly formal

a man who is very successful in many different types of activity This is the title of a play about Sir Thomas More.

• He's chairman of a large chemicals company as well as a successful painter – really a man for all seasons.

a man of God formal

a male priest, or a very religious man • I don't expect to hear that kind of language from a man of God.

a man of letters formal

a man, usually a writer, who knows a lot about literature • A distinguished statesman and man of letters, he was born just before the turn of the century.

a man of many parts

a man who is able to do many different things • George is a man of many parts – ruthless businessman, loving father, and accomplished sportsman, to name a few.

a man of straw British, American & Australian

a straw man American

a person or an idea that is weak and easy to defeat • Compared to their illustrious predecessors, the country's leaders seem to be men of straw.

a man of the cloth formal

a priest • Are you a man of the cloth?

the man of the moment

a man who is popular or famous now because he has just done something interesting or important • Mansell is the man of the moment after two marvellous victories in five days on the race track.

Are you a man or a mouse?

something that you say in order to encourage someone to be brave when they are frightened to do something

Just tell your boss that you think she's making the wrong decision: what are you, a man or a mouse?

be man enough to do sth

to be brave enough to do something • He was man enough to admit he had made a mistake.

be no good/use to man or beast

humorous

to not be useful at all • This bike has got two flat tyres – it's no use to man or beast.

go to see a man about a dog humorous

if you tell someone you are going to see a man about a dog, it is a way of saying that you do not want to tell them where you are really going, especially when you are going to the toilet • I won't be long. I'm just going to see a man about a dog.

It's every man for himself.

something that you say which means that everyone in a particular situation is trying to do what is best for themselves and no one is trying to help anyone else • It might be a civilized place to shop at other times but come the January sales, it's every man for himself.

make a man (out) of sb

to make a young man without much experience develop into a confident and experienced adult • The army will make a man out of you.

man's best friend X

a dog • A study of man's best friend shows that the relationship between humans and dogs started 100,000 years ago.

A man's got to do what a man's got to do. humorous

something men say when they are going to do something which may be unpleasant or which they are pretending will be unpleasant as a joke 🔊 From a similar line in John Steinbeck's book, Grapes of Wrath and often used in films.

• I hate catching spiders. Still, a man's got to do what a man's got to do.

a man's man

a man who likes to have other men as friends and who enjoys activities which men typically enjoy • Terry's what you'd call a man's man. I don't expect you'd find him at the ballet too many nights a week.

to a man slightly formal X

if a group of people do something to a man, they all do it • They supported him to a man.

man-about-town

a man-about-town

a rich man who usually does not work and enjoys a lot of social activities • He's a millionaire businessman and manabout-town who is seen in all the best places.

man-eater

a man-eater informal

a woman who attracts men very easily and has many relationships • She had a reputation as a man-eater.

manna

manna from heaven

something that you need which you get when you are not expecting to get it in the Bible, manna was a type of bread which God gave to the Israelites when they needed food. • I had been unemployed for two years, so when somebody phoned me up and offered me a permanent job it was like manna from heaven.

manner

(as) to the manner born slightly formal

if you behave to the manner born, you behave confidently, as if a particular situation is usual and familiar for you • Although he never lost his lower-class accent, he lived the life of a rich and successful businessman as to the manner born.

man-to-man

man-to-man

a man-to-man talk is when men talk honestly about subjects which may be difficult or embarrassing • (always before noun) When I found a packet of condoms in Jamie's bedroom, I decided it was time for a man-to-man chat.

map

put swh/sth/sb on the map

to make a place, thing, or person famous
• The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition of 1909 put Seattle on the map. • If Newcastle United win the championship it will really put them back on the map as far as European football is concerned.

[blow/bomb/wipe etc.] sth/swh off the map

to destroy something completely, especially with bombs • At least eight Spanish warships were blown off the map.

marbles

lose your marbles informal

to start acting in a strange way and forgetting things • I may be old, but I haven't lost my marbles yet.

• He's pretty old but he still has all his marbles, if that's what you mean.

pick up your marbles (and go home/leave) American

to suddenly leave an activity you have been involved in with other people, because you do not like what is happening • If you don't like the way we do things around here, well, you can pick up your marbles and leave.

march

be on the march

if a dangerous or unpleasant political idea is on the march, it is becoming more popular • Fascism is on the march again in Europe.

steal a march on sb/sth

to spoil someone's plans and get an advantage over them by doing something sooner or better than them • The company plans to steal a march on its competitors by offering the same computer at a lower price.

marching

give sb their marching orders

to tell someone to leave • Debbie's finally given her husband his marching orders after ten years of an unhappy marriage.

get your marching orders • He'd only been in the job a month when he got his marching orders.

mare

a mare's nest

a very confused situation • The law on restrictive trade is a mare's nest that scarcely anyone can comprehend.

margins

on the margins of sth

if someone is on the margins of a group of people, they are part of the group, but are different in important ways • Homeless people are on the margins of our society. • The fact that they held their exhibition in a corridor reflects their position on the margins of the London art scene.

marines

(Go) tell it/that to the marines.

American

something that you say in order to tell someone that you do not believe what they have just said 🔊 A marine is a soldier who works on a ship. Marines were thought to be less likely to believe things that people told them because they had travelled the world and knew a lot.

 You were here all day? Sure, you were – tell it to the marines.

mark

be close to the mark be near the mark

if something someone says or writes is close to the mark, it is correct or nearly correct • He says he can't find a job, but I think it would be closer to the mark to say he doesn't want to work.

be off the mark

if something someone says or writes is off the mark, it is not correct • His criticisms are way off the mark. • Bedini and Curzi were probably not far off the mark in their analysis.

be quick off the mark X

to be quick to act or to react to an event or situation • The police were quick off the mark reaching the scene of the accident. be first/quickest off the mark • Do you know which company was first off the mark to sell computers for home use?

be slow off the mark

to be slow to act or to react to an event or situation • The federal government was criticized for being slow off the mark in helping towns hit by the recent hurricane.

be up to the mark

to be good enough • I have to watch my staff all the time to keep them up to the mark. • (often negative) The efforts of the security services have not been quite up to the mark.

get off the mark British & Australian

to score for the first time in a sports competition • Liverpool got off the mark with a blinding goal.

hit the sth mark

to reach a certain point or level • Did the temperature really hit the -32 degrees centigrade mark last winter? • His debts have hit the $3 million mark.

hit the mark

to be correct, suitable, or successful • If you're looking for a word to describe Dave, 'urbane' would probably hit the mark.
• She had a good voice, but her songs never quite hit the mark.

leave your/its mark on sb/sth

to have an effect that changes someone or something • Her unhappy childhood left its mark on her all through her life.

make your/a mark

to make people notice you or to have an important effect on something • (sometimes + as) Mr Sorrell first made his mark as finance director at Wimpole and Soames. • (often + on) Richards made a tremendous mark on Australian cricket during 1985.

overstep the mark

to upset someone by doing or saying more than you should • You overstepped the mark when you shouted at your mother.

marked

a marked man

someone who is being watched by someone who wants to harm or kill them • He is still free to travel the world, but he knows he is a marked man.

market

be in the market for sth

to be interested in buying something and to have the money to be able to do so • As lovely as it is, we're really not in the market for a five-bedroomed house.

a cattle market British, American & Australian, informal

a meat market American & Australian, informal

a place where people go to see sexually attractive women or to find sexual partners • Beauty contests are just cattle markets. • That new nightclub called The Venue is awful – it's a real meat market.

corner the market

to become so successful at selling or making a particular product that almost no one else sells or makes it • They've more or less cornered the fast-food market – they're in every big city in the country.

marrow

be chilled/frozen to the marrow $\mathit{British}$

& Australian

to be extremely cold Amarrow is the soft material in the middle of your bones.

 After an hour on the mountain, we were chilled to the marrow.

marrying

not be the marrying kind humorous

if a man is not the marrying kind, he does not want to be married People sometimes use this phrase to mean that the man is homosexual (= sexually attracted to other men). George has had several girlfriends, but he's not the marrying kind.

martyr

A martyr is a person who suffers for or dies for something they believe in.

make a martyr of sb

to treat someone badly with the result that other people feel sympathy for them • The government knows that if they stop him standing in the elections they will make a martyr of him from the point of view of the international community.

make a martyr of yourself

to do things which are difficult or unpleasant for you, often when it is not necessary • She's made a real martyr of herself, wearing herself out doing everything for her family.

mask

sb's mask slips

if someone's mask slips, they do something which shows people their real personality, when they have been pretending to be a different, usually nicer, type of person 🗈 A mask is something that covers your face to hide it. • His mask had suddenly slipped, and she saw him as the angry and cruel man that he really was.

match

be no match for sth/sb ?

to be less powerful or effective than something or someone else • Health warnings are no match for the addictive power of cigarettes.

meet your match

to meet someone who is able to defeat you in an argument or a competition • The world chess champion finally met his match when he was beaten by a computer.

- a shouting match British, American & Australian
- a slanging match British & Australian an argument where people shout at each other If your child says something rude or unpleasant to you, don't get into a shouting match with them, just leave the room. The debate turned into a slanging match.

matter

a matter of life and/or death

a serious situation where people could die • (not used with the) The results of the peace negotiations could be a matter of life or death for people in the war zone.

the matter in hand British, American & Australian, formal the matter at hand American, formal the subject or situation that is being thought about or talked about • Do these figures have anything to do with the matter in hand?

as a matter of course

if something happens as a matter of course, it happens without people thinking about whether they want it or not • I don't think the Welsh language should be taught in schools as a matter of course – if students want to learn it, that's their choice.

be a matter of opinion

- 1 if something is a matter of opinion, different people have different opinions about it • I don't think there is a perfect way to teach a child to read – it's a matter of opinion, really.
- 2 if you say that something someone has just said is a matter of opinion, you mean that you do not agree • 'She's a wonderful mother.' 'That's a matter of opinion.'

be a matter of record X

if a fact is a matter of record, you know it is true because it has been written down • His views on immigration are a matter of record.

be only a matter of time

if you say that it is only a matter of time before something happens, you mean that you are sure it is going to happen, although you do not know when • (usually + before) It is only a matter of time before he is forced to resign. • I know she will be a great novelist. It is only a matter of time.

matters

take matters into your own hands

to deal with a problem yourself because the people who should have dealt with it have failed to do so • The police haven't done anything about the vandalism, so local residents have taken matters into their own hands.

max

to the max American, informal

as much as possible • We're stretched to the max – we can't possibly take on any more work. • A lot of these guys push their bodies to the max, spending three or more hours a day in the gym.

may

be that as it may slightly formal

something that you say which means that you accept that a piece of information is true but it does not change your opinion of the subject that you are discussing • I take your point that it's a tough job. Be that as it may, he knew that when he took it on.

mea culpa

mea culpa humorous

something that you say in order to admit that something is your fault • 'Tim, do you know why the back door was unlocked when I came home?' 'Mea culpa. I'm sorry - it won't happen again.'

meal

a meal ticket

someone or something that you use as a way of getting regular amounts of money for the rest of your life • Gone are the days when a university degree was a meal ticket for life.

make a meal (out) of sth British &

Australian

to spend more time or energy doing something than is necessary * I only asked her to write a brief summary of the main points but she made a real meal out of it.

mealy-mouthed

mealy-mouthed

not brave enough to say what you mean directly and honestly • Strangely enough, although we are getting more mealy-mouthed about mental and physical disabilities, we are increasingly frank about bodily functions.

meaning

not know the meaning of the word

if you are talking about a quality or an activity and you say that someone does not know the meaning of the word, you mean they do not have that quality or they have no experience of that activity • Work? He doesn't know the meaning of the word! • And the irony of Phil talking about ethics. He doesn't know the meaning of the word.

means

a means to an end

something that you are not interested in but that you do because it will help you to achieve something else • (not used with the) Mike doesn't have any professional ambitions. For him, work is just a means to an end.

a man/woman of means X

someone who has a lot of money • I could tell from her address that she was a woman of means.

measure

have the measure of sb/sth slightly

formal

to understand what someone or something is like and to know how to deal with them • What was clear was that the president no longer had the measure of his country's problems. • I don't think she's under any illusions about her husband – she's got the measure of him.

get/take the measure of sb/sth • We got the measure of the opposition in the first half and set about beating them in the second.

meat

your meat and two veg British,

humorous

a man's sexual organs • I tell you what, his trousers were so tight you could see his meat and two veg!

meat and two veg British, informal

a traditional type of meal, often found in Britain, which is basic and slightly boring, usually a piece of meat and two vegetables • The food is very much meat and two veg – you won't find any of your fancy French cuisine here.

the meat and potatoes American,

informal

the most important or basic parts of something • They stuck to the meat and potatoes of broadcasting – sports and news meat-and-potatoes American, informal • (always before noun) The focus was on jobs, health care, and other meat-andpotatoes issues.

be meat and drink to sb

if something is meat and drink to someone, they very much enjoy doing it and find it easy, although most people would find it difficult or unpleasant • He gives all these talks to terrifyingly large audiences but it's meat and drink to Peter.

be the meat in the sandwich British & Australian

to be in a difficult situation because you are the friend of two people who are arguing • I grew up with my parents continually yelling at each other so I was the meat in the sandwich.

medal

deserve a medal humorous

if you say that someone deserves a medal, you mean that you admire them for dealing with such a difficult situation or person for so long • (never in continuous tenses; often + for) She deserves a medal for putting up with that husband of hers.

medallion

a medallion man British, humorous

a man, usually an older man, who dresses in a way that he thinks women find attractive, often wearing an open shirt in order to show his chest and a lot of gold jewellery (a) A medallion is a circle of metal like a large coin that is worn on a chain around the neck. • And there he was, a real-live 70's medallion man, just stepped out of a time machine.

medicine

give sb a dose/taste of their own medicine

to do the same bad thing to someone that they have often done to you, in order to show them how unpleasant it is • She's always turning up late for me so I thought I'd give her a taste of her own medicine and see how she likes it.

meeting

a meeting of minds slightly formal

a situation in which two people find that they have the same ideas and opinions and find it easy to agree with each other · Government officials say there was a meeting of minds between the two leaders during the six-hour talks in Pretoria.

melting

a melting pot

a place where people of many different races and from many different countries live together • Rules of mutual tolerance must be agreed in an area which is a melting pot of such diverse cultures.

member

be a fully paid-up member of sth informal

be a card-carrying member of sth

informal

to be part of a particular group • Unlike former leaders, he displays a degree of sensitivity that shows him to be a fully paid-up member of the human race.

memory

commit sth to memory

to make yourself remember something • I haven't got a pen to write down your phone number – I'll just have to commit it to memory.

have a memory like an elephant

to be very good at remembering things Elephants are believed to have good memories. • 'I remember where I first saw her – it was at Tim Fisher's party about ten years ago.' 'Yes, you're right – you've got a memory like an elephant!'

jog your memory

to cause you to remember something • Police are hoping to jog people's memory by showing them pictures of a car that was used in a robbery.

take a stroll/trip down memory lane

to remember some of the happy things that you did in the past • We were just taking a stroll down memory lane and recalling the days of our youth.

men

the men in grey suits

men in business or politics who have a lot of power and influence although the public does not see them or know about them • As usual, it is the men in grey suits who will decide the future of the industry.

the men in white coats humorous

doctors who look after people who are mentally ill • The men in white coats will be coming to take me away if I stay in this job much longer.

separate/sort out the men from the boys

if a difficult situation or activity separates the men from the boys, it shows which people in a group are brave and strong and which are not • You have to survive outdoors for three days and three nights. That should separate the men from the boys.

ménage à trois

a ménage à trois

an arrangement in which three people who have a sexual relationship live together • They married in '73 and then met Russell with whom they entered into a brief but idyllic ménage à trois.

mend

be on the mend X

if you are on the mend, your health is improving after an illness • He's still a bit tired but he's definitely on the mend.

mental

go mental informal

to become very angry • She'll go mental when she sees what you've done to her car!

make a mental note

to make an effort to remember something, often something that you want to do later • (often + to do sth) I made a mental note to call my mother and tell her what he'd said. • (often + that) Last time we had dinner together I made a mental note that you didn't like fish.

merchant

a merchant of doom informal

someone who is always saying that bad things are going to happen • With exports rising and unemployment falling, the merchants of doom are having to revise their economic predictions.

mercy

be at the mercy of sth/sb X

to be in a situation in which you cannot do anything to protect yourself from something or someone unpleasant • Poor people are increasingly at the mercy of money-lenders. • Of course, in a tent, you're at the mercy of the elements.

throw yourself on/upon sb's mercy

to ask someone to help you or to forgive you when you are in a difficult situation • If all else fails, I might throw myself on Sandra's mercy and see if she'll drive me there.

mess

a mess of sth American, informal a lot of something • He picked up a mess of keys and handed me one.

message

get the message informal

to understand what someone is trying to tell you even if they are not expressing themselves directly • Next time he calls, tell him you're busy for the next three months – he'll soon get the message. • Okay, I get the message – you want to be alone.

messenger

shoot the messenger humorous

to blame or punish the person who tells you about something bad that has happened instead of the person who is responsible for it • And now for tomorrow's weather – it's going to be cold, wet and stormy, but don't shoot the messenger!

method

there's method in sb's madness British, American & Australian

there's a method to sb's madness

American

something that you say which means that although someone seems to be behaving strangely, there is a reason for their behaviour Dhis phrase comes from Shakespeare's play 'Hamlet'. • When he picked the side I thought he must be crazy but, judging by their performance this season, there's obviously method in his madness.

mettle

Mettle is the ability and determination to compete or do something difficult.

be on your mettle slightly formal

to be determined to prove that you are good at something, especially in a difficult situation • It's a tough interview – you'll have to be on your mettle.

prove/show your mettle slightly formal to prove that you are good at doing something by succeeding in a difficult something by succeeding in a difficult situation • A relative newcomer to the game, he's certainly proved his mettle in the last two games.

mick

take the mick/mickey British &

Australian, informal

to make people laugh at someone, usually by copying what they do or say in a way that seems funny • They used to take the mick out of him because of the way he walked. • I thought you were being serious — I didn't realise you were taking the mickey.

mickey-taking British & Australian, informal • I had to put up with a bit of mickey-taking from some of the blokes when I first told them but they've calmed down now.

Mickey-Mouse

Mickey-Mouse informal

not important or not good compared with other things of the same type • (always before noun) We're talking about a respected organization here – not some Mickey-Mouse outfit.

microscope

put sth under the microscope

to examine or think about a situation very carefully A microscope is a piece of scientific equipment that allows you to see small things very clearly. • Because they're both public figures, their relationship has been put under the microscope.

Midas

the Midas touch

the ability to make a lot of money  $\stackrel{\frown}{\bowtie}$  Midas was a king in Greek stories who had the power to turn anything he touched into gold. • Profits are down – has that 80s entrepreneur lost his Midas touch?

middle

the middle ground

something that two people or groups that are arguing can agree about • The lawyer will then attempt to find the middle ground between the two parties.

be caught in the middle

to be in a difficult situation because two people who you know well are arguing and both of them criticize each other to you • My mother and sister are always arguing and I find myself caught in the middle.

(out) in the middle of nowhere >

in a place that is far away from where most people live • I'll need a map to find that pub – it's out in the middle of nowhere, apparently.

middle-aged

a middle-aged spread

the fat area around the waist that a lot of people get as they grow older • A dark blue shirt worn outside his trousers concealed the middle-aged spread.

middle-of-the-road

middle-of-the-road

- 1 not extreme politically Neither party is exactly radical – they're both fairly middle-of-the-road.
- 2 entertainment that is middle-of-the-road is ordinary and acceptable to most people but it is not exciting or special in any way
  - Most of the music they play is pretty middle-of-the-road.

midnight

burn the midnight oil

to work very late into the night • I've got to get this report finished by tomorrow so I guess I'll be burning the midnight oil tonight.

might

(with) might and main formal

with all your effort and strength • War is something we should be working might and main to avoid.

might is right British, American & Australian

might makes right American

the belief that you can do what you want because you are the most powerful person or country • To allow this invasion to happen will give a signal to every petty dictator that might is right.

mile

a mile a minute American & Australian very quickly • Mike was very excited and talking a mile a minute. • My heart beat a mile a minute waiting for his plane to land.

a mile off informal

if you can see or recognize something a mile off, you notice it very easily • It's obvious he fancies you – you can see that a mile off.

by a mile by miles

if someone or something wins or is the best by a mile, they win easily or are much better than everyone or everything else • Of all the strawberry ice-creams we've tasted, this is the best by miles. • Everyone expected him to win the championship by a mile.

run a mile informal

if you say that someone would run a mile if they had to deal with a particular situation, you mean that they would do anything to avoid it • He flirts the whole time but it's not serious – he'd run a mile if a woman actually made him an offer.

stand/stick out a mile

to be very obvious • She sticks out a mile with her red hair. • Of course he's unhappy – it stands out a mile.

miles

be miles away

to not be listening to what someone is saying because you are thinking about something else • 'Jim, did you hear what I just said?' 'Sorry, I was miles away.'

milk

the milk of human kindness literary

being good and kind to other people This phrase comes from Shakespeare's play 'Macbeth'. • She's one of those amazing people who's just overflowing with the milk of human kindness.

mill

go through the mill

to experience a very difficult or unpleasant period in your life • She really went through the mill with that son of hers.

put sb through the mill

to ask someone a lot of difficult questions in order to test them • They really put me through the mill in my interview.

million

look/feel (like) a million dollars British, American & Australian

look/feel (like) a million bucks American to look or feel extremely attractive • You look like a million dollars in that dress!

Thanks a million! informal

something that you say to thank someone for something they have done for you This phrase is often used humorously or angrily to mean the opposite. • It was a really good piece of advice – thanks a million. • So you didn't bother to call me and tell me you'd be late? Thanks a million!

millstone

a millstone around your neck

a problem or responsibility that you have all the time which prevents you from doing what you want  $\bowtie$  A millstone is a large stone that is very heavy. • I'd rather not be in debt – I don't want that millstone around my neck.

mincemeat

make mincemeat of sb informal

to defeat someone very easily • A good lawyer would have made mincemeat of them in court.

mind

your mind goes blank

if you are asked a question and your mind goes blank, you cannot think of anything to say • I was so nervous during the interview that when I was asked about my experience, my mind went blank.

your mind is a blank • I can't even tell you what his name was – my mind's a complete blank.

mind over matter

the power of the mind to control and influence the body and the physical world generally • I'm sure you can talk yourself into believing that you're well. It's a case of mind over matter.

The mind boggles.

something that you say which means that a situation or subject is very difficult to understand or imagine • A cloned sheep? The mind boggles. • (often + at) The mind boggles at the thought of what you could do with all that money.

mind-boggling • His latest book is a mixture of physics, astronomy and philosophy-all mind-boggling stuff.

be a load/weight off your mind

if something is a weight off your mind, you have been worrying about it and you are pleased that the problem has now been solved • I'm so relieved I don't have to give a speech – it's a real load off my mind.

be all in the/your mind

if you say that a problem that is worrying someone is all in their mind, you mean that they have imagined the problem and that it does not really exist • His doctor tried to convince him that he wasn't ill and that it was all in the mind.

be of like/one mind be of the same mind

if two or more people are of like mind,

if two or more people are of like mind, they agree with each other about something • (often + on) We're of like mind on most political issues.

be out of your mind informal

to be crazy • You paid three thousand pounds for that heap of junk! Are you out of your mind?

go out of your mind informal • Did I just imagine all of this – am I going out of my mind?

be out of your mind with [boredom/fear/ worry etc.]

to be extremely bored, frightened, worried etc. • He was four hours late and I was out of my mind with worry.

be [bored/scared/worried etc.] out of your mind • I really thought he was going to crash the car and I was scared out of my mind. • He was the only young person at the party and he looked bored out of his mind.

bear/keep sth in mind

to remember a piece of information when you are making decisions or thinking about a matter • (often + that) Bearing in mind that she's had so little experience, I thought she did very well. • Of course, repair work on older buildings is an expensive business and that's always something to be borne in mind.

blow your mind informal

if something blows your mind, you find it extremely surprising and exciting • The first time I heard this band, they completely blew my mind and I've been a fan ever since.

mind-blowing informal • The special effects in this film are mind-blowing.

bring sth/sb to mind

to cause you to think of someone or something • Something about his face brings to mind an old friend of mine.

cast your mind back to try to remember something • (usually + to) Cast your mind back to the first time we met Tony. Can you remember who he was with?

come/spring to mind

if someone or something springs to mind, you immediately think of them • I'm trying to think of someone who might help out with the kids. Yvette comes to mind. • 'Don't you think sex is funny, Marty?' 'Funny' isn't the word that immediately springs to mind, no.'

cross your mind

if an idea or thought crosses your mind, you think about it for a short time • (often + that) The thought did cross my mind that she might be taking drugs. • (often negative) The idea of failure never crossed his mind.

Do you mind!

something that you say when someone does something that annoys you • Do you mind! There's a queue here and some of us have been waiting half an hour to get to this point! • Do you mind! That's my brother you're talking about!

get your mind around sth

to succeed in understanding something difficult or strange • (usually negative) I still can't get my mind around the strange things she said that night.

have sth in mind

to be thinking about something as a possibility • (usually used in questions) 'I thought we might eat out tonight.' 'Where did you have in mind?' • I think that's probably what he had in mind.

have your mind on sth

to be thinking about something • It's hard to work when you've got your mind on other things.

your mind is on sth • I wasn't really listening – my mind was on other matters.

have a mind like a steel trap

to be able to think very quickly, clearly and intelligently • She'll be a brilliant lawver – she has a mind like a steel trap.

have a mind of its own humorous

if a machine or vehicle has a mind of its own, it does not work or move the way you want it to, as if it is controlling itself
• This computer's got a mind of its own—it just won't do what I ask it to.

in your mind's eye X

in your imagination or memory • In my mind's eye, she is still the little girl she was the last time I saw her.

lose your mind

255

to become crazy • Taking a child on a motorbike without a helmet! Have you completely lost your mind?

make up your mind

- 1 to decide what to choose (often + question word) I can't make up my mind whether to have the salmon or the chicken.
- 2 to become very certain that you want to do something • (often + to do sth) At a very early age she made up her mind to become an actress. • My mind's made up. I'm handing in my resignation tomorrow.

on sb's mind

if something is on someone's mind, they are thinking about it a lot or worrying about it • Something's worrying you, isn't it? What's on your mind? • I wanted to talk about men but Helen obviously had other things on her mind. • I'm sorry if I've been a bit irritable recently but I've got a lot on my mind (= I'm worrying a lot) at the moment.

prey on sb's mind

if something preys on someone's mind, they worry about it for a long time • I lost my temper with her the other day and it's been preying on my mind ever since.

put sb in mind of sb/sth old-fashioned

to cause someone to think of someone or something, usually because of a similarity • Something about the way he spoke put me in mind of Ben.

put your mind to it X

to put all your attention and efforts into doing something • If you put your mind to it, you could have the job finished in an afternoon.

put/set sb's mind at rest

to make someone stop worrying • If it'll put your mind at rest, I can drive you home and you can make sure the door's locked.

read sb's mind humorous

to know what someone is thinking without being told • 'How about a drink, then?' 'You read my mind, Kev.'

mind-reader • If something's bothering you, then tell me. I'm not a mind-reader, you know!

slip your mind

if something slips your mind, you forget about it  $\bullet$  I meant to tell her Nigel had phoned, but it completely slipped my mind.

speak your mind

to be honest to people about your opinions • She's not afraid to speak her mind, even if it upsets people.

sticks in the/your mind

if something sticks in the mind, you remember it easily, often because it was exciting or strange • Of all the things that we did in Crete, that boat trip really sticks in my mind. • She had one of those faces that sticks in the mind.

take sb's mind off sth/sb

if an activity takes someone's mind off their problems, it stops them from thinking about them • That's the good thing about helping other people – it takes your mind off your own problems.

to my mind

in my opinion • He's got red walls and a green carpet which, to my mind, looks all wrong.

mine

a mine of information

a person or a book with a lot of information • (often + about) He's a mine of information about the cinema.

mint

be in mint condition

if something is in mint condition, it looks as if it is new © The mint is a place where new coins are made.

• There's an ad here for a 1974 Volkswagen Beetle. It's dark blue and in mint condition, apparently.

minting

be minting it British & Australian, informal

be minting money American & Australian

to be earning a lot of money quickly • Ice cream sellers are minting it as the unseasonal heatways continues

minute

not have a minute to call your own

to be extremely busy • With a full-time job and a family to look after, I don't have a minute to call my own.

miracles

perform/work miracles

to be extremely effective in improving a situation • Di's worked miracles in the kitchen – I've never seen it look so clean.• These days plastic surgeons can perform miracles.

a miracle-worker • You've managed to fix the car! You're a miracle-worker!

mischief

do yourself a mischief British &

Australian, humorous

if you tell someone they will do themselves a mischief if they do something, you mean they will hurt themselves • You want to be careful jumping over spikes like that – you might do yourself a mischief!

misery

Misery loves company.

something that you say which means that people who are feeling sad usually want the people they are with to also feel sad • On a bad day, she isn't satisfied till the entire family is in tears. Misery loves company.

a misery guts informal

someone who complains all the time and is never happy • Of course, your father, old misery guts, wanted to come home after half an hour because he was bored.

put sb out of their misery

to stop someone worrying, usually by giving them information that they have been waiting for • I thought I'd call her with the results today and put her out of her misery.

put sth/sb out of their misery

to kill an animal or person because they are in a lot of pain and you want to end their suffering • Both of its back legs were shattered and I figured the kindest thing would be to put it out of its misery with a bullet.

miss

A miss is as good as a mile.

something that you say which means that failing to do something when you almost succeeded is no better than failing very badly • I've tried to reassure him that he only failed by three percent but the way he sees it, a miss is as good as a mile.

give sth a miss informal

to not take part in an activity • I think I'll give the barbecue a miss. I'm on a diet.

missing

without missing a beat American

if you do or say something without missing a beat, you continue confidently with what you are saying or doing • She was asked what single achievement she was most proud of 'My son,' she replied, without missing a beat.

mission

mission accomplished

something that you say when you have finished doing something that you were told to do D This was a military phrase in World War II. • Mission accomplished. I've got everything you asked for on the list

missionary

the missionary position

a sexual position in which the woman lies on her back with the man on top and facing her • And for the less adventurous, there's always the good old missionary position.

mix

mix it American & Australian, informal mix it up American, informal to fight or argue • Don't take any notice of Sally. She just likes to mix it. • He was seen mixing it up in a brawl after the game.

mixed

a mixed bag

a combination of different things or different types of people • The group is quite a mixed bag – we have members with all levels of experience.

be a mixed blessing

something that has bad effects as well as advantages • Beauty can be a mixed blessing. It gets you a lot of attention but people are less likely to take you seriously.

have mixed feelings about sth

to be both pleased and not pleased about something at the same time • (often + about) I had mixed feelings about leaving home. I was looking forward to going to university but I would miss my family.

with mixed feelings • News of the takeover was received with mixed feelings.

mo

Hang on a mo. informal

Half/Just a mo. informal

something that you say when you want someone to wait a short time • If you hang on a mo, I'll just check whether Barbara's in her office.

mockers

put the mockers on sth British, informal

to spoil something or to prevent it happening • Carol's parents decided to stay in on Saturday night, which put the mockers on her plans for a party.

mockery

make a mockery of sth

to make something seem stupid or without value • The fact that he sent his children to private school makes a mockery of his socialist principles.

model

be a/the model of sth

to be an excellent example of something • Claudia, always the model of good taste, looked elegant in a black silk gown.

moderation

Moderation in all things.

something that you say which means you should not do or have too much of anything • The latest thinking is that eating a little of the food you like won't harm you. Moderation in all things, as they say.

modesty

in all modesty humorous

something that you say when you are going to talk about your own achievements • I have to say, in all modesty, that we wouldn't have won the game if I hadn't been playing.

Mohammed

If Mohammed will not go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mohammed.

something that you say which means that if someone will not come to you, you have to go to them Definition This phrase comes from a story about Mohammed who was asked to show how powerful he was by making a mountain come to him. • They never visit me now they have a family. Well, if Mohammed won't go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mohammed.

moment

the moment of truth

the time when someone has to make an important decision or when you can see if something has been successful or not • The moment of truth came when I had to decide whether to move in with Jim or get a flat on my own.

moments

have your/its moments

to be sometimes very successful • This album's not as good as their last one, but it has its moments.

Monday

a Monday morning quarterback

American

someone who says how an event or problem should have been dealt with, after other people have already dealt with it • It's easy to be a Monday morning quarterback when you see the kids' low test scores, but there are no easy answers to improving education.

if you have that Monday morning feeling, you are unhappy that the weekend has finished and you have to go back to work • 'You look fed up. What's wrong?' 'Oh, it's just that Monday morning feeling.'

money

Money (is) no object.

something that you say which means it does not matter how much something costs because there is a lot of money available • If money was no object, what sort of a house would you live in?

Money doesn't grow on trees.

something that you say which means you should be careful how much money you spend because there is only a limited amount • 'Dad, can I have a new bike?' 'We can't afford one. Money doesn't grow on trees, you know.'

Money talks.

something that you say which means people who are rich have a lot of power and influence • 'He can't act so how did he get the part in the first place?' 'His father's a millionaire. Money talks.'

be (right) on the money American &

Australian, informal

if something someone says or does is on the money, it is correct • When you said he'd do the job well, you were right on the money.

be in the money

to suddenly have a lot of money, especially when you did not expect it • If I can get a commission for a royal portrait, I'll be in the money.

be money for old rope British, informal be money for jam British, informal

if a job is money for old rope, it is an easy way of earning money • Babysitting is money for old rope if the children go to sleep early. • Most people think being a professional footballer is money for jam.

for my money

in my opinion • For my money, the northwest of Scotland is the most beautiful part of Britain.

have money to burn

to have a lot of money and spend large amounts on things that are not necessary • Christine's new boyfriend seems to have money to burn. He's always buying her extravagant gifts.

with money to burn • The only people who can afford to stay at this hotel are rich people with money to burn.

I'm not made of money!

something that you say in order to tell someone who asks you for money that you do not have very much • No, I can't lend you twenty pounds. I'm not made of money, you know.

put your money on sb/sth

to believe that someone will do something or something will happen • 'Who do you reckon will get the job, then?' 'I'd put my money on Val.' • I'd put my money on Zola leaving Chelsea within the next two years.

put your money where your mouth is

to support something that you believe in, especially by giving money • If people are really interested in helping the homeless they should put their money where their mouth is.

spend money like water

of someone spends money like water, they spend too much • Carol spends money like water—no wonder she's always broke.

throw (your) money around X

to often spend money on things that are not necessary • I'm not surprised she hasn't got any savings. I've never seen anyone throw money around like Polly.

throw money at sth

to try to solve a problem by spending a lot of money on it, instead of trying to solve it by other methods • It's no good just throwing money at the problem. We need to change the way the prison system is run.

You pays your money (and you takes your chances). informal

something that you say which means if you do something that involves risk you must accept that you cannot control the result • The hotels are supposed to have star ratings, but in fact it's a case of you pays your money and you takes your chances.

You pays your money (and you takes your choice). informal

something that you say which means each person has to make their own decisions in a situation, because no decision is more correct than any other • You can go by motorway, which is

 You can go by motorway, which is quicker, or take the coast road, which is prettier. You pays your money and you takes your choice.

money-spinner

a money-spinner British & Australian a business or product that makes a lot of money for someone • Cookery books are becoming a real money-spinner for the publishing industry.

monkey

monkey business slightly informal silly behaviour or dishonest behaviour
• So what kind of monkey business have you kids been up to while I was out? • The tax inspectors discovered that there had been some monkey business with the

a monkey on sb's back American &

Australian

accounts.

a serious problem that will not go away
• The divorce proceedings are a monkey on her back.

not give a monkey's British & Australian, very informal

if you do not give a monkey's about something, you do not care about it at all
• She couldn't give a monkey's if everyone's talking about her. • (often + question word) I don't give a monkey's how much he earns. I just don't like him.

I'll be a monkey's uncle! old-fashioned something that you say when you are very surprised • Well, I'll be a monkey's uncle. I never thought Bill would remarry, make a monkey (out) of sb old-fashioned to make someone seem stupid • That's enough of your silly tricks. Nobody makes a monkey out of me!

monopoly

monopoly money

money that seems to have little or no value (a) Monopoly is the trademark for a game in which you buy property with pretend money • Win or lose this contract, it's all monopoly money to him.

not have a monopoly on sth

if someone does not have a monopoly on something, they are not the only person who has that thing • You don't have a monopoly on suffering, you know. Other people have problems too.

month

not in a month of Sundays

if you say that something will not happen in a month of Sundays, you mean that it is not likely to happen • He'll never run the marathon, not in a month of Sundays.

moon

ask/cry for the moon

to want something that is not possible · (usually in continuous tenses) There's no point hoping for a permanent peace in the area. It's like asking for the moon.

be over the moon informal

to be extremely pleased about something · Marie got the job. She's over the moon.

moonlight

not be all moonlight and roses

if a situation is not all moonlight and roses, it is not always pleasant · Marriage isn't all moonlight and roses. It can be hard work keeping a relationship together:

do a moonlight flit British, informal

to leave somewhere secretly at night, usually to avoid paying money that you owe . We could always do a moonlight flit - that way we wouldn't have to explain about the money.

moons

many moons ago old-fashioned

a long time ago . I only have the faintest memory of that time. It all happened many moons ago.

more

The more the merrier.

something that you say which means you are happy for other people to join your group in an activity . 'Do you mind if Ann comes to the cinema with us?' 'Not at all. The more the merrier.'

bite off more than you can chew

informal

to try to do more than you are able to do · Don't bite off more than you can chew. Let someone else organize the party.

That's more like it. informal something that you say when someone improves an offer or an attempt . T can raise my offer to $500.' 'That's more like it.'

morning

the morning after (the night before)

informal

the morning after a party, when you feel ill because you were drunk . Frank's got a bad case of the morning after.

morning, noon, and night

if you do something morning, noon, and night, you do it most of the time . They've been working morning, noon, and night to finish the decorating before the baby's born.

mortal

shuffle off this mortal coil humorous

to die Dhis phrase comes from the play Hamlet by William Shakespeare. • I really want to see the Coliseum before I shuffle off this mortal coil.

most

make the most of sth

to take full advantage of something because it may not last long . Make the most of the good weather because rain is forecast for tomorrow. . There'll be a lot of travelling involved in my new job and I plan to make the most of it.

mother

Mother Nature

the force that controls the natural world · Look at those trees blown down in the storm. Just shows you what Mother Nature can do when she gets angry.

a mother lode of sth American

a large collection of a particular type of thing • His collection of letters and papers is a mother lode of information for writers and journalists.

the mother of all sth informal

an extreme example of something · Mike's suffering from the mother of all hangovers after the party last night.

at your mother's knee

if you learned to do something at your mother's knee, you learned it when you were a young child • I learned to sew at my mother's knee.

Shall I be mother? British & Australian, humorous

something that you say in order to ask whether you should serve food or drink to someone • Here comes the tea. Shall I be mother?

moths

like moths to a flame literary

if people gather round someone like moths to a flame, they try to be near someone who seems very attractive or very interesting Moths are small flying insects that are attracted to bright light. • I never understood why people flocked around him like moths to a flame.

motion

put/set sth in motion

if you set something in motion, you start it happening • The government have set in motion plans to reform the justice system.

motions

go through the motions

to do something because you are expected to do it and not because you want to • (often in continuous tenses) These days when we go out, cook a meal together or even make love, I get the feeling that he's just going through the motions.

mot juste

the mot juste formal

the word or phrase that exactly describes what you want to say • I'm searching for the mot juste to describe him. Unusual, I think, is the best way of saying it.

mould

Mold is the American spelling of mould.

be cast in the same mould X

if two people are cast in the same mould, they have the same type of character • Jack is cast in the same mould as his # father - intelligent, kind, but stubborn. opposite be cast in a different mould

· She's cast in a very different mold from her sister. You'd never know they were from the same family.

break the mould

to do something differently, after it has been done in the same way for a long time

- She broke the mould by insisting on becoming a doctor instead of a nurse.
- (often + of) A new TV show is about to be launched which aims to break the mold of the usual daytime programs.

They broke the mould when they made sb/sth.

something that you say which means someone or something is very special and that there is not another person or thing like them • They broke the mold when they made Elvis. There's never been a star to match him.

mountain

a mountain to climb British & Australian something that is very difficult to do

 After a bad start to the season, the team has a mountain to climb if they want to win the league.

make a mountain out of a molehill

to make a slight difficulty seem like a serious problem • (usually in continuous tenses) You're making a mountain out of a molehill. You wrote one bad essay – it doesn't mean you're going to fail your degree.

mountains

move mountains

- 1 if someone or someone's beliefs or feelings can move mountains, they can achieve something that is very difficult
  If faith can move mountains, we'll win
  - If faith can move mountains, we'll wir the Cup.
- 2 if you would move mountains for someone, they are so important to you that you would do anything to please them • He'd move mountains for her but she treats him like dirt.

mouth

a mouth to feed

someone, especially a new-born baby for whom you must provide food • With three small children and hardly any money, the last thing they needed was another mouth to feed.

be all mouth British, American & Australian, informal

be all mouth and (no) trousers British, informal

if someone is all mouth, they talk a lot about doing something but they never do it • She says she'll complain to the manager but I think she's all mouth.
• You're all mouth and no trousers. Why don't you just go over there and ask her out?

be down in the mouth informal

to be sad • Jake looks a bit down in the mouth. Shall we try to find out what's wrong?

keep your mouth shut informal

to keep something secret • You can trust Sarah – she knows how to keep her mouth shut. • (sometimes + about) Do you think I should keep my mouth shut about seeing Jim with another woman?

make sb's mouth water

if the smell or the sight of food makes your mouth water, it makes you want to eat it • The smell of fish and chips made my mouth water.

mouth-watering • The restaurant had a selection of mouth-watering desserts.

melt in the/your mouth

if food melts in your mouth, it is soft and tastes very pleasant • This sponge cake just melts in your mouth.

run off at the mouth American, informal to talk a lot without saying anything important • He's just another one of these politicians who run off at the mouth.

shoot your mouth off very informal to talk too much, especially about something you should not talk about

• (often + about) Don't go shooting your mouth off about how much money you're earning.

Wash your mouth out! old-fashioned

something that you say to someone who is younger than you when you are angry with them for swearing • Wash your mouth out, young lady. There's no call for language like that!

mouths

Out of the mouths of babes (and sucklings). literary

something that you say when a small child says something that surprises you because it shows an adult's wisdom and understanding of a situation • I was so stunned that a child of six could be so adult in her perceptions. Out of the mouths of babes...

movable

a movable feast

something that happens often but at different times so that you are not certain when it will next happen • They usually have a party at some point in the summer but it's something of a movable feast.

move

move the goalposts British, American & Australian

move the goal American

to change the rules in a situation in a way that is not fair, usually in order to make it more difficult for someone to achieve something • My boss is never satisfied. Whenever I think I've done what he wants, he moves the goalposts.

get a move on informal

to hurry • (often an order) Get a move on, man! We don't have all day. • Simon realised he'd have to get a move on if he was to finish by 40 clock.

make a move

- 1 to do something in order to achieve a particular result Who will make the first move towards resolving the dispute?
   (often + to do sth) There were plenty of witnesses to the attack, but nobody made a move to stop it.
- 2 to leave a place It's getting late perhaps we ought to make a move.

make a move on sb informal

to try to start a romantic or sexual relationship with someone • As soon as Ellen left the room, her boyfriend made a move on me.

movers

the movers and shakers

people who have a lot of power and influence • This play has attracted the attention of the Broadway movers and shakers.

moving

the moving spirit literary

someone who starts an important organization or course of action • (often + behind) Born in Nkroful, Ghana, he was the moving spirit behind the Charter of African States.

Mr

Mr Big informal

the most important man in a group of people, especially a group involved in criminal activities • Police have arrested a man they believe is the Mr Big of Brighton's drug scene.

Mr Right

a man who would be the perfect husband for a particular woman because he has all the qualities that she wants • I'm sure she'll settle down with a nice man one day soon. She just hasn't found Mr Right yet.

No more Mr Nice Guy.

something that you say when you have decided to behave in a less pleasant way • I'm fed up with people taking advantage of me. From now on, it's no more Mr Nice Guy.

much

be much of a muchness informal

to be very similar • Pop music these days is all much of a muchness as far as I'm concerned.

not be up to much British & Australian to not be of a very high quality • It's a very beautiful-looking town but the shopping's not up to much.

muck

treat sb like muck informal

to treat someone without respect or kindness • Mick treats his girlfriend like muck, but she's crazy about him.

Where there's muck, there's brass.

British

something that you say which means you can make a lot of money from work that most people do not want to do because they think it is dirty or unpleasant  Decorating's a messy job, but where there's muck, there's brass.

muck-raking

muck-raking informal

the activity of trying to discover unpleasant information about people so that you can tell the public • These reports are nothing but muck-raking – journalists should not be allowed to investigate ministers' private business dealings.

mud

Mud sticks. British & Australian

something that you say which means it is difficult to make people change their bad opinion of someone • The court cleared him of fraud, but mud sticks.

Here's mud in your eye! old-fashioned something that you say in order to wish success or happiness to someone who is drinking with you • Well, here's mud in your eye! I hope you'll both be very happy together.

sling/throw mud at sb

if someone slings mud at another person, they try to make other people have a low opinion of them by saying unpleasant things about them • Companies should think carefully before slinging mud at someone who may respond with a libel action costing millions of dollars.

mud-slinging • I left Hollywood because I was fed up with all the mud-slinging that goes on there.

mug

a mug's game British, informal

an activity that will not make you happy or successful A mug is a person who is easily deceived. • Working for a big company is a mug's game – if you want to make money you need to start your own business.

multitude

cover/hide a multitude of sins humorous

if something hides a multitude of sins, it prevents people from seeing or discovering something bad • Big sweaters are warm and practical and they hide a multitude of sins.

mum

Mum's the word. informal

something that you say which means something should be kept secret • I think I'm pregnant, but mum's the word until I know for sure.

mumbo

mumbo jumbo

speech or writing that is nonsense or very complicated and cannot be understood • There's so much legal mumbo jumbo in these documents that it's hard to make sense of them.

munchies

get the munchies informal >

to feel a bit hungry • Do you ever get the munchies late at night and find there's absolutely nothing in the house you want to eat?

murder

get away with murder informal

to be allowed to do things that other people would be punished or criticized for • Dave gets away with murder because he's so charming.

I could murder sth. British, informal something that you say when you want a particular kind of food or drink very much • I'm starving. I could murder a curry.

scream blue murder British, American & Australian, informal # scream bloody murder American &

Australian, informal

to shout or to complain very loudly • Readers screamed blue murder when the price of their daily paper went up.
• Someone took the child's ice cream away and he started screaming bloody murder.

murmur

without a murmur

if you do something without a murmur, you do it without complaining • Louise was so tired that she went to bed without a murmur for once.

Murphy

Murphy's law humorous

the way in which plans always fail and bad things always happen where there is any possibility of them doing so • I'm a great believer in Murphy's law – what can go wrong will go wrong.

muscle

not move a muscle

to stay completely still • She sat without moving a muscle as the nurse injected the anaesthetic.

muscles

flex your muscles

if a person or an organization flexes their muscles, they take some action to let people know how powerful they are • The latest bomb scare was just the terrorists flexing their muscles – showing us they haven't gone away.

music

be music to sb's ears

if something you hear is music to your ears, it makes you very happy • The news of his resignation was music to my ears.

face the music

to accept criticism or punishment for something that you have done • When the missing money was noticed, he chose to disappear rather than face the music.

muster

pass muster

to be of an acceptable standard for a particular purpose • Well, how did I do in the test? Do I pass muster?

mutton

mutton dressed (up) as lamb British,

informal

an offensive way of saying that a woman is dressed in a style that is more suitable for a much younger woman • Do you think this skirt is too short? I don't want to look like mutton dressed as lamb.

mutual

a mutual admiration society humorous

a situation in which two people express a lot of admiration for each other • 'You haven't aged at all.' 'Neither have you and look how slim you are!' 'Hey, you two, why don't you form a mutual admiration society!'

nail

another/the final nail in the coffin

an event which causes the failure of something that had already started to fail • (usually + of) I think that argument was the final nail in the coffin of our friendship.

hit the nail on the head

to describe exactly what is causing a situation or problem • I think Mick hit the nail on the head when he said that what's lacking in this company is a feeling of confidence.

on the nail British & Australian

if you pay an amount of money on the nail, you pay all of it immediately • He always paid cash, on the nail.

nail-biting

nail-biting

a nail-biting event or period of time makes you feel very nervous, usually because you are waiting for something important to happen • (always before noun) The teams were very evenly matched and played a close game right up to the nail-biting finish.

name

sb's name is mud informal

if someone's name is mud, other people are angry with that person because of something they have done or said • Well he'd better turn up tonight or his name will be mud.

you name it

something that you say which means anything you say or choose • I've tried just about every diet there is going, you name it and I've done it. • What would you like? Gin, vodka, lager, wine? You name it, we've got it.

a name to conjure with

- 1 a very important and famous name
   There are some names to conjure with on the programme - Poland's Polanski and India's Satyajit Ray to name but two.
- 2 an interesting or strange name Arnold Spunkmeyer – now that's a name to conjure with!

the name of the game

the most important part of an activity, or the quality that you most need for that activity • You have to know the right people in acting. That's the name of the game.

clear sb's name

to prove that someone is not guilty of something • He was convicted of drugsmuggling four years ago and has been trying to clear his name ever since.

drag sb's name through the mire/mud

to tell people about something bad that someone has done so that people will have a bad opinion of them • Her name was dragged through the mud after she admitted offering money in return for votes.

have sb's name on it informal

if something has your name on it, it is the type of thing that you like very much and so you have to buy, eat, or drink it • Come on, Paul, there's one piece of chocolate cake left and it's got your name on it.

have sb's name written all over it informal

if a job has someone's name written all over it, they have all the qualifications that are needed for that job • You've got to apply for this job. It's got your name written all over it.

have/see your name in lights informal

to be famous for your work in film, theatre, music etc. • She accepted the few badly-paid roles she was offered and continued to dream of seeing her name in lights.

I can't put a name to her/him.

something that you say when you cannot remember someone's name • I can picture his face exactly but I can't put a name to him.

in all but name

if a situation exists in all but name, it exists although it is not officially described that way • They'd been living together for over ten years. It was a marriage in all but name.

in name only

if something exists in name only, it is officially described in a particular way, although that description is not really true • Two-thirds of the population are Catholic, though many are so in name only.

in the name of sth

if bad things are done in the name of something, they are done in order to help that thing succeed • When you think about the atrocities that have been committed in the name of religion, you start to wonder what it's all about.

make a name for yourself make your name

to become famous or respected by a lot of people • It was with his third novel, 'The Darkest Hours', that he made a name for himself.

take sb's name in vain humorous

to say someone's name when they are not there, usually when you are criticizing them • Did I hear someone taking my name in vain?

names

call sb names

to use impolite or unpleasant words to describe someone • I was afraid that if I wore glasses to school, the other kids would call me names. • It's a good thing he didn't hear me earlier – I was calling him all the names under the sun. (= using a lot of impolite words to describe him) name-calling • If you think about all that name-calling that goes on in school playgrounds, kids can be very cruel.

name names

to tell people who is involved in a secret or illegal activity • He wouldn't name names but has promised that the accusations will be fully investigated.

narrow

a narrow escape

a situation in which you were lucky because you just managed to avoid danger or trouble • He only just got out of the vehicle before the whole thing blew up. It was a narrow escape.

nasty

be a nasty piece of work British &

Australian, informal

to be a very unpleasant person • He's a nasty piece of work, is Carl. I'd avoid him if I were you.

native

go native humorous

if you say that someone living in a foreign country has gone native, you mean that they have lost some of their own character because they have started to behave like the people in that country • After a month in Egypt he went native, swapping his linen suit for a pair of wide trousers and a loose tunic.

natural-born

natural-born informal

having the qualities and abilities which you need in order to be good at doing a particular thing • (always before noun) Carl was a natural-born salesman, and quickly expanded the company's world-wide sales.

nature

be (in) the nature of the beast

if something unpleasant is in the nature of the beast, it cannot be avoided because it is part of the character of something • Relationships always involve some degree of dependence. It's in the nature of the beast.

let nature take its course

to allow someone or something to live or die naturally • By this stage, her illness was so severe that the doctors agreed to let nature take its course rather than prolong her suffering. • We plant the seeds in springtime and then just let nature take its course.

navel

gaze at/contemplate your navel

humorous

to spend too much time thinking about yourself and your own problems Evaluation Your navel is the small round piece of skin in the middle of your stomach. • I read his novel and thought, the man's obviously spent far too long contemplating his own navel.

navel-gazing • He's a man of action and navel-gazing has never been his style.

near

a near miss

a situation in which an accident or unpleasant situation almost happened and was only just avoided • I managed to brake just in time but it was a near miss.

be near the knuckle British, informal

if a joke or a remark is near the knuckle, it is about sex in a way that some people find offensive • Some of his jokes were a bit near the knuckle and, unfortunately, I was watching the show with my parents.

so near and yet so far

something that you say which means that you have almost achieved something but that what you still have to do in order to achieve it is very difficult or impossible • I've only got the last chapter to write but it's taking forever. So near, yet so agonisingly far.

nearest

your nearest and dearest humorous your family • When people are stressed at work, they tend to go home and take it out on their nearest and dearest.

nearly

nearly fall off your chair

to be very surprised about something • When my mother told me she was getting remarried I nearly fell off my chair.

necessary

a necessary evil

something that you do not like but which you know must exist or happen • He considers taxes a necessary evil.

necessity

Necessity is the mother of invention.

something that you say which means that if you want to do something very much you will think of a way to do it • We can't afford expensive paper to paint on so we use old envelopes and newspaper. They do say necessity is the mother of invention.

neck

neck and neck

if two people who are competing are neck and neck, they are very close and either of them could win • (often + with) Recent polls show the Republicans almost neck and neck with the Democratic Party.

neck of the woods informal

area of the country • I'm surprised to see you in this neck of the woods. What brings you here? • There's no scenery like this in your neck of the woods, is there?

be up to your neck in sth

- 1 to be very busy Right now I'm up to my neck in work.
- 2 to be in a difficult or unpleasant situation

  He's paid practically nothing and he's up to his neck in debt.

breathe down sb's neck

to pay very close attention to what someone does in a way that annoys or worries them • It's awful having to work with a boss who's breathing down your neck the whole time.

get it in the neck British & Australian,

informal

to be punished or criticized for something that you have done • It always seems to be the chairman of these football clubs who gets it in the neck when the team does badly.

I'll wring your neck! informal something that you say when you are very angry with someone • I'll wring his neck if he does it again. • I could wring his neck, I feel so annoyed with him.

put your neck on the line

to do something that you know might fail and spoil other people's opinion of you or cause you to lose money • There's a lot of money at stake here and none of the directors wants to put his neck on the line.
• No one wants to put their neck on the line and predict an outcome.

risk your neck

to do something very dangerous • I'm not going to risk my neck climbing over a twenty-foot wall!

save sb's neck

to prevent something bad from happening to someone • You really saved my neck. I'd have been in so much trouble if you'd told him the truth.

stick your neck out

to give an opinion which other people may not like or which other people are frightened to give • I'm going to stick my neck out and predict a Republican victory.
• He's never been afraid of sticking his neck out.

need

I don't need this! informal

something that you say when you are annoyed because something is causing you a lot of trouble • And the next thing that happens is the printer stops working and I'm thinking, I don't need this!

That's all you need!

something that you say to show your anger when something happens which will cause you problems when you already have other problems • A train strike. That's all I need! • Her son was arrested yesterday? Poor Brenda, that's all she needs at the moment!

needle

be like looking for a needle in a

haystack

to be difficult or impossible to find • I don't know how you find anything in your desk, Polly. It's like looking for a needle in a haystack.

needs

needs must

something that you say which means that you will do something only because it is necessary • I really don't feel like cooking for all these people tonight but needs must.

Who needs it/them? informal

something that you say which means that you think something causes trouble • Stress, who needs it? • Men, who needs them anyway?

neither

neither here nor there

if a fact is neither here nor there, it is not important • Whether they go or not is neither here nor there as far as I'm concerned.

be neither one thing nor the other

if you say that something is neither one thing nor the other, you think it is bad because it is a mixture of two different things that do not combine well together • I prefer a book to be either fact or fiction—this one's neither one thing nor the other.

nelly

Not on your nelly! British & Australian,

old-fashioned

something that you say in order to tell someone that you will not do something

 'Perhaps you could take Phil with you to the party.' 'Not on your nelly!'

nerve

hit/touch a (raw) nerve X

to upset someone by talking about a particular subject • I think I hit a nerve with my comments about divorce. • She suddenly looked distressed and I knew I'd touched a raw nerve.

strain every nerve

to try extremely hard to do something • I was straining every nerve to catch what they were saying but they were sitting just a bit too far away from me.

nerves

nerves of steel

if someone has nerves of steel, they are very brave • You'd have to have nerves of steel to play in front of a crowd this size.

a battle/war of nerves

a situation in which two competing groups of people try to defeat each other by frightening and threatening each other without taking action • This has become a battle of nerves with neither side seeming willing to back down.

be a bundle of nerves British, American & Australian, informal

be a bag of nerves British, informal

to be very nervous • You should have seen me before the interview. I was a bundle of nerves.

get/grate on sb's nerves informal

to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again • If we spend too much time together we end up getting on each other's nerves. • The telephone hadn't stopped ringing all morning and it was starting to grate on my nerves.

live on your nerves British & Australian to always be very anxious • She doesn't sleep or eat well. I get the feeling she's really living on her nerves.

nest

a nest egg

an amount of money that you have saved • Regular investment of small amounts of money is an excellent way of building a nest egg.

fly/leave the nest

to leave your parents' home for the first time in order to live somewhere else • Once the kids have all flown the nest we might sell this house and move somewhere smaller.

net

cast your net wide/wider

to think about a large number of things or people when choosing the thing or person that you want • If we don't get many interesting candidates this time round we may have to cast our net a little wider.

slip through the net

to not be caught or dealt with by the system that should be catching or dealing with you • The system is failing and mental patients who badly need help are still slipping through the net. • Innocent people have been falsely convicted while the guilty ones may be slipping through the net.

nettle

grasp the nettle British & Australian × to take action immediately in order to deal with an unpleasant situation A nettle is a plant which can sting if you touch it. • I've been putting off tackling the problem for too long and I think it's time to grasp the nettle.

never

Never say die.

something that you say which means that you should not accept that you have failed while there is still a chance that you may succeed • There are still a couple of job agencies that you haven't tried. Never say die.

never-never

a never-never land

an imaginary place where everything is perfect in a way that it is not in the real world • The film is set in a pre-war English never-never land of roses and sunny days.

on the never-never British, humorous

if you buy something on the never-never, you pay for it in regular, small amounts over a period of time • Buy something on the never-never and you end up paying twice as much.

new

new blood

new people in an organization who will provide new ideas and energy • It's time we injected some new blood into this organization.

a new broom

a new leader of an organization who makes a lot of changes and improvements • There was a feeling that White had been in charge long enough and that what was needed was a new broom.

a New Man British & Australian

a man who shows his belief in the equality of the sexes by helping his partner with the care of the children and by sharing the work that needs to be done in the house • I bet you Chris does at least half of the cooking and the housework. He's very much a New Man.

the new kid on the block American &

Australian, informal

someone who is new in a place or organization and has many things to learn about it • Realizing I was the new kid on the block in this job, I was determined to prove myself.

be new to the game

to lack any experience of a particular activity • I'd never interviewed anyone on television before. I was new to the game and needed all the advice I could get.

break new ground

1 to do something that is different to anything that has been done before  We're breaking new ground in television comedy. You'll never have seen anything like this before.

ground-breaking • (always before noun)
It was with her ground-breaking, allwomen production of Hamlet that she really established herself.

2 to discover new information about a subject • So are scientists breaking new ground in their quest to discover what causes the disease?

ground-breaking • (always before noun) This company has produced some groundbreaking research.

give sb a new lease of life British & Australian

give sb a new lease on life American

if something gives someone a new lease of life, it makes them happy or healthy and gives them new energy after a period of illness or sadness • The operation was such a success – it really has given her a new lease of life.

give sth a new lease of life X

to improve something that was old or oldfashioned so that it works better or looks better • I've had that blue sofa re-covered and it's really given it a new lease of life.

That's a new one on me! informal

something that you say when someone has just told you about a surprising fact or idea that you have never heard before

 And you eat cheese and peanut butter together? That's a new one on me!

turn over a new leaf

to start behaving in a better way

Apparently, he's turned over a new leaf and he's not drinking any more.

news

No news is good news.

something that you say when you have not spoken to someone or heard any information about them and you are hoping that this is because nothing bad has happened to them • I haven't heard from Johnny for over a week now but I suppose no news is good news.

That's news to me.

something that you say to someone when they have just told you a piece of information that surprises you • And he told you he did a lot of cooking, did he? Well, that's news to me.

nice

Nice one! British & Australian, informal something that you say when you have just heard that someone has done something which you think is good • 'Graham's brought some champagne along to mark the occasion.' 'Oh, nice one, Graham!'

Nice work if you can get it!

something that you say when you are talking about a way of earning money easily that you would do if you had the opportunity • Top soap opera stars are paid around £2,000 an episode. Nice work if you can get it!

a nice little earner British & Australian, informal something such as a job or a business that allows you to earn a lot of money

• That waitressing job's a nice little earner.

be as nice as pie informal

if someone is nice as pie, they are friendly to you when you are expecting them not to be • I came in this morning expecting him to be furious with me and he was nice as pie.

nick

in the nick of time

at the last possible moment \( \exists \) A nick is a mark on a stick which was used in the past to measure time. • We got there just in the nick of time. A minute later and she'd have left.

nickel

nickel-and-dime American, informal very ordinary and not important Nickels and dimes are American coins which are very low in value.

(always before noun) We drove along past deserted gas stations and nickel-and-dime diners.

nickel and dime sb American, informal

to charge someone small amounts of money for something, often as an extra payment • I hate being nickeled and dimed by hotels for local telephone calls they already charge you so much for the room.

night

a night owl

someone who often goes to bed late because they prefer to do things at night • A night owl from his youth, he is rarely in bed before 40 clock.

nine

nine times out of ten

almost always • Nine times out of ten when you're dreading an occasion it turns out to be perfectly all right.

go the whole nine yards American,

informal

to continue doing something dangerous or difficult until it is finished • The weather was terrible but I wanted to go the whole nine yards and get to the top of the mountain.

the whole nine yards American, informal the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • When I eat Mexican food, I like to have fajitas, bean dip, guacamole – the whole nine yards.

ninepins

go down/fall like ninepins British, oldfashioned

to be injured, or to fail in large numbers Ninepins is a game in which you try to make bottle-shaped objects fall by rolling a ball at them. • (usually in continuous tenses) I've never seen so many players injured. They were going down like ninepins.

nip

a nip in the air

if there is a nip in the air, the air is cold • There's quite a nip in the air. I think you'll need your jacket on.

a nip and (a) tuck

1 American a medical operation to improve the appearance of your face • I don't think you could look like that at her age without a little nip and tuck. 2 American small changes or reductions made in order to improve something • A nip and a tuck in their household budget would give them the extra money they need.

be nip and tuck American, informal

if two people who are competing are nip and tuck, they have almost the same number of points and either of them could win • There's no saying who's going to win this game. It's been nip and tuck all the way.

nitty-gritty

the nitty-gritty

the most basic and important facts of something • We didn't actually get down to the nitty-gritty (= start to talk about the most important facts) until half way through the meeting.

no

no dice American & Australian, informal no soap American

something that you say in order to refuse a request or to make clear that something is not possible • 'Can you lend me ten dollars?' 'Sorry, no dice – I don't have any money with me.' • We were looking for a house to rent on the island but it was no soap.

no end informal

very much • Jack's visit cheered me up no end.

no end of sth informal a lot of something • We've had no end of problems with the washing machine.

No fear! British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to emphasize that you do not want to do something • 'So are you coming camping with us this weekend?' 'No fear! I hate camping!'

no go informal

something that you say when something is not going to happen • We were supposed to be going to Ann's for the weekend but it's no go because of the weather.

no matter slightly formal

something that you say which means that a problem is not important • It's raining, 272

but no matter, I'll take the dog for a walk anyway.

no messing British, informal something that you say which means you have done something in a very complete way • 'I ordered a glass of white wine but I see Ian's brought a whole bottle.' 'Yeah, no messing.'

No sweat! informal

something that you say which means that you can do something easily • 'Do you think you'll be able to manage all those boxes yourself?' 'Yeah, no sweat!'

No way!

- 1 informal something that you say in order to make very clear that your answer to a question is 'no' • 'Have you paid for the repair yet?' 'No way! Not until we know for sure that the computer is actually working'.
- 2 informal something that you say when someone says something that is very surprising • 'Hey, I saw Ellie out with Andrew last night.' 'No way!'

and no messing British, informal without any difficulties • She did the entire job in under an hour and no messing.

be no joke

if a situation is no joke, it is very serious or very difficult • There are two of us here, trying to do the work of four people it's no joke.

be no picnic X

if a situation or activity is no picnic, it is unpleasant or difficult • Bringing up four children on your own is no picnic, I can tell you.

in next to no time informal in no time (at all) informal

if something happens or is done in no time, it happens or is done extremely quickly • It's only another mile or so. We'll be there in next to no time. • He had the food ready in no time.

not take no for an answer

if someone will not take no for an answer, they continue asking for something although their request has already been refused • I've told her again and again that you're too busy to see her, but she won't take no for an answer.

nobody

like nobody's business informal

very quickly or very well • We get through butter in our house like nobody's business. • She cooks like nobody's business. (= she cooks very well)

nod

A nod's as good as a wink. British &

Australian, humorous

something that you say when you have understood what was meant by something although it was not expressed in a direct way • I know when I'm not wanted, so don't try to say anything more—a nod's as good as a wink.

A nod is a movement of the head which shows you want to say 'yes'. It is used in the following phrases connected with agreeing to something.

give sb the nod British & Australian,

informal

to give someone permission to do something • We're just waiting for the council to give us the nod then we'll start building.

get the nod British & Australian, informal to get permission to do something • It remains to be seen which scheme will get the nod.

on the nod British & Australian, informal if a suggestion is agreed to on the nod, it is accepted without discussion • The Stock Exchange clearly hopes these proposals will go through on the nod.

noise

make a noise about sth

to complain a lot about something • If you don't make a noise about things, nothing gets changed.

noises

make noises

to talk about something that you might do, but not in a detailed or certain way • She's been making noises about going back to college.

no-no

be a no-no

if something that someone does is a nono, people do not think it is an acceptable way of behaving • Spanking children is a no-no these days.

non sequitur

a non sequitur

a statement which does not seem to be connected with what has just been said • 'Have you arranged for us to visit Eileen?' I asked. 'But I thought you were coming by train', said Gwen, in what seemed a complete non sequitur.

nook

every nook and cranny X

every part of a place • This house is where I grew up. I know every nook and cranny of it.

nooks and crannies • I dusted the living room really thoroughly, making sure I got into all the nooks and crannies.

nose

nose to tail British

if cars that are moving are nose to tail, they are very close to each other, one behind the other • Traffic is nose to tail on the east-bound section of the M62.

by a nose 🗙

if a person or animal wins a race or competition by a nose, they win it by only very little • My horse won but only by a nose. In fact, it was a very exciting finish.

cut off your nose to spite your face

to do something because you are angry, even if it will cause trouble for you • 'The next time he treats me like that, I'm just going to quit my job.' 'Isn't that a bit like cutting off your nose to spite your face?'

follow your nose

- 1 to make decisions by thinking of how you feel about someone or something instead of finding out information about them As far as recruitment is concerned, I tend to follow my nose. I meet someone for an informal interview and see if I like them.
- 2 informal if someone tells you to follow your nose when they are explaining how to go to a place, they are telling you to continue in the same direction • Take the first on your right and follow your nose.

get up sb's nose British & Australian, informal

to annoy someone • It's the way he follows me around everywhere – it gets right up my nose. • To be honest, I prefer not to have to deal with her. She gets up my nose.

have your nose in a book

to be reading • My daughter reads all the time. She's always got her nose in a book.

have a nose (round) British & Australian, informal

to look around a place • He left the room for a few minutes so I thought I'd have a nose round.

have a nose for sth informal

to be good at finding a particular kind of thing • Like any good newspaper journalist, she has a nose for a good story. • He's always finding things in the sales. He seems to have a nose for a bargain.

keep your nose clean

to avoid getting into trouble or doing anything illegal • I'd only been out of prison three months so I was trying to keep my nose clean.

keep your nose out of sth informal

to not become involved in other people's activities or relationships • What goes on between me and Pete is none of her business so she can keep her big nose out of it!

keep your nose to the grindstone

to continue to work very hard, without stopping • I've only got six weeks before my exams start so I'm trying to keep my nose to the grindstone.

lead sb by the nose

to control someone and make them do exactly what you want them to do © Cows are often led by a ring which has been put through their nose.

• (usually passive) They simply didn't know what they were doing and they were led by the nose by a manipulative government.

look down your nose at sth/sb informal

to think that someone is less important than you or that something is not good enough for you • I always felt that she looked down her nose at us because we spoke with strong accents and hadn't been to college.

on the nose mainly American X

exactly right, often an exact amount of money or time • We arrived at three o'clock on the nose. • Her description of the play really hit it on the nose.

pay through the nose informal

to pay too much for something • (usually + for) If you want a decent wine in a restaurant, you have to pay through the nose for it.

poke/stick your nose into sth informal to show too much interest in a situation that does not involve you • That'll teach him to go poking his nose into other people's business!

powder your nose humorous

if a woman says she is going to powder her nose, she means she is going to go to the toilet • Well, if you'll excuse me a moment, I'm going to powder my nose.

put sb's nose out of joint informal

to upset or annoy someone • Martin refused to let her chair the meeting which rather put her nose out of joint.

rub sb's nose in it informal

rub sb's nose in the dirt informal

to say or do something which makes someone remember that they have failed • I didn't tell him I'd started another relationship. I didn't want to rub his nose in it.

thumb your nose at sth/sb

to show that you do not respect rules, laws, or powerful people or organizations • The actor, in a further attempt to thumb his nose at Hollywood, declined to accept the award.

turn your nose up informal

to not accept something because you do not think it is good enough for you • (usually + at) He turned his nose up at my offer of soup and said he wanted a proper meal.

under sb's nose

if something bad happens under your nose, it happens very close to you but you do not notice it • I'm amazed that it was going on right under his nose all that while and he didn't realize.

with your nose in the air

behaving as if you think you are better than other people and do not want to speak to them • I quite often see him in the street and he always walks past with his nose in the air.

have your nose in the air • Every inch the aristocrat, he always has his nose in the air.

no-show

a no-show

- 1 someone who does not arrive at a place where they are expected • The disgraced Senator was a no-show at both events.
- 2 the action of not arriving somewhere where you are expected • The concert was called off because of a no-show by the band.

nosy

a nosy/nosey parker British & Australian, informal

someone who is too interested in finding out information about other people • Tell him to mind his own business, the nosy parker!

not

be not on

if you say that behaving in a particular way is not on, you mean that it is not right and people should not do it • I've told her that bringing crowds of friends home every evening isn't on. • It's not on to expect other people to clear up your mess.

notes

compare notes

if two people compare notes, they tell each other what they think about something that they have both done • We'd had the same boyfriend at different times in our life so it was quite interesting to compare notes.

nothing

nothing daunted British & Australian, formal

if you continue to do something, nothing daunted, you are not worried about problems you have with it • I've had three letters of refusal but, nothing daunted, I'm writing a fourth application.

Nothing doing, informal

something that you say in order to tell someone that you refuse to do something
• 'Will you take us, then?' 'I've told you, nothing doing.'

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

something that you say which means that it is necessary to take risks in order to achieve something • We tried to make television programmes that were new and different, and we weren't always successful, but nothing ventured, nothing gained.

be nothing short of [astonishing/ miraculous etc.]

to be totally astonishing, miraculous, etc.
• His achievements as a political reformer have been nothing short of miraculous.

here goes nothing American &

Australian, informal something that you say just before you do something that you think will not be successful • Well, here goes nothing – let's see if I can pass the driving test.

like nothing on earth

very strange • I don't know what instruments they play but it sounds like nothing on earth.

stop at nothing

to be willing to do anything in order to achieve something, even if it is dangerous or harms other people • (often + to do sth) She's one of those people who sets herself a goal and then she'll stop at nothing to achieve it.

There's nothing to it. informal something that you say in order to tell someone that something is very easy to do • 'I heard rollerblading was really difficult.' 'Nah, there's nothing to it.'

think nothing of doing sth

if you think nothing of doing something that other people find difficult, you do it very easily • He's so fit. He'd think nothing of running ten miles before breakfast.

notice

make sb sit up and take notice

to make someone suddenly notice something and become interested in it • (often + of) That was the record that made me sit up and take notice of Neil Hannon.

nouveau riche

the nouveau riche

people who have become rich recently and who buy expensive things in order to show people how much money they have • He is one of the country's nouveau riche who have made fortunes in shipping, hotels, and real estate.

nouveau riche • She refused to live in Beverly Hills which she considered far too nouveau riche.

now

It's now or never.

something that you say which means that you must do something immediately because you will not get another opportunity • As she was leaving I thought, it's now or never. So I just went up to her and asked her out.

nth

to the nth degree X

as much or as far as possible • What I find is that you can follow instructions to the nth degree and still get it wrong.

number

sb's number is up informal

if someone's number is up, they are going to die or to suffer • This car came hurtling towards me and I thought my number was up.

number one informal

the most important person, especially when you think this is yourself and you do not care about anyone else • Half of me thinks I should just look out for number one and not give a damn about anyone else.

a number cruncher humorous

1 someone whose job is to work with numbers and mathematics • She may not 276 look like a number cruncher but she's with a big firm of accountants.

number crunching • She's useless with figures – it's her assistant who does all the number crunching for her:

2 a computer that is able to solve complicated problems of mathematics • The television broadcasters will use their number crunchers on election night to try and forecast the result.

do a number on sb

to treat someone very badly or unfairly
• I'm not surprised Caroline doesn't like him. He really did a number on her at work.

have sb's number informal

to know that someone is trying to do something bad and therefore be able to deal with them • I'm not worried about Taylor. I've got his number and I know what to expect.

numbers

a numbers game

the use of numbers to represent facts in an argument, especially when it makes people believe things that are not true • It's just a numbers game and everyone does it. You manipulate the statistics till they suit your argument.

nut

be off your nut informal

to be crazy • You can't do that! Are you off your nut or what?

do your nut British & Australian, informal to become extremely angry • If she has to walk from the station again she'll do her nut.

a hard/tough nut

someone who is difficult to deal with because they are unpleasant or very determined to get what they want • People don't tend to mess with Sue. She's a tough nut.

a hard/tough nut to crack

a difficult problem to solve • A company whose product has sold well in the States may find the European market a tougher nut to crack.

nuts

the nuts and bolts

the basic, practical details of a job or other activity • (often + of) Law school teaches wonderful theory but it doesn't teach the nuts and bolts of actually practising law.

can't do sth for nuts British & Australian, informal

if someone cannot do something for nuts, they cannot do it at all • Roger had prepared a beautiful meal? I thought you said he couldn't cook for nuts.

nutshell

in a nutshell

something that you say when you are describing something using as few words as possible • Karen wants them to get married and buy a house and Mike wants them to carry on as they are and that, in a nutshell, is the problem. • Well, to put it in a nutshell, we're going to have to start again.

nutty

be as nutty as a fruitcake British &

Australian, informal

to be crazy • 'Isn't she slightly strange, your aunt? 'Oh, she's as nutty as a fruitcake.'

oaks

Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow.

something that you say in order to emphasize that a large, successful organization or plan was very small or simple when it began • Microsoft, which is now the biggest independent software company in the world, was founded in 1975 by just two men. It goes to show that great oaks from little acorns grow.

oar

put/stick your oar in British & Australian, informal

to involve yourself in a discussion or a situation when other people do not want you to • I don't want Janet coming to the meeting and sticking her oar in – she knows nothing about the situation.

oats

get your oats British, very informal to have sex regularly • (usually in continuous tenses) Dan seems a lot happier these days – I think he must be getting his oats.

occasion

rise to the occasion

to succeed in dealing with a difficult situation • It's not easy to play your first match in front of a crowd that size but he certainly rose to the occasion.

odd

the odd man/one out

someone or something that is different from the other people or things in a group • She was always the odd one out at school – she didn't really mix with the other children. • I felt like the odd man out yesterday. Everyone was watching football except me.

odds

odds and ends British, American & Australian odds and sods British & Australian, informal a group of small objects of different types which are not very valuable or important • I eventually found my keys buried beneath the odds and ends in the bottom of my bag.

against (all) the odds against all odds

if you do or achieve something against all the odds, you do or achieve it although there were a lot of problems and you were not likely to succeed • Against all the odds, she conceived her first child at the age of 56. • He struggled against the odds to keep his business going during the recession.

be at odds X

to disagree • (often + with) She's at odds with the mayor over cuts in the department's budget. • (often + over) They're at odds over the funding for the project.

put sb at odds with sb • His views on Europe put him at odds with the rest of the party.

be at odds with sth

if one statement or description is at odds with another, it is different when it should be the same • Blake's version of events was at odds with the official police report.

pay over the odds British & Australian

to pay more for something than it is really worth • (often + for) It's a nice enough car but I'm sure she paid over the odds for it.

off

off the peg British

off the hook American & Australian

if you buy clothes off the peg, you buy them in a standard size from a shop rather than having them made specially for you • If I buy trousers off the peg they're always too short.

off-chance

on the off-chance

if you do something on the off-chance, you do it because you hope you will get or find something or someone, even if it is not very likely • I don't think he works in the shop on Saturdays, but you could stop by on the off-chance. • (often + that) Journalists often investigate film stars' private lives on the off-chance that they might find something scandalous. • (often + of + doing sth) She flew in from New York on the off-chance of getting tickets to see Becker play his last match at Wimbledon.

off-colour

be off-colour British & Australian be off-color American & Australian to not be feeling as well as usual • He had flu a couple of months ago and he's been a bit off-colour ever since.

off-colour British & Australian off-color American & Australian

off-colour jokes or remarks are about sex in a way that some people find offensive • Some of his jokes were a little off-colour and I don't think my grandparents particularly appreciated them.

off-the-cuff

off-the-cuff

an off-the-cuff remark is one that is not planned • (always before noun) He made several off-the-cuff remarks which he later denied.

off the cuff if you speak off the cuff, you do it without having planned what you will say • She wasn't expecting to give a speech and just said a few things off the cuff.

oil

be no oil painting British & Australian,

humorous

if someone is no oil painting, they are not attractive • She has an interesting face but she's no oil painting.

pour oil on troubled waters

to do or say something in order to make people stop arguing and become calmer • She was furious with Dave for forgetting her birthday so I tried to pour oil on troubled waters by offering to take them both out for a meal.

old

old hat

if something is old hat, it is not new or modern any more • A 24-hour banking service may seem old hat in the United States, but it's still innovative in Europe.

Old Nick British & Australian, oldfashioned, humorous

the Devil (= the enemy of God in the Christian religion) • In his latest film, he plays a gambler who sells his soul to Old

Nick in return for winning a fortune.

an old chestnut informal

a subject, idea, or joke which has been discussed or repeated so many times that it is not interesting or funny any more • I wondered whether there might, after all, be some truth in the old chestnut that one's school days are the happiest of one's life. • Play allows us to rediscover the child in ourselves - that old chestnut.

an old flame

a person who you had a romantic relationship with in the past • I bumped into an old flame of yours in Oxford on Saturday.

an old hand

someone who has done a particular job or activity for a long time and who can do it very well • (often + at) She's an old hand at magazines, having trained on Cosmopolitan before editing Company.

an old maid old-fashioned

an impolite way of referring to a woman who has never married 🔊 In the past, young women who were not married were called maids. • Terrified of becoming an old maid, she married the first man who made her an offer.

an old wives' tale

a piece of advice or an idea which a lot of people believed in the past but which we now know is wrong • It's an old wives' tale that drinking alcohol before you go to bed helps you sleep.

fashioned

the police • The Old Bill was round here yesterday, asking where you were.

the old country American & Australian the country or place where you or your parents were born but do not now live, especially Europe • Pounds, francs, lira – they're all the same to many Americans

the old quard

touring the old country.

a group of people who have worked in an organization for a long time and do not want it to change • She has tried to resist attempts by the old guard to halt the reform process.

old-guard • (always before noun) Most people in the party want to see the oldguard leadership replaced.

the old school tie

the way in which men who have been to the same expensive private school help each other to find good jobs • The old school tie still has enormous power in many City companies.

be as old as Methuselah

if someone is as old as Methuselah, they are very old © Methuselah was a character from the Bible who lived until he was 969. • I was a young boy at the time so to me he looked as old as Methuselah but he was probably only in his sixties.

be as old as the hills

if something is as old as the hills, it has existed for a very long time • Difficult relationships between parents and children are nothing new: the problem's as old as the hills.

for old times' sake

if you do something for old times' sake, you do it in order to remember a happy time in the past • Do you want to have lunch together sometime, just for old times' sake?

of the old school

if someone is of the old school, they have traditional ideas about how to do something and they do not accept new ways of doing it • She was a teacher of the old school and believed in strict discipline.

open/reopen old wounds

279

to make someone remember an unpleasant event or situation that happened in the past • For many soldiers who served in Vietnam, the current conflict has reopened old wounds.

You can't teach an old dog new tricks.

something that you say which means it is difficult to make someone change the way they do something when they have been doing it the same way for a long time • You're never going to teach your father at the age of 79 to use a computer. You can't teach an old dog new tricks, you know.

old-boy

the old-boy network

the way in which men who have been to the same expensive school or university help each other to find good jobs • He admitted the old boy network had once existed in the company but said that things had changed now.

oldest

the oldest profession (in the world)

humorous

prostitution (= being paid to have sex)  $\bullet$  I believe she made a living in the oldest profession in the world.

the oldest trick in the book

a way of tricking someone which is still effective although it has been used a lot before • It was the oldest trick in the book – one man distracted me while another stole my wallet.

olde-worlde

olde-worlde British & Australian

a place that is olde-worlde looks very old or has been made to look old in a way that seems false • It's a sweet little village, full of olde-worlde charm. • They own a dreadful olde-worlde tea-shop with fake wooden beams and lace everywhere.

olive

hold out/offer an olive branch

to do or say something in order to show that you want to end a disagreement with someone An olive branch is traditionally a symbol of peace. • (often + to) He held out an olive branch to the opposition by releasing 42 political prisoners.

an olive branch • I've invited them around to dinner by way of an olive branch.

omelette

You can't make an omelette without breaking eggs.

something that you say which means it is difficult to achieve something important without causing any unpleasant effects • Twenty jobs will have to be cut if the company's going to be made more efficient. But you can't make an omelette without breaking eggs.

on

on and off

if something happens on and off during a long period of time, it happens sometimes but not regularly or continuously • (often + for) I've had toothache on and off for the past three months. • (often + since) They've been seeing each other on and off since Christmas.

be on about informal

if you ask what a person or a piece of writing is on about, you want to know what they mean • (always negative or used in questions) I read her book, but I couldn't understand what it was on about.
• What are you on about? I've paid you

 What are you on about? I've paid you everything I owed!

be/go on at sb informal

to speak to someone again and again to complain about their behaviour or to ask them to do something • (often + to do sth) She's been on at me to get my hair cut.

once

once and for all

if you do something once and for all, you finish doing it so that it does not have to be dealt with again • I'm fed up with arguing about this – let's just settle this argument once and for all. • He claims his photographs prove once and for all that UFOs do exist.

Once bitten, twice shy.

something that you say which means when you have had an unpleasant experience you are much more careful to avoid similar experiences in the future • After he left her she refused to go out with anyone else for a long time – once bitten, twice shy, I suppose.

once in a blue moon

very rarely • My sister lives in Alaska, so I only get to see her once in a blue moon. • I don't know why I bought that CD-ROM for my computer – I only ever use it once in a blue moon.

once-over

give sb/sth the once-over informal

to quickly look at someone or examine something in order to see what they are like • The security guard gave me the onceover but didn't bother checking my pass. • Can you give my essay the once-over

 Can you give my essay the once-over before I hand it in?

give sth a once-over informal

to clean something quickly • (often + with) I'll just give the carpet a once-over with the vacuum cleaner before we go.

one

one and all old-fashioned

everyone • And a very good evening to one and all.

one for the road

if you have one for the road, you have a drink, usually an alcoholic drink, before you start a journey • Come on, there's just time for one for the road.

One good turn deserves another.

something that you say which means if someone does something to help you, you should do something to help them • He fixed my bike so I let him use my computer. One good turn deserves another.

One man's meat is another man's poison.

something that you say which means that something one person likes very much can be something that another person does not like at all • I wouldn't want to do her job, but she seems to love it. Oh well, one man's meat is another man's poison.

one of the lads British & Australian, informal

one of the boys American, informal someone who is accepted as part of a group of male friends who all have similar ideas and interests • Greene, although not one of the lads, is popular with most of them.

One step forward, two steps back.

something that you say which means every time you make progress, something bad happens which causes you to be in a worse situation than you were to begin with • Every solution we come up with seems to create more problems than it solves, so it's one step forward, two steps back.

one swallow doesn't make a summer British & Australian

something that you say which means because one good thing has happened, you cannot therefore be certain that more good things will happen and the whole situation will improve • Okay, they won their last game but one swallow doesn't make a summer. They're still bottom of the league.

one thing leads to another

if one things leads to another, a series of events happen, each one caused by the previous one • (never in continuous tenses) I only asked him in for a coffee, but one thing led to another and we ended up in bed together. • People don't usually decide to become spies. They agree to do someone a favour and one thing leads to another.

one way or the other one way or another

if you say that you will do something or that something will happen one way or the other, you are determined to do it or that it will happen, although you do not know exactly how • One way or the other, I'm going to finish this job next week.

one way or the other

if you have to decide one way or the other, you must choose between two possibilities • They've had a week to think about it and now they must decide one way or the other. • It doesn't really matter to me one way or the other. (= it is not important to me which possibility is chosen)

and one (more) for luck

something that you say when you add one more of something for no reason • I want you to swim ten lengths, and one for luck.

as one man

if a group of people do something as one man, they all do it together in exactly the same way • The crowd rose to its feet as one man.

at/in one sitting

if you do something at one sitting, you do it during one period of time without stopping • I read the whole book in one sitting.

be at one slightly formal

if people are at one, they agree with each other • (often + with) I am completely at one with Michael on this issue.

be one in a million

if you say that someone is one in a million, you mean that they are very special because they have such good qualities • She's the sweetest, most generous person I know – she's one in a million.

be one in the eye for sb British &

Australian, informal

if something that someone does is one in the eye for someone else, it will annoy that person because they did not want it to happen or did not think it could happen • When I got my degree, I thought, 'That's one in the eye for my old head teacher, who said I would never get anywhere.'

be one of a kind

to be the only one of a particular type of thing or person • As a female engineer who began her career in the 1940s, she was one of a kind.

be one step ahead

to be slightly better prepared or more successful than someone else • (usually + of) Throughout the incident, the hijackers were always one step ahead of the police.

keep/stay one step ahead • (usually + of) Crop breeders are continuously developing pesticides to keep one step ahead of the pests.

be one up on sb/sth

to have an advantage which someone or something else does not have • We're one up on the other bars in the area because we've got live music. • Mario's just spent a year in the States, so he'll be one up on the rest of his English class.

come one, come all formal

something that you say which means that everyone or everything can join or be included • We can't just invite some people and not others, so I guess it's a case of come one, come all.

from one moment to the next

if things change from one moment to the next, they change quickly or frequently • The plans are being changed from one moment to the next. • You never know from one moment to the next what kind of mood he'll be in.

get/put one over on sb informal

to prove that you are better or more clever than someone else by winning an argument or defeating them • He's always trying to get one over on the other members of the sales team.

go one better

to do something better than it has been done before • The company has decided to go one better than its rivals by offering free drinks with every burger. • He set the world record last year. This year he would like to go one better by beating his own record.

Got it in one!

something that you say when someone has guessed something correctly • 'Don't tell me – is Anna pregnant again?' 'Got it in one!'

have one foot in the grave humorous

to be very old and likely to die soon • He's been telling everyone he's got one foot in the grave for years now.

have/keep one eye on sth/sb

to give part of your attention to one thing or person while also giving your attention to something or someone else
• As he listened to the speaker he kept one eye on the crowd to gauge their response.

with one eye on sth/sb • She sat writing her letter with one eye on the clock.

It's (just) one thing after another! If it's not one thing it's another!

something that you say when bad things keep happening to you • We had our car stolen last week. It's one thing after another at the moment.

It's just one of those things.

something that you say when you are talking about a bad event or situation that you cannot prevent or change • Everyone gets ill in the winter. It's just one of those things.

land/sock sb one informal

to hit someone hard • She just walked up and landed him one.

on the one hand...on the other hand

something that you say when you are speaking about two different facts or two opposite ways of thinking about a situation • On the one hand, I'd like more money, but on the other hand, I'm not prepared to work the extra hours in order to get it. • On the one hand, you complain that you're lonely, and on the other hand you won't come to parties with me.

put one over on sb informal X

to trick someone • You're not really sick – you're just trying to put one over on me!

There's more than one way to skin a cat. humorous

something that you say which means that there are several possible ways of achieving something • It may be illegal for them to organise a strike, but they can still show the management how they feel. There's more than one way to skin a cat, you know.

There's one born every minute.

humorous

something that you say about someone who you think has been very stupid • 'He left a window open and then wondered why he'd been burgled!' 'There's one born every minute, isn't there?'

go in one ear and out the other

if information goes in one ear and out the other, the person who is told it forgets it immediately because they do not listen carefully enough • You know what it's like when you're told a whole list of names — they just go in one ear and out the other.

one-hit

a one-hit wonder

someone who performs popular music who makes one successful record and then no others • The seventies saw a succession of one-hit wonders who were famous overnight and then never heard of again.

one-horse

a one-horse race

a competition which one particular person or team is very likely to win because they seem much better than the other people competing • This election has been a one-horse race right from the start.

a one-horse town American & Australian a small town where very little happens Grafton's a real one-horse town with only one grocery store and nothing to do in the evening.

one-man

a one-man band

an organization in which one person does all the work or has all the power ildes o A one-man band is a musician who performs alone and plays several instruments at the same time. • It's basically a one-man band. He designs, prints and sells the T-shirts himself. • Its critics say that the company has become a one-man band in recent years.

one-night

a one-night stand

- 1 a sexual relationship which only lasts for one night, or a person who you have had this type of relationship with • I'd rather have a long-term relationship than a series of one-night stands. • It's you I love, Karen – Debbie was just a one-night stand.
- 2 a performance which happens only once in a particular place • We're doing a one-night stand in Durham on Monday followed by a couple of nights in Newcastle.

one-shot

one-shot American

happening only once • (always before noun) The new current affairs show will be given a one-shot trial on TV next Saturday. • The company's offer is a one-shot deal.

one-to-one

one-to-one British, American & Australian

one-on-one mainly American

a one-to-one relationship or activity is when someone works with only one other person • The school caters for children with special needs who require one-to-one attention. • You can choose whether you want to be taught in a class or one-on-one with your own tutor.

one-track

have a one-track mind

if someone has a one-track mind, they seem to talk and think about one particular subject all the time, especially sex • 'I bet I know what you two were doing last night.' • 'Oh, shut up, Sean, you've got a one-track mind.' • You've got to have a one-track mind if you want to succeed in business.

one-two

a one-two punch American

two unpleasant things which happen together • The weather delivered a onetwo punch to gardeners with unseasonal freezing temperatures and strong winds.

one-upmanship

one-upmanship

if something someone does is oneupmanship, they are trying to make other people admire them by doing it in a better or more clever way than someone else • There is a great deal of oneupmanship among children anxious to wear the most fashionable clothes.

one-way

a one-way ticket to sth

if something is a one-way ticket to an unpleasant situation, it will cause that situation to happen • A rejection of the peace deal would be a one-way ticket to disaster for the country. • Experimenting with drugs is a one-way ticket to addiction and misery, as far as I'm concerned.

onions

know your onions British & Australian, humorous

to know a lot about a particular subject • That car salesman certainly knew his onions, didn't he?

onwards

onwards and upwards onward and upward

if someone moves onwards and upwards, they continue being successful or making progress • The team are moving onwards and upwards after their third win this season. • She started her publishing career as an editorial assistant and it was onward and upward from there.

Onwards and upwards! Onward and upward!

something that you say in order to encourage someone to forget an unpleasant experience or failure and to think about the future instead • I know you were disappointed about failing that Spanish exam, but it's not the end of the world. Onwards and upwards!

open

open and shut

if a legal case or problem is open and shut, the facts are very clear and it is easy to make a decision or find a solution
• The police think the case is open and shut: five witnesses saw the man stealing the car. • It's going to take a lot of work to deal with this problem. It certainly isn't an open-and-shut matter.

open season

a period of time when people criticize or unfairly treat a particular person or group of people • (often + on) With the publication of these two reports, it seems to be open season again on single mothers. • Newspaper editors have declared open season on the royal family.

an open marriage

a marriage in which the partners are free to have sexual relationships with other people • We have an open marriage, but I never tell my husband about my other lovers.

an open sesame

a very successful way of achieving something \( \epsilon \) 'Open Sesame' are the magic words used by Ali Baba in the story Tales of the Arabian Nights to open the door of the place where the thieves are hiding. \( \epsilon \) (usually + to) A science degree can be an open sesame to a job in almost any field.

be (wide) open to [abuse/criticism etc.]

to be likely to be abused, criticized etc.

• The system is wide open to abuse. • It's a position which leaves them wide open to criticism. • You don't want to lay yourself open to attack.

be an open book

- 1 if a person's life is an open book, you can discover everything about it because none of the details are kept secret Like many film stars, he wants to keep his private life private he doesn't want it becoming an open book.
- 2 if someone is an open book, it is easy to know what they are thinking and feeling Sarah's an open book, so you'll know right away if she doesn't like the present you've bought her.

greet/welcome sb/sth with open arms

to be very pleased to see someone, or to be very pleased with something new • I was rather nervous about meeting my boyfriend's parents, but they welcomed me with open arms. • Our company greeted the arrival of the Internet with open arms.

have/keep an open mind

to wait until you know all the facts before forming an opinion or making a judgement • Mike might not be guilty – you should keep an open mind until after his case is heard in court. • (often + about) I like to keep an open mind about what happens to us after we die.

open-minded willing to think about other people's ideas and suggestions • (often + about) Many doctors have become more open-minded about alternative medicine in the past few years.

open-mindedness • She will be remembered by her colleagues for her enthusiasm and open-mindedness.

push at an open door

to achieve what you want easily because a lot of people agree with you or help you • (usually in continuous tenses) The campaigners are pushing at an open door because most local residents support their campaign against the new road.

open-ended

open-ended

an open-ended activity or situation does not have a planned ending, so it may develop in several ways • We are not willing to enter into open-ended discussions. • The police investigation was too open-ended. We needed clear responses to our complaints.

operative

the operative word

the most important word in a phrase, which explains the truth of a situation • He wants more time for his private life, private being the operative word. Photographers are not allowed anywhere near his family.

order

be out of order informal

if something that someone says or does is out of order, it is unpleasant or not suitable and it is likely to upset or offend people • Her behaviour in the meeting was completely out of order.

be the order of the day

if something is the order of the day, it is thought to be necessary or it is used by everyone in a particular situation • For countries undergoing a recession, large cuts in public spending seem to be the order of the day. • Champagne was the order of the day as we all congratulated Tim on his success.

other

the other side of the coin

a different and usually opposite view of a situation that you have previously talked about • The other side of the coin is that fewer working hours means less pay.

bat for the other side British, humorous

if someone bats for the other side, they are homosexual (= sexually attracted to people of the same sex) • What about you, Justin? Do you think he bats for the other side?

wait for the other shoe to drop American to wait for something bad to happen. (usually in continuous tenses) • Once a company starts laying off employees, those who are still working feel they are waiting for the other shoe to drop.

look the other way 🔀

to ignore something wrong or unpleasant that you know is happening instead of trying to deal with it • When one of their own friends or colleagues is involved in wrongdoing, people sometimes prefer to look the other way.

Pull the other leg/one (it's got bells on)!

something that you say in order to tell someone that you do not believe what they have just said • Helen, going rock climbing? Pull the other one – she can't even climb a ladder without feeling sick!

turn the other cheek

if you turn the other cheek when someone attacks or insults you, you do not get angry and attack or insult them but stay calm instead • Neither nation is renowned for turning the other cheek.

out

Out with it!

something that you say in order to tell someone to say something they are frightened to say • Come on, out with it! Tell us all what we're doing wrong!

be out of it

1 informal to be very confused because you are very tired or because of drugs or alcohol • I didn't feel anything at the moment my baby was born. I was completely out of it by then. 2 informal to feel lonely because you are not included in the activities of people around you • They were all keen on sports, so I felt really out of it.

out-and-out

out-and-out

having all the qualities of a particular thing or person, especially something or someone unpleasant • (always before noun) The trip was an out-and-out disaster: the airline lost our luggage, the hotel was dirty, and it rained every day. • I didn't smash that window – that's an out-and-out lie!

out-of-date

out-of-date

- 1 old and therefore not useful or correct any more • I do have a road map but I suspect it's out-of-date. • He claimed the report was inaccurate and based on out-ofdate information. • Some of her ideas are hopelessly out-of-date.
- 2 if a document is out-of-date, it cannot be used any more because the period of time when it could be used has ended I found out my passport was out-of-date the day before I was due to travel. No one noticed that he was using an out-of-date permit.

over

over and above

in addition to a particular amount or thing • Pensioners will receive an increase of £5 per week over and above inflation. • The average family pays 40% of their income in taxes, and that's over and above their mortgage, bills, and food.

get sth over and done with get sth over with

to do something difficult or unpleasant as soon as you can so that you do not have to worry about it any more • I've made an appointment to have my wisdom tooth out tomorrow morning. I just want to get it over and done with.

be over and done with • I usually do my homework as soon as I get back from school so that at least it's over and done with.

overboard

go overboard

to do something too much, or to be too excited and eager about something • (often + on) The car's makers seem to have gone overboard on design and sacrificed speed. • He went completely overboard on her birthday and bought her a diamond ring.

overdrive

go into overdrive

to start working very hard, or to start doing something in an excited way • With her exams only two weeks away, she's gone into overdrive and is studying ten hours a day. • The tabloid press went into overdrive at the news that the princess was getting married again.

be in overdrive • The whole cast of the show was in overdrive, rehearsing for the first performance the next day.

own

an own goal British

something that someone does to try to get an advantage, but which makes a situation worse for them © In sport, an own goal is when someone scores a point for the opposite team by mistake. • The publishing industry believes that new regulations on recycling paper will be an environmental own goal. • The government has scored an own goal with its harsh treatment of single parents.

be your own man/woman/person

to behave in the way that you want and to not let other people influence you • Despite being the daughter of two Hollywood stars, she's very much her own woman with her own acting style.

be your own master

to be able to live or work in the way that you want to, without anyone else controlling your actions • The big advantage of working for yourself is that you can be your own master.

be your own worst enemy

if you are your own worst enemy, you do or believe things that prevent you from becoming successful • Unless he learns to  be more confident, he'll never get a decent job. He's his own worst enemy.

blow your own trumpet British & Australian

blow/toot your own horn American & Australian

to tell other people how good and successful you are • Anyone will tell you she's one of the best journalists we've got, although she'd never blow her own horn.

come into your/its own

to be very useful or successful in a particular situation • Cars are banned from the city centre so a bicycle really comes into its own here. • Ferragamo came into his own in last Sunday's match, scoring three goals in the first half.

cut your own throat

to do something because you are angry, even if it will cause trouble for you • If she won't take the job out of pride, she's cutting her own throat.

do your own thing informal X

to do exactly what you want without following what other people do or worrying about what they think • You have to give your children a certain amount of freedom to do their own thing.

feather your own nest

to dishonestly use your position at work to get a lot of money for yourself • What angers him most of all is the implication that he has been feathering his own nest.

get your own back

to do something unpleasant to someone because they have done something unpleasant to you • Fiona had deliberately stopped me getting that job and I was determined to get my own back. • (often + on) She got her own back on her unfaithful husband by throwing a pot of red paint over his brand new car.

get your own way

to succeed in persuading other people to let you do what you want • She sulks every time she doesn't get her own way. • I wanted to watch a movie, but Chris got his own way and we spent the afternoon watching the football.

leave sb to their own devices

to let someone do what they want without helping them or trying to control them • (usually passive) There are four hours of lessons each morning, and in the afternoon students are left to their own devices. • Left to my own devices I wouldn't bother cooking in the evenings.

Mind your own business! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone not to ask questions or show too much interest in other people's lives

• 'How much did that dress cost you?'

'Mind your own business!' • I wish he'd

'Mind your own business!' • I wish he'd mind his own business and stop telling me how to do my job!

(all) on your own

- 1 alone She's been living on her own for the past ten years.
- 2 if you do something on your own, you do it without any help from other people
  Since her husband died two years ago, she's had to look after her children on her own.
  Dave didn't have time to help so I decorated the house on my own.

on your own hook American

if you do something on your own hook, you do it without anyone else telling you or asking you to do it • Barbara took up painting on her own hook and developed into a talented artist.

pay sb back in their own coin British & Australian, old-fashioned

to treat someone in the same bad way that they have treated you • I decided to pay her back in her own coin and refuse to help her.

play sb at their own game British & Australian

to try to get an advantage over someone by using the same methods as them • If women want to succeed in business, they have to play men at their own game.

beat sb at their own game British, American & Australian • He's always playing practical jokes on other people so just for once, I felt I'd beaten him at his own game.

save your own skin

to protect yourself from danger or difficulties, without worrying about other 288 people • He saved his own skin by telling them his partner had taken the money.

stand on your own two feet

to be independent and provide yourself with all the things that you need to live without having to ask anyone else to help you • I've supported those children long enough - it's time they learned to stand on their own two feet.

tell its own tale British & Australian > if something tells its own tale, it shows the truth about a situation • She may smile in public, but the expression in her eyes tells its own tale.

p

mind/watch your p's and q's old-fashioned to make an effort to be polite • You always felt as if you had to mind your p's and q's with Auntie Lil.

pace

can't stand/take the pace

to be unable to do things well when you are under a lot of pressure • If he can't stand the pace he shouldn't be doing the job—it's as simple as that.

set the pace

if someone sets the pace in a particular activity, they do it very well or very quickly and other people try to do the same • (often + for) America's reforms have set the pace for European finance ministers. • For many years this company has set the pace in the communications industry.

paces

put sb through their paces

to test someone's skills or knowledge
• This fitness contest will really put the guys through their paces.

pack

a pack rat American

someone who collects things that they do not need • For me there could be nothing worse than living with a pack rat.

be ahead of the pack

to be more successful than other people who are trying to achieve the same things as you • At this stage in the campaign, the Democratic candidate is way ahead of the pack.

packed

be packed like sardines

if people are packed like sardines, there are a large number of them in a small space • There were twenty people packed like sardines into a van.

packing

send sb packing informal

to tell someone to go away, usually because you are annoyed with them • There were some kids at the door asking for money, but I sent them packing.

page

turn the page

to begin to behave in a more positive way after a period of difficulties • It's time to put this tragedy to rest and turn the page to a new and happier chapter of our lives.

paid

put paid to sth British & Australian

to suddenly stop someone from being able to do what they want or hope to do

• A serious back injury put paid to her tennis career.

pain

be a pain in the arse/backside British & Australian, very informal

be a pain in the ass/butt American &

Australian, very informal to be very annoying • I can't stand my brother-in-law. He's a real pain in the arse. • Getting up for work at 5 a.m. is a pain in the ass.

be a pain in the neck informal

to be very annoying • My little sister won't leave me alone. She's a real pain in the neck.

on/under pain of death formal

if you are told to do something on pain of death, you will be killed if you do not do it • They had been told to leave their homes by noon on pain of death.

pains

be at pains to do sth

to try very hard to make sure that you tell someone the correct information about something and that they understand it • The management was at great pains to stress that there are no plans for closing down the factory.

go to/take great pains to do sth

to try very hard to do something • I went to great pains to get this record for you.

painting

be like painting the Forth Bridge British if repairing or improving something is like painting the Forth Bridge, it takes like painting the Forth Bridge, it takes such a long time that by the time you have finished doing it, you have to start again The Forth Bridge is a very large bridge in Edinburgh. • Home improvements are a bit like painting the Forth Bridge. By the time you've finished the kitchen, the bathroom needs decorating and so it goes on.

pair

have a [fine/good etc.] pair of lungs

humorous

if you say that a baby has a good pair of lungs, you mean that they can cry very loudly • Well she's got a fine pair of lungs, I'll say that for her!

pale

be beyond the pale

if someone's behaviour is beyond the pale, it is not acceptable • Her recent conduct is beyond the pale.

go beyond the pale • His behaviour at the meeting was going beyond the pale.

pall

cast a pall on/over sth

if an unpleasant event or piece of news casts a pall on something, it spoils it

News of her sudden death cast a pall on the awards ceremony.

palm

grease sb's palm

to give money to someone in authority in order to persuade them to do something for you, especially something wrong • Drug barons were greasing the palm of the chief of police.

have sb in the palm of your hand have sb eating out of the palm of your hand

to have so much control over someone that they will do whatever you want them to do • She's got her boyfriend eating out of the palm of her hand. • It was such an amazing performance — he had the audience in the palm of his hand.

palsy-walsy

palsy-walsy British & Australian, informal if two people are palsy-walsy, they seem very friendly, usually in a way that is not sincere • Those two have been getting very palsy-walsy lately. • (sometimes + with) She's all palsy-walsy with the boss these days.

pandora

open a Pandora's box

to do something that causes a lot of new problems that you did not expect in In old Greek stories, Zeus (= the king of the gods) gave Pandora a box that he told her not to open, but she did open it and all the troubles in the world escaped from it.

• (often + of) Sadly, his reforms opened a Pandora's box of domestic problems.

panic

panic stations British & Australian,

informal

a time when you feel extremely anxious and you must act quickly because something needs to be done urgently • No matter how organized you think you are, one hour before the show starts it's panic stations.

hit/press/push the panic button

to do something quickly without thinking about it in order to deal with a difficult or worrying situation • (often negative) We may have lost the last three games but we're not pushing the panic button yet.

pants

[beat/bore/scare etc.] the pants off sb informal

if someone or something beats, bores, scares etc. the pants off someone, they beat, bore, or scare them completely • I hate sunbathing. It bores the pants off me.
• Horror films scare the pants off me.

paper

a paper chase American & Australian

the activity of dealing with many different documents in order to achieve something • To receive even the smallest amount of financial aid from a college, it's a real paper chase.

a paper tiger

a country or organization that seems powerful but is not • Will the United Nations be able to make any difference, or is it just a paper tiger?

a paper trail American & Australian documents which show what someone has been doing • He was easy to find, he left a paper trail a mile wide.

not be worth the paper it's/they're printed/written on

if an agreement or decision is not worth the paper it is written on, it has no value or importance • A qualification like that isn't worth the paper it's written on.

on paper

if something seems good or true on paper, it seems to be good or true when you read or think about it but it might not be good or true in a real situation • She looked good on paper but was one of the weakest interviewees we saw today. • On paper it could work, but I won't be convinced until I see it for myself.

par

be below par not be up to par

- 1 to be below the usual or expected standard • His performance yesterday was definitely below par. • For some reason her work this week hasn't been up to par.
- 2 to be slightly ill Do you mind if we put our meeting off till tomorrow? I'm feeling a bit below par today. • After a sleepless night, I wasn't quite up to par.

be par for the course

if the way something happens or is done is par for the course, it happens or is done as you would expect, especially when you do not think this is very good 🔊 In golf, par is the number of times you would expect to hit the ball in order to get it in the hole. • 'Gareth was half an hour late.' 'That's just par for the course, isn't it?'

parade

rain on sb's parade

to do something that spoils someone's plans • I'm sorry to rain on your parade, but you're not allowed to have alcohol on the premises.

pardon

Pardon me for breathing/living!

informal

something that you say when you are angry with someone because they are always criticizing you or getting annoyed with you • 'If you're just going to get in my way, James, can you leave the kitchen?' 'Oh, pardon me for breathing, I'm sure!'

par excellence

sb/sth par excellence

someone or something par excellence is the best or most extreme example of its type • China is the destination par excellence for the young and trendy these days.

parkinson

Parkinson's law

the idea that the work you have to do will increase to fill all of the time you have to do it in • If you tell him you want the work done by tomorrow, he'll get it done this afternoon, if you tell him next Thursday, he'll spend a week on it. It's Parkinson's law.

parrot-fashion

parrot-fashion British & Australian

if you learn something parrot-fashion, you are able to repeat the words, but you do not understand their meaning A parrot is a bird that can repeat words and noises it has just heard. • When I went to Sunday school, we had to recite passages from the Bible parrot-fashion.

part

part and parcel

if something is part and parcel of an experience, it is a necessary part of that experience which cannot be avoided • Being recognised in the street is all part and parcel of being famous.

be (all) part of life's rich pageant/tapestry literary

if you say that a bad or difficult experience is all part of life's rich tapestry, you mean that you must accept it because it is a part of life that cannot be avoided A tapestry is a piece of cloth with a picture in it that usually represents a story. • Having kids certainly causes problems, but that's all part of life's rich tapestry.

be part of the furniture informal

if someone or something is part of the furniture in a place, they have been there for so long that they seem to be a natural part of that place • I've been working in this office for so long I'm part of the furniture now. • (sometimes + of) He had become part of the furniture of British politics.

look the part

to look suitable for a particular situation
• If you want to get a job as a fashion buyer, it helps if you look the part.

take sb's part old-fashioned

to support someone in an argument or disagreement • For once, my brother took my part in the argument.

parting

a parting shot

a remark that you say as you are leaving somewhere so that it has a strong effect • Her parting shot was 'I'm going to spend the evening with people who appreciate my company!'

the parting of the ways

the point at which two people or organizations separate • The parting of the ways came after a series of disagreements between the manager and the group's singer.

partner

sleeping partner British

silent partner American & Australian someone who is closely involved with a company, and often provides money for it, but is not a manager of it • He was an extremely wealthy man, and she was hoping he might become a sleeping partner in their new vineyards.

partners

partners in crime humorous

if two people are partners in crime, they have done something bad together • She'd kept watch and made sure no one saw us while I actually took the bike so we were partners in crime.

party

sb's party piece British

something funny or strange that someone often does to entertain other people in social situations • Chris can wiggle his ears – it's his party piece.

a party animal informal

someone who likes going to parties a lot and goes to as many as possible • She was a real party animal at college. I don't remember her ever staying in in the evening.

a party pooper humorous

someone who spoils other people's enjoyment of social activities by being unhappy or by refusing to become involved • Tim called me a party pooper because I left the party just after midnight.

piss on sb's party British & Australian, very informal

to do something that spoils someone's plans • I don't want to piss on your party but next week Malc and I won't be here.

pass

make a pass at sb

to speak to or touch someone in a way that shows you would like to start a sexual relationship with them • He made a pass at her at Simon's party.

past

be past your sell-by date

if someone is past their sell-by date, they are not wanted or useful any more because they are too old 🖒 A sell-by date is a date put on food products to show the latest date that they can be sold. • There's plenty of time to have a baby, I'm not past my sell-by date yet.

be past it informal

to be too old for a particular activity • He was a great footballer in his day, but he's past it now.

I wouldn't put it past sb

something that you say when you think that it is possible that someone might do something wrong or unpleasant • 'Do you really think he'd go off with another woman?' 'I wouldn't put it past him.' • (often + to do sth) I wouldn't put it past Lorna to deny all knowledge of this plan.

pasture

put sb out to pasture

to make someone stop working at their job because they are too old to be useful • He felt he was still too young to be put out to pasture.

pastures

pastures new British

new pastures American & Australian

if someone goes to pastures new, they leave their job or home in order to go to a new one • Tom's off to pastures new. He's got a transfer to Australia.

pat

a pat on the back

if you give someone a pat on the back, you praise them for something good that they have done • (often + for) She deserves a pat on the back for keeping things going while you were away.

pat sb on the back • Too many people are patting the players on the back and telling them how great they are.

learn sth off pat British, American & Australian

learn sth down pat American

to learn something so well that you do not have to think about how to do or say it • All the answers he'd learned off pat for the interview sounded unconvincing now. have sth off pat British, American & Australian have sth down pat American • I've given the same speech so many times I have (= know) it down pat now.

stand pat American, informal sit pat Australian, informal

to refuse to make any changes • Our advice to investors is, stand pat – the recession will soon be over:

patch

not be a patch on $sb/sth\ British\ &$

Australian

to not be as good as someone or something else • It's a reasonably entertaining film but it's not a patch on 'Bladerunner'.

path

beat a path to sb's door

to be very eager to speak to someone and do business with them • Put that ad in the paper and you'll have half the town beating a path to your door.

cross sb's path

to meet someone, especially by accident
• If he ever crosses my path again, I'll kill him.

paths

sb's paths cross

if two people's paths cross, they meet by chance • It was a pleasure to meet you. I hope our paths cross again soon.

patience

the patience of Job/a saint

a lot of patience Dob was a character in the bible who still trusted God even though a lot of bad things happened to him. • You need the patience of a saint to be a teacher.

patter

the patter of tiny feet humorous

something that you say which means that someone is going to have a baby • I bet it won't be long till we hear the patter of tiny feet.

pause

give sb pause (for thought) formal

if something gives you pause, it is surprising or worrying and it makes you think more carefully about something • It was a tragedy which gave us all pause for thought.

pay

hit/strike pay dirt American & Australian to achieve or discover something important or valuable • She finally hit pay dirt with her third novel which quickly became a best seller.

pea-brained

pea-brained informal

a pea-brained person is very stupid • (always before noun) Take no notice –

he's just a pea-brained idiot.

peace

a peace offering

something that you give to someone to show that you are sorry or that you want to be friendly, especially after you have argued with them • I took Beth some flowers as a peace offering.

be at peace with the world

to be feeling calm and happy because you are satisfied with your life • Sitting on the terrace, looking out over the olive groves, she felt at peace with the world.

peanuts

If you pay peanuts, you get monkeys.

something that you say which means that only stupid people will work for you if you do not pay very much • 'This company is full of incompetents!' 'Well, if you pay peanuts, you get monkeys.'

pearl

a pearl of wisdom

an important piece of advice E This phrase is usually used humorously to mean the opposite. • Thank you for that pearl of wisdom, Jerry. Now do you think you could suggest something more useful?

pearls

cast pearls before swine literary

to offer something valuable to someone who does not understand that it is valuable • Giving him advice is just casting pearls before swine. He doesn't listen.

pearly

the pearly gates humorous

the entrance to heaven, where some people believe you go when you die • I'll meet you at the pearly gates and we can compare notes.

pear-shaped

go pear-shaped British & Australian,

informal

if a plan goes pear-shaped, it fails • We'd arranged to be in France that weekend but it all went pear-shaped.

pebble

not be the only pebble on the beach

to not be the only person who is important in a situation or in a group • Laura always expects to get her own way. It's time she learned that she's not the only pebble on the beach.

pecker

Keep your pecker up! British, informal

something that you say to someone in order to tell them to be happy when something unpleasant is happening to them • I know things are hard, love, but keep your pecker up.

pecking

a pecking order

the order of importance of the people in a group or an organization • There's a clearly established pecking order in this office.

pedestal

put sb on a pedestal

to believe that someone is perfect • The way her father put her on a pedestal just made her want to behave badly.

OPPOSITE knock sb off their pedestal

• This recent scandal has really knocked the President off his pedestal. (= shown people that he is not perfect)

peeping

a peeping Tom

a man who secretly watches women while they are taking their clothes off or having sex • I always close the curtains in case there are any peeping Toms across the road.

peg

bring sb down a peg or two

to do something to show someone that they are not as good as they thought they were • He's one of these super-confident types who really needs to be brought down a peg or two.

pegged

have sb pegged mainly American

to know exactly what kind of person someone is • He thinks we're all taken in by his charm, but I've got him pegged.

pell-mell

pell-mell

very quickly and without control • She ran pell-mell down the stairs and out of the house.

pell-mell • Local residents have banded together to protest about the pell-mell pace of development in the area.

pen

The pen is mightier than the sword.

formal

something that you say which means thinking and writing have more influence on people and events than the use of force or violence • Reason is our greatest weapon against such tyrants. The pen is mightier than the sword.

put pen to paper

to start to write something • I keep meaning to write to her but I haven't yet managed to put pen to paper.

penny

penny ante American

of little value or importance • He was proposing some penny ante increase in child-care that amounted to an extra ten dollars a week. • We were burgled but they didn't take much – just penny ante stuff in the front office.

A penny for your thoughts. A penny for them.

something that you say in order to ask someone who is being very quiet what they are thinking about • 'A penny for your thoughts.' 'Oh, I was just thinking about how to tell him I'm leaving.'

A penny saved is a penny earned.

something that you say which means it is wise to save money • I'd advise anyone to put aside a proportion of their earnings – a penny saved is a penny earned.

the penny drops British & Australian

if you say the penny drops, you mean that you have finally understood something • It was only when I saw Ron's car outside Penny's house that the penny finally dropped and I realised they were having an affair.

be ten/two a penny British & Australian to be very common • TV cookery shows seem to be ten a penny these days.

In for a penny, (in for a pound). British & Australian

something that you say when you have decided to become very involved in an activity, and to put a lot of money or effort into it • I've put all my savings into this new venture. In for a penny, in for a pound.

spend a penny British & Australian, informal

if you say you are going to spend a penny, you mean you are going to go to the toilet • Excuse me, I must go and spend a penny.

penny-wise

be penny-wise and pound-foolish oldfashioned

to be extremely careful about small amounts of money and not careful enough about larger amounts of money

 Saving a little bit of money on repairs can lead to long-term damage. You don't want to be penny-wise and pound-foolish, now do you?

people

People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones).

something that you say which means people should not criticize other people for faults that they have themselves • He's always criticizing Rick for the way he treats his wife and I feel like saying, people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones.

pep

a pep talk

a speech that you give to people in order to encourage them to work harder or win a competition • I thought I'd give the lads a pep talk before the match.

per capita

per capita

for each person in a country or area • France and Germany both invest more per capita in public transport than Britain.

perch

fall off your perch British, old-fashioned, humorous to die • By the time I fall off my perch, Britain may well be a republic.

knock sb off their perch $\mathit{British}\ \&$

Australian

to make someone fail or lose their leading position • Will Rovers win the European Cup and knock United off their perch?

person

about/on your person formal

if you have something about your person, you are carrying it with you, often hidden in your clothing • She had a small tape recorder concealed about her person.

persona non grata

persona non grata formal

someone who is not acceptable or not welcome • He published a book criticizing the war and was instantly declared persona non grata by the authorities.

pet

sb's pet hate British & Australian sb's pet peeve American something that you do not like at all • A pet hate of ours is telephone salesmen who phone just as we're sitting down to watch TV. • Cleaning the bathroom is my pet peeve.

peter

rob Peter to pay Paul

to borrow money from someone in order to give to someone else the money that you already owe them • Then I'd take out another loan to pay my debts, robbing Peter to pay Paul.

pew

Take a pew. British & Australian,

humorous

if you tell someone to take a pew, you are asking them to sit down • Come in and take a pew.

phrase

to coin a phrase

pick

pick and mix British

to combine things that are not similar, especially things that do not go well together Pick'n'mix is a system in shops where people can choose a few of several different types of sweets.

 Increasingly, students are being given total freedom to pick and mix different modules on their courses.

pick-and-mix • (always before noun) People no longer give their loyalty to just one band. The pick-and-mix approach to music is much more common these days.

pick up the bill/tab informal

to pay for something, often something that is not your responsibility • When we go out for dinner it's always Jack who picks up the bill. • (often + for) It's the taxpayer who picks up the tab for all these crazy government schemes.

the pick of sth

the best of a group of things or people • Send in your poems and we will print the pick of the bunch.

have your pick of sth

if you can have your pick of a group of things, you can have the one you want • The plane was fairly empty, so we had our pick of the seats.

take your pick

to choose what you want • We've got tea, coffee, or hot chocolate – take your pick.

pickle

be in a (pretty/right) pickle old-

fashioned, informal

to be in a difficult situation • If you run out of money in the middle of your stay you'll be in a right pickle.

pick-me-up

a pick-me-up informal

something that makes you feel better, especially a drink or medicine • I needed a pick-me-up so I stopped at a bar on my way home.

picnic

be no picnic

to be difficult or unpleasant • Being a single parent is no picnic.

make sth seem like a picnic

if a difficult experience makes another experience seem like a picnic, it makes it seem very easy because it is much more difficult • University makes school seem like a picnic.

picture

be out of the picture

to not be involved in a particular situation • Withers is out of the picture with a leg injury, so Jackson is in goal today.

OPPOSITE be in the picture • Although Derek has handed over control of the company to his son, he's still very much in the picture.

be the picture of [health/innocence etc.] to look very healthy, innocent, etc. • I can't believe there's anything seriously can't believe there's anything seriously wrong with him - he's the picture of health.

get the picture informal

to understand a situation • 'He doesn't want her but he doesn't want anyone else to have her, you know?' 'I get the picture.'

paint a [bleak/rosy etc.] picture of sth

to describe a situation in a particular way • The article paints a bleak (= hopeless) picture of the future. • He painted a rosy (= happy) picture of family life.

put sb in the picture

to explain to someone what is happening

Jim had no idea what was going on until I put him in the picture.

keep sb in the picture • I'll be counting on you to keep me in the picture while I'm away.

picture-perfect

picture-perfect American

perfect in appearance or quality • He built a dream house in a picture-perfect neighborhood. • Cloudless sky, brilliant sunshine — the weather was picture-perfect.

pie

pie in the sky

if an idea or plan is pie in the sky, it seems good but is not likely to be achieved • Those plans of his to set up his own business are just pie in the sky.

piece

be (all) of a piece

if one thing is all of a piece with another thing, it is suitable or right for that thing • (often + with) These prices are all of a piece with the quality of the goods.

be a piece of cake British, American & Australian

be a piece of piss British, very informal to be very easy • 'How was the test?' 'A piece of cake!' • The interview was a piece of piss.

give sb a piece of your mind informal

to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong • I've had enough of him coming home late. I'm going to give him a piece of my mind when he gets in tonight.

say your piece

to express your opinion about something, especially something that you do not like • I don't feel there's anything more I can add now – I've said my piece.

take a piece out of sb Australian,

informal

to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong • Jill just took a piece out of Ben for being late again.

pièce de résistance

the pièce de résistance

the best or most important thing in a group or series • The pièce de résistance of his act was to make a car vanish on stage.

pieces

go/fall to pieces

- 1 if someone goes to pieces, they become so upset that they are unable to control their feelings or think clearly I kept my composure throughout the funeral, but I went to pieces after everyone had gone home.
- 2 to suddenly fail completely After winning the British Open last year, his game has really gone to pieces.

pick up the pieces

to try to get back to an ordinary way of life after a difficult experience • After Ruth's death, Joe found it hard to pick up the pieces and carry on with his life.

pick/pull sb/sth to pieces

to criticize someone or something very severely, often in a way that is not fair • It's discouraging because every time I show him a bit of work I've done he picks it to pieces.

pied-à-terre

a pied-à-terre

a small apartment or house in a city which belongs to someone whose main home is somewhere else and which they have so that they can visit the city whenever they want • He has a pied-àterre in Mayfair and a five-bedroom house in Dorset.

pie-eyed

be pie-eyed old-fashioned

to be drunk • After only two bottles of cider they were completely pie-eyed.

pig

a pig in a poke

something that you buy or accept without first seeing it or knowing what it is like, with the result that it might not be what you want • Clothes from a catalogue are a pig in a poke. You can't feel the quality of the fabric or know if the clothes will fit.

eat like a pig informal

to eat a lot, or to eat noisily and unpleasantly • Christine is one of those lucky people who can eat like a pig and still stay thin.

in a pig's eye American, informal something that you say which means you think there is no chance that something is true or that something will happen • Me, in love with Sandra? In a pig's eye I am.

make a pig of yourself informal to eat too much • I made a real pig of

to eat too much • I made a real pig of myself at Christmas so I'm on a diet again.

make a pig's ear of sth/doing sth British, informal

to do something very badly • Tim made a right pig's ear of putting those shelves up.

Pig's arse! Australian, very informal something that you say when you do not believe what someone has just told you

• She told you she was pregnant? Pig's arse! - don't believe a word she says.

sweat like a pig informal

to sweat (= have liquid coming out of your skin) a lot • I was so nervous, I was sweating like a pig.

pigeon

be sb's pigeon British & Australian, oldfashioned

if something is someone's pigeon, they are responsible for it • Finance isn't my pigeon. Ask Brian about that.

piggy

piggy in the middle British & Australian

someone who is between two people or groups who are arguing but who does not want to agree with either of them • It's awful. They argue the whole time and I always end up as piggy in the middle.

pigs

Pigs might fly. British, American & Australian, informal

Pigs can fly. American, informal something that you say which means you think there is no chance at all of something happening • 'I'll pay you back on Friday, I promise.' 'Yeah, and pigs might fly.'

pike

come down the pike American

to happen or appear Dike is short for 'turnpike' in American English and means a large, main road.

Malnourished children are liable to catch any disease that comes down the pike.

down the pike American

if an event is a particular period of time down the pike, it will not happen until that period of time has passed • Five years down the pike, they'll probably have a kid or two.

pill

sugar/sweeten the pill British, American & Australian

sugar-coat the pill American

to make something bad seem less unpleasant • The government have cut income tax to sweeten the pill of a tough budget.

pillar

from pillar to post British & Australian if someone goes from pillar to post, they are forced to keep moving from one place to another • After his mother died, Billy was passed from pillar to post and ended up in a children's home.

pillow

pillow talk informal

conversations that people who are in love have when they are in bed together
• She enjoyed most the quiet time they spent together after they had made love, the pillow talk, the shared embraces.

pills

pop pills

to take too many pills • (usually in continuous tenses) Soon she was popping pills again in an effort to cope with the increasing pressure of her job.

pill-popping • As their relationship fell apart, his pill-popping started to get seriously out of control.

pin

pin sth on sb

to blame someone for something, especially something they did not do • The police tried to pin the murder on the dead woman's husband.

pin money

a small amount of money that you earn and spend on things for yourself • She has a part-time job that gives her pin money for extra treats for herself and the kids.

You could have heard a pin drop.

something that you say in order to describe a situation where there was complete silence, especially because people were very interested or very surprised by what was happening • Margaret's ex-husband turned up at the wedding. Honestly, you could have heard a pin drop.

pinch

at a pinch British & Australian in a pinch American

if something can be done at a pinch, it is possible in an urgent situation but it is difficult • Will's car can take four people comfortably, five at a pinch.

feel the pinch

to have problems with money because you are earning less than before • When my father lost his job and we had to live on my mother's earnings, we really started to feel the pinch.

pinch-hit

pinch-hit American

to do something for someone because they are suddenly unable to do it • (often + for) He was pinch-hitting for one of the regular TV sportscasters, and was a great success.

pink

a pink slip American

a letter from your employer which tells you that you do not have a job any more • It was Christmas time when Miller got his pink slip from the company.

the pink pound British the pink dollar American

the money that is spent by people who are homosexual (= attracted to people of their own sex), especially on entertainment • Further proof of the strength of the pink pound can be seen in Brighton, where there are numerous successful gay clubs.

be in the pink old-fashioned

to be very healthy • I wasn't well last week, but I'm back in the pink, I'm pleased to say.

pink-collar

pink-collar American

pink-collar jobs are jobs that women usually do, often in offices and for little money • Most women returning to work after raising children, head for pink-collar jobs in sales and service.

pins

be on pins and needles American &

Australian

to be nervously waiting to see what is going to happen • We're on pins and needles waiting to hear whether she got the job.

have pins and needles

to feel slight, sharp pains in a part of your body when you move it after it has been kept still for a period of time • (often + in) I've been sitting on my leg for the last hour and now I've got pins and needles in my foot.

pipe

a pipe dream

an idea that could never happen because it is impossible • The classless society is just a pipe dream.

Put/stick that in your pipe and smoke it! informal

an impolite way of telling someone that they must accept what you have just said even if they do not like it • Well, I'm going anyway, so put that in your pipe and smoke it!

pipeline

be in the pipeline

if a plan is in the pipeline, it is being developed and will happen in the future • We have several major property deals in the pipeline.

piper

He who pays the piper calls the tune.

something that you say which means that the person who provides the money for something can decide how it should be done • You may not agree with Mr Brown but he funded this venture, and he who pays the piper calls the tune.

pipped

be pipped at/to the post British &

Australian

to be beaten in a competition or race by a very small amount • I'd have won quite a lot of money but my horse was pipped to the post.

piss

Piss or get off the can/pot! American,

taboo

something that you say to someone when you want them to make a decision and take action without any more delay • Make your mind up. It's time to piss or get off the pot!

be (out) on the piss British & Australian, very informal

to be in bars, drinking a lot of alcohol • I haven't seen Phil this morning. I think he was out on the piss again last night.

go (out) on the piss British & Australian, very informal • We're going out on the piss tonight – you coming?

take the piss

- 1 British & Australian, very informal to make a joke about someone or to make someone look silly . (often + out of) They're always taking the piss out of her because she's a Barry Manilow fan. • 'You should wear miniskirts more often you've got the legs for them.' 'Are you taking the piss?'
  - a piss-take British & Australian, very informal . Have I really won or is this a piss-take?
- 2 British & Australian, very informal to treat someone badly in order to get what you want • Four pounds an hour is taking the piss. . £50 for that old thing? That's just taking the piss.

piss-artist

a piss-artist

- 1 British & Australian, informal someone who tries to make people believe they have knowledge about a subject, but who really does not know much about it · Those so-called multi-media consultants were just a bunch of piss-artists.
- 2 British & Australian, informal someone who is often drunk . He's a nice enough bloke but he's a real piss-artist.

pissed

pissed out of your head/mind/skull very informal

very drunk . Anna was pissed out of her mind - she couldn't even walk.

- as pissed as a fart British & Australian, very informal
- as pissed as a newt British, very informal very drunk . Peter came home from the pub pissed as a fart.

piss-up

couldn't organize a piss-up in a brewery

British & Australian, very informal if someone couldn't organize a piss-up in a brewery, they are very bad at organizing things A piss-up is a social occasion where everyone drinks a lot of alcohol, and a brewery is a place where beer is made. . For god's sake don't ask Martin to make the arrangements. He couldn't organize a piss-up in a brewery.

a piss-up very informal

a social occasion where everyone drinks a lot of alcohol . The party was a complete piss-up.

pit

a pit stop mainly American, informal a short stop that you make on a long car journey in order to rest, eat and go to the toilet . Clean toilets and a nice place to eat

are what drivers are looking for when they make a pit stop.

pitch

make a pitch for sth

to try to persuade people to support you or give you something . The union made a pitch for a reduction in working hours.

queer sb's pitch British & Australian to spoil someone's chances of doing something . She queered my pitch by asking for promotion before I did.

pitched

a pitched battle

an angry fight or argument . There was a pitched battle between police and rioters.

place

a/sb's place in the sun

a job or situation that makes you happy and that provides you with all the money and things that you want . After struggling for years to make a name for himself, he's certainly earned his place in the sun.

all over the place

in or to many different places . There was blood all over the place. • I ran all over the place looking for them.

as if you own the place

if someone behaves as if they own the place, they behave in an unpleasantly confident way . He walked into the office on his first day as if he owned the place.

be out of place

if something or someone is out of place, they are not right or suitable for the situation they are in • A modern building can look out of place amongst Victorian architecture. • I felt out of place in my office clothes, with everyone else wearing jeans.

fall into place

- 1 if something that happens makes everything fall into place, it makes you understand something that you did not understand before Once I discovered that the woman I had seen him with was his daughter, everything fell into place,
- 2 if things fall into place in a situation, they happen in a satisfactory way, without problems • If a project is wellplanned, everything should fall into place.

know your place humorous

to accept your low position in society or in a group without trying to improve it • I just get on with my job and do as I'm told. I know my place.

put sb in their place

to let someone know that they are not as important as they think they are • She didn't like my suggestions at all. I was put firmly in my place, like a naughty schoolgirl.

scream the place down informal

to scream very loudly • You can scream the place down if you like, but no one will hear you.

places

go places

to become very successful • (never in simple past tenses) He was such a gifted musician, I always knew he would go places.

plague

avoid sb/sth like the plague

to try very hard to avoid someone or something that you do not like \( \bigsim \) A plague is a serious disease which kills many people. \( \bigsim \) I'm not a fan of parties \( -in \) fact I avoid them like the plague.

plain

a plain Jane

a woman or girl who is not attractive • If she'd been a plain Jane, she wouldn't have had all the attention.

be as plain as the nose on your face $\emph{old}$ -

fashioned

to be very obvious • There's no doubt that he's interested in her. It's as plain as the nose on your face.

be plain sailing

to be very easy • The roads were busy as we drove out of town but after that it was plain sailing all the way to the coast.

planet

be (living) on another planet informal

if you say that someone is on another planet, you mean they do not notice what is happening around them and behave differently from other people • He doesn't always make much sense. It's like he's on another planet half the time.

What planet is sb on? informal • Of course we can't afford any more staff. What planet is she on?

plank

walk the plank

to be forced to leave your job 🔊 In the past, people on ships who had committed crimes were forced to walk to the end of a plank (= a long flat piece of wood) and go over the side of the ship into the water.

 Several Cabinet Ministers have been forced to walk the plank following the latest Government scandal.

plate

give/hand sth to sb on a plate

to let someone get something very easily, without having to work for it • You can't expect everything to be handed to you on a plate – you've got to make a bit of effort.

have a lot/enough on your plate have your plate full

to have a lot of work to do or a lot of problems to deal with • I don't want to burden my daughter with my problems; she's got enough on her plate with her husband in prison. • Simon can't take on any more work. He's got his plate full as it is.

platter

give/hand sth to sb on a (silver) platter

to let someone get something very easily, without having to work for it • If you sell your share in the company now, you're handing the ownership to him on a silver platter.

play

a play on words

a type of joke using a word or phrase that has two meanings • It's a play on words – I suppose by calling a hairdresser's 'A Cut Above' they were hoping to give themselves a more sophisticated image.

bring sth into play

to begin to involve or use something in order to help you do something • Even bringing into play all the resources available would not resolve the immediate shortfall in production.

make (a) great play of sth make a big play of sth

to do something in a way that makes people notice what you are doing, often in order to make it seem more important than it really is • She made great play of ignoring me when I spoke to her.

make a play for sb

to try to start a romantic relationship with someone • If I wasn't happily married, I might make a play for him myself.

make a play for sth

to try to get something • It was rumoured that he would make a play for the director's post.

plea

cop a plea American, informal

to admit that you are guilty of a crime in order to try to get a less severe punishment • The police hoped the men would cop a plea and testify against the ringleaders in return for reduced sentences.

pleased

be as pleased as Punch old-fashioned

to be very happy about something Punch is a character in a traditional children's entertainment who is always happy and excited. • 'How does Stella feel about becoming a granny?' 'She's as pleased as Punch.'

pledge

sign/take the pledge humorous

to decide that you are never going to drink alcohol again • Why are you drinking Coke? Have you signed the pledge or something?

plenty

There are plenty more where they/that came from.

something that you say in order to tell someone they will easily find another person or thing similar to the one they have lost • 'Roger and I split up last month.' 'Oh, never mind, There are plenty more where he came from.'

plot

The plot thickens. humorous

something that you say when something happens which makes a strange situation even more difficult to understand • I had assumed the Irishman who keeps phoning June was her husband, but it seems her husband is American. The plot thickens.

lose the plot British & Australian,

humorous

to become crazy • I was waking up in the middle of the night, not knowing who I was or where I was. I really thought I was losing the plot.

plug

pull the plug

to do something which prevents an activity from continuing, especially to stop giving money • (often + on) If the viewing figures drop much further, the TV company will pull the plug on the whole series.

plughole

go down the plughole British &

Australian, informal

if a plan or work goes down the plughole, it fails or is wasted • I'll be so annoyed if all my hard work goes down the plughole just because he's too lazy to finish his bit in time.

plum

speak with a plum in your mouth British & Australian

if someone speaks with a plum in their mouth, they speak in a way that shows they are from a very high social group • All I can remember is that he was overweight and spoke with a plum in his mouth.

plunge

take the plunge

to do something important or difficult that you have been thinking about doing for a long time • I've decided to take the plunge and start up my own business.

plus ça change

plus ça change (plus c'est la même chose) mainly British something that you say which means that a situation or problem is the same even when the people or things involved in it have changed • Despite the change in government, single mothers are still the target of spending cuts. Plus ça change, it would seem.

poacher

a poacher turned gamekeeper British

someone whose job seems to involve working against the person who is now doing the job which they did before 🖒 A poacher illegally kills and steals animals on someone else's land, and a gamekeeper's job is to stop this from happening. • He used to be the the union rep but now he's in management – a case of poacher turned gamekeeper:

pocket

be in sb's pocket

if you are in someone's pocket, you do everything that they want you to do • The school governors are completely in the head teacher's pocket.

be out of pocket

to have less money than you should have • I'll give you the money for my ticket now, so you won't be out of pocket.

dig/dip into your pocket

to use your own money to pay for something • Parents of young children have to dig deep into their pockets at Christmas-time.

pick sb's pocket

to steal money from someone's pocket or bag • You'd think you'd feel something if someone tried to pick your pocket.

pockets

line sb's pockets

if money or a system is lining someone's pockets, that person is receiving too much money or is receiving money that is not intended for them • There's to be an investigation following allegations that the money raised is lining the pockets of officials.

line your (own) pockets

to make a lot of money in a way that is not fair or honest • Sharp resigned after allegations that he had been lining his pockets during his time as company director.

live in each other's pockets

if people live in each other's pockets, they spend too much time together • I don't think it's healthy the way those two live in each other's pockets.

poetic

poetic justice X

if something that happens is poetic justice, someone who has done something bad is made to suffer in a way that seems fair • There is a kind of poetic justice in the fact that the country responsible for the worst ecological disaster this century is the one suffering most from its effects.

poetic license

the way in which writers and other artists are allowed to ignore rules or change facts in their work • It's obvious the writer was using a certain amount of poetic licence because the route she mentions has been closed for 50 years.

po-faced

po-faced British & Australian, informal

if someone is po-faced, they look very serious and unfriendly • The po-faced librarian refused to let me in without my card. • Why does she always look so pofaced?

point

point blank

1 if you refuse point blank, you refuse completely and will not change your decision • He locked himself in the bathroom and refused point blank to come out.

point-blank • (always before noun) Journalists were infuriated by her pointblank refusal to discuss their divorce.

2 if you ask or tell someone point blank about something that could upset or embarrass them, you ask or tell them directly • You'll have to ask him point blank whether he took the money or not.

point-blank

at point-blank range

if someone is shot at point-blank range, they are shot from a very short distance away • The killers walked into the bar and shot him at point-blank range.

the point of no return

the time in an activity when you cannot stop doing it but must continue to the end
• And although I was bored, I'd already spent so much time doing the research for the novel that I felt I'd reached the point of no return.

be beside the point >

to be in no way connected to the subject that is being discussed • Ian's a nice guy but that's beside the point. He doesn't have the right experience for the job.

miss the point

to fail to understand what is important about something • I think you've missed the point. It's not the money that's the problem, it's the fact that she's not consulting him when she spends it.

poison

What's your poison? humorous

something that you say in order to ask someone what they would like to drink • It's my round. What's your poison?

poisoned

a poisoned chalice British

something that harms the person it is given to although it seemed very good when they first got it • The leadership of the party turned out to be a poisoned chalice.

poison-pen

a poison-pen letter

a letter that has no signature and says unpleasant things about the person it is sent to • After he was convicted, his family received a number of poison-pen letters.

pole

be in pole position British & Australian

to be in the best position to win a competition  $\stackrel{>}{\approx}$  In motor racing, pole position is the best place a car can start from. • (often + to do sth) United are in pole position to win the championship this year.

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a barge pole. British & Australian, informal

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a ten-foot pole. American & Australian, informal something that you say which means that you think someone or something is so bad that you do not want to be involved with them in any way • If I were you, I wouldn't touch that property with a barge pole.

poles

be poles apart

if two people or things are poles apart, they are complete opposites • My sister and I are poles apart in personality. • Our political views are poles apart.

political

a political football

a problem that politicians from different parties argue about and try to use in order to get an advantage for themselves • We don't want the immigration issue to become a political football.

politically

politically correct

avoiding language or statements that could be offensive to women, people of other races, or people who are disabled (= who cannot use part of their body) • I noticed that he never referred to her as his 'girlfriend', preferring the politically correct term 'partner'.

polls

go to the polls

to vote in an election • The country will go to the polls on 6th June.

pomp

pomp and circumstance

formal ceremony • The royal visit was accompanied by all the usual pomp and circumstance.

poor

a poor man's sb/sth

someone or something that is similar to a well-known person or thing but is not as good • He was only ever a mediocre singer – they used to call him 'the poor man's Frank Sinatra'. • 'So what did you think of the film?' 'It was just a poor man's 'Pulp Fiction'.'

a poor relation

someone or something that is believed to be less important than another similar person or thing • Video, once seen as the poor relation of cinema, is now a major source of revenue for film companies.

be as poor as church mice old-fashioned to be very poor • When we first got married, we were as poor as church mice.

pork

pork barrel American, informal

the action by a government of spending money in an area in order to make themselves more popular with the people there • He was critical of these new, expensive job programs as just a form of pork barrel.

pork-barrel American, informal • (always before noun) The President needs to find a way to block these wasteful pork-barrel projects coming from Congress.

port

a port of call

a place where you stop for a short time, especially on a journey • Our first port of call was the delightful town of Bruges.

Any port in a storm.

something that you say which means you must accept any help you are offered when you are in a difficult situation, although you may not want to do this • I don't even like him very much, but I had to move out of my flat and he offered me a place to stay. Any port in a storm, as they say.

possessed

like a man/woman possessed

if you do something like a man possessed, you do it with a lot of energy in a way that is not controlled • He'd lost the tickets and was running round the house like a man possessed.

possession

Possession is nine-tenths of the law.

something that you say which means that if you have something, it is difficult for other people to take it away from you • It would be hard to ask for the piano back after they've had it for so long. Possession is nine-tenths of the law and all that.

possum

play possum

to pretend to be dead or sleeping so that someone will not annoy or attack you • I don't think he's really asleep. He's playing possum.

postal

go postal American, very informal

to become very angry, or to suddenly behave in a violent and angry way, especially in the place where you work

- My Mom will go postal if I get home late.
- When she heard she'd been fired she went postal and started throwing things around the office.

posted

keep sb posted

to make sure that someone always knows what is happening • (sometimes + on) Keep me posted on anything that happens while I'm away.

post-haste

post-haste formal

as quickly as possible • A letter was dispatched post-haste to their offices.

pot

the pot calling the kettle black

something that you say which means someone should not criticize another person for a fault that they have themselves • Elliot accused me of being selfish. Talk about the pot calling the kettle black!

go to pot

to be damaged or spoilt because of a lack of care or effort • My diet has gone to pot since the holidays.

not have a pot to piss in very informal to be very poor • Any help we can offer them will be appreciated. They don't have a pot to piss in.

take a pot shot

to criticize someone suddenly • (often + at) As the director was finishing his speech he took a pot shot at their rival's lack of principles.

take pot luck

to accept or choose from whatever is available, without knowing whether it will be good or not • I took pot luck at the airport and just got on the first available flight.

throw sth into the pot

if you throw an idea or a subject into the pot, you suggest it for discussion • Right, I think we've had enough talk of education. Does anyone have anything else they want to throw into the pot?

pots

pots of money

a lot of money • They've got pots of money but they never spend any of it.

pound

your pound of flesh

if someone demands their pound of flesh, they make someone give them something that they owe them, although they do not need it and it will cause problems for the other person © This phrase comes from Shakespeare's play, The Merchant of Venice. • His boss, demanding his pound of flesh, made him come into work even though his daughter was seriously ill.

powder

a powder keg

a situation that could suddenly become extremely dangerous (A) A powder keg was a wooden container for gunpowder (A) a substance used for making explosions). • We left just before the revolution, realizing that we were sitting on a powder keg.

keep your powder dry

to be ready to take action if necessary
• All you have to do is keep your powder dry and await orders.

take a powder American, informal

to leave a place suddenly, especially in order to avoid an unpleasant situation • He saw the police coming and took a powder.

power

the power behind the throne

someone who does not have an official position in a government or organization but who secretly controls it • In his later years, the chairman's daughter was the power behind the throne.

do sb a power of good informal

to make someone feel much better • That walk in the fresh air did me a power of good.

More power to your elbow! British & Australian

More power to you! American &

Australian

something that you say to praise someone and to say that you hope they continue to have success • 'I've decided to set up my own business.' 'Good for you. More power to your elbow!'

powers

the powers that be

the people who control things but who are not known • It's up to the powers that be to decide what should be done next.

practice

Practice makes perfect.

something that you say which means if you do something many times you will learn to do it very well • You can't expect to become a brilliant dancer overnight, but practice makes perfect.

practise

practise what you preach British & Australian practice what you preach American to do what you advise other people to do

I would have more respect for him if he practised what he preaches.

praises

sing sb's/sth's praises

to praise someone or something very much • You've obviously made a good impression on Paul – he was singing your praises last night. • Mat seems happy enough in Brighton – he's always singing its praises.

prayer

not have a prayer

to be not at all likely to succeed  $\bullet$  (often + of) She hasn't a prayer of winning the competition.

presence

make your presence felt

to have a strong effect on other people or on a situation • The new police chief has really made his presence felt.

present

present company excepted British, American & Australian, humorous

${\bf present\ company\ excluded\ } American,$

humorous

something that you say which means that the criticism you have just made does not describe the people who are listening to you now • People just don't know how to dress in this country, present company excepted, of course.

pretty

Pretty is as pretty does. old-fashioned something that you say which means that you should judge people by the way they behave, not by their appearance • 'She's very pretty.' 'Yes, but pretty is as pretty does. I haven't been terribly impressed by her manners.'

not be a pretty sight humorous

to not be pleasant to look at • First thing in the morning, he's not a pretty sight.

cost (sb) a pretty penny

to be very expensive • That diamond ring must have cost him a pretty penny.

prevention

Prevention is better than cure. British & Australian

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. American something that you say which means it is better to stop something bad happening than it is to deal with it after it has happened • More advice is needed on how to stay healthy because, as we all know, prevention is better than cure.

price

at a price

- 1 if you can get something at a price, you have to pay a lot of money for it • Forged passports are available, at a price.
- 2 if you can get something at a price, you have to accept something unpleasant in order to get it • Progress has been achieved, but at a price. Many who worked on farms and in factories are now without jobs.

at any price

if you want something at any price, you will do whatever you have to do in order to get it • We want peace at any price.

pay the price

to accept the unpleasant results of what you have done • She dropped all her friends when she met Steve and now that he's gone, she's paying the price. She has no one to turn to. • (often + for) I have paid the price for working nonstop – my health has suffered.

What price [fame/success/victory etc.]?

something that you say which means it is possible that the fame, success etc. that has been achieved was not worth all the suffering it has caused • What price victory when so many people have died to make it possible?

pricks

kick against the pricks British &

Australian, literary

to fight against people in authority
• People in this country tend to follow rather than lead. It takes courage to kick against the pricks.

pride

Pride comes before a fall. British & Australian

Pride goes before a fall. American something that you say which means if you are too confident about yourself, something bad will happen to show you that you are not as good as you think you are • Just because you did well in your exams doesn't mean you can stop working. Pride comes before a fall.

have/take pride of place

if something takes pride of place, it is in the best position to be seen by a lot of people • Bella's show-jumping trophies take pride of place in the display cabinet. give sth pride of place • (usually passive) Works by contemporary artists are given pride of place in the exhibition.

swallow your pride

to accept that you have to do something that you think is embarrassing or that you think you are too good to do • Swallow your pride and call your daughter to tell her you're sorry.

prim

prim and proper

someone who is prim and proper behaves in a very formal and correct way and is easily shocked by anything rude • I can't quite imagine Ellen drinking pints of beer – she's very prim and proper.

prima donna

a prima donna

someone who demands to be treated in a special way and is very difficult to please • It was my job to take visiting authors out to dinner before they gave their talks and some of them were real prima donnas.

prime

a prime mover

someone who has a lot of influence in starting something important • He was a prime mover in developing a new style of customer-friendly bookshops in the UK.

primrose

the primrose path literary

if you lead someone down the primrose path, you encourage them to live an easy life that is full of pleasure but bad for them • Unable to enjoy his newly acquired wealth, he felt he was being led down the primrose path that leads to destruction.

Prince Charming

Prince Charming humorous

a woman's Prince Charming is her perfect partner • How much time have you wasted sitting around waiting for Prince Charming to appear?

print

the fine/small print

the part of a printed agreement that is printed smaller than the rest but which contains very important information • Never sign a contract until you have read the small print.

prisoners

take no prisoners

if someone takes no prisoners, when they try to achieve something they are very determined and do not care about other people's feelings • When Eric's anger is aroused, he takes no prisoners.

prizes

no prizes for guessing sth British &

Australian

something that you say when it is very easy to guess something • (usually + question word) No prizes for guessing who Neil wants to ask to the party.

prodigal

the prodigal son

a man or boy who left a family or organization in order to do something they did not approve of and who has now returned to them feeling sorry for what he did E This phrase comes from the Bible. • Manchester City football club sees the return of the prodigal son tonight with Black once again in the team after a season away.

production

make a production (out) of sth

to make something seem more complicated or difficult to do than it is • If you ask Tom to do anything, he always makes such a production of it that you wish you'd just done it yourself.

program

get with the program American,

informal

to accept new ideas and give more attention to what is happening now • They've been playing the same old music for ten years or so – it's time to get with the program.

promise

promise (sb) the moon British, American & Australian

promise (sb) the earth British & Australian

to promise something impossible • He had promised her the earth but five years later they were still living in the same small house.

promised

the promised land

a place that offers a lot of good opportunities En This phrase comes from the Bible. • America was the promised land for many immigrant families.

promises

Promises, promises! informal

something that you say when someone says they will do something and you do not believe them • 'Honestly, I will call you back this time.' 'Promises, promises!'

proof

The proof of the pudding (is in the eating).

something that you say which means that you cannot judge the value of something until you have tried it • I've read the proposal and it looks promising, but the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

proper

good/right and proper

socially and morally acceptable • There is a long-held assumption that motherhood is the right and proper path for a woman to take.

prophet

a prophet of doom

someone who always expects bad things to happen • My father is convinced that this venture will fail, but then he's always been a prophet of doom.

proportion

blow sth out of (all) proportion

to behave as if something that has happened is much worse than it really is

• They had a minor argument in a restaurant but the press have blown it out of all proportion, speculating about divorce.

pros

the pros and cons

the good and bad parts of a situation, or the reasons why you should or should not do something Diris phrase comes from the Latin words 'pro', which means 'for' and 'contra' which means 'against'.

• (often + of) We've been discussing the pros and cons of buying a house.

protest

protest too much literary

if someone protests too much, they tell you more often than is necessary what they feel about a situation so that you start to doubt they are sincere Enthis phrase comes from Shakespeare's play Hamlet. • He constantly denies there is any autobiographical input in his novels, but does he protest too much?

proud

do sb proud

1 informal to treat someone who is visiting you very well, especially by giving them lots of good food • We had a lovely lunch.
Rosemary did us proud.

2 informal to make someone proud of you by doing something very well • Once again, the armed forces have done us proud.

pub

a pub crawl British & Australian,

informal

an occasion on which you go to several different pubs (= type of bar found in Britain) in order to drink alcohol • I thought we might go on a pub crawl tonight.

public

public enemy number one

someone or something that many people do not like or approve of • Inflation has been public enemy number one for this government.

be in the public eye

if someone is in the public eye, they are famous and are written about in newspapers and magazines and seen on television • It's not always easy being in the public eye.

pudding

be in the pudding club British, old-

fashioned

to be pregnant • Tina says Karen's in the pudding club.

over-egg the pudding British

to spoil something by trying too hard to improve it • As a director, I think he has a tendency to over-egg the pudding, with a few too many gorgeous shots of the countryside.

pulp

beat sb to a pulp informal

to hit someone hard until they are seriously injured • He was beaten to a pulp in a back street and left to die.

pulse

quicken your/the pulse

to make someone excited or interested • There's nothing in this book to quicken the pulse.

pump

prime the pump mainly American

to do something in order to make something succeed, especially to spend money • European governments and banks are priming the pump world-wide looking for alternative energy.

punch

beat sb to the punch American

to do something before someone else does it • I was thinking of applying for that job but Carol beat me to the punch.

pack a punch informal

if someone can pack a punch, they can hit very hard when they are fighting • He's a big guy – I should imagine he can pack a fair punch.

punch-drunk

be punch-drunk

to feel very tired and confused, especially after dealing with a difficult situation in If a boxer (= man who fights as a sport) is punch-drunk, his brain is damaged because he has been hit on the head too much or too hard. • Social workers are punch-drunk from the criticism they have received in recent months.

punches

not pull any punches

to speak in an honest way without trying to be kind • This man doesn't pull any punches. I wouldn't like to get into an argument with him ### roll with the punches American &

Australian

to be able to deal well with difficulties or criticism • The poor woman has been jeered at and threatened with her life, but she just rolls with the punches.

puppy

puppy fat British & Australian

fat that a child has but which they lose when they become older • He's a little overweight but that's just puppy fat.

puppy love

romantic love which a young person feels for someone and which usually disappears

as they become older • At the time I was sure I would marry him when I grew up, but of course it was just puppy love.

pure

be as pure as the driven snow

to be morally good • How dare he criticize me for having an affair? He's not exactly as pure as the driven snow himself.

purely

purely and simply

for only one reason or purpose • They closed the museum purely and simply because it cost too much to run.

pure and simple • They built their cabin at the lake for enjoyment, pure and simple.

purple

purple prose

writing that is more complicated and formal than necessary • Despite occasional passages of purple prose, her latest novel is still very readable.

purple passages • There are long purple passages which distract the reader from the real point of the argument.

purse

hold the purse strings

to control the spending of a family's or an organization's money • In our house it was my mother who held the purse strings. loosen the purse strings to allow more money to be spent • We shouldn't expect the Chancellor to loosen the purse strings too much in the Budget.

tighten the purse strings to reduce the amount of money that can be spent • If the economy gets any weaker, it will be necessary for the government to tighten the national purse strings still further.

push

at a push British & Australian

if you can do something at a push, you can do it but it will be difficult • I could finish the job by Friday – at a push, Thursday afternoon.

give sb the push

1 British & Australian, informal to end someone's employment • After twenty years' loyal service, they gave her the push. get the push British & Australian, informal • I hear Nick got the push from the brickworks last week.

2 British & Australian, informal to end a relationship with someone • They'd only been seeing each other for two weeks when he gave her the push.

get the push British & Australian, informal • Mandy's a bit upset – she got the push from Martin last night.

if/when push comes to shove

if you say that something can be done if push comes to shove, you mean that it can be done if the situation becomes so bad that you have to do it • Look, if push comes to shove we'll just have to sell the car.

pusher

a pen pusher British & Australian

a pencil pusher American someone who has a boring job in an office

• He's a frustrated desk-bound pen pusher who dreams of trekking through jungles.

pen pushing British & Australian pencil pushing American • Who does all the pen pushing for the golf club?

pushing

be pushing up (the) daisies humorous

to be dead • It won't affect me anyway. I'll be pushing up the daisies long before it happens.

put

put sb off their stride British, American & Australian

put sb off their stroke British &

Australian

to take someone's attention away from what they are doing so they are not able to do it well • She was making funny faces at me, trying to put me off my stroke.
• When I'm playing chess, the slightest noise can put me off my stride.

put it about

- 1 British, very informal to have sexual relationships with a lot of different people • (usually in continuous tenses) She's been putting it about a bit recently, hasn't she?
- 2 to tell a lot of people news or information that may not be true • (usually + that) Her rivals put it about that she was responsible for the crisis.

put up or shut up informal

if you say someone should put up or shut up, you mean they should either take action in order to do what they have been talking about or stop talking about it • You keep saying you're going to ask her out. Well. put up or shut up.

putty

be putty in your hands

if someone is putty in your hands, they will do anything you want them to do, usually because they like you so much • He can't say no to her – he's putty in her hands.

put-up

a put-up job informal

an attempt to trick or deceive someone • At the time he seemed honest enough, but later, after I'd given him the money, I realized it was a put-up job.

Pyrrhic

a Pyrrhic victory

a victory that is not worth winning because you have suffered so much to achieve it • Winning the case may well prove to be a Pyrrhic victory as the award will not even cover their legal fees.

qed

QED formal

something that you say in order to emphasize that a fact proves what you have just said is true DQED is a short form of the latin phrase 'quod erat demonstrandum' which means 'which was to have been proven'. • People are getting taller all the time – apparently it's progress and has to do with quality of life (cavemen were short QED).

qt

on the q.t. old-fashioned

secretly, without anyone knowing  $ext{@}$  q.t. is a short way of writing 'quiet'. • All this time she'd been making plans on the q.t. to change her job.

quaking

be quaking in your boots

to be very frightened or anxious • My first teacher had one of those deep, booming voices that had you quaking in your boots. make sb quake in their boots • Just the sound of her voice made me quake in my boots.

quantum

- a quantum leap British & American
- a quantum jump American

a very important improvement or development in something • (often + forward) The election of a female president is a quantum leap forward for sexual equality. • (often + from) The food at Rockresorts is a quantum jump from the meals served at most Caribbean resorts.

quart

get/put a quart into a pint pot British

to try to put too much of something into a small space A quart is a unit for measuring liquids. It is equal to two pints. • I'm trying to get this huge pile of clothes crammed into these two drawers. Talk about trying to get a quart into a pint pot!

queer

a queer fish British, old-fashioned a strange person • I knew his father and he was a queer fish too.

be in Queer Street British, old-fashioned, humorous

to owe a lot of money to other people • Now don't you go doing anything that'll land you in Queer Street!

question

a question mark over sth

- 1 if there is a question mark over something, no one knows whether it will continue to exist in the future or what will happen to it Neither company has performed well over the last year and there's a question mark over their long-term survival. A question mark hangs over the future of the whole project.
- 2 a feeling of doubt about the ability or quality of something • The recent spate of government scandals has left a question mark over their ability to govern.

be out of the question

if something is out of the question, it is not possible or not allowed • A trip to New Zealand is out of the question this year.

beg the question

- 1 if a statement or situation begs the question, it causes you to ask a particular question It's all very well talking about extra staff but it rather begs the question of how we're going to pay for them.
- 2 formal if something that someone says begs the question, it suggests that something is true which might in fact be false • We're assuming, are we, that Anthony will still be in charge this time next year? That rather begs the question, doesn't it?

call sth into question formal

to cause a feeling of doubt about something • The report's findings call into question the safety and effectiveness of all such drugs.

pop the question informal

to ask someone to marry you • So we were having dinner in this Italian restaurant and that's when he popped the question. • Do you think he's going to pop the question then, Kath?

the sixty-four-thousand-dollar question informal

the million-dollar question informal

an important or difficult question which people do not know the answer to • So will she marry him or not? – that's the sixty-four-thousand-dollar question.

queue

jump the queue British & Australian

to move in front of people who have been waiting longer for something than you • If you try to jump the queue at a bus stop you'll get shouted at by old ladies. • There's a long waiting list for hip operations, but you can jump the queue if you pay.

queue-jump British & Australian

- Sorry, I didn't mean to queue-jump.
   a queue-jumper British & Australian
- People who had waited all night to get a ticket were very upset by queue-jumpers.

quick

a quick fix informal

a quick solution to a problem, especially one which is only temporary • The truth about dieting is that there is no quick fix. Weight must be lost gradually, over a period of time.

quick-fix • (always before noun) It's a system of medicine that doesn't promote the quick-fix approach to the treatment of illness.

a quick one informal
a quick, usually alcoholic drink • Have you got time for a quick one before you go?

a quick study American, informal someone who is able to learn things quickly • He's a quick study and easily grasps all the details of a discussion.

as quick as a flash/wink as quick as lightning

if you do something as quick as a flash, you do it very quickly • Quick as a flash,

he snatched the book and ran out of the room.

cut sb to the quick old-fashioned

to upset someone by criticizing them • (usually passive) I was cut to the quick by her harsh remarks.

quid pro quo

a quid pro quo formal

something that you do for someone or give to someone when they have agreed to do something for you This is a Latin phrase which means 'something for something'. • (often + for) The government's commitment to release political prisoners is a quid pro quo for the suspension of armed struggle by the rebels.

quids

be guids in British, informal

to be making a profit • If this deal goes ahead we'll be quids in.

not for quids Australian, informal

if you say that you would not do something for quids, you mean that you would hate to do that thing • I wouldn't do your job for quids.

quiet

be as quiet as a mouse

to be very quiet • She was as quiet as a mouse. I didn't even know she'd come in.

on the quiet informal

secretly • His marriage broke up when his wife found out he'd been seeing someone else on the quiet.

quits

call it quits

- 1 informal to stop doing something The relationship had been going from bad to worse and we just decided it was time to call it quits.
- 2 informal to agree with someone that a debt has been paid and that no one owes money to anyone • You paid for the theatre tickets so if I pay for dinner we can call it quits.

quote

quote, unquote British, American & Australian

quote, end quote American

something that you say when you want to show that you are using someone else's phrase, especially when you do not think that phrase is true • And to think he chose to practise law because it's a quote, unquote 'respected' profession! 317

rabbit

pull a rabbit out of the hat

to surprise everyone by suddenly doing something that shows a lot of skill, often in order to solve a problem © Pulling a rabbit out of a hat is something that is often done by a person who performs magic tricks. • He's one of those players who, just when you think the game's over, can pull a rabbit out of the hat.

rabbits

breed like rabbits informal

if people breed like rabbits, they produce too many babies very quickly • It's like I was saying to Derek, they all intermarry and they breed like rabbits.

race

a race against time/the clock

an attempt to do something very quickly because there is only a short time in which it can be done • It's a race against time to get the building finished before the rainy season sets in.

race against time/the clock • Rescuers were racing against time last night to reach the four divers, trapped 200 feet down on the seabed.

rack

on the rack

anxious, often because you are waiting for something or because people are asking you difficult questions • You're left on the rack for three days waiting for the results from the hospital. • Here was a respected politician being put on the rack (= asked a lot of difficult questions) by aggressive junior politicians.

rag

lose your rag British & Australian,
informal

to suddenly become very angry and start shouting • He said one too many stupid things and I just lost my rag. • It was the only time I've ever lost my rag with someone in an office situation.

rage

be all the rage old-fashioned, informal

to be very fashionable • Fake leopard print, so fashionable in the seventies, is all the rage again now.

ragged

be on the ragged edge American

to be so tired or upset that you feel you cannot deal with a situation • Top professional coaches are on the ragged edge of exhaustion and frustration.

run sb ragged

to make someone very tired, usually by making them work too hard • What with party preparations and having to look after the kids all this week, I've been run ragged.

rags

go from rags to riches

to start your life very poor and then later in life become very rich • People who go from rags to riches are often afraid the good life will be snatched away from them. rags-to-riches • (always before noun) Raised in poverty by an uncle in Oklahoma, his was a real rags-to-riches story.

rails

be back on the rails British

to be making progress once more • The minister emerged from three hours of discussions, confident that the talks are now back on the rails.

put sth back on the rails British • With this new album, he hopes to put his career back on the rails.

go off the rails informal

to start behaving strangely or in a way that is not acceptable to society • He went off the rails in his twenties and started living on the streets. • By the law of probabilities if you have five kids, one of them's going to go off the rails.

rain

(come) rain or shine

- 1 whatever the weather is He runs every morning, rain or shine.
- 2 if you say you will do something come rain or shine, you mean you will do it whatever happens Come rain or shine, I'll be there, I promise.

I'll take a rain check American, British & Australian, informal

I'll get a rain check American, informal something that you say when you cannot accept someone's invitation to do something but you would like to do it another time • (often + on) I'll take a rain check on that drink tonight, if that's all right. • I won't play tennis this afternoon ask (sb) for a rain check American, informal • I was supposed to see Marge on Saturday – I'll have to ask her for a rain check.

but can I get a rain check?

rainbows

chase rainbows

to waste your time trying to get or achieve something impossible • (usually in continuous tenses) I don't think my parents ever believed I'd make it as an actor. I think they thought I was just chasing rainbows.

raining

It's raining cats and dogs! old-fashioned something that you say when it is raining very heavily • It's raining cats and dogs out there! It's a wonder any of the men can see what they're doing!

rains

It never rains but it pours.

something that you say which means that when one bad thing happens, a lot of other bad things also happen, making the situation even worse • First of all it was the car breaking down, then the fire in the kitchen and now Mike's accident. It never rains but it pours!

rainy

save (sth) for a rainy day

to keep an amount of money for a time in the future when it might be needed • She has a couple of thousand pounds kept aside which she's saving for a rainy day.

a rainy day fund an amount of money that you have saved • I'm hoping that I can pay for my holiday without dipping into my rainy day fund.

raison d'être

318

sb's/sth's raison d'être formal

the most important reason why something exists, or the most important thing in someone's life • She's never going to retire—work is her raison d'être. • Serious, experimental drama was once the raison d'être of the festival but it has now been replaced by comedy and cabaret shows.

rake-off

a rake-off informal

a share of the profits of something, often taken in a way that is not honest • Corrupt customs officers were taking a rake-off from import taxes.

ramrod

be as stiff/straight as a ramrod old-

fashioned

if someone is as stiff as a ramrod, they stand or sit with their back very straight and stiff • At eighty-three, he's still as straight as a ramrod.

rank

the rank and file

the ordinary members of an organization and not its leaders • The party leadership seems to be losing the support of the rank and file.

rank-and-file • (always before noun) Nearly two-thirds of the vote went to union leaders and rank-and-file party activists.

pull rank

to use the power that your position gives you over someone in order to make them do what you want • (often + on) He doesn't have the authority to pull rank on me any more. • She was boss of forty or more people but, to her credit, she never once pulled rank.

ranks

break ranks

to publicly show that you disagree with a group of which you are a member • (often + with) Junior officers were said to be prepared to break ranks with the leadership.

close ranks

if members of a group close ranks, they publicly show that they support each other, especially when people outside of the group are criticizing them in It soldiers close ranks, they move closer together so that it is more difficult to go past them. • In the past, the party would have closed ranks around its leader and defended him loyally against his critics.

join the ranks of sth

to become part of a large group • Thousands of young people join the ranks of the unemployed each summer when they leave school.

ransom

hold sb to ransom

to force someone to do something by putting them in a situation where something bad will happen to them if they do not • Some people regarded the miners' strike as the union holding the nation to ransom.

rap

a rap across/on/over the knuckles

a punishment which is not very severe but which warns you not to behave that way again • The company received a rap over the knuckles from the Food and Drug Administration. • Her remarks earned her a sharp rap across the knuckles from the Prime Minister.

rap sb's knuckles • She rapped my knuckles and sent me on my way.

a rap sheet American, informal

information kept by the police about someone's criminal activities • The gunman's rap sheet had a long list of weapons and narcotics offenses.

beat the rap American, informal

to escape being punished • There's no way he can beat the rap now. No lawyer can save him.

take the rap

to be blamed or punished for something bad that has happened, especially when it is not your fault • (often + for) I'm not going to take the rap for someone else's mistakes.

raptures

go into raptures

to talk about something in a very pleased and excited way • (often + about) She went into raptures about the chocolate cake.

raring

be raring to go

to be full of energy and ready to do something • At three in the morning he was still wide awake and raring to go.

raspberry

blow a raspberry British & Australian, informal

give a raspberry American, informal

to make a rude noise by putting your tongue between your lips and blowing • (often + at) A boy of no more than six appeared, blew a raspberry at me and then ran away.

rat

a rat fink American, informal

an extremely unpleasant person, or someone who has given secret information about you to the police • If I find the rat fink who informed on me, he won't live long enough to do it again.

a rat race

an unpleasant way in which people compete against each other at work in order to succeed • I'd love to get out of the rat race and buy a house in some remote part of the countryside.

smell a rat X

to start to believe that something is wrong about a situation, especially that someone is being dishonest • She smelled a rat when she phoned him at the office where he was supposed to be working late and he wasn't there.

rat-arsed

rat-arsed British, very informal rat-assed American, very informal very drunk • They came home completely rat-arsed.

rate

at a rate of knots British & Australian

if someone does something at a rate of knots, they do it very quickly The speed a boat travels is measured in knots.

• She did her homework at a rate of knots so that she could go out with her friends.

raw

come the raw prawn Australian,

informal

to pretend that you have no knowledge of what someone is talking about • (usually + with) Oh, don't come the raw prawn with me, Scott, I saw you writing down her telephone number as I walked into the room!

get a raw deal

to not be treated as well as other people
• The fact is that kids who are taught in classes of over thirty get a raw deal.

in the raw informal

naked . She often swims in the raw.

ray

a ray of sunshine

someone or something that makes you feel happy, especially in a difficult situation • Amid all the gloom, their grandchild has been a real ray of sunshine.

rays

catch some rays informal catch a few rays informal

to lie or sit outside in the sun • I thought I'd take my lunch outside and catch a few rays.

razzle

be/go (out) on the razzle British,

informal, old-fashioned

to enjoy yourself by doing things like going to parties or dances • We're going out on the razzle on New Year's Eve – do you fancy coming?

a night (out) on the razzle informal, old-fashioned • We've had a night on the razzle, so I've got a bit of a hangover.

razzle-dazzle

razzle-dazzle

activity that is intended to attract people's attention by being noisy or exciting • Amid all the razzle-dazzle of the party convention, it is easy to forget about the real political issues.

razzle-dazzle • (always before noun) It was their razzle-dazzle style that caught people's eye.

reach

reach for the moon/stars

to try to achieve something that is very difficult • If you want success, you have to reach for the moon.

read

take it as read British & Australian

to accept that something is true without making sure that it is • (often + that) We just took it as read that we were invited.

ready

ready cash/money

money that is immediately available to spend • They need investors with ready money if they're going to get the project started.

be ready to roll

- mainly American to be going to start soon
   The new TV series from the Hill Street
  - The new TV series from the Hill Street Blues creator, Steve Bochco, is ready to roll.
- 2 American to be going to leave soon Give me a call when you're ready to roll, and I'll meet you outside.

real

the real McCoy

the real thing and not a copy or something similar  $\stackrel{\frown}{R}$  Kid McCoy, an American boxer (= a man who fights as a sport), was called 'the real McCoy' to show that he was not another boxer who had the same name. • Cheap sparkling wines cannot be labelled 'champagne'. It has to be the real McCoy.

Get real! informal

something that you say in order to tell someone that they should try to understand the true facts of a situation instead of hoping for something impossible • Oh, get real! You're not tall enough to be a model.

reap

You reap what you sow.

As you sow, so shall you reap. formal something that you say which means everything that happens to you is a result

everything that happens to you is a result of your own actions • If you treat your friends like that, of course they drop you. You reap what you sow in this life.

rear

bring up the rear

to be at the back of a group of people who are walking or running • Ceri was in the lead. Bringing up the rear, a mile or so down the road, was Simon.

rear-end

rear-end sth American

to cause an accident by hitting the back of the car in front of you • His car was rear-ended while he was stopped at the light.

rearguard

fight a rearguard action

to try very hard to prevent something from happening when it is probably too late to prevent it • (often + against) The unions were fighting a rearguard action against the government's attempt to strip them of their powers.

rearranging

be like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic British & Australian,

humorous

if an activity is like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic, it it will have no effect Deckchairs on the Titanic was a large ship that sank suddenly in 1912 with most of its passengers. • With unemployment at record levels, plans for better advertising of job vacancies are a bit like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic.

reason

it stands to reason

if it stands to reason that something happens or is true, it is what you would expect • (often + that) It stands to reason that a child that is constantly criticized will grow up to have no self-confidence.

rebound

on the rebound

unhappy and confused because a close, romantic relationship of yours has recently finished • She was on the rebound when she met Jack. • Six months after Julia left him, he married someone else on the rebound.

receiving

be at/on the receiving end

if you are on the receiving end of something unpleasant that someone does, you suffer because of it • (usually + of) Sales assistants are often at the receiving end of verbal abuse from customers.

recipe 🔀

be a recipe for [disaster/success etc.]

if something is a recipe for disaster, success etc., it is very likely to cause this • Living with your husband's family is a recipe for disaster.

record

for the record

something that you say when you are about to tell someone something important that you want them to remember • Just for the record, I've never been to his house and I've only met him a few times, whatever the media is saying.

go on record

to publicly and officially tell people your opinion about something • (often + as + doing sth) Are you prepared to go on record as supporting the council on this issue?

be on record • (often + as + doing sth) Both doctors are on record as saying the drug trials were an unqualified success.

off the record

if you say something off the record, you do not want it to be publicly reported • She made it clear that her comments were strictly off the record and should not be included in the article.

off-the-record • (always before noun) It's not a good idea to make these off-the-record remarks too often.

OPPOSITE on the record • None of the company directors were prepared to comment on the record yesterday.

put/set the record straight

to tell the true facts about a situation in order to show people that what they believed previously was not correct • She is writing her memoirs to set the record straight once and for all.

red

red eye American, informal

cheap whiskey (= strong alcoholic drink)
• The man was leaning against the wall, swigging from a bottle of red eye.

a red eye American, informal

a flight that leaves late at night and arrives early the next morning • We took the red eye from Seattle to New York.

red-eye • (always before noun) There's a red-eye flight to Los Angeles leaving at 10pm.

red tape

official rules which do not seem necessary and make things happen very slowly • My passport application has been held up by red tape.

not a red cent American, informal

no money at all A cent is the smallest coin in value in American money and is worth very little. • I did all that work for them and they didn't pay me a red cent! • It turns out his paintings aren't worth a red cent.

a red herring

something that takes people's attention away from the main subject being talked or written about • About halfway through the book it looked as though the butler was the murderer, but that turned out to be a red herring.

be in the red

to owe money to a bank Accountants (= people who keep records of money) often write amounts of money that are owed in red ink. • Many of the students were in the red at the end of their first year.

be like a red rag to a bull

if a statement or an action is like a red rag to a bull, it makes someone very angry  $\approx$  Some people believe that bulls become very angry when they see the colour red. • For Claire, the suggestion of a women-only committee was like a red rag to a bull.

roll out the red carpet

to give an important person a special welcome • The red carpet was rolled out for the President's visit.

the red-carpet treatment • She was given the red-carpet treatment in Japan where her books are extremely popular.

see red

to become very angry • When he laughed in my face, I just saw red.

red-blooded

red-blooded

a red-blooded man has a lot of energy and enjoys sex very much • He's a normal, red-blooded male – of course he wants to sleep with you!

red-handed

catch sb red-handed

to discover someone doing something illegal or wrong • (often + doing sth) I caught him red-handed trying to break into my car.

red-hot

red-hot informal

very exciting or successful • British athletes are red-hot at the moment. • Their divorce is the red-hot story in this morning's press.

red-letter

a red-letter day

a day that is very important or very special • The day our daughter was born was a real red-letter day for us.

red-light

the red-light district

the part of a city where many people offer sex for money • A prostitute was found murdered in the city's red-light district last night.

reduced

in reduced circumstances slightly formal

if someone, especially someone from a high social class, is in reduced circumstances, they have a lot less money than they did before • They found him living in reduced circumstances in a flat off Fulham Road.

regular

be as regular as clockwork

if something is as regular as clockwork, it happens at exactly regular times • Her letters arrived every week, regular as clockwork.

reign

a reign of terror

a period of time when a ruler controls people in a violent and cruel way • My father's generation, who lived through the reign of terror, will never forget it.

reins

Reins are strips of material used for controlling horses. Reins is used in the following expressions connected with controlling something or someone.

hand over the reins

to allow someone else to control something you controlled previously, especially an organization or a country • Company chiefs are often reluctant to hand over the reins of power to younger people. • (often + to) I built up the business, but I handed over the reins to my daughter last year.

take over/up the reins

to take control of something, especially an organization or a country • (often + of) He took up the reins of government immediately after the coup.

tighten the reins

to start to control something or someone more carefully • (often + on) She has tightened the reins on her younger sons in an effort to curb their wild behaviour before it's too late.

loosen/relax the reins • (often + on) The Government has relaxed the reins on wage control to boost consumer spending.

religion

get religion

- 1 humorous to become very religious He suddenly got religion when he went to college.
- 2 American, humorous to start doing something in a serious and careful way

 I get religion each time I do my income tax – I always wonder why I didn't keep better records.

Renaissance

a Renaissance man formal

an intelligent and well-educated man who knows a lot about many different subjects • He's a poet, astronomer, musician – an all-round Renaissance man.

rent

a rent boy British

a boy or a young man who has sex with other men for money • He spent a year in London working as a rent boy.

rest

the rest is history

something that you say when you do not need to finish a story because everyone knows what happened • The Beatles signed a recording contract in 1962 and the rest is history.

Give it a rest! informal something that you say when you want someone to stop talking about something • 'When are you going to wash the car?' 'Oh, give it a rest! I'll do it in a minute.'

retreat

beat a retreat

to leave a place because it is dangerous or unpleasant • When the cold grows overwhelming, visitors can beat a retreat to Joe Mulligan's warm saloon. • When we saw the police arriving we beat a hasty retreat.

revolving

a revolving door mainly American

the movement of people from one organization or activity to another, especially from government jobs to private companies • (often + between) Congress has tightened regulations to slow down the revolving door between government and industry.

rhyme

no rhyme or reason

if there is no rhyme or reason why something happens, there is no obvious explanation for it • I don't know what makes her behave like that. There's no rhyme or reason to it.

without rhyme or reason • Changes have been made to the text without rhyme or reason.

ribs

stick to your ribs

if something that you eat sticks to your ribs, it makes you feel you have eaten a lot • That chocolate pudding really sticks to your ribs.

rich

a rich seam formal

a subject which provides a lot of opportunities for people to discuss, write about or make jokes about • (often + of) Both wars have provided a rich seam of drama for playwrights and novelists alike. • His second novel mines the same rich seam of mother-son relations.

filthy/stinking rich informal

extremely rich • Most of us are stinking rich compared to the average citizen in the Third World. • Palm Beach has the highest concentration of filthy rich folk in the world.

strike it rich

to suddenly become rich • He struck it rich in the oil business.

That's (a bit) rich!

something that you say when someone criticizes you to show that you do not think they are being fair because they are as bad as you • I'm greedy? That's a bitrich, coming from you!

riddles

talk in riddles

to talk in a way that is difficult to understand \( \epsilon \) A riddle is a difficult and confusing description of something.

• She keeps talking in riddles, instead of just coming out and saying what she means.

ride

a bumpy/rough ride

a difficult time • Government plans to cut sick pay had a rough ride in the House of Commons. • The construction industry is in for a bumpy ride next year.

OPPOSITE an easy/smooth ride • It has taken years to set up a support network without adequate funding. It hasn't been an easy ride.

come/go along for the ride

to join in an activity without playing an important part in it • My husband is speaking at the dinner and I'm just going along for the ride.

let sth ride

to not take action to change something wrong or unpleasant • Don't panic about low sales. Let it ride for a while till we see if business picks up.

take sb for a ride

to cheat or deceive someone • I trusted him but he took me for a ride.

riding

be riding high

to be very successful • With 3 hit singles in the charts, the band are riding high. • (often + on) Shops are riding high on the latest consumer spending boom.

riff-raff

riff-raff

an impolite way of describing people from a low social class, especially people who behave badly • We don't want drug addicts and other riff-raff living near us.

right

Right on! American & Australian

something that you say when you agree completely with what someone has just said • He said he didn't think I really wanted him to be here and I thought, 'Right on!'

be as right as rain

to feel well • I'll be as right as rain as soon as I take my pills.

be in the right place at the right time

to be in the place where an opportunity is being offered • The secret of success is being in the right place at the right time.

325

be on the right track

to be doing something in a way that will bring good results • Our success in the opinion polls proves we're on the right track.

put sb on the right track • When things went wrong I had a chat with Phil and he put me back on the right track.

not be right in the head informal

to be mentally ill • His aunt's not right in the head, poor soul – you sometimes see her wandering up the street in her nightie.

hit/strike the right note

if something you say or do hits the right note, it is suitable and has a good effect
• He saw his remarks had struck the right note – his friend was smiling now.
• (sometimes + of) The General's calm manner hit the right note of moderation, to reassure his audience.

make (all) the right noises

to seem to be enthusiastic about something • I think she liked my presentation. She certainly made all the right noises.

press/push the right button/buttons

to do exactly what is necessary to get the result that you want • You have to know how to push all the right buttons if you want to be a successful diplomat.
• Sometimes you're interviewing someone really shy and then you press the right button and they just don't stop talking.

see sb right

- 1 British, informal to give someone money, especially in payment for work they have done • Go and talk to Mr Mason when you've finished – he'll see you right.
- 2 British & Australian, informal to help someone • If you run into a problem, speak to Lucy. She'll see you right.

serve sb right

if something bad that happens serves someone right, they deserve it • It would serve you right if your children never spoke to you again. • And she didn't get the promotion she'd hoped for, which served her right for being so smug.

We've got a right one here! British &

Australian, informal

something that you say when you think someone is silly or stupid • We've got a right one here! This guy has forgotten to sign his letter.

would give their right arm

if someone would give their right arm for something, they would like it very much • (often + to do sth) I'd give my right arm to meet Sean Connery. • (often + for) Lots of people would give their right arm for a job like yours.

right-hand

sb's right-hand man/woman

someone who helps you with your work and who you depend upon • How will the Director cope without his right-hand man, who resigned yesterday due to ill health?

right-on

right-on British

if people or their opinions are right-on, they believe everyone should be treated in a fair way and they are careful not to offend anyone because of their sex, colour, age, etc. • She wrote a very right-on book about attitudes to fat people.

rights

catch/have sb dead to rights British, American & Australian

catch/have sb bang to rights British

to have enough proof to show that someone has done something wrong • I was driving way above the speed limit and the police radar caught me dead to rights.

ring

have a ring to it

if a word or idea has a ring to it, it sounds interesting or attractive • (never in continuous tenses) I suppose 'Cathy's Country Cooking' has a certain ring to it.

rings

run rings around/round sb

to have much more skill, ability, or intelligence than someone else • Why does he talk to Alison as if she's stupid, when we all know she could run rings around him?

ringside

a ringside seat/view

if you have a ringside seat, you are in a good position to watch what is happening at an event • If there's going to be a confrontation between management and the unions, I'd like a ringside seat.

rinky-dink

rinky-dink American, informal

not important or of bad quality • (always before noun) We drove into a rinky-dink town in rural Pennsylvania. • This isn't rinky-dink stuff – it's high quality furniture.

riot

read (sb) the riot act

to speak angrily to someone about something they have done and warn them that they will be punished if they do it again > The riot act was a law made in 1715 which said how to deal with groups of twelve or more people who were causing trouble. • He'd put up with a lot of bad behaviour from his son and thought it was time to read him the riot act.

run riot

- 1 if people run riot, they behave in a way that is not controlled, running in all directions or being noisy or violent • I dread them coming round because they let their kids run riot.
- 2 if your imagination runs riot, you have a lot of strange, exciting, or surprising thoughts • My imagination was running riot, thinking of all the ways that I could spend the money.

rip

let it/her rip mainly American, informal

if someone lets a vehicle rip, they make it move very fast • She put her foot on the car's accelerator, and he said, 'OK, let her rip'.

let rip

1 to suddenly express your emotions without control • This time I was furious and I let rip. • He's a very restrained sort of person – you can't imagine him ever really letting rip.

2 British & Australian, very informal to allow gas to escape from your bottom loudly • You can't just let rip when you're in a smart restaurant.

ripe

live to a ripe old age

to live until you are very old • Both his grandparents lived to a ripe old age.

at the ripe old age of sth • He died at the ripe old age of eighty-seven.

rip-off

a rip-off informal

something that is not worth as much money as you have to pay for it • Mobile phones can be a real rip-off if you're not careful.

ripple

a ripple effect

if something has a ripple effect, it affects something else, which then affects other things • Court rulings often have a ripple effect, spreading into areas of law that weren't part of the original cases.

rip-roaring

rip-roaring

very exciting and successful • (always before noun) The show was a riproaring success. • The car was launched with a rip-roaring publicity campaign.

rise

Rise and shine! old-fashioned

something that you say to tell someone to get out of bed and start their day • Rise and shine, sleepy head – you have to leave for school in twenty minutes.

get a rise out of sb

to succeed in annoying someone • Ignore him - he's just trying to get a rise out of you.

rite

a rite of passage

an activity or ceremony that shows that someone has reached an important new stage in their life, especially the start of their adult life • There's an element of danger to most adolescent rites of passage, whether they be driving, sex, alcohol or drugs.

rite-of-passage • This is not merely another dreary rite-of-passage novel.

river

sell sb down the river

to do something which harms or disappoints someone who trusted you, in order to get an advantage for yourself • A lot of people feel they have been sold down the river by a government who have failed to keep their pre-election promises.

road

your road to Damascus British &

Australian, formal

a very important experience which changes your whole life • It was this chance meeting in a bar in Portland that he would later describe as his road to Damascus.

road-to-Damascus British & Australian, formal • (always before noun) I used to be a slob, but then I underwent a sort of road-to-Damascus conversion to fitness.

a road hog old-fashioned

a bad driver who does not allow other drivers to pass them on the road • Come on, let me past, road hog!

The road to hell is paved with good intentions.

something that you say which means people often intend to do good things but much of the time, they do not make the effort to do those things • 'I kept meaning to visit her but I didn't get round to it.' 'The road to hell is paved with good intentions.'

down the road

- 1 if an event is a particular period of time down the road, it will not happen until that period has passed • This is a wonderful invention, but a marketable product is several years down the road yet.
- 2 American if you say that something will happen down the road, you mean it will happen in the future • We may at some point buy a house but that's down the road.

go down that road

to decide to do something in a particular way • We're thinking of automating our finances, but if we do go down that road we'll need specialist advice.

hit the road

to start a journey • It's getting late – I'd better hit the road.

roaring

do a roaring trade British & Australian do a roaring business American

to sell a lot of goods quickly • (usually in continuous tenses) It was a hot day and the ice-cream sellers were doing a roaring trade. • (often + in) The toy department was doing a roaring trade in furry dinosaurs.

robbery

daylight robbery British, American & Australian highway robbery American & Australian a situation in which you are charged much more for something than you think you should have to pay • Three pounds for an orange juice? It's daylight robbery!

rock

rock bottom X

- 1 the lowest possible level The morale of prison officers is at rock bottom. • The president's opinion poll ratings have hit rock bottom.
- rock-bottom It says here they're selling off carpet stock at rock-bottom prices.
- 2 if you are at rock bottom, you are the most unhappy you have ever been in your life I'd never felt so depressed in my life I was at rock bottom so I started drinking. After Carly left me I hit rock bottom.

between a rock and a hard place

if you are between a rock and a hard place, you have to make a difficult decision between two things that are equally unpleasant • I'm caught between a rock and a hard place. If I go with Isobel, it'll be much more expensive and if I go with Julie, Isobel probably won't speak to me again.

rocker

be off your rocker informal

to be crazy • Spending that much on a car! He must be off his rocker! go off your rocker informal • I'd go off my rocker if I had to stay at home all day looking after kids.

rocket

give sb a rocket British & Australian, informal

to speak angrily to someone about something that they have done • (often + for + doing sth) My mum gave me a rocket for tearing my new jeans.

get a rocket British & Australian, informal • He got a rocket from his boss for being late.

go like a rocket Australian

if a machine goes like a rocket, it works very well • 'How's the new computer?' 'Great, goes like a rocket.'

it doesn't take a rocket scientist you don't have to be a rocket scientist

if you say that it doesn't take a rocket scientist to understand something, you mean that it is obvious • (usually + to do sth) Drugs equals crime. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure that one out.

it's not rocket science • We're talking basic common sense here – it isn't rocket science.

put a rocket under sb British &

Australian

to do something to make someone hurry
• We're going to have to put a rocket under Tim if we want to catch that train.

rocks

be on the rocks

if a marriage or other romantic relationship is on the rocks, it has problems and is likely to end soon • It was no great surprise when they announced their divorce. The marriage had been on the rocks for some time.

get your rocks off taboo

if a man gets his rocks off, he has sex • I don't think he cares what she looks like so long as he gets his rocks off.

rod

make a rod for your own back British

to do something that is likely to cause problems for you in the future • People say that if you let your baby sleep in your bed with you for the first few months, you're just making a rod for your own back.

roll

328

a roll in the hay humorous

sexual activity which is quick and enjoyable and does not involve serious feelings • I wouldn't sacrifice my marriage for a roll in the hay with a waitress.

be on a roll

to be having a successful period • United are on a roll right now. They've won thirteen games in a row.

roller

a roller coaster

a situation which changes suddenly and often between being good and being bad A roller coaster is a type of small railway in an amusement park which travels very quickly climbing up and down hills. • The Norwegian stockmarket has been on a roller coaster during the past 18 months. • What the book does describe very well is the emotional roller-coaster of puberty.

roller-coaster • (always before noun) His 11-year career has been a roller-coaster ride of injury, rehabilitation, and triumph.

rolling

be rolling in it informal

to be very rich • If they can afford a yacht, they must be rolling in it.

get rolling

1 American & Australian if a business or activity gets rolling, it starts • The Junior Soccer League got rolling with its first two games last week. • He spent six months working for a small, local bank that never got rolling.

get sth rolling American • She made a few light-hearted comments to get the conversation rolling.

2 American, informal to leave a place

 Come on, let's get rolling – it's late.

have sb rolling in the aisles

to make an audience (= a group of people watching a performance) laugh a lot

 Considered by many to be one of Britain's best comedians, Izzard has had audiences rolling in the aisles all over the country.

be rolling in the aisles • I don't think I laughed once and yet all around me people were rolling in the aisles.

Rome

Rome wasn't built in a day.

something that you say which means that it takes a long time to do an important job • 'Sometimes it feels like we've spent all our lives decorating this house.' 'Well, Rome wasn't built in a day.'

fiddle while Rome burns

to spend time enjoying yourself or doing things that are not important when you should be dealing with a serious problem Dealing with a serious problem Print Prin

When in Rome (do as the Romans do).

something that you say which means when you are visiting another country, you should behave like the people in that country • I don't drink wine when I'm at home but on holiday, well, when in Rome...

roof

a roof over your head

somewhere to live • We didn't have any money, but at least we had a roof over our heads and food in our stomachs.

the roof caves/falls in American

if the roof caves in, something very bad suddenly happens to you • For the first six years of my life I was happy. Then my father died and the roof caved in.

go through the roof

if the level of something, especially a price, goes through the roof, it increases very quickly • As a result of the war, oil prices have gone through the roof.

raise the roof

to make a loud noise by shouting, clapping or singing • They finished the set with their current hit and the audience raised the roof.

rooftops

shout sth from the rooftops

if you say you want to shout some news from the rooftops, you mean that you want to tell everyone about it because you are so excited • When I discovered I was pregnant, I wanted to shout it from the rooftops.

room

not room to swing a cat informal

if there is not room to swing a cat in a place, that place is very small • There isn't room to swing a cat in the third room, it's so tiny. • Get a sofa in the living room? You'll be lucky – there isn't room to swing a cat in there.

roost

rule the roost

to be the most powerful person who makes all the decisions in a group • It was my mother who ruled the roost at home.

root

root and branch formal

if something is changed or removed root and branch, it is changed or removed completely because it is bad • Racism must be eliminated, root and branch.

root-and-branch formal • (always before noun) These proposals amount to a root-and-branch reform of the system.

take root

if an idea, belief, or system takes root somewhere, it starts to be accepted or established there • Democracy is now struggling to take root in most of these countries.

roots

put down roots

if you put down roots in a place, you do things which show that you want to stay there, for example making friends or buying a home • It would be hard to leave Brighton after eleven years – he's put down roots there.

rope

give sb enough rope (to hang

themselves)

to allow someone to do what they want to, knowing that they will probably fail or get into trouble • I let him speak on, knowing that he would offend the director, and gave him just enough rope.

Go piss up a rope! American, taboo

a very impolite way of telling someone to go away • Oh go piss up a rope! I'm sick of your complaining.

ropes

be on the ropes mainly American to be doing badly and likely to fail • His political career is on the ropes.

show sb the ropes

to explain to someone how to do a job or activity • The new secretary started today so I spent most of the morning showing her the ropes.

know the ropes • She's been in this job long enough to know the ropes.

rose-coloured

rose-coloured glasses British & Australian rose-colored glasses American & Australian

rose-coloured spectacles British

if someone thinks about or looks at something with rose-coloured glasses, they think it is more pleasant than it really is • She's nostalgic for a past that she sees through rose-colored glasses.

roses

put the roses in sb's cheeks bring the roses to sb's cheeks

to make someone look healthy • A brisk walk will soon put the roses back in your cheeks.

rose-tinted

rose-tinted glasses British, American & Australian

rose-tinted spectacles British

if someone looks at something through rose-tinted glasses, they see only the pleasant parts of it • She has always looked at life through rose-tinted glasses.

rot

the rot sets in

if the rot sets in, a situation starts to get worse • If couples stop communicating, that's when the rot really sets in.

stop the rot

to do something to prevent a situation from continuing to get worse • The team had been suffering low morale before Smith was brought in to stop the rot.

rotten

be rotten to the core

if a person or an organization is rotten to the core, it behaves in a way that is not honest or moral • The whole legal system is rotten to the core.

spoil sb rotten

to do whatever someone wants you to do or to give them anything they want • My husband spoils me rotten. Look at all this jewellery he's given me. • Those children are spoiled rotten by their grandparents.

rough

rough and ready

- 1 if you do something in a rough and ready way, you do it quickly and without preparing it carefully I've done a rough and ready translation of the instructions. I hope it's clear enough.
- 2 not very polite or well educated Just a warning about the men who work for him, they're a bit rough and ready.

rough edges

- 1 if a piece of work or a performance has rough edges, some parts of it are not of very good quality • He's a great footballer, but his game still has a few rough edges.
- 2 if a person has rough edges, they do not always behave well and politely • I knew him before he was successful, and he had a lot of rough edges back then.

rough it

to live in a way that is simple and not very comfortable • They prefer to rough it on their travels, and sleep in the car or take a tent.

rough justice

a punishment that is not fair or is too severe • New evidence suggests that the girls were given rough justice.

rough trade very informal

men who have sex with other men for money and who look as if they come from a low social class • He went to the docks to pick up a bit of rough trade.

a rough diamond British & Australian a diamond in the rough American &

Australian

a person who does not seem very polite or well educated at first, although they have a good character • Mitchell may have been a rough diamond, but he was absolutely loyal to his employer.

the rough and tumble of sth

the part of an activity that involves fighting or competing • He enjoys the rough and tumble of politics.

rough-and-tumble • (always before noun) He is used to life in the rough-andtumble airline industry.

cut up rough British, old-fashioned

to become very angry • (often + about) Dad cut up rough about me staying out all night.

give sb a rough time

to treat someone severely or to cause difficulties for them • The boss gives me a rough time if I make any mistakes.

have a rough time (of it) • She's had a rough time of it in prison.

give sb the rough side of your tongue

British & Australian, old-fashioned to speak angrily to someone • The boss gave me the rough side of her tongue for being late twice this week.

take the rough with the smooth British & Australian

to accept the unpleasant parts of a situation as well as the pleasant parts • You have to be prepared to take the rough with the smooth in marriage.

roughshod

ride roughshod over sth/sb

to act in the way you want to, ignoring rules, traditions, or other people's wishes

- They accused the government of riding roughshod over parliamentary procedure.
- He cannot be allowed to ride roughshod over his colleagues with his ambitious plans.

rounds

do the rounds British & Australian make the rounds American & Australian

if you do the rounds of people, organizations, or places, you visit or telephone them all • (usually + of) Tony and I made the rounds of the cheap bars in the city. • I've done the rounds of all the agents, but nobody has any tickets left.

roving

a roving eye humorous

if someone has a roving eye, they are sexually attracted to people other than their partner • She left her husband because she was fed up with his roving eye.

row

a hard/tough row to hoe American

- a difficult situation to deal with
- Teachers have a tough row to hoe in today's schools.

rub

rub it in informal

if someone rubs it in, they keep talking about something that makes you feel embarrassed or upset • I know I made a mistake, but you don't have to rub it in.

rub shoulders with sb British, American & Australian, informal

& Australian, informal

rub elbows with sb informal American & Australian

to spend time with famous people • He's Hollywood's most popular hairdresser and regularly rubs shoulders with top movie stars.

the rub of the green mainly British

if you have the rub of the green, you have good luck, especially in a sports competition • This player hasn't had the rub of the green in the last few tournaments.

There's the rub. old-fashioned

Therein lies the rub. old-fashioned

something that you say when you are explaining what the difficulty is in a particular situation • You can't get a job unless you have experience. And there's the rub – how do you get experience if you can't get a job?

rubber

a rubber check American, humorous

a cheque (= a piece of paper from someone's bank that they sign and use for money) that is not worth anything because the person does not have enough money in the bank • The woman was accused of writing more than $100,000 in rubber checks to pay for expensive jewelry.

rubber-stamp

rubber-stamp sth

if someone rubber-stamps a decision or a plan, they give it official approval, often without thinking about it enough if someone official has examined a document, they often put a special mark on it using a rubber stamp (= a small printing device made of rubber). • School governors will not simply rubber-stamp what teachers have already decided. • The court was asked to rubber-stamp the Department's decision to free the men.

a rubber stamp • The committee is just a rubber stamp for the president's policies.

Rube

Rube Goldberg American, informal

a Rube Goldberg piece of equipment or plan is very complicated and not very practical Rube Goldberg was an American who drew funny pictures for newspapers showing complicated inventions. • They use a Rube Goldberg type contraption to open and close the farm gate. • The city is not well served by this Rube Goldberg scheme for economic development.

Rubicon

cross the Rubicon formal

to do something which will have very important results, which cannot be changed later Julius Caesar started a war by crossing the river Rubicon in Italy. International pressure may be able to prevent the country crossing the Rubicon to authoritarian rule.

rude

a rude awakening

if you have a rude awakening, you have a severe shock when you discover the truth of a situation • We had a rude awakening when we saw the amount of our phone bill. • You've been so spoiled by your parents, you are in for a rude awakening when you start to look after yourself.

ruffled

smooth (sb's) ruffled feathers

to try to make someone feel less angry or upset, especially after an argument • I spent the afternoon smoothing ruffled feathers and trying to convince people to give the talks another chance.

rug

cut a rug old-fashioned

to dance • Twenty disco classics on one CD. Now there's music to cut a rug to.

pull the rug from under sb/sth pull the rug from under sb's feet

to suddenly take away help or support from someone, or to suddenly do something which causes many problems for them • The school pulled the rug from under the basketball team by making them pay to practise in the school gymnasium.

ruin

go to rack/wrack and ruin old-fashioned

if a building goes to rack and ruin, its condition becomes very bad because no one is taking care of it • She's let that house go to rack and ruin since Clive died.

rule

a rule of thumb

a way of calculating something which is not exact but which will help you to be correct enough A rule of thumb was originally a way of measuring using the width or length of your thumb. • A good rule of thumb is to cook two handfuls of rice per person.

rules

bend/stretch the rules

to do something or to allow someone to do something which is not usually allowed • We don't usually let students take books away, but I'm willing to bend the rules on this occasion.

rum

a rum do British, old-fashioned

if a situation is a rum do, it is strange and people often do not approve of it • All three of his ex-wives still live with him. It's a rum do if you ask me.

rumpy-pumpy

rumpy-pumpy British & Australian,

humorous

sexual activity • So I asked her if she fancied a bit of rumpy-pumpy.

run

run and run mainly British

if a subject or an argument is going to run and run, people will continue to be interested in it for a long time • We've had over 500 letters on the subject of human cloning. It looks like this one will run and run.

run before you can walk X

to try to do something complicated and difficult before you have learned the basic skills you need to attempt it • I think you should stick to a simple menu for your dinner party. There's no point trying to run before you can walk.

run out of steam British, informal run out of gas American & Australian,

informal

to suddenly lose the energy or interest to continue doing what you are doing • She'd been talking for two hours and was just starting to run out of steam. • I worked really well for two months of the project then I suddenly ran out of gas.

be on the run

to try to avoid being caught, especially by the police • A serial killer was on the run last night after escaping from a maximum-security prison. • (sometimes + from) He met his future wife while he was on the run from the police in Germany.

a dry run British, American & Australian

a dummy run British & Australian an occasion when you practise doing something to make sure there will be no problems when you really do it • We decided to do a dry run at the church the day before the wedding. • We'd better have a couple of dummy runs before we do the real thing.

give sb a run for their money

to compete very strongly against someone who is expected to win a competition • I think only Liverpool will be able to give Manchester United a run for their money next season.

have sb on the run

to be in a strong position to defeat someone • After last night's broadcast debate, he has the opposition candidate on the run.

have a good run for your money

to have a long period of success or enjoyment • I've achieved a lot in my life and I feel I've had a good run for my money.

have the run of swh

to be allowed to go anywhere in an area
• The children had the run of the farm all week.

in the long/short run

a long or short time in the future • It means spending a bit now, but in the long run it'll save us a lot of money. • Although prices may rise in the short run, they should begin to fall again by the end of the year.

make a run for it

to suddenly run fast in order to escape from somewhere or get to somewhere • When the guard turned away, the two prisoners made a run for it. • Let's make a run for it as soon as the rain lets up a bit.

runaround

give sb the runaround informal

to act in a way which makes it difficult for someone to do something, for example by refusing to tell them things they need to know • I'm trying to get a visa, but the embassy staff keep giving me the runaround.

get the runaround informal • Every time I phone to complain, I keep getting the runaround.

runes

read the runes British, formal

to try to guess what is going to happen in the future by examining what is happening now Definition Runes are letters of an ancient alphabet with secret or magic meaning. • He was the first Eastern European leader to read the runes and make political changes to stay in power.

rung

the [first/highest/next etc.] rung on the ladder

the first, highest, next etc. position, especially in society or in a job • In our society, a nurse is hardly on the same rung of the ladder as a judge. • President of the Union at Oxford University was the first rung on the political ladder for him.

running

a running battle

if you have a running battle with someone, you have an argument that continues over a long period of time • (often + with) I've had a running battle with the neighbours over their kids throwing stones over the fence.

be in the running

if you are in the running for something, you are in a good position to win it or achieve it • (often + for) This film must be in the running for a Best Picture Oscar.

out of the running • Her poor health has put her out of the running for the election.

be running on empty informal

- 1 to continue to work and be active when you have no energy left • I get the impression he's been running on empty for months now. A holiday will do him good.
- 2 American & Australian if a person or an organization is running on empty, they have no new ideas or are not as effective as they were before The fund-raising campaign was running on empty after ten years under the same leader.

do/make (all) the running British

to be the person who causes things to happen and develop • Men are no longer expected to do all the running at the beginning of a relationship. • If we want this campaign to be a success, it's up to us to make the running.

(Go) take a running jump! informal

an impolite way of telling someone to go away or that you will not give them something they want • 'Jim wants to borrow your new CD.' 'Tell him to take a running jump.'

run-of-the-mill

run-of-the-mill

ordinary • It's just a run-of-the-mill war film.

rush

a (sudden) rush of blood (to the head)

if you have a rush of blood to the head, you suddenly feel very excited or very angry, and do or say something silly • Thomson was sent off for head-butting Gray in a rush of blood to the head.

Russian

play Russian roulette

to take big risks, in a way which is very dangerous & Russian roulette is a very dangerous game where players aim a gun containing one bullet at their own heads.

• (often + with) I'm not willing to play Russian roulette with people's lives by drinking and driving.

rut

be (stuck) in a rut

to do the same things all the time so that you become bored, or to be in a situation where it is impossible to make progress • At forty my life was in a rut, so I gave up work and travelled to India. • It's clear the economy is still stuck in a rut.

get in/into a rut • When you have to cook dinner every night it's easy to get into a rut. [drag/get/lift etc.] sb/sth out of a/their rut to help someone or something to change their situation and to make progress • The president has to get his election campaign out of a rut.

sabre-rattling

sabre-rattling British, American & Australian

saber-rattling American

threatening behaviour which is intended to frighten someone • After months of sabre-rattling, the two sides have agreed to a peaceful resolution of their differences.

sack

get the sack

to be told to leave your job • He got the sack when they found out that he'd tied about his qualifications.

give sb the sack • After only 2 weeks she was given the sack for being rude to a customer.

sackcloth

sackcloth and ashes slightly formal

if you wear sackcloth and ashes, you show by your behaviour that you are very sorry for something you did wrong  $\geq$  In the past, clothes made of sackcloth (= a rough cloth) were worn by the Jews in religious activities to show that they were sad or sorry for the things they had done wrong. • I've already apologized. How long must I wear sackcloth and ashes before you'll forgive me?

sacred

a sacred cow

a belief or system that is treated with much respect and is not usually criticized • The British legal system remains a sacred cow, despite increasing evidence that serious mistakes have been made.

sacrificed

be sacrificed on the altar of sth formal

to be destroyed by an activity, system or belief that is bad but more important or more powerful • Service and quality have been sacrificed on the altar of profit.

sadder

sadder but wiser

if someone is sadder but wiser after a bad experience, they have suffered but they have also learned something from it • He bought a second-hand car and ended up sadder but wiser after a series of breakdowns and expensive repairs.

saddle

be in the saddle

to be in control of a situation • With a new leader firmly in the saddle the party looks set for victory at the next election.

safe

safe and sound

if you are safe and sound, you are not harmed in any way, although you were in a dangerous situation • It was a difficult drive but we all arrived safe and sound.

a safe pair of hands British & Australian someone who you can trust to do an important job well without making mistakes • He's what this troubled club needs, a good, solid manager, a safe pair of hands.

be as safe as houses British & Australian to be very safe • Don't worry, I've locked your bicycle in the shed – it's as safe as houses.

be in safe hands

if someone or something is in safe hands, they are being looked after by someone who can be trusted • I know my daughter's in safe hands at the nursery.

play (it) safe informal

to be careful and not take risks • We decided to play safe and paint the walls a fairly neutral colour. • They're playing it safe by not investing too much money until they've seen the first year's accounts.

to be on the safe side

if you do something to be on the safe side, you do something that may not be necessary in order to protect yourself against possible problems • I don't think there are any broken bones, but you should have an X-ray just to be on the safe side.

safety

a safety net

a system or arrangement that helps you if you have problems, especially financial problems • (often + for) The hardship fund provides a safety net for students who run out of money before they've completed their course.

a safety valve

a way of allowing someone to express strong or negative emotions without harming other people • (often + for) I often think football acts as a safety valve for a lot of stored-up male aggression.

There's safety in numbers.

something that you say which means if people do something difficult or unpleasant together, they are less likely to get harmed or blamed • Working on the principle that there's safety in numbers, we decided we should all go and complain together.

said

there's [much/a lot etc.] to be said for sth/doing sth

something that you say which means that something has a lot of advantages • There's a lot to be said for living alone.

when all is said and done

something that you say when you are about to tell someone the most important fact in a situation • When all is said and done, a child's moral upbringing is the parents' responsibility.

sails

trim your sails

to spend less money • The school is having to trim its sails because of government cutbacks.

salad

your salad days old-fashioned

the time when you were young and had little experience of life • But that was in my salad days, before I got married and had children.

salt

any [judge/lawyer/teacher etc.] worth their salt

any judge, lawyer, teacher etc. who is good at their job • Any lawyer worth his salt should be aware of the latest changes in taxation. • No judge worth her salt would attempt to influence the jury.

be the salt of the earth X

if someone is the salt of the earth, they are a very good and honest person • His mother's the salt of the earth. She'd give you her last penny.

rub salt in/into the wound

to make a difficult situation even worse for someone • Losing was bad enough, having to watch them receiving the trophy just rubbed salt into the wound.

take sth with a pinch of salt British & Australian

take sth with a grain of salt American & Australian

if you take what someone says with a pinch of salt, you do not completely believe it • You have to take everything she says with a pinch of salt. She has a tendency to exaggerate. • It's interesting to read the reports in the newspapers, but I tend to take them with a grain of salt.

same

Same difference.

something that you say which means that the difference between two things is not important • They were married for forty years, or was it thirty? Same difference – it was a long time anyway.

be in the same boat

to be in the same unpleasant situation as other people • She's always complaining that she doesn't have enough money, but we're all in the same boat. • (often + as) If he loses his job he'll be in the same boat as any other unemployed person.

by the same token

something that you say which means that the thing you are going to say next is true for the same reasons as the thing you have just said • When he liked a person, he loved them, and, by the same token, when he didn't like a person, he hated them.

in the same breath

- 1 if you say two things in the same breath, you say two things that are so different that if one is true the other must be false
  She said she didn't love him any more but in the same breath said how wonderful he was.
- 2 if you talk about two people or things in the same breath, you think they are very similar • (often + as) He's a relatively new director but his name has been mentioned in the same breath as Hitchcock.

not in the same league imes

not nearly as good as something or someone else • (often + as) My four-yearold computer's just not in the same league as the latest machines with their super-fast processors.

It's the same old story. $\times$

something that you say when a bad situation has happened many times before • It's the same old story – the women do all the work and the men just sit around talking.

sing the same tune British, American & Australian

sing from the same

hymnsheet/songsheet British

if a group of people sing the same tune, they say the same things about a subject in public • (usually in continuous tenses) I want to make sure we're all singing the same tune before we give any interviews to the newspapers.

speak/talk the same language

if two people speak the same language, they have similar beliefs and opinions, and express themselves in similar ways • There's no use setting up a meeting between the environmentalists and the construction company – they just don't speak the same language.

tar sb with the same brush

to believe wrongly that someone or something has the same bad qualities as someone or something that is similar • (usually passive) I admit that some football supporters do cause trouble but it's not fair that we're all being tarred with the same brush.

sandwich

be one sandwich short of a picnic

be a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic humorous

if someone is one sandwich short of a picnic, they are stupid or crazy • After talking to him for about 10 minutes I decided he was definitely one sandwich short of a picnic.

sang froid

sang froid

the ability to stay calm in a difficult or dangerous situation • She showed remarkable sang froid despite a rude and noisy audience.

sarcasm

Sarcasm is the lowest form of wit.

something that you say which means that using sarcasm (= saying the opposite of what you mean to make a joke) is unpleasant and is not a very clever thing to do • 'We're so grateful to you for arriving only 20 minutes late!' 'Oh really, Matthew, don't you know sarcasm is the lowest form of wit?'

saving

a saving grace

a good quality that makes you like something or someone although you do not like anything else about them • It's a small cinema and the seats are uncomfortable, but the saving grace is that people aren't allowed to eat during the film.

savoir-faire

savoir-faire

the ability to do or say the right thing in any social situation • She demonstrates great savoir-faire when dealing with clients.

say

You can say that again! informal

something that you say in order to show you completely agree with something that someone has just said • 'That was an absolutely delicious lunch.' 'You can say that again!'

saying

It goes without saying.

something that you say when you believe that what you will say next is generally accepted or understood • It goes without saying that we're delighted about the new baby.

says

What sb says goes. informal

something that you say in order to tell someone which person in a group makes the final decisions about what happens • Maria's the team leader and what she says goes.

scales

The scales fall from sb's eyes. literary

if the scales fall from someone's eyes, they are suddenly able to understand the truth • When I saw his photograph in the paper, the scales fell from my eyes and I realized I'd been conned.

tip the scales

- 1 to make something more or less likely to happen, or to make someone more or less likely to succeed (often + against)

  Recent environmental disasters have tipped the scales against oil produces.
  - The sudden economic growth in the area should tip the scales in favour of new investment.
- 2 to weigh a certain amount (usually + at) He tips the scales at just over 250 pounds.

scalp

be out for/after sb's scalp mainly

American

to want to punish someone because you blame them for something bad that has happened • The mayor has made one mistake too many and the voters are out for his scalp.

scandal

a scandal sheet American & Australian, informal

a newspaper or magazine that contains many articles about shocking or surprising events • It's just a scandal sheet – full of murders, beatings, suicides and little else.

scarce

be as scarce as hen's teeth American &

Australian

to be very difficult or impossible to find
• It was the President's inauguration and hotel rooms in Washington were as scarce as hen's teeth.

make yourself scarce informal

to leave, especially in order to avoid trouble • I think you'd better make yourself scarce – at least until I've had a chance to talk to your father.

scared

be scared shitless British, American & Australian, taboo

be scared shit American, taboo

to be very frightened • I was woken by the sound of someone moving around downstairs – I was scared shitless!

run scared mainly American

to be worried that you are going to be defeated • (usually in continuous tenses) There are rumours that the Democrats are running scared after recent opinion polls showed their rivals to be way out in front.

scaredy-cat

a scaredy-cat informal

someone who is frightened when there is no reason to be This phrase is used especially by children. • Go on you scaredy-cat, jump in.

scarlet

a scarlet woman old-fashioned

a woman who people think is morally bad because she has sex with a lot of men • She was labelled a scarlet woman and

excluded from polite society.

scattered

be scattered to the four winds literary

if a group of things or people are scattered to the four winds, they are sent to different places which are far away from each other • Homes were destroyed and families were scattered to the four winds.

scenario

the nightmare/worst-case scenario

the worst thing that could possibly happen • I suppose the worst-case scenario would be if both of us lost our jobs at the same time.

scene

set the scene

to describe a situation where something is going to happen soon • First, let's set the scene – it was a cold dark night with a strong wind blowing...

set the scene for sth

if you set the scene for something, you make it possible or likely to happen • The recent resignation of two government ministers has set the scene for a pre-election crisis.

the scene is set for sth • After a disastrous first half, the scene was set for a humiliating defeat.

scenes

behind the scenes

if something happens behind the scenes, it happens secretly, especially when something else is happening publicly • Diplomats have been working hard behind the scenes in preparation for the peace talks.

behind-the-scenes • (always before noun) The Government presented a united front to the cameras, showing no sign of the behind-the-scenes discord of the last few days.

scent

put/throw sb off the scent

if you throw someone off the scent, you give them false or confusing information to try to stop them discovering something  $\triangle$  A scent is a smell produced by an animal which can act as a signal to other animals trying to find or follow it. • The police were thrown off the scent for a while by false evidence given by two of the witnesses.

scheme

in the grand/great scheme of things

if you say that in the grand scheme of things something is not important, you mean that it is not important when compared to much more serious things • In the grand scheme of things, whether another actress has her navel pierced is not really that significant.

school

the school of hard knocks

learning through difficult experiences
• An early training in the school of hard knocks was good preparation for a career in politics.

schoolboy

schoolboy humour British & Australian schoolboy humor American & Australian stupid jokes that are rude but not offensive • Isn't he a bit old for this type of schoolboy humour?

science

blind sb with science British &

Australian

if you blind someone with science, you confuse them by using technical language that they are not likely to understand • I think he decided to blind us with science because he didn't want us asking any difficult questions.

score

know the score informal

to know all the important facts in a situation, especially the unpleasant ones
• You know the score – no payment until after the article is published.

settle a score

to harm someone who has harmed you in the past • (often + with) Police believe the killer was a gang member settling a score with a rival gang.

settle old scores • (often + with) She used her farewell speech to settle some old scores with her opponents.

scot-free

get away/off scot-free informal

to avoid the punishment that you deserve or expect • If you don't take out a complaint against him he'll get off scotfree!

scrap

throw sb/sth on the scrap heap informal to get rid of someone or something that is not wanted or needed any more • (usually passive) Many people over forty who can't find a job feel they've been thrown on the scrap heap.

340

be on the scrap heap • These kids are on the scrap heap as soon as they leave school.

scratch

not be up to scratch

to not be of an acceptable standard or quality • I'm afraid your last essay wasn't up to scratch.

not come up to scratch British & Australian • Under the new system, we will not continue to employ teachers whose work doesn't come up to scratch.

bring sb/sth up to scratch British & Australian • If you practise hard on this piece you should be able to bring it up to scratch by next week.

from scratch

if you do something from scratch, you start right at the beginning • We lost all our work in the fire and had to start from scratch. • George built a garage from scratch.

screw

have a screw loose informal

to be crazy • I think that woman has a screw loose – she goes out in her slippers.

screws

put the screws on sb informal

to use force or threats to make someone do what you want 🔊 In the past, screws or thumbscrews were devices used to hurt people by crushing their thumbs in order to force them to do something.

• They put the screws on him until eventually he was forced to resign.

• The police are turning the screws on drivers who don't wear their seat belts by fining them.

scrimp

scrimp and save

to spend very little money, especially because you are saving it to buy something expensive • (often + to do sth) We had to scrimp and save to buy our first house.

scum

the scum of the earth very informal X

if a group of people are the scum of the earth, they are the worst type of people Scum is a layer of unpleasant or dirty substance that has formed on top of a liquid. • People who abuse children are the scum of the earth.

sea

your sea legs

the ability to keep your balance when walking on a moving ship and not feel ill
• It took me a while to get my sea legs, but I feel fine now.

a sea change literary

a complete change • (often + in) The huge increase in the number of people working freelance represents a sea change in patterns of employment over the last 10 years.

be at sea British, American & Australian

be all at sea British & Australian

if someone is at sea, they are completely confused • I'm all at sea with this computer manual.

seal

put/set the seal on sth slightly formal

to make something certain or complete
• The ambassador's visit set the seal on the trade agreement between the two countries.

seams

be bulging/bursting at the seams

informal

if a place is bursting at the seams, it has a very large number of people or things in it • All my family came to stay for the wedding and our little house was bursting at the seams.

be coming/falling apart at the seams

- 1 if a system or organization is coming apart at the seams, it is in a very bad condition and likely to fail For a while it seemed that the whole Asian economy was just coming apart at the seams.
- 2 if someone is coming apart at the seams, they are feeling extremely upset and have difficulty continuing to do the things they usually do • It's no excuse, but we were all working really hard and none of us noticed that Rory was just falling apart at the seams.

search

Search me! informal

something that you say when you do not know the answer to a question • 'Where's Jack gone?' 'Search me!'

seat

be in the driving seat British be in the driver's seat American &

Australian

to be in control of a situation • The consumer is in the driving seat due to the huge range of goods on the market.

fly by the seat of your pants informal

to do something difficult without the necessary experience or ability • (often in continuous tenses) None of us had ever worked on a magazine before so we were flying by the seat of our pants.

by the seat of your pants if you do something by the seat of your pants, you do it using your own experience and ability, without help from anyone else • We found our way by the seat of our pants, but if I ever did another jungle trek I'd take a guide.

seats

bums on seats British & Australian, informal fannies in the seats American, informal if a public performance or a sports event puts bums on seats, many people pay to go and see it • This production needs a big name to put bums on seats.

second

second best

something that is not as good as the thing that you really want • I know exactly what sort of apartment I'm looking for and I'm not going to settle for second best.

be second to none

to be better than anything or anyone else

The hotel's restaurant facilities are second to none.

come off second best

to be beaten in a competition or an argument • I've given up arguing with my big brother because I always come off second best.

get alyour second wind British, American & Australian

get a/your second breath American

to suddenly have new energy to continue doing something after you were feeling tired • After two hours we could hardly walk another step, but we got a second wind as we neared home.

have second thoughts

if you have second thoughts about something, you change your opinion or start to have doubts about it • (often + about) You're not having second thoughts about coming to Brighton with me, are you?

on second thoughts British & Australian on second thought American & Australian • I'll have tea, please – on second thoughts, make that coffee.

play second fiddle

if you play second fiddle to someone, they are in a stronger position or are more important than you • (usually + to) You'll have to choose between your wife and me. I won't play second fiddle to anyone.

without a second thought

if you do something without a second thought, you do it without thinking about whether or not you should • She doesn't worry about money – she'll spend a hundred pounds on a dress without a second thought.

not give sth a second thought • He'd fire you if he had to – he wouldn't give it a second thought.

second-class

a second-class citizen

someone who is treated as if they are less important than other people in society • Although she was married to an Australian, Louise couldn't get a work visa and it made her feel like a second-class citizen.

second-guess

second-guess sb/sth

- 1 to try to guess what will happen or what someone will do • It's not for us to secondguess the court's decision – we'll just have to wait and see.
- 2 to criticize someone's actions or an event after it has happened • It's easy to secondguess the team's coach – but let's face it, he made big mistakes.

see

see sb/sth for what they (really) are

to start to understand the truth about someone or something, especially when the truth is bad • She suddenly saw him for what he was - a cold-hearted, calculating killer.

see it coming

to see that something is likely to happen, especially something bad • I wasn't surprised when the company closed down. You could see it coming.

seed

seed money American & Australian money that is used to start a business or other activity • With $250,000 in seed money they started to recruit executives and advisers for their new venture.

go/run to seed

to stop taking care of your appearance so that you no longer look attractive • I almost didn't recognize John. He's really gone to seed since his wife left him.

seeds

sow the seeds of sth

to do something that will cause an unpleasant situation in the future • He may be sowing the seeds of his own destruction by using violence against his people.

seeing

Seeing is believing. X

something that you say which means you can only believe that something surprising or strange is true if you see it yourself • I'd never have imagined my parents could dance, but seeing is believing.

seen

have seen better days humorous

if something or someone has seen better days, they are not in such a good condition as they used to be • Our washing machine has seen better days.
• We were met at the hotel entrance by an ageing porter who had evidently seen better days.

have to be seen to be believed

if something has to be seen to be believed, it is so surprising or shocking that it is difficult to believe • The devastation had to be seen to be believed.

haven't seen hide nor hair of sb/sth informal

if you have not seen hide nor hair of someone or something, you have not seen them for a period of time • (often + since) I haven't seen hide nor hair of her since last Sunday, and I'm beginning to get rather worried.

self-made

a self-made man

a man who is rich and successful as a result of his own work and not because his family had a lot of money • Critchley was a self-made man who learned accounting while working in a brush factory.

sell

the hard sell

a method of trying very hard to persuade someone to buy something even if they do not want to • All I did was ask for a price list and a carpet salesman started giving me the hard sell.

OPPOSITE the soft sell • We prefer to use the soft sell on our customers. We simply explain the insurance packages and leave them to decide for themselves.

sense

knock (some) sense into sb informal

to use strong methods in order to teach someone to stop behaving stupidly • A month in prison should knock some sense into him.

senses

come to your senses

to start to understand that you have been behaving in a stupid way • So you've finally realized what a mistake you're making. I wondered how long it would take you to come to your senses.

bring sb to their senses • It was my father who finally brought me to my senses by telling me that if I didn't go back to college I might regret it for the rest of my life.

set

be set in concrete

if an arrangement, a plan or a rule is set in concrete, it is completely fixed so that it cannot be changed • (usually negative) We've drawn up some rough guidelines – they're by no means set in concrete.

seven

the seven year itch humorous

if someone who is married gets the seven year itch, they become bored with their relationship after about seven years and often want to start a sexual relationship with another person • He keeps talking about all the women he knew before we were married – I think he's got the seven-year itch.

seventh

be in seventh heaven humorous

to be extremely happy • Since they got married they've been in seventh heaven.

sex

a sex kitten old-fashioned

a young woman who is sexually exciting or attractive © Some women think this phrase is offensive. • All she needs to do is untie her hair and remove her spectacles and she's transformed into a gorgeous sex kitten.

a sex object

if someone thinks of a person as a sex object, they only think about having sex with them and do not think about their character or abilities • How on earth can you feel anything for a man who just treats you as a sex object?

shade

put sb/sth in the shade

to be so interesting or so good that other similar people or things seem less important by comparison • I thought I'd done quite well, but Claire's exam results put mine in the shade.

shades

Shades of sb/sth.

something that you say when someone or something makes you think of another person or thing • We visited the university campus and had a few drinks in the bar. Shades of my student days.

shadow

a shadow of your former self

if you are a shadow of your former self, you are less strong or less powerful than you were in the past • He came back to work after 3 months, completely cured of the cancer but a shadow of his former self.

beyond/without a shadow of a doubt

if something is true beyond a shadow of a doubt, there is no doubt that it is true • This is without a shadow of a doubt the best film I have seen all year.

in sh's shadow

if you are in someone's shadow, you receive less attention and seem less important than them • For most of his life he lived in the shadow of his more famous brother:

in/under sth's shadow

if you are in the shadow of an unpleasant event, you cannot forget that it has happened or might happen in the future • The local population were living under the shadow of war.

shaft

get the shaft American, informal

if someone gets the shaft, they are not treated in a fair way • The tax system is all wrong – the rich just get richer and it's the poor who get the shaft.

give sb the shaft American, informal • They gave him the shaft – he lost his job for no reason at all.

shag

like a shag on a rock Australian, very informal completely alone A shag is a large sea bird. • They walked out and left me like a shag on a rock.

shaggy

a shaggy dog story

a joke which is a long story with a silly end • My grandad insists on telling these shaggy dog stories, which nobody finds funny except him.

shakes

in two shakes (of a lamb's tail) old-fashioned in a couple of shakes old-fashioned very soon • I'll be with you in two shakes of a lamb's tail.

shaking

be shaking in your boots/shoes

to be very frightened or anxious • Damon was shaking in his shoes when he heard all the shouting.

shanks

Shanks's pony British, American & Australian, old-fashioned

Shank's mare American, old-fashioned walking as a method of travel • I missed the last bus and had to get home on Shanks's pony.

shape

Shape up or ship out. informal

something that you say in order to tell someone that if their behaviour does not improve, they will have to leave • This is the third serious mistake you've made this month. It's not good enough – you're going to have to shape up or ship out.

the shape of things to come

if something is the shape of things to come, it is a sign of what is likely to become popular in the future • Is shopping on the Internet the shape of things to come?

in any shape or form of any type • I'm opposed to war in any shape or form.

knock/lick sth/sb into shape

whip sth/sb into shape

to improve the condition of something or the condition or behaviour of someone • The prime minister's main aim is to knock the economy into shape. • Little Sean is a bit wild but the teachers'll soon lick him into shape when he starts school.

shapes

all shapes and sizes

many different types of people or things • Mortgage deals come in all shapes and sizes these days.

share

Share and share alike.

something that you say which means that it is good to share things fairly and equally • Come on now, don't keep them all to yourself – share and share alike.

sharp

the sharp end mainly British

the sharp end of an activity or job is the most difficult part where problems are likely to happen • (usually + of) She enjoys the challenge of being at the sharp end of investment banking.

be as sharp as a tack American

to be very intelligent • He may be old, but he's still as sharp as a tack.

Look sharp!

1 old-fashioned something that you say in order to tell someone to hurry • Look sharp! We have to leave in five minutes.

2 mainly American something that you say in order to warn someone about something • Look sharp! That ladder isn't very steady.

shebang

the whole shebang informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it • The party's next week but my parents are organizing the whole shebang.

sheep

I might as well be hanged/hung for a sheep as a lamb.

something that you say when you are going to be punished for something so you decide to do something worse because your punishment will not be any more severe in the past, people who stole lambs were killed, so it was worth stealing something more because there was no worse punishment. • I'm going to be late for work anyway, so I think I'll go to the shop for a paper. I might as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb.

make sheep's eyes at sb old-fashioned to look at someone in a way that shows that you love them or are attracted to them • Ken's been making sheep's eyes at his ex-girlfriend all night.

separate the sheep from the goats British, American & Australian

sort (out) the sheep from the goats

British & Australian

to choose the people or things of high quality from a group of mixed quality • I'll look through the application forms and separate the sheep from the goats.

shelf

a shelf life

the length of time that something will last or remain useful De The shelf life of a product is the amount of time that it can be offered for sale before it must be thrown away. • These days many marriages have a fairly short shelf life.

on the shelf British & Australian, oldfashioned

if someone, especially a woman, is on the shelf, they are not married and people now believe they are too old to get married • I was afraid my daughter would never find a husband, that she'd be left on the shelf.

shell

a shell game American

a method of deceiving or cheating someone, by moving things from one place to another in order to hide what you are doing A shell game is a game in which someone must guess which of three shells a ball or pea (= a small, round, green vegetable) is placed under when they are moved quickly around.

• The thieves played a shell game with the police, constantly shifting the stolen goods. • He owns many small businesses in different states as part of a shell game to save on taxes.

come out of your shell

to become less shy and more friendly • Tom used to be very withdrawn but he's really come out of his shell since Susan took an interest in him.

bring sb out of their shell • Joining the drama group has brought Ian out of his shell.

shine

take a shine to sb informal

to like someone immediately • I think Andrew has taken a bit of a shine to our new member of staff.

take the shine off sth informal

if something that happens takes the shine off something pleasant, it spoils it or makes it less enjoyable • Having my purse stolen took the shine off my visit to Dublin.

shingle

hang out your shingle American

to start your own business, especially as a doctor or a lawyer • He hung out his shingle in Brandon many years ago, and has been a lawyer there ever since.

ship

jump ship

if you jump ship, you leave a job or activity suddenly before it is finished, especially to go and work for someone else • Another advertising agency offered him $1000 to jump ship.

when your ship comes in

if you talk about what you will do when your ship comes in, you mean when you are rich and successful • When my ship comes in, I'll build you a huge house in the country.

ships

be like ships that pass in the night

if two people are like ships that pass in the night, they meet once or twice by chance for a short time and then do not see each other again • I only met him once or twice – we were like ships that pass in the night – but I've never met anyone else like him.

shirt

put your shirt on sth British & Australian to risk all your money on something because you are sure you will win • I put my shirt on the last race and lost everything.

lose your shirt British, American & Australian • (usually + on) He said he'd lost his shirt on that race.

would give you the shirt off their back informal

if someone would give you the shirt off their back, they are extremely generous • Karen's not well off, but she'd give you the shirt off her back.

shirt-lifter

a shirt-lifter British & Australian, informal

an offensive way of referring to a man who is homosexual (= sexually attracted to other men) • He was taunted by a chorus of adolescent gay haters shouting 'shirt-lifter!'.

shit

Shit or get off the can/pot! mainly American, taboo

something that you say when you want someone to make a decision and take action without any more delay • It's time for management to shit or get off the pot. If they aren't going to meet the striker's demands they should say so.

the shit hits the fan taboo

if the shit hits the fan, a person or an organization gets into serious trouble • If Dad finds out how much money you spent, the shit will really hit the fan.

be in deep/the shit British & Australian, taboo

if someone is in deep shit, they are in a lot of trouble • When I crashed my uncle's car, I knew I was in deep shit.

be on sb's shit list American, taboo
if you are on someone's shit list, they do not like you • She blames a lot of people for what happened, and you're on her shit list.

get your shit together taboo X

to become more organized and effective • He's really got his shit together since he left college.

not give a shit taboo

to not be interested in or worried about something or someone • You can do what you like. I don't give a shit! • (often + about) My parents don't give a shit about my problems. They're totally selfish.

have shit for brains American &

Australian, taboo

to be very stupid • What are you talking about Martha? You've got shit for brains.

scare the shit out of sb taboo

to make someone feel very frightened • I wish you wouldn't come in without knocking -you scared the shit out of me.

be shit scared taboo to be very frightened • But you hate heights! I bet you were shit scared on the big wheel.

shit-eating

a shit-eating grin American, taboo

a look of extreme satisfaction on someone's face that is annoying to other people who are less happy • Ever since she heard they'd won she's been sitting there with that shit-eating grin on her face.

shits

give sb the shits Australian, taboo to make someone angry • She really gives me the shits when she makes up these stories about why she's late.

shit-stirrer

a shit-stirrer mainly British, taboo

someone who makes trouble for another person, especially by saying unpleasant things about them • What a shit-stirrer – she's gone and told his wife that she saw him with another woman at the party.

shitting

be shitting bricks taboo

to be very frightened or worried • The bull was following us across the field. Tony was shitting bricks.

shivers

give sb the shivers informal

to frighten someone or make them nervous • That man who hangs about in the lane gives me the shivers.

send shivers down/up sb's spine

to make someone feel very frightened or excited • The way he looked at me sent shivers down my spine.

shoes

be in sb's shoes informal

to be in the same situation as someone else, especially an unpleasant situation • If I were in your shoes, I'd speak to the boy's parents. • Poor Matthew. I wouldn't like to be in his shoes when the results are announced.

step into sb's shoes

fill sb's shoes

to take the job or position that someone else had before you • When his father retires, Victor will be ready to step into his shoes. • It will take a very special person to fill Barbara's shoes.

shoestring

on a shoestring informal

if you do something on a shoestring, you do it using very little money • The restaurant is run on a shoestring, so we can't afford to take on any more staff.

shoo-in

a shoo-in American & Australian

if someone is a shoo-in for a competition, or a competition is a shoo-in for them, they will win it easily • She's a shoo-in for re-election to the Senate. • The election looks like a shoo-in for our man.

shoot

shoot the breeze/bull American, informal to talk in a relaxed way about things that are not important • We sat out on the porch until late, just shooting the breeze.

shooting

the whole shooting match informal

the whole of something, including everything that is connected with it

· There are four projects at present and Gerry's in charge of the whole shooting match.

shop

shut up shop British & Australian

close up shop mainly American to stop doing business, either temporarily or permanently • They were forced to shut up shop because they weren't getting enough customers.

talk shop

if people who work together talk shop, they talk about their work when they are not at work • Even when they go out in the evening, they just talk shop all the time.

shop talk • Let's change the subject. That's enough shop talk for one evening.

short

short and sweet humorous

pleasantly short • This morning's lecture was short and sweet.

a short fuse

if someone has a short fuse, they become angry quickly and often • Charlie has a sharp tongue and a short fuse.

a short sharp shock British & Australian a type of punishment that is quick and severe • What young offenders need is a short sharp shock that will frighten them into behaving more responsibly.

not be short of a bob or two British &

Australian, old-fashioned

to have a lot of money • This guy Lester that she's engaged to, he's not short of a bob or two you know.

draw the short straw informal

to be the member of a group who has to do an unpleasant job • Sorry, Jim, you drew the short straw. You're on toiletcleaning duty.

fall short of sth

if something falls short of a particular level or standard, it does not reach it • Sales for the first half of the year fell short of the target.

get the short end of the stick American

& Australian

to suffer the bad effects of a situation

The people who get the short end of the stick are those whose income is just too high to qualify for help from the government.

give sb/sth short shrift

to give very little attention to someone or something, either because you are not interested in them or because you are annoyed with them • (usually passive) A planning application for a new nightclub in the town centre was given short shrift by the council. • Sue gave Robert short shrift when he turned up drunk for her party.

get short shrift from sb • The proposal got short shrift from state officials.

have sb by the short and curlies very informal have sb by the short hairs very informal to have complete power over someone

• They've got us by the short and curlies. We have no choice but to agree.

make short work of sth

to deal with or finish something quickly
• We made short work of the food that was put in front of us.

pull sb up short

if something pulls someone up short, they suddenly stop what they are doing, especially because they are very surprised • Seeing her picture in the paper pulled me up short.

pull up short American • Carol pulled up short when she realized Jack could hear what she was saying.

sell sb/sth short

to not value someone or something as much as they deserve to be valued • I'm fed up with people selling this country short. • (often reflexive) 'Who'd employ me at my age?' 'Don't sell yourself short! You're intelligent and you've got loads of experience.'

stop short

to stop walking suddenly • Lucy stopped short in amazement.

stop short of sth/doing sth

to decide not to do something • I stopped short of telling him what I really felt about him.

short-arse

a short-arse British & Australian, very informal an offensive way of referring to someone who is very short • Yeah, well, I might be fat but at least I'm not a short-arse! • Come here and say that, short-arse!

short-change

short-change sb informal

to cheat someone by giving them less than they expected • (usually passive) No one told me the film was only an hour long – I was short-changed!

shot

a shot in the arm informal

if something gives you a shot in the arm, it gives you encouragement or energy • The opening of a new research centre will give a much-needed shot in the arm for science in Britain.

a shot in the dark

an attempt to guess something when you have no information or knowledge about it • The whole theory is a shot in the dark – no-one will ever take us seriously.

be shot to hell/pieces informal

to be destroyed or in a very bad condition
• His nerves were shot to hell after only 2 years in that job.

fire a shot across sb's/the bows slightly formal

if you fire a shot across someone's bows, you do something in order to warn them that you will take strong action if they do not change their behaviour • Airline staff have fired a warning shot across the company's bows by threatening strike action if higher pay increases are not offered.

get shot of sb/sth British, informal

to get rid of someone or something • She got shot of her no-good husband and went back to university.

be shot of sb/sth • This boy has caused so much trouble that the school just want to be shot of him.

have a shot at sb Australian, informal X to criticize someone • It's clear the film's director was having a shot at the government.

have a shot at sth British, American & Australian, informal

take a shot at sth American, informal to try to do something, often for the first time • He's proven himself to be a talented actor and now he's having a shot at directing his first play.

give sth a shot informal • I've never been ice skating but I'll give it a shot,

like a shot

if someone does something like a shot, they do it quickly and eagerly • If I had the chance to go to Paris, I'd be there like a shot.

shotgun

- a shotgun wedding British, American & Australian, old-fashioned
- a shotgun marriage American, oldfashioned

a marriage that is arranged very quickly because the woman is going to have a baby • After a shotgun wedding at 20, she had 3 children before divorcing from her husband.

shoulder

shoulder to shoulder

if you stand shoulder to shoulder with a person or a group of people, you support them during a difficult time • The chairman stood shoulder to shoulder with the managing director throughout the investigation.

a shoulder to cry on someone who gives you sympathy when you are upset • My father had just died and I needed a shoulder to cry on.

put your shoulder to the wheel

to work hard and make an effort • If everyone puts their shoulder to the wheel, the job will be finished in no time.

shout

be nothing to shout about not be much to shout about

to not be especially good or exciting • The pay rise wasn't much to shout about, but I suppose it's better than nothing.

shouting

It's all over bar the shouting. British & Australian something that you say when the result of an event or situation is certain • The Italian team played superbly, and by halftime it was all over bar the shouting (= it was certain they would win).

show

The show must go on.

something that you say which means that an event or activity must continue even if there are problems or difficulties • There may be a war on, but here at the industrial design fair, the show must go on.

Let's get the/this show on the road.

informal

something that you say in order to tell people you want to start an activity or a journey • We've got less than 2 hours to get this room ready for the party so let's get this show on the road.

run the show informal

to be in charge of an organization or an activity • (often in continuous tenses) He started off working in the kitchen and now he's running the show.

steal the show

to get all the attention and praise at an event or performance • All the singers were good, but 16-year-old Karine stole the show.

showers

send sb to the showers American

to stop someone, especially someone on a sports team, from playing or working because they are behaving badly or their work is not good enough • A fight broke out and both players were sent to the showers.

show-stopper

a show-stopper

a performance or part of a performance that is extremely good • Her conference speech was a real show-stopper:

show-stopping • (always before noun) She gave a show-stopping performance in La Traviata.

shrinking

a shrinking violet

a very shy person • (usually negative) She's no shrinking violet. • I wouldn't exactly describe him as a shrinking violet.

shufti

have a shufti British, old-fashioned to have a quick look at something • She'd brought her wedding photos in so I thought I might have a quick shufti.

shut

Shut your face/gob/mouth/trap! very informal

an impolite way of telling someone to stop talking • 'That was a really stupid thing to do.' 'Oh, shut your trap!' • 'Shut your face, will you? I'm trying to watch TV.'

shuttle

shuttle diplomacy

an attempt to make peace between two groups of people who refuse to meet and talk to each other by meeting both groups separately and travelling between them
• The shuttle diplomacy continues this week as ambassadors fly to Paris for more talks with the French.

shy

fight shy of sth/doing sth

to try to avoid something • He fought shy of entering his poems in the competition, although everyone said he should. • Ellen fights shy of parties – she hates crowds.

sick

sick at heart literary

very sad • The thought of her home so far away made her sick at heart.

be as sick as a dog informal

to be very sick • She was as sick as a dog after that curry.

be as sick as a parrot British, humorous to be very disappointed • Tim was sick as a parrot when he heard Manchester had lost the match.

be sick and tired of sth/doing sth informal be sick to death of sth/doing sth informal to be angry and bored because something unpleasant has been happening for too long • You've been giving me the same old excuses for months and I'm sick and tired of hearing them! • I've been treated like dirt for two years now and I'm sick to death of it!

feel sick to your stomach American & Australian

if something makes you feel sick to your stomach, it is so unpleasant that it makes you feel ill • Looking at those pieces of raw meat I felt sick to my stomach.

side

be (on) the wrong side of 30/40 etc.

to be older than 30, 40 etc. • I don't know his exact age but I should say he's the wrong side of fifty.

OPPOSITE be (on) the right side of 30/40 etc. • She's not a kid anymore but she's certainly on the right side of (= younger than) 30.

be on the side of the angels

someone who is on the side of the angels is doing something good or kind • The aid agencies are the only people firmly on the side of the angels in this conflict.

be on the [expensive/heavy/large etc.] side

to be a little too expensive, heavy, large etc. • It's a really good restaurant – it's on the expensive side, mind. • I really like the table but I think it's a bit on the large side for our room.

err on the side of caution

if you err on the side of caution when you are deciding what to do, you do the thing that is safe instead of taking a risk • I decided to err on the side of caution and spend less than my full allowance.

know which side your bread is buttered (on)

to be careful not to upset people who you know can help you • Ollie won't refuse to come with us. He knows which side his bread is buttered.

let the side down British & Australian

to behave in a way that embarrasses or causes problems for a group of people that you are part of • The general feeling is that cleaners who ignore the union's ban on overtime are letting the side down.

on the side

in addition to your usual job • He makes a little money on the side by fixing people's cars.

the other/wrong side of the tracks

American & Australian

the poor area of a town • She grew up on the wrong side of the tracks in a small southern town.

pass by on the other side British &

Australian

to ignore a person who needs help
This phrase comes from a story in the Bible in which two people ignore an injured person and walk past him without offering him any help. • We cannot just pass by on the other side when we know people are suffering like this.

this side of the grave literary

while you are alive • My mother's generation were taught to expect only suffering this side of the grave.

sidelines

stay on the sidelines

to not be actively involved in something The sidelines are the lines that mark the edges of a sports field. • The majority of western countries decided to stay on the sidelines during the crisis in the Middle East.

be left on the sidelines • Telephone companies which do not offer competitive rates will be left on the sidelines.

sides

be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth American

to say different things about the same subject when you are with different people in order to always please the people you are with • How can we trust any politicians when we know they're speaking out of both sides of their mouths?

be two sides of the same coin be different/opposite sides of the same coin

if two things are two sides of the same coin, they are very closely related although they seem different • Violent behaviour and deep insecurity are often two sides of the same coin. • Higher living standards and an increase in the general level of dissatisfaction are opposite sides of the same coin.

split your sides (laughing)

to laugh a lot at something • We nearly split our sides laughing watching Paul trying to give the rabbit a bath.

side-splitting • (always before noun) He was a great comic who could give side-splitting imitations of famous people.

sideways

knock sb sideways British & Australian to surprise, confuse or upset someone very much • The news of her brother's death knocked her sideways.

siege

a siege mentality

the belief that you must protect yourself because other people are going to attack you • Many designers develop a siege mentality because they're terrified someone will steal their ideas.

sieve

have a memory/mind like a sieve

to be very bad at remembering things • I've never known anyone so forgetful – she's got a memory like a sieve.

sight

be a sight for sore eyes informal

if someone or something is a sight for sore eyes, you feel happy to see them • A cup of coffee – that's a sight for sore eyes.
• You're a sight for sore eyes, all dressed up in your new outfit.

lose sight of sth

to forget about an important idea or a fact because you are thinking too much about other things • Some members of the peace force seem to have lost sight of the fact that they are here to help people.

out of sight American

if the amount of something, especially money, is out of sight, it is very large • The cost of health care in this country is going out of sight. • These executives in big corporations get salaries that are out of sight.

Out of sight, out of mind.

something that you say which means if you do not hear about or see someone or something for a period of time, you stop thinking about them • You'll soon forget about him after he leaves – out of sight, out of mind.

sights

Sights are the part of a gun you look through when you want to aim accurately at something. Sights is used in the following phrases connected with aiming at or achieving something.

have sb in your sights

to intend to attack or defeat someone • He's trying to build up his media empire and he has the owners of rival newspapers in his sights.

have sth in your sights

to be trying to achieve something, especially when you are very likely to succeed • After months of training, Hilary now has the gold medal firmly in her sights.

lower your sights

to accept something less good than the thing you were hoping for • With so few jobs around she's had to lower her sights.

set your sights on sth/doing sth

to decide to achieve something • She's set her sights on winning.

have your sights set on sth/doing sth • I hear she has her sights set on becoming a journalist.

sign

be a sign of the times

to be something that shows that society is worse now than it was in the past • Young people are so rude these days. It's a sign of the times.

signed

signed, sealed and delivered informal signed and sealed informal

if a document or an agreement is signed, sealed and delivered, it has been officially signed and completed • A copy of the will, signed, sealed and delivered, arrived at our house the next morning.

• There was a signed and sealed statement from the prime minister to confirm the treaty had been accepted.

significant

a significant other mainly American

a person that someone is married to or who they have a serious sexual or romantic relationship with • (not used with the) The ad read, 'Take your significant other to the Cafe Carlyle for a romantic night out.'

silent

the silent majority X

the large numbers of people in a country or group who do not express their opinions publicly • What does the silent majority expect from a new Labour government?

be as silent as the grave literary

to be completely silent • It was four o'clock in the morning and London was as silent as the grave.

silk

You can't make a silk purse out of a

sow's ear. old-fashioned something that you say which means you cannot make a good quality product using bad quality materials • To make chairs that'll last you need good strong pieces of wood. You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

silly

the silly season British & Australian,

informal

a period of time in the summer when there is not much news, especially political news, so the newspapers have articles about events that are not important • It's the silly season again, and as usual, the papers are full of stories about the Loch Ness Monster.

play silly buggers British & Australian, very informal

to behave in a stupid or annoying way

• (often in continuous tenses) Stop playing silly buggers and come down off the roof.

silver

the silver screen old-fashioned

the cinema • All the stars of the silver screen are here tonight to celebrate this great occasion.

silver-tongued

silver-tongued literary

a silver-tongued person speaks to someone in a pleasant way and praises them in order to persuade them to do what they want • (always before noun) He was a silver-tongued orator who convinced many people to support him.

sin

a sin tax American, informal

a tax on things that are bad for you, like cigarettes and alcohol • (not used with the) Politicians like a sin tax as it brings in lots of revenue and not too many complaints.

live in sin humorous

to live with someone that you are having a sexual relationship with but are not married to • (usually in continuous tenses) Last I heard they'd moved in together and were living in sin.

sine qua non

a sine qua non formal

something that is necessary, especially if you are going to achieve a particular thing • (often + of) The company sees training as the sine qua non of success.

sink

sink or swim

to fail or succeed • Newcomers are given no training – they are simply left to sink or swim.

sinking

a sinking feeling informal

a feeling that something bad is going to happen • I had that sinking feeling you get going into an exam you haven't studied for.

a sinking ship 🔀

a company or other organization that is failing • He'd seen the company's accounts, realized he was on a sinking ship, and decided to get off.

sins

for my sins British & Australian,

humorous

something that you say in order to make a joke that something you have to do or something that you are is a punishment for being bad • I'm organizing the office Christmas party this year for my sins. • I'm an Arsenal supporter for my sins.

sit

not sit well with sb mainly American

if a situation or an idea does not sit well with someone, they do not like it or accept it • The idea of people other than police combating crime does not sit well with many of the public.

sitting

a sitting duck

something or someone that is easy to attack or criticize • Unarmed policemen walking the streets late at night are sitting ducks.

be sitting on a goldmine

to have or own something that is very valuable • When property prices doubled in our area, we suddenly realised we were sitting on a goldmine.

be sitting pretty

to be in a good situation, usually because you have a lot of money • They bought their house when prices were much lower so they're sitting pretty.

situation

a no-win situation

a difficult situation in which whatever happens the result will be bad for the people involved • I'm in a no-win situation here. Whatever I do, I'm going to annoy someone.

OPPOSITE a no-lose situation American a win-win situation American a situation in which whatever happens the result will be good • He's in a no-lose situation. If he wins the tournament he gets a big bonus, and if he doesn't he's had valuable experience.

354

six

six of one and half a dozen of the other

if you say that a bad situation is six of one and half a dozen of the other, you mean that two people or groups are equally responsible • Harriet's always accusing Donald of starting arguments, but if you ask me, it's six of one and half a dozen of the other.

six of the best British & Australian, oldfashioned

if you give someone six of the best, you punish them by hitting them, usually on their bottom with a long, thin stick • Many teachers are faced with finding an alternative to six of the best for pupils who regularly break the rules.

be six feet under informal

to be dead • You're just waiting until he's six feet under so you can get your hands on his money.

knock sb for six British & Australian, informal

to surprise and upset someone a lot • It really knocked me for six when my exboyfriend announced he was getting married.

sixes

be at sixes and sevens informal

to be confused or badly organized • We were at sixes and sevens for about a week after we moved in.

size

cut sb down to size

to criticize someone who you think is too confident in order to make them feel less confident or less proud • When he started he thought he knew everything, but we soon cut him down to size.

try sth for size British & Australian

try sth on for size American & Australian to test something or to think about an idea in order to decide whether it works or whether you can use it • Try that for size. It's the new software programme I've been working on. • The government is still trying some ideas on for size before committing itself to action.

skates

Get your skates on! British & Australian, informal

something that you say in order to tell someone to hurry • (usually an order) Get your skates on! We're going to miss the train. • House buyers should get their skates on if they want to buy while prices are low.

skeleton

- a skeleton in the/your cupboard British & Australian
- a skeleton in the/your closet American an embarrassing secret • If you want to be a successful politician, you can't afford to have too many skeletons in your cupboard.

skid

skid row mainly American, informal

a poor area in a city where people who have no jobs and homes live in cheap rooms or sleep outdoors • She works as a social worker with alcoholics on skid row.

skid-row mainly American, informal • (always before noun) He ended up back in a skid-row hotel.

skids

be on the skids informal

to be having a lot of problems and be likely to fail • I hear their space programme is on the skids.

hit the skids

- 1 Australian, informal to leave a place quickly • When his ex-girlfriend arrived at the party Ben really hit the skids.
- 2 Australian, informal to make a vehicle stop very suddenly • A car suddenly pulled out in front of us and Jake hit the skids.
- 3 Australian, informal to get into a very bad situation, especially by losing your money, home, or job • Poor old Dennis has really hit the skids since he split up with his wife.

put the skids under sb/sth British &

Australian, informal

to make something likely to fail • Opposition from local residents has put the skids under plans for a new nightclub.

skies

praise sb/sth to the skies

to praise someone or something very much • At first she would praise him to the skies for every minor achievement.

skin

be skin and bone/bones

to be extremely thin • We saw a few stray dogs that were nothing but skin and bones.

by the skin of your teeth informal

if you do something by the skin of your teeth, you only just succeed in doing it

- We escaped by the skin of our teeth.
- England held on by the skin of their teeth to win 1-0.

get under sb's skin

- 1 to annoy someone It really got under my skin when he said women were bad drivers.
- 2 to affect someone very strongly in a way that is difficult to forget • Something about the haunting beauty of the place really got under my skin.

It's no skin off my nose. British,

American & Australian, informal

It's no skin off my (back) teeth.

American, informal
something that you say which means you do not care about something because it will not affect you • We can go in his car if he prefers. It's no skin off my nose.

make sb's skin crawl

if something or someone makes your skin crawl, you think they are very unpleasant or frightening • Just thinking about the way he had touched her made her skin crawl.

nearly jump out of your skin

if you nearly jump out of your skin when something happens, it makes you feel very surprised or shocked • I heard a loud bang and nearly jumped out of my skin.

save sb's skin

to save someone from failure or difficulties • You saved my skin telling my parents I stayed with you last night.

sky

The sky's the limit.

something that you say which means there is no limit to what something or someone can achieve • With two important film roles and a major award, it seems like the sky's the limit for this talented young actress.

sky-high

blow sth sky-high

to make something that someone is trying to achieve fail completely, often by telling people something which should have been a secret • He blew the whole deal sky-high by telling the newspapers about it.

slack

cut sb some slack American & Australian, informal

to allow someone to do something that is not usually allowed, or to treat someone less severely than is usual • Officials have asked the Environmental Protection Agency to cut Utah some slack in enforcing the Clean Air Act.

pick/take up the slack American & Australian, informal

to do the work which someone else has stopped doing, but which still needs to be done • When Sue starts going out to work each day, Bob and the kids will have to take up the slack and help more at home.

slap

slap and tickle mainly British, old-fashioned, humorous

sexual activity that is not serious • They were having a bit of slap and tickle on the sofa when I walked in.

a slap in the face

an action that insults or upsets someone

• (often + for) The decision to close the sports hall was a slap in the face for all those who had campaigned to keep it open.

a slap on the back

praise or approval • We gave her a big slap on the back for helping to organize the concert.

a slap on the wrist

a warning or punishment that is not severe • I got a slap on the wrist for arriving late again.

get your wrist slapped • We got our wrists slapped for leaving the door unlocked all night.

sledgehammer

use a sledgehammer to crack a nut

British & Australian

to do something with more force than is necessary to achieve the result you want  $\stackrel{>}{\approx}$  A sledgehammer is a large, heavy tool with a wooden handle and a metal head that is used for hitting things. • Sending ten men to arrest one small boy was a clear case of using a sledgehammer to crack a nut.

sleep

sleep like a log/top

to sleep very well • I don't know if it had anything to do with the wine we drank but I slept like a log.

sleep on it

to not make an immediate decision about a plan or idea, but to wait until the next day in order to have more time to think about it • You don't have to give me your decision now. Sleep on it, and let me know tomorrow.

could do sth in their sleep

if someone could do something in their sleep, they can do it very easily, usually because they have done it so often • I've done the same recipe so many times I could do it in my sleep now.

not lose sleep over sth

to not worry about something • I don't intend to lose any sleep over this problem.

sleeping

let sleeping dogs lie

to not talk about things which have caused problems in the past, or to not try to change a situation because you might cause problems • His parents never referred to the shoplifting incident again. I suppose they thought it best to let sleeping dogs lie. • It wasn't that we didn't want to improve the school – it was more a case of letting sleeping dogs lie.

sleeve

have sth up your sleeve X

to have a secret idea or plan • If this trip doesn't work out I've still got a few ideas up my sleeve.

sleeves

roll your sleeves up

to prepare for hard work • Our local team need to roll their sleeves up and put a bit more effort into their football.

sleight

sleight of hand

- 1 ways of deceiving people which you need skill to do • Some mathematical sleight of hand was required to make the figures add up.
- 2 quick, clever movements of your hands, especially when performing magic tricks
  With impressive sleight of hand he produced two pigeons out of his top hat.

slice

a slice of life

if a film, a play, or a piece of writing shows a slice of life, it shows life as it really is • The drama, a slice of life about a group of unmarried mothers, starts tonight.

a slice of the cake British, American & Australian

a slice of the pie American

a part of the money that is to be shared by everyone • The government has less money to spend on education this year, so primary schools will get a smaller slice of the cake than last year.

any way you slice it mainly American, informal

no matter how you slice it mainly

American, informal

something that you say which means you will not change your opinion about something, whatever anyone says about the matter • He shouldn't have hit her, any way you slice it.

slime

a slime ball informal

an unpleasant man who is friendly in a way which is not sincere • I don't know what she sees in him – he's such a slime hall!

slings

the slings and arrows (of outrageous fortune) literary unpleasant things that happen to you that you cannot prevent Definition This phrase comes from Shakespeare's play, Hamlet. Slings and arrows are weapons used to attack people, and fortune means things that happen to you. • We all have to suffer the slings and arrows, so there's no point getting depressed when things go wrong.

slip

a slip of the tongue X

a mistake you make when speaking, such as using the wrong word • Did I say she was forty? I meant fourteen – just a slip of the tongue.

give sb the slip informal

to escape from someone who is with you, following you, or watching you • There was a man following me when I left the office, but I gave him the slip on the crowded main street.

let slip sth

to say something that you did not intend to say because you wanted to keep it secret • Pam let slip an interesting bit of gossip yesterday. • (often + that) Stupidly, I let it slip that they'd decided not to give him the job.

There's many a slip twixt cup and lip.

literary

something that you say in order to warn someone not to be too confident about the result of a plan, because many things can go wrong before it is completed • We still might finish in time for the deadline, but there's many a slip twixt cup and lip.

slippery

a slippery slope

a situation or habit that is likely to lead to a worse situation or habit • If you let kids stay up late a few nights you're on a slippery slope. • My advice is to keep away from all drugs. It's a slippery slope.

be as slippery as an eel

someone who is as slippery as an eel cannot be trusted 🖒 An eel is a long fish which has a body like a snake. • You'd be mad to go into business with him. He's as slippery as an eel.

slow

do a slow burn American & Australian, informal

to have a feeling of anger that gradually increases • As he heard more about the plan to develop the area for industrial use he started doing a slow burn.

smack-bang

smack-bang British, American & Australian, informal

Australian, informal smack-dab American, informal exactly in a particular place, especially in the middle of somewhere • (always + adv/prep) She lives smack-bang in the middle of London.

small

small beer British, American & Australian, informal

small potatoes American & Australian, informal

something that is not important, especially when compared to something else • A loan of that size is small beer – these banks are lending millions of pounds a day. • And we are not talking small potatoes – building the airport means many people in the area will lose their homes.

small fry informal

1 people, organizations, or activities that are not large or important • The small fry are soon going to be pushed out of business by all these multinationals.
• This investigation is small fry for a

 This investigation is small fry for a police force used to massive inquiries. 2 American, humorous very young children • These computer games will really intrigue the small fry in your house - kids love them.

a small fortune

a lot of money • Her hair ought to look good – she spends a small fortune on it.

the small hours

the early hours of the morning • (often + of) I was up till the small hours of Wednesday morning finishing off that report. • She was born in the small hours of Saturday morning.

be grateful/thankful for small mercies

if someone should be grateful for small mercies, they should feel grateful that something good has happened, although it is not everything that they wanted • They've agreed to end the meeting half an hour early. I suppose we should be thankful for small mercies.

Don't sweat the small stuff. American, informal something that you say in order to tell someone not to worry about things that are not important • Don't sweat the small stuff, Sam. It's just office gossip – no one takes it seriously.

in small doses

if you like someone or something in small doses, you only like them for short periods • She's all right in small doses but I wouldn't want to spend a whole lot of time with her.

It's a small world.

something that you say when you discover that someone knows a person that you know • Imagine you knowing Erik! It's a small world, isn't it?

make sb feel small

to say something which makes someone feel not important or stupid • As a manager you have to be able to criticize people but you don't want to make them feel small.

smart

smart drugs British & Australian drugs which make you more intelligent or make you think more clearly • I have my exams in two weeks – I could use some smart drugs.

a smart alec/aleck informal

someone who is always trying to seem more clever than everyone else in a way that is annoying • Some smart alec in the audience kept making witty remarks during my talk.

smart-alec/-aleck • (always before noun) He's just some smart-alec journalist.

a smart bomb

a bomb that guides itself by receiving signals from the ground • Laser-guided smart bombs were hitting targets only about 60 per cent of the time.

a smart cookie American

someone who is clever and good at dealing with difficult situations • If anyone can make this company succeed, it's Kathy – she's one smart cookie.

 ${\bf a/your\ smart\ mouth\ } American, in formal$

if someone has a smart mouth, they speak in a way that is too clever and does not show enough respect for other people • If you aren't more careful, your smart mouth could lose you your job.

the smart money

- 1 if the smart money is on something happening, or on someone or something being successful, people with a good knowledge about it believe that is what will happen Hurt's best-actor award surprised even Hollywood insiders the smart money was on Jack Nicholson.
  - The smart money says that the industry will end up drastically reduced.
- 2 money which is spent by people who are very successful in business • The smart money is coming back into mortgages as the best investment right now.

smart-arse

- a smart-arse British, very informal
- a smart-ass American, very informal someone who is always trying to seem more clever than everyone else in a way that is annoying • OK, smart-arse, do you have a better idea?

smart-arse British, very informal smart-ass American, very informal • (always before noun) That's all I need – some smart-ass kid telling me what to do!

smarty

a smarty pants informal

someone who is always trying to seem more clever than everyone else in a way that is annoying • Cindy, the little smarty pants, will be the first to tell us where we went wrong.

smelling

come out/up smelling of roses British & Australian

come out/up smelling like roses

American

if you come out smelling of roses, people believe you are good and honest after a difficult situation which could have made you seem bad or dishonest • There was a major fraud investigation, but Smith still came out smelling of roses.

smile

crack a smile informal

to smile, especially when you do not feel like smiling • (usually negative) The man barely cracked a smile at his friend's joke.

wipe the smile off sb's face

to make someone feel less happy or confident, especially someone who is annoying you because they think they are very clever • Tell him you saw Helena at the cinema with another guy – that should wipe the smile off his face.

smiles

be all smiles

to look very happy and friendly, especially when other people are not expecting you to • She spent the whole of yesterday shouting at people and yet this morning she's all smiles.

smoke

smoke and mirrors American &

Australian

something which is intended to confuse or deceive people, especially by making them believe that a situation is better than it really is • Smoke and mirrors made the company seem bigger and healthier than it really was. It was just clever marketing.

smoke-and-mirrors • (always before noun) City Hall has saved taxpayers little with its smoke-and-mirrors trick of using money set aside for building renovations.

smoke signals X

a sign that something is probably going to happen • All the smoke signals from Downing Street indicate that the taxpayer will have to pay up again. • Conflicting smoke signals are coming from the the peace talks, and it is impossible to say how they are going.

the (big) smoke British & Australian

a big city, especially London, Sydney or Melbourne • So when were you last in the smoke, then?

blow smoke American

to say things that are not true in order to make yourself or something you are involved with seem better than it is • The team put on an unbelievable performance. I'm not just blowing smoke – they were great.

go up in smoke

if a plan or some work goes up in smoke, it is spoiled or wasted • Then his business went bankrupt and 20 years of hard work went up in smoke.

There's no smoke without fire.

Where there's smoke, there's fire.

something that you say which means that if people are saying that someone has done something bad but no one knows whether it is true, it probably is true • He claims that they were just good friends and that they never slept together but there's no smoke without fire, that's what I say.

smoking

a smoking gun

information which proves without doubt that someone committed a crime • A smoking gun was found in the form of an incriminating memorandum and Walker was convicted of theft.

snail

snail mail humorous

the system of sending letters through the post • What's your preferred means of communication? Fax, email or snail mail?

at a snail's pace

snake

snake oil American, informal

advice or solutions to problems which are of no use Deople used to sell substances called snake oil in the US which they said would cure illnesses but which were of no use. In my opinion, government measures for balancing the budget are just so much snake oil.

a snake-oil salesman American, informal someone who tries to sell you something of no value • The American people are too easily deceived – the perfect target for any passing snake-oil salesman.

a snake in the grass

someone who pretends to be your friend while secretly doing things to harm you • It's upsetting to learn that someone you once viewed as a good colleague is in fact a snake in the grass.

snap

Snap to it! British, American & Australian, informal enough time to write that letter!

Snap it up! American, informal something that you say to someone when you want them to hurry • We're leaving in five minutes so you'd better snap to it.
• Snap it up, can't you? Surely you've had

snappy

Make it snappy! informal

an impolite way of telling someone to hurry • We'd like four coffees please, and make it snappy!

sneezed

not to be sneezed/sniffed at informal

- 1 if something, especially an amount of money, is not to be sneezed at, it is large enough to be worth having And there's the increase in salary to be considered. £3000 extra a year is not to be sneezed at.
- 2 if something or someone is not to be sneezed at, they are important or dangerous enough to deserve serious attention • Goodman is not a man to be sniffed at.

be nothing to sneeze/sniff at American & Australian, informal • Blizzards with a foot of snow are nothing to sneeze at even in the mid-West.

snook

360

cock a snook British, old-fashioned

to show that you do not respect something or someone by doing something that insults them • (usually + at) In the end he refused to accept his award, cocking a snook at the film industry for which he had such contempt.

snow

a snow job American & Australian, informal

an attempt to persuade or deceive someone by praising them or not telling the truth • Danny'll need to do a snow job on his Dad if he's going to borrow the car again.

snowball

a snowball effect

a situation in which something increases in size or importance at a faster and faster rate • The more successful you become, the more publicity you get and that publicity generates sales. It's a sort of snowball effect.

not have a snowball's chance in hell

to have no chance at all of achieving something • (usually + of + doing sth) With those grades she hasn't a snowball's chance in hell of getting into college.

snowed

be snowed under

to have so much work that you have problems dealing with it all • (often + with) She wants me to take some time off but I'm snowed under with work at the moment.

snuff

a snuff movie

a film that is intended to be sexually exciting which shows a person being murdered • In May '92 he was arrested and charged with importing snuff movies into the country.

up to snuff mainly American

if someone or something is up to snuff, they are of an acceptable standard or quality • (often negative) Their wine list is very good but I'm afraid the food isn't really up to snuff. • The police force is replacing its older patrol cars to make sure they all come up to snuff. • We have spent a tremendous amount of money bringing the department up to snuff.

snug

be as snug as a bug in a rug humorous

to feel very comfortable and warm because you are in bed or under a cover • You get in your nice warm bed with your teddy and you'll be as snug as a bug in a rug!

soaked

be soaked to the skin

to be extremely wet • The rain was so heavy we were soaked to the skin after only ten minutes.

get soaked to the skin • I had no umbrella so I got soaked to the skin.

soapbox

get on your soapbox

to start expressing strong opinions, especially about a subject that people are bored of hearing you speak about A soapbox is a wooden box that people stood on in the past when they were making a speech in public. • It was that point in the evening when my father got on his soap box and started lecturing us on the evils of the modern world.

sob

a sob story

a sad story that someone tells you about themselves in order to make you feel sympathy for them • She told me some sob story about not having enough money to go and see her father who was ill.

sober

be as sober as a judge

to not be at all drunk • It's awful when everyone else around you has been drinking and you're as sober as a judge.

social

a social climber

someone who tries to join a higher social class, especially by becoming friends with people from that class • He was a dedicated social climber and was at all the best parties.

sock

Put a sock in it! informal

an impolite way of telling someone to be quiet • Put a sock in it! Some of us are trying to work around here.

socks

blow/knock your socks off informal

if something knocks your socks off, you find it extremely exciting or good • I'm going to take you to a restaurant that'll knock your socks off.

pull your socks up

to make an effort to improve your work or behaviour because it is not good enough • He's going to have to pull his socks up if he wants to stay in the team.

work your socks off informal

to work very hard • The lawyers that I know earn a lot of money but they work their socks off.

[beat/bore/charm etc.] the socks off sb

if someone beats, bores, charms etc. the socks off someone, they beat, bore, or charm them completely • He was one of those teachers who bored the socks off his students with his classes.

sod

Sod's Law British, humorous

the way in which plans fail and bad things happen where there is any possibility of them doing so • It's Sod's Law that on the one occasion when the train arrives on time, I'm late!

soft

soft in the head informal

stupid or crazy • I can't change my mind now, she'll think I've gone soft in the head.

be soft on sb old-fashioned

to be in love with someone • I think Conor must be soft on Julie – he keeps sending her cards.

have a soft spot for sb/sth

to feel a lot of affection for someone or something, often without knowing why • I've got a real soft spot for Thomas – I just find something about him very appealing.

softly

a softly, softly approach British & Australian

a gradual way of solving a problem that shows patience and does not involve immediate action or force • The recent unrest in the capital suggests that the government's softly, softly approach to reform is not working.

sold

be sold a pup British, informal

to be tricked into buying something that is not worth anything • I'm afraid you've been sold a pup there. You should always get an expert to look over a second-hand car before you buy it.

soldier

a soldier of fortune literary

someone who fights for any country or group that will pay him • A soldier of fortune in the service of both Christian and Muslim kings, he was constantly fighting from 1065.

solid

be as solid as a rock

to be very solid • So much furniture these days is so flimsy – this table here was made a hundred years ago and it's solid as a rock.

some

and then some American & Australian and even more • It looked like 20,000 people and then some at the demonstration. • 'Did Joe give you a hard time?' 'Yeah, and then some!'

son

Son of a bitch! mainly American, very informal something that you say in order to show that you are very angry or upset • Son of a bitch! Have you seen what he wrote in this letter?

a son of a bitch

- 1 American & Australian, very informal a man who is unpleasant or who has made you angry • He's a lazy, drunken son of a bitch and she's better off without him.
- 2 American, very informal a way of referring to an object, an activity, or a situation which causes difficulties for you Cleaning up after the robbery was a son of a bitch.

Son of a gun! American & Australian, very informal something that you say in order to show that you are very surprised and shocked • Son of a gun! I can't believe they put her in jail for that!

a son of a gun

- 1 American, informal a man who is unpleasant or who has made you angry
- He's one mean son of a gun so be careful around him.
- 2 American & Australian, informal if you call a man or a boy a son of a gun, it is a way of showing affection for them The little son of a gun has done it again he's won all his races.
- 3 American, informal a way of referring to an object which is causing problems for you or making you angry The computer's crashed and I don't know how to get the son of a gun working again.

song

a song and dance American

a long and complicated statement or story, especially one that is not true • (usually + about) She gave me some song and dance about her kids always being sick and not being able to get to the meetings.

be on song British

to be playing or performing well • Ravanelli looked a bit tired in last Saturday's match but he's certainly on song tonight.

for a song

very cheaply • This is one of my favourite pieces of furniture and I got it for a song in a market. • Property prices have come right down – houses are going for a song (= being sold very cheaply) at the moment.

make a song and dance about sth/doing sth British & Australian

to make something seem more important than it really is so that everyone notices it • I only asked her to move her car but she made such a song and dance about it. • He made a real song and dance about giving up meat.

sooner

No sooner said than done.

something that you say when something is done as soon as someone asks for it or suggests it • 'Would you mind closing the window for a while?' 'No sooner said than done.'

sore

a sore point/spot

a subject which someone would prefer not to talk about because it makes them angry or embarrassed • (often + with) I tried not to make any reference to Mike's drinking habits – I know it's a sore point with Kay at the moment.

stand/stick out like a sore thumb

if someone or something sticks out like a sore thumb, everyone notices them because they are very different from the other people or things around them • Everyone else was in jeans and casual gear and I had my office clothes on – I stuck out like a sore thumb.

sorrows

drown your sorrows

to drink a lot of alcohol because you want to stop feeling sad • I've got a bottle of whiskey here – shall we stay in and drown our sorrows?

sorts

be out of sorts

to feel slightly ill or slightly unhappy
• I'd been feeling tired and headachy and generally out of sorts for some time.

It takes all sorts (to make a world.)

something that you say which means that all people are different and even strange people should be accepted • Now the  couple next door, they go swimming in the sea in the middle of winter. Well, it takes all sorts, as they say.

soul

be the soul of discretion

to be good at not talking about things that other people want to keep secret • As regards Nigel, he's the soul of discretion. I'm quite sure he won't mention this to anyone.

sell your soul (to the devil)

to do something bad in order to succeed or get money or power • As far as Mike was concerned, he badly wanted the job and he'd sell his soul to the devil to get it.

sound

be as sound as a bell

to be very healthy or in very good condition • Her constitution is as sound as a bell.

be as sound as a dollar American, oldfashioned

if a machine or an object is as sound as a dollar, it works well and is in very good condition • The engine has been as sound as a dollar since it was overhauled.

soup

be in the soup old-fashioned

to be in trouble • This team know that if they lose on Saturday, they'll really be in the soup.

from soup to nuts American, informal from the beginning to the end • She told us everything about the trip, from soup to nuts.

sour

sour grapes

if you say that something someone says is sour grapes, you mean that they said it because they are jealous • I don't think it's such a great job – and that's not just sour grapes because I didn't get it.

south

go south American, informal

to lose value or quality • When oil prices went south, it caused problems right across the economy. • She played well in the tennis championships, except her serve seemed to have gone south.

space

a space cadet humorous

a strange or crazy person • I wouldn't trust him with the children – he's a real space cadet.

Watch this space.

something that you say which means that you think there will soon be exciting changes in a situation • I have plans for my career. Watch this space.

spade

call a spade a spade

to tell the truth about something, even if it is not polite or pleasant • You know me, I call a spade a spade and when I see someone behaving like an idiot, I tell them.

spades

in spades mainly American

in large amounts or to a very great degree • The thing that you absolutely must have for this job is confidence – and Adam has it in spades. • I don't get colds often, but when I do I get them in spades.

spare

be like a spare prick at a wedding

British, taboo, humorous

to feel silly because you are present at an event but no one needs you and no one is talking to you • Everyone else there had come with their partners and I was left feeling like a spare prick at a wedding.

go spare British & Australian, informal > to become very angry • She'd go spare if she found out he was spending all that money.

spark

a spark plug American, informal

a person with a lot of energy and ideas who encourages the other people in a group • The school's new principal is the spark plug in a team that includes parents, teachers and community.

sparks

sparks fly

if sparks fly between two or more people, they argue angrily • They don't have the easiest of relationships and when they get together in a meeting sparks fly.

speak

speak for itself/themselves

if something speaks for itself, it does not need any explanation • I'm not going to talk about our business successes. I think the report speaks for itself.

let sth speak for itself/themselves
• The book offers no analysis of Bonnard's work, it just lets the paintings speak for themselves.

speaking

not be on speaking terms

to be refusing to talk to someone because you have had an argument and are still angry with them • (often + with) She's not on speaking terms with her ex-husband.
• Jeanette and her mother haven't been on speaking terms since the wedding.

spec

on spec

if you do something on spec, you do it without being sure that you will get what you want • You could always turn up at the airport on spec and see what's available on the day. • I sent in an article on spec and they published it.

spectacle

make a spectacle of yourself

to do something that makes you look stupid and attracts other people's attention • I wasn't going to make a spectacle of myself by dancing with my grandma!

spectre

raise the spectre of sth British, American & Australian

raise the specter of sth American

to make people worry that something unpleasant will happen • Drought and war have raised the spectre of food shortages for millions of people.
• Napoli's 1-0 defeat at Bologna raised the spectre of relegation for the Italian champions.

speed

up to speed

if you are up to speed with a subject or an activity, you have all the latest information about it and are able to do it well • (often + with) We arranged for some home tutoring to get him up to speed with the other children in his class. • (often + on) Before we start the meeting, I'm just going to bring you up to speed on the latest developments.

spick

be spick and span

a place that is spick and span is very tidy and clean • The kitchen was spick and span as ever, every surface wiped down and everything in its place.

spin

a spin doctor

someone whose job is to make sure that the information the public receives about a particular event makes them approve of the organization they work for, usually a political party • In politics, this is the age of the spin doctor and image maker.

be in a spin

to be very anxious and confused • She's in a spin over the arrangements for the party. send/throw sb into a spin • News of the director's resignation had sent management into a spin.

spirit

as/when the spirit moves you humorous

if you do something when the spirit moves you, you only do it when you want to • He'll cook now and again, when the spirit moves him.

enter/get into the spirit of sth

to show that you are happy to be at a social event by talking to a lot of people, dancing, or wearing special clothes • 'Hey, I like your hat!' 'Well, I thought I'd better enter into the spirit of things.' • I'm afraid I was feeling too ill to really get into the spirit of the evening.

spit

spit and polish

cleaning and rubbing • All it needed was a bit of spit and polish and we got it looking as good as new.

spit nails American & Australian, informal

spit chips/tacks Australian, informal

to speak or behave in a way that shows you are very angry • He was spitting nails when he saw what had happened to his car.

I could (just) spit! informal something that you say when you are very angry, usually because of something someone has done • When I think of all the hours I put into that company and that's how they treat me. I could just spit!

spit-and-sawdust

spit-and-sawdust British

a spit-and-sawdust pub (= type of bar that is found in Britain) is dirty and untidy and is not modern or attractive • (always before noun) There are one or two spit-and-sawdust pubs in the town centre but nothing remotely trendy.

spitting

be the spitting image of sb

to look very much the same as someone else • He's the spitting image of his father.

splash

make a splash ×

to get a lot of public attention • It wasn't a best-seller but it did make quite a splash in American literary circles.

spleen

vent your spleen

to express anger • (often + on) Politicians used the press conference as an opportunity to vent their spleen on reporters.

spoiling

be spoiling for a fight

to be very eager to fight or argue about something • The trouble was caused by a group of demonstrators who were obviously spoiling for a fight.

spoke

put a spoke in sb's wheel British &

Australian

to spoil someone else's plans and stop them from doing something • Tell him you're using the car that weekend - that should put a spoke in his wheel.

spoon-fed

be spoon-fed

to be given too much help or information
• When I was at school we weren't spoonfed, we had to work things out for ourselves.

sporting

a sporting chance

a good chance that something will happen, although it is not certain • It's by no means definite but there's a sporting chance he'll get the job.

spot

glued/rooted to the spot

if you are glued to the spot, you cannot move, usually because you are very shocked or frightened • I stood there rooted to the spot as he came nearer and nearer.

hit the spot

if food hits the spot, it tastes good and makes you feel satisfied • Mmm, that pecan pie hit the spot.

on the spot

- 1 immediately If you're caught without a ticket, you're fined on the spot. • We asked for the money and he paid us on the spot.
- 2 in the place where something is happening or has just happened The police were called and they were on the spot within three minutes.
  - on-the-spot (always before noun) Her on-the-spot reports from war zones around the world won her several awards.
- 3 if you run or turn on the spot, you do it without moving away from the place where you are • I ran on the spot for ten minutes to warm myself up.

put sb on the spot

to cause someone difficulty or make them embarrassed by forcing them at that moment to make a difficult decision or answer an embarrassing question • Steve rather put him on the spot by Steve rather put him on the spot by asking when we were going to get a pay rise.

spotlight

be in the spotlight mainly American

to get attention and interest from the public • I always assumed she liked being in the spotlight.

steal the spotlight mainly American • It was said that he was jealous of his wife because she stole the spotlight from him.

spots

knock spots off sb/sth British &

Australian, informal

to be very much better than someone or something else • There's a vegetarian restaurant in Brighton that knocks spots off any round here.

spout

be up the spout British, informal

to be pregnant • His sister's only just turned sixteen and she's up the spout.

up the spout British & Australian, informal wasted or spoiled • Pete lost his job so that meant our holiday plans went up the spout. • And they refused to give me a refund so that was two hundred pounds up the spout.

spring

be no spring chicken humorous

to not be young any more • He must be ten years older than Grace, and she's no spring chicken.

spur

on the spur of the moment

if you do something on the spur of the moment, you do it suddenly, without planning it • It was something I bought on the spur of the moment, and I've regretted it ever since.

spur-of-the-moment • (always before noun) We hadn't planned to get married – it was a spur-of-the-moment thing.

spurs

earn/win your spurs

to do something to show that you deserve a particular position and have the skills needed for it • He won his political spurs fighting hospital closures during his time as a local councillor in Bristol.

square

a square meal

a big meal that provides your body with all the different types of food it needs to stay healthy • Most of these supermodels don't look like they've had a square meal in their life. • If you're only eating a chocolate bar for lunch you need a good square meal in the evening.

a square peg (in a round hole)

someone whose character makes them completely wrong for the type of work they are doing or for the situation they are in • I never did understand what Paddy was doing in accounts – he was a square peg in a round hole.

back to square one

if you are back to square one, you have to start working on a plan from the beginning because your previous attempt failed and the progress you made is now wasted • We thought everything was settled, but now they say they're not happy with the deal, so we're back to square one again. • If this guy rejects our offer we'll have to go back to square one and start the whole recruitment process again.

be on the square mainly American

to be completely honest in what you say and do • So this guy you're buying the car from - how do you know he's on the square?

squeaky

squeaky clean

- 1 someone who is squeaky clean is completely good and honest and never does anything bad Journalists have been trying to discover whether the Senator really is as squeaky clean as he claims to be.
- 2 completely clean I love the squeaky clean feel of my hair after I've washed it.

squeeze

put the squeeze on sb/sth

1 to try to influence a person or organization to make them act in the way you want • Human rights activists hope the US president will put the squeeze on the island's rulers. 2 to cause problems for someone, especially by making it difficult for them to achieve something • The recession has put the squeeze on many small businesses.

stab

have/make a stab at sth/doing sth

to try to do something, or to try an activity that you have not done before • I'd never tried water skiing before, but I had a stab at it while I was in Greece. • She made a reasonable stab at solving the problem.

stable

closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has bolted

trying to stop something bad happening when it has already happened and the situation cannot be changed • Improving security after a major theft would seem to be a bit like closing the stable door after the horse has bolted.

staff

the staff of life literary

a food such as bread that is eaten in large amounts by a lot of people • Bread is the staff of life, which is why we only use the finest organic flour to make ours.

stac

a stag night/party

a party for a man who is going to get married, to which only his male friends are invited • On Keith's stag night, his friends left him tied to a lamp-post in Trafalgar Square, wearing only his underpants.

go stag American

if a man goes stag to a social event, he goes without a woman • He usually prefers to go stag to parties.

stage

set the stage for sth

if you set the stage for something, you make it possible or likely to happen • The purpose of that first meeting was to set the stage for future co-operation between Russia and the USA.

the stage is set for sth • The stage is now set for a really exciting climax to this year's championship.

stake

go to the stake mainly British

if you say you would go to the stake for a belief or principle, you mean you would risk anything in order to defend it in the past, the stake was the wooden post to which people were tied before being burned to death as a punishment. • She believed passionately that the government were wrong on this issue and was prepared to go to the stake for her views.

stakes

pull up stakes American & Australian to leave the place where you have been living • He pulled up stakes in Indiana and moved, permanently.

stalking

a stalking horse

- 1 a politician who tests the strength of a party's support for its leader by competing for the job of leading the party although they do not really intend to be elected He was a stalking horse, intended to undermine what was regarded at the time as a weak leadership.
- 2 something that is used to hide someone's real purpose It's feared that the talks are just a stalking horse for a much wider deal between the two parties.

stall

set out your stall British & Australian

to show other people that you are determined to do something • We've set out our stall to win the championship and we'll be disappointed if we don't.

stand

stand or fall by sth

if you stand or fall by something, that thing alone causes you to succeed or fail • The new television channel will stand or fall by its ability to attract younger viewers.

stand up and be counted

to let people know your opinions, although it might cause trouble for you

 Those who did have the courage to stand up and be counted were arrested and imprisoned.

make a stand

to make a determined effort to defend something or to stop something from happening • I felt the situation had existed for far too long and it was time to make a stand.

take a stand

to publicly express an opinion about something, especially to say whether you support or are against something • (usually + on) Many politicians fail to take a stand on equal rights for women.

standard-bearer

a standard-bearer

someone or something that represents a particular group of people or set of ideas • (often + of) He's the standard-bearer of the party's right. • (often + for) The Centre Party has long been the standard-bearer for environmental ideas.

standing

could do sth standing on your head informal

if you could do something standing on your head, you can do it very easily, usually because you have done it many times before • I've done this job for so long I could do it standing on my head.

leave sb/sth standing British &

Australian

to be much better than everyone or everything else • Stella's singing was so good, she left the others standing. • This is the best hoover I've ever had. It leaves the rest standing.

stands

as it stands

as something is now, without changes to it • The law as it stands is very unclear.
• As it stands, the Panel's decisions can be reviewed by the courts.

staring

be staring sb in the face

1 if a solution to a problem is staring you in the face, it is very obvious • We spent ages wondering how we could make more space in the shop and the answer was staring us in the face all the time.

2 if an unpleasant experience is staring you in the face, it is very likely to happen to you • With only one day's supply of water left, death was staring him in the face.

stark

stark naked

completely naked • He walked into the room stark naked.

be stark raving mad British, American & Australian

be stark staring mad British

to be completely crazy • She looked at me as though she thought I was stark raving mad.

starry-eyed

starry-eyed

happy and hopeful about something, in a way which prevents you from thinking about the bad things about it • Starry-eyed youngsters may dream of running away to the circus but life on the road is far from romantic. • Her accounts of small town America are far less starry-eyed than many writers.

stars

stars in your eyes

someone who has stars in their eyes is very excited and hopeful about the future and imagines they are going to be very successful and famous • She was a girl with stars in her eyes and dreams of becoming famous.

start

bring/pull sb up with a start

if something that someone says brings you up with a start, it surprises you and often causes you to suddenly stop what you were doing • The sound of his voice pulled me up with a start.

state

the state of play British & Australian

the present situation • (often + in) The article provides a useful summary of the current state of play in the negotiations.

state-of-the-art

state-of-the-art

state-of-the-art equipment and machines are the most modern and of the best quality available • State-of-the-art computer graphics show how your kitchen could be transformed.

station

marry beneath your station old-

fashioned

to marry someone who belongs to a lower social class than you • Her father, who felt that she had married beneath her station, refused to speak to her:

status quo

the status quo

the situation as it is at present, without any changes • The army, having maintained the status quo for so long, is embarking on a series of reforms.

steam

Steam is the hot gas that is produced when water boils and in the past it was used to give power to machines and vehicles. Steam is used in the following phrases connected with a person's energy and ability to do things.

let off steam British, American &

Australian

blow off steam American & Australian

to do or say something that helps you to get rid of strong feelings or energy • Meetings give people the chance to let off steam if something has been bothering them for a long time. • After a long journey, the kids need to run around a bit and let off steam. • I've told her she can call me and talk any time she wants to blow off steam.

pick up steam American

to start to be much more effective or successful • In the third month the campaign really started to pick up steam. • There are signs that the economy is picking up steam.

under your own steam

without help from anyone else • Don't bother sending a car for us – we can get there under our own steam.

stem

from stem to stern American

from one end of something to the other • We overhauled the car from stem to stern.

step

Step on it! British, American & Australian, informal

Step on the gas! American & Australian, informal something that you say to someone when you want them to drive more quickly • Step on the gas, will you, we have to be there in five minutes!

Mind/Watch your step.

something that you say in order to tell someone to walk carefully • Watch your step, the floor's wet and it's a bit slippery.

watch your step

to make sure that you do not say or do anything that causes you to get into trouble • He'd better watch his step if he wants to carry on working here.

stew

be in a stew old-fashioned

to be worried and confused about something • She was in a stew over the party arrangements.

leave sb to stew let sb stew

if you leave someone to stew, you leave them to worry about something bad that has happened or something stupid they have done • I could have said a few comforting words and made him feel better but I thought I'd let him stew a while instead.

stick

stick in your gullet/throat informal

if a situation or someone's behaviour sticks in your gullet, it annoys you, usually because you think it is wrong • What really sticks in my gullet is the way he treats the women in the office.

a stick to beat sb/sth with British something that gives you an excuse for criticizing someone or something that you do not like or approve of • As far as the opposition are concerned, the slightest hint of scandal is yet another stick to beat the government with.

get on the stick American

to force yourself to hurry or to start working • If I get on the stick I'll finish the report by this evening.

get/take [a lot of/some etc.] stick British, informal

come in for [a lot of/some etc.] stick British, informal

to be criticized or laughed at because of something that you do • (often + from) I get a lot of stick from people at work over the way I dress. • The government has come in for a lot of stick from the press over its handling of the crisis.

give sb [a lot of/some etc.] stick British, informal • (often + about) I got your name wrong when I first met you. I recall you gave me a lot of stick about that.

more sth than you can shake a stick at old-fashioned

a very large number of something • I don't know why she wants more shoes – she's already got more pairs than you can shake a stick at.

sticking

a sticking point

a subject that people who are involved in a discussion cannot agree about • The role of the army was the main sticking point at Thursday's abortive talks. • Pay has been a major sticking point in negotiations.

stick-in-the-mud

a stick-in-the-mud

someone who has old-fashioned ideas and does not want to try new activities • 'Anyway, I'm not interested in married men.' 'Oh, don't be such a stick-in-themud.'

sticks

Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me).

something that you say which means that people cannot hurt you with bad things they say or write about you • Criticism has never bothered me. Sticks and stones may break my bones, and all that.

up sticks British & Australian

pick up sticks Australian

to leave the place where you have been living • I was even thinking I might up sticks and move to somewhere completely new.

sticky

be (batting) on a sticky wicket British & Australian

to be in a difficult situation because you have not behaved in the correct way • You know you're batting on a sticky wicket there, not paying tax.

come to/meet a sticky end British &

Australian, humorous

to die in an unpleasant way • Of course the villain comes to a sticky end in the last act of the play.

have sticky fingers

someone who has sticky fingers often steals things • Another wallet has been stolen, so it looks as though someone in the office has sticky fingers.

stiff

a stiff upper lip

an ability to stay calm and not show feelings of sadness or fear • You weren't allowed to show emotion in those days. You had to keep a stiff upper lip at all times. • I never once saw my father cry or show any sign of vulnerability – it's that old British stiff upper lip.

be as stiff as a board

- 1 to be very stiff It's so cold out there the washing was as stiff as a board when I brought it in off the line.
- 2 if you are as stiff as a board, your body feels stiff and hurts when you try to move it, usually after a lot of physical exercise
   I cycled fifty miles yesterday and when I
  - woke this morning I was as stiff as a board.

still

still waters run deep

something that you say which means people who say very little often have very interesting and complicated personalities • He's quiet and shy, it's true, but still waters run deep.

sting

a sting in the tail British & Australian

an unpleasant end to something that began pleasantly, especially a story or suggestion • At the start, it's humorous and light but like most of her short stories, there's a sting in the tail.

take the sting out of sth

to make something that is unpleasant a little less unpleasant • Humour, of course, can take the sting out of almost any unpleasant situation.

stink

kick up a stink British, informal

make/raise a stink American, informal

to complain angrily about something that you are not satisfied with • He kicked up a stink at the restaurant because the meal was late.

stir

cause/create a stir ×

to cause a lot of interest and excitement • Emma caused quite a stir in her little black dress last night.

stir-crazy

stir-crazy mainly American, informal

upset and nervous because you have been in one place for too long \( \alpha \) Stir is a word used in American English for a prison.

• It's no wonder she's going stir-crazy, shut in that tiny house all day with three young children.

stitch

A stitch in time (saves nine).

something that you say which means it is better to deal with a problem early before it gets too bad • If you don't repair the oil leak now, you might damage the whole engine. It's a case of a stitch in time.

stitches

have sb in stitches informal

to make someone laugh a lot • She told a couple of jokes that had us all in stitches.

stocking

in (your) stocking/stockinged feet

wearing socks or a similar covering on your feet, but not wearing shoes • She crept upstairs in stocking feet so as not to wake the baby. • He stood five feet five in his stockinged feet. (= his height was five feet five, without shoes)

stomach

not have the stomach for sth have no stomach for sth

to not feel brave or determined enough to do something unpleasant • Demoralised and exhausted, the soldiers did not have the stomach for another fight.

stone

be carved/set in stone

if an arrangement, a plan, or a rule is set in stone, it is completely fixed so that it cannot be changed • (usually negative) The rules aren't set in stone; they can be altered to suit changing circumstances.

These are just a few ideas to be discussed nothing is carved in stone.

leave no stone unturned

to do everything that you can in order to achieve something or to find someone or something • Both organizations have vowed to leave no stone unturned in the search for peace.

sink like a stone

to fail completely • He had published two novels, both of which sank like a stone.

a stone's throw

a very short distance • (usually + from)
We were staying in a small apartment just a stone's throw from the beach.
• (sometimes + away) The city centre is only a stone's throw away.

stony

fall on stony ground

if a request, a warning, or advice falls on stony ground, people ignore it Dihis phrase comes from the Bible. • Repeated requests to stop the fighting have fallen on stony ground. • Warnings about the disastrous effect on the environment fell on stony ground.

stool

a stool pigeon

a person, especially a criminal, who secretly gives information to the police in order to help them catch other criminals

• Once they discovered he was a stool pigeon, it was only a matter of time before they had him killed.

stops

pull out all the stops

to do everything you can to make something successful The stops are handles on an organ (= a large instrument used in churches), which you pull out when you want to play as loudly as possible. They pulled out all the stops for their daughter's wedding. (often + to do sth) The airline certainly pulled out all the stops to impress us.

store

mind the store American

to be responsible for dealing with arrangements at work or at home while the person who is usually responsible is not there • So who's going to be minding the store while your manager's away?

set great/much store by sth

to believe that something is very important or valuable • I've always set great store by his opinion. • What would happen if this relationship that she set so much store by ended?

storm

a storm in a teacup British & Australian a situation where people get very angry or worried about something that is not important • (not used with the) I think it's all a storm in a teacup – there's probably no danger to public health at all.

ride out/weather the storm

to continue to exist and not be harmed during a very difficult period • When smaller companies were going bankrupt, the big companies with wider interests managed to ride out the storm. • It remains to be seen if the President will weather the political storm caused by his remarks.

take sb/sth by storm

to suddenly be very successful in a particular place or with a particular group of people • Today we're interviewing the 20-year-old fashion designer who has taken Paris by storm.

[dance/sing/talk etc.] up a storm

American, informal

to do something with a lot of energy • Her dog barks up a storm every time the phone rings. • They were sitting in a corner, talking up a storm.

story

but that's another story

something that you say when you have spoken about something, but do not want to say anything more about it at that time • Alex, meanwhile, was falling madly in love with Nicky, but that's another story.
• Funnily enough, we bumped into each other again in Amsterdam, but that's

It's/That's the story of my life. humorous something that you say when something bad happens to you that has happened to you many times before • She said she just wanted us to be friends. That's the story of my life.

That's my story and I'm sticking to it.

humorous

another story.

something that you say when you have given an explanation about yourself which is not completely true • I'm not fat, I've just got big bones. Well, that's my story and I'm sticking to it!

straight

as straight as a die British & Australian as straight as a pin American completely straight • The road runs straight as a die for fifty miles.

can't think straight

not be thinking straight

if you can't think straight, you are not thinking calmly and clearly about something • I was so tired I wasn't thinking straight any more. • There are so many people talking, I just can't think straight.

couldn't lie straight in bed Australian, informal

if you say someone couldn't lie straight in bed, you mean they are very dishonest • Nothing you could say about Pete would surprise me. The man couldn't even lie straight in bed.

keep a straight face

to look serious and not laugh, although you are in a funny situation or are saying something funny or stupid • I can never play jokes on people because I can't keep a straight face.

with a straight face • I don't know how you can stand there and repeat all that nonsense with a straight face.

straight-faced • She remained rigidly straight-faced while everyone else was falling about with laughter.

play a straight bat

1 British to avoid answering someone's questions or giving them the information they want • When asked about the affair, he plays a straight bat.

2 British, old-fashioned someone who plays a straight bat is honest and has traditional ideas and beliefs • Wilf has played a straight bat all his life – I can't believe he'd get mixed up in anything illegal.

Straight is used in the following phrases connected with being honest and sincere.

straight from the shoulder American

if you speak straight from the shoulder, you speak directly and honestly • I gave it to him straight from the shoulder. 'You're talking garbage,' I said.

straight-from-the-shoulder American
• Then he spoke and it was his usual straight-from-the-shoulder performance.

straight up British & Australian, informal something that you say in order to emphasize that you are being honest or to ask someone whether they are being honest • Straight up, John, I never laid a finger on her. • You're not telling me she's sixty! Straight up?

a straight arrow American

someone who is very honest and careful to behave in a socially acceptable way • Friends describe Menendez as a straight arrow who rarely drank and was close to his family. straight-arrow • (always before noun) In most of his films he plays the straight-arrow, all-American guy.

a straight shooter American & Australian someone who you can trust because they are very honest • He'll mean what he says – he's a straight shooter.

shoot straight American • Marvin will shoot straight (= be honest) with you. He's a good guy to do business with.

the straight and narrow humorous

if you keep on the straight and narrow, you behave in a way that is honest and moral • The threat of a good beating should keep him on the straight and narrow. • Have you ever been tempted to stray from the straight and narrow?

be as straight as a die

to be completely honest • You can trust Penny to tell you the truth – she's as straight as a die

Give it to me straight. informal

something that you say when you want someone to tell you something unpleasant directly and honestly • Just give it to me straight. How badly hurt is he?

straining

be straining at the leash

to be very eager to do something that you are being prevented from doing at the present time • Meanwhile we hear that our soldiers have reached a peak of fitness and are straining at the leash.

straw

a straw in the wind

something that shows you what might happen in the future • (usually plural) There were one or two straws in the wind yesterday that suggested an offensive was imminent.

the straw that breaks the camel's back

the last in a series of unpleasant events which finally makes you feel that you cannot continue to accept a bad situation

• Losing my job was bad enough but having the relationship end like that was the straw that broke the camel's back.

the final/last straw

the last in a series of unpleasant events which finally makes you feel that you cannot continue to accept a bad situation
• One night he came home drunk at 5 o'clock in the morning and that was the last straw. • He'd been unhappy at work for a long time but the last straw came when he was refused promotion. • (often + for) Lucy leaving was the last straw for him and he pretty much gave up the will to live.

straws

clutch/grasp at straws

- 1 to try any method, even those that are not likely to succeed, because you are in such a bad situation (usually in continuous tenses) He's hoping that this new treatment will help him but I think he's clutching at straws.
- 2 to try to find reasons to feel hopeful about a situation when there is no real cause for hope (usually in continuous tenses) She thinks he might still be interested because he calls her now and then but I think she's clutching at straws.

street

street smarts American

the knowledge and experience you need in order to deal with difficult and dangerous situations in a city • The kids around here may not be much good at reading or writing, but they sure have a lot of street smarts.

be (just/right) up sb's street

if something is right up someone's street, it is exactly the type of thing that they know about or like to do • I've got a little job here which should be right up your street.

the man/woman/person in the street

a typical, ordinary person • Do the plans for celebrating the millennium take into account the views of the man in the street?

streets

be streets ahead British & Australian

to be much better or more advanced than someone or something else • (usually +

of) In terms of profitability, the company is streets ahead of its nearest rival. • He's fairly average at English but his maths is streets ahead of any other kid in the class.

strength

go from strength to strength

to become better and better or more and more successful • The firm has gone from strength to strength since he took over as manager.

on the strength of sth

- 1 if you do something on the strength of facts or advice, you do it because you are influenced by them On the strength of the projected sales figures, we decided to expand our business.
- 2 if you get a job or an opportunity on the strength of something you have done, you get it because what you did was good enough to persuade someone you deserve it • He was accepted for the writing course on the strength of a few articles in his local paper.

a pillar/tower of strength

someone who gives a lot of support to someone else who is in a difficult situation • Roger was a tower of strength when my parents died.

stretch

not by any stretch of the imagination by no stretch of the imagination

if you say that by no stretch of the imagination can you describe something or someone in a particular way, you mean that this way of describing them is certainly not correct • She was never a great player, not by any stretch of the imagination. • He's pleasant looking but by no stretch of the imagination could you describe him as handsome.

stride

get into your stride British & Australian hit your stride American & Australian to start to do something well and confidently because you have been doing it for enough time to become familiar with it • Once I get into my stride, I'm sure I'll work much faster. • She began writing novels in the 1930's but really only hit her stride after the war.

take sth in your stride British, American & Australian

take sth in stride American

to calmly and easily deal with something unpleasant or difficult and not let it affect what you are doing • There's a lot of pressure at work but she seems to take it all in her stride. • A certain amount of criticism comes with the job and you have to learn to take it in stride.

string

another string to your bow British &

Australian

an extra skill or qualification which you can use if you cannot use your main one
• If you can teach English as well as yoga, it's another string to your bow.

have [a lot of/a few/several etc.] strings to your bow British & Australian • She's a trained counsellor and she does pottery classes in the evenings – she has several strings to her bow.

have sb on a string

to completely control someone's behaviour • She can get him to do anything she wants – she's got him on a string.

strings

no strings (attached)

if there are no strings attached to an offer or arrangement, there is nothing that is unpleasant or not convenient that you have to accept in order to get the advantage from the offer • It's very rare that you get a loan that size with no strings attached. • The donation has no strings attached, so the charity is free to use it for whatever purpose it chooses.

OPPOSITE with strings (attached) • Most of their so-called 'special offers' come with strings attached, so beware.

pull strings

to secretly use the influence that you have over important people in order to get something or to help someone • I may be able to pull a few strings for you if you need the document urgently.

pull the strings

to be in control of an organization, often secretly • I'd really like to know who's pulling the strings in that organization, because it's not the elected committee.

strip

tear sb off a strip British, informal tear a strip off sb British & Australian,

informal

to speak angrily to someone because they have done something wrong • He tore her off a strip for being late.

stripes

earn your stripes

to do something to show that you deserve a particular rank or position and have the skills needed for it • She earned her stripes as a junior reporter before becoming education correspondent.

stroke

a stroke of luck

something good that happens to you by chance • Phil was driving up to Manchester that evening and gave me a lift so that was a stroke of luck. • By a stroke of luck, someone at work happened to be selling very cheaply exactly the piece of equipment that I needed.

strong

a strong stomach

the ability to watch very unpleasant things without getting upset or feeling ill • (often + to do sth) Some of the war scenes are fairly horrific – you need to have a strong stomach to watch them.

be sb's strong point/suit

if an ability or quality is your strong suit, you have a lot of it • (usually negative) It has to be said, logic isn't Katherine's strong point. • Charm is not his strong suit but at least he knows it.

be as strong as an ox

a person who is as strong as an ox is very strong • Get Carl to lift it – he's as strong as an ox.

come on strong

1 informal to speak to someone in a way that shows you have a strong sexual

- interest in them Towards the end of the evening he was coming on strong and I knew it was time to leave.
- 2 mainly American to speak to someone in a very angry or threatening way • I have to come on strong with some of the guys to get them to cooperate.

stubborn

be as stubborn as a mule

to be very determined not to change your decision or opinion about something, even when it is wrong • You won't get him to change his mind – he's as stubborn as a mule.

stuck

squeal like a stuck pig informal

to make a long, high sound, usually because you are hurt • It was only a scratch, but he started squealing like a stuck pig.

stud-muffin

a stud-muffin American, informal a sexually attractive and sexually active young man • She met her latest studmuffin in the gym.

stuff

Stuff and nonsense! old-fashioned

something that you say when you think something is not true or is stupid • Stuff and nonsense! I never said anything of the sort!

do your stuff informal

to do something that people know you are good at or are expecting you to do • Well, here's the make-up kit. Do your stuff! • She came on stage, did her stuff, and was out of the theatre within an hour:

know your stuff informal

to know a lot about a subject, or to be very good at doing something • When it comes to restoring grand pianos, Mr Morley really knows his stuff.

strut your stuff informal, humorous

to show your skill at doing something that involves movement, especially dancing • I thought you'd be up there on the dance floor, strutting your stuff!

stuffed

a stuffed shirt

someone, especially a man, who behaves in a formal, old-fashioned way and thinks they are very important • I knew he was a banker and expensively educated so I was expecting him to be a stuffed shirt.

Get stuffed! very informal

something that you say when you are annoyed with someone or you want someone to go away • Oh, get stuffed, Jordan! You're not so perfect yourself.

stuffing

knock the stuffing out of sb

to make someone feel less confident or physically weaker • An operation like that is bound to knock the stuffing out of you. • It was their third defeat in a row and it really knocked the stuffing out of them.

stumbling

a stumbling block

a problem which prevents someone from achieving something • (often + to) Lack of willingness to compromise is the main stumbling block to reaching a settlement.
• Money, obviously, is a major stumbling block in any project of this size.

stump

on the stump mainly American

a politician who is on the stump is travelling to different places in order to make speeches and get support, especially before an election • On the stump in North Dakota, Anderson took time out to give this interview to our reporter.

style

cramp sb's style

to prevent someone from enjoying themselves as much as they would like, especially by going somewhere with them • Are you sure you don't mind your old mother coming along with you? I'd hate to cramp your style.

sublime

from the sublime to the ridiculous

from something that is very good or very serious to something that is very bad or silly • The evening went from the sublime to the ridiculous, an hour-long piano recital followed by two hours of karaoke.

suck

suck it and see British & Australian,

informal

to try something that you have not done before to discover what it is like or whether it will be successful • I'm not sure at this stage whether it's the right job for me - I've just got to suck it and see.

sucker

play sb for a sucker American &

Australian, very informal

to treat someone as if they are stupid • Don't try to play me for a sucker. I want to know where the rest of the money went.

suit

follow suit

to do the same as someone else has just done 🔊 If you follow suit when you are playing a card game, you put down a card with the same type of symbol on it as the card put down by the person before you.

• If other companies lower their prices, we shall have to follow suit.

SHIP

think the sun shines out (of) sb's

arse/backside British & Australian, very informal to love or admire someone so much that you do not think they have any faults • You're never going to hear Maggie criticizing Jim – she thinks the sun shines out his backside!

under the sun

everything under the sun is everything that exists or is possible • We talked about everything under the sun. • She seems to have an opinion on every subject under the sun.

supper

sing for your supper old-fashioned

to do something for someone else in order to receive something in return, especially food • Dan's upstairs fixing my computer – I'm making him sing for his supper.

sure

sure as hell American & Australian, very informal something that you say to emphasize that you are very angry or determined about something • I sure as hell wish I'd never asked him to my house.

sure thing American, informal

something that you say in order to agree to someone's request • 'Can you give me a ride tomorrow morning?' 'Sure thing – no problem.'

as sure as eggs (are/is eggs) British & Australian, old-fashioned

something that you say when you are certain about what is going to happen or what someone will do • He'll be back again next week asking for more money, sure as eggs is eggs.

be a sure thing American & Australian, informal

to be certain to happen or to succeed • It's a sure thing she'll buy the most expensive jacket in the store. • His re-election is hardly a sure thing.

surface

scratch the surface

if you scratch the surface of a subject or a problem, you only discover or deal with a very small part of it • (usually + of) Up to now newspaper articles have only scratched the surface of this tremendously complex issue.

swath

cut a swath/swathe through sth

to cause a lot of destruction, death, or harm in a particular place or among a particular group of people • Violent electrical storms cut a swath through parts of the South yesterday. • The AIDS epidemic has already cut a swath through the fashion industry.

swear

swear blind British & Australian swear up and down American & Australian # swear black and blue Australian to say that something is completely true.

especially when someone does not believe you • He swore up and down that he'd never seen the letter. • If I ask her, I know she'll swear blind she locked the door. • He swore black and blue he had nothing to do with the missing money.

sweat

by the sweat of your brow literary

if you earn the money that you use to live on by the sweat of your brow, you earn it yourself, by doing hard, often physical work • A decent, hard-working man, he supported his family by the sweat of his brow.

Don't sweat it! American, informal something that you say in order to tell someone not to worry • Don't sweat it! We've got plenty of time to get there before the show starts.

in a (cold) sweat

very frightened or anxious • I dreamed I'd left the tickets at home and woke up in a cold sweat. • Just the thought of addressing all those people is enough to bring me out in a cold sweat. (= make me feel very anxious)

sweep

sweep sth under the carpet British, American & Australian

sweep sth under the mat/rug American & Australian

to try to hide a problem or keep a problem secret instead of dealing with it • The incident has forced into the open an issue that the government would rather have swept under the carpet. • The evidence was on film and the police couldn't just sweep it under the rug.

sweet

sweet Fanny Adams informal sweet FA very informal

nothing (*) 'Fanny Adams' and 'FA' are used in this expression to avoid saying 'fuck all'. • Why's Mark dispensing advice? He knows sweet Fanny Adams about computers! • And what did we get for all our hard work? Sweet FA!

sweet nothings X

romantic things that people who are in love say to each other • He kept leaning across the table, whispering sweet nothings in her ear.

a sweet deal American & Australian, informal

a very good business agreement or arrangement • It's a sweet deal for the companies who get these franchises.

a sweet tooth

if you have a sweet tooth, you like eating food with sugar in it • It's things like chocolate and cake that I can't resist – I've got a real sweet tooth.

cop it sweet Australian, informal

to be lucky in a way that you did not expect • We copped it sweet this afternoon – the boss went home early.

keep sb sweet

to do things to please someone so that they help you or treat you well in the future • I like to keep the neighbours sweet in case we have to borrow a ladder or something from them.

sweet-talk

sweet-talk sb into doing sth

to persuade someone to do something by saying nice things to them • Don't let him sweet-talk you into staying the night.

swing

swing both ways informal

to be sexually attracted to both men and women • I've seen her out with men as well. She swings both ways, you know.

get into the swing of it/things

to become familiar with an activity or situation so that you can start doing it well or enjoying it • I was just getting into the swing of things when they transferred me to another department. • I hadn't worked in an office for a few years and it took me a while to get back into the swing of it.

go with a swing British, old-fashioned

if an event, especially a party, goes with a swing, it is very exciting and successful • A traditional jazz band – now that would help your party go with a swing.

swings

it's swings and roundabouts British & Australian

what you lose on the swings, you gain on the roundabouts British &

Australian

something that you say to describe a situation in which there are as many advantages as there are problems • If you make more money, you have to pay more tax, so what we gain on the swings, we lose on the roundabouts. • It's swings and roundabouts, really. If you save money by buying a house out of town, you pay more to travel to work.

sword

a sword of Damocles hangs over sb's head literary

a sword of Damocles hangs over sb literary

if a sword of Damocles hangs over someone, they are in a situation where something bad is likely to happen to them very soon in This phrase comes from a story about Damocles who had to eat his food with a sword hanging over him which was tied up by a single hair. • You live with this sword of Damocles hanging over your head, knowing that you carry the virus for a deadly disease.

swords

beat/turn swords into ploughshares

forma

to stop preparing for war and to start using the money you previously spent on weapons to improve people's lives • It would have been unrealistic to expect a country like the United States to turn swords into ploughshares the moment the Cold War ended.

cross swords with sb

to argue with someone • We don't always agree, in fact I've crossed swords with her several times at committee meetings.

system

get it out of your system

to get rid of a bad feeling or a need to do something, often by expressing that feeling or by doing whatever it is that you want to do • If she wants to see the world, it's best that she does it now, while she's young, and gets it out of her system.

• There's a lot of anger in me and I have to do something to get it out of my system.

systems

all systems go

something that you say which means everything is ready for a piece of work or period of activity to start • We've just got to get the software put in place and then it's all systems go.

1

to a T

perfectly . That hat suits you to a T.

table

bring sb to the [bargaining/peace etc.]

to persuade a person or a country to join discussions in order to find a solution to a problem • We hope to be able to bring the warring factions to the negotiating table to try to end this conflict.

come to the [bargaining/peace etc.] table • You have to be prepared to make concessions when you come to the bargaining table.

drink sb under the table informal

if you can drink someone under the table, you can drink a lot more alcohol than they can • I like a few beers but Mel can drink me under the table.

on the table

- 1 if a plan or offer is on the table, it has been officially suggested and is now being discussed or thought about • The offer on the table is an 8% increase on last year's wages. • At 6 p.m. on Thursday 29 April, a new deal was put on the table.
- 2 American if a plan is on the table, no one is dealing with it at present but it has not been completely forgotten The committee agreed to leave the option to build a stadium in the city on the table.

under the table American & Australian money that is paid under the table is paid secretly, usually because it is illegal • A lot of these people work 80-hour weeks with all or half of their salaries paid under the table.

under-the-table American • There have been allegations of under-the-table payments to football players.

tables

turn the tables on sb

to change a situation so that you now have an advantage over someone who previously had an advantage over you • She turned the tables on her rival with allegations of corruption.

The tables are turned. • In the past it was always Dan who was having affairs while Lucy stuck by him. Now the tables are turned.

tabs

keep tabs on sth/sb

to watch a person or a situation carefully so that you always know what they are doing or what is happening • I like to keep tabs on my bank balance so that I don't get overdrawn. • I get the feeling he's keeping tabs on me and watching my every move.

tack

change tack

try a different tack

to start using a different method for dealing with a situation, especially in the way that you communicate • I've been very pleasant with them so far but if they don't cooperate, I may have to change tack. • Instead of always asking him what he wants, why don't you try a different tack

tail

the tail end of sth

the last part of something • I just caught the tail end of the news. • Despite being at the tail end of an exhausting tour, she delivered a sparkling performance.

the tail wagging the dog

and tell him what you want?

if you describe a situation as the tail wagging the dog, you mean that the least important part of a situation has too much influence over the most important part • Steve thinks we should buy an orange carpet to match the lampshade but I think that would be a case of the tail wagging the dog.

be (sitting) on your tail

to be driving too close behind you • That Volvo's been sitting on my tail for the past ten minutes and it's starting to really annoy me.

get off your tail American, very informal to stop being lazy and start doing something . (often an order) You've just got to get off your tail and start looking for a job.

turn tail informal

to run away, usually because you are frightened . When I saw him my first impulse was to turn tail and flee.

with your tail between your legs

if you leave somewhere with your tail between your legs, you leave feeling ashamed and embarrassed because you have failed or made a mistake Dogs often put their tail between their legs when someone has spoken angrily to them. . The losing team walked off with their tails between their legs.

tailor-made

be tailor-made

to be completely suitable for someone or something • (usually + for) The role of Emma was tailor-made for her.

tailor-made

specially made for a particular purpose • (often + for) Business schools are offering courses tailor-made for a firm's executives.

take

take sth as it comes

to deal with something as it happens and not plan for it . At my age you take every day as it comes.

Take a hike/walk! American, informal an impolite way of telling someone to go away . The guy kept pestering her, and finally she told him to take a hike.

Take it from me.

something that you say in order to emphasize that you have experience of something, and therefore what you say about it is true • Take it from me - if you start ironing a man's shirts, you'll be doing it for the rest of your life.

Take it or leave it.

something that you say when you have made an offer to someone and you want them to know that you are not going to change that offer in any way . That's my final offer. Take it or leave it.

take-it-or-leave-it · (always before noun) It was a firm take-it-or-leave-it proposition.

take the cake British, American & Australian

take the biscuit British & Australian

if you say that something someone has said or done takes the cake, you mean that it was very bad, and even worse than things they have said or done before · She's been opening my letters - that really takes the cake!

I can take it or leave it.

something that you say which means that you do not hate something but you do not like it very much . My sister's absolutely crazy about chocolate whereas I can take it or leave it.

take-it-or-leave-it . He's pretty take-it-orleave-it about opera - I wouldn't waste the ticket on him.

taken

have taken leave of your senses old-

fashioned

if you have taken leave of your senses, you are behaving in a strange or silly way · (often used in questions) You're leaving your family and your job to travel round the world, at your age? Have you taken leave of your senses?

taking

be yours for the taking be there for the taking

if something good is yours for the taking, it would be very easy for you to get or achieve . She fell on the third lap, just as the gold medal was hers for the taking. • If you're interested in the job, it's there for the taking.

be like taking candy from a baby

American, informal

be as easy as taking candy from a baby

American, informal

to be very easy . Beating them was the easiest thing in the world - it was like taking candy from a baby.

tale

live to tell the tale

to still be alive after a dangerous or frightening experience • I should imagine very few people have fallen from that height and lived to tell the tale. • I had dinner with her and lived to tell the tale.

Thereby/Therein hangs a tale. British & Australian, humorous

something that you say when you have been asked about something that needs a long explanation . 'So what were you doing in Nick's garage at three o'clock in the morning?' 'Ah, thereby hangs a tale.

tales

tell tales

to tell someone in authority about something bad that someone has done because you want to cause trouble for them • (often + about) She wasn't very popular at school - she was the sort of kid who was always telling tales about other kids. . I had half a mind to tell my boss about him but I didn't want her to think I was telling tales.

tell-tale · Bullying often goes unreported because children don't want to be seen as tell-tales.

talk

be all talk (and no action)

if someone is all talk, they often talk about doing something brave or exciting but never do it . He's always saying that he's going to leave and get another job but he'll never do it. He's all talk.

be the talk of the town old-fashioned to be the person or subject that everyone is talking about and interested in . T didn't realise anyone knew I was seeing Pete at the time.' 'It was the talk of the town, Kath!'

could talk under water Australian. informal

could talk under wet cement Australian, informal someone who could talk under water has a lot to say in any situation . Most of our guests were very quiet, but Harry could talk under water, so he kept the conversation going.

You can talk! British, American & Australian, informal

You should talk! American, informal something that you say when someone criticizes another person for doing something that they do themselves . 'He's a terrible driver.' 'You can talk!' . And you're telling me I'm lazy? You should talk!

talking

be like talking to a brick wall

if talking to someone is like talking to a brick wall, the person you are speaking to does not listen • I've tried to discuss my feelings with her, but it's like talking to a brick wall.

be talking through your hat old-

fashioned, informal

to be talking about a subject as if you know a lot about it when in fact you know very little . The man's talking through his hat. He doesn't know the first thing about banking.

Look who's talking! informal

something that you say when someone criticizes another person for doing something that they do themselves . 'She drinks too much, that's her problem.' 'Look who's talking!'

Now you're talking!

something that you say when someone makes a better suggestion or offer than one that they made before . 'Or we could go out for dinner if you prefer.' 'Now you're talking!'

tall

a tall story/tale

a story or a statement that is difficult to believe because it is too exciting or interesting • He told me a tall story about having met some top models in a nightclub.

be a tall order

if a piece of work or request is a tall order, it is very difficult to do . 'They've given us three weeks to get the project finished.' 'That's a tall order.'

384

stand/walk tall

to be proud of yourself and confident of your abilities • For the first time in living memory, we have a leader who can stand tall in international gatherings.

tandem

in tandem

if two things happen or are used in tandem, they happen or are used at the same time, and if two people do something in tandem, they do it together • (often + with) The new system is designed to be used in tandem with the existing communications network. • She often works in tandem with a psychologist, one writing the software and the other advising on likely user reaction.

tangent

go off on a tangent British, American & Australian

go off at a tangent British

to suddenly start talking about a different subject • We were talking about property prices and you went off on a tangent.

tangled

a tangled web

a situation that is very complicated and where many people are behaving dishonestly • (usually + of) The inquiry revealed a tangled web of fraud and deception among the agents.

tanked

be tanked up informal

to be drunk • (sometimes + on) We were tanked up on gin and orange juice.

tap

on tap

available and ready to use • Working in a library, I have all this information on tap.

taped

have sb taped British & Australian,

informal

to know that someone is doing something bad and therefore be able to deal with them • Spencer doesn't worry me – I've got him taped.

tar

beat/knock the tar out of sb American, informal

to keep hitting someone hard, or to completely defeat someone • We used to fight a lot as kids and he always beat the tar out of me. • He was tired of her knocking the tar out of him when they played checkers.

task

take sb to task

to criticize someone angrily for something that they have done • (often + for) She took my father to task for getting drunk at my cousin's wedding.

tea

tea and sympathy old-fashioned

kindness and sympathy that you show to someone who is upset • Sometimes people want practical advice and sometimes they just want tea and sympathy.

would not do sth for all the tea in China old-fashioned

if you say that you would not do something for all the tea in China, you mean that nothing could persuade you to do it • I wouldn't be a teacher for all the tea in China.

tears

It'll (all) end in tears.

something that you say which means something will end badly and the people involved will be upset • She only met him in May and they were married by July. It'll end in tears, you'll see.

reduce sb to tears

to make someone cry • His classmates jeered, reducing him to tears.

tee

to a tee

perfectly . The beef was cooked to a tee.

teeth

cut your teeth British, American & Australian

cut your eye teeth American

to get your first experience of a particular type of work and learn the basic skills • (often + on) She cut her teeth on a local newspaper before landing a job on a national daily.

get/sink your teeth into sth

to start to do something with a lot of energy and enthusiasm • Up till then she'd only had small parts in films and nothing she could get her teeth into. • It's a really exciting project—I can't wait to sink my teeth into it.

grit your teeth

to accept a difficult situation and deal with it in a determined way • I can't do anything to change the situation so I'll just have to grit my teeth and put up with it.

have teeth

if a law or organization has teeth, it has the power to make people obey it • The committee can make recommendations but it has no real teeth.

in the teeth of sth

if something happens or is done in the teeth of difficulties, the difficulties cause problems but do not stop it • The road was built in the teeth of fierce opposition from environmentalists.

lie through your teeth

to tell someone something that you know is completely false • The man's lying through his teeth. He never said anything of the sort.

show your teeth

to show that you are angry and prepared to defend yourself • Come on, let him know you're angry - show your teeth!

teething

teething problems/troubles

problems that you experience in the early stages of an activity Definition (= getting their first set of teeth) they are often in pain and cry a lot.

There were the usual teething troubles at the start of the project, but that's to be expected. Many marriages go through teething problems in the first few months.

tell

tell sb where to get off informal

to angrily refuse to do what someone wants you to do, usually using direct or rude language • She wanted to borrow money again so I told her where to get off.

tell it like it is to describe a situation honestly, not avoiding any of the unpleasant details • There's no point pretending to young women that having a baby doesn't hurt. You've got to tell it like it is. • She's a straight talker, is Karen. She tells it like it is.

Tell me about it! informal something that you say in order to show sympathy to someone who has the same problem or bad experience as you • 'T've got so much work to do.' 'Tell me about it!'

Tell me another (one)! informal something that you say when you do not believe what someone has just said • 'I never drive over the speed limit.' 'Oh, yeah? Tell me another one.'

telling

You're telling me! informal

something that you say to emphasize that you agree with something someone has just complained about because you have experienced it yourself • 'Brenda's really bad-tempered these days.' 'You're telling me!'

tempers

tempers fray

tempers become fraved

if tempers fray among a group of people, they all become angry • Tempers frayed when, after waiting for hours, we were told there were no tickets left.

frayed tempers • Traffic jams inevitably lead to frayed tempers.

tempest

a tempest in a teapot American

a situation where people get very angry or worried about something that is not important • (not used with the) The whole affair is just a tempest in a teapot. In a couple of months everyone will have forgotten about it.

tempt

tempt fate/providence

1 to do something which involves a risk and may cause something unpleasant to happen • I always feel it's tempting fate to leave the house without an umbrella.

2 to cause bad luck for yourself by talking too confidently about a situation • It's probably tempting fate to say so, but I haven't had a cold all year.

tender

leave sb to sb's tender mercies humorous to let someone be dealt with by another person who is not likely to show them any kindness or sympathy • Should I have a word with her myself or leave her to Mick's tender mercies?

tenterhooks

on tenterhooks

nervously waiting to find out what is going to happen • She waited on tenterhooks for James to call. • We were kept on tenterhooks all morning waiting for his decision.

term

in the long/medium/short term

a long, medium, or short time in the future • Cuts in company spending now should lead to profits in the long term. • In the short term, temporary housing will be provided for all of the flood victims.

long-/short-/medium-term • (always before noun) Have you made any long-term plans? • Medium-term funding may be offered to help start new projects in developing countries.

terms

be on good terms with sb

to be friendly with someone • We were always on good terms with our neighbours.

OPPOSITE be on bad terms with sb • It doesn't help matters if you're on bad terms with your doctor.

come to terms with sth

to start to accept and deal with a difficult situation • She's never really come to terms with her son's death. • It's very hard coming to terms with the fact that you'll never have children.

territory

come/go with the territory

if you say that something comes with the territory, you mean that you have to accept it as a necessary part or result of a particular situation • If you're a goalkeeper, you've got to expect injuries—it comes with the territory. • He's a public figure, and so a certain amount of media intrusion goes with the territory.

test

stand the test of time X

if something stands the test of time, it remains popular or respected for a long time • Very little of the drama from this period has stood the test of time.

tête à tête

a tête à tête

a private conversation between two people • They were obviously having a romantic tête à tête so I didn't disturb them.

tête à tête • We dined tête à tête (= in private) in a cosy little French restaurant near the river.

thanks

no thanks to sb

if you have done something no thanks to a particular person, you have done it although they did not help you or tried to prevent you • Well, we've finished the painting, no thanks to Sandra who suddenly decided she had to go away for the weekend!

that

and that's that!

something that you say which means you will not change your decision, although other people want you to • Anyway, I'm not going to the wedding, and that's that!
• You're not having any more chocolate, Joe, and that's that!

them

them and us

in a them and us situation, two groups of people believe they are very different from each other and do not like each other, often because one group has more power than the other • Separate restaurants for managers and staff have reinforced the them and us divide.

there

there and then then and there

if you do something there and then, you do it immediately • She booked me in to see the consultant there and then.

There, there. old-fashioned

something that you say to comfort someone, especially a child • There, there. You'll feel better in a minute.

You've got me there. informal something that you say when you do not know the answer to a question • 'How many miles is five kilometres?' 'You've got me there.'

thick

be as thick as thieves old-fashioned

if two people are thick as thieves, they are close friends • I'm sure she tells Ruth what's going on – they're as thick as thieves, those two.

be as thick as two short planks British, informal

be as thick as shit British, taboo

to be very stupid • He might be goodlooking but he's as thick as two short planks. • Most of the people who read these papers are as thick as shit anyway.

be in the thick of sth

to be very involved at the busiest or most active stage of a situation or activity • A fierce debate ensued and he found himself in the thick of it. • I can't talk right now — I'm in the thick of things. • When you're in the thick of the action, you don't always have time to think.

through thick and thin

if you stay with or support someone through thick and thin, you always stay with or support them, even in difficult situations • That's what relationships are about – you stick with someone through thick and thin. • She remained loyal to the party through thick and thin.

thick-skinned

thick-skinned

if you are thick-skinned, you do not notice or get upset when people criticize you • You have to be a bit harsher than that with Caroline to offend her - she's pretty thick-skinned.

a thick skin • As a politician, you get so much criticism levelled at you that you eventually develop a thick skin.

thin

the thin end of the wedge British &

Australian

the start of a harmful development • There are those who see the closure of the hospital as the thin end of the wedge.

be (skating/walking) on thin ice

to be taking a big risk • They knew that by publishing the article they were skating on thin ice.

be as thin as a rake British, American & Australian

be as thin as a rail mainly American

to be very thin • He eats like a horse and yet he's as thin as a rake. • She's as thin as a rail from all that running.

be as thin as a stick

to be very thin • She used to be as thin as a stick.

stick-thin • I remember her as a stick-thin teenager dressed all in black.

be thin on top

if a man is thin on top, there is not much hair on the top of his head • He hasn't gone grey but he's a bit thin on top.

go thin on top • He had really nice hair when he was younger but he's going a bit thin on top now.

have a thin time (of it) British &

Australian

to experience a difficult period, often because you do not have enough money

 Rob lost his job last year and they've been having a thin time of it.

out of thin air from thin air

if something appears or is made out of thin air, it suddenly and mysteriously appears or is made • Using volunteers from the audience, he makes cards appear out of thin air. • You can't just create wealth from thin air. 388 disappear/vanish into thin air • He ran away eight years ago and it was as though he vanished into thin air. • Have you seen my calculator? It seems to have disappeared into thin air.

spread yourself too thin

to try to do too many things at the same time, so that you cannot give enough time or attention to any of them • I realised I'd been spreading myself too thin so I resigned as secretary of the golf club.

wear thin

- 1 if your patience wears thin, you become less and less patient (often in continuous tenses) I've warned you several times about being late and my patience is wearing thin.
- 2 if a joke, an excuse, or an explanation wears thin, it becomes less effective because it has been used too much (often in continuous tenses) This excuse about not having enough staff to run the trains is wearing rather thin, don't you think?

thing

be a thing of the past

to be something that does not exist or happen any more • When video recorders were introduced, people said that the cinema would be a thing of the past. • Job security is a thing of the past.

the best/greatest thing since sliced bread humorous

if someone or something is described as the best thing since sliced bread, people think they are extremely good, often better than they really are • Portable phones are marketed as the best thing since sliced bread, but to me they're just another expensive gadget. • The way he goes on about her – you'd think she was the greatest thing since sliced bread.

the done thing British, American & Australian

the thing to do American

the correct way to behave in a particular social situation • (usually negative) Wearing jeans in an office environment isn't really the done thing. • You can't smoke during the meal. It's not the thing to do.

have a thing about sth/sb

- 1 informal to like something or someone very much or to be very interested in them • I've got a thing about jackets - I must have twenty or so in my wardrobe. • He's got a thing about blondes.
- 2 informal to hate something or someone, or to be frightened of them Andrew's got a thing about children's TV presenters he absolutely can't stand them.

know a thing or two informal

to have a lot of practical skills and knowledge learnt through experience • (usually + about) My uncle grew up on a farm and knows a thing or two about looking after animals.

[show/teach/tell etc.] sb a thing or two

• (usually + about) Julie - now she could teach you a thing or two about dealing with men.

things

things have come to/reached a pretty pass

something that you say which means a situation is very bad • (often + when) Things have come to a pretty pass when old people are dying of hypothermia because they can't afford to heat their homes.

be all things to all men

to try to please everyone, even when it is impossible to do this • You can't possibly keep everyone happy and you've just got to realize that you can't be all things to all men.

(all) other things being equal all things being equal

if everything happens as you expect it to happen • All things being equal, I should be home by Thursday.

think

I dread/shudder to think

something that you say when you do not want to think about something because it is too worrying or too unpleasant • (usually + question word) He was going so fast – I dread to think what would have happened if my brakes hadn't worked.

thinking

the thinking man's/woman's crumpet

British, humorous

a man or woman who is popular with the opposite sex because they are both intelligent and sexually attractive • Paxman has apparently grown weary of being labelled the thinking woman's crumpet.

put your thinking cap on

to start to think seriously about how to solve a problem • Let me put my thinking cap on and see if I can come up with an answer.

thinks

If sb thinks sth, they've got another thing/think coming! informal

something that you say when you are angry with someone because they are expecting you to do something for them that you do not want to do • If he thinks I'm going to do the work for free, he's got another think coming!

think-tank

a think-tank

a group of people established by a government or organization in order to advise them on particular subjects and to suggest ideas • The pamphlet was published by the Adam Smith Institute, a right-wing think-tank. • Loren Thompson is a military analyst at the Alexis de Tocqueville Institute, a new Washington think-tank.

thin-skinned

thin-skinned

if you are thin-skinned, you are too easily upset when other people criticize you • You can't be too thin-skinned if you're in the public eye.

a thin skin • For someone who's always saying unpleasant things to other people, he's got a remarkably thin skin.

third

the third degree informal

a situation in which someone tries to find out information by asking you a lot of questions • Where have I been, who have I been with! What's this? The third degree?
• If I'm even half an hour late she gives me the third degree. • I got the third degree from my dad when I got in last night.

thorn

be a thorn in sb's flesh/side

someone or something that keeps annoying you or causing you trouble • A relentless campaigner, he was a thorn in the government's side for years.

thought

I thought as much!

something that you say when you discover that something you thought was true is really true • So they are having an affair? I thought as much!

Perish the thought!

something that you say which means you hope very much that something does not happen • If his father came to live with us, perish the thought, I can't imagine what strain that would put on our relationship.

thread

hang by a thread

if something hangs by a thread, it is likely to fail in the near future • Peace and democracy hang by a thread in this troubled country.

threads

pick up the threads of sth

to try to start something again, especially after problems prevented you from continuing it • In '97, I came out of prison and tried to pick up the threads of my life.

three

the three R's

reading, writing, and arithmetic (= mathematics) • By the age of 6, all our pupils have a firm grasp of the three R's.

be three sheets to the wind old-

fashioned

to be drunk • Bobby was already three sheets to the wind when we arrived.

three-ring

a three-ring circus American & Australian a lot of noisy or confused activity • It's a three-ring circus in that classroom – the kids can't possibly be learning anything.

threshold

be on the threshold of doing sth

to be likely to do something soon • Finland's Conservatives were on the threshold of joining a coalition government.

be on the threshold of sth

if someone or something is on the threshold of a situation, that situation is likely to happen soon • He was on the threshold of a great career.

stand on the threshold of sth • We are standing on the threshold of environmental collapse.

thrilled

be thrilled to bits British, American & Australian, informal be thrilled to pieces American, informal to be extremely pleased • 'So what did your parents say when they heard you were pregnant?' 'Oh, they were thrilled to bits.'

throat

jump down sb's throat

to react angrily to something that someone says or does • She's been very irritable recently, jumping down my throat every time I open my mouth.

ram sth down sb's throat informal

if someone rams their opinions or ideas down your throat, they force you to listen to them and try to make you accept them *And although he's got very strong views on such subjects, he doesn't try to ram them down your throat. * He's a committed Christian but he doesn't ram it down your throat.

take sth by the throat

to make a determined attempt to deal with something • The Rockets took this game by the throat in the first quarter and never let go till the final minutes.

throats

be at each other's throats

if two people are at each other's throats, they are arguing angrily • When we lived together, we were always at each other's throats.

throes

be in the throes of sth/doing sth

to be experiencing a very difficult or unpleasant period • The country is presently in the throes of the worst recession since the second world war. • We're in the throes of moving house at the moment.

through

be a [Londoner/patriot/politician etc.] through and through

be [French/good/honest etc.] through and through

if someone is a Londoner etc. or is French etc. through and through, they behave in a way that is typical of such a person and that is the most important part of their character • He always managed to say the right thing. He was a politician through and through. • She never really settled in England. She was French through and through.

know sb through and through

to know someone very well and know everything about them • She tried to hide her disappointment, but I know her through and through and I could tell she was upset.

throw

throw in the sponge/towel informal

to stop trying to do something because you know that you cannot succeed © If a boxer (= man who fights as a sport) throws a towel into the ring, he is showing that the other boxer has won.

• Three of the original five candidates have now thrown in the towel.

thumb

be under sb's thumb

if you are under someone's thumb, they control you completely • The committee is firmly under his thumb and will agree to whatever he asks.

be under the thumb British & Australian, informal if a man is under the thumb, he is completely controlled by his wife • He won't be able to do any of this without his wife's permission. He's under the thumb these days.

thumbs

be all fingers and thumbs British & Australian

be all thumbs American

to be awkward with your hands and keep making mistakes • Can you thread this needle for me? I'm all thumbs today. • You know when you get nervous and you're all fingers and thumbs.

give sth the thumbs down

to show that you do not like or approve of something, or that you will not allow something to happen • The committee gave my suggestion the thumbs down.

get the thumbs down • (often + from) My new hairstyle got the thumbs down from my family.

give sth the thumbs up X

to show that you like or approve of something or that you are happy for something to happen • We all gave Mary's cake the thumbs up. • A new injectable treatment has been given the thumbs up by the authority.

get the thumbs up • (often + from) We got the thumbs up from the council to hold a fireworks party on the village green.

twiddle your thumbs

to have nothing useful to do while you are waiting for something to happen • Until I get the go-ahead, I'm just sitting around twiddling my thumbs.

thunder

have a face like thunder look like thunder

to have a very angry expression • I don't know what had happened but he had a face like thunder. • She didn't say anything but she looked like thunder.

with a face like thunder • He sat there with a face like thunder all evening.

steal sb's thunder

to do something that takes attention away from what someone else has done ♠ In the 17th century the writer John Dennis built a machine which made sounds like thunder for one of his plays, but the idea was copied by someone else and used in another play. • I kept quiet about my pregnancy because Cathy was getting married, and I didn't want to steal her thunder.

tick

what makes sb tick

if you know what makes someone tick, you understand the reasons for their behaviour and personality • A good salesperson knows what makes a customer tick.

tickled

be tickled pink/to death old-fashioned

to be extremely pleased about something • Val was tickled pink when Susan asked her to be bridesmaid at her wedding.

tide

The tide is the way the sea moves towards or away from the land. Tide is used in the following phrases connected with agreeing with or fighting against most other people.

drift with the tide

to agree with other people without thinking about things for yourself and making your own decisions • We are looking for someone with the ability to lead rather than just drift with the tide.

go/swim against the tide

to do the opposite of what most other people are doing • It's not easy to go against the tide in defence of your principles. • (sometimes + of) He always seemed to be swimming against the tide of public opinion.

opposite go/swim with the tide • If you don't feel strongly about an issue, you may as well just swim with the tide.

stem the tide

to stop something bad which is happening a lot • (often + of) We have to stem the tide of emigration if our economy is to recover. • Ohio State were losing 24-48 when Jackson stepped in to stem the tide.

turn the tide

to change a situation or people's opinions to the opposite of what they were before • The government had planned cuts in the armed forces, but when war broke out, the military saw a chance to turn the tide.

the tide turns • The tide has turned and the cinema is becoming popular again.

tied

be tied to your mother's apron strings

if someone, usually a man, is tied to their mother's apron strings, they still need their mother and cannot think or act independently • He's 30 but he's still tied to his mother's apron strings.

tight

be in a tight corner/spot

to be in a difficult situation • She had been in tight corners before and had always managed to get out of them.

keep a tight rein on sb/sth keep sb/sth on a tight rein

to have a lot of control over someone or something • He made ends meet by keeping a tight rein on his budget. • Our parents always kept us on a pretty tight rein.

run a tight ship

to control a business or other organization firmly and effectively • Ruth runs a tight ship and has no time for shirkers.

sit tight informal

- to remain in a place, usually sitting down Just sit tight while I go and phone for
  - help. Sit tight and don't move that leg.
- 2 to not take any action while you wait for something to happen • Shareholders are advised to sit tight and see how the situation develops.

tight-arse

- a tight-arse British & Australian, very informal
- a tight-ass American, very informal a person who does not like to spend money or give it to other people You won't get a drink out of her, she's a real tight-arse.

tight-arsed

be tight-arsed British & Australian, very informal be tight-assed American, very informal to be worried about small details that are not important • Don't ask Jack to get involved, he's so tight-assed and really irritating.

tight-lipped be tight-lipped

- 1 to have an angry expression Dad was harassed and tight-lipped and I thought he was going to lose his temper.
- 2 to not give any information about something • (usually + about) Army spokesmen are tight-lipped about planned operations.

tightrope

walk a tightrope

to act very carefully so that you avoid either of two opposite bad situations Atightrope is a tightly stretched wire or rope fixed high above the ground which someone walks across in order to entertain people. • (often + between) Many manufacturers have to walk a tightrope between overpricing their goods and pricing them so low that they make no profit.

tiles

be/go out on the tiles British &

Australian, informal

to enjoy yourself by going to things like parties or dances • 'My head is thumping.' 'Oh yes? Were you out on the tiles last night?'

a night (out) on the tiles informal • Do you fancy going out to a club? It's ages since we had a night on the tiles.

till

have your fingers/hand in the till

to steal money from the place where you work, usually from a shop • He had his fingers in the till, that's why he lost his job. catch sb with their fingers/hand in the till • (usually passive) Senior officials who get caught with their fingers in the till must expect to be punished very severely.

time

time after time time again

if something happens or is done time after time, it happens or is done many times • Time after time we were left without electricity. • I've told him time and time again not to bring those mice indoors.

Time flies when you're having fun.

something that you say which means that time passes quickly when you are enjoying yourself © Often used humorously when you are talking about an activity which was not enjoyable. • 'I can't believe we've spent four hours cleaning this carpet.' Well, time flies when you're having fun.'

Time flies.

How time flies!

something that you say which means that time passes very quickly, often so quickly that you are surprised • I can't believe your son is at university already. How time flies! • I never seem to manage to finish my work. The time just flies.

time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's hands)

if time hangs heavy, it seems to pass slowly because you do not have enough to do • Time hangs heavy on your hands in prison.

Time will tell.

something that you say which means that the result of something will be clear after a period of time • I don't know if this marriage will work, but time will tell. • Only time will tell if the business will be successful.

the time is ripe

if the time is ripe for something, it is a good time to do it or for it to happen • (often + for) British socialists were convinced that the time was ripe for fundamental social change. • (often + to do sth) Many employers feel the time is ripe to give workforces a bigger share of the profits they have helped to create.

About time too!

(And) not before time!

something that you say when someone tells you about something which has happened, in order to show that you think it should have happened a long time ago • 'They're widening the road outside the school.' 'About time too!'

be before your time

if something was before your time, it happened before you were born or before you were involved with a person or thing

• 'Do you remember the Watergate scandal?' 'No, that was before my time.'

bide your time

to wait patiently for a good opportunity to do something • She was biding her time until she could get her revenge.

do time informal X

to spend time in prison • We did time together in Broadmoor. • (often + for) He did time for tax evasion in 1976.

for the time being

if you describe how a situation will be for the time being, you mean it will be like that for a period of time, but may change in the future • You can stay with us for the time being. • We've decided to do without a car for the time being.

from time to time

if something happens or is done from time to time, it happens or is done sometimes, but not regularly • From time to time we heard a rumble of thunder: • We cycle into town from time to time.

from/since time immemorial literary

for longer than anyone can remember • Her family had farmed that land from time immemorial.

not give sb the time of day informal

to refuse to speak to someone because you do not like them or because you think you are better than them • He's so arrogant, he won't even give you the time of day.

have a lot of time for sb/sth

to like and admire someone or something • I've got a lot of time for Jenny. She always has something interesting to say.

• I've got a lot of time for his ideas about child psychology.

opposite not have much time for sb/sth have no time for sb/sth • I've got no time for negative people. • She doesn't have much time for liberal ideas about dealing with criminals.

have the time of your life informal to enjoy yourself very much • He had the time of his life working on the ranch.

have time on your hands

to have time when you have nothing to do • Now that her children are all at school, she has a lot of time on her hands.

have time on your side time is on your side

to have enough time to do something without having to hurry • There is plenty of time for you to have a baby. At twenty-five you still have time on your side.

kill time

to do something which is not very useful or interesting while you are waiting for time to pass • We usually play guessing games to kill time at airports.

mark time

to do something which is not very interesting while you are waiting to start doing something more important • (usually in continuous tenses) She's just marking time in her father's shop until it's time to go to university.

once upon a time literary

- 1 a long time ago This phrase is often used as a way of beginning children's stories. Once upon a time there lived a young girl called Cinderella.
- 2 if you say that something happened once upon a time, you mean that it happened in the past and you wish that it still happened now • Once upon a time, everyone knew each other in this town and nobody bothered locking their doors.

pass the time of day

to have a short conversation with someone about things which are not important • (often + with) The old man liked to pass the time of day with his neighbours.

play for time

to try to delay something so that you have more time to prepare for it • We can't sign the agreement yet – we'll have to play for time.

There's a time and a place.

something that you say when someone is behaving in a way which you do not think is suitable for the situation they are in • How could she wear a dress like that to a funeral? Honestly, there's a time and a place. • (often + for) I don't like to see people kissing in the street. There's a time and a place for that sort of thing.

There's no time like the present.

something that you say in order to show that you think it is a good idea to do something immediately • 'When do you think I should phone Mr Hughes about that job?' 'Well, there's no time like the present.'

There's no time to lose.

something that you say when it is important to do something immediately • Her plane gets in at 3 o'clock so there's no time to lose.

have no time to lose • Come on, we've no time to lose if we want to catch the ferry.

time-out

time-out mainly American

something that you say when you want people to stop what they are doing for a short time, especially when they are having an argument • OK, time-out. We can calm down over a cup of coffee.

times

be behind the times

to be old-fashioned and not know much about modern life • I'd never even heard of half the groups he listens to. I'm a bit behind the times, I'm afraid.
• Educationally, these schools are 20 years behind the times.

change/keep up/move with the times

to change your way of living or working to make it modern • I don't really like using a computer, but you have to move with the times, I suppose.

tin

a tin ear informal

if someone has a tin ear, they do not have a natural ability to understand or enjoy music • Even to someone with a tin ear like mine, their singing sounded pretty awful.

a (little) tin god literary

someone who behaves as if they are more important or powerful than they really are • Have you seen him over there, acting like a little tin god?

tinker

not give a tinker's cuss British & Australian, old-fashioned not give a tinker's damn American, oldfashioned to not be interested in or worried about something or someone • (often + question word) I don't give a tinker's cuss what she thinks, I'll do what I want! • He's never given a tinker's damn for me, or for any of the family.

tinkle

give sb a tinkle old-fashioned, informal to telephone someone • Okay then, I'll give you a tinkle when I get home.

tip

the tip of the iceberg

a small part of a problem or a difficult situation which is really much larger than it seems An iceberg is a very large mass of ice that floats in the sea and often it is only possible to see a small part of it.

• What you saw last night was just the tip of the iceberg.

• The difficulties we've discussed are only the tip of the iceberg.

be on the tip of your tongue

if something you want to say is on the tip of your tongue, you think you know it and that you will be able to remember it very soon • Now what's her name again? Hang on, it's on the tip of my tongue.

tired

be tired and emotional British &

Australian, humorous

to be drunk • Professor Davis looked a bit tired and emotional, to say the least.

tit-for-tat

tit-for-tat informal

a tit-for-tat action is something bad that you do to someone because they have done something bad to you • (always before noun) Six of the victims died in tit-for-tat attacks.

tit for tat informal • I forgot her birthday and so she didn't send me a card either. It was just tit for tat.

tits

get on sb's tits British, very informal to annoy someone • You just expect me to clean up after you the whole time and I tell you it's really getting on my tits. • This woman I work with has been getting on my tits recently.

tittle-tattle

tittle-tattle informal

talk about other people's lives that is usually unkind or not true • They know that tittle-tattle about the royal family helps to sell newspapers.

tizz

send/throw sb into a tizz/tizzy informal to make someone very upset, excited, or confused • The idea of producing a meal for fifty people threw her into a tizzy.

be in a tizz/tizzy informal • The local press is in a complete tizzy about the murders.

toast

be the toast of sh

to be liked and admired by a group of people • His charm and wit made him the toast of Paris. • After rave reviews of her play, she is the toast of the town.

tod

on your tod British, informal alone Dod is the short form of the Cockney rhyming slang (= an informal kind of language used in parts of London) 'Tod Sloan' which means alone.

 Poor old Reg was there on his tod, trying to get the job finished.

today

here today, gone tomorrow

if something or someone is here today, gone tomorrow, they only exist or stay in one place for a short time • He had a string of girlfriends, but they were always here today, gone tomorrow.

toes

keep sb on their toes

to force someone to continue giving all their attention and energy to what they are doing • He gave me a couple of extra things to do just to keep me on my toes.

make sb's toes curl British & Australian

if an experience makes your toes curl, it makes you feel extremely embarrassed and ashamed for someone else • The very thought of what she said makes my toes curl.

toe-curling British & Australian (always before noun) She gave a toecurling performance on the guitar.

make sb's toes curl American curl sb's toes American

to frighten or shock someone • A loud scream from the next room made her toes curl.

step/tread on sb's toes

to say or do something which upsets someone, especially by becoming involved in something which is their responsibility • I'd like to make some changes to the working procedures, but I don't want to tread on anyone's toes.

toffee

can't do sth for toffee British, informal

if you say that someone can't do something for toffee, you mean that they are extremely bad at doing that thing • Annie couldn't act for toffee, but she still got a part in the school play.

toffee-nosed

toffee-nosed British & Australian.

informal

toffee-nosed people think that they are better than other people, especially people of a lower social class • She's much nicer than that toffee-nosed sister of hers.

together

get it together

1 informal to manage to organize an activity • We were planning a trip to India, but we never got it together.
• (sometimes + to do sth) I wonder if he'll

- ever get it together to set up his own diving school.
- 2 informal if two people get it together, they start a sexual relationship with each other We'd met a few times before, but we didn't really get it together till Rachel's party.

toing

toing and froing

- 1 going backwards and forwards between places • (often + between) The job involves a lot of toing and froing between London and New York.
- 2 going from one method, idea, or plan to another in a way that wastes time when you are trying to achieve something
  The legal toing and froing will delay payment to Horden of the £10 million due on the contract.

toll

take a/its/their toll

to have a bad effect on someone or something • (often + on) Bringing up nine children had taken its toll on my mother. • The disease has taken a horrendous toll in parts of western Africa.

Tom

Tom, Dick and/or Harry

anyone, especially people that you do not know or do not think are important • Draw the curtains or we'll have every Tom, Dick and Harry peering through the window. • I want a qualified plumber to do the job, not just any Tom, Dick or Harry.

tomorrow

like there's no tomorrow

as if there was/were no tomorrow

very quickly and eagerly • She's spending money like there's no tomorrow and I don't know how to stop her. • Hungry and exhausted, he gobbled down the bread as if there were no tomorrow.

Tomorrow's another day.

something that you say in order to encourage someone by showing them that there will be another opportunity to do something at a later time • We've not made much progress today, but don't worry, tomorrow's another day.

ton

be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks informal

to punish someone very quickly and severely • If you miss any more classes, your teachers will be down on you like a ton of bricks. • When he failed to supply his accounts, tax inspectors came down on him like a ton of bricks.

have sb down on you like a ton of bricks informal • If she starts drinking again she'll have the family down on her like a ton of bricks.

hit sb like a ton of bricks American,

informal

to surprise or shock someone very much

• The truth hit him like a ton of bricks. The woman in the video was his own sister.

weigh a ton informal

to be very heavy • This suitcase weighs a ton!

tone

lower the tone

if something lowers the tone of a place, it makes it less suitable for people of a high social class, and if something lowers the tone of a conversation or a piece of writing, it makes it less polite or of a lower quality • (usually + of) The locals don't like students living around here. It lowers the tone of the neighbourhood.

 Trust you to lower the tone of the evening by telling rude jokes, Ian!

OPPOSITE raise the tone • A preface from a local clergyman had raised the moral tone of the book.

set the tone

if something someone says or does sets the tone for an event or activity, it establishes the way that event or activity will continue, especially the mood of the people involved • (often + for) He was furious when she arrived late, and that set the tone for the whole evening.

tongue

Tongue is used in the following phrases connected with speaking.

tongue in cheek

with your tongue in your cheek

if you say something tongue in cheek, what you have said is a joke, although it might seem to be serious • 'And we all know what a passionate love life I have!' he said, tongue in cheek.

tongue-in-cheek • She writes a very engaging and at times tongue-in-cheek account of her first meeting with the royal family.

bite your tongue

to stop yourself from saying something because it would be better not to, even if you would like to say it • I really wanted to tell her what I thought of him but I had to bite my tongue.

find your tongue

to begin to speak after being silent because you felt nervous or frightened • Amy took a step forward and finally found her tongue. T'm Rhoda's friend, 'she said.

get your tongue around/round sth

to pronounce a difficult word or phrase • I just can't get my tongue around some of those Welsh place names.

hold your tongue old-fashioned

to stop talking • (often an order) George had learned to accept these little insults. He held his tongue.

loosen your tongue

if alcohol loosens your tongue, it makes you talk a lot without thinking carefully about what you are saying • Her tongue loosened by drink, she began to say things that she would later regret.

roll/trip off the tongue

if a word or phrase trips off the tongue, it is very easy to say • The band is called 'Acquired Echoes'. It doesn't exactly trip off the tongue, does it?

tongue-lashing

a tongue-lashing informal

if you give someone a tongue-lashing, you speak to them angrily because they have done something wrong • The manager gave his team a tongue-lashing after they'd lost the game.

tongues

set/start tongues wagging informal

if something that someone says or does sets tongues wagging, it causes people to talk about them • His late-night visit to her home has set tongues wagging.

tools

the tools of the/your trade

the things that you need to use in order to do a job • For the modern sales executive, a car phone is one of the tools of the trade.

down tools British & Australian

to refuse to work, especially because you are not satisfied with your pay or working conditions • Thousands of Krakow steelworkers downed tools to demand more pay.

tooth

fight tooth and claw/nail

to fight very hard to achieve something • (often + to do sth) We fought tooth and nail to retain our share of the business.

top

the top brass

the people with the highest rank in an organization, especially an army • All the top brass turned out for the funeral.

the top dog informal

the most important and powerful person in a group • Jackson was top dog and he made sure he got what he wanted.

the top flight

the highest level in a job or a sport • The Sheffield Eagles move down to the second division after two seasons in the top flight.

top-flight • (always before noun) He was the absolute stereotype of a top-flight executive.

the top of the tree British & Australian

if someone is at the top of the tree, they are at the highest position in their job or in an organization • Who would have guessed that she would get to the top of the tree before her clever and talented brother?

at the top of your voice

if someone says something at the top of their voice, they say it as loudly as they can • 'Stop it Nathan!' she shouted at the top of her voice.

be on top of the world

to feel very happy • She'd just discovered she was pregnant and she felt on top of the world.

be over the top informal

if someone's behaviour or something that has been used or provided is over the top, it is more extreme than is necessary or suitable in British and Australian English, this phrase is often made into the abbreviation OTT. • I think pink champagne and caviar was a bit over the top for a twelve-year-old's birthday party.
• I know he was angry, but attacking the waiter was way over the top.

go over the top • They've gone a bit over the top with the Christmas decorations this year.

from top to bottom

in every part • We searched the house from top to bottom but we couldn't find the letter: • They bought an old hotel and restyled it from top to bottom.

from top to toe

on every part of a person's body • He gazed at her across the room, dressed in black leather from top to toe.

from/out of the top drawer

from a very high social class • Caroline liked to pretend that she came from the very top drawer of society.

top-drawer • His designs are stocked by all the top-drawer retailers in London and New York.

get on top of you

if a difficult situation gets on top of you, it makes you feel so upset that you cannot deal with it • She's had a few financial problems and I think things have just been getting on top of her.

off the top of your head informal

if you say something off the top of your head, you say it without thinking about it for very long or looking at something that has been written about it • 'What was the name of that plumber you used?' 'I couldn't tell you off the top of my head.' • Off the top of my head I could probably only name about three women artists.

on top of sth

if you are on top of a situation, you are dealing with it successfully • We had a lot of work to do, but I think we're on top of it now.

pay top dollar American

to pay a lot of money for something • Investors can expect to pay top dollar for the stock.

to top it all British, American & Australian

to top it all off American & Australian

if you have been describing bad things which happened, and then say that to top it all something else happened, you mean that the final thing was even worse • The washing machine flooded, my car broke down, then to top it all I locked myself out of the house.

top-notch

top-notch

of the highest possible quality • We need to offer high salaries to attract top-notch staff. • People will pay a fortune for really top-notch wines.

Topsy

grow like Topsy

to grow very fast • The government must decide how to allocate health-care resources in the face of demand that is growing like Topsy.

topsy-turvy

topsy-turvy

1 informal if a situation is topsy-turvy, it is confused and not well organized because things happen in the wrong order or people believe things are important when they are not • The government's topsy-turvy priorities mean that spending on education remains low. • We're living in topsy-turvy times.

turn (sth) topsy-turvy to completely change something, or to completely change • The steel industry is about to be turned topsy-turvy by a technological revolution. • My life has turned topsy-turvy.

2 informal if a room or a place is topsyturvy, it is very untidy • He went out leaving the house all topsy-turvy.

torch

carry a torch for sb old-fashioned

to secretly love someone who does not love you • Graeme's been carrying a torch for Linda for years.

toss

argue the toss British & Australian, informal

to disagree with a decision or statement • Are you prepared to argue the toss when you might have to go to court to prove it?

not care/give a toss British, informal

to not be worried about or interested in someone or something • (often + question word) She can say what she likes, I don't give a toss what she thinks. • (often + about) He's only interested in himself, he doesn't care a toss about his family.

toss-up

a toss-up informal

a situation where two or more possibilities are equally likely • (often + between) It's a toss-up between Angela and Moira for the editor's job. • (often + whether) It was a toss-up whether prices would go up or down.

touch

be an easy/soft touch

if someone is an easy touch, it is easy to persuade them to do what you want them to do • Her Dad's an easy touch – he's always giving her money.

be in touch

to have regular communication with someone by telephone, letter etc.
• (usually + with) Are you still in touch with Caroline?

keep/stay in touch to continue to communicate with someone • (often + with) Her family have kept in touch with me since her death. • Do stay in touch after you've moved, won't you?

OPPOSITE lose touch to stop having regular communication with someone • (often + with) I've lost touch with all my old college friends.

get in touch to communicate with someone, especially for the first time or after a long period of not communicating with them • (usually + with) Anyone who knew the victim should get in touch with the police.

be out of touch

to not know much about modern life
• Some of these judges are so out of touch, they've never even heard of Ecstasy.

be out of touch with sth

to not have recent knowledge about a subject, a situation, or people's opinions • His statement shows he's completely out of touch with reality. • Too often, politicians are out of touch with the electorate.

OPPOSITE in touch with sth • I try to stay in touch with what's going on in the arts world.

lose your touch

if you lose your touch, you can no longer do something as well as you could before • (usually in continuous tenses) It's good to see their goalkeeper's not losing his touch.

touch-and-go be touch-and-go to not be at all certain • (often + whether) After the accident it was touchand-go whether she would survive.

touchy-feely

touchy-feely informal

expressing a lot of emotion easily, often by touching people with your hands, in a way that some people think is embarrassing • He's one of those touchyfeely people who are always putting their arms round you. • They run a support group for people who've recently been divorced—it's very touchy-feely.

tough

tough love mainly American

a method of helping someone to change their behaviour by treating them in a very severe way • Tough love is the only approach to take towards a relative hooked on drugs.

Tough shit! taboo

something that you say in order to show that you have no sympathy for someone • I know you don't want to go, but tough shit!

a tough cookie American & Australian, informal

what they want and who usually succeeds even in difficult situations • We're talking about a woman who brought up six children on her own—she's one tough cookie.

someone who is very determined to do

be as tough as old boots be as tough as nails

if someone is as tough as old boots, they are very strong and not easily injured • 'Do you think Grandad will ever recover?' 'Of course, he's as tough as old boots.'

be as tough as old boots British,

American & Australian

be as tough as shoe leather American

if food is as tough as old boots, it is difficult to cut or to eat • That steak I had was as tough as old boots.

${\bf hang\ tough\ } American, in formal$

to not change your actions or opinions although other people try to make you do this • The President is hanging tough on the hostage crisis.

tour de force

a tour de force

a performance or achievement which shows a lot of skill and which is admired by a lot of people • His performance as Richard III was a brilliant tour de force.

tow

in tow

if you have someone in tow, you have them with you • She arrived with six small children in tow.

town

be/go out on the town

to go out and enjoy yourself at bars, restaurants etc. in the evening • She stayed in her hotel room while the others went out on the town.

a night (out) on the town • At the end of the conference the girls had a night on the town.

go to town on sth

to do something in a very eager way and as completely as possible, especially by spending a lot of money • Angie and Phil have really gone to town on their wedding.

paint the town (red) informal

to go out and enjoy yourself in the evening, often drinking a lot of alcohol and dancing • Jack finished his exams today so he's gone out to paint the town red.

toy

a toy boy British, American & Australian, informal

a boy toy American, informal

a young man who is having a sexual relationship with a woman who is much older than him • Sheila's gone out rowing with Dieter, her new toy boy. • These movie stars seem to have a new boy toy every week.

trace

sink without trace

to be forgotten about completely, after being popular for a while • They enjoyed brief success with their second album and then sank without trace.

traces

kick over the traces British & Australian

to do what you want and not show any respect for authority Paraces are long pieces of leather which join a vehicle to the horse which is pulling it. If a horse kicks over the traces, it kicks its legs over these pieces of leather and goes out of control. • Some kids go straight to university and spend the first year kicking over the traces.

track

a track record

all of the past achievements or failures of a person or organization • We like to recruit managers with a strong track record. • (often + in) They have a strong track record in rescuing ailing companies.

keep track

to continue to know what is happening to something or someone • I don't know what he's doing now, he's had so many different jobs that it's difficult to keep track. • (often + of) I've never been very good at keeping track of what I spend my money on.

what is happening to something or someone • I can't remember what her husband's called, she's been married so many times I've lost track. • We were chatting away and we just lost track of time. (= did not know what the time was)

on track

401

if an activity or a situation is on track, it is making progress and is likely to achieve something • (often + to do sth) A fighter from Edinburgh is on track to become the world heavyweight boxing champion. • If the peace talks remain on track, an agreement can be expected by the end of the month.

put/get sb/sth back on track • Victory in New Hampshire put the President's failing election campaign back on track.

tracks

cover your tracks

to hide or destroy the things that show where you have been or what you have been doing • Roberts covered his tracks by throwing the knife in the river and burying his wife's body.

make tracks informal

to leave a place in order to go somewhere • Jean, it's getting late – we'd better be making tracks.

stop (sb) in their tracks

if something stops someone in their tracks, or if they stop in their tracks, they suddenly stop what they are doing because they are so surprised • A loud scream stopped me dead in my tracks.

 He opened the door and stopped in his tracks. A complete stranger was sitting in his office.

trade

ply your trade literary

to do your usual work or business

Fishermen in small boats ply their trade up and down the coast.

trail

blaze a trail

to do something that no-one has done before, especially something which will be important for other people • The hospital has blazed a trail in developing new techniques for treating infertility.

a trail-blazer someone who is the first person to do something • He will be remembered as a trail-blazer in cancer research.

trail-blazing • (always before noun) We'll be discussing the latest book from trail-blazing American feminist Gloria Steinem.

train

a train of thought

a series of connected thoughts • You interrupted my train of thought – now I can't remember what I was going to say.

set in train

if you set in train an activity or an event, you make it begin • His book set in train the events which eventually led to revolution.

be in train • Investigations were in train to identify the person responsible for the theft.

transport

be in a transport of delight/joy literary to feel extremely happy or pleased • I looked up to the heavens and praised God, in a transport of delight.

trap

fall into the trap of doing sth

to do something which is not wise although it seemed to be a good idea when you decided to do it • Don't fall into the trap of buying the extra insurance.

travel

Have sth will travel! humorous

something that you say which means you have the skills or equipment that are necessary to do a particular activity and you are ready to do it anywhere • Have teaching qualification will travel!

treat

go down a treat British & Australian

if something goes down a treat, people enjoy it very much • His animal impressions went down a treat with the children. • A cup of tea would go down a treat.

work a treat British & Australian,

informal

to be very effective • If you want to get rid of that wine stain, put some salt on it, it works a treat.

tree

be out of your tree informal

to be crazy or behaving in a strange way, sometimes because of drugs or alcohol • Is he going to build the extension himself? He's out of his tree!

be up a gum tree British & Australian, old-fashioned be up a tree American, old-fashioned to be in a very difficult situation A small animal in Australia called a possum climbs up a gum tree when it is being chased. If the insurance company won't pay for the damage, I'll be up a gum tree.

trees

can't see the wood for the trees British, American & Australian

can't see the forest for the trees

American & Australian

if someone can't see the wood for the trees, they are unable to understand what is important in a situation because they are giving too much attention to details • After you've spent years researching a single topic you get to a point where you can't see the wood for the trees.

trick

do the trick informal

if something does the trick, it achieves what you want or need • If the sauce tastes a bit sour, add a teaspoon of sugar—that should do the trick.

every trick in the book

every clever or dishonest way that you know to achieve something that you want • (often + to do sth) He used every trick in the book to get her to sign the contract.

not miss a trick

to not fail to notice and use a good opportunity • You can rely on Sarah to get what she wants, she never misses a trick.

turn a trick American, very informal

to have sex with someone for money

 She'd been known to turn a trick when she needed a few dollars.

tricks

tricks of the trade

clever methods that help you to do a job better or faster • As a journalist, you learn the tricks of the trade pretty quickly or you don't survive.

tried

tried and tested/trusted British.

American & Australian

tried and true American

used by many people and proved to be effective • They ran a highly successful advertising campaign using a tried and tested formula. • Most people would prefer to stick to tried and true methods of birth control.

trigger-happy

trigger-happy

someone who is trigger-happy uses their gun too often and without thinking carefully • The book's main character is a trigger-happy New York detective.

trojan

a Trojan horse

someone or something that attacks the group or organization it belongs to something In Greek stories, the Trojan horse was a large wooden horse that the Greeks used to take soldiers secretly into the city of Troy in order to destroy it. • Traditional Labour supporters have accused the new leadership of being a Trojan horse trying to destroy the party from within.

trolley

be off your trolley humorous

to be crazy • What are you doing eating chocolate and cheese again? You're off your trolley!

go off your trolley • Has he gone completely off his trolley? He'll never get away with it!

trooper

swear like a trooper

to swear a lot  $\triangle$  A trooper is a soldier with a low rank. • He came in drunk and swearing like a trooper.

trot

on the trot British & Australian

- 1 if you do several things on the trot, you do them one after the other • It's been a good year for Britain's top player, who has won seven matches on the trot.
- 2 if you do something for a number of days, hours, years etc. on the trot, you do it for that amount of time without stopping • He'd worked 48 hours on the trot and was totally exhausted.

trouble

spell trouble

to be the cause of possible problems in the future • (often + for) The continuing dry weather could spell trouble for farmers.

truck

have no truck with sth/sb

to refuse to become involved with something or someone because you do not approve of them • Our committee will have no truck with racist attitudes.

true

true to form/type

if someone does something true to form, they behave in the bad way that you would expect them to • True to form, she turned up an hour later than we'd arranged.

ring true

if something someone has said or written rings true, it seems to be true • (often negative) Something about the story didn't quite ring true.

There's many a true word spoken in jest.

something that you say when you think that something someone has said as a joke may really be true or become true • At this rate we'll be walking all night.' 'Be careful – there's many a true word spoken in jest.'

true-blue

true-blue American & Australian

if someone is true-blue, they support something or someone completely • Tom's true-blue - he won't let us down.

 They want control of the company to remain in true-blue American hands.

trump

a trump card

an advantage that makes you more likely to succeed than other people, especially something that other people do not know about in card games a trump card is one of a set of cards which have been chosen to have the highest value during the game. • The fact that I had an Italian parent turned out to be my trump card when I applied for the job. • Anthea was about to play her trump card – none of the money could be released without her signature.

trumps

come up/turn up trumps British &

Australian

to complete an activity successfully or to produce a good result, especially when you were not expected to En In card games, trumps are a set of cards which have been chosen to have the highest value during the game. • John's uncle came up trumps and found us a place to stay at the last minute.

trust

I wouldn't trust sb as far as I could

throw them. informal

something that you say which means that you do not trust someone at all • I'll admit John is very charming, but I wouldn't trust him as far as I could throw him.

truth

Truth will out. slightly formal

something that you say which means the truth will always be discovered • They're bound to find out what you've done. Truth will out, you know.

try

try it on British & Australian

to behave badly or to try to deceive people, especially in order to make them do something for you • (often in continuous tenses) He's not really ill, he's just trying it on. • (sometimes + with) I'm not giving her any money. If she tries it on with me I'll just refuse.

tube

down the tube/tubes

- 1 informal if something goes down the tubes, it fails or disappears • Our holiday plans went down the tube because of the train strike.
- 2 American, informal if someone goes down the tubes, they fail • He's in danger of going down the tubes if he doesn't learn to get on with people at work.

tub-thumping

tub-thumping British

speech or behaviour that is intended to force people to support an idea or plan • Far too much tub-thumping goes on during these debates.

tub-thumping • (always before noun) She gave a tub-thumping speech.

tune

change your tune

to change your opinion completely, especially because you know it will bring you an advantage • He was against the idea to start with, but he soon changed his tune when I told him how much money he'd get out of it.

dance to sh's tune

to always do what someone tells you to do, whether you agree with it or not • Powerful local residents seem to have the council dancing to their tune.

tuppence

not care/give tuppence British &

Australian, old-fashioned

to not care about something or someone in any way • (often + for) She doesn't give tuppence for her family. • You can do what you like. I don't care tuppence.

turf

a turf war American

a fight or an argument to decide who controls an area or an activity • The recent shootings in the city are part of a turf war between two competing gangs.

turkey

a turkey shoot mainly American

if a fight or a war is a turkey shoot, one side is certain to be completely defeated because the other side is much stronger • Their aircraft destroyed every military camp in a three-day turkey shoot.

talk turkey mainly American

to discuss a problem in a serious way with a real intention to solve it • If the two sides in the dispute are to meet, they must be prepared to talk turkey.

turkeys

like turkeys voting for (an early)

Christmas British & Australian, humorous if people are like turkeys voting for Christmas, they choose to accept a situation which will have very bad results for them Day Turkeys are large birds which are often eaten on Christmas Day. • Teachers agreeing to even larger class sizes would be like turkeys voting for Christmas.

turn

a turn of phrase

- 1 a way of saying something 'Significant other', meaning 'partner', now that's an interesting turn of phrase.
- 2 the ability to express yourself well She has a nice turn of phrase which should serve her well in journalism.

a turn of the screw

an action which makes a bad situation worse, especially in order to force someone to do something • Each letter from my bank manager is another turn of the screw.

at every turn

if something unpleasant happens at every turn, it happens every time you try to do something • Throughout his life, he felt himself stifled by his father at every turn.

be cooked/done to a turn

to be cooked for exactly the right amount of time • The beef was done to a turn.

speak/talk out of turn slightly formal

to say something that you should not have said or that you did not have the authority to say • I'm sorry if I spoke out of turn, but somebody had to tell him the facts.

take a turn for the worse

if a situation or an ill person takes a turn for the worse, they become worse or more ill • Their relationship took a turn for the worse when he lost his job.

turnabout

Turnabout is fair play. American

something that you say which means you will do something that someone else has done because this is fair • You cook dinner tonight, I cooked last night. Turnabout is fair play.

turtle

turn turtle

if a boat turns turtle, it turns upside down in the water • We lost all our diving gear when the boat turned turtle just off the shore.

twain

Never the twain shall meet. literary

something that you say when two things or people are so different that they can never exist together or agree with each other • Psychologists support behavioural therapy, pharmacologists support drugs, and never the twain shall meet.

twilight

the twilight zone 🗡

the area where one thing ends and another begins, especially when it is not clear exactly where or when this happens • (often + between) She'd been unconscious ever since she fell, trapped in the twilight zone between life and death.

twinkle

when sb was a (mere) twinkle in their father's eye humorous

at a time before someone was born • All this happened a very long time ago, when you were a mere twinkle in your father's eve.

twinkling

in the twinkling of an eye

if something happens in the twinkling of an eye, it happens very quickly • This twist

406

machine will do all the calculations in the twinkling of an eye.

twist

drive/send sb round the twist British & Australian, informal

to make someone very angry, especially by continuing to do something annoying

• This non-stop banging is driving me round the twist. • A day with my mother is enough to send anyone round the twist.

round the twist British & Australian, informal crazy • She's completely round the twist – just sits there all day talking to herself. • I put the milk in the cupboard and the sugar in the fridge. I think I'm going round the twist.

two

two can play at that game informal

something that you say when you intend to harm someone in the same way as they have harmed you • So she's been spreading rumours about me, has she? Well, two can play at that game.

be in/of two minds

to be unable to decide about something • (often + whether) I was in two minds whether or not to come this morning.
• (often + about) Residents are of two minds about new traffic restrictions in the

be like two peas in a pod

to be very similar • You can tell they're brothers at a glance – they're like two peas in a pod.

be two of a kind

if two people are two of a kind, they have very similar characters • Amy and I are two of a kind. That's why we've stayed friends for so long.

fall between two stools mainly British be caught between two stools mainly British

if something falls between two stools, it fails because it is neither one type of thing nor another and if someone falls between two stools, they fail because they try to combine two different types of thing that cannot be combined • For me, it fell between two stools, being neither romantic fiction nor serious literature. • If you try to organize an event that will appeal to both young and old, you can end up caught between two stools.

for two cents American & Australian, informal

if you say that for two cents you would do something unpleasant to someone, you mean that you want very much to do it to them  $\triangle$  A cent is the coin with the smallest value in American money and two cents is worth very little. • For two cents I'd hit him. He's so darned spoiled and stuck up.

not have two pennies to rub together British, American & Australian

not have two nickels to rub together American

to be very poor • She's been out of work for months and doesn't have two pennies to rub together.

It takes two to tango.

something that you say which means if two people were involved in a bad situation, both must be responsible A tango is a South American dance for two people. • 'She blames Tracy for stealing her husband.' 'Well, it takes two to tango.'

kill two birds with one stone

to manage to do two things at the same time instead of just one, because it is convenient to do both • I killed two birds with one stone and saw some old friends while I was in Leeds visiting my parents.

(There's) no two ways about it.

something that you say in order to emphasize that something is true • Patricia was the meanest person I've ever met. No two ways about it.

put your two cents (worth) in American & Australian, informal

to give your opinion in a conversation, often when it is not wanted • She always has to put her two cents worth in! Why can't she just keep quiet?

your two cents (worth) • Stay out of this – if we want your two cents we'll ask for it!

put in/stick in your two penn'orth

British, old-fashioned

to give your opinion in a conversation, often when it is not wanted • Whenever the subject of hunting comes up you can rely on Anthony to put his two penn'orth in.

put two and two together

to guess the truth about a situation from pieces of information which you know about it • I didn't tell her my husband had left, but she'd noticed his car was missing and put two and two together.

put two and two together and get/make five to guess something wrong about a situation, usually something more exciting than the truth • She thought I was pregnant. I was sick a couple of times and she just put two and two together and made five.

put/stick two fingers up at sb/sth

British, informal

to show that you are angry with someone, or that you have no respect for someone or something • These protest marches are a way of putting two fingers up at politicians.

That makes two of us.

something that you say in order to tell someone that you are in the same unpleasant situation, or have the same negative feelings as them • 'T found his talk really boring.' 'That makes two of us!'

two's company (three's a crowd)

something that you say when you think two people would prefer to be alone together than be with a third person • They asked me to go to the cinema with them but two's company if you know what I mean.

two-bit

two-bit American, informal

of very little value or not important • (always before noun) The man was shot by a two-bit crook who nobody ever heard of

two-faced

two-faced

a two-faced person says nice things about people when they are with them, but bad things about them to other people • Have you seen what he wrote about us? He seemed so nice when we spoke on the phone – what a two-faced bastard!

two-time

two-time sb

to have a sexual or romantic relationship with two people at the same time • If I ever found out she was two-timing me, I'd kill her.

two-timing • You should get rid of that two-timing boyfriend of yours.

two-timer · He's just a dirty two-timer.

two-way

a two-way street mainly American

if a situation between two people is a twoway street, both people must make an equal effort in order to achieve good results • Talks with the nurses have to be a two-way street – if they want to discuss salaries, we want to discuss their performance.

type

revert to type

if someone reverts to type, they return to their usual behaviour after a period of behaving in a different, usually better, way • After several weeks without saying a rude word to anyone, he seems to have reverted to type.

ugly

an ugly duckling

someone or something that is ugly and not successful when they are young or new, but which develops into something beautiful and successful • The most successful company was last year's ugly duckling.

be as ugly as sin X

to be very ugly • That dog of his is as ugly as sin.

um

um and ah

to have difficulty making a decision • (often + about) She's still umming and ahing about telling her mother. • He ummed and ahed and finally agreed to let me see the documents.

umbrage

take umbrage formal

to become upset and angry about something someone has said or done • (often + at) He took great umbrage at newspaper reviews of his book. • The minister took umbrage when colleagues queried her budget plans.

uncertain

in no uncertain terms

if someone tells you something in no uncertain terms, they say it in a strong and direct way • We were told in no uncertain terms that dishonesty would not be tolerated.

uncle

Uncle Sam

the government or the country of the United States • These smaller countries resent being so dependent on Uncle Sam for protection.

an Uncle Tom

a black person who is too eager to please white people Description This phrase is from the book Uncle Tom's Cabin by H.B.Stowe, in which the main person in the story is a black slave. (= someone who is legally owned by another person) • She was seen by other blacks in the neighborhood as an Uncle Tom for not complaining about police harassment.

say uncle American, informal

to admit that you have been defeated In children's fights, a child being held down had to say 'uncle' before being allowed to get up. • I'm determined to show them I can be a star. I'm not going to say uncle.

unglued

come unglued

- 1 American, informal to lose control of your emotions • After Dan's death she just came unglued.
- 2 American, informal if a person or something they are trying to achieve comes unglued, they have problems which cause them to fail The negotiations are showing signs of coming unglued, with new questions coming up every day. The team played well in the first half but came unglued in the second.

unknown

an unknown quantity

if someone or something is an unknown quantity, you do not know much about them or what effect they will have in the future • Turner may do well in the election, though he is an unknown quantity as a campaigner. • The new computer system is still an unknown quantity for our department.

unstuck

come unstuck British & Australian

if a person or something they are trying to achieve comes unstuck, they have problems which cause them to fail • Athletes who don't prepare properly for the humid conditions will certainly come unstuck. • The negotiations came unstuck over disagreements about the wording.

up

Up yours! very informal

an angry and impolite way of telling someone you do not care about their opinion • 'You're not supposed to be smoking in here.' 'Up yours, mate!'

be (right) up there with sb/sth

to be as good or as famous as someone or something else • He's up there with the foremost sculptors of our age.

be on the up

if someone or something is on the up, they are becoming more successful • At number 27 in the world tennis rankings he is definitely on the up. • It's been a difficult year for our family, but things are on the up again now.

be on the up and up

- 1 informal if someone or something is on the up and up they are becoming more and more successful • Since the recession ended, our business has been on the up and up.
- 2 American, informal if a person or an activity is on the up and up, they are honest You can trust Mick he's on the up and up.

be up yourself British & Australian, very informal

to think that you are better and more important than other people • She's so up herself ever since she landed this new job, it's unbearable.

be up against sth/sb

if you are up against a situation, a person, or a group of people, they make it very difficult for you to achieve what you want to achieve • When I saw how deeply the racist views were held I began to understand what we were up against.
• The Welsh rugby team will really be up against it (= have a lot of problems) when they take on France next week.

be up and about/around

if someone is up and about after an illness, they are well enough to get out of bed and move around • Trevor's up and about again, but he won't be able to drive for a few weeks.

be up and down

- 1 if a person is up and down, they are sometimes happy and sometimes sad, usually after something very bad has happened to them • She's been very up and down since her husband's death.
- 2 if a situation is up and down, it is sometimes good and successful and sometimes bad and not successful Things are up and down for dairy farmers at the moment.

be up and running 🗶

if a system, an organization, or a machine is up and running, it is established and working • Until the new computer system is up and running we will have to work on paper.

be up for sth informal

to want to do something and to be able to do it • It's a long walk. Are you up for it?
• After a long day at work I wasn't really up for a party.

be up to sth X

to be doing or planning something, often secretly • We think those boys are up to something, or they wouldn't be behaving so suspiciously. • (often used in questions) What are you up to in there?

be up to your ears/eyeballs/eyes in sth British, American & Australian

to have too much of something, especially work • We're up to our eyeballs in decorating at the moment.

not be up to much British, informal

if something is not up to much, it is not very good or effective • This hairdryer's not up to much – it only blows out cold air.

be up with the lark British, American & Australian

be up with the crows Australian

to be awake and out of your bed early in the morning \( \exists \) Larks and crows are birds that start singing very early in the morning. \( \cdot You were up with the lark this morning! \)

up-and-coming

up-and-coming

becoming more and more successful in a job • (always before noun) She founded a summer school for up-and-coming musicians.

uphill

an uphill battle/fight/struggle an uphill job/task

if something you are trying to do is an uphill struggle, it is very difficult, often because other people are causing problems for you • Environmentalists face an uphill struggle convincing people to use their cars less. • We're trying to expand our business, but it's an uphill battle.

upper

the upper crust

people who have the highest social position and who are usually rich • Many treasures were brought back to Britain because its upper crust was wealthy and liked travelling abroad.

upper-crust • He spoke with an upper-crust accent.

have the upper hand

if someone has the upper hand, they have a position of power and control over someone else, and if an emotion has the upper hand, it controls what you do • At half time, the Italian team seem to have the upper hand.

gain/get the upper hand • (often + over) Government troops are gradually gaining the upper hand over the rebel forces. • I shouldn't have read the letter, but curiosity got the upper hand.

uppers

be (down) on your uppers British, old-

fashioned

to be in a very bad financial situation • Hungary's once successful film industry is on its uppers. • He was always ready to help anyone who was down on their uppers.

ups

ups and downs

the mixture of good and bad things which happen to people • Like most married couples we've had our ups and downs. • The book charts the ups and downs of a career in fashion.

upstairs

kick sb upstairs

to give someone a new job which seems more powerful but is really less powerful, usually in order to stop them causing trouble for you • Brown is being kicked upstairs to become chairman of the new company.

uptake

be slow on the uptake

to be slow to understand new ideas • I tried to explain the new database, but they were remarkably slow on the uptake.

OPPOSITE be quick on the uptake • Some of the games were quite complex but the children were very quick on the uptake.

up-to-the-minute

up-to-the-minute

containing the most modern or recent ideas or information • For top designer names and up-to-the-minute fashion, shop at Taylors.

variety

Variety is the spice of life.

something that you say which means life is more interesting when it changes often and you have many different experiences • I have to work in the heat of Sudan one week and the cold of Alaska the next, but I suppose variety is the spice of life.

veil

draw a veil over sth

if you draw a veil over a subject, you do not talk about it any more because it could cause trouble or make someone embarrassed • I think we should draw a veil over this conversation and pretend it never happened.

verbal

verbal diarrhoea British, American & Australian, humorous verbal diarrhea American & Australian, humorous

if someone has verbal diarrhoea, they talk too much • It was awful – a whole evening with this guy who had verbal diarrhoea.

vicious

a vicious circle

a difficult situation that cannot be improved because one problem causes another problem that causes the first problem again • I get depressed so I eat and then I gain weight which depresses me so I eat again – I'm caught in a vicious circle.

villain

the villain of the piece

someone or something that has caused a bad situation This phrase was first used to describe an evil character in a play. • According to reports of the disaster, the villain of the piece is the mining company who failed to carry out proper safety checks.

vine

wither on the vine British, American & Australian, literary die on the vine American & Australian, literary

if something withers on the vine, it is destroyed very gradually, usually because no one does anything to help or support it • Plans to create cheap housing for the poor seem doomed to wither on the vine.

virtue

make a virtue of necessity formal

to change something you must do into a positive or useful experience • It's a long way to drive so I thought I'd make a virtue of necessity and stop off at some interesting places along the way.

virtues

extoll the virtues of sb/sth formal

to praise the good qualities of someone or something • He wrote several magazine articles extolling the virtues of country life.

vis-à-vis

vis-à-vis

in relation to • Can I talk to you vis-à-vis the arrangements for Thursday's meeting? • The current strength of the dollar vis-à-vis other currencies makes it hard selling American products overseas.

voice

a (lone) voice in the wilderness

a voice crying in the wilderness

if you are a voice in the wilderness, you are the only person expressing a particular opinion, although later other people understand that you were right • With her passionate pleas for peace, she was a lone voice in the wilderness.

void

fill a/the void

to replace something important that you have lost, or to provide something important that you need • The country needs a strong leader to help fill the void left by the death of the president.

• Religion helped me fill a void in my life.

volte-face

a volte-face formal

a sudden change of a belief or plan to the opposite of what it was before • In the early 90's he made a complete political volte-face, moving from the Republican Party to the Democrats.

volumes

speak volumes

wad

shoot your wad

- 1 American, informal to spend or use everything that you have He's going to shoot his wad on his night out whatever it costs for a good time.
- 2 American, informal to say everything that you want to say about a particular subject • Our opponents shot their wad at the meeting and left everyone in no doubt that they would oppose our plans.
- 3 British, American & Australian, taboo if a man shoots his wad, semen (= thick liquid containing a man's seed) comes out of his penis • He shot his wad as soon as she took her blouse off.

wagon

be on the wagon

someone who is on the wagon has decided not to drink any alcohol for a period of time • He'd been an alcoholic once, but when I met him he'd been on the wagon for about five years.

go on the wagon • The doctor ordered her to go on the wagon, and she hasn't touched a drop since.

fall off the wagon

to start drinking alcohol again, especially too much alcohol, after a period when you have not drunk any • Six months later he fell off the wagon in spectacular fashion with a three-day drinking spree.

hitch your wagon to sb/sth hitch your wagon to a star

to try to become successful by becoming involved with someone or something that is already successful or has a good chance of becoming successful • He wisely decided to hitch his wagon to the environmentalist movement, which was then gaining support throughout the country. • She hitched her wagon to a rising young star on the music scene.

waifs

waifs and strays British & Australian

people or animals who have no home and no one to care for them • Emma was always bringing home waifs and strays and giving them a bed for the night.

waiting

be waiting in the wings

to be ready to be used or employed instead of someone or something else in the theatre, the wings are the sides of the stage which cannot be seen by the people watching the play, where actors wait until it is their turn to walk on to the stage. • The rumour is that Green will be sacked and Brinkworth is waiting in the wings to take over as manager.

play a/the waiting game

to delay doing something so that you can see what happens or what other people do first • Those investors who are willing to play the waiting game may find it to their advantage.

wake-up

a wake-up call American & Australian an event that warns someone that they need to deal with an urgent or dangerous problem • (often + to do sth) The 1971 earthquake was a wake-up call to strengthen the city's bridges. • (often + to) The World Trade Center bombing has served as a wake-up call to the FBI on terrorism.

walk

a walk of life

a person's walk of life is the type of job they do or the level of society they belong to • Volunteers who work at the animal hospital come from all walks of life. • There were people at the meeting from almost every walk of life.

walking

give sb their walking papers American to tell someone they must leave their job

The manager gave his old secretary her walking papers and hired his daughter to do the job.

get your walking papers American • Since they got their walking papers from the chemical company, none of them has been able to find another job.

wall

be off the wall informal

to be strange or very different from other people or things • Even at school he was considered off the wall by most of the students.

off-the-wall informal • (always before noun) She's got a really off-the-wall sense of humour.

drive sb up the wall informal

to make someone very angry or very bored • I was being driven up the wall by their silly chatter. • Working in a factory would have driven me up the wall.

go to the wall 🔪

if a business or other organization goes to the wall, it fails and cannot continue • After nine months of massive losses, the company finally went to the wall. • In theory, good schools will grow and prosper and bad schools will go to the wall.

hit a/the (brick) wall informal

if you hit the wall when you are trying to achieve something, you reach a situation where you cannot make any more progress • We've just about hit the wall in terms of what we can do to balance the budget. • The enquiry hit a brick wall of banking security.

nail sb to the wall informal

to punish or hurt someone severely because you are very angry with them • I didn't care about why they did it, I just wanted to nail the guys that robbed me to the wall.

the writing is on the wall British, American & Australian

the handwriting is on the wall American if the writing is on the wall for a person or an organization, it is clear that they will fail or be unable to continue • (often + for) The team has lost its last six games and the writing is definitely on the wall for the manager.

read/see the writing on the wall British, American & Australian read/see the handwriting on the wall American to understand that you are in a dangerous situation and that something unpleasant is likely to happen to you • They saw the writing on the wall and started to behave better: • Those who failed to read the handwriting on the wall lost a lot of money.

walls

Walls have ears.

something that you say in order to warn someone to be careful what they say because someone may be listening • Why don't we go and talk about this somewhere quieter? Walls have ears, you know.

wall-to-wall

wall-to-wall

wall-to-wall things or people exist in a continuous supply or in large amounts • Independent channels are promising wall-to-wall coverage of the Olympics. • It was one of those clubs, you know, with wall-to-wall men and lots of heavy dance music.

wandering

wandering hands British & Australian,

humorous

a person, usually a man, who has wandering hands often tries to touch other people for sexual excitement • Joe was notorious for having wandering hands and all the women tried to avoid going into his office.

want

for want of a better word

if you say that you are using a particular word for want of a better word, you mean that it is not quite exact or suitable but there is no better one • They have problems, which, for want of a better word, we call psychological.

How much do you want to bet? informal Do you want a/to bet? informal something that you say when you do not believe that what someone has just said will be true • 'I don't think she'd be stupid enough to lend him any money.' 'How much do you want to bet?'

war

a war of words

a long argument between two people or groups • (often + between) The war of words between the two rivals for the presidency continues to dominate the news bulletins. • (often + over) The article describes the war of words over acid rain.

warpath

be on the warpath humorous

to be looking for someone you are angry with in order to speak angrily to them or punish them • Look out, the boss is on the warpath again!

wars

have been in the wars British &

Australian, humorous

someone, especially a child, who has been in the wars, has been hurt • You poor little boy, you have been in the wars!

warts

warts and all

if you describe or show someone or something warts and all, you do not try to hide the bad things about them  $\triangle$  A wart is a small hard lump which grows on the skin and looks unpleasant. • He tried to portray the president as he was, warts and all.

warts-and-all • (always before noun) The book is a warts-and-all portrait of the socialist movement

wash

come out in the wash informal

if something secret or unpleasant comes out in the wash, people discover the truth about it • They don't want the police to investigate, because they're afraid of what might come out in the wash.

It'll all come out in the wash. informal

something that you say in order to tell someone not to worry because mistakes or problems will not have a serious or permanent effect • It was the wrong thing to say, but don't get too upset, I'm sure it'll all come out in the wash eventually.

will not wash

if an excuse or an argument will not wash, people will not believe it or accept it • (often + with) That story about missing the last bus won't wash with me, young lady!

waste

be a waste of space informal

if you say that someone is a waste of space, you mean that they do not do anything useful and you do not like them
• Her husband's a complete waste of space.

watched

A watched pot never boils.

something that you say which means if you wait anxiously for something to happen, it seems to take a very long time • There's no point sitting by the phone waiting for it to ring. A watched pot never boils.

watching

be like watching grass grow humorous be as interesting as watching grass

grow humorous

if you say that watching an activity is like watching grass grow, you mean that it is very boring • To watch somebody flyfishing is like watching grass grow.

be like watching paint dry humorous be as interesting as watching paint dry

humorous

if you say that watching an activity is like watching paint dry, you mean that it is very boring • To me, watching golf on television is about as interesting as watching paint dry.

water

be (like) water off a duck's back

if criticism is water off a duck's back to someone, it has no effect on them at all • (often + to) He's always being told he's lazy and incompetent, but it's just water off a duck's back to him.

be water under the bridge British,

American & Australian

be water over the dam American

if a problem or an unpleasant situation is water under the bridge, it happened a long time ago and no one is upset about it now • We certainly had our disagreements in the past, but that's all water under the bridge now.

blow sth/sb out of the water

to destroy or defeat something or someone completely • They came to court with fresh evidence that would, they said, blow the prosecution's case completely out of the water.

not hold water

if an opinion or a statement does not hold water, it can be shown to be wrong • Most of the arguments put forward by our opponents simply do not hold water.

OPPOSITE hold water • If his theory holds water, it could be a breakthrough in cancer research.

test the water/waters

to try to discover what people think about an idea before you do anything about it, or to try to discover what a situation is really like before you become very involved in it • I mentioned my idea to a couple of friends as a way of testing the water and they were very enthusiastic about it. • Perhaps you should go to a couple of meetings to test the waters before you decide whether to join the club.

tread water

someone who is treading water is not doing anything to make progress • (often in continuous tenses) I'm just treading water until I get an opportunity to try for a job with more responsibility.

waterfront

cover the waterfront American

to talk about every part of a subject, or to deal with every part of a job • It was a mistake to try and cover the waterfront in her talk – one or two points would have been enough. • It's obvious one salesman can't cover the waterfront. We'll need a whole team for this area.

waterloo

meet your Waterloo

if someone who has been successful in the past meets their Waterloo, they are defeated by someone who is too strong for them or by a problem which is too difficult for them The French leader Napoleon was finally defeated at the battle of Waterloo in 1815. • She finally met her Waterloo when she tried to take on the club champion.

waters

muddy the waters

to make a situation more confused and less easy to understand or deal with • The statistics you quoted didn't prove anything, they simply muddied the waters.

waterworks

turn on the waterworks humorous

to start crying in order to get what you want • He always turns on the waterworks if he doesn't get exactly what he wants.

wave

catch the wave American & Australian

to try to get an advantage for yourself by becoming involved with something that is becoming popular or fashionable

Older Spanish restaurants are expanding to try to catch the tapas wave.

ride (on) a/the wave

to become involved with and get advantages from opinions or activities which have become very common or popular • (often + of) She came to power riding on a wave of personal popularity.

wavelength

be on the same wavelength

if two people are on the same wavelength, it is easy for them to understand and agree with each other • To my surprise, I found that we were absolutely on the same wavelength about most of the important issues. • I can't discuss anything with her – we're simply not on the same wavelength.

waves

make waves

to change an existing situation in a way which causes problems or upsets people
• Some workers felt it was not the time to make waves by organizing a union. • Our culture encourages us to fit the norm and not to make waves.

wax

wax and wane

to grow bigger and stronger and then to become smaller or weaker again • Their influence waxes and wanes depending on which party is in power.

way

all the way

if you support something or fight against something all the way, you support it or fight it as much as possible and as long as it continues • If you want to complain to the boss, I'll support you all the way. • If they go ahead with the plan, we'll fight them all the way.

along the way

during the time that something is happening or that you are doing something • I've been in this job for thirty years and I've picked up a good deal of expertise along the way. • Along the way we'll also be studying French, history and geography.

(in) any way, shape, or form

in any way at all • (often negative) I have never been involved in any way, shape, or form with criminal activities.

be out of sb's way

if a place is out of someone's way, it is not in the direction in which they are going • Are you sure you don't mind taking me home, Ted? It's a bit out of your way.

be out of the way

if a place is out of the way, it is a long distance from other villages or towns • It's a lovely village but it's a little out of the way.

out-of-the-way • We hired a car and spent a few days visiting some out-of-theway places.

claw your way back from sth

if you claw your way back from a bad situation, you succeed in improving your situation again by making a big effort • They clawed their way back from almost certain defeat to win by a single point.

couldn't [act/argue/fight] your way out of a paper bag humorous

if someone couldn't act, argue, fight etc. their way out of a paper bag, they act, argue, fight etc. very badly • It's no good asking Jim to protect you – he couldn't fight his way out of a paper bag.

go all the way informal

- 1 informal to have sex, especially when you have only been kissing and touching before • I wouldn't go all the way with a boy if I didn't love him.
- 2 if you go all the way when you are doing something, you do it completely • We finally decided to go all the way and redecorate the entire house. • The government didn't go all the way; it restricted advertising by tobacco companies, but didn't ban it.
- 3 if a person or team goes all the way in a sports competition, they win every part of it Do you think she can go all the way at Wimbledon this year?

go out of your way to do sth

to try very hard to do something pleasant for other people • They really went out of their way to make us feel welcome.

not know which way to turn to not know what to do or who to ask for help in a difficult situation • I had no home, no money, and I didn't know which way to turn.

open the way for/to sth

to make it possible for something to happen • Removing customs controls could open the way to an increase in drug smuggling.

pave the way for sth

to be a preparation which will make it possible for something to happen in the future • Scientists hope that data from this expedition will pave the way for a more detailed exploration of Mars.

pay your way

if someone pays their way, they pay for all the things they have or use • We've always paid our own way and never taken a penny from the state.

pay its way

if a machine or a piece of equipment pays its way, using it saves you more money than it costs to buy or keep • Our new combine harvester should be paying its way by next year.

point the way

to show what can or should be done in the future • Their recent work on developing an AIDS vaccine points the way forward. • (often + to) Her speeches pointed the way to several important social reforms.

see which way the cat jumps Australian, informal

to delay making a decision or doing something until you know what is going to happen or what other people are going to do • We'd better wait and see which way the cat jumps before we commit ourselves.

see your way (clear) to doing sth

to be able to do something and agree to do it • Do you think you could see your way clear to lending me a bit more money?

smooth the way for sb/sth smooth sb's/sth's way

to make it easier for someone to do something or for something to happen • Parents can do a lot to smooth the way for their children when they start school. • To smooth the bill's way through Congress, the President met with Republican leaders to hear their views.

That's the way the cookie crumbles.

British, American & Australian, informal That's the way the ball bounces.

American, informal

something that you say which means that bad things sometimes happen and there is nothing you can do to prevent it, so it is not worth becoming upset about it • I can't believe they chose Sam for the job and not me. Ah well, that's the way the cookie crumbles.

wing your/its way

to fly or travel very fast • Within a few hours the package will be winging its way across the Atlantic.

way-out

way-out informal

new, different and often strange • He produced some really way-out designs for the opera house.

ways

ways and means

methods of achieving something • (often + of) Surely there are ways and means of achieving our objectives which don't involve spending quite so much money.

change/mend your ways

to improve the way in which you behave • If he wants to carry on living here, he's going to have to change his ways.

cut both/two ways

to have two different effects at the same time, usually one good and one bad • (never in continuous tenses) Censorship cuts both ways; it prevents people from being corrupted, but it often also prevents them from knowing what is really going on.

wayside

fall by the wayside

- 1 if someone falls by the wayside, they fail to finish an activity • A lot of students fall by the wayside during their first year at university.
- 2 if something falls by the wayside, people stop doing it, making it, or using it
   Many new drugs fall by the wayside in the laboratory.

weak

weak at the knees

if someone goes weak at the knees, they feel as if they might fall down because they have a sudden strong emotion about something or someone • The very thought of jumping out of an aircraft with a parachute made him go weak at the knees. • He was so gorgeous, I felt weak at the knees every time he spoke to me.

a weak link (in the chain) 🔀

the weakest part of a system or the weakest member of a group of people that could cause the whole system or group to fail • It's a strong team, though the goalkeeper may be a weak link because he's rather inexperienced. • The weak link in the chain is the computer software that controls the system.

have a weak spot for sb/sth American X to feel attraction to or affection for someone or something • Sarah has a weak spot for basketball players.

wear

wear and tear

the damage that happens to an object or a person when they are used or when they do something • The guarantee covers accidental damage but not ordinary wear and tear. • (often + on) She made everyone wear slippers inside the house to avoid wear and tear on the carpet. • The wear and tear of life in a busy office has taken its toll on our staff.

wear the trousers British, American & Australian, humorous wear the pants American & Australian, humorous to be the person in a relationship who makes all the important decisions • I don't think there's any doubt about who wears the trousers in their house.

weasel

weasel words mainly American

words that you use to avoid answering a question or to deceive someone • She was too experienced an interviewer to be taken in by the weasel words of crafty politicians.

weather

be/feel under the weather

to feel ill • I'm feeling a little under the weather – I think I may have caught a cold.

keep a weather eye on sth/sb British & Australian

to watch something or someone carefully, because they may cause trouble or they may need help • I'd like you to keep a weather eye on the situation and report any major developments to me at once.

wedding

your wedding tackle British, humorous a man's sexual organs • He wears special padding to protect his wedding tackle.

wedge

drive a wedge between sb

if you drive a wedge between two people or two groups of people, you do something which spoils their relationship • She thinks Samantha's jealous and is trying to drive a wedge between her and her boyfriend. • This is a clear attempt to drive a wedge between the USA and its western allies.

weigh

weigh your words weigh each word

to think carefully about something before you say it • Jake explained the reasons for his decision, weighing each word as he spoke.

weight

be a weight off your shoulders

if something is a weight off your shoulders, you are happy that you do not have to worry about it or feel responsible for it any more • If you could take over the job of organizing the party, that would be a tremendous weight off my shoulders.

carry weight

if what you do or say carries weight with someone, it seems important to them and will influence what they do or think • (often + with) Her opinion carries a lot of weight with the boss.

pull your weight

to work as hard as other people in a group

• The rest of the team complained that Sarah wasn't pulling her weight.

throw your weight around

to behave in a way which shows that you are more important or powerful than other people • He tries to impress the rest of us by throwing his weight around at committee meetings.

throw your weight behind sth/sb

to use your power and influence to support something or someone • If we could persuade the chairman to throw his weight behind the plan, it would have a much better chance of success.

welcome

outstay/overstay your welcome

to stay in a place longer than someone wants you to stay • One more cup of tea and then we'll go. We don't want to outstay our welcome!

well

well and truly

completely • Many people remained in their hiding places until they were sure the war was well and truly over.

be well away

- 1 British, informal to be completely involved in doing something, especially talking • They started talking about football and were soon well away.
- 2 British & Australian, informal to be drunk Annie was dancing on top of the table, so she must have been well away last night.
- 3 British & Australian, informal to be sleeping • Her head started to nod and soon she was well away.

be well in British & Australian

be in well American

to have a good relationship with a person or group which gives you an advantage • (usually + with) There won't be any stopping him now - he's in well with the manager of his company. • Lunch with her mother? You're well in there, mate!

be well up on sth

to have a good knowledge of a subject
• I'm not very well up on Ancient Greek history.

leave well alone British & Australian leave well enough alone American to not change or try to improve something that is not causing any problems • So long as the machine still does what you want it to, my advice is to leave well alone.

• Surgeons are aware that every operation carries some risk, and sometimes decide to leave well enough alone.

well-heeled

well-heeled

rich • You need to be well-heeled to be able to afford to shop there.

well-hung

well-hung very informal

a well-hung man has a large penis • A crowd of well-hung young men paraded around in their underwear.

well-to-do

well-to-do

rich . In Johannesburg's well-to-do suburbs, residents are hiring security guards to protect their homes.

west

go west

- 1 old-fashioned if something goes west, it is destroyed or lost • My watch went west when I accidentally dropped it on a concrete floor. • That's my chance of seeing the game gone west!
- 2 British & Australian, old-fashioned if someone goes west, they die • He went west in a plane crash.

wet

a wet blanket informal

someone who does or says something that stops other people from enjoying themselves • I don't want to be a wet blanket, but you really must play your music more quietly or you'll disturb the people next door.

a wet dream

- 1 a sexually exciting dream that makes semen (= thick liquid containing a man's seed) come out of a man's penis while he is sleeping • Most boys start getting wet dreams in their early teens.
- 2 very informal something that is very pleasant or very exciting for someone
  This new machine is a computer buff's wet dream.

be all wet American

to be completely wrong • Most doctors agreed that the scientific evidence in the report was simply all wet.

be wet behind the ears

to be young and not very experienced • He's fresh out of college, still wet behind the ears.

whack

out of whack

- 1 American & Australian, informal if something is out of whack, it is not working as it should You can use Carol's old bike—the gears are out of whack, but it still goes. If I don't take any exercise for a while it throws my whole body out of whack.
- 2 American & Australian, informal confused and badly organized The state budget is way out of whack and politicians are blaming an influx of immigrants.

whale

a whale of a [bill/difference/problem etc.] American & Australian

a very large bill, difference, problem etc.
• Another thousand dollars would make a whale of a difference. • We ran up a whale of a bill in the restaurant.

a whale of a [job/party/story etc.]

American & Australian a very good job, party, story etc. • They've done a whale of a job renovating the building.

have a whale of a time

to enjoy yourself very much • 'Did Sam enjoy himself at the party?' 'He had a whale of a time.'

what

(Well) what do you know!

something that you say when you are surprised by a piece of information This phrase is often used humorously to mean the opposite. • And they're getting married? Well, what do you know! • (humorous) Well, what do you know! The Raiders lost again.

and what have you informal

and other similar things • There were a couple of bags full of old records, magazines and what have you.

What's up? informal

something that you say in order to ask someone what is wrong • What's up? Why haven't you left yet? • You're quiet – what's up? • (often + with) What's up with Tom? He hasn't spoken all morning.

whatever

Whatever turns you on. humorous

something that you say when you are surprised at something that someone likes to do • So you stuff animals in your spare time? Oh well, whatever turns you on.

wheat

separate the wheat from the chaff

to choose the things or people that are of high quality from a group of mixed quality • A preliminary look through the applications will help you to separate the wheat from the chaff.

wheel

be at/behind the wheel

if you are at the wheel of a vehicle, you are driving it • I always feel perfectly safe when Richard's at the wheel.

get behind the wheel • When Anna gets behind the wheel of a fast car, she's a danger to the public.

a fifth/third wheel American

someone who is in a situation where they are not really needed or are ignored by other people • I don't have a role in the office any more – I feel like a fifth wheel.

reinvent the wheel

to waste time trying to develop products or systems that you think are original when in fact they have already been done before • Why reinvent the wheel when there are drugs already on the market that are effective?

wheeling

wheeling and dealing

complicated and sometimes dishonest agreements in business or politics that people try to achieve in order to make profits or get advantages • It's an article about all the wheeling and dealing that goes on infinancial markets.

wheel and deal • He's the sort of guy that likes to drive fast cars and wheel and deal on the stock exchange.

a wheeler-dealer • He worked in the property business for a number of years, acquiring a reputation as a formidable wheeler-dealer.

wheels

the wheels are turning

something that you say which means a process is starting to happen • By the late 1940s the wheels were turning that would make a manned space flight possible by the end of the next decade.

oil the wheels

to make it easier for something to happen • (usually + of) An aid programme was established to oil the wheels of economic reform in the region.

set the wheels in motion

to cause a series of actions to start that will help you achieve what you want • A phone call to the right person should set the wheels in motion.

spin your wheels American, informal to waste time doing things that achieve nothing • (often in continuous tenses) If we're just spinning our wheels, let us know and we'll guit.

when

as and when British, American & Australian

if and when American & Australian if you do something as and when, you do it when it is needed or convenient, not in a regular way • Let's not go to the supermarket this week. We can just pick up some food as and when we need it.

whip

crack the whip

to use your authority to make someone work harder, usually by threatening or punishing them A whip is a piece of leather or rope fastened to a stick which you hit a horse with in order to make it go faster. • We were already three months behind schedule so I thought it was time to crack the whip.

have/hold the whip hand

to be the person or group that has the most power in a situation • So long as we rely on them for money, they have the whip hand.

whipping

a whipping boy

someone or something that is blamed or punished for problems that are caused by someone or something else • Television has been the favourite whipping boy of every social reformer in modern America.

whip-round

a whip-round British & Australian,

informal a collecti

a collection of money among a group of people that is used to buy a present for someone • We had a whip-round for Annie's leaving present.

whirlwind

reap the whirlwind American

to have serious problems because you did something stupid in the past • Having fired some of his best reporters, he's now reaping the whirlwind with rapidly declining newspaper sales.

whisker

by a whisker

by a very small amount • Last time she raced against the Brazilian she won by a whisker. • He missed the goal by a whisker.

come within a whisker of sth/doing sth

if you come within a whisker of doing something, you almost do it or it almost happens to you • He came within a whisker of beating the world champion.
• Several times on his trek through the jungle he came within a whisker of death.

whistle

blow the whistle on sb/sth

to tell someone in authority about something bad that is happening so that it can be stopped • He was dismissed when he tried to blow the whistle on the safety problems at the factory. • The kids are encouraged to blow the whistle on any of their friends who are using drugs.

a whistle-blower • Every organization needs a whistle-blower, someone who can stand up and say, 'Hey, you can't do that!'

He/She/They can whistle for it! old-

fashioned

something that you say which means you are determined that someone will not get what they want • If they want money, they can whistle for it. They're not getting a penny out of me!

wet your whistle old-fashioned

to have a drink, especially an alcoholic drink • You must be thirsty after all that work – would you care to wet your whistle?

whistle-stop

a whistle-stop tour

a very quick visit to several places • (often + of) Coach loads of tourists come for whistle-stop tours of the main European cities.

whistling

be whistling Dixie American, informal

to talk in a way that makes things seem better than they really are • (usually negative) We're really making money these days and I'm not just whistling Dixie.

be whistling in the dark

to be confident that something good will happen when it is not at all likely • She seems pretty sure she'll win the title, but she may just be whistling in the dark.

white

white trash American, very informal

an offensive way of describing poor white people who are not educated • These are the poor white trash that the middle class don't want to know about.

a white elephant

something that has cost a lot of money but has no useful purpose • The town's new leisure centre, recently completed at a cost of ten million pounds, seems likely to prove a white elephant.

a white knight

someone who gives money to a company in order to prevent it from being bought by another company • Hope is fading that a white knight will appear to stop the takeover bid.

a white lie

a lie that you tell in order not to upset someone • I don't see the harm in telling the occasional white lie if it spares someone's feelings.

be as white as a sheet

to be very pale, usually because you are frightened or ill • She was trembling all over and as white as a sheet.

be as white as snow

to be very white • His hair and beard were as white as snow.

white-bread

white-bread American

white-bread people or things are ordinary and boring, and often those that are typical of white, American people • (always before noun) It's a movie about middle America – white-bread characters living white-bread lives.

white-collar

white-collar

a white-collar worker is someone who works in an office, doing mental rather than physical work • (always before noun) The ratio of white-collar workers to production workers in the American manufacturing industry was declining.
• The earnings of women in white-collar jobs are the second highest in Britain.

• The 1980's saw an explosion in white-collar crime. (= crimes committed by white-collar workers, especially stealing from the organization they work for)

whiter

whiter than white

someone who is whiter than white is completely good and honest and never does anything bad • I never was convinced by the whiter than white image of her portrayed in the press.

whizz-kid

a whizz-kid

a young person who is very clever and successful • They've taken on some financial whizz-kid who's going to sort all their problems out.

whole

the whole picture

the most important facts about a situation and the effects of that situation on other things • You're just taking into account Melissa's views of the situation but of course that's not the whole picture.

go the whole hog British, American & Australian

go whole hog American

to do something as completely as possible
• It was going to cost so much to repair my computer, I thought I might as well go the whole hog and buy a new one. • I went whole hog and had a huge steak and French fries.

make sth up out of whole cloth

American

invent sth out of whole cloth American

if a story or excuse is made up out of whole cloth, it is not true • Yet the explanation was too strange for Joan to have made up out of whole cloth.

whoopee

make whoopee

- 1 old-fashioned, informal to celebrate and enjoy yourself in a noisy way • (usually in continuous tenses) It's hard working when everyone else is out there in the streets making whoopee.
- 2 American, old-fashioned, informal to have sex • (usually in continuous tenses) They spent most of the week in the hotel room making whoopee.

whys

the whys and (the) wherefores

the reasons for something • I know very little about the whys and the wherefores of the situation.

wick

get on sb's wick British & Australian, informal

to annoy someone • She'd been asking me questions all day and it was starting to get on my wick.

wicked

have your wicked way with sb humorous to have sex with someone • He invited her to France for the weekend, thinking he would have his wicked way with her.

There's no peace/rest for the wicked!

humorous

something that you say which means you must continue an activity although you might like to stop • I can't talk – I've got to finish this essay. There's no rest for the wicked.

wide

a wide boy British, informal

a man or boy who tries to make a lot of money in ways that are not honest • He's a bit of a wide boy – I wouldn't get involved in any of his schemes if I were you.

be wide of the mark

- 1 to be wrong Yesterday's weather forecast was rather wide of the mark.
- 2 if you are wide of the mark when you aim or shoot at something, you miss what you are trying to hit • Giggs had another chance early in the second half, but once again his shot was wide of the mark.

be wide open

if a game or a competition is wide open, any of the people who are competing can win because they are all equally good • At this stage, with only four points separating the six top teams, the championship is still wide open.

blow sth wide open

- 1 to make it impossible to guess who will win a competition She was the favourite to win, so her withdrawal has blown the election wide open.
- 2 to make something that someone is trying to achieve fail completely, often by telling people something which should have been a secret He's threatening to blow the whole operation wide open if we don't give him a bigger share of the profits.

give sb/sth a wide berth

to avoid someone or something • I try to give the city centre a wide berth on a Saturday. • If she's in a bad mood I tend to give her a wide berth.

wild

wild horses

if you say that wild horses couldn't make you do something, you mean nothing could persuade you to do it • Wild horses couldn't drag me to a party tonight.

a wild card

- 1 someone or something that you do not know much about and whose behaviour in the future you cannot be certain of The real wild card is the undecided vote, which accounts for 18 to 25 percent of the electorate. The company is fast gaining a reputation as the wild card of Wall Street because of violent fluctuations in its profits.
- 2 if someone gets a wild card or is a wild card in a sports competition, they are allowed to enter the competition without passing the usual tests • She was included in the European team as a wild card.

wild-card • (always before noun) Connors, the five-times champion, is among eight wild-card entries to the US Open in New York next month.

sow your wild oats

if a young man sows his wild oats, he has a period of his life when he does a lot of exciting things and has a lot of sexual relationships • He'd spent his twenties sowing his wild oats but felt that it was time to settle down.

wilderness

in the wilderness

someone, especially a politician, who is in the wilderness, does not now have the power or influence that they had before • He spent several years in the political wilderness after conservatives objected to his attempts to reform the police.

wildest

beyond your wildest dreams

far more than you could have hoped for or imagined • Twenty years later the company has succeeded beyond his wildest dreams. • Her books have brought her riches beyond her wildest dreams.

not in my wildest dreams

if you say that you did not imagine something in your wildest dreams, you mean that something that has happened was so strange that you never thought it would happen • Never in my wildest dreams did I think she'd actually carry out her threat. • Not in my wildest dreams could I have imagined England winning 4-I.

wildfire

spread like wildfire

if disease or news spreads like wildfire, it quickly affects or becomes known by more and more people • Once one child in the school has become infected, the disease spreads like wildfire. • Scandal spreads like wildfire round here.

wild-goose

a wild-goose chase

a situation where you waste time looking for something that you are not going to find, either because that thing does not exist or because you have been given wrong information about it • After two hours spent wandering in the snow, I realised we were on a wild-goose chase.
• When I found out that there was no Anita Hill at the university, I began to suspect that I had been sent on a wild-goose chase.

will

Where there's a will there's a way!

something that you say which means it is possible to do anything if you are very determined to do it • I don't quite know how I'm going to get to Istanbul with no money, but where there's a way!

willy-nilly

willy-nilly

- 1 informal if something happens willynilly, it happens whether the people who are involved want it to happen or not
  - Both countries are being drawn, willynilly, into the conflict.
- 2 informal without any order We threw our bags willy-nilly into the back of the truck.

win

You can't win 'em all. informal

You win some, you lose some. informal something that you say which means it is not possible to succeed at everything you do • I'm a bit disappointed I didn't get the job. Oh well, you can't win 'em all. • Obviously I would have liked first prize but you win some, you lose some.

wind

be in the wind

to be likely to happen soon • From my recent conversations with Sara I get the feeling that change is in the wind.

be spitting in/into the wind

be pissing in/into the wind very informal

to waste time trying to achieve something that cannot be achieved • The government is spitting in the wind if they think a few regulations will stop multinational companies from avoiding tax. • Trying to get a pay increase here is like pissing in the wind.

426

break wind

to allow gas to escape from your bottom, especially loudly • At a wedding that I attended last summer, one of the guests broke wind very loudly during the groom's speech.

get wind of sth

to hear a piece of information that someone else was trying to keep secret • I don't want my boss to get wind of the fact that I'm leaving so I'm not telling many people.

get/put the wind up sb British &

Australian, informal

to make someone feel anxious about their situation • Say you'll take him to court if he doesn't pay up – that should put the wind up him.

run like the wind

to run very fast • She's very slight in build and she can run like the wind.

sail close to the wind

to do something that is dangerous or only just legal or acceptable • I think she realized she was sailing a little too close to the wind and decided to tone down her criticism.

see which way the wind is blowing see how the wind is blowing

to see how a situation is developing before you make a decision about it • I think we ought to talk to other members of staff and see which way the wind's blowing before we make any firm decisions.

take the wind out of sb's sails

to make someone feel less confident or less determined to do something, usually by saying or doing something that they are not expecting • I was going to tell him the relationship was over when he greeted me with a big bunch of flowers and it rather took the wind out of my sails.

leave sb to twist in the wind American

if someone is left to twist in the wind, they are left in a very difficult situation by the actions of another person • The director resigned and left the rest of the department twisting in the wind, waiting to see if the project would continue.

windmills

tilt at windmills literary

to waste time trying to deal with enemies or problems that do not exist • We're not tilting at windmills here. If we don't do something about these problems, our environment may be in serious danger.

window

go out (of) the window

if a quality, principle, or idea goes out of the window, it does not exist any more • Then people start drinking and sense goes out of the window.

wine

wine and dine sb

to entertain someone by giving them an expensive meal and wine • (usually passive) I'm an old-fashioned girl at heart — I like to be wined and dined on the first few dates.

wining and dining • His job involves a lot of wining and dining of potential customers.

wing

wing it informal

to do the best that you can in a situation that you are not prepared for • I hadn't had time to prepare the talk so I just had to wing it.

be on the wing literary

if a bird or insect is on the wing, it is flying • Numerous orange-tip butterflies were on the wing in the warm sunshine.

on a wing and a prayer

if you do something on a wing and a prayer, you do it hoping that you will succeed although you are not prepared enough for it • With scarcely any funding and a staff of six, they operate on a wing and a prayer.

take sb under your wing

to help and protect someone, especially someone who is younger than you or has less experience than you • One of the older children will usually take a new girl or boy under their wing for the first few weeks.

under the wing of sth

under the control of an organization
• The newspaper is once again in Scottish hands, under the wing of a newly created company, Caledonian Newspaper Publishing.

wings

clip sb's wings

to limit someone's freedom Dirds who have had their wings clipped (= cut) cannot fly. • She never had kids. I guess she thought motherhood would clip her wings.

spread your wings

to start to do new and exciting things for the first time in your life • The kids had all grown up and left home and I thought it was time to spread my wings and live a little.

try your wings American

to try to do something that you have recently learned to do • She's just qualified and is looking for a chance to try her wings as a design consultant.

wink

not sleep a wink

not get a wink of sleep

to not sleep at all • I was so excited last night—I didn't sleep a wink. • I didn't get a wink of sleep on the plane.

tip sb the wink British & Australian, oldfashioned

to secretly give someone a piece of information that will help them • So if you hear of any jobs going in your department, just tip me the wink, would you?

winner

be onto a winner

to be likely to succeed, usually because what you are selling is very popular • I think they're onto a winner with their latest product.

wire

down to the wire American & Australian until the very last moment that it is possible to do something ♠ In a horse race, the wire is a metal thread that marks the finishing line. • If both teams are playing at their best, the game will go down to the wire (= it will be won at the last moment). • The Democrats struggled down to the wire to choose their candidate.

under the wire American

if someone does something under the wire, they do it at the last possible moment • They got in under the wire just before the entry requirements for the training program changed.

wisdom

the conventional/received wisdom

knowledge or information that people generally believe is true, although in fact it is often false • The conventional wisdom is that marriage makes a relationship more secure, but as the divorce rates show, this is not necessarily true.

in his/her/their (infinite) wisdom

humorous

something that you say when you do not understand why someone has done something and think that it was a stupid action • The council, in their wisdom, decided to close the library and now the building stands empty.

wise

- a wise guy American & Australian, informal
- a wise-ass American, very informal someone who is always trying to seem more clever than everyone else in a way that is annoying Okay, wise guy, if you're so damned smart, you can tell everyone how it's done! He's just some wise-ass who thinks he knows all the answers.

wise-guy American & Australian, informal wise-ass American, very informal • (always before noun) Hyde's wise-guy humour loses its charm after a few episodes.

wiser

be none the wiser

to still be confused about something, even after it has been explained to you • Isobel must have explained the theory three times to me but I'm afraid I'm still none the wiser.

no one will be any the wiser

something that you say which means that no one will notice something bad that someone has done • Take the label off the jar and say you made it yourself. No one will be any the wiser.

wish

a wish list

a list of things that someone wants very much • Most families with kids have a larger house on their wish list.

wishful

wishful thinking

thinking or talking about something that you would very much like to happen although you know it probably will not happen • 'Do you think you might be in line for promotion, then? 'No, it's just wishful thinking.'

witch-hunt

a witch-hunt

an attempt to find and punish people who have opinions that are believed to be dangerous • Senator McCarthy led a witch-hunt against suspected communists during the 1950's.

witching

the witching hour

twelve o'clock at night • It's time I was in bed – it's already past the witching hour.

with

with it informal

knowing a lot about new ideas and fashions • Jenny's very with it – she'll know what people are wearing this summer. • Oh get with it! They're the band everyone's been talking about for weeks.

be with it informal

to be able to think or understand quickly • (usually negative) I had rather a late night so I'm not very with it this morning, I'm afraid.

wits

A person's wits is their practical intelligence and understanding. Wits is used in the following phrases connected with a person's intelligence or reaction to something.

be at your wits' end

428

to be very worried or upset because you have tried every possible way to solve a problem but cannot do it • I've tried everything I can think of to make her eat and she flatly refuses. I'm really at my wits' end.

frighten/scare sb out of their wits

to make someone very frightened • Don't shout like that – you scared me out of my wits!

gather your wits literary

to make an effort to become calm and think more clearly • Sitting down in one of the chairs I attempted to gather my wits and decide what I should do.

have/keep your wits about you

to be ready to think quickly in a situation and react to things that you are not expecting • Cycling is potentially very dangerous in London – you really need to keep your wits about you.

live by/on your wits

to earn enough money to live by being clever or by cheating people • A lot of these kids are thrown out onto the streets and they have to live by their wits.

pit your wits against sb/sth

to compete against someone or something using your intelligence • That's the pleasure of fishing – pitting your wits against these clever little fish that are trying desperately not to get caught.

wobbler

throw a wobbler/wobbly British &

Australian, informal

to suddenly become very angry • She saw Peter talking to an attractive blonde and threw a wobbly.

woe

woe betide sb humorous

if you say woe betide the person who does something, you mean that they will be punished or cause trouble for themselves if they do that thing • Woe betide anyone who plays Ann's tapes without her permission.

wolf

a wolf in sheep's clothing

someone who seems to be pleasant and friendly but is in fact dangerous or evil
• My next boss, on the surface very warm and charming, proved to be something of a wolf in sheep's clothing.

a wolf whistle

a whistle (= high sound that is made by blowing air through the lips) that some men do when they see a woman who is sexually attractive • She'll get a few wolf whistles if she walks through town in those shorts.

wolf-whistle sb British & Australian • I was wolf-whistled by a group of builders as I crossed the street.

cry wolf

to ask for help when you do not need it, with the result that no one believes you when help is necessary • She had repeatedly rung the police for trivial reasons and perhaps she had cried wolf too often.

keep the wolf from the door

to have enough money to be able to eat and live • Forty percent of the country's population receive part-time wages that barely keep the wolf from the door.

wolves

throw sb to the wolves British, American & Australian

leave sb to the wolves Australian

to cause someone to be in a situation where they are criticized strongly or treated badly and to not try to protect them • No one warned me what sort of people I would be dealing with. I felt I'd been thrown to the wolves.

wonder

a nine/one/seven-day wonder /

someone or something that causes interest or excitement for a short period but is then quickly forgotten • His music was derided by an older generation convinced that he was a nine-day wonder.

wonders

work wonders

to improve something a lot • (often + for)

Extra water in the diet is generally beneficial to the health and it works wonders for the skin. • He's only been in charge at Arsenal for a couple of months and already he's worked wonders.

wood

not be out of the wood/woods

to continue having difficulties although a situation has improved • Financially, things are looking distinctly more hopeful, but we're not out of the woods yet.

touch wood British, American & Australian #### knock (on) wood American

something that you say when you want your luck or a good situation to continue • It's been fine all week and, touch wood, it'll stay fine for the weekend. • We haven't had any problems with the car so far, knock on wood.

wooden

the wooden spoon British & Australian an imaginary prize given to the person who finishes last in a race or competition

• For the second year running Ireland took the wooden spoon in the Rugby

Don't take any wooden nickels.

American, informal

tournament.

something that you say when someone leaves, to tell them to be careful and to take good care of themselves • Hey guys - have a good trip, and don't take any wooden nickels.

woodwork

come/crawl out of the woodwork

to appear after being hidden or not active for a long time, especially in order to do something unpleasant • After you've been in a relationship for a long while, all sorts of little secrets start to come out of the woodwork. • Racists and extremenationalists are crawling out of the woodwork to protest at the sudden increase in the number of immigrants.

wool

pull the wool over sb's eyes

to deceive someone in order to prevent them from knowing what you are really doing • Don't let insurance companies pull the wool over your eyes – ask for a list of all the hidden charges.

word

word for word

if a written or spoken statement is repeated word for word, it is repeated using exactly the same words • The article was reprinted word for word in a different newspaper the next day.

sb's word is law

if someone's word is law, everyone must obey them • There's no use questioning any of his rules – his word is law around here.

A word to the wise (is sufficient).

something that you say when you are going to give someone some advice • A word to the wise – if you're going to drive, don't go on a Friday night until after the rush hour traffic.

not believe a word of it

to not believe that something is true
• Have you heard what they're saying about Andrew? I don't believe a word of it.

not breathe a word

to not tell people a secret • Please tell me what happened. I promise I won't breathe a word.

by word of mouth

if you hear information by word of mouth, you hear it from other people and not from the radio or television or from reading newspapers • I think she heard about the job by word of mouth.

from the word go

from the start of something • I knew from the word go that she was going to cause problems.

get a word in edgeways British,

American & Australian, informal

get a word in edgewise American,

informal

if you can't get a word in edgeways, you do not have an opportunity to say anything because someone is talking so much or so quickly • Roz was talking so much that nobody else could get a word in edgeways.

have a word in sb's ear

to talk to someone privately, especially in order to give them advice or a warning • The boss had a word in his ear after the last meeting and I don't think he'll be raising the subject again.

have the final/last word

- 1 to say the last statement in a discussion or argument • Tim can't bear to lose an argument. He always has to have the last word.
- 2 to make the final decision about something (usually + on) Our head chef has the final word on what is served each week.

in a word

something that you say when you are going to give your opinion about something in a short and direct way • 'So, tell me, do you find him attractive?' 'In a word – no.'

a man of his word

a woman of her word

someone you can trust because you know they will do what they say they will do • Rae was a woman of her word – if she said she'd be here on Friday, she'd be here on Friday.

say the word

if you tell someone that they only have to say the word and you will do something for them, you mean that you will do it immediately if they ask you • You only have to say the word and I'll come and help. • Just say the word and the boys'll make sure he never gives you any more trouble.

spread the word

to tell other people, often a lot of other people, about something • A meeting has been arranged for next Thursday, so if you see anyone, do spread the word. • (often + that) We need to start spreading the word that recycling is important.

take sb's word for it

to believe that something is true because someone tells you it is, without making sure that it really is true • (often in future tenses) If you say you've checked the money I'll take your word for it. • Don't just take her word for it - go and see for yourself.

take sh at their word

to decide to believe exactly what someone tells you, even if it does not seem likely to be true • When he said he'd give me a job, I took him at his word and turned up the next day at his office.

won't hear a word (said) against sb/sth

if you won't hear a word said against someone or something, you refuse to believe anything bad about them • He's completely infatuated with the woman and won't hear a word said against her.

words

Words fail me!

something that you say when you are so surprised or shocked by something that you do not know what to say about it • 'So what do you think about that purple outfit Olive's wearing?' 'Words fail me!'

have to eat your words

to be forced to admit that something you said before was wrong • She told me I'd never be able to give up smoking, but she had to eat her words.

make sb eat their words • She made him eat his words about women not having the physical strength to become boxers.

have words

to speak to someone angrily • (usually + with) There were several penalties and the referee had words with one of the players after the match.

in so many words

directly or in a way that makes it very clear what you mean • (usually negative) 'Did he say we could stay with him?' 'Well, not in so many words, but that's definitely what he meant.' • He told me, in so many words, to mind my own business.

in words of one syllable

if you explain something in words of one syllable, you do it in words that are very simple and easy to understand because the person you are explaining it to is stupid 🔊 A syllable is a unit of sound that is made by a combination of letters. Words which only have one syllable are short and simple. • I was trying to explain to him again, in words of one syllable, why safety regulations must be obeyed at all times.

(You) mark my words. old-fashioned

something that you say when you tell someone about something that you are certain will happen in the future • That girl's going to cause trouble, you mark my words.

not mince (your) words

to say what you mean clearly and directly, even if you upset people by doing this

The report does not mince words about the incompetence of some government officials. Never a woman to mince her words, she described the former minister as self-centred and arrogant.

put words in/into sb's mouth

to tell someone what you think they mean or want to say • I certainly don't think you should resign, stop putting words in my mouth.

take the words out of sb's mouth

to say exactly what someone else was going to say or what they were thinking • I was just going to mention that, but you took the words right out of my mouth.

work

work your arse/backside off British & Australian, very informal work your ass/butt off American, very informal to work very hard • My father worked his backside off to pay for our education.

work like a dog/trojan

to work very hard • He worked like a dog all day to finish the wallpapering.

All work and no play (makes Jack a dull boy).

something that you say which means people who work all the time become boring • You need to get out more in the evenings. You know what they say about all work and no play...

donkey work British, American & Australian, informal

grunt work American, informal

hard, boring work 🖄 In the past, donkeys were used to carry heavy loads.

• Why do I have to do all the donkey work while you get to do the interesting stuff?

have your work cut out (for you)

if you have your work cut out, you have something very difficult to do • We're training a completely new team, so we've got our work cut out for us. • (often in future tenses) Have you seen the state of the garden? She'll have her work cut out to get it looking nice in time for the summer.

works

the (whole) works informal

everything that you might want or might expect to find in a particular situation • The bridegroom was wearing a morning suit, top hat, gloves – the works.

give sb the works informal • It's a celebration dinner – give us the works.

gum up the works

to prevent a machine or system from operating correctly • In bad weather, twice as many people use their cars on the road, which really gums up the works.

put/throw a spanner in the works British & Australian

put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works American

to do something that prevents a plan or activity from succeeding • We were hoping to get the project started in June but the funding was withdrawn so that rather threw a spanner in the works. • The sudden withdrawal of the guest speaker really threw a monkey wrench in the works.

shoot the works American, informal to spend all your money or to use as much effort as possible to do something • (usually + on) I could shoot the works on a round the world trip. • They shot the works on their daughter's wedding.

world

a world of difference

- 1 if there is a world of difference between two people or things, they are very different • (usually + between) There's a world of difference between seeing a film on video and seeing it in the cinema.
- 2 if something makes a world of difference, it improves something very much • A little sympathy makes a world of difference to someone who's been badly treated.

(all) the world and his wife British &

Australian, informal

a very large number of people • It's a huge outdoor concert – I imagine the world and his wife will be there.

the world is your oyster

if the world is your oyster, you have the ability and the freedom to do anything or go anywhere • You're young and healthy and you've got no commitments, so the world is your oyster.

be in another world be in a world of your own

to not notice what is happening around you, usually because you are thinking about something else • She just sat and stared out of the window most of the time – she seemed to be in another world. • I don't think you even heard me, did you? You're in a world of your own.

be out of this world informal

to be extremely good or enjoyable • Their chocolate cake is just out of this world!

come/go down in the world British, Australian & American

move down in the world American & Australian

to have less money and a worse social position than you had before • They used to live in a big house with lots of servants, but they've come down in the world since then. • When we had to sell our house and take a small apartment downtown, we felt we'd really moved down in the world.

OPPOSITE come/go up in the world British, Australian & American

move up in the world American & Australian • Peter and Ann have gone up in the world – they only ever travel first class these days.

do sb the world of good

to make someone feel much healthier or happier • We had a week away in the sun and it's done us both the world of good.

have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders

if you look or feel as if you have the cares

433

of the world on your shoulders, you look or feel very worried or sad • I've never seen such a change in anyone. He looks as if he's got the cares of the world on his shoulders.

have the world at your feet

someone who has the world at their feet is extremely successful and popular • Only six months after her debut, this young star of the Royal Ballet already has the world at her feet.

a man/woman of the world

someone who has a lot of experience of life, and is not usually shocked by the way people behave • You're a man of the world, Roger, I'd appreciate your advice on a rather delicate matter.

not set the world on fire

to not be very exciting or successful • The restaurant offers a decent menu, but it wouldn't set the world on fire.

think the world of sb

to like or admire someone very much

• He's an excellent doctor. His patients all think the world of him.

What's the world coming to?

something that you say which means that life is not as pleasant or safe as it was in the past • What's the world coming to when you can't leave your house for five minutes without someone trying to break in and rob you?

your whole world came crashing down around you

your whole world (was) turned upside down

if your whole world comes crashing down around you, something unpleasant happens in your life that suddenly makes you feel very upset or confused • Suddenly they weren't popular any more, nobody wanted to buy their records, and their whole world came crashing down around them. • When I found out he'd had an affair, my whole world turned upside down.

worlds

be worlds apart

if two things or people are worlds apart, they are completely different from each other • You can't compare a cheap stereo with a top of the range model – they're worlds apart.

the best of both worlds

if you get the best of both worlds, you get the advantages of two different things at the same time • She works in the city and lives in the country, so she gets the best of both worlds. • With these delicious but healthy recipes you can have the best of both worlds.

OPPOSITE the worst of both worlds

• Farmers have the worst of both worlds: low prices for their products, and no guarantee they'll be able to sell them.

worm

The worm has turned.

something that you say when someone who has always been weak and obedient starts to behave more confidently or take control of a situation • Yesterday, she just came in and told him to stop bossing her around. The worm has turned!

a worm's eye view British & Australian

if you have a worm's eye view of something, you only know or understand a part of it, usually the worst or least important part • Set in the Paris underworld, the novel provides us with a worm's eye view of society.

worried

be worried sick

to be extremely worried • (often + about) Why didn't you call me when you knew you were going to be late? I was worried sick about you!

worse

be the worse for wear

- 1 if something is the worse for wear, it is in bad condition or damaged because it has been used a lot • This sofa is rather the worse for wear, but it will have to do until we can afford a new one.
- 2 someone who is the worse for wear is very tired or feeling ill • I drank far too much and woke up the next morning feeling rather the worse for wear.

worst

I/You wouldn't wish sth on my/your worst enemy.

something that you say in order to emphasize that something is extremely unpleasant • The effects of this disease are horrible. You wouldn't wish them on your worst enemy.

if the worst comes to the worst British, American & Australian

if worst comes to worst American

something that you say in order to tell someone what you will do if a situation becomes very difficult or serious • If the worst comes to the worst, we'll have to give them our bed and sleep on the floor. • If worst came to worst, could we sell the car to raise some extra cash?

worth

be worth your while

if something is worth your while, you will get an advantage if you do it • (often + doing sth) It's worth your while taking out travel insurance if you are going abroad.

make sth worth your while if you tell someone that you will make it worth their while if they do something, you mean you will pay them to do something, especially something bad or illegal • If you can get us his personal files, we'll make it worth your while.

be worth its/your weight in gold

to be extremely useful or valuable • A book that could tell me in simple language how to use this computer would be worth its weight in gold. • Really good experienced singers are worth their weight in gold to the choir.

wounds

lick your wounds

to feel unhappy after a defeat or an unpleasant experience When dogs and other animals are injured, they lick their wounds (= injuries) in order to help them get better. • After retiring to lick its wounds, the party is regaining its confidence.

wraps

take the wraps off sth

to finally let people know about a new product or plan after keeping it secret for a long time • They have yet to take the wraps off the design for the new opera house.

under wraps

secret • The financial details of the case have been kept firmly under wraps. • The identity of the buyer is still under wraps.

wringer

put sb through the wringer

to make someone have a very difficult or unpleasant experience (a) In the past, a wringer was a machine used for pressing water out of clothes. • They really put me through the wringer in my interview.

go through the wringer • I went through the wringer to get my first film part.

writ

writ large formal

if something is another thing writ large, it is a clearer or stronger form of that thing • Hollywood is American society writ large.

be writ large formal

to be very obvious • Anger was writ large in his face.

written

be written all over sb's face

if an emotion is written all over someone's face, it is clearly shown in their face • Any fool could see you weren't happy – it was written all over your face.

It's written in the stars.

something that you say which means something good was caused by the power that is believed to control what happens to people's lives • It was written in the stars that we should meet and fall in love.

wrong

back the wrong horse

to support a person or thing that fails • It was only after we'd invested all the money that we discovered we'd been backing the wrong horse.

be in the wrong

to have done something which is wrong, for which you should be blamed • If they failed to notice the damage, they're definitely in the wrong. • Ifully accept that I was in the wrong and I think I ought to apologize.

be on the wrong end of sth

to suffer the bad effects of something • Companies that violate this law can find themselves on the wrong end of big law suits.

be on the wrong track

to be doing something in a way that will cause you to fail • I think the government's on the wrong track with this latest policy.

Don't get me wrong. informal

something that you say before you express an opinion about someone or something and you do not want people to think that you are criticizing that person or thing too severely • Don't get me wrong, I like Carol, I just think she has some irritating habits.

fall into the wrong hands

if something falls into the wrong hands, a dangerous person or an enemy starts to own or control it • There are fears that weapons might fall into the wrong hands.

• If this sort of information fell into the wrong hands, we could be in serious trouble.

get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick informal

to not understand a situation correctly

· Her friend saw us arrive at the party together and got hold of the wrong end of the stick. • I said how nice he was and Julie got the wrong end of the stick and thought I wanted to go out with him.

get on the wrong side of the law find yourself on the wrong side of the

law

to be in trouble with the police because you have done something illegal • From last Monday, owners of fighting dogs who fail to control them in public could find themselves on the wrong side of the law.

go down the wrong way

if food or drink goes down the wrong way, it goes down the wrong tube in your throat and makes you cough or stop breathing for a short time • I'm all right, it's just a piece of chicken that went down the wrong way.

rub sb up the wrong way British & Australian

rub sb the wrong way American

to annoy someone without intending to
• It's not her fault - she just rubs me up the wrong way, • Whenever they meet, they always manage to rub each other the wrong way.

take sth the wrong way

to feel that someone is criticizing you when in fact they are not • Don't take this the wrong way, Jonathan, but at 33 aren't you getting a bit old for this game?
• If ever I make a suggestion, she always takes it the wrong way and we end up arguing.

year

from/since the year dot British & Australian from/since the year one American for a very long time • Children have been fascinated by ghost stories since the year dot.

years

put years on sb

to make someone look or feel much older
• The breakup of his marriage put years on him.

OPPOSITE take years off sb • Losing all that weight has taken years off her.

vellow

yellow journalism American

writing in newspapers that tries to get people's attention or influence their opinions by using strong language or false information • The paper is practising yellow journalism at its worst with its scandalous stories about the Governor and his family.

yellow-bellied

vellow-bellied old-fashioned

a yellow-bellied person is not at all brave • You're a load of yellow-bellied fools, too frightened to stand up for what you believe in!

yes

a yes man

someone who agrees with everything their boss or leader says in order to please them • He denies that he's simply a yes man, and insists he'll be making major changes to the way the club is run.

young

young blood

young people in an organization who will provide new ideas and energy • These companies are suffering from a lack of young blood.

zero-sum

a zero-sum game American

a situation where two people compete and if one of them wins anything, exactly the same must be lost by the other • Radio has become a zero-sum game, with stations gaining listeners only at each other's expense.

z's

catch/cop/get some z's American,

informal

to sleep  $\stackrel{\frown}{\bowtie}$  In funny drawings, people who are sleeping are often shown with z's coming out of their mouths. • All I want to do is go home and catch some z's.

2514001-05100-0

THE RESERVE AND THE PROPERTY OF

the secondary

A STATE OF THE REAL PROPERTY.

Theme Panels

Anger

'What's wrong?' asked Claire. 'You've been like a bear with a sore head all morning.' 'I've had it up to here,' I replied. 'I've got three reports to write by five o'clock, and if I don't finish them on time, Bill's going to hit the roof. I've already put his back up by refusing to work late, and he's likely to blow a fuse if I don't get this job done.' Just then, the phone rang. It was the managing director asking me if I would help show some clients around the office. This was the second time she'd asked me and, although it was a pain in the neck, I had to agree because she was the one person I didn't want to rub up the wrong way. Two hours later, I was still busy. As we reached my department, Claire came running up to me. 'Where've you been?' she whispered. 'Bill's on the warpath because you haven't done those reports yet.' At that moment, he appeared by the door, with a face like thunder. He was just about to let rip when he saw the managing director standing next to me. 'Hello, Bill,' she said. 'Let me introduce you to some very important clients.'

being angry

hit the ceiling/roof informal to become very angry and start shouting blow a fuse informal to become very angry and shout or behave in a violent way

be on the warpath humorous
to be looking for someone you are angry with in order to speak angrily to them or punish them

a face like thunder a very angry expression have/throw a fit informal go spare informal to become very angry fly off the handle informal to react in a very angry way to something someone says or does have had it (up to here) informal to be so angry about something that you do not want to continue with it or think about it any more be fed up to the back teeth British & Australian, informal to be angry because a bad situation has continued for too long or a subject has been discussed too much

making someone angry

get/put sb's back up informal to do or say something which annoys someone

rub sb up the wrong way British & Australian rub sb the wrong way American to annoy someone without intending to ruffle sb's feathers to make someone annoyed

be a pain in the neck informal to be very annoying drive/send sb round the bend

to make someone very angry, especially by continuing to do something annoying

talking angrily to someone

let rip

to suddenly express your emotions without control

give sb an earful informal to tell someone how angry you are with them

being in a bad mood

be like a bear with a sore head British & Australian to be in a bad mood which causes you to treat other people badly and complain a lot

get out of bed on the wrong side to be in a bad mood and be easily annoyed all day

Business

Richard had always been determined to make it in business. After leaving school, he set up a stall in the market selling cheap CDs and cassettes and was soon doing a roaring trade. Being a big fish in a small pond was not enough for him, however. He knew that if he wanted to be a big shot in the business world, he needed to stay ahead of the pack. Over the next few years, he opened eight shops in the area and became known as a hard-nosed businessman who drove a hard bargain. Even when other companies were going to the wall, he kept going. He's now one of the most successful business people in the region, but unlike some fat cats, he supports a lot of local charities and looks after his staff well. He often says he'd like to retire soon, but I can't see him hanging up his hat just yet – he loves his job too much.

succeeding in business

make it

to be successful, especially in a job

be ahead of the pack

to be more successful than other people who are trying to achieve the same things as you

corner the market

to become so successful at selling or making a particular product that almost no one else sells or makes it

successful people

a big shot informal
an important or powerful person in a group or organization

a big fish in a small pond

one of the most important people in a small organization who would have much less power and importance if they were part of a larger organization

a fat cat informal

an impolite way of referring to someone who is very rich and powerful

a high-flier

someone who is very successful at their job and soon becomes powerful or rich

stopping work

hang up your hat to leave your job for ever

a golden handshake

a large sum of money which is given to someone when they leave a company, especially if they are forced to leave

doing business

drive a hard bargain

to demand a lot or refuse to give much when making an agreement with someone

cut a deal American

to make an agreement or an arrangement with someone, especially in business or politics

run a tight ship

to control a business or other organization firmly and effectively

hard-nosed

practical and determined

making money

do a roaring trade British &

Australian

to sell a lot of goods quickly make a killing informal to earn a lot of money very easily

a money-spinner British &

a money-spinner British & Australian

a business or product that makes a lot of money for someone

behaving dishonestly

be on the make

trying to get money or power in a way that is not pleasant or honest

cook the books informal

to record false information in the accounts of an organization, especially in order to steal money

have your fingers/hand in the till

to steal money from the place where you work

Dishonesty

Have you seen that new drama on television? I must watch the next part tonight. It's about a lonely woman who meets this guy in a club. They start to chat but you can see immediately that he's a bit of a fast talker and probably up to no good. He tells her he's a doctor and that his wife died some time ago. Of course it all turns out to be a pack of lies. They begin a relationship but she gets suspicious about his past and wants to know more. He tries to pull the wool over her eyes by telling her that he finds it too painful to talk about his dead wife. He then tells her some cock-and-bull story about needing to pay off a debt and asks her to lend him quite a large amount of money. At the end of last week's episode she'd just discovered that he'd been lying through his teeth — his wife is alive all the time. They try to steal her passport and she catches them red-handed. I can't wait to see what happens tonight!

a dishonest person

a fast talker American & Australian, informal someone who can talk in a clever way in order to persuade people to believe something that is not true

a snake in the grass

someone who pretends to be your friend while secretly doing things to harm you

be as slippery as an eel

someone who is as slippery as an eel cannot be trusted

a bad egg mainly American, informal

someone who behaves in a bad or dishonest way

deceiving someone

pull the wool over sb's eyes

to deceive someone in order to prevent them from knowing what you are really doing

take sb for a ride

to cheat or deceive someone pull a fast one informal to successfully deceive someone sell sb a bill of goods American to make someone believe something that is not true

dishonest activities

play dirty informal
to behave dishonestly, especially by cheating in a game

do sth under false pretences

to do something when you have lied about who you are or what you are doing

be up to no good informal

if someone is up to no good, they are doing something bad

smell fishy informal

if a situation or explanation smells fishy, it causes you to think that someone is being dishonest

funny business informal dishonest or unpleasant actions

telling lies

lie through your teeth

to tell someone something that you know is completely false

a pack of lies

- a tissue of lies formal
- a story that someone has invented in order to deceive people

a cock-and-bull story informal

a story or explanation which is obviously not true

be economical with the truth

humorous

to not be completely honest about something

discovering dishonest activities

catch sb red-handed

to discover someone doing something that is wrong or not legal

Happiness and Sadness

It was Maria's 21st birthday, a day on which she should have felt on top of the world. Instead she was feeling down in the dumps because she had just started a new job in a new town, away from her family and friends. As she got out of bed, she heard the sound of the post being delivered. Running downstairs, she jumped for joy when she saw four envelopes on the doormat. But when she looked closer, her heart sank as she realized they were bills, not birthday cards. All day at work, she went around with a long face. Even though she was very happy to be doing a job she loved so much, she still couldn't help feeling out of sorts. However, when she got home and opened the front door, there was a sudden shout of 'Surprise!', and her parents and friends appeared carrying presents and bottles of champagne. Maria was over the moon that everyone had made such an effort, and she spent the rest of the evening on cloud nine.

being happy

feel on top of the world be on cloud nine informal be full of the joys of spring British & Australian, humorous be in seventh heaven humorous to feel very happy

jump for joy

American

to be very happy about something good that has happened be thrilled to bits informal be over the moon informal be tickled pink old-fashioned to be extremely pleased about something

be floating/walking on air

to be very happy and excited because something very pleasant has happened to you like the cat that got the cream British & Australian like the cat that ate the canary annoying other people by looking very pleased with yourself about something good that you have done

making someone happy

make sb's day to make someone very happy

being sad

be down in the dumps informal to be unhappy

a long face

a very sad expression

be out of sorts

to feel slightly ill or slightly unhappy

a misery guts informal

someone who complains all the time and is never happy

be in the doldrums

to feel sad and lack the energy to do anything

being disappointed

sb's heart sinks

if someone's heart sinks, they start to feel sad or worried

making someone upset

hit sb where it hurts (most)

to do something which will upset someone as much as possible

cut sb to the quick old-fashioned to upset someone by criticizing them kick sb in the teeth

to treat someone badly or unfairly, especially at a time when they need support

Health

I'd been feeling a bit off-colour for a while. I'd been more tired than usual and getting lots of headaches, and was generally a bit below par. It was worst in the morning. I'd get up feeling like death warmed up. I looked ill too. My mother commented when she saw me that I was as white as a sheet. She suggested that I take a break and recharge my batteries. A week away from the office did me a power of good. I came back feeling as right as rain!

feeling ill

be/feel under the weather be off-colour British & Australian to feel ill or less well than usual

be below par not be up to par to be slightly ill

be as sick as a dog informal to be very sick

be as white as a sheet to be very pale, usually because you are ill be in a bad way British & Australian to be ill, unhappy or in a bad state

like death (warmed up) British & Australian

like death (warmed over)
American

if you feel or look like death warmed up, you feel or look very ill

the dreaded lurgy British & Australian, humorous an illness which is not serious but passes easily from person to person

mental illness

not be all there informal to be slightly crazy

not be right in the head to be mentally ill

a basket case

someone who is crazy and unable to organize their life

be off your rocker informal
be off your trolley humorous
be as nutty as a fruitcake British & Australian, informal
to be crazy

recovering/being healthy

be as right as rain to feel well be as fit as a fiddle to be very healthy

recharge your batteries

to rest in order to get back your strength and energy

be up and about/around

to be well enough to get out of bed and move around

a clean bill of health

a statement that someone is healthy

death

be pushing up daisies humorous to be dead

pop your clogs British, humorous do sb a power of good informal to make someone feel much better

Helping

Jennifer has resigned. She was fed up with continually having to be at Andrew's beck and call. I don't blame her, actually. He expected her to wait on him hand and foot – but she was his secretary, not a slave, and there are limits! When she first started to work here she bent over backwards to do everything as Andrew wanted. I suppose she was grateful to him because he helped her get a foot in the door. She was such a pleasant person to have around the office, always lending a hand if someone had a problem and taking the new girls under her wing. But then Andrew began to make her cover up for his mistakes, saying that he would give her a leg up if she wanted promotion – I think it was a case of you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours. Well Jennifer doesn't like being taken for granted and when the promotion never happened I guess she got tired of doing his dirty work for him.

helping someone more than you should #### be at sb's beck and call

to be always willing and able to do what someone asks you to do

wait on sb hand and foot

to do everything for someone so that they do not have to do anything for themselves

do sb's dirty work

to do something unpleasant or difficult for someone else because they do not want to do it themselves

give/hand sth to sb on a plate to let someone get something very easi

to let someone get something very easily, without having to work for it

helping someone succeed in their job

get a/your foot in the door

to start working at a low level in an organization because you want a better job in the same organization in the future

give sb a leg up

to help someone be more successful

when people need special help

take sb under your wing

to help and protect someone, especially someone who is younger or has less experience than you # go to bat for sb American & Australian

to give help and support to someone who is in trouble, often by talking to someone else for them

in sb's hour of need

at a time when someone needs help very much

A friend in need (is a friend indeed).

something that you say which means that someone who gives you help when you need it is a really good friend

trying very hard to help

go to/take great pains to do sth to make a great effort to do something bend/lean over backwards to do sth to try very hard to do something, especially to help or please someone else fall over yourself to do sth to be very eager to do something

helping someone when they help you

You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

something that you say in order to tell someone that you will help them if they will help you

Intelligence and Stupidity

'Do you remember Sean Hughes? He was in your class at school.'

'Of course I do! He used to go to sleep during lessons. Everyone said he had nothing between his ears. I don't know why he was put in our class – he really was out of his depth. I remember once he was asked to demonstrate an experiment in chemistry, and he didn't have the faintest idea what to do. He was a rugby player as well, wasn't he? All brawn and no brains, I suppose. I wonder what's happened to him now.'

'Well, you'll never guess, but it turns out that Sean's really quite a bright spark. I found out yesterday he's the brains behind the new computer software company that everyone's talking about.'

'Sean Hughes - a brain box? I don't believe it!'

being intelligent

a brain box British & Australian, informal a very intelligent person be as bright as a button British & Australian to be intelligent and able to think quickly

a bright spark British & Australian an intelligent person

be the brains behind sth

to be the person who plans and organizes something, especially something successful a smart alec/aleck informal someone who is always trying to seem more clever than everyone else in a way

knowing about something

a mine of information

that is annoying

a person or a book with a lot of information

be in the know informal

to know about something which most people do not know about know your onions British & Australian, humorous to know a lot about a particular subject

being stupid

have nothing between your ears informal to be stupid

be all brawn and no brains

to be physically strong but not very intelligent

be as thick as two (short) planks British, informal

be dead from the neck up humorous to be very stupid

not knowing about something

be out of your depth

to not have the knowledge, experience or skills to deal with a particular subject or situation

not have the faintest (idea)

to have no knowledge of or no information about something

the blind leading the blind

a situation where someone is trying to show someone else how to do something which they do not know how to do themselves

Interest and Boredom

Every summer, my cousin Nick used to come to stay for a month. I didn't look forward to it much because he wasn't interested in anything I did and he always complained he was bored stiff in the country. I was big on horse-riding in those days, but horses left him cold, and while I was out riding, he stayed at home, kicking his heels. I once asked him what sports he did like, but he said he didn't go a bundle on sport and preferred playing computer games. One morning at breakfast, I was telling my Dad about a local rock band who were looking for a guitarist, and I noticed that Nick was all ears. That morning, he went into town with his guitar and returned later to say he'd joined the band. He was champing at the bit with impatience and could hardly wait to start practising. He's now been playing with the band for a year and he loves it. Their music's not everyone's cup of tea, but they're really popular with the local kids, and they're even thinking of making a record. Who knows, Nick might even be famous one day!

being interested in something

be big on sth

to be very interested in something and think that it is important

be all ears informal ×

to be very eager to hear what someone is going to say have a thing about sth/sb informal to like something or someone very much or to be very interested in them

being eager to do something

be champing/chomping at the bit to be very keen to start an activity or to go somewhere

get-up-and-go

energy and enthusiasm

be bright-eyed and bushy-tailed humorous

to be full of energy and eager to do things

an eager beaver

someone who works very hard and is very enthusiastic

not being interested in something

leave sb cold
if something leaves you cold, it does not cause you to feel any emotion not go a bundle on sth British, informal to not like something

not be sb's cup of tea

if someone or something is not your cup of tea, you do not like them or you are not interested in them

not give a damn informal × not care/give a toss British, informal to not be interested in or worried about something or someone

sb's heart isn't in sth

if someone's heart is not in something that they are doing, they are not very interested in it

being bored

be bored stiff be bored to death/tears

to be very bored

kick your heels British to be forced to wait for a period of time be at a loose end British & Australian to have nothing to do

Liking and not Liking

I've got four sons and I love them all to bits, although I must admit I've got a bit of a soft spot for the youngest, who's only three and very cute. The older two get on like a house on fire, but always seem to have it in for the third. They get into terrible arguments with each other, and it usually ends up with one of them saying that he hates the other's guts and storming out of the house. It really gets on my husband's nerves. Still, the oldest seems to have taken a shine to a girl in his class, which gets him out of the house a bit. She's very quiet and not especially pretty, but I suppose there's no accounting for taste.

448

liking people

the apple of sb's eye

the person who someone loves most and is very proud of love sb to bits informal to like or to love someone a lot

get on like a house on fire informal

if two people get on like a house on fire, they like each other very much and become friends very quickly

a mutual admiration society

humorous

a situation in which two people express a lot of admiration for each other take a shine to sb informal to like someone immediately

have a soft spot for sb

to feel a lot of affection for one particular person, often without knowing why

be sb's main squeeze American, informal

to be the person that someone has a romantic or sexual relationship with

sing sb/sth's praises

to praise someone or something very much

not liking people

have a downer on sb British & Australian, informal to not like someone hate sb's guts informal to hate someone have it in for sb informal to be determined to harm or criticize someone

being annoyed by something or someone

get up sh's nose British & Australian, informal get on sh's wick British & Australian, informal to annoy someone

the bane of your life

someone or something that is always causing problems for you and upsetting you get/grate on sb's nerves informal to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again sb's pet hate British & Australian sb's pet peeve American something that you do not like at all

opinions on what people like

(It's) different strokes for different folks. mainly American something that you say which means that different people like or need different things

each to his/her own something that you say which means that it is acceptable for people to like or believe in different things

One man's meat is another man's poison.

something that you say which means that something one person likes very much can be something that another person does not like at all

There's no accounting for taste!

something that you say when you cannot understand why someone likes something or someone

Money

You know the saying, 'A penny saved is a penny earned'. Well, that's all right if you're regularly earning money, but I'm not. I've been living from hand to mouth doing temporary work. I've tightened my belt but I'm always in the red at the end of the month. My latest idea is to start my own business. This requires hard cash and I don't have it. I want to start a taxi service to and from the airport. I'll need a good, reliable car and that will cost an arm and a leg. Initially, I'd probably just break even, but eventually I reckon I'd have a steady job and a steady income, even if I didn't make a killing. What I really need is some ready money or perhaps someone who has a nest egg they would like to invest. Maybe my best hope is to win the lottery and strike it rich!

having a lot of money

be rolling in it

to be very rich

have money to burn

to have a lot of money and spend large amounts

a nest egg X

an amount of money that you have saved

make a killing informal X to earn a lot of money very easily

to carrie a tot or money very ca

strike it rich

to suddenly become rich

having no money

be out of pocket

to have less money than you should have

not have two pennies to rub together

to be very poor

be in the red X

to owe money to a bank

having just enough money

live (from) hand to mouth

to have just enough money to live on and nothing extra

tighten your belt

to spend less than you did before because you have less money

break even

to not make or lose any money from a business

keep body and soul together

to just be able to pay for the things that you need in order to live

spending money

cost an arm or a leg informal

to be very expensive

not break the bank

to not be too expensive

ready cash/money

money that is immediately available to spend

hard cash

money in the form of coins or notes

sayings about money

A penny saved is a penny earned.

it is wise to save money

be penny-wise and pound-foolish

to be extremely careful about small amounts of money and not careful enough about larger amounts

Money doesn't grow on trees.

be careful how much money you spend because there is only a limited amount

Power and Authority

When Peter goes away on business, it's Ellen who calls the shots in the office. Just because she has friends in high places, she thinks she can run the show! Rachel and I are the only people who refuse to bow and scrape, but she seems to have the rest of the office in the palm of her hand. She's even got Sandy, the supervisor, wrapped around her little finger. Rachel says she's far too big for her boots and it's time Peter and the powers that be were told. I'm sure Peter would be very concerned if he knew. He doesn't like people throwing their weight around and he certainly wouldn't want Ellen setting the agenda.

being in a position of power

run the show informal

to be in charge of an organization or an activity

call the shots/tune

to be the person who makes all the important decisions and who has the most power in a situation

set the agenda

to decide what subjects other people should deal with in a way that shows you have more authority than them

have the upper hand

to have a position of power and control over someone else

showing your power

throw your weight around

to behave in a way which shows that you are more important or powerful than other people

flex your muscles

to take some action to show people how powerful you are

people in powerful positions

the powers that be

the people who control things but who are not known

a big cheese humorous

a big gun/noise informal

an important or powerful person in a group or organization

the movers and shakers

people who have a lot of power and influence

controlling and influencing people

twist/wrap sb around your little

to be able to persuade someone to do anything you want, usually because they like you so much

have sb in the palm of your hand

to have so much control over someone that they will do whatever you want them to do

have friends in high places

to know important people who can help you get what you want

thinking you are more important than you really are

be too big for your boots informal to behave as if you are more important or clever than you really are

delusions of grandeur

the belief that you are more important or powerful than you really are # pleasing people in authority

bow and scrape

to try too hard to please someone in a position of authority do sb's bidding old-fashioned to do what someone tells or asks you to do

lick sb's boots very informal

to try too hard to please someone important

Remembering & Forgetting

I was sitting in the local café waiting for my friend Jenny. We'd arranged to meet at half past twelve, but it was now one o'clock and there was still no sign of her. I wondered if it had slipped her mind. She was always doing this — making arrangements and then forgetting about them. Honestly, she had a memory like a sieve! I was just on the point of leaving when a dark-haired man came in and sat at the table next to mine. I knew I had seen him somewhere before, but I couldn't for the life of me think where. As I was racking my brains trying to remember, he looked round and smiled. 'Hi, Caroline,' he said. 'I haven't seen you in ages. Not since college, in fact.' I cast my mind back. Of course, it was Jenny's old boyfriend from college! Now, what was his name? It was on the tip of my tongue ... Chris, that was it. Just then, Jenny came in. She'd obviously been running because her face was red and she was out of breath. 'Sorry I'm late,' she said. 'That's alright,' I replied and smiled. 'I've got a surprise for you. Does the name Chris ring a bell?'

forgetting

slip your mind

if something slips your mind, you forget about it have a memory like a sieve/an elephant to be very bad/good at remembering things can't for the life of me remember/think not remember at all

I can't put a name to him/her not remember someone's name

Out of sight, out of mind. if you do not see someone or something,

unable to remember

you forget them

your mind goes blank
you cannot think of anything to say

trying to remember

rack your brains to think very hard cast your mind back to try to remember something

be on the tip of your tongue

you know it but cannot quite remember it

remembering

come/spring to mind

to immediately think of something bring sb/sth to mind

to cause you to think of someone or something

take a stroll/trip down memory lane

to remember some of the happy things you did in the past

in/within living memory things that can be remembered by people who are alive now

making yourself remember

commit sth to memory

to make yourself remember something

helping you remember

ring a bell

if a name or a phrase rings a bell, you think you have heard it before

jog your memory

to cause you to remember something

Speaking and Conversation

I'd been having lunch with my old friend Heather, and we'd been discussing our plans for the summer and generally chewing the fat, when she suddenly announced that she and Andrew were getting married. I was lost for words. They'd only known each other for three months, and they'd spent very little time together because Andrew went away on business a lot. 'Please don't breathe a word of this to anyone,' Heather said. 'We only decided two days ago, and we haven't told Andrew's parents yet.' 'Don't worry,' I replied. 'My lips are sealed.' When I got home that evening, I was very quiet. 'What's the matter?' asked Karen, my sister. 'Has the cat got your tongue?' I was dying to tell her the news, but I had to bite my tongue. 'Come on, out with it!' she said, and finally I told her, but I made her promise to keep her mouth shut. I should have known that my loud-mouthed sister would shoot her mouth off to all her friends. Andrew's family found out the next day, and now Heather isn't speaking to me.

talking too much

loud-mouthed

saying rude or stupid things in a loud voice

shoot your mouth off very informal to talk too much, especially about something you should not talk about talk the hind legs off a donkey British, humorous to talk a lot verbal diarrhoea humorous if someone has verbal diarrhoea, they talk too much

talking in a friendly way

chew the fat British, informal to have a long friendly conversation with someone shoot the breeze American, informal to talk in a relaxed way about things that are not important

good at talking

the gift of the gab

an ability to speak easily and confidently and to persuade people to do what you want

not talking

be lost for words

to be unable to speak because you are so surprised

not breathe a word

to not tell people a secret

My lips are sealed. humorous

something that you say to tell someone that you will not tell anyone what they have just told you

Has the cat got your tongue?

something that you say to someone when you are annoyed because they will not speak

bite your tongue

to stop yourself from saying something even if you would like to say it

keep your mouth shut informal to keep something secret hold your tongue to stop talking

shut up like a clam

to suddenly stop talking and refuse to say any more

making someone tell you something

Out with it!

something that you say in order to tell someone to say something that they are frightened to say

telling someone to be quiet

Shut your face/mouth! very

informal

Button it! mainly American,

an impolite way of telling someone to stop talking

Success and Failure

We'd managed to get tickets for the final of the European Cup and there was a great atmosphere in the stadium. Lazio were riding high after their 2-0 victory over Real Madrid, but Liverpool were also very strong contenders, having clawed their way back from defeat in their match against Juventus. Lazio got off to a flying start with a goal in the first five minutes, and from then on they went from strength to strength. The Liverpool defence seemed to have gone down the pan, and the third goal just before half-time was another nail in the coffin. But the game wasn't over just yet. During the second half, Lazio lost their edge and Liverpool suddenly came into their own. With only five minutes of the game left and the score at 3-3, it was make or break for Liverpool. Seconds before the final whistle blew, they managed to score again and the crowd went wild. Liverpool had won the cup!

succeeding

be riding high

to be very successful

get off to a flying start

to begin an activity very successfully

go from strength to strength

to become more and more successful

come into your/its own

to be very useful or successful in a particular situation

make it big informal

to become very successful or famous

pass with flying colours

to complete a difficult activity very successfully

claw your way back from sth

to succeed in improving your situation by making a very determined effort

win (sth) hands down

to win easily

lead the field

to be more successful than anyone you are competing against

situations when you will either succeed or fail

make or break sth

to make something a success or a failure

sink or swim

to fail or succeed

failing

fall flat on your/its face

to fail or make a mistake in an embarrassing way

die a death British

die a natural death American & Australian to fail and end

the nail in sb's/sth's coffin

an event which causes the failure of something that had already started to fail

a dead duck informal

something or someone that is not successful or useful

A miss is as good as a mile.

something that you say which means that failing to do something when you almost succeeded is no better than failing very badly

losing

be pipped at/to the post British & Australian

to be beaten in a competition or race by a very small amount

lose your edge

to lose the qualities or skills that made you successful in the past

go off the boil British & Australian

to become less successful

Understanding

I hardly spoke a word of Russian when I first came to Moscow. I'd done a short Russian course before I left, but I've never been very good at languages and most of it went over my head. The first few weeks after I arrived were the hardest because I didn't have a clue what people were saying to me, and I kept getting lost because I couldn't make head or tail of the street signs. Things became a lot easier when I got to grips with the alphabet, and after that I gradually got the hang of putting sentences together. I've been living here for three years now and I'm fairly fluent, although I still make mistakes. Last week, a Russian friend and I got our wires crossed: I thought I was meeting him on Tuesday when he meant Thursday. But that sort of thing only happens occasionally. Before I came here, I never thought that languages were particularly important, but living abroad has certainly brought home to me how useful they are.

not understanding

not have a clue informal

to have no knowledge of or no information about something

go over sb's head

if a piece of information goes over someone's head, they do not understand it can't make head nor/or tail of sth to not be able to understand something at all not know the first thing about sth to not know anything about a particular subject be as clear as mud humorous to be impossible to understand

get your lines/wires crossed

if two people get their lines crossed, they do not understand each other correctly

understanding

get the hang of sth informal to succeed in learning how to do something after practising it come/get to grips with sth to make an effort to understand and deal with a problem or situation

bring sth home to sb to make someone understand something much more clearly than they did before, especially something unpleasant get your head around sth informal to be able to understand something

get the message informal

to understand what someone is trying to tell you even though they are not expressing themselves directly

Exercises

Matching meanings
What do idioms 1-5 mean? Choose the correct meaning from the list a - e.
1 try your hand at	a be happy
2 over the moon	b be nervous
3 get the message	c to admire
4 be on tenterhooks	d to try
5 take your hat off to	e to understand
Put the idioms from exercise into the gaps in the sentences below. Remember to use the correct form of the verbs.	s
1 He was who	nen his son was born.
2 There's no need to keep e	explaining. We've
3 Everyone in the court verdict.	as they waited for the
4 Fire crews do a wonderfu	ul job. You really have to 5 I thought I might	pottery.

3 Idioms for opinion
----------------------

Match the remarks on the left with the responses on the right.

- 1 Dad, I've decided to hitchhike to Moscow.
- 2 She thinks Tom's really handsome.
- 3 His money's all gone now and he has nowhere to live.
- 4 I asked her to turn the music down and she just laughed at me.
- 5 She's always telling us to help the poor.

- a He's made his bed and he'll have to lie on it.
- b Well, it's about time she put her money where her mouth is.
- c Over my dead body!
- d Oh well, beauty is in the eye of the beholder.
- e She'll be laughing on the other side of her face when I tell her father.

4 British and American English

Some idioms have different forms in British and American English. What is the American equivalent for each of these British idioms?

- 1 be left holding the baby
- 2 have green fingers
- 3 throw a spanner in the works
- 4 be all fingers and thumbs
- 5 blow your own trumpet

458

Idioms using parts of the body
In these idioms, the missing word in the idiom is a part of the body. Fill in the missing words.
1 To get to the house, turn left by the church and follow your
The second shorts of the second secon
2 I don't know why I bother giving her advice. It goes in one and out the other.
3 He's been on several TV shows, shooting his off about the royal family.
4 Peter and I got off on the wrong because of a silly disagreement over who should make the coffee.
5 We were really busy, but Stefan didn't lift a to help.
X
Comparisons: As as These sentences contain comparisons using as (+ adj) as (+ noun). Fill in the missing words.
1 Chain your bike to the railings. It'll be as safe as
×
2 When he saw the gun he turned as white as a
3. It hasn't rained for weeks. The soil is as as a bone.
4 The children have been as good as this morning.
5 I've mended this chair. It's asas a rock now.
**

-
7	Prepositions
STATE OF THE PARTY.

Choose the correct preposition from the box to fill in the gaps in the sentences below.

from with at about for balloon.

	about for
1	She tips the scales an enormous 310 pounds. $ imes$
2	They are waiting to get the green light the surveyor before they begin building work.
3	The company made a pitch a multi-million dollar contract.
4	He was bending my ear the importance of good $\searrow$ grammar.
5	Aggressive behaviour goes hand in handlow $\begin{tabular}{c}\end{tabular}$ self-esteem.
Sir	niles: verb + like + noun
co	ese sentences contain verb mparisons using a verb + like noun. Fill in the missing words.
1	When England lost the World Cup helike a baby.
2	Make sure you cook plenty of food. Dereklike $\nearrow$ a horse.
3	After all that fresh air, I'll sleep like a tonight.
4	When he gets angry, he swears like a
5	Her speech was long and boring. Itlike a lead

-
9	Com	pou	ınds
No. of Lot, House, etc., in case, which we will not be a party of the lot of		200

Choose the correct idiomatic compound from the box to fill in the gaps in the sentences below.

dark horse sour grapes Achilles heel red tape fat cats

1	Workers are losing their jobs while the who run the company are getting richer.
2	Stuart's getting married? He's a – I never even knew he had a girlfriend.
3	He was a gifted businessman, but greed was his
4	4 If I criticize her book, people will think it's just
5	There's so much involved in getting a visa

10 Collocations

Choose a suitable word from the lists on the right to fill in the gaps in the sentences below.

1 Consumers are bringingto bear on food manufacturers to provide clear labelling.	hope/pressure/ weight
2 He made no bones about hisover their failure to keep him informed.	anger/plans/ decisions
3 I prefer my to be off the record.	comments/ writing/ photographs
4 I think hit the nail on the head.	hammers/ problems/John
5 I'm up to my eyes in at the moment.	work/food/ happiness

Grammar
1 Don't break your back all the housework.	finish
2 There are so few people here, I have half a mind the meeting.	cancel ×
3 We pulled out all the stopsit the best party he'd ever had.	make 🗶
4 I wouldn't dream of your work.	criticize 🔀
5 We came within an ace of the game.	win <
Which of these people are having a good time, and which are having problems?
1 Jenny's having a whale of a time in Corfu.	X
2 The whole family is going through the mill at the moment.	X
3 Peter is discovering that marriage isn't all moonlight and roses.	×
4 Joe's like a dog with two tails.	X
5 I'm only forty and I'm on the scrap heap already.	1914 X
	Fill in the gaps in these sentences with the correct form of the verb on the right.  1 Don't break your back

13 Opposites

The entries for the idioms on the right all show their opposites too. Use the opposites to fill in the gaps in these sentences. Remember to use the correct form of the verbs and the words like sb, sth, your.

1	I wish those journalists would	get on sb's case X
	- Francisco de la companiona del companiona de la companiona dela companiona dela companion
2	You need to be to succeed in this job.	slow on the uptake
3	Could you get the children for an hour or so?	get in sb's hair
4	I wish she would and listen to our opinions.	get on your high horse
5	The world must the horror of famine.	close your eyes to

Other languages used in English idioms

Choose one of the phrases from the box to fill in the gaps in the sentences below.

je ne sais quoi compos mentis ad nauseam au fait laissez faire

15	Idioms using 'ball'
	These sentences can be completed with an idiom containing the word 'ball'. Fill in the gaps.
	1 I've made them an offer for their house why don't you come to the seaside with us? We'll 3 I've done a lot of teaching, but running a school was ши
	4 You have to be really
	to be a pilot.
	5 I want everyone to be involved in the project, so I'm organising a meeting to PROFILE REPORT
16	Same idiom, different form
	In some idioms, different words can be used with the same meaning. Find another word which can be used for each of the words underlined.
	1 I could do that with one arm tied behind my back 2 We can make our own decisions without you putting your oar in.
	3 He ate the whole pie in one sitting.
	4 £1, 000 is not to be sniffed at.

5 We had a few teething problems when the new computers were installed.

17	Theme: anger
	These sentences contain idioms connected with anger. Fill in the gaps.		X
	1 Tempers when the flight two hours.	was delay	ed another
	2 Chris and Joe got so angry I was worrblows.	ied they w	ould
	3 Nancy will ballistic if she done.	e sees wha	t you've
	4 Who's been rattling Jeremy's	?
	5 The way they treat those dogs really mobil.	nakes my .
18	Idioms containing pairs of words	X	ovid 10" l
	These sentences have idioms which all contain pairs of words.  Match up the pairs on the right to fill in the gaps.
	1 He beat me until I wasand	tea	graces
	2 The other children made fun of her and	black	span

3 All I can offer you is ...... fair sympathy

square

blue

spick

and ......

and ......

4 Make sure you leave the room

we beat them .....

5 Despite the other team's protests.

19 Idioms to describe people

These people have all applied for a job. Which ones would you like to interview, and why?

Name	Description	Interview? ✓ or X	Why?
1 Ann	a square peg in a round hole		suitable unsuitable
2 Jim	as honest as the day is long		honest dishonest
3 Sue	many strings to her bow		different skills puts her family first
4 Bob	gets people's backs up		is popular annoys people
5 Julie	a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic		clever stupid

Idioms about behaviour

Match the remark on the left with the response on the right.

- 1 Your schoolwork has been getting worse and worse.
- 2 It's about time Hugo grew up.
- 3 They've smashed Percy's greenhouse with their football.
- 4 Ray's such a generous man. d You can bet your boots Sue
- 5 I suppose I'll have to do all the housework.

- a I wouldn't like to be in their shoes when he finds
- b He'd give you the shirt off his back.
- c It's about time you pulled your socks up.
- won't have done it.
- e He's really tied to his mother's apron strings.

response and the state of

AND THE RESERVE AND THE PARTY AND THE PARTY

and 2 to 10 to 10

Administration of the second o

Action to the second se management and the second and the se

State of the state

Principles of the second of th

more disease in eq.

And the control of the

the regional process of the contract to the contract of the co

The second of th

and so it are and remain. It will be reading a distance of a distribution of some

Answer Key

0	2		3
1 d	10	over the moon	1 c
2 a	2 9	ot the message	2 d
3 e		vas on	3 a
4 b	t	enterhooks	4 e
5 c		ake your hat off to	5 b
	5 t	ry my hand at

1	be left holding
	the bag
2	have a green

thumb

3 throw a monkey wrench in the works

4 be all thumbs

5 blow your own horn

1 nose	1 houses
2 ear	2 sheet
3 mouth	3 dry
4 foot	4 gold
5 finger	5 solid

7		8	9
1	at	1 cried	1 fat cats
2	from	2 eats	2 dark horse
3	for	3 log/top	3 Achilles heel
4	about	4 trooper	4 sour grapes
	with	5 went down	5 red tape

10	0	12
1 pressure	1 finishing	1 good time
2 anger	2 to cancel	2 problems
3 comments	3 to make	3 problems
4 John	4 criticizing	4 good time
5 work	5 winning	5 problems

13

1 get off my case

2 quick on the uptake

3 out of my hair

4 get off her high horse

5 open its eyes to 14

1 ad nauseam

2 je ne sais quoi

3 laissez faire

4 au fait

1 frayed

3 go

4 cage

5 blood

2 come to

5 compos mentis

15

1 The ball's in their court

2 have a ball

3 a whole new ball game

4 on the ball

5 set the ball rolling

18

1 black and blue

2 airs and graces

3 tea and sympathy

4 spick and span

5 fair and square

16

1 hand

2 sticking

3 at

4 sneezed

5 troubles

20

1 no, unsuitable

2 yes, honest

3 yes, different skills

4 no, annoys people

5 no, stupid

20

1 c 2 e

3 a

4 b

5 d

and the second of the second o

The part of the second second to be found to be for the second to be for the seco

Marin Y

Section 19

How to use the index

To find an idiom in the index, look under any important word in the idiom. The word the idiom is listed under in the main part of the book will be in dark type:

the bare bones get off to a flying start (bare is the keyword, so the entry is at 'bare') (flying is the keyword, so the entry is at 'flying')

Idioms are not usually listed in the index under words like 'a', 'the', 'all', 'these', 'where' or 'no', except when the whole idiom is made of such words, e.g. be all in, be out of it.

Where British and American idioms have different spellings, e.g. take centre stage (British)/take center stage (American), the idiom is at the British keyword, but if you look up the American spelling in the index you will find a reference to the British spelling.

from A to Z get/go from A to B

About time too! about/around sb's ears about/on your person an about-face be up and about/around Tell me about it!

above and beyond sth

ABOVE

be a cut above sth/sb be above board head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.1

over and above

ABSENCE

Absence makes the heart grow fonder. be conspicuous by your

absence ACADEME

the groves of academe

accept/take sth as gospel (truth)

ACCIDENT

a happy accident

an accident waiting to happen more by accident than (by) design

(whether) by accident or design

ACCIDENTALLY accidentally on purpose

ACCIDENTS accidents will happen

be a chapter of accidents ACCOMPLISHED

mission accomplished ACCORD of your own accord ACCORDING

cut your cloth according to your means cut your coat according to your

cloth ACCOUNT

be brought/called to

on no account must/should sb do sth on sb's account

on your own account take account of sth/sb take sth/sb into account turn/use sth to good account

ACCOUNTING

There's no accounting for taste!

an ace in the hole be within an ace of sth/doing sth: see come within an ace of sth/doing sth come within an ace of sth/doing sth

have an ace up your sleeve

play your ace ACES

have/hold all the aces

ACHILLES

an Achilles' heel

ACID an acid test

ACORNS

Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow.

ACROSS

across the board

ACT

a balancing/juggling act Act your age! act/play the fool act/play the goat

be a hard/tough act to follow catch sb in the act clean up your act get in on the act get your act together read (sb) the riot act

ACTION

a piece/slice of the action be all talk (and no action) be out of action fight a rearguard action put sb out of action: see be out of action put sth out of action: see be out of action ACTIONS

Actions speak louder than words.

ACTIVITY

extracurricular activity

not know sb from Adam ADAMS

sweet Fanny Adams

ADD add fuel to the fire/flames

add insult to injury

ADMIRATION

a mutual admiration society ADO

much ado about nothing

without further/more ado

ADVOCATE

play devil's advocate AFORETHOUGHT

with malice aforethought

be afraid of your own shadow

AFTER

after a fashion be after sb's blood

be out for/after sb's scalp

AGAIN

Come again?

every now and again/then

AGAINST

against all odds against (all) the odds be up against sth/sb

Act your age!

at the ripe old age of sth: see live to a ripe old age come of age in this day and age live to a ripe old age sb of a certain age

AGENDA

a hidden agenda at the top of the/sb's agenda high on the/sb's agenda off the/sb's agenda: see on the/sb's agenda on the/sb's agenda set the agenda

AGENT a free agent

AGO many moons ago

AGONY pile on the agony

AH um and ah

AHEAD be ahead of the game be ahead of the pack be one step ahead be streets ahead full steam ahead keep/stay one step ahead: see

be one step ahead AID

What's sth in aid of? AIM aim/hit below the belt: see be below the belt

a breath of fresh air a nip in the air air your dirty laundry/linen in public be floating/walking on air be in the air be left hanging (in the air/in midair) be up in the air castles in the air clear the air from thin air have your nose in the air: see with your nose in the air hot air out of thin air pluck sth out of the air with your nose in the air AIRS

airs and graces

AIRY-FAIRY airy-fairy AISLES

be rolling in the aisles: see have sb rolling in the

have sb rolling in the aisles

ALADDIN an Aladdin's cave AI ARM

a false alarm alarm bells start to ring: see set (the) alarm bells ringing ring/sound alarm bells: see set (the) alarm bells ringing set (the) alarm bells ringing

ALBATROSS albatross around/round your neck

ALEC

a smart alec/aleck ALECK

a smart alec/aleck ALERT

be on full/red alert be put on full/red alert; see be on full/red alert

ALIKE

Great minds (think alike). Share and share alike. ALIVE be alive and kicking be alive and well be alive with sth eat shalive skin sb alive

ALL

a bit of all right all eyes are on sb/sth all guns blazing all hands on deck all hands to the pumps all in all all is sweetness and light: see be all sweetness and light (all) on your own all or nothing (all) other things being equal all-out: see go all out all over the place all-singing, all-dancing all systems go All that glistens/glitters is not gold. All that glisters is not gold. (all) the world and his wife all things being equal all told All work and no play (makes Jack a dull boy). All's fair in love and war. an all-rounder and all that jazz at all hours (of the day and night) at all hours (of the night) be all at sea be all done in

be all dressed up and/with nowhere to go be all ears

be all eyes

be all fingers and thumbs be all heart

be all in be all in a day's work be all in the/your mind be all mouth be all mouth and (no) trousers be (all) of a piece be all over sb be all over the lot be all over the shop be all sweetness and light be all talk (and no action) be all the rage be all things to all men be all thumbs be all very well be all well and good be all wet be as [fast/hot/thin etc.] as all get out be [faster/hotter/thinner etc.] than all get out: see be as [fast/hot/thin etc.] as all get be laughing all the way to the bank blow sth out of (all) proportion come one, come all cover all the bases for all sb cares for all sb knows give it your all give your all go all out I've never [felt/heard/seen etc.] sth in all my (born) days! if all else fails in all but name It'll all come out in the wash. It'll (all) end in tears.

It's all go It's all Greek to me. It's all one to me.

it's all (that) sb can do to do sth. It's all the same to me. make all the difference not be all beer and skittles not be all fun and games not be all it's cracked up to be not be all there once and for all one and all That beats all! That's all she wrote!

That's all you need! That's sb all over! the mother of all sth till all hours (of the night): see at all hours (of the night) to cap/crown/top it all to top it all to top it all off touch all the bases warts and all

when all is said and done

would not do sth for all the tea in China

You can't win 'em all.

ALL-DANCING

all-singing, all-dancing ALLEY

a blind alley be (right) down sb's alley be (right) up sb's alley ALLOW allow/give sb (a) free rein allow/give sth (a) free rein allow/give sth full play

ALONE

go it alone leave well alone leave well enough alone leave/let well alone leave/let well enough alone Man cannot live by bread alone.

ALONG

all along the line along the lines of sth along the way along those lines

ALTAR

be sacrificed on the altar of sth

ALTOGETHER in the altogether

AMRER

an amber gambler AMBULANCE

an ambulance chaser AMENDMENT

I take/plead the Fifth (Amendment)

AMERICAN

be as American as apple pie AMISS

not come amiss not go amiss

ANALYSIS

in the final analysis

AND And how!

and no messing and that's that!

ANDS no ifs, ands or buts

ANGEL

a fallen angel

ANGELS

be on the side of the angels Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread).

ANIMAL

a party animal

ANOTHER

a horse of another/a different color another bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry another nail in the coffin another string to your bow be another/a different kettle of fish

be another/one of life's great mysteries

be in another world be (living) on another planet but that's another story

If it's not one thing it's another!

It's (just) one thing after another!

live to fight another day one way or another Tell me another (one)!

Tomorrow's another day. ANSWER

answer the call of nature have a lot to answer for not take no for an answer sb's answer to sb/sth the answer to sb's prayers

ANTE

raise/up the ante

ANTS

have ants in your pants ANY

any way you slice it ANYBODY

anybody who is anybody be anybody's guess

ANYTHING

If you believe that, you'll believe anything! not do anything/things by halves

APART

be poles apart be worlds apart APE

go ape

APESHIT go apeshit: see go ape

APOLOGY

be an apology for sth APPEARANCES

keep up appearances APPETITE

whet sb's appetite

APPLE see also APPLES

a bad/rotten apple An apple a day keeps the doctor away.

be as American as apple pie be in apple-pie order

the apple of sb's eye APPLECART

upset the applecart

APPLES

apples and oranges How do you like them apples! She'll be apples. She's apples.

APPROACH

a softly, softly approach

APRON

be tied to your mother's apron strings

AREA

a disaster area

a grav area; see a grev area a grev area

ARGUE

argue the toss ARGY-BARGY

argy-bargy

ARK

be out of the ark went/had gone out with the

ARM see also ARMS

a list as long as your arm a shot in the arm chance your arm cost (sb) an arm and a leg could do sth with one arm/hand tied behind their hack hold/keep sb at arm's length put the arm on sb the long arm of the law

twist sb's arm would give their right arm

ARMED

be armed to the teeth ARMOR

a chink in sb's armor a knight in shining armor

ARMOUR a chink in sb's armour

a knight in shining armour ARMPIT

be the armpit of the world/universe

ARMS

be up in arms greet/welcome sb/sth with open arms

AROUND

about/around sb's ears around the corner around/round the clock be up and about/around have been around (a bit)

ARROW a straight arrow

ARROWS

the slings and arrows (of outrageous fortune)

ARSE

a kick up the arse/backside arse about face arse-licker/kisser: see kiss/lick sh's arse arse over tip arse over tit be a pain in the arse/backside be (right) up sb's arse bore the arse off sb

bust your arse

ARSED can't tell your arse from your be on sh's ass elbow get off your arse get your arse in gear bust your ass have your head (stuck) up your arse Kiss my arse! cover your ass kiss/lick sb's arse get sb's ass Lick my arse! haul ass Move/Shift your arse! kick (sb's) ass kiss (sb's) ass My arse! not know your arse from your elhow Pig's arse! Shove/Stick sth up your arse! You bet your (sweet) ass! sit on your arse ASTRAY talk out of your arse lead sb astray talk through your arse think the sun shines out (of) at a pinch sb's arse/backside at a price work your arse/backside at a push off at all costs ARSED at any price can't be arsed at cross-purposes ART at sb's elbow have sth down to a fine art at sb's heels have sth off to a fine art at the coalface an article of faith at the double ARTSY-FARTSY artsy-fartsy: see arty-farty ARTY-FARTY be all at sea

arty-farty

AS

as and when as if there was/were no tomorrow

as is as it comes

as it stands

ASHES

rake over the ashes sackcloth and ashes

a big ask

ask for it ask (sb) for a rain check; see I'll take a rain check ask/cry for the moon Don't ask me. I ask you! Well may you ask! You may well ask!

ASKING

be asking for trouble be sb's for the asking

ASLEEP

be asleep at the switch fall asleep at the switch: see be asleep at the switch

ASPERSIONS

cast aspersions on sb/sth ASS see also ARSE ass-kisser: see kiss (sb's) ass ass over teacup/teakettle

be a pain in the ass/butt hore the ass off sh bust your ass/balls chew sb's ass (out)

make an ass of yourself sh's ass is on the line work your ass/butt off

at the chalkface

at the end of the day at your fingertips

be at a loose end

be at a loss be at each other's throats

be at home be at it be at loggerheads be at loose ends

he at odds be at odds with sth

be at one be at pains to do sth

be at sea

be at the mercy of sth/sb be at/behind the wheel

like the cat that ate the canary

ATMOSPHERE you could cut the atmosphere with a knife

ATTACHED

no strings (attached) with strings (attached): see no strings (attached)

AUTHORITY

have it on good authority AUTOMATIC

on automatic pilot

AUTOPILOT

on autopilot: see on automatic pilot

AUTUMN

autumn years

AVANT-GARDE

avant-garde: see the avantgarde

the avant-garde

AVERAGES

the law of averages AVOID

avoid sb/sth like the plague AWAKENING

a rude awakening AWAY

be far and away the [best/greatest/worst etc.] be light years away be light years away from sth

AWKWARD

an awkward customer

AXE

be given the axe get the axe have an axe to grind

get/go from A to B

RARE

a babe in the woods

Out of the mouths of babes (and sucklings).

BABY

a baby boomer be as easy as taking candy from a baby be left holding the baby be like taking candy from a baby cry like a baby the baby blues throw the baby out with the

bath water BACK see also BACKED, BACK-ING

a back-handed compliment a monkey on sb's back a pat on the back a slap on the back a stab in the back: see stab sb in the back at the back of your mind at/in the back of beyond

back and forth back-door: see by/through the back door back in circulation: see out of circulation back the wrong horse back-to-back back to the drawing board be back in harness be back on the rails

be fed up/sick to the back

be [glad/happy/pleased etc.] to see the back of sb/sth be (like) water off a duck's

back

be on sb's back be on the back burner behind sb's back break your back by/through the back door claw your way back from sth could do sth with one arm/hand tied behind their back cover your back fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp get off sb's back: see get sb off your back get sb off your back get your own back get/put sb's back up go back a long way have eyes in the back of your head have your back against/to the wall I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine. It's no skin off my (back) teeth. know sth like the back of your hand make a rod for your own back off the back of a lorry off the back of a truck One step forward, two steps back pat sb on the back: see a pat on the back put sth back on the rails: see be back on the rails put sth on the back burner: see be on the back burner put your back into sth put/get sb/sth back on track: see on track ride on the back of sth stab sb in the back take a back seat talk out of the back of your

see when/while sb's back is turned the straw that breaks the

the minute sb's back is turned:

camel's back throw sth back in sb's face turn your back on sb turn your back on sth watch your back when/while sb's back is turned would give you the shirt off their back You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

BACKED be backed into a corner

BACKING backing and filling

BACKROOM

a backroom boy BACKS

live off the backs of sb BACKSEAT

a backseat driver

BACKSIDE a kick up the arse/backside

be a pain in the arse/backside get off your backside sit (around) on your backside: see get off your backside think the sun shines out (of) sb's arse/backside

work your arse/backside off BACKWARD

not be backward in coming forward without a backward glance

BACKWARDS bend/lean over backwards to fall over backwards to do sth know sth backwards know sth backwards and forwards

BACON

bring home the bacon save sb's bacon

RAD a bad egg A bad workman blames his tools. a bad/rotten apple bad blood bad-mouth sb/sth be bad news be in a bad way be in bad odor with sb be in bad odour with sb be in sb's bad books: see be in sb's good books be on bad terms with sb: see be on good terms with sb be the best of a bad bunch/lot give sth up as a bad job give sth/sb a bad name go from bad to worse Good riddance (to bad rubbish)!

have a bad hair day have a bad name: see give sth/sb a bad name have got it bad in bad faith: see in good faith leave a bad taste in your mouth make a bad/poor fist of sth/doing sth: see make a good fist of sth/doing sth make the best of a bad job not be half bad take the bad with the good throw good money after bad turn up like a bad penny

BAG see also BAGS

a bag lady a bag of bones

a grab bag a mixed bag bag and baggage be a bag of nerves be left holding the bag couldn't [act/argue/fight] your way out of a paper bag in the bag

let the cat out of the bag not be your bag pull something out of the bag

sb's bag of tricks BAGGAGE

bag and baggage BAGS pack your bags

BAIT Fish or cut bait. rise to the bait

swallow/take the bait BAKER

a baker's dozen

BALANCE

be/hang in the balance on balance swing/tip the balance throw sb off balance

BALANCES

checks and balances BALANCING

a balancing/juggling act

be as bald as a coot

BALL see also BALLS a ball and chain

a ball-breaker a slime ball

a totally different ball game a whole new ball game be behind the eight ball be no ball of fire be on the ball carry the ball drop the ball

have a ball

keep the ball rolling: see set/start the ball rolling keep your eye on the ball pick up/take the ball and run (with it)

play ball

put the ball in sb's court: see the ball is in sb's court set/start the ball rolling

That's the way the ball bounces.

the ball is in sb's court the whole ball of wax throw (sb) a curve (ball)

BALLISTIC go ballistic BALLOON

go down like a lead balloon the balloon goes up

BALLPARK

a ballpark estimate/figure be in the (right) ballpark: see be in the same ballpark be in the same ballpark

BALLS

a balls-up

be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey: see brass monkey weather bust your ass/balls have sb by the balls

have the brass (balls) to do sth

BANANA

a banana republic a banana skin

BANANAS go bananas

BAND

a Band-Aid a one-man band

Band-Aid: see a Band-Aid

BANDWAGON

get/jump/leap on the bandwagon the bandwagon effect: see get/jump/leap on the bandwagon

BANE

the bane of your life

BANG

a bang up job Bang goes sth! bang/beat the drum be bang on catch/have sb bang to rights

come (back) down to earth (with a bang/bump/jolt)

go over with a bang go with a bang

[more/a bigger etc.] bang for your buck

not with a bang but with a whimper

BANGING

be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall

BANK

be laughing all the way to the hank

not break the bank

BANNER

under the banner of sth BAPTISM

a baptism by/of fire

RAR

It's all over bar the shouting. BARE bare-bones: see the bare bones bare your heart/soul lay bare sth

the bare bones

with your bare hands

BARELY

can barely/hardly hear yourself think

BARGAIN

drive a hard bargain in the bargain into the bargain

BARGAINING

a bargaining chip

a bargaining counter

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a barge pole.

BARK

sb's bark is worse than their hite

Why keep a dog and bark yourself?

BARKING

be barking mad be barking up the wrong tree

BARRED

no holds barred

BARREL

be as funny as a barrel of monkeys be more fun than a barrel of monkeys have sb over a barrel lock, stock, and barrel not be a barrel of laughs

pork barrel scrape the barrel

BARRELHEAD

cash on the barrelhead

BARS

behind bars

BASE

be off base get to first base touch base

BASES

cover all the bases touch all the bases

RASH

have a bash

BASKET

a basket case

put all your eggs in one basket

BAT see also BATS, BATTING bat for the other side

be as blind as a bat go to bat for sb like a bat out of hell

not bat an eye/eyelash/eyelid off your own bat play a straight bat (right) off the bat

BATED

with bated breath

BATH

an early bath

throw the baby out with the bath water

BATON

pass the baton

BATS

have bats in the belfry

BATTEN

batten down the hatches

BATTERIES recharge your batteries

BATTING

be batting a thousand

be (batting) on a sticky wicket

a battle of wills

a battle of wits

a battle/war of nerves a pitched battle

a running battle

an uphill

battle/fight/struggle be half the battle (won)

fight a losing battle the battle lines are drawn

the battle of the sexes

keep sth/sb at bay

BAYING

be baying for blood

RE

Be my guest. be that as it may be that as it may the be-all and end-all

not be the only pebble on the beach

BEAD

draw/take a bead on sb/sth

READY

have your beady eye on sth/sb be broad in the beam be off beam

REAN

a bean counter

not have a bean

BEANS

be full of beans not be worth a hill of beans

not know beans about sth spill the beans

BEAR

a bear hug

a cross (sb has) to bear be like a bear with a sore head

bear a grudge

bear fruit bear testimony/witness to sth bear/keep sth in mind bear/take the brunt of sth bring sth to bear

Everyone has their cross to bear: see a cross (sb has) to

bear

grin and bear it

loaded for bear

BEARD

beard sb in their den beard the lion in their den

REAST

a beast of burden be (in) the nature of the beast be no good/use to man or

heast

BEAT see also BEATEN, BEAT-ING. BEATS

a stick to beat sb/sth with bang/beat the drum beat a dead horse beat a path to sh's door beat a retreat beat about/around the bush Beat it!

beat sb at their own game: see play sb at their own game beat sb hands down: see win

(sth) hands down beat sb hollow beat sb to a pulp beat sb to it beat sb to the punch beat sb to within an inch of their life beat sth to death beat the bushes beat the rap beat your brains out beat your breast beat/knock the (living) daylights out of sb beat/knock the tar out of sb beat/turn swords into ploughshares If you can't beat 'em, (join sb's heart misses/skips a beat without missing a beat

BEATEN

be off the beaten path be off the beaten track

BEATING

take a beating

BEATS

(it) beats me That beats all! That beats everything! what beats me: see (it) beats me

BEAUTY

Beauty is in the eve of the beholder. Beauty is only skin deep. sb's beauty sleep

BEAVER an eager beaver

BECK

BED

be at sb's beck and call

be a hed of nails

be in bed with sh be no bed of roses climb/get/hop into bed with sb: see be in bed with couldn't lie straight in bed get out of bed on the wrong get sb into bed: see go to bed with sb get up on the wrong side of the hed go to bed with sb

not be a bed of roses put sth to bed

You made your bed (now lie in

You've made your bed (and you'll have to lie in it).

BEDPOST

between you, me and the bedpost/gatepost

BEDROOM

bedroom eves

be a busy bee

be as busy as a bee be the bee's knees have a bee in your bonnet

Where's the beef?

BEELINE

make a beeline for sb/sth BEEN

have been around (a bit)

not be all beer and skittles

small beer REES

the birds and the bees

BEESWAX

none of your beeswax

go as red as a beet go beet red

BEETROOT

go as red as a beetroot go beetroot (red)

REFORE

(And) not before time! be before your time before sb could blink before you can say Jack Robinson

BEG see also BEGGING

beg the question I beg to differ/disagree

BEGGARS

Beggars can't be choosers.

BEGGING

be going begging BEGINNING

the beginning of the end

BEGINS Charity begins at home.

BEHAVIOUR

be on your best behaviour

BEHIND

be at/behind the wheel be behind the eight ball be behind the times behind bars behind closed doors behind sb's back behind the scenes

REHOLD.

lo and behold BEHOLDER Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

for the time being

BELFRY

have bats in the belfry

contrary to popular belief/opinion

BELIEVE

can't believe your ears couldn't believe your eyes I'll believe it when I see it. If you believe that, you'll believe anything! make believe not believe a word of it You('d) better believe it!

BELIEVED

have to be seen to be believed

BELIEVING

Seeing is believing. RELL

be as sound as a bell give sb a bell ring a bell Saved by the bell.

BELLS

alarm bells start to ring: see set (the) alarm bells ringing bells and whistles Hell's bells! Pull the other leg/one (it's got bells on)!

ring any bells: see ring a bell ring/sound alarm bells: see set (the) alarm bells ringing set (the) alarm bells ringing with bells on a belly laugh fire in your/the belly go belly up sb's eyes are bigger than their belly/stomach

BELLY

BELLYFUL

have had a bellyful of sth

BELOW

be below par

be below the belt

be/live below the breadline: see be/live on the breadline aim/hit below the belt: see be below the belt be below the belt the Bible Belt tighten your belt under your belt

BEND see also BENT

bend sb's ear bend/lean over backwards to dosth bend/stretch the rules drive/send sh round the bend round the bend

BENDED

on bended knee/knees BENDER

a fender bender RENEFIT

give sb the benefit of the doubt

BENNETT

Gordon Bennett! BENT

get bent out of shape

BERRY

be as brown as a berry RERTH

give sb/sth a wide berth

BESIDE

be beside the point be beside yourself

as best as you can as best you can at the best of times be for the best be on your best behavior be on your best behaviour be the best of a bad bunch/lot come off second best do your level best First in, best dressed. give it your best shot Honesty is the best policy. Laughter is the best medicine. make the best of a bad job make the best of sth man's best friend May the best man win. put your best foot forward sb's best bet second best six of the best the best of both worlds the best/greatest thing since sliced bread with the best will in the world your best bib and tucker

BET see also BETS

a safe bet a sure bet bet the farm/ranch Do you want a/to bet? Don't bet on it.

How much do you want to bet? I wouldn't bet on it.

sb's best bet

You bet your (sweet) ass! you can bet your life/your bottom dollar

RETIDE woe betide sb

BETS

hedge your bets

BETTER

against your better judgement Better late than never. better the devil you know

(than the devil you don't)

valour. for better or (for) worse

for better, for worse get the better of sb

Prevention is better than cure.

sh's better/other half think better of sth You('d) better believe it!

BETWEEN

between you and me between you, me and the bedpost/gatepost hit sb (right) between the eyes

BEYOND

above and beyond sth at/in the back of beyond be beyond sb's ken be beyond the pale your best bib and tucker RIBLE

the Bible Belt

but not in the biblical sense

do sb's bidding

BIDE

bide your time

BIG

a big ask a big cheese

a big deal a big fish

Better (to be) safe than sorry. Discretion is the better part of Discretion is the better part of

for want of a better word

go one better

Half a loaf is better than none. have seen better days

BETTERS

your elders and betters

beyond your wildest dreams beyond/without a shadow of a doubt

a Bible-basher a Bible-thumper

BIBLICAL

BIDDING

RIRD a bird-brain

RIND

A bird in the hand (is worth two in the bush).

a big fish in a small pond

a big girl's blouse

a big-mouth: see a big

Big Brother: see Big Brother

big-headed: see a big-head

big-time: see the big time

make a big thing (out) of sth

the last of the big spenders

too big for your boots

What's the big idea?

be bigger than life

belly/stomach The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

a clean bill of health

pick up the bill/tab

sell sb a bill of goods

On ver bike!

bill and coo

fill the bill

fit the bill

foot the bill

the Old Bill BILLET-DOUX

a billet-doux

a double bind

too big for your britches

have bigger/other fish to fry

sb's eyes are bigger than their

a big gun/noise

a big shot/wheel

a big-head

mouth

a big mouth

as big as life

be big of you

be big on sth

Big Brother

Big deal!

big ticket

have big ears make a big play of sth

make it big

the big picture

the (big) smoke

the big time

think big

BIGGER

BIKE

BILL

Mr Big the big daddy

big time

a bird's eye view

A little bird told me (so). an early bird

as free as a bird

bird-brained: see a bird-brain eat like a bird

flip/give sb the bird

The bird has flown. The early bird catches the worm.

BIRDS

be (strictly) for the birds birds of a feather: see Birds of a feather flock together. Birds of a feather flock together.

kill two birds with one stone

the birds and the bees BIRTHDAY

in your birthday suit

BISCUIT

take the biscuit BIT see also BITS a bit of all right a bit of fluff/skirt a bit of how's your father a bit of rough a bit on the side be a bit much be chafing at the bit be champing/chomping at the

get a bit much: see be a bit much get/take the bit between your teeth have the bit between your teeth: see get/take the bit between your teeth It's/That's a bit steep! not take a blind bit of notice take the bit in your teeth the hair of the dog (that bit vou)

the whole bit BITCH

a son of a bitch Son of a bitch!

BITE see also BITING, BITTEN a bite of the cherry a second bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry another bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry bite off more than you can chew bite the bullet bite the dust bite the hand that feeds you bite your tongue bite/snap sb's head off put the bite on sb sb's bark is worse than their hite

sb/sth won't bite BITER

the biter (is) bit

BITING What's biting sb?

be thrilled to bits

bits and bobs bits and pieces love sb/sth to bits

BITTEN

Once bitten, twice shy. RITTER a bitter pill (to swallow) be bitter and twisted bitter medicine the bitter fruits

BLACK

a black day a black mark black and blue black and white in black and white

to the bitter end

not be as black as you are/it is painted

pretend/say that black is white

swear black and blue the black sheep (of the

the pot calling the kettle black

BLAMES

A bad workman blames his tools

BLANK see also BLANKS

a blank cheque draw a blank point blank your mind goes blank your mind is a blank: see your mind goes blank BLANKET

a wet blanket

BLANKS fire/shoot blanks

BLAST a blast from the past blast/blow sb/sth to kingdom come

BLAZE

blaze a trail RI AZES

Go to blazes! like blue blazes [What/Why/Who etc.] the blue blazes BLAZING

all guns blazing

with (your) guns blazing

BLEED bleed sb dry

BLEEDING a bleeding heart

RIFFDS your heart bleeds

BLESS

Bless her/his cotton socks.

RIFSSING

be a blessing in disguise be a mixed blessing

BLESSINGS

count your blessings

BLIMP

a Colonel Blimp RLIND

a blind alley a blind date

a blind spot be as blind as a bat blind sb with science fly blind not take a blind bit of notice swear blind

the blind leading the blind

turn a blind eye BLINDER

play a blinder BLINDING

effing and blinding BLINK

he on the blink before sb could blink in the blink of an eye

RIISS

Ignorance is bliss. BLOCK

a chip off the old block a stumbling block knock sb's block off on the block put your head/neck on the block

the new kid on the block

BLOCKS

be off the (starting) blocks be out of the (starting) blocks on the/your (starting) blocks: see be off the (starting)

blocks RIOOD

a blood brother a (sudden) rush of blood (to the head)

bad blood be after sb's blood be baying for blood be in the/your blood be out for blood be sb's (own) flesh and blood blood and guts blood and thunder

Blood is thicker than water. blood, sweat and tears blue blood burst/bust a blood vessel draw blood flesh and blood get blood out of a stone have blood on your hands have sb's blood on your hands have tasted blood in cold blood

make sb's blood boil make sb's blood curdle

BLOODIED make sb's blood run cold new blood sb's blood boils: see make sb's blood boil sb's blood curdles; see make sb's blood run cold sh's blood is up sb's blood runs cold: see make sb's blood run cold scent blood spit blood sweat blood young blood BLOODIED bloodied but unbowed BLOODY bloody minded get a bloody nose: see give sb a bloody nose give sb a bloody nose scream bloody murder RLOT a blot on the landscape blot your copybook BLOUSE a big girl's blouse BLOW see also BLOWING, BLOWS a blow job a body blow a death blow blast/blow sb/sth to kingdom come blow a fuse/gasket blow a hole in sth blow a raspberry blow away the cobwebs blow-by-blow blow hot and cold blow it blow off steam blow sb's brains out blow sb's cover blow smoke blow sth out of (all) proportion blow sth sky-high blow sth wide open blow sth/sb out of the water blow the gaff blow the whistle on sb/sth blow up/explode in sb's face blow your mind

blow your own trumpet

blow/take the lid off sth

blow/toot your own horn

cushion/soften the blow

strike a blow against/at

strike a blow for sth/sb

blow/knock your socks off

blow/make a hole in sth

sth/sb: see strike a blow for blow your stack/top

BLOWING see how the wind is blowing see which way the wind is BLOWS come to blows It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good). BLUE a blue-eyed boy a bolt from the blue a bolt out of the blue be in a (blue) funk between the devil and the deep blue sea black and blue blue blood blue-blooded: see blue blood blue-collar into the wide/wild blue vonder like blue blazes once in a blue moon out of a clear (blue) sky: see out of the blue out of the blue [run around/rush around etc.] like a blue-arsed fly scream blue murder swear black and blue talk a blue streak the boys in blue until you are blue in the face [What/Why/Who etc.] the blue blazes BLUFS the baby blues call sb's bluff BLUSH at first blush BLUSHES save/spare sb's blushes BOARD across the board back to the drawing board be above board be as stiff as a board go by the board on board sweep the board take on board sth BOARDS go by the boards: see go by the board tread the boards BOAT be in the same boat miss the boat push the boat out rock the boat BOATS

burn your boats

Bob's your uncle!

bits and bobs BODICE-RIPPER a bodice-ripper a body blow body and soul he/she doesn't have a fiealous. mean, unkind etc.1 bone in his/her body keep body and soul together over my dead body there isn't a [mean, jealous, unkind etc.] bone in sb's body: see he/she doesn't have a [jealous, mean, unkind etc.] bone in his/her body ROG bog standard BOGGLES The mind boggles. BOIL can't boil an egg go off the boil make sb's blood boil on the boil BOILING reach boiling point BOILS A watched pot never boils. sb's blood boils: see make sb's blood boil BOLD as bold as brass a bolt from the blue a bolt out of the blue bolt upright shoot your bolt closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has bolted ROITS the nuts and bolts BOMB a smart bomb drop a bomb go (like) a bomb go like a bomb put a bomb under sth/sb BOMBSHELL drop a bombshell BONE a bone of contention be as dry as a bone be as dry as a bone be bone dry be bone idle be chilled to the bone/ marrow be close to the bone be cut to the bone be near the bone not be short of a bob or two

be skin and bone/bones chill sb to the bone/marrow have a bone to pick with sb he/she doesn't have a fiealous. mean, unkind etc. l bone in his/her body

there isn't a [mean, jealous, unkind etc.] bone in sb's body: see he/she doesn't have a [jealous, mean, unkind etc.] bone in his/her body

wear/work your fingers to the bone

BONES

a bag of bones be skin and bone/bones I (can) feel it in my bones. make no bones about sth put flesh on (the bones of) sth Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me).

the bare bones

BONNET

have a bee in your bonnet

BOO

not say boo wouldn't say boo wouldn't say boo to a fly wouldn't say boo to a goose

ROOK

a coffee table book be a closed book be an open book bring sb to book crack a book do sth by the book every trick in the book go by the book have your nose in a book in my book read sb like a book take a leaf out of sb's book the oldest trick in the book throw the book at sb You can't judge a book by its cover.

BOOKS

be in sb's bad books: see be in sb's good books be in sb's good books cook the books hit the books That's/There's a turn-up for the books That's/There's one for the

books. ROOM

lower the boom

BOOMER

a baby boomer

ROOT

be as full as a boot/tick get the boot: see give sb the boot

give sb the boot put the boot in the boot is on the other foot

BOOTS

a bossy boots a clever boots be as tough as old boots be quaking in your boots be shaking in your boots/shoes die with your boots on hang up your boots lick sb's boots make sb quake in their boots: see be quaking in your boots sb's heart is in their boots too big for your boots

BOOTSTRAPS

haul/pull yourself up by your bootstraps

BORE

bore the arse off sb bore the ass off sb

RORED

be bored stiff be bored to death/tears

RORN

(as) to the manner born be born with a silver spoon in your mouth born and bred I've never [felt/heard/seen etc.] sth in all my (born) days!

I/he/she wasn't born yesterday!

There's one born every minute.

BORROWED

living on borrowed time BOSOM

in the bosom of sb

BOSSY a bossy boots

BOTH

be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth burn the candle at both ends cut both/two ways have/keep a foot in both camps

play both ends against the middle

swing both ways the best of both worlds

the worst of both worlds: see the best of both worlds

BOTHERED

(all) hot and bothered

BOTTLE

be chief cook and bottle washer be on the bottle; see hit the bottle

hit the bottle let the genie out of the bottle put the genie back in the bottle: see let the genie out of the bottle

BOTTOM

at the bottom of the heap/pile be bumping along the bottom be/lie at the bottom of sth from the bottom of your heart from top to bottom get to the bottom of sth knock the bottom out of sth rock bottom sb's bottom drawer sb's bottom line the bottom drops/falls out of the market the bottom line you can bet your life/your bottom dollar

BOTTOMLESS

a bottomless pit

BOUNCES

That's the way the ball bounces.

ROUND

be bound and determined be duty bound to do sth BOUNDS

be out of bounds by/in leaps and bounds know no bounds

BOUNTIFUL

Lady Bountiful BOW

another string to your bow bow and scrape have [a lot of/a few/several etc.] strings to your bow: see another string to your bow

BOWL

Life is just a bowl of cherries. BOWS fire a shot across sb's/the bows

BOX

a brain box box clever box sb's ears chocolate box open a Pandora's box

ROY

a backroom boy a blue-eyed boy a boy toy

a fair-haired boy a golden boy/girl a mama's boy

a mummy's/mother's boy

a rent boy a toy boy

a whipping boy

a wide boy

All work and no play (makes Jack a dull boy).

man and boy

BOYS

Boys will be boys. jobs for the boys one of the boys separate/sort out the men from the boys

the boys in blue

BRAIN

a brain box a brain drain a brain trust he brain dead be out of your brain get your brain in gear

have sth on the brain rack your brain/brains

BRAINS

be all brawn and no brains be the brains behind sth beat your brains out blow sb's brains out have shit for brains pick sb's brains rack your brain/brains

BRAKES

put the brakes on

BRANCH

an olive branch: see hold out/offer an olive branch hold out/offer an olive branch

root and branch

BRASS

as bold as brass be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey: see brass monkey weather brass monkey weather get down to brass tacks have the brass (balls) to do sth have the brass (neck) to do sth the brass ring the top brass Where there's muck, there's

brass.

with (brass) knobs on

BRAVE

put a brave face/front on sth put on a brave face/front; see put a brave face/front on sth

BRAWN

be all brawn and no brains

BREACH

step into the breach BREAD

bread and butter: see sb's bread and butter bread and circuses know which side your bread is buttered (on)

Man cannot live by bread alone.

sb's bread and butter the best/greatest thing since sliced bread

BREADLINE

be/live below the breadline: see be/live on the breadline be/live on the breadline

BREADTH

a hair's breadth

BREAK see also BREAKING,

BREAKS, BROKE

a clean break be make or break for sb/sth: see make or break sth

Break a leg! break even break faith with sth/sb break new ground break ranks break sb's heart break the ice break the mould break wind break your back get an even break

Give me/us a break! give sb a break

give sb an even break: see get an even break make or break sth not break the bank Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt

Why break the habit of a #### lifetime? BREAKFAST

a dog's breakfast/dinner eat sb for breakfast

BREAKING

It's/You're breaking my heart!

You can't make an omelette without breaking eggs.

RREAKS

all hell breaks loose the straw that breaks the camel's back

BREAST

beat your breast breast-beating: see beat your breast

make a clean breast of it BREATH

a breath of fresh air

a waste of breath: see waste your breath catch your breath Don't hold your breath. get a/your second breath in the same breath take your breath away under your breath waste your breath

with bated breath BREATHE

breathe down sb's neck

breathe fire

breathe (new) life into sth live and breathe sth not breathe a word

BREATHING

Pardon me for breathing/living!

born and bred BREED

breed like rabbits BREEDS

Familiarity breeds contempt.

shoot the breeze/bull

RRFF7V

be bright and breezy

BREWERY

couldn't organize a piss-up in a brewery

BRICK

be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall be built like a brick shithouse be like talking to a brick be/come up against a brick wall drop sb/sth like a hot brick/potato hit a/the (brick) wall

shit a brick

BRICKS

be shitting bricks be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks have sb down on you like a ton of bricks: see be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks hit sb like a ton of bricks You can't make bricks without straw.

BRIDGE

be like painting the Forth Bridge be water under the bridge I'll/We'll cross that bridge when I/we come to it.

BRIDGES

build bridges burn your bridges BRIGHT

a bright spark a bright spot be as bright as a button be bright and breezy bright and early look on the bright side

the bright lights BRIGHT-EYED

be bright-eyed and bushy-

BRING see also BROUGHT bring a lump to your throat

bring home the bacon bring out the best in sb bring out the worst in sb: see not be your brother's keeper BUILT bring out the best in sb BROUGHT be built like a brick bring sb (back) down to earth: be brought/called to shithouse see come (back) down to earth account be built like a tank (with a bang/bump/jolt) look like something the cat be built on sand bring sb down a peg or two brought/dragged in Rome wasn't built in a day. bring sb face to face with sth: BULGING see come face to face with sth by the sweat of your brow be bulging/bursting at the bring sb full circle: see RROWN seams BULL come/go/turn full circle be as brown as a berry bring sb in from the cold: see BROWN-BAG be full of bull come in from the cold be like a bull in a china shop brown-bag: see brownbring sb out of their shell: see be like a red rag to a bull bagging come out of your shell BROWN-BAGGING bull-headed bring sb to book brown-bagging like a bull at a gate bring sb to the BROWN-NOSE shoot the breeze/bull take the bull by the horns [bargaining/peace etc.] brown-nose table BROWNIE BULLET bring sb to their senses: see earn/get brownie points bite the bullet BULLETS come to your senses BROWS bring sb/sth to their knees knit your brows sweat bullets BRUNT BULLY bring sb/sth up to scratch: see not be up to scratch bear/take the brunt of sth a bully pulpit bring sth home to sb RRUSH Bully for you! bring sth into play be as daft as a brush BUM see also BUMS broad (brush) strokes bring sth to a head: see come to a bum rap a head tar sb with the same brush a bum steer bring sth to bear RURRIF the bum's rush burst the bubble: see the bring sth to light RUMP bring sth/sb to mind bubble bursts come (back) down to earth bring the house down the bubble bursts (with a bang/bump/jolt) bring the roses to sb's cheeks BUCK like a bump on a log bring up the rear buck naked BUMPER bring/call sb to heel make a fast/quick buck bumper to bumper bring/pull sb up with a start [more/a bigger etc.] bang for bumper-to-bumper: see BRINK your buck bumper to bumper be on the brink of doing sth pass the buck BUMPING on the brink of sth The buck stops here. be bumping along the bottom BRITCHES The buck stops with sb.: see BUMPY too big for your britches The buck stops here. a bumpy/rough ride BROAD BUCKET RUMS a broad church a drop in the bucket bums on seats be broad in the beam kick the bucket BUN broad (brush) strokes BUCKETS have a bun in the oven in broad daylight sweat buckets BUNCH be the best of a bad bunch/lot BROADEN RUCKS broaden/widen sb's horizons a bucks party BUNDLE BROKE look/feel (like) a million a bundle of joy be flat broke bucks be a bundle of nerves go for broke RIID not be a bundle of laughs If it ain't broke, don't fix it. nip sth in the bud not go a bundle on sth They broke the mould when BUDGE BUNNIES they made sb/sth. not budge/give an inch fuck like bunnies BRONX BUFF BUNNY a Bronx cheer in the buff not be a happy bunny BUFFERS BROOM BURDEN hit the buffers a new broom a heast of hurden BUG BURIED BROTH Too many cooks (spoil the be as snug as a bug in a rug be dead and buried BURN see also BURNED, BURNbroth). BUGGERS play silly buggers

build/get/work up a head of

build bridges

steam

ING, BURNS, BURNT

burn your boats

burn your bridges

burn the midnight oil

burn the candle at both ends

BROTHER

a blood brother

Big Brother: see Big Brother

everyone and his brother

Big Brother

burn your fingers crash and burn do a slow burn have money to burn with money to burn; see have money to burn

BURNED be burned to a crisp

have/get your fingers burned/burnt BURNER

be on the back burner put sth on the back burner: see be on the back burner

RURNING

have sth burning a hole in your pocket keep the home fires burning Were your ears burning?: see your ears must be burning your ears must be burning

BURNS

fiddle while Rome burns

RURNIT

be burnt to a crisp have/get your fingers burned/burnt

BURST

burst the bubble; see the bubble bursts burst/bust a blood vessel

BURSTING

be bulging/bursting at the seams

BURSTS

the bubble bursts BURTON

gone for a burton

BURY

bury the hatchet bury your head in the sand

A bird in the hand (is worth two in the bush).

beat about/around the bush bush league

the bush telegraph RUSHFI

hide your light under a bushel BUSHES

beat the bushes

BUSHY-TAILED be bright-eyed and bushytailed BUSINESS

be in business business as usual business is business do a land-office business do a roaring business do the business funny business like nobody's business mean business Mind your own business! mix business with pleasure monkey business not in the business of doing sth the business end

BUSMAN

a busman's holiday

RUST

burst/bust a blood vessel bust a gut bust a gut (laughing) bust your arse bust your ass

bust your ass/balls

BUSTLE

hustle and bustle

BUSY

be a busy bee

be as busy as a bee BUT

in all but name

BUTS

no ifs and buts no ifs, ands or buts

be a pain in the ass/butt kick (sb's) butt sb's butt is on the line work your ass/butt off

BUTTER

bread and butter: see sb's bread and butter butter wouldn't melt in sb's cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter sb's bread and butter

BUTTERED

know which side your bread is buttered (on)

BUTTERFLIES have butterflies (in your stomach)

BUTTON

a hot button be as bright as a button be as cute as a button Button it!

have a/your finger on the hutton

hit/press/push the panic button

on the button press/push the right button/buttons

(right) on the button

BUTTONS

press/push the right button/buttons

a buzz word get a buzz from sth/doing sth: see give sb a buzz give sb a buzz BY

by a mile

by a nose by a whisker by and large by miles: see by a mile by the dozen without so much as a by-your-

leave RYGONES

Let bygones be bygones.

BYWAYS

the highways and byways

C-NOTE

CABOODLE

a C-note the whole (kit and) caboodle

CACK-HANDED

cack-handed

CADET

a space cadet CAGE

rattle sb's cage

CAHOOTS be in cahoots

CAIN

raise Cain

CAKE a slice of the cake

be a piece of cake have your cake and eat it (too)

take the cake

the frosting on the cake the icing on the cake

CAKES

go/sell like hot cakes

CALF

kill the fatted calf CALL a call girl

a clarion call a close call a judgment call a port of call a wake-up call answer the call of nature be at sb's beck and call be too close to call: see a close

call

bring/call sb to heel call a spade a spade

call it a day call it quits call off the dogs

call sb names call sb's bluff

call sth into question call the shots/tune

call/cash in your chips have first call on sth

not have a minute to call your own

be brought/called to account

CALLING a calling card

the pot calling the kettle black

CALLS

He who pays the piper calls

CALM

the calm before the storm

CAME

There are plenty more where they/that came from.

CAMEL

the straw that breaks the camel's back

CAMP see also CAMPS

a camp follower

CAMPER

not be a happy camper

CAMPS

have/keep a foot in both camps

CAN

a can of worms as best as you can as best you can be in the can can count sth on the fingers of

one hand

can-do can talk the legs off an iron carry the can I can take it or leave it. Piss or get off the can/pot! Shit or get off the can/pot! You can say that again! You can talk!

CAN'T

can't believe your ears can't boil an egg can't cut it can't cut the mustard can't do sth for toffee can't for the life of me can't hear yourself think can't hold a candle to sb/sth can't put a foot wrong: see not put a foot wrong can't take/keep your eyes off

sh/sth CANARY

like the cat that ate the canary

burn the candle at both ends can't hold a candle to sb/sth

CANDY

be as easy as taking candy from a baby

be like a kid in a candy store be like taking candy from a baby eye/mind candy

CANNON

a loose cannon

cannon fodder

CANOE

paddle your own canoe

a feather in sb's cap

come/go cap in hand If the cap fits (wear it). put your thinking cap on to cap it all to cap/crown/top it all

CAPITAL

with a capital [A/B/C etc.]

CARBON

a carbon copy

CARD see also CARDS

a calling card

a drawing card

a hole card

a trump card

a wild card

be one card/several cards short of a full deck have a card up your sleeve

CARD-CARRYING

be a card-carrying member of sth

CARDBOARD

cardboard city

CARDS a house of cards

be in the cards be on the cards

be one card/several cards short of a full deck have/hold all the cards (if you) play your cards right keep/play your cards close to your chest lay/put your cards on the table

the cards are stacked against sh

CARE

not care/give a fig not care/give a hoot not care/give a toss not care/give tuppence not care/give two hoots: see not care/give a hoot not have a care in the world without a care in the world: see not have a care in the world for all sb cares have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders roll out the red carpet sweep sth under the carpet CARRIED

be carried out feet first

CARROT-AND-STICK

carrot-and-stick CARROT-TOP

a carrot-top

CARRY

a cross (sb has) to carry carry a torch for sb carry the ball carry the can carry the day carry weight carry/take coals to Newcastle CART

put the cart before the horse

CARVED be carved/set in stone

CASE a basket case

a case in point

be on sb's case; see get on sb's

be on the case

get off sb's case: see get on sb's get on sb's case I rest my case.

make a federal case (out) of

make (out) a case for sth/doing sth

CASH

a cash cow call/cash in your chips cash on the barrelhead cold cash hard cash ready cash/money

CAST

be cast in the same mould cast a pall on/over sth cast aspersions on sb/sth cast-iron cast pearls before swine cast your lot with sb cast your mind back cast your net wide/wider cast/run your/an eye over sth the die is cast

CASTING

the casting couch

CASTLE

An Englishman's home is his castle.

king of the castle

CASTLES

castles in the air CAT see also CATS

a cat and mouse game: see play cat and mouse a fat cat

a grin like a Cheshire cat be like a cat on a hot tin roof be the cat's whiskers Curiosity killed the cat.

fight like cat and dog grin like a Cheshire cat: see a grin like a Cheshire cat

Has the cat got your tongue? let the cat out of the bag like the cat that ate the canary like the cat that got the cream look like something the cat brought/dragged in

Look what the cat's dragged in!

not have a cat in hell's chance not room to swing a cat play cat and mouse put/set the cat among the pigeons see which way the cat jumps There's more than one way to skin a cat. When/While the cat's away (the mice will play).

CATBIRD

be (sitting) in the catbird seat

CATCH see also CATCHES, CAUGHT a catch 22 situation catch 22 catch a few rays catch-as-catch-can catch sb cold catch sb in the act catch sb on the hop catch sb red-handed catch sb with their fingers/hand in the till: see have your fingers/hand in the till catch sb's/the drift catch some ravs catch the wave catch your breath catch/cop/get some z's catch/get hell catch sb's eve

catch/have sb bang to rights catch/have sb dead to rights catch/take sb off guard if you catch/get my drift: see get sb's/the drift if you catch/get the drift: see get sb's/the drift you'll catch it You'll catch your death (of cold)!

CATCHES

if sb/sth catches a cold, sb/sth gets pneumonia The early bird catches the worm when sb/sth sneezes, sb/sth catches a cold

fight like cats and dogs: see fight like cat and dog It's raining cats and dogs!

CATTLE

a cattle market

CATTY-CORNER catty-corner

CATTY-CORNERED catty-cornered: see catty-

corner CAUGHT

be caught between two stools be caught in the crossfire

be caught in the middle

be caught napping be caught short

be caught with your pants/trousers down

be like a deer/rabbit caught in the headlights

wouldn't be caught/seen dead CAUSE

a lost cause

cause/create a stir make common cause with sb

CAUTION

err on the side of caution throw caution to the wind(s) an Aladdin's cave CAVES

the roof caves/falls in CEILING

a glass ceiling hit the ceiling/roof

CEMENT

could talk under wet cement

CENT

not a red cent

CENTER see also CENTRE be/take center stage: see

be/take centre stage

CENTRE

be/take centre stage left, right and centre

CENTS

for two cents put your two cents (worth) in your two cents (worth): see put your two cents (worth) in

CERT

be a dead cert CERTAIN

sb of a certain age

CHAFE

separate the wheat from the chaff

CHAFING

be chafing at the bit

CHAIN

a ball and chain

a weak link (in the chain) pull/yank sb's chain

CHAIR

keep sb on the edge of their chair

nearly fall off your chair CHALICE

a poisoned chalice

CHALK

be as different as chalk and cheese be (like) chalk and cheese

chalk sth up to experience not by a long chalk

CHALKFACE at the chalkface CHAMPING

be champing/chomping at the

CHANCE

a fifty-fifty chance a fighting chance

a sporting chance

Chance would be a fine thing!

chance your arm

Fat chance!

given half a/the chance have an eye for/on the main

chance

not a ghost of a chance

not have a cat in hell's chance not have a chance/hope in hell not have a dog's chance

not have a snowball's chance in hell

stand a chance

CHANCES

You pays your money (and you takes your chances).

CHANGE

a change of heart

A leopard can't/doesn't change its spots.

a sea change

change hands change tack

change your tune

change/keep up/move with the times

change/mend your ways chop and change

get no change out of sb the change of life

CHANGES

ring the changes

CHAPTER

be a chapter of accidents give/quote (sb) chapter and verse

CHARITY

Charity begins at home.

CHARLEY

a charley horse CHARM

work like a charm

CHARMED have/lead/live a charmed life

CHASE

a paper chase a wild-goose chase chase rainbows chase the dragon

cut to the chase CHASER

an ambulance chaser CHASING

be chasing your tail

CHATTELS your goods and chattels

CHATTERING

the chattering classes

CHEAP

a cheap shot cheap and cheerful cheap and nasty

Cheap at half the price!

dirt cheap life is cheap

on the cheap pile it/them high and sell

it/them cheap

CHECK

a rubber check ask (sb) for a rain check; see

I'll take a rain check hold/keep sth/sb in check I'll get a rain check

I'll take a rain check

checks and balances

CHEDDAR

Hard/Tough cheddar! Stiff cheddar!

CHEEK

cheek by jowl tongue in cheek turn the other cheek with your tongue in your

cheek CHEEKS

bring the roses to sh's cheeks put the roses in sb's cheeks

CHEER

a Bronx cheer cheer sb to the echo CHEERFUL

cheap and cheerful

CHEESE

a big cheese be as different as chalk and cheese be (like) chalk and cheese

cheese-paring Hard/Tough cheese!

Say cheese! Stiff cheese!

CHEQUE

a blank cheque CHERRIES

Life is just a bowl of cherries.

CHERRY

a bite of the cherry a second bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry another bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry cherry-pick sb/sth cherry-picking: see cherry-

pick sb/sth CHESHIRE

a grin like a Cheshire cat grin like a Cheshire cat: see a grin like a Cheshire cat

CHEST

a hope chest

get it off your chest

keep/play your cards close to your chest

put hair(s) on your chest

CHESTNUT

an old chestnut

CHEW

bite off more than you can chew sb's ass (out) chew the cud chew the fat chew the rag

CHICKEN

a chicken and egg situation be no spring chicken

chicken feed chicken-hearted

like a chicken with its head cut off

like a headless chicken

CHICKENS

chickens come home to roost Don't count your chickens (before they're hatched).

be chief cook and bottle washer

CHIFFS

too many chiefs (and not enough Indians)

a latchkey child/kid a love child be child's play be like a child in a sweetshop be with child

CHILDREN

Children should be seen and not heard.

CHILL

chill sb to the bone/marrow

CHILLED

be chilled to the bone/marrow be chilled/frozen to the

marrow

CHILLS

send chills down/up sb's spine

be up to your chin in sth

Chin up! keep your chin up: see Chin

up!

take it on the chin

be like a bull in a china shop would not do sth for all the tea in China

CHINK

a chink in sb's armor a chink in sb's armour

CHINLESS

a chinless wonder

CHIP

a bargaining chip

a chip off the old block have a chip on your shoulder

CHIPS

be in the chips call/cash in your chips have had its chips have had your chips let the chips fall where they spit chips/tacks when the chips are down

CHOCOLATE chocolate box

CHOICE

be spoiled for choice

be spoilt for choice Hobson's choice

You pays your money (and you takes your choice).

CHOMPING

be champing/chomping at the bit

CHOOSERS

Beggars can't be choosers. CHOP

be for the chop: see get the chop be given the chop chop and change

Chop chop!

get the chop CHORD

strike a chord strike/touch a chord

CHOSEN

the chosen few

CHRISTMAS

like turkeys voting for (an early) Christmas

CHUMP

be off your chump CHURCH

a broad church

be as poor as church mice

CIGAR

Close, but no cigar.

CIRCLE

a vicious circle

bring sb full circle: see come/go/turn full circle come/go/turn full circle square the circle

The wheel has come/turned full circle.: see come/go/turn

full circle CIRCLES

go around/round in circles run around/round in circles

CIRCULATION

back in circulation: see out of circulation out of circulation

CIRCUMSTANCE

pomp and circumstance CIRCUMSTANCES

in reduced circumstances

CIRCUS

a three-ring circus

CIRCUSES

bread and circuses

CITIZEN

a second-class citizen

cardboard city

keep a civil tongue in your

head

CLAIM

sh's claim to fame stake a/vour claim

CLAM

be as happy as a clam shut up like a clam

CLANGER

drop a clanger

CLAP

clap eyes on sb/sth

CLAPHAM

the man/woman on the Clapham omnibus

CLAPPED-OUT clapped-out

CLAPPERS

like the clappers

CLARION

a clarion call

CLASSES the chattering classes

claw your way back from sth

fight tooth and claw/nail

CLAWS get her claws into sb

get your claws into sb

CLAY feet of clay

CLEAN

a clean bill of health

a clean break

a clean sheet

a clean slate

a clean sweep

be as clean as a new pin be as clean as a whistle

clean up your act

come clean

have clean hands: see keep your hands clean

keep your hands clean

keep your nose clean

make a clean breast of it

show sb a clean pair of

heels

squeaky clean

wipe the slate clean: see a clean slate

CLEANER

take sb to the cleaner's CLEANLINESS

Cleanliness is next to Godliness.

CIFAR

be as clear as crystal

be as clear as mud

be as clear/plain as day be in the clear

clear-cut

clear-eved

clear sb's name

clear the air

clear the decks

crystal clear: see be as clear as

crystal

leave the field clear for sb

loud and clear

out of a clear (blue) sky; see out of the blue

steer clear of sth/sb

the coast is clear

CLEFT

in a cleft stick

CLEVER

a clever boots

a clever clogs

a clever dick

be too clever by half

box clever

CLIMB

a mountain to climb

climb/get on your high

climb/get/hop into bed with sb: see be in bed with sb

CLIMBER

a social climber

CLIMBING

be climbing the walls

cling on/hang on by your

fingernails

cling on/hang on by your

fingertips

CLIP

clip sb's wings

CLOAK-AND-DAGGER

cloak-and-dagger

around-the-clock: see around/round the clock

around/round the clock

clock-watching: see watch the clock

kill the clock

put/turn the clock back

race against the clock run out the clock

watch the clock

work against the clock

CLOCKWORK

be as regular as clockwork

go/run/work like clockwork

like clockwork CLOGS

a clever clogs pop your clogs CLOSE see also CLOSED. CLOSING a close call a close shave he close to home

be close to the bone

be close to the mark

be too close for comfort

be too close to call: see a close call

close ranks

close up shop

Close your eyes and think of England.

Close, but no cigar. close/dear to sb's heart

close/near at hand

close/shut the door on sth close/shut your eves to sth

keep/play your cards close to your chest

sail close to the wind

sail close to the wind

CLOSED be a closed book

behind closed doors

closed-door: see behind closed doors

sb could do sth with their eyes closed/shut

CLOSET

a skeleton in the/your closet come out of the closet

in the closet: see come out of the closet CLOSING

closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has bolted

CLOTH

a man of the cloth

be cut from the same cloth

cloth ears cut your cloth according to your means cut your coat according to your

cloth

invent sth out of whole

cloth

make sth up out of whole

cloth

take the cloth CLOTHING

a wolf in sheep's clothing

CLOUD

a cloud on the horizon

be on cloud nine

be under a cloud Every cloud has a silver lining. CLOUD-CUCKOO

live in cloud-cuckoo land CLOUDS

have your head in the clouds

with your head in the clouds: see have your head in the clouds

CLOVER

be in clover

CLUR

be in the club be in the pudding club Join the club! Welcome to the club!

CLUE

not have a clue

CLUTCH

clutch/grasp at straws

CLUTCHES

be in sb's clutches: see fall into sb's clutches fall into sb's clutches

COACH

drive a coach and horses through sth

COALFACE

at the coalface

COALS

carry/take coals to Newcastle drag/haul sb over the coals rake over the coals

COAST

coast-to-coast: see (from) coast to coast (from) coast to coast

the coast is clear COASTER

a roller coaster

COAT

cut your coat according to your cloth on sb's coat-tails

COATS

the men in white coats COBWEBS

blow away the cobwebs

COCK

a cock-and-bull story cock a snook the cock of the walk

COCKLES

warm the cockles of your heart

COFFEE

a coffee table book Wake up and smell the coffee!

COFFIN

another nail in the coffin the final nail in the coffin

a cog in the machine/wheel COIL

shuffle off this mortal coil COIN

be different/opposite sides of the same coin

be two sides of the same coin pay sb back in their own coin the other side of the coin to coin a phrase

COINING

be coining it be coining money

COLD

a cold fish a cold snap be as cold as ice be cold comfort be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey: see brass monkey weather blow hot and cold bring sb in from the cold: see come in from the cold catch sb cold cold cash cold-shoulder sb: see give sb the cold shoulder cold turkey cold-turkey: see cold turkey come in from the cold feel/go hot and cold (all over) get cold feet give sb the cold shoulder if sb/sth catches a cold, sb/sth gets pneumonia in a (cold) sweat in cold blood in the cold light of day leave sb cold leave sb out in the cold make sb's blood run cold pour/throw cold water on sth sb's blood runs cold: see make sb's blood run cold take a cold shower when sb/sth sneezes, sb/sth catches a cold

You'll catch your death (of cold)!

COLLAR hot under the collar

COLLISION

be on a collision course put/set sb on a collision course: see be on a collision course

COLONEL

a Colonel Blimp COLOR see also COLOUR

a horse of another/a different color

COLORS see also COLOURS come through/pass with flying colors

COLOUR

see the colour of sb's money COLOURS

come through/pass with flying colours nail your colours to the mast sail under false colours

see sb in their true colours: see show sb in their true colours

see sb's true colours: see show sb in their true colours show sb in their true colours show your true colours: see show sb in their true colours

COMB

with a fine-tooth comb COME see also CAME, COMING, COMES

be as [crazy/rich etc.] as they be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks be/come up against a brick chickens come home to roost come a cropper

come a gutser Come again? come (back) down to earth

(with a bang/bump/iolt) come back from the dead come clean come down the pike come face to face with sb come face to face with sth come hell or high water come home to roost: see chickens come home to roost come home to sb: see bring sth home to sb come in for [a lot of/some etc.] stick come in from the cold come into full play: see allow/give sth full play come into your/its own come of age come off second best come on like gangbusters come on strong come one, come all come out fighting come out in the wash come out of the closet come out of your shell come out swinging come out/up smelling like roses

come out/up smelling of roses (come) rain or shine

come the raw prawn come through/pass with flying colors come to a full stop come to a head come to a sticky end come to blows come to grief come to heel

worst

crunch

if worst comes to worst

if/when it comes to the

if/when push comes to shove

Pride comes before a fall.

take each day as it comes

take sth as it comes

come to light: see bring sth to the curtain comes down on CONCRETE light be set in concrete come to terms with sth when your ship comes in CONDITION come to the [bargaining/peace COMEUPPANCE be in mint condition etc.] table: see bring sb to the get your comeuppance CONJURE [bargaining/peace etc.] table COMFORT see also COMFORTS a name to conjure with CONNIPTION come to your senses be cold comfort come under fire be too close for comfort have a conniption fit come unglued COMFORTER CONQUER come unstuck a Job's comforter divide and conquer/rule come up with the goods COMFORTS CONS creature comforts come up/turn up trumps the pros and cons COMING CONSCIENCE come what may come within a whisker of be coming/falling apart at the prick sb's conscience sth/doing sth seams CONSPICUOUS come within an ace of Everything's coming up be conspicuous by your sth/doing sth roses. absence come within an inch of doing had it coming CONTEMPLATE have sth coming out of your gaze at/contemplate your come/crawl out of the navel woodwork If sb thinks sth, they've got CONTEMPT come/get (down) off your high another thing/think coming! Familiarity breeds not be backward in coming horse: see climb/get on your contempt. forward CONTENT high horse come/get to grips with sth not know if/whether you are to your heart's content come/go along for the ride coming or going CONTENTION come/go cap in hand see it coming a bone of contention come/go down in the world What's the world coming to? CONTRADICTION come/go hat in hand COMINGS a contradiction in terms come/go under the hammer the comings and goings CONTRARY contrary to popular come/go up in the world: see COMMAS in inverted commas come/go down in the world belief/opinion come/go with the territory COMMIT CONVENTIONAL come/go/turn full circle commit sth to memory the conventional/received come/spring to mind COMMON wisdom easy come, easy go as common as muck CONVERSATION First come, first served. common ground a conversation piece have come a long way common-or-garden CONVERTED I'll/We'll cross that bridge make common cause with sb preach to the converted when I/we come to it. the common touch CONVICTIONS If Mohammed will not go to have the courage of your the lowest common the mountain, the mountain denominator convictions must come to Mohammed. COMPANY coo It'll all come out in the wash. be in good company bill and coo not come amiss Misery loves company. COOK see also COOKED, not come up to scratch: see not present company excepted COOKING be up to scratch present company excluded be chief cook and bottle the shape of things to come two's company (three's a washer The wheel has come/turned crowd) cook sb's goose full circle.: see come/go/turn COMPARE cook the books full circle compare notes COOKED things have come to/reached a COMPARISON be cooked/done to a turn pretty pass pale by/in comparison COOKIE until the cows come home COMPLIMENT a smart cookie COMES a back-handed compliment a tough cookie as it comes a left-handed compliment cookie-cutter if the worst comes to the return the compliment That's the way the cookie

COMPLIMENTS

CONCLUSION

CONCLUSIONS

COMPOS

fish for compliments

a foregone conclusion

jump to conclusions

be compos mentis

crumbles.

be cooking on gas

What's cooking?

be cooking with gas

COOKS see also COOKS

Too many cooks (spoil the

COOKING

broth).

COOL

a cool customer

a cool head

be as cool as a cucumber

Cool it!

cool your heels

keep your cool lose your cool

play it cool

COOP

fly the coop

COOT

be as bald as a coot

catch/cop/get some z's

cop a feel

cop a plea

cop it sweet It's a fair cop.

not be much cop

COPPER-BOTTOMED

copper-bottomed COPY

a carbon copy COPYBOOK

blot your copybook

CORD

cut the (umbilical) cord

be rotten to the core

to the core

CORNER

around the corner

be backed into a corner be in a tight corner/spot corner the market

fight your corner

have sb in your corner paint yourself into a corner

turn the corner

CORNERS

cut corners the four corners of the earth/world

CORPS

esprit de corps

CORRECT

politically correct CORRIDORS

the corridors of power

COST

and hang the cost/expense

cost (sb) a pretty penny cost (sb) an arm and a leg cost sb dear count the cost

COSTS

at all costs

COTTON

Bless her/his cotton socks. wrap sb up in cotton wool

COTTON-PICKING cotton-picking

COUCH

a couch potato

the casting couch

COULD

I could eat a horse. I could murder sth.

You could've fooled me.

COLINSEL

keep your own counsel COUNT

be out for the count

one hand

can count sth on the fingers of

count the cost

count your blessings

Don't count your chickens (before they're hatched).

COUNTED

stand up and be counted

COUNTER

a bargaining counter a bean counter

over the counter

over-the-counter: see over the counter

under the counter COUNTRY

go to the country

It's a free country! the old country

COUPLE

be a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic: see be one sandwich short of a picnic in a couple of shakes

COURAGE

Dutch courage have the courage of your convictions screw up your courage

COURSE

as a matter of course be on a collision course

be on course for sth

be on course to do sth be par for the course

in due course

let nature take its course put/set sb on a collision course: see be on a collision course run its course stay the course

COURSES

Horses for courses.

COURT

a kangaroo court get/have your day in court

hold court

laugh sth/sb out of court

put the ball in sb's court: see the ball is in sb's court

the ball is in sb's court

COUSIN

a kissing cousin COVENTRY

send sb to Coventry

COVER

blow sh's cover cover all the bases

cover the waterfront cover your ass cover your back cover your tracks cover/hide a multitude of

sins

You can't judge a book by its cover.

COW

a cash cow

a sacred cow

have a cow cows

until the cows come home

CRACK

a hard/tough nut to crack at the crack of dawn crack a book

crack a smile

crack the whip

get a crack at sth: see have/take a crack at sth get/have a fair crack of the whip: see give sb a fair crack of the whip

give sb a fair crack of the have/take a crack at sth use a sledgehammer to crack a nut

CRACKED

not be all it's cracked up to be

CRACKING

Get cracking!

CRACKS

fall/slip through the cracks paper/smooth over the cracks

CRADLE

a cradle-robber

a cradle-snatcher

cradle-snatching: see a cradle-

from the cradle to the grave rob the cradle: see a cradle-robber

The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world).

CRAMP

cramp sb's style

CRANNIES nooks and crannies: see every

nook and cranny

CRANNY

every nook and cranny

be full of crap/shit Cut the crap!

CRASH

crash and burn

CRASHING

your whole world came crashing down around you CRAW

stick in your craw

CRAWL

a pub crawl

come/crawl out of the

woodwork

make sb's flesh crawl/creep make sb's skin crawl

CRAZY

like crazy

CREAM

like the cat that got the cream the cream of the crop

CREATE cause/create a stir

CREATURE

creature comforts CREDIBILITY

a credibility gap

CREEK

be up shit creek (without a paddle)

be up the creek (without a paddle)

CREEP

make sb's flesh crawl/creep

give sb the creeps/willies

CREST

be on the crest of a wave ride the crest of a wave: see be on the crest of a wave

CRICKET

It's/That's (just) not cricket!

CRIME

Crime doesn't pay. partners in crime

CRISP

be burned to a crisp be burnt to a crisp

CROCK

be a crock of shit

CROCODILE

shed/weep crocodile tears

CROOK

by hook or by crook

CROP

the cream of the crop

CROPPER

come a cropper

CROSS

a cross (sb has) to bear a cross (sb has) to carry

at cross-purposes

Cross my heart (and hope to die).

cross sb's path cross swords with sb

cross the line

cross the Rubicon

cross your fingers

cross your mind

dot the/your i's and cross

the/your t's

Everyone has their cross to bear: see a cross (sb has) to

bear

I'll/We'll cross that bridge when I/we come to it.

sb's paths cross

CROSSED

fingers crossed: see cross your

fingers

get your lines/wires crossed keep your fingers crossed

CROSSFIRE

be caught in the crossfire

CROW see also CROWS

as the crow flice eat crow

CROWD

a crowd-puller two's company (three's a crowd)

CROWN

the jewel in the crown to cap/crown/top it all

CROWS

be up with the crows Stone the crows!

CRUEL

You have to be cruel to be kind.

CRUMBLES

That's the way the cookie crumbles.

CRUMPET

the thinking man's/woman's crumpet

CRUNCH

if/when it comes to the crunch

CRUNCHER

a number cruncher CRUNCHING

number crunching: see a number cruncher

CRUST

the upper crust

CRY see also CRYING

a cry-baby

a hue and cry

a shoulder to cry on ask/cry for the moon

be a far cry from sth

be in full cry cry like a baby

cry wolf

cry your eyes out cry/sob your heart out

not know whether to laugh or

CRYING

a voice crying in the wilderness

For crying out loud!

It's a crying shame! It's no good/use crying over spilt milk.

There's no point crying over spilt milk.

CRYSTAL

be as clear as crystal

crystal clear: see be as clear as crystal

CUCUMBER

be as cool as a cucumber

chew the cud

CUDGELS

take up the cudgels against sb/sth: see take up the cudgels for sb/sth take up the cudgels for sb/sth take up the cudgels on behalf of sb/sth CULTURE

a culture shock

a culture vulture CUP see also CUPS

not be sb's cup of tea

There's many a slip twixt cup and lip.

CUPBOARD

a skeleton in the/your cupboard cupboard love CUPS

be in your cups

CURATE

a curate's egg

CURB-CRAWLER

a curb-crawler: see a kerbcrawler

CURB-CRAWLING

curb-crawling: see a kerbcrawler

CURDLE

make sb's blood curdle

sb's blood curdles: see make

sb's blood run cold

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. kill or cure

Prevention is better than cure

CURIOSITY

Curiosity killed the cat.

curl sh's hair

curl sb's toes

curl your lip make sb's hair curl

make sb's toes curl

want to curl up and die

CURLIES have sb by the short and

curlies CURRY

curry favour

CURTAIN

the curtain comes down on sth

the curtain falls on sth the final curtain CURTAINS it's curtains CURVE throw (sb) a curve (ball) CUSHION cushion/soften the blow CHISS not give a tinker's cuss CUSTOMER a cool customer an awkward customer CUT see also CUTTING be a cut above sth/sb be cut from the same cloth be cut to the bone can't cut it can't cut the mustard cut a dash cut a deal cut a fine figure cutarug cut a swath/swathe through sth cut an [interesting/ridiculous/unus ual etc. l figure cut-and-dried cut and run cut both/two ways cut corners cut it/things fine cut loose cut loose sb/sth: see cut loose cut no ice with sb cut off your nose to spite your cut ch doad cut sh down to size cut sb some slack cut sb to the quick Cut the crap! cut the Gordian knot: see a Gordian knot cut the ground from under sb/sb's feet cut the (umbilical) cord cut to the chase cut up rough cut your cloth according to your means cut your coat according to your cloth cut your eye teeth cut your losses cut your own throat cut your teeth cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter Fish or cut bait.

have your work cut out (for

like a chicken with its head cut off

the cut and thrust of sth to cut a long story short you could cut the atmosphere with a knife

CUTE

be as cute as a button

CUTTING

at/on the cutting edge

CYLINDERS

be firing on all cylinders

DAB

be a dab hand DADDY

the big daddy

DAFT

be as daft as a brush

DAGGERS

be at daggers drawn

look daggers at sb

be pushing up (the) daisies

DAISY

be as fresh as a daisy

DALE

up hill and down dale DAM

be water over the dam

DAMASCUS

your road to Damascus DAMN

damn sb/sth with faint

praise

not give a damn not give a tinker's damn

DAMNED

be damned if you do and damned if you don't

DAMOCLES

a sword of Damocles hangs over sb

a sword of Damocles hangs over sb's head

DAMP

a damp squib

DAMPENER

put a damper/dampener on

sth DAMPER

put a damper/dampener on

DANCE

a song and dance dance to sb's tune lead sb a (merry) dance make a song and dance about sth/doing sth

DANGEROUS

on dangerous ground

DARK

a dark horse a shot in the dark be in the dark be whistling in the dark dark-horse: see a dark horse keep sth dark keep/leave sb in the dark; see be in the dark

DARKEN

never darken your door again

DARKEST

The darkest hour is just before the dawn.

DASH

cut a dash

DATE

a blind date

a heavy date

be past your sell-by date

DAUNTED

nothing daunted

DAWN

a false dawn

at the crack of dawn The darkest hour is just before the dawn.

DAWNS

light dawns

DAY see also DAYS

a black day a nine/one/seven-day wonder

a rainy day fund: see save (sth)

for a rainy day

a red-letter day

An apple a day keeps the doctor away. at all hours (of the day and

at the end of the day

be all in a day's work

be as clear/plain as day

be as honest as the day (is long)

be the order of the day

call it a day

carry the day

day in and day out

day in, day out

day-to-day

Don't give up the day job!

Every dog has its day.

get/have your day in court

have a bad hair day

have a field day have had its/your day

in the cold light of day

in this day and age

late in the day

live to fight another day

make sb's day

name the day

not give sb the time of day

pass the time of day

Rome wasn't built in a day.

save (sth) for a rainy day

save the day

see the light (of day)

seize the day

take each day as it comes

take it one day at a time

That'll be the day!

the day of reckoning Tomorrow's another day. win the day

DAYLIGHT

daylight robbery in broad daylight DAYLIGHTS

beat/knock the (living) daylights out of sb frighten/scare the (living) daylights out of sb have seen better days I've never [felt/heard/seen etc.1 sth in all my (born) days! it's early days (yet) sb's/sth's days are numbered sb's/sth's glory days the dog days

the good old days the halcyon days Those were the days!

your salad days

DEAD a dead duck a dead end a dead letter a dead weight be a dead cert be a dead loss be a dead ringer for sb/sth be as dead as a dodo be as dead as a doornail he brain dead be dead and buried he dead from the neck up be dead from the waist down be dead in the water be dead meat

be dead on your feet be dead to the world be the dead spit of sb beat a dead horse catch/have sb dead to rights come back from the dead

cut sh dead

dead-end: see a dead end Dead men tell no tales.

dead wood Drop dead! flog a dead horse in the dead of night/winter knock them/'em dead over my dead body rise from the dead the dead hand of sth

wouldn't be caught/seen dead DEAF

he as deaf as a doorknob/doornail be as deaf as a post fall on deaf ears turn a deaf ear

DEAL

a big deal

a done deal

a sweet deal Big deal! cut a deal get a raw deal What's the deal?

wheel and deal: see wheeling and dealing

DEALING

wheeling and dealing

a Dear John letter close/dear to sh's heart cost sb dear hang/hold on (to sth/sb) for dear life

DEAREST

your nearest and dearest

DEATH

a death blow a death trap a living death

a matter of life and/or death be a fate worse than death be at death's door be bored to death/tears be done to death be frightened/scared to death: see frighten/scare sb to death

be sick to death of sth/doing

be tickled pink/to death heat sth to death hore sh to death/tears: see he bored to death/tears

dice with death die a death

die a natural death flog sth to death frighten/scare sb to death hang/hold on like grim death like death (warmed over) like death (warmed up) on/under pain of death sign sth's death warrant: see sign your own death

warrant

sign your own death warrant sound/toll the death knell the death knell; see sound/toll

the death knell the kiss of death to death You'll catch your death (of cold)! DECK see also DECKS

all hands on deck be one card/several cards short of a full deck hit the deck/dirt on deck

stack the deck DECKCHAIRS

be like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic

DECKS

clear the decks

DEEP

be in deep water be in deep/the shit be in too deep

Beauty is only skin deep. between the devil and the deep blue sea

deep down deep pockets

deep-six sb/sth dig deep get into deep water; see be in deep water

go off the deep end

go/run deep jump in at the deep end: see throw sb in at the deep end still waters run deep throw sb in at the deep end

be like a deer/rabbit caught in the headlights

DEGREE

the third degree to the nth degree

DELIGHT

be in a transport of delight/joy

DELIVER

deliver the goods DELIVERED

signed, sealed and delivered

DELUSIONS

delusions of grandeur DEMON

the demon drink DEN

beard sb in their den beard the lion in their den the lions' den DENOMINATOR

the lowest common

denominator

DENT

make a dent in sth put a dent in sth

DEPART

depart this life DEPARTMENT

be sb's department: see not be

sb's department not be sb's department

DEPTH

be out of your depth

DEPTHS

plumb new depths: see plumb the depths plumb the depths sink to such depths

DESERTS

get your just deserts

DESERVE deserve a medal DESERVES

One good turn deserves another.

DESIGN see also DESIGNS

more by accident than (by) design

(whether) by accident or design

DESIGNATED a designated driver

DESIGNS

have designs on sb have designs on sth

DESIRED

leave a lot to be desired

DETAILS

the gory details

DETERMINED

be bound and determined DEVICES

leave sb to their own devices DEVIL better the devil you know (than the devil you don't) between the devil and the deep blue sea

devil-may-care give the devil his due

Go to the devil!

have the devil's own job doing sth/to do sth have the devil's own luck have the luck of the devil (let) the devil take the hindmost

play devil's advocate sell your soul (to the devil) speak/talk of the devil The devil finds work for idle

hands.

DIAMOND a diamond in the rough a rough diamond

DIARRHEA verbal diarrhea

DIARRHOEA verbal diarrhoea

DIBS have dibs on sth

DICE

dice with death

the dice are loaded against sb

a clever dick

Tom, Dick and/or Harry DIDDLY-SQUAT

diddly-squat

as straight as a die be as straight as a die Cross my heart (and hope to die a death

die a natural death

die hard

die on the vine

die with your boots on

It's do or die. Never say die.

the die is cast to die for

want to curl up and die

DIE-HARD

die-hard: see die hard

I beg to differ/disagree

DIFFERENCE

a world of difference make all the difference

Same difference.

DIFFERENT a horse of another/a different color

a totally different ball game be another/a different kettle of fish

he as different as chalk and cheese be cast in a different mould: see be cast in the same mould be different/opposite sides of the same coin

(It's) different strokes for different folks.

march to a different drummer march to a different tune try a different tack

DIG

dig deep

dig the dirt dig up dirt dig your heels in dig your own grave dig yourself into a hole: see be in a hole dig/dip into your pocket dig/get sb out of a hole: see be in a hole DIGGER

a gold digger DIGNITY

stand on your dignity DILEMMA

be on the horns of a dilemma

be a dime a dozen nickel and dime sb not be worth a dime on a dime

DINE

wine and dine sb

DINING

wining and dining: see wine and dine sb

DINKUM

fair dinkum DINNER

a dog's breakfast/dinner be done like a (dog's) dinner done up/dressed up like a dog's dinner

DINNERS

have [done/seen/had etc.] more sth than sb has had hot dinners

DIP

dig/dip into your pocket DIPLOMACY

gunboat diplomacy

shuttle diplomacy

be in dire straits

DIRT

dig the dirt dig up dirt dirt cheap

dirt-poor

dish the dirt do sb dirt hit the deck/dirt hit/strike pay dirt rub sb's nose in the dirt treat sh like dirt

DIRTY

a dirty old man a dirty trick a dirty weekend

a dirty word air your dirty laundry/linen

in public dirty your hands

do sb's dirty work do the dirty on sb get your hands dirty give/shoot sb a dirty look play dirty talk dirty

wash your dirty

laundry/linen in public DISAGREE

I beg to differ/disagree DISAPPEAR disappear/vanish into thin air: see out of thin air disappear/vanish off the face of the earth

DISASTER

a disaster area

DISCRETION be the soul of discretion

Discretion is the better part of Discretion is the better part of valour.

DISGUISE

be a blessing in disguise DISH

dish the dirt DISHWATER

be as dull as

dishwater/ditchwater

DISTANCE

go the (full) distance in/within spitting distance DISTRACTION in/within striking distance DISTRACTION drive sb to distraction DISTRICT the red-light district DITCHWATER be as dull as dishwater/ditchwater DIVIDE divide and conquer/rule divide-and-conquer/rule: see divide and conquer/rule DIVIDENDS pay dividends DIVINE To err is human, (to forgive, divine). DIVING ducking and diving DIXIE be whistling Dixie DO see also DOING, DONE a rum do be damned if you do and damned if you don't do a double take do a job on sb/sth do a land-office business do a moonlight flit do a number on sb do a roaring business do a roaring trade do (double) duty as/for sth Do me a favour! do me/us a favour do-or-die: see It's do or die. do sb a power of good do sb dirt do sb proud do sb the world of good do sb's bidding do sb's dirty work do sb's head in do sth by the book do the business do the dirty on sb do the honors: see do the honours do the honours do the job do the rounds do the trick do time Do you mind! do your homework do your level best

do your nut do your own thing

do your stuff

It's do or die.

eth

do yourself a favour

do yourself a mischief

let sleeping dogs lie throw sb to the dogs do/make (all) the running DOING Nothing doing. it's all (that) sb can do to do the left hand doesn't know make do not do sb any favor: see not do sb any favours not do sb any favours When in Rome (do as the Romans do). DOCTOR a spin doctor An apple a day keeps the doctor away. be just what the doctor ordered DODO be as dead as a dodo DOG see also DOGS a dog and pony show DOGS call off the dogs fight like cats and dogs: see fight like cat and dog go to the dogs It's raining cats and dogs!

a dog in the manger a dog's breakfast/dinner a hot dog: see hot dog a shaggy dog story be as sick as a dog be done like a (dog's) dinner be like a dog with two tails dog eat dog dog-eat-dog: see dog eat dog dog-in-the-manger: see a dog in the manger dog-tired done up/dressed up like a dog's dinner Every dog has its day. fight like cat and dog go to see a man about a dog hot dog Hot dog! It's a dog's life. not have a dog's chance put on the dog the dog days the hair of the dog (that bit von) the tail wagging the dog the top dog There's life in the old dog yet. Why keep a dog and bark yourself? work like a dog/trojan You can't teach an old dog new tricks. DOGGO lie doggo DOGHOUSE be in the doghouse

what the right hand is doing

DOLDRUMS be in the doldrums out of the doldrums; see be in the doldrums DOLLAR be as sound as a dollar pay top dollar the pink dollar you can bet your life/your bottom dollar DOLLARS dollars-and-cents dollars to donuts/doughnuts

look/feel (like) a million dollars DOMINO

a domino effect DON'T be damned if you do and damned if you don't Don't count your chickens (before they're hatched). Don't give me that! Don't give up the day job! Don't take any wooden nickels.

I don't need this! DON'TS dos and don'ts

DONE a done deal be all done in be cooked/done to a turn be done in be done like a (dog's) dinner be done to death be over and done with: see get sth over and done with done up/dressed up like a dog's dinner easier said than done get sth over and done with No sooner said than done. the done thing when all is said and done

DONE-BY feel hard done-by DONKEY can talk the hind leg(s) off a donkey donkey work donkey's years DONUTS dollars to donuts/doughnuts DOOM a merchant of doom

a prophet of doom doom and gloom DOOR see also DOORS a revolving door be at death's door beat a path to sb's door by/through the back door close/shut the door on sth closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has holted get a leg in the door get a/your foot in the door give sb a foot in the door; see get a/your foot in the door keep the wolf from the door lay sth at sb's door never darken your door again

open the door to sth push at an open door show sb the door

DOORKNOB

be as deaf as a doorknob/doornail

DOORNAII

be as dead as a doornail be as deaf as a doorknob/doornail

DOORS

behind closed doors open (new) doors

DOORSTEP

on sb's doorstep

DOS

dos and don'ts DOSE

give sh a dose/taste of their own medicine go through sb/sth like a dose

DOSES

in small doses

DOT

dot the/your i's and cross the/your t's from/since the year dot on the dot DOTTED

sign on the dotted line

DOUBLE a double bind

a double whammy at the double

do a double take

do (double) duty as/for sth double-dip: see doubledipping double-dipping double Dutch double-speak; see double-talk double-talk on the double

DOUBT

beyond/without a shadow of a doubt give sb the benefit of the

doubt

DOUBTING

a doubting Thomas

DOUGHNUTS

dollars to donuts/doughnuts

a down and out

a down-and-outer

be down in the dumps be down in the mouth be down on your luck

be (down) on your uppers be (right) down sb's alley be up and down

deep down

down-and-dirty

down-and-out: see a down and out

down-at-heel

down-at-the-heel: see down-at-

heel

down-home down the drain

down the gurgler Down the hatch!

down the line

down the pan down the pike

down the road down the toilet

down the tube/tubes

down-to-earth down to the wire down tools Down Under

have sth down pat: see learn sth off pat kick sb when they're down learn sth down pat

DOWNER

have a downer on sb

DOWNHILL go downhill

DOWNS

ups and downs

DOZEN

a baker's dozen be a dime a dozen by the dozen nineteen/ten to the dozen six of one and half a dozen of the other

DRABS

in dribs and drabs

DRAG

drag sb's name through the mire/mud

drag your feet/heels drag/haul sb over the

coals

the main drag

DRAGGED

look like something the cat brought/dragged in Look what the cat's dragged in!

DRAGON

chase the dragon

DRAIN

a brain drain down the drain laugh like a drain DRAPE

drape/wrap yourself in the flag

DRAW

be quick on the draw be slow on the draw: see be quick on the draw draw a blank draw a line under sth draw a veil over sth draw blood draw (sb's) fire draw the line draw the line at sth draw the short straw draw/pull in your horns draw/take a bead on sb/sth

the luck of the draw DRAWER

from/out of the top drawer sb's bottom drawer

DRAWING

a drawing card back to the drawing board

DRAWN

be at daggers drawn the battle lines are drawn

DREAD

I dread/shudder to think

DREADED

the dreaded lurgy

DREAM

a dream ticket a pipe dream a wet dream

be/live in a dream world Dream on!

like a dream

wouldn't dream of doing sth DREAMS

beyond your wildest dreams In your dreams! not in my wildest dreams the man/woman/sth of your dreams

DRESSED

be all dressed up and/with nowhere to go

be dressed to kill be dressed up to the nines done up/dressed up like a dog's dinner First in, best dressed.

mutton dressed (up) as lamb

DRIBS

in dribs and drabs

DRIFT

catch sb's/the drift drift with the tide get sb's/the drift if you catch/get my drift: see get sb's/the drift

if you catch/get the drift: see get sb's/the drift

DRINK

be meat and drink to sb can't hold their drink/liquor drink like a fish drink sb under the table

drive sb to drink the demon drink

You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink).

DRIVE

drive a coach and horses through sth drive a hard bargain drive a wedge between sb drive sb to distraction drive sb to drink drive sb up the wall drive/hammer sth home drive/run/work yourself into the ground drive/send sb round the bend drive/send sb round the twist push/drive sb over the edge

DRIVEN

be as pure as the driven snow DRIVER

a backseat driver a designated driver be in the driver's seat

DRIVING

be in the driving seat DROP a drop in the bucket a drop in the ocean at the drop of a hat drop a bomb drop a bombshell drop a clanger

drop-dead Drop dead! drop everything drop sb a line drop sb/sth like a hot brick/potato drop the ball drop/fall into your lap drop/lower your guard fit/ready to drop wait for the other shoe to

You could have heard a pin drop.

DROPPING be dropping like flies

DROPS the bottom drops/falls out of the market the penny drops

DROWN

drown your sorrows DROWNED

look like a drowned rat

DRUGS smart drugs

DRUM

bang/beat the drum

DRUMMER

march to a different drummer DRUNK

as drunk as a lord/skunk

DRY

a dry run be as dry as a bone

be as dry as a bone be as interesting as watching paint dry

be bone dry be home and dry be like watching paint dry bleed sb dry keep your powder dry leave sb high and dry There wasn't a dry eye in the house.

DUCK see also DUCKS a dead duck

a lame duck a sitting duck be duck soup be (like) water off a duck's hack take to sth like a duck to water DUCKING ducking and diving

DUCKLING an ugly duckling

DUCKS get your ducks in a row

DUDGEON

in high dudgeon DUE

give sb their due give the devil his due in due course

DUES

pay your dues

DUFF

be up the duff

DULL

All work and no play (makes Jack a dull boy).

be as dull as

dishwater/ditchwater DUMMY

a dummy run

be down in the dumps DUST

bite the dust gather dust like gold dust not see sb for dust the dust settles

DUTCH

a Dutch treat double Dutch Dutch courage go Dutch

DUTY

be duty bound to do sth do (double) duty as/for sth in the line of duty

DYED

dyed-in-the-wool

EACH

each to his/her own live in each other's pockets take each day as it comes to each his/her own

EAGER

an eager beaver

EAGLE

an eagle eye: see watch sb/sth with an eagle eye eagle-eved: see watch sb/sth with an eagle eye watch sb/sth with an eagle eye watch sb/sth with eagle eyes

EAR see also EARS a tin ear be easy on the ear be out on your ear bend sb's ear can do sth on their ear go in one ear and out the other grin/smile from ear to ear have a word in sb's ear have an ear for sth have half an ear on sth have sb's ear keep an/your ear to the ground lend an ear listen with half an ear: see have half an ear on sth make a pig's ear of sth/doing sth play it by ear send sb away with a flea in their ear

turn a deaf ear You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

EARFUL

give sb an earful

EARLY

an early bath an early bird bright and early it's early days (yet) like turkeys voting for (an early) Christmas The early bird catches the worm.

earn your stripes earn/get brownie points earn/win your spurs

EARNED

A penny saved is a penny earned.

FARNER

a nice little earner

EARS about/around sb's ears he all ears be music to sb's ears be up to your ears/eyeballs/eyes in sth be wet behind the ears box sb's ears can't believe your ears cloth ears fall on deaf ears have big ears have nothing between the/your ears have sth coming out of your pin back your ears prick your ears up (sb's) ears are flapping Walls have ears. Were your ears burning?: see your ears must be burning your ears must be burning FARTH (a) hell on earth an earth mother be the salt of the earth bring sb (back) down to earth: see come (back) down to earth (with a bang/bump/jolt) come (back) down to earth (with a bang/bump/jolt) disappear/vanish off the face of the earth fall off the face of the earth go to earth go to the ends of the earth [hardly/scarcely etc.] earthshattering like nothing on earth move heaven and earth promise (sb) the earth run sb to earth the earth moved the four corners of the earth/world

the scum of the earth FASE be ill at ease EASIER easier said than done FASY an easy/smooth ride; see a bumpy/rough ride be an easy mark be an easy/soft touch be as easy as abc be as easy as falling off a log be as easy as pie be as easy as rolling off a log be easy meat be easy on the ear be easy on the eye easy come, easy go Easy does it!

easy money free and easy go easy go easy on sb It's easy to be smart after the It's easy to be wise after the event. make easy meat of sth/sb: see be easy meat take it easy Take it easy! EAT dog eat dog eat crow eat humble pie eat like a bird eat like a horse eat like a pig eat sb alive eat sb for breakfast eat sb out of house and home have to eat your words have your cake and eat it (too) I could eat a horse. I'll eat my hat make sb eat their words; see have to eat your words sb, eat your heart out! EATING have sb eating out of the palm of your hand The proof of the pudding (is in the eating). what's eating sb? a low ebb the ebb and flow cheer sb to the echo ECLIPSE

be in eclipse ECONOMICAL

be economical with the truth ECONOMY a false economy

EDGE

at/on the cutting edge

be on edge be on the ragged edge have the edge on/over sb/sth keep sb on the edge of their chair

keep sb on the edge of their seat live on the edge lose your edge push/drive sb over the edge put sb on edge: see be on edge take the edge off sth

EDGES

fray around/at the edges rough edges EDGEWAYS

get a word in edgeways

EDGEWISE

get a word in edgewise EDUCATED

an educated guess EEL

be as slippery as an eel

EFFECT a domino effect

a ripple effect a snowball effect

the bandwagon effect; see

get/jump/leap on the bandwagon

EFFING effing and blinding

EGG a bad egg

a chicken and egg situation

a curate's egg a good egg a nest egg can't boil an egg have egg on your face kill the goose that lays the golden egg lay an egg

EGGS as sure as eggs (are/is eggs)

put all your eggs in one basket teach your grandmother to suck eggs

You can't make an omelette without breaking eggs.

EGGSHELLS be walking/treading on

eggshells EGO

an ego trip EIGHT

be behind the eight ball

ELBOW at sb's elbow

can't tell your arse from your elbow

elbow grease elbow room

give sb the elbow More power to your elbow!

not know your arse from your elhow

ELBOWS rub elbows with sb

ELDERS

your elders and betters

ELEMENT be in your element

be out of your element

ELEPHANT a white elephant

have a memory like an elephant ELEVATOR elevator music ELEVENTH at the eleventh hour eleventh-hour: see at the eleventh hour

ELSE

if all else fails

EMBARRASSMENT

an embarrassment of riches EMOTIONAL

be tired and emotional

EMPTY

be running on empty empty nest syndrome Empty vessels make (the) most noise/sound.

ENCHILADA

the whole enchilada END see also ENDS

a dead end a means to an end

an end in itself at the end of the day be at a loose end be at the end of your rope be at the end of your tether be at your wits' end be at/on the receiving end be on the wrong end of sth be the end of the line/road be the living end can't see beyond/past the end of your nose come to a sticky end [days/months/weeks etc.] on end end it all End of story.

get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick get the short end of the stick get/have your end away go off the deep end hold/keep your end up

It'll (all) end in tears. jump in at the deep end: see throw sb in at the deep end light at the end of the tunnel make sb's hair stand on end

meet a sticky end no end

no end of sth: see no end not be the end of the world quote, end quote reach the end of the line/road: see be the end of the line/road reach the end of your rope: see be at the end of your tether reach the end of your tether: see be at the end of your tether the beginning of the end the business end

The end justifies the means. the sharp end the tail end of sth

the thin end of the wedge throw sb in at the deep end to the bitter end You'll never hear the end of it.

END-ALL the be-all and end-all

ENDS

be at loose ends burn the candle at both ends go to the ends of the earth loose ends make (both) ends meet odds and ends play both ends against the middle

ENEMIES

With friends like that, who needs enemies?

ENEMY

be your own worst enemy I/You wouldn't wish sth on my/your worst enemy. public enemy number one

ENGLAND

Close your eyes and think of England.

ENGLISHMAN

An Englishman's home is his castle

ENOUGH

be man enough to do sth Enough is as good as a feast. enough is enough Enough said.

fair enough give sb enough rope (to hang themselves)

have a lot/enough on your

plate ENTER

enter/get into the spirit of sth enter/join the fray

ENVY

be green with envy EQUAL

(all) other things being equal all things being equal

EQUALS

be first among equals

err on the side of caution To err is human, (to forgive, divine).

ERRAND

a fool's errand

FRROR

see the error of your ways

ESCAPE a narrow escape

ESPRIT

esprit de corps ESSENCE

be of the essence

ESTIMATE

a ballpark estimate/figure

EVEN

break even Don't get mad, get even.

even steven even stevens get an even break get even give sb an even break: see get an even break

EVENT

It's easy to be wise after the event.

the happy event EVERY

on an even keel

at every turn

Every cloud has a silver lining.

Every dog has its day. every last man (of us/them) every man jack (of us/them) every nook and cranny every now and again/then every other every so often every time sb turns around/round every trick in the book every which way

It's every man for himself.

EVERYONE

be on everyone's lips everyone and his brother Everyone has their cross to bear.: see a cross (sb has) to bear

EVERYTHING

drop everything everything but the kitchen sink

Everything in the garden is rosy.

Everything's coming up roses.

That beats everything!

EVIDENCE

turn king's/queen's evidence turn state's evidence

EVIL

a lesser evil a necessary evil give sb the evil eye

EVILS

the lesser of two evils EXAMINED

need your head

examined/examining

EXAMINING

need your head examined/examining

EXCELLENCE sb/sth par excellence

EXCEPTED present company excepted

EXCEPTION

be the exception that proves the rule

EXCLUDED

present company excluded EXHIBITION

make an exhibition of vourself

EXPEDITION

a fishing expedition

EXPENSE

and hang the cost/expense no expense is spared no expense spared: see no expense is spared

EXPERIENCE

chalk sth up to experience put sth down to experience

EXPLODE

blow up/explode in sb's face EXTOLL

extoll the virtues of sb/sth

EXTRA

go the extra mile EXTRACURRICULAR extracurricular activity

EYE see also EYES

a bird's eye view a red eye

a roving eve

a worm's eye view an eagle eye: see watch sb/sth with an eagle eye

An eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth).

be easy on the eye be in the eye of the storm be in the public eye be one in the eve for sb Beauty is in the eye of the

cast/run your/an eye over sth

catch sb's eye cut your eye teeth eye-catching: see catch sb's eye eye/mind candy get your eye in give sb the evil eye

give sb the glad eye give your eye teeth for sth give your eye teeth to do sth have an eye for sth

have an eye for/on the main chance

have your beady eye on sth/sb have your eye on sth have/keep half an eye on sth/sb have/keep one eye on sth/sb Here's mud in your eye!

in a pig's eye in the blink of an eye in the twinkling of an eye in your mind's eye keep a weather eye on sth/sb keep an eye out for sb/sth keep your eye in: see get your eve in keep your eye on the ball keep your/an eye on sth/sb look sb in the eye/eyes not bat an eye/eyelash/eyelid red eve see eye to eye take your eye off the ball: see keep your eve on the ball the apple of sb's eve There is more to sth/sb than meets the eve. There wasn't a dry eye in the house

turn a blind eve

watch sb/sth with an eagle eve when sb was a (mere) twinkle in their father's eye with an eye to sth with half an eye on sth/sb: see

have/keep half an eye on sth/sb

with one eye on sth/sb: see have/keep one eye on sth/sb

EYEBALL

eyeball to eyeball eyeball-to-eyeball: see eyeball

to eveball EYEBALLS

be up to your ears/eyeballs/eyes in sth

EYEBROWS

raise (a few) eyebrows raised eyebrows: see raise (a few) eyebrows

EYEFUL

get an eyeful EYELASH

not bat an eye/eyelash/eyelid

not bat an eve/evelash/evelid

all eyes are on sb/sth

be a sight for sore eyes be all eyes be up to your ears/eyeballs/eyes in sth bedroom eyes can't take/keep your eyes off

sb/sth clap eyes on sb/sth

Close your eyes and think of England. close/shut your eyes to sth couldn't believe your eyes cry your eyes out dollar signs in sb's eyes: see dollar signs in sb's eyes feast your eyes on sth have eyes in the back of your head have eyes like a hawk hit sb (right) between the eyes

in sb's eyes

keep your eyes peeled/skinned lay/set eyes on sb/sth look sb in the eye/eyes make eves at sb make sheep's eyes at sb only have eyes for sb open sb's eyes to sth open your eyes to sth: see close/shut your eyes to sth pull the wool over sb's eyes sb could do sth with their eyes closed/shut sb's eyes are bigger than their belly/stomach sb's eyes are out on stalks sb's eves are popping out of their head stars in your eyes The scales fall from sb's eyes. watch sb/sth with eagle eyes with your eyes open

FA

sweet FA

FACE see also FACES a face as long as a wet week

a long face a slap in the face arse about face be as plain as the nose on your face be in your face be laughing on the other side of your face be staring sb in the face

be written all over sb's face blow up/explode in sb's face bring sb face to face with sth: see come face to face with

come face to face with sb come face to face with sth cut off your nose to spite your disappear/vanish off the face of the earth face-saving: see save face face the music

face to face

face-to-face: see face to face fall flat on your/its face fall off the face of the earth fly in the face of sth

Get out of my face! have a face like thunder have egg on your face in-your-face: see be in your face keep a straight face laugh in sb's face look sb in the face lose face make/pull a face not be just a pretty face on the face of it

put a brave face/front on sth

put on a brave face/front: see put a brave face/front on sth save face sb's face doesn't fit sb's face is a picture set your face against sth/doing sth show your face Shut your face/gob/mouth/trap! stuff your face take sth at face value throw sth back in sb's face to sh's face until you are blue in the face what's his/her face wipe the smile off sb's face with a face like thunder: see straight face in the face FACE-SAVING make (funny) faces FACT see also FACTS a fact of life fact. FACTORY farming farming farming factory farming on the factory floor factory floor FACTS the facts of life FAG a fag hag FAG-END the fag-end of sth FΔII without fail Words fail me! FAILS if all else fails FAINT FAINT-HEARTED have a face like thunder with a straight face: see keep a wouldn't know sth if it hit you face-saving: see save face It's easy to be smart after the a factory farm: see factory factory farm: see factory factory-farmed: see factory the factory floor: see on the fade/pale into insignificance damn sb/sth with faint praise not be for the faint-hearted FAINTEST not have the faintest (idea) FAIR a fair-haired boy a fair shake a fair-weather friend

All's fair in love and war. be fair game by fair means or foul fair and square fair dinkum Fair dos fair enough fair play fair to middling Fair's fair. get/have a fair crack of the whip: see give sb a fair crack of the whip give sb a fair crack of the whip have had more than your fair share of sth It's a fair cop. the fair/fairer sex Turnabout is fair play. with your own fair hands FAIRER I/You can't say fairer than the fair/fairer sex FAIRY a fairy godmother FAITH an article of faith break faith with sth/sb in bad faith: see in good faith in good faith keep faith with sth/sb FALL see also FALLEN, FALLING, FALLS, FELL a fall from grace: see fall from a fall guy be headed for a fall be heading/riding for a fall drop/fall into your lap fall all over yourself to do sth fall asleep at the switch: see be asleep at the switch fall between two stools fall by the wayside fall down on the job fall flat fall flat on your/its face fall for sb hook, line and sinker fall for sth hook, line and sinker fall foul of sh fall foul of sth fall from grace fall head over heels (in love): see be head over heels (in fall in a heap fall in/into line fall into place fall into sb's clutches fall into sb's hands fall into the trap of doing sth fall into the wrong hands fall off the face of the earth fall off the wagon fall off your perch fall on deaf ears fall on hard times fall on stony ground fall on your feet fall over backwards to do sth fall over yourself to do sth fall short of sth fall/go through the floor fall/slip through the cracks go down/fall like ninepins go/fall to pieces let the chips fall where they nearly fall off your chair Pride comes before a fall. Pride goes before a fall. stand or fall by sth take the fall for sb/sth The bigger they are, the harder they fall. The scales fall from sb's eyes. FALLEN a fallen angel a fallen idol a fallen woman FALLING be as easy as falling off a log be coming/falling apart at the FALLS the bottom drops/falls out of the market the curtain falls on sth the roof caves/falls in EAL SE a false alarm a false dawn a false economy a false start give sb a false sense of security lull sb into a false sense of security sail under false colors sail under false colours under false pretences FAME sb's claim to fame FAMILIAR have a familiar ring (to it) FAMILIARITY Familiarity breeds contempt. FAMILY a family man in the family way run in the family the black sheep (of the family) FAMINE feast or famine FAMOUS Famous last words.

FAN

fan the flames the shit hits the fan

FANCY

a flight of

fancy/fantasy/imagination fancy-pants

take/tickle sb's fancy FANCY-FREE

be footloose and fancy-free

fannies in the seats

FANNIES FANNY

sweet Fanny Adams FANTASTIC

trip the light fantastic

FANTASY

a flight of

fancy/fantasy/imagination

FAR

be a far cry from sth be far and away the [best/greatest/worst etc.] be few and far between far be it from me to do sth Far from it. I wouldn't trust sb as far as I could throw them. So far so good.

FARM

a factory farm: see factory farming a funny farm bet the farm/ranch factory farm: see factory farming

so near and yet so far

FARMING

factory farming

FART

as pissed as a fart

FASHION

a fashion victim after a fashion like it's going out of fashion

FAST

a fast talker a fast track fast and furious fast-track: see a fast track life in the fast lane make a fast/quick buck no hard and fast rules play fast and loose with sth/sb pull a fast one

FAT

a fat cat a fat lot of good/use chew the fat fat-cat: see a fat cat Fat chance! It's not over until the fat lady sings.

live off the fat of the land puppy fat

the fat is in the fire

EATE

be a fate worse than death seal sb's fate

tempt fate/providence

FATHER

a bit of how's your father when sb was a (mere) twinkle in their father's eve

FATTED

kill the fatted calf

FAULT

to a fault FAVOR see also FAVOUR,

FAVOURS

not do sb any favor: see not do sb any favours

FAVOUR

curry favour Do me a favour! do me/us a favour do vourself a favour

FAVOURITE a favourite son

FAVOURS

not do sb any favours

Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread). No fear!

put the fear of God into sb

FEAST

a movable feast Enough is as good as a feast. feast or famine feast your eyes on sth the ghost/spectre at the feast

FEATHER

a feather in sb's cap be as light as a feather birds of a feather; see Birds of a feather flock together. Birds of a feather flock together.

feather your own nest You could have knocked me down/over with a feather!

FEATHERS

ruffle sb's feathers smooth (sb's) ruffled feathers the feathers fly

FEDERAL

make a federal case (out) of sth

a mouth to feed chicken feed feed sb a line feed/throw sb to the lions FEEDING

a feeding frenzy It's feeding time at the zoo!

bite the hand that feeds you FEEL see also FEELING, FELT be/feel honor-bound to do sth: see be/feel honour-bound to be/feel honour-bound to do

be/feel light-headed be/feel under the weather

cop a feel feel free

feel hard done-by feel sick to your stomach

feel the pinch

feel/go hot and cold (all over) I (can) feel it in my bones. look/feel (like) a million

bucks

look/feel (like) a million dollars

make sb feel small

put out feelers

FEELING

a gut feeling a sinking feeling that Monday morning feeling

FEELINGS

hard feelings have mixed feelings about with mixed feelings: see have mixed feelings about sth

FEET

be carried out feet first be dead on your feet be run/rushed off your feet he six feet under be under your feet cut the ground from under sb/sb's feet drag your feet/heels fall on your feet feet of clay find your feet get itchy feet: see have itchy feet get under sb's feet: see be

get cold feet

under your feet get your feet under the table

get your feet wet have itchy feet have the world at your feet

have your/both feet on the ground: see keep your/both feet on the ground in (your) stocking/stockinged

feet

jump in feet first jump in with both feet keep your/both feet on the ground

land on your feet

not let the grass grow under your feet pull the rug from under sb's put your feet up stand on your own two feet sweep sb off their feet the patter of tiny feet think on your feet vote with your feet

FELL

at/in one fell swoop wouldn't know sth if you fell over one

make your presence felt

FENCE

sit on the fence The grass is always greener (on the other side of the fence). FENCES

mend (vour) fences

FENDER

a fender bender

FETTI E

be in fine fettle FEVER

fever pitch FEW

be few and far between catch a few rays hoist a few the chosen few

FIDDLE

be as fit as a fiddle be on the fiddle fiddle while Rome burns play second fiddle

FIELD

a level playing field be out in left field have a field day lead the field leave the field clear for sb play the field

FIFTH

a fifth/third wheel I take/plead the Fifth (Amendment) FIFTY-FIFTY

a fifty-fifty chance fifty-fifty

FIG

a fig leaf not be worth a fig not care/give a fig

FIGHT

a fight for life: see be fighting for your life an uphill battle/fight/struggle be spoiling for a fight fight a losing battle

fight a rearguard action

fight fire with fire fight like cat and dog fight like cats and dogs: see fight like cat and dog fight shy of sth/doing sth fight tooth and claw/nail fight your corner live to fight another day

FIGHTING

a fighting chance be fighting fit be fighting for your life be fighting mad be in fighting trim come out fighting

FIGMENT

be a figment of your/the imagination

FIGURE

a ballpark estimate/figure a figure of fun be a fine figure of a man/woman cut a fine figure cut an [interesting/ridiculous/ unusual etc.l figure

FILE

the rank and file

FILL fill a/the void

fill sb's shoes fill the bill

have had your fill have had your fill of sth

FILLING

backing and filling FILTHY

filthy/stinking rich FINAL

have the final/last word in the final analysis the final curtain the final nail in the coffin

the final/last straw

FIND see also FINDS find out/see how the land lies find your feet find your tongue

find yourself on the wrong side of the law

FINDERS

Finders keepers (losers weepers).

FINDS

The devil finds work for idle hands

a fine/pretty kettle of fish a fine/thin line be a fine figure of a man/woman be in fine fettle Chance would be a fine thing! cut a fine figure

cut it/things fine

have sth down to a fine art have sth off to a fine art not to put too fine a point on it the fine/small print tread a fine/thin line between sth: see a fine/thin line with a fine-tooth comb You're a fine one to talk!

FINGER see also FINGERS get/pull your finger out give sb the finger have a finger in every pie have a finger in the pie: see have a finger in every pie have a/your finger on the hutton have your finger on the pulse keep your finger on the pulse: see have your finger on the lay a finger on sb/sth not lift a finger point the finger at sb put the finger on sb put your finger on sth twist/wrap sb around/round vour little finger

FINGERNAILS

cling on/hang on by your fingernails

FINGERS

be all fingers and thumbs burn your fingers can count sth on the fingers of one hand catch sh with their fingers/hand in the till: see have your fingers/hand in the till

cross your fingers fingers crossed: see cross your fingers have green fingers have sticky fingers

have your fingers/hand in the have/get your fingers burned/burnt keep your fingers crossed put/stick two fingers up at sb/sth slip through your fingers wear/work your fingers to the

FINGERTIPS

at your fingertips be an [artist/patriot/professional etc.] to your fingertips cling on/hang on by your

fingertips

FINK a rat fink

FIRE see also FIRING a baptism by/of fire

FLAG

FLAGS

FLAK

FLAME

FLAPPING

FLASH

fall flat

flat out

FLATTERY

FLAUNT

add fuel to the fire/flames be no ball of fire breathe fire come under fire draw (sb's) fire fight fire with fire fire a shot across sb's/the fire in your/the belly fire/shoot blanks get on like a house on fire go through fire and water hang/hold fire have [a few/a lot etc.] irons in the fire in the line of fire iump out of the frying pan (and) into the fire light a fire under sb light your fire play with fire the fat is in the fire There's no smoke without fire. Where there's smoke, there's fire. FIRES keep the home fires burning be firing on all cylinders be in the firing line be on the firing line out of the firing line: see be in the firing line FIRM a firm/steady hand on the tiller FIRST at first blush at first glance/sight be carried out feet first be first among equals be first past the post be first/quickest off the mark: see be quick off the mark be in the first flush of sth first and foremost first-come, first-served: see First come, first served. First come, first served. first hand first-hand: see first hand First in, best dressed. first-past-the-post: see be first past the post first-string: see the first string First things first. get to first base give sb (the right of/to) first refusal have first call on sth have (the right of/to) first refusal: see give sb (the right of/to) first refusal If at first you don't succeed. (try, try, and try again).

in the first place jump in feet first not know the first thing about the first string FISH a big fish a big fish in a small pond a cold fish a fine/pretty kettle of fish a queer fish be another/a different kettle of fish be like a fish out of water be neither fish nor fowl drink like a fish fish for compliments Fish or cut bait. have bigger/other fish to fry FISHING a fishing expedition FISHY smell fishy FIST an iron fist/hand in a velvet glove hand over fist make a bad/poor fist of sth/doing sth: see make a good fist of sth/doing sth make a good fist of sth/doing rule (sb) with an iron fist/hand be as fit as a fiddle be as fit as a flea be fighting fit be fit to be tied fit (sb) like a glove fit the bill fit/ready to drop fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp have a conniption fit have/throw a fit sb's face doesn't fit FITS

If the cap fits (wear it).

If the hat/shoe fits (wear it).

in fits and starts FIVE

Give me a high five!: see Give me five! Give me five! put two and two together and get/make five: see put two and two together Take five!

FIX a quick fix be in a fix If it ain't broke, don't fix drape/wrap yourself in the fly/show/wave the flag FLAGPOLE run sth up the flagpole Put the flags out! get/take (the) flak an old flame like moths to a flame add fuel to the fire/flames fan the flames go up in flames shoot sth/sb down in flames (sb's) ears are flapping a flash in the pan as quick as a flash/wink be as flat as a pancake be flat broke fall flat on your/its face Flattery will get you nowhere. If you've got it, flaunt it!

FLAVOR the flavor of the month: see the flavour of the month FLAVOUR the flavour of the month

be as fit as a flea send sb away with a flea in their ear FLESH

be a thorn in sb's flesh/side be sb's (own) flesh and blood flesh and blood make sb's flesh crawl/creep meet/see sb in the flesh press the flesh put flesh on (the bones of) sth your pound of flesh

FLEX flex your muscles

FLIES as the crow flies be dropping like flies How time flies! the fur flies There are no flies on sb. Time flies when you're having fun. Time flies.

FLIGHT a flight of fancy/fantasy/imagination

the top flight FLIP a flip-flop flip-flop: see a flip-flop flip your lid flip/give sb the bird FLIT do a moonlight flit FLOATING be floating/walking on air FLOCK Birds of a feather flock together. FLOG flog a dead horse flog sth to death FLOODGATES open the floodgates FLOOR fall/go through the floor floor it get in on the ground floor mop the floor with sb on the factory floor put your foot to the floor wipe the floor with sb FLOTSAM flotsam and jetsam FLOW be in full flow/spate go against the flow: see go with the flow go with the flow the ebb and flow FLOWN The bird has flown. FILIFF a bit of fluff/skirt FLUSH be in the first flush of sth FLY see also FLIES, FLYING a fly in the ointment a fly on the wall fly blind fly-by-night fly by the seat of your pants fly in the face of sth fly off the handle fly-on-the-wall: see a fly on the wall fly the coop fly/leave the nest fly/show/wave the flag Go fly a kite! It'll never fly. let fly (sth) make the fur fly: see the fur flies on the fly Pigs can fly. Pigs might fly. [run around/rush around etc.] like a blue-arsed fly

sparks fly

506 the feathers fly wouldn't harm/hurt a fly FLYING be flying high come through/pass with flying colors come through/pass with flying colours get off to a flying start set the fur flying: see the fur flies FOAMING foaming at the mouth FODDER cannon fodder FOGGIEST not have the foggiest (idea/notion) FOLKS (It's) different strokes for different folks. FOLLOW be a hard/tough act to follow follow in sb's footsteps follow suit follow your nose FOLLOWER a camp follower FONDER Absence makes the heart grow fonder. FOOD give sb food for thought FOOL parted. a fool's errand act/play the fool

A fool and his money are soon be no/nobody's fool live in a fool's paradise make a fool of yourself More fool you! play sb for a fool The more fool you!

FOOLED You could've fooled me. FOOLS

Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread). not suffer fools gladly FOOT see also FEET can't put a foot wrong: see not put a foot wrong foot the bill get a/your foot in the door get off/start off on the right foot: see get off/start off on the wrong foot get off/start off on the wrong foot give sb a foot in the door: see get a/your foot in the door have a heavy foot have one foot in the grave have/keep a foot in both camps My foot! not put a foot wrong put your best foot forward put your foot down put your foot in it put your foot in your mouth put your foot to the floor shoot yourself in the foot the boot is on the other foot the shoe is on the other foot wait on sb hand and foot

FOOTBALL a political football FOOTLOOSE be footloose and fancy-free FOOTSIE play footsie play footsie with sb

FOOTSTEPS follow in sb's footsteps A penny for them. A penny for your thoughts. be for the best be for the chop: see get the be sb's for the asking be (strictly) for the birds be there for the taking be yours for the taking can't do sth for nuts can't for the life of me for a kick-off for a song for good for good and all for keeps for kicks for my money for my sins for the record forbidden fruit FORCE be a force to be reckoned with be out in force force of habit force sb's hand in full force FOREARMED Forewarned is forearmed.

FORBIDDEN

FOREGONE a foregone conclusion

FORELOCK-TUGGING forelock-tugging FOREMOST

first and foremost FOREST can't see the forest for the trees FOREWARNED Forewarned is forearmed.

FORGIVE To err is human, (to forgive, divine).

FORKED

speak with (a) forked

tongue

FORM

in any shape or form (in) any way, shape, or form Sarcasm is the lowest form of

true to form/type

FORMER

a shadow of your former self

hold down the fort hold the fort

FORTH

back and forth

be like painting the Forth

Bridge

FORTUNE

a hostage to fortune

a small fortune

a soldier of fortune

give a hostage to fortune: see a hostage to fortune give hostages to fortune: see a hostage to fortune

the slings and arrows (of outrageous fortune)

FORTY

forty winks

FORWARD

not be backward in coming forward

One step forward, two steps

put your best foot forward

FORWARDS

know sth backwards and

forwards

FOUL

by fair means or foul fall foul of sb fall foul of sth

foul-mouthed

foul play FOUNDATIONS

rock/shake sth to its

foundations

rock/shake the foundations of sth

FOUR

a four-letter word

be scattered to the four winds the four corners of the earth/world

FOWL

be neither fish nor fowl

FRAME

a frame of mind

be in the frame

FRANKENSTEIN

a Frankenstein's monster FRAY

enter/join the fray fray around/at the edges tempers fray

FRAYED

frayed tempers: see tempers

tempers become frayed

FRAZZLE

wear sb to a frazzle

FREE

a free agent

a free-for-all

a free ride

a free spirit allow/give sb (a) free rein

allow/give sth (a) free rein

as free as a bird be home free

feel free

free and easy

give sb a free hand

have a free hand: see give sb a free hand

It's a free country! make free with sth

There's no such thing as a free lunch. FREEZE

be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey: see brass monkey weather

FREEZES

until hell freezes over when hell freezes over: see until hell freezes over

FRENCH

a French letter

French leave

Pardon my French! FRENZY

a feeding frenzy

FRESH

a breath of fresh air be as fresh as a daisy

be fresh from swh

be fresh out of sth

be fresh out of swh

get fresh

get fresh with sb

FRIDAY

a girl/man/person Friday

FRIEND

a fair-weather friend

A friend in need (is a friend indeed).

man's best friend

FRIENDS

have friends in high places

With friends like that, who needs enemies?

FRIGHTEN

frighten/scare sb out of their wits

frighten/scare sb to death frighten/scare the hell out of

sb

frighten/scare the life out of

frighten/scare the (living) daylights out of sb

FRIGHTENERS

put the frighteners on sb

FRITZ

be on the fritz

FROG

have a frog in your throat FROING

toing and froing

FROM

(from) coast to coast from on high

from one moment to the next

from scratch

from time to time

from/since time immemorial the [child/house/mother etc.] from hell

FRONT

he in the front line

front-office: see the front office

put a brave face/front on sth put on a brave face/front: see put a brave face/front on sth

put on/up a front the front office

up front

FROSTING

the frosting on the cake FROZEN

be chilled/frozen to the

marrow

FRUIT

bear fruit

forbidden fruit

the fruit of your loins

FRUITCAKE be as nutty as a fruitcake

FRUITS

the bitter fruits

have bigger/other fish to fry

small fry

FRYING

jump out of the frying pan

(and) into the fire

FLICK

fuck like bunnies

FUDDY-DUDDY

a fuddy-duddy fuddy-duddy: see a fuddy-

duddy

FUEL

add fuel to the fire/flames

a full-court press

allow/give sth full play (at) full pelt/steam/tilt at full stretch

(at) full throttle

be as full as a boot/tick

be full of beans be full of bull be full of crap/shit be full of holes be full of piss and vinegar be full of the joys of spring be full of yourself be in full cry be in full flow/spate be in full swing be on full/red alert be one card/several cards short of a full deck be put on full/red alert: see be on full/red alert bring sb full circle: see come/go/turn full circle come into full play: see allow/give sth full play come to a full stop come/go/turn full circle full steam ahead go the (full) distance have your hands full have your plate full in full force not be the full quid the full monty The wheel has come/turned full circle.: see come/go/turn full circle FULLNESS in the fullness of time be a fully paid-up member of sth FUN a figure of fun be more fun than a barrel of monkeys have fun and games It was fun while it lasted. make fun of sb/sth not be all fun and games poke fun at sb/sth

Time flies when you're having

FUND

a rainy day fund: see save (sth) for a rainy day

FUNERAL

it's your funeral

FUNK

be in a (blue) funk

FUNNY

a funny farm be as funny as a barrel of monkeys funny business

funny money make (funny) faces make the fur fly: see the fur flies set the fur flying: see the fur flies

the fur flies

FURIOUS

fast and furious

FURNITURE

be part of the furniture

FURROW

plough a lone/lonely

furrow

FURTHER

without further/more

ado

Hell hath no fury (like a woman scorned).

FUSE

a short fuse blow a fuse/gasket

FUSS kick up a fuss/row/stink

GAB

the gift of gab the gift of the gab

GAFF

blow the gaff

GAIN

gain ground

gain/get the upper hand: see have the upper hand

what you lose on the swings, you gain on the roundabouts

GAINED

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

GALLERY

play to the gallery GALLOWS

gallows humor

gallows humour GAMBLER

an amber gambler GAME see also GAMES

a cat and mouse game: see play

cat and mouse a game plan

a mug's game

a numbers game

a shell game

a totally different ball game

a whole new ball game

a zero-sum game be ahead of the game

be fair game

be new to the game

be on the game

beat sb at their own game; see play sb at their own game give the game away go on the game: see be on the play a/the waiting game play sb at their own game play the game raise your game stay ahead of the game: see be ahead of the game

The game's up!

the name of the game two can play at that game

GAMEKEEPER

What's sb's game? a poacher turned gamekeeper

GAMES

have fun and games not be all fun and games

play games GANDER

What's good for the goose (is good for the gander).

What's sauce for the goose (is sauce for the gander).

GANGBUSTERS

come on like gangbusters like gangbusters

GAP

a credibility gap a generation gap

GARBAGE

Garbage in, garbage out.

GARDEN Everything in the garden is rosy. lead sb down the garden path lead sb up the garden path

GARDEN-VARIETY garden-variety

GARTERS

have your guts for garters

GAS

a gas guzzler be cooking on gas be cooking with gas run out of gas Step on the gas!

GASKET

blow a fuse/gasket

GASP

the last gasp of sth

GATE see also GATES like a bull at a gate

GATEPOST

between you, me and the bedpost/gatepost

GATES

the pearly gates GATHER gather dust

gather your wits

GAUNTLET

pick/take up the gauntlet: see throw down the gauntlet run the gauntlet throw down the gauntlet

gaze at/contemplate your navel

GEAR

get in/into gear get your arse in gear get your brain in gear move/step up a gear

GENERATION

a generation gap

GENIE

let the genie out of the bottle put the genie back in the bottle: see let the genie out of the bottle

GENTLE

a gentle giant be as gentle as a lamb

GET see also GETS, GOT be as [fast/hot/thin etc.] as all get out be [faster/hotter/thinner etc.] than all get out: see be as [fast/hot/thin etc.] as all get out

build/get/work up a head of steam

catch/cop/get some z's catch/get hell climb/get on your high horse climb/get/hop into bed with sb: see be in bed with sb come/get (down) off your high horse: see climb/get on your high horse come/get to grips with sth dig/get sb out of a hole: see be in a hole

Don't get mad, get even.
Don't get me wrong.
earn/get brownie points
enter/get into the spirit of sth gain/get the upper hand: see
have the upper hand

get a bit much: see be a bit much get a bloody nose: see give sb a bloody nose get a buzz from sth/doing sth:

see give sb a buzz get a crack at sth: see have/take a crack at sth get a grip (on yourself) get a handle on sth get a kick out of sth/doing sth get a leg in the door

get a leg up: see give sb a leg up

Get a life! get a line on sb/sth

Get a load of that! get a look in get a move on get a raw deal get a rise out of sb get a rocket: see give sb a rocket get a word in edgeways get a word in edgewise get a/the jump on sb/sth get a/your foot in the door get a/your second breath get an even break get an eyeful get away with murder Get away with you!

get a/your second wind

Get away with you! get away/off scot-free get behind the wheel: see be at/behind the wheel get bent out of shape get bent out of shape get blood out of a stone get cold feet Get cracking!

get down to brass tacks get even get fresh get fresh with sb get grief: see give sb grief get her claws into sb get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick get in on the act get in on the ground floor get in sb's hair get in touch: see be in touch get in/into a rut: see be (stuck) in a rut get in/into gear get into deep water: see be in deep water get into the swing of it/things get into your stride get it in the neck get it off your chest get it out of your system get it together

get itchy feet: see have itchy feet

Get knotted! Get lost! get lucky get no change out of sb get off sb's back: see get sb off your back get off sb's case: see get on sb's case get off the mark get off to a flying start get off your arse get off your backside get off your tail get off/start off on the r get off/start off on the right foot: see get off/start off on the wrong foot get off/start off on the wrong

foot

get on like a house on fire get on sh's case get on sh's tits get on sh's wick get on the stick get on the wrong side of the get on top of you get on your goat get on your goat get on your soapbox get out of bed on the wrong side

get out of hand
Get out of my face!
Get real!
get religion
get rolling

get sb into bed: see go to bed with sb

get (sb) into hot water: see be in hot water

get sb off your back get sb's ass get sb's/the drift get short shrift from sb: see give short shift from sb. see give shot short shrift get shot of sb/sth get (sth) off the ground get sth over and done with get sth over with get sth rolling: see get rolling

Get stuffed! get the axe get the better of sb get the boot: see give sb the boot get the chop get the green light: see give sb/sth the green light get the hang of sth

get the hell out
get the hell out
get the hump
get the jitters
get the message

get the munchies get the nod: see give sb the nod get the picture get the push: see give sb the push

get the runaround: see give sb the runaround get the sack get the shaft get the short end of the stick get the short end of the strek get the thumbs down: see give sth the thumbs down get the thumbs down get the thumbs up: see give sth the thumbs up get to first base get to the bottom of sth get under sb's feet: see be under your feet get under sb's skin

get-up-and-go get up on the wrong side of the hed get up sb's nose get wind of sth get with the program get your act together get your arse in gear get your brain in gear get your brain in gear get your claws into sb get your comeuppance

get your ducks in a row

get vour eve in get your feet under the table get your feet wet get your goat get your hands dirty get your hands on sb get your head around sth get your head down get your hooks into sth/sb get your just deserts get your knickers in a knot get your knickers in a twist get your leg over get your lines/wires crossed get your marching orders: see give sb their marching orders get your mind around sth get your oats get your own back get your own way get your rocks off get your shit together Get your skates on! get vour tongue around/round sth get your walking papers: see give sb their walking papers get (yourself) in/into a lather: see be in a lather get/go beyond a joke get/go from A to B get/go into a huddle get/grate on sb's nerves get/have a fair crack of the whip: see give sb a fair crack of the whip get/have carte blanche: see give sb carte blanche get/have your day in court get/have your end away get/jump/leap on the bandwagon get/lay your hands on sth get/let sb off the hook get/pull your finger out get/put a quart into a pint pot get/put one over on sb get/put sb's back up get/put the wind up sb get/put your head down get/put your own house in order get/sink your teeth into sth get/take [a lot of/some etc.] stick get/take the bit between your teeth get/take (the) flak get/take the measure of sb/sth: see have the measure of sb/sth give as good as you get have/get your fingers burned/burnt

I'll get a rain check If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen. if you catch/get my drift: see get sb's/the drift if you catch/get the drift: see get sb's/the drift If you pay peanuts, you get monkeys. Let's get the/this show on the road. Nice work if you can get it! Piss or get off the can/pot! play hard to get put/get sb/sth back on track: see on track Shit or get off the can/pot! tell sb where to get off GFTS if sb/sth catches a cold, sb/sth gets pneumonia if the going gets rough/tough: see when the going gets rough/tough when the going gets rough/tough GHOST give up the ghost lay the ghost of sth/sb (to rest) not a ghost of a chance the ghost/spectre at the feast GIANT a gentle giant GIFT not look a gift horse in the mouth the gift of gab the gift of the gab think you are God's gift to women GILD gild the lily GILLS be green about/around the gills GINGER a ginger group GIRD gird (up) your loins a big girl's blouse a call girl a girl/man/person Friday a glamor girl/puss: see a glamour girl/puss

a glamour girl/puss

a golden boy/girl

a give-and-take

GIVE see also GIVEN

allow/give sb (a) free rein

allow/give sth (a) free rein

allow/give sth full play

Don't give up the day job!

Don't give me that!

flip/give sb the bird

give a hostage to fortune: see a hostage to fortune give a raspberry give-and-take give and take: see give-andtake give as good as you get give ground give hostages to fortune: see a hostage to fortune Give it a rest! give it a shot/whirl Give it to me straight. give it your all give it your best shot Give me a high five!: see Give me five! Give me five! Give me/us a break! give sha bell give sb a bloody nose give sb a break give sb a buzz give sb a dose/taste of their own medicine give sb a fair crack of the whip give sb a false sense of give sb a foot in the door: see get a/your foot in the door give sb a free hand give sb a hand give sb a hard time give sb a head start: see have a head start give sb a leg up give sb [a lot of/some etc.] stick: see get/take [a lot of/some etc.1 stick give sb a new lease of life give sb a new lease on life give sb a piece of your mind give sb a rocket give sb a rough time give sb a run for their money give sb a tinkle give sb an earful give sb an even break: see get an even break Give sb an inch and thev'll take a mile. give sb carte blanche give sb enough rope (to hang themselves) give sb food for thought give sb grief give sb hell give sb pause (for thought) give sb the benefit of the doubt give sb the boot give sb the cold shoulder give sb the creeps/willies give sb the elbow give sb the evil eye

give sb the finger give sb the glad eye give sb the heebie-jeebies give sb the jitters: see get the iitters give sb the kiss of life give sb the nod give sb the (old) heave ho give sb the push give sb (the right of/to) first give sb the rough side of your give sb the runaround give sb the sack: see get the give sb the shaft: see get the shaft give sb the shits give sb the shivers give sb the slip give sb the works: see the (whole) works give sb their due give sb their head give sb their marching orders give sb their walking papers give sb/sth a wide berth give sb/sth short shrift give sb/sth the green light give sb/sth the once-over give sth a lick and a promise give sth a miss give sth a new lease of life give sth a once-over give sth a shot: see have a shot at sth give sth pride of place: see have/take pride of place give sth the thumbs down give sth the thumbs up give sth up as a bad job give sth/sb a bad name give the devil his due give the game away give the lie to sth Give them hell! give up the ghost give your all give your eye teeth for sth give your eye teeth to do sth give your life give/hand sth to sb on a plate give/hand sth to sb on a (silver) platter give/pay lip service to sth give/quote (sb) chapter and give/shoot sb a dirty look I'll give you what for! not budge/give an inch not care/give a fig not care/give a hoot not care/give a toss not care/give tuppence

not care/give two hoots: see not care/give a hoot not give a damn not give a monkey's not give a shit not give a tinker's cuss not give a tinker's damn not give sb the time of day not give sth a second thought: see without a second thought not give sth/sb house room would give their right arm would give you the shirt off their back GIVEN be given the axe be given the chop given half a/the chance GLAD give sb the glad eye your glad rags GLADLY not suffer fools gladly GLAMOUR a glamour girl/puss GLANCE at first glance/sight without a backward glance GLASS a glass ceiling People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones). GLASSES

rose-colored glasses: see rosecoloured glasses rose-coloured glasses rose-tinted glasses GLISTENS

All that glistens/glitters is not gold.

GLISTERS All that glisters is not gold. GLITTERS

All that glistens/glitters is not gold.

GLOOM doom and gloom

GLORY

sb's/sth's glory days GLOVE

an iron fist/hand in a velvet fit (sb) like a glove hand and glove hand in glove

GLOVES

handle/treat sb with kid gloves the gloves are off GLUED glued/rooted to the spot GLUTTON

a glutton for punishment

GNASHING gnashing of teeth GO see also GOES, GOING, GONE

a go-getter

be all dressed up and/with nowhere to go be on the go be raring to go be/go at it hammer and tongs be/go on at sb be/go (out) on the razzle be/go out on the tiles be/go out on the town come/go along for the ride come/go cap in hand come/go down in the world come/go hat in hand come/go under the hammer come/go up in the world: see come/go down in the world come/go with the territory come/go/turn full circle cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter easy come, easy go fall/go through the floor feel/go hot and cold (all over) from the word go get/go beyond a joke get/go from A to B get/go into a huddle go against the flow: see go with the flow go against the grain go all out go (all) round the houses go all the way go ane

go apeshit: see go ape go around/round in circles go as red as a beet go as red as a beetroot go back a long way go ballistic go bananas go beet red go beetroot (red) go belly up go beyond the pale: see be beyond the pale go by the board go by the boards: see go by the board go by the book go down a treat go down like a lead balloon go down that road go down the plughole go down the wrong way go down/fall like ninepins go downhill go Dutch go easy go easy on sb

Go fly a kite! go for broke go for the jugular go from bad to worse go from rags to riches go from strength to strength go hand in hand go haywire go head to head go hell for leather of salts go hog wild go (in) for the kill go in one ear and out the other go into overdrive go into raptures go into the hole: see be in the hole go it alone Go jump in a/the lake! go (like) a bomb go like a bomb go like a rocket go live go mental go native go off at a tangent Go to hell! go off at half-cock go to pot go off half-cocked: see go off at half-cock go off on a tangent go off the boil go off the deep end go off the rails go off your rocker: see be off your rocker go off your trolley: see be off your trolley go on record go on the game: see be on the game go on the wagon: see be on the wagon go one better go west go out (of) the window go out of your mind: see be out of your mind go out of your way to do sth go out on a limb go (out) on the piss: see be (out) on the piss go over sb's head go over the top: see be over the top go over with a bang go overboard go pear-shaped Go piss up a rope! go places go postal go south go spare It's all go. go stag (Go) take a running jump! (Go) tell it/that to the marines. no go

go the extra mile go the (full) distance go the whole hog go the whole nine yards go thin on top: see be thin on go through fire and water go through hell go through sb/sth like a dose go through the mill go through the motions go through the roof go through the wringer: see put sb through the wringer go to any lengths to do sth: see go to great lengths to do sth go to bat for sb go to bed with sb Go to blazes! go to earth go to great lengths to do sth go to ground go to hell in a handbasket/handcart go to rack/wrack and ruin go to sb's head go to see a man about a dog go to show (sth) go to the country Go to the devil! go to the dogs go to the ends of the earth go to the polls go to the stake go to the wall go to town on sth go to/take great pains to do sth go under the knife go up in smoke go whole hog go with a bang go with a swing go with the flow go/fall to pieces go/jump through hoops go/run deep go/run to seed go/run/work like clockwork go/sell like hot cakes go/swim against the tide go/swim with the tide: see go/swim against the tide have a go at sb have sth on the go If Mohammed will not go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mohammed. let yourself go make a go of sth not go amiss pick up your marbles (and go home/leave) The show must go on. GOAL an own goal move the goal GOALPOSTS move the goalposts GOAT act/play the goat get on your goat get your goat GOATS separate the sheep from the sort (out) the sheep from the goats GOB Shut your face/gob/mouth/trap! GOD a God-given right a (little) tin god a man of God God rest her/his soul. God/Heaven help sb honest to God play God put the fear of God into sb There but for the grace of God think you are God's gift to women GODLINESS Cleanliness is next to Godliness. GODMOTHER a fairy godmother GODS be in the lap of the gods GOES Bang goes sth! here goes nothing It goes without saying. Pride goes before a fall. the balloon goes up What sb says goes. your heart goes out to sb your mind goes blank GOGGLE-BOX the goggle-box GOING be going begging be going great guns be going spare be heavy going hard going have a lot going for you have a thing going with sb have something going with sb if the going gets rough/tough: see when the going gets rough/tough

not go a bundle on sth

like it's going out of fashion not have much going for you: see have a lot going for you not know if/whether you are coming or going when the going gets rough/tough while the going is good GOINGS the comings and goings GOLD a gold digger All that glistens/glitters is not gold. All that glisters is not gold. be as good as gold be worth its/your weight in gold have a heart of gold like gold like gold dust strike gold GOLDEN a golden boy/girl a golden handshake a golden oldie kill the goose that lays the golden egg GOLDMINE be sitting on a goldmine

a golden parachute

golden handcuffs

be gone on sb gone for a burton here today, gone tomorrow

here today, gone tomo
GOOD
a fat lot of good/use
a good egg
a good-for-nothing
a good Samaritan

A miss is as good as a mile. A nod's as good as a wink. All in good time.

be all well and good be as good as gold be as good as new be as good as your word be in good company be in sb's good books be no good/use to man or beast be on good terms with sb be on to a good thing be too good to be true be up to no good do sb a power of good do sb the world of good Enough is as good as a feast. for good for good and all for good measure give as good as you get good and proper good-for-nothing: see a good-

for-nothing

Good riddance (to bad rubbish)! good/right and proper have a good head on your shoulders have a good mind to do sth have a good run for your money

have had a good innings
have it on good authority
hold good

if sb knows what's good for them

in good faith

It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good). It's no good/use crying over spilt milk. make a good fist of sth/doing

sth make good on sth

make (it) good
No news is good news.
One good turn deserves
another.
put in a good word for sb

So far so good. stand sb in good stead take sth in good part take the bad with the good take the bad with the good the good old days the great and the good The road to hell is paved with good intentions. throw good money after bad too much of a good thing turn/use sth to good account What's good for the goose (is good for the gander). while the going is good You can't keep a good man/woman down.

Your guess is as good as mine. GOODBYE

kiss/say/wave goodbye to sth

come up with the goods deliver the goods sell sh a bill of goods your goods and chattels

a goody-goody GOOSE

cook so's goose
kill the goose that lays the golden egg
What's good for the goose (is good for the gander).
What's sauce for the goose (is sauce for the gander).

wouldn't say boo to a goose GOOSEBERRY play gooseberry

GORDIAN a Gordian knot cut the Gordian knot: see a Gordian knot

GORY

the gory details
GOSPEL
accept/take sth as gospel (truth)

the gospel truth

GOT

A man's got to do what a man's got to do.
Got it in one!
Has the cat got your tongue?
have got it bad
If you've got it, flaunt it!
like the cat that got the cream
We've got a right one here!

You've got me there.

GRAB

a grab bag GRABS

up for grabs GRACE

a fall from grace: see fall from grace

a saving grace fall from grace There but for the grace of God

(go I). GRACES

airs and graces GRADE

make the grade GRAIN

a grain of truth go against the grain take sth with a grain of salt

GRAND in the grand/great scheme of things

the grand old man of sth

delusions of grandeur GRANDMOTHER

teach your grandmother to suck eggs GRANTED

take it for granted take sb for granted

take sb for granted take sth for granted GRAPES

sour grapes GRAPEVINE

hear sth on/through the grapevine

GRASP

clutch/grasp at straws grasp the nettle

GRASS a grass

a grass widow a snake in the grass be as interesting as watching grass grow be like watching grass grow grass-roots: see the grass roots

not let the grass grow under your feet

The grass is always greener (on the other side of the fence).

the grass roots

GRASSHOPPER

be knee-high to a grasshopper

get/grate on sb's nerves GRATEFUL

be grateful/thankful for small mercies

GRAVE

be as silent as the grave dig your own grave from the cradle to the grave have one foot in the grave this side of the grave turn in your grave turn over/spin in your grave

GRAVEYARD

the graveyard shift

GRAVY the gravy train

GRAY

a gray area: see a grey area gray matter: see grey matter

GREASE elbow grease grease sb's palm

GREASED

like greased lightning GREASY

a greasy spoon

the greasy pole GREAT

be another/one of life's great mysteries

be going great guns be no great shakes go to great lengths to do sth go to/take great pains to do

Great minds (think alike). Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow.

in the grand/great scheme of things make (a) great play of sth set great/much store by sth the great and the good

GREATEST

the best/greatest thing since sliced bread GREEK

It's all Greek to me.

GREEN

be green about/around the gills be green with envy

get the green light: see give sb/sth the green light give sb/sth the green light green-fingered: see have green fingers green-thumbed: see have green fingers have a green thumb have green fingers the green-eved monster the rub of the green

GREENER

greener pastures

The grass is always greener (on the other side of the

GREET

greet/welcome sb/sth with open arms

GREY

a grey area grey matter the men in grey suits

GRIEF

come to grief get grief: see give sb grief give sb grief hang/hold on like grim death the Grim Reaper

GRIN

a grin like a Cheshire cat a shit-eating grin grin and bear it grin like a Cheshire cat: see a grin like a Cheshire cat grin/smile from ear to ear

GRIND

grind to a halt/standstill have an axe to grind

GRINDSTONE

keep your nose to the grindstone

GRIP

be in the grip of sth get a grip (on yourself) have a grip on sth keep a grip on yourself: see get a grip (on yourself) lose your grip

GRIPS

come/get to grips with sth

(all) grist to the mill grist for your mill

GRIT

grit your teeth

GROOVE be in the groove

be (stuck) in a groove

GROUND

a happy hunting ground be thick on the ground: see be thin on the ground be thin on the ground break new ground common ground

cut the ground from under sb/sb's feet

drive/run/work yourself into the ground fall on stony ground gain ground get in on the ground floor get (sth) off the ground

give ground go to ground

have your/both feet on the ground: see keep your/both feet on the ground hit the ground running hold/stand your ground keep an/your ear to the ground

keep your/both feet on the ground

lose ground: see gain ground on dangerous ground on safe ground: see on dangerous ground prepare the ground run into the ground run sb to ground run sth into the ground

sb's stamping/stomping ground shift your ground suit sb down to the ground the high ground the middle ground wish the ground would swallow you up

GROUP

a ginger group GROVES

the groves of academe GROW

Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

be as interesting as watching grass grow

be like watching grass grow Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow. grow like Topsy Money doesn't grow on trees.

not let the grass grow under your feet

GROWING

growing pains GRUDGE

bear a grudge GRUNT

grunt work

grunt work GUARD

be on (your) guard catch/take sb off guard drop/lower your guard the old guard

GUESS

an educated guess

a wise guy be anybody's guess be half-cut be half-dead Your guess is as good as mine. No more Mr Nice Guy. GUESSING be half the battle (won) GUZZI FR keep sb guessing a gas guzzler be half the [dancer/writer no prizes for guessing sth HABIT etc.) vou used to be GUEST force of habit be too clever by half Be my guest. kick the habit Cheap at half the price! GUIDING Why break the habit of a given half a/the chance a guiding light/spirit lifetime? go off at half-cock GUILT HACKLES go off half-cocked: see go off at a guilt trip make (sb's) hackles rise half-cock lay/put a guilt trip on sb raise (sb's) hackles Half a loaf is better than none. sb's hackles rise: see raise half-arsed send sb on a guilt trip half-assed: see half-arsed (sb's) hackles GUINEA HAD half-baked a guinea pig had it coming half-hearted GULLET have had a bellvful of sth half-heartedly: see halfstick in your gullet/throat have had a good innings GIIM hearted have had it half-witted: see a half-wit be up a gum tree gum up the works have had it (up to here) Half/Just a mo. GUN see also GUNS have had its chips have half a mind to do sth a big gun/noise have had its/your day have half an ear on sth a smoking gun have had more than your fair have not heard the half of it! a son of a gun have/keep half an eye on share of sth be under the gun have had your chips sth/sh hold/put a gun to sb's head have had your fill how the other half lives jump the gun have had your fill of sth listen with half an ear: see have half an ear on sth Son of a gun! HAG GUNBOAT a fag hag not be half bad HAIL-FELLOW-WELL-MET gunboat diplomacy not half GUNG-HO hail-fellow-well-met Not half! be gung-ho about/for sth: see HAIR see also HAIRS not know the half of it gung-ho a hair shirt sb's better/other half a hair's breadth gung-ho six of one and half a dozen of GUNNING curl sb's hair the other be gunning for sb get in sb's hair That was a [game/meal/walk GUNS hair-raising etc.] and a half! all guns blazing harm a hair on sb's head with half an eye on sth/sb: see have a bad hair day be going great guns have/keep half an eye on spike sb's guns haven't seen hide nor hair of sth/sb stand by your guns sh/sth HALF-ASSED stick to your guns Keep your hair on! half-assed: see half-arsed with (your) guns blazing let your hair down HALF-COCKED GUNWALES make sb's hair curl go off half-cocked: see go off at to the gunwales make sb's hair stand on end half-cock GURGLER not a hair out of place HALFWAY down the gurgler not turn a hair a halfway house GUT see also GUTS out of sb's hair: see get in sb's meet sb halfway a gut feeling hair HALT a gut reaction pull/tear your hair out grind to a halt/standstill put hair(s) on your chest bust a gut HAIVES bust a gut (laughing) not do anything/things by the hair of the dog (that bit GUT-BUCKET halves you) a gut-bucket HAIR-SPLITTING HAM-FISTED GUTS hair-splitting: see split hairs ham-fisted a misery guts HAIRS HAM-HANDED have sb by the short hairs

split hairs

the halcyon days

hale and hearty

be at half-mast

HALF see also HALVES a half-wit

HALCYON

HALE

blood and guts hate sb's guts

spill your guts

come a gutser

GUTSER

GUY a fall guy

have your guts for garters

slog/sweat/work your guts out

ham-handed: see ham-fisted

come/go under the hammer drive/hammer sth home

A bird in the hand (is worth

be/go at it hammer and

HAND see also HANDS

two in the bush).

HAMMER

a firm/steady hand on the tiller a hand-me-down an iron fist/hand in a velvet an old hand be a dab hand be in hand be on hand bite the hand that feeds you can count sth on the fingers of one hand catch sb with their fingers/hand in the till: see have your fingers/hand in the close/near at hand come/go cap in hand come/go hat in hand could do sth with one arm/hand tied behind their hack first hand force sb's hand gain/get the upper hand: see have the upper hand get out of hand give sb a free hand give sb a hand give/hand sth to sb on a plate give/hand sth to sb on a (silver) platter go hand in hand hand and glove hand in glove hand on heart: see put your hand on your heart hand over fist hand over the reins hand-to-mouth: see live (from) hand to mouth have a free hand; see give sb a free hand have a hand in sth have sb eating out of the palm of your hand have sb in the palm of your hand have sb/sth on hand: see be on hand have sth in hand: see be in hand have the upper hand have your fingers/hand in the till have/hold the whip hand hold sb's hand I/You have to hand it to sb keep your hand in know sth like the back of your hand lay a hand on sb lend (sb) a hand live (from) hand to mouth on the one hand...on the other

hand

out of hand overplay your hand put your hand in your pocket put your hand on your heart raise your hand against/to sb rule (sb) with an iron fist/hand show your hand sleight of hand take sb/sth in hand; see be in the dead hand of sth The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world). the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing the matter at hand the matter in hand throw in your hand tip your hand try your hand at sth turn your hand to sth wait on sb hand and foot HAND-WRINGING hand-wringing: see wring your hands HANDBASKET go to hell in a handbasket/handcart HANDCART go to hell in a handbasket/handcart HANDCUFFS golden handcuffs HANDLE be too hot to handle fly off the handle get a handle on sth handle/treat sb with kid gloves HANDLES love handles HANDS a safe pair of hands all hands on deck all hands to the pumps be in safe hands be in sb's hands be out of sb's hands be putty in your hands beat sb hands down: see win (sth) hands down can't keep your hands off sb change hands dirty your hands fall into sb's hands fall into the wrong hands get your hands dirty get your hands on sb get/lay your hands on sth have blood on your hands have clean hands: see keep your hands clean have sb's blood on your hands have sth on your hands

have time on your hands

have your hands full keep your hands clean leave sth in sb's hands: see be in sb's hands off sb's hands place/put your life in sb's hands: see your life is in sb's play into sb's hands sb's hands are tied sit on your hands take matters into your own hands take sb/sth off sb's hands: see off sh's hands take the law into your own hands take your life in/into your hands The devil finds work for idle hands. time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's hands) wandering hands wash your hands of sb/sth win (sth) hands down with your bare hands with your own fair hands wring your hands your life is in sb's hands HANDSHAKE a golden handshake HANDWRITING read/see the handwriting on the wall: see the writing is on the wall the handwriting is on the wall HANG see also HANGED, HANGING, HANGS a hang-up and hang the cost/expense be/hang in the balance cling on/hang on by your fingernails cling on/hang on by your fingertips get the hang of sth give sb enough rope (to hang themselves) hang a left/right hang by a thread Hang loose! Hang on a mo. hang (on) in there hang out your shingle hang tough hang up your boots hang up your hat hang your head (in shame) hang/hold fire hang/hold on like grim death hang/hold on (to sth/sb) for dear life let it all hang out

HANGED

I might as well be

hanged/hung for a sheep as a lamb

HANGER

a hanger-on

HANGING

be hanging over you

be hanging over your head be left hanging (in the air/in midair)

HANGS

Thereby/Therein hangs a tale. time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's hands)

HANKY-PANKY

hanky-panky

HAPPEN

accidents will happen

an accident waiting to happen

a happy accident

a happy hunting ground

a happy medium be as happy as a clam

be as happy as Larry/a sandboy

not be a happy bunny not be a happy camper

the happy event

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY

happy-go-lucky

HARD

a hard-on

a hard/tough nut

a hard/tough nut to crack a hard/tough row to hoe

be a hard/tough act to follow

be as hard as nails

be hard pressed

be hard pushed

be hard put to do sth

be hard up

between a rock and a hard

place

die hard

die-hard: see die hard

drive a hard bargain

fall on hard times

feel hard done-by

give sb a hard time

hard-boiled

hard cash

hard feelings

hard going

Hard lines.

hard-nosed

hard to swallow

hard/hot on sb's heels

Hard/Tough cheddar!

Hard/Tough cheese!

have a hard time (of it): see

give sb a hard time

hit sth hard

make hard work of sth/doing

sth

no hard and fast rules

play hard to get

take a long, hard look at sth the hard sell

the hard stuff

the school of hard knocks

think long and hard

HARDBALL

play hardball

HARDEN

harden vour heart

HARDER

The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

HARDLY

can barely/hardly hear yourself think

HADE

be as mad as a March hare run with the hare and hunt with the hounds harm a hair on sb's head wouldn't harm/hurt a fly

HARNESS

be back in harness in harness

HARRY

Tom, Dick and/or Harry

HARVEST

reap a/the harvest of sth

HAS-BEEN

a has-been

HASTE

Marry in haste, repent at

HAT see also HATS

at the drop of a hat be talking through your hat be wearing your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.]

come/go hat in hand

hang up your hat

have your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.1 hat on

I take my hat off to sb

I tip my hat to sb

I'll eat my hat

If the hat/shoe fits (wear it).

keep sth under your hat

old hat

pass the hat around/round pull a rabbit out of the hat throw/toss your hat in the

with your [teacher's/lawver's etc.1 hat on: see be wearing your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.]

hat

HATCH

Down the hatch!

HATCHED

Don't count your chickens (before they're hatched).

HATCHES

batten down the hatches

HATCHET

a hatchet job

a hatchet man

bury the hatchet

HATE

hate sb's guts sb's pet hate

HATS

hats off to sb

HATTER

be as mad as a hatter

HAUL

a long haul

drag/haul sb over the coals

haul ass haul/pull yourself up by your

bootstraps

in/over the long haul: see a long haul

HAVE see also HAD, HAVING

and what have you catch/have sb bang to rights catch/have sb dead to rights get/have a fair crack of the whip: see give sb a fair crack of the whip

get/have carte blanche: see give sb carte blanche

get/have your day in court

get/have your end away have a bad hair day

have a ball

have a bash

have a bee in your bonnet

have a bone to pick with sb

have a bun in the oven

have a card up your sleeve

have a chip on your shoulder

have a conniption fit

have a cow

have a downer on sb

have a familiar ring (to it) have [a few/a lot etc.] irons in have a field day have a finger in every pie have a finger in the pie: see have a finger in every pie have a free hand: see give sb a free hand

have a frog in your throat

have a go at sb have a good mind to do sth

have a good run for your money

have a green thumb

have a grip on sth

have a hand in sth

have a hard time (of it): see

give sb a hard time have a head start

have a heart of gold

have a heart of stone

Have a heart! have a heavy foot have a hollow ring: see ring/sound hollow have a leg up on sb have a line on sb/sth; see get a line on sb/sth have a lot going for you have a lot of time for sb/sth have a lot to answer for have a lot/enough on your plate have a memory like an elephant have a mind like a steel trap have a mind of its own have a nose for sth have a nose (round) have a one-track mind have a ring to it have a rough time (of it): see give sb a rough time have a screw loose have a shot at sb have a shot at sth have a shufti have a soft spot for sb/sth have a thin time (of it) have a thing about sth/sb have a thing going with sb have a weak spot for sb/sth have a whale of a time have a word in sb's ear have a/your finger on the button have (all) the makings of sth have all your marbles: see lose your marbles have an ace up your sleeve have an axe to grind have an ear for sth have an eve for sth have an eye for/on the main have big ears have bigger/other fish to fry have blood on your hands have butterflies (in your stomach) have clean hands: see keep your hands clean have designs on sb have dibs on sth have egg on your face have first call on sth have friends in high places have fun and games have (got) it made have got the hump: see get the hump have green fingers have half a mind to do sth have half an ear on sth have it away have it in for sb

have it off have it on good authority have it out with sb have itchy feet have kittens have lead in your pencil: see put lead in your pencil have legs have mixed feelings about sth have money to burn have no stomach for sth have no time for sb/sth: see have a lot of time for sb/sth have no time to lose: see There's no time to lose. have no truck with sth/sb have nothing between the/your ears have one foot in the grave have pins and needles have sb by the balls have sb by the short and curlies have sb by the short hairs have sb down on you like a ton of bricks: see be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks have sb eating out of the palm of your hand have sb in stitches have sb in the palm of your hand have sb in your corner have sb in your sights have sb on a string have sb on the run have sb over a barrel have sb pegged have sb rolling in the aisles have sb taped have sb's blood on your hands have sb's ear have sb's name on it have sb's name written all over it have sb's number have sb/sth on hand: see be on hand have second thoughts have shit for brains have something going with sb have sth coming out of your have sth down pat: see learn sth off pat have sth down to a fine art have sth in hand: see be in hand have sth in mind have sth in your sights have sth off pat: see learn sth off pat have sth off to a fine art have sth on the brain have sth on the go

have sth on your hands have sth up your sleeve Have sth will travel! have teeth have the bit between your teeth: see get/take the bit between your teeth have the brass (balls) to do sth have the brass (neck) to do sth have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders have the courage of your convictions have the devil's own job doing sth/to do sth have the devil's own luck have the edge on/over sb/sth have the final/last word have the inside track have the last laugh have the luck of the devil have the measure of sb/sth have (the right of/to) first refusal: see give sb (the right of/to) first refusal have the run of swh have the time of your life have the upper hand have the world at your feet have time on your hands have time on your side have to be seen to be believed have to eat your words have words have your back against/to the have your beady eye on sth/sb have your cake and eat it (too) have your eye on sth have your finger on the pulse have your fingers/hand in the till have your guts for garters have your hands full have your head in the clouds have your head screwed on (the right way) have your head (stuck) up your arse have your heart set on sth/doing sth: see set your heart on sth/doing sth have your knife into sb have your mind on sth have your nose in a book have your nose in the air: see with your nose in the air have your pick of sth have your plate full have your sights set on sth/doing sth: see set your sights on sth/doing sth have your work cut out (for you) have your/both feet on the ground: see keep your/both feet on the ground have your/its moments have/get your fingers burned/burnt have/hold all the aces have/hold all the cards have/hold the whip hand have/keep a foot in both camps have/keep an open mind have/keep half an eye on have/keep one eye on sth/sb have/keep sb on a short/tight leash have/keep your wits about you have/lead/live a charmed life have/make a stab at sth/doing have/see your name in lights have/take a crack at sth have/take pride of place have/throw a fit he/she doesn't have a [jealous, mean, unkind etc.] bone in his/her body I/You have to hand it to sb not have a bean not have a care in the world not have a cat in hell's chance sth not have a clue not have a leg to stand on not have a monopoly on sth not have a prayer not have much going for you: see have a lot going for you not have much time for sb/sth: see have a lot of time for sb/sth not have the faintest (idea) not have the foggiest (idea/notion) not have the stomach for sth only have eyes for sb to have the hots for sb you don't have to be a rocket scientist You have to be cruel to be kind.

HAVING

Time flies when you're having fun.

HAW

hem and haw hum and haw

HAWK

have eyes like a hawk watch sb like a hawk

HAY

a roll in the hay hit the hay make hay while the sun shines

HAYSTACK

be like looking for a needle in a haystack

HAYWIRE

go haywire

HEAD see also HEADED, HEADING, HEADS

a cool head

a roof over your head a (sudden) rush of blood (to the head)

a sword of Damocles hangs over sb's head

a wise head on young shoulders

an old head on young shoulders

be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall

be hanging over your head be head over heels (in love) be in over your head be like a bear with a sore head be off your head be out of your head bite/snap sb's head off bring sth to a head: see come to build/get/work up a head of bury your head in the sand can't make head nor/or tail of

come to a head

could do sth standing on your head

do sh's head in fall head over heels (in love): see be head over heels (in

get your head around sth get your head down get/put your head down give sb a head start: see have a head start give sb their head go head to head go over sb's head go to sb's head hang your head (in shame)

harm a hair on sb's head have a good head on your shoulders have a head start have eyes in the back of your

have your head in the clouds have your head screwed on (the right way) have your head (stuck) up your arse head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.] hit the nail on the head hold your head up high hold/put a gun to sb's head keep a civil tongue in your head keep your head keep your head above water keep your head down knock sth on the head

[laugh/scream/shout etc.] your head off

let your heart rule your head like a chicken with its head lose your head need sth like (you need) a hole in the head need your head examined/examining need your head testing not be right in the head off the top of your head on sb's (own) head be it pissed out of your head/mind/skull put ideas into sb's head put your head/neck on the block put/stick your head above the parapet raise/rear its (ugly) head

sb's eyes are popping out of their head

sb's head on a plate/platter soft in the head stand/turn sth on its head take it into your head to do sth talk out of the back of your head the head honcho

the heart rules the head: see let your heart rule your head with your head in the clouds: see have your head in the clouds

HEADED

be headed for a fall

HEADING

be heading/riding for a fall HEADLESS

like a headless chicken HEADLIGHTS

be like a deer/rabbit caught in

the headlights HEADLINES

hit/make the headlines HEADS

heads will roll

put their heads together turn heads

HEADWAY

make headway HEALTH

a clean bill of health HEAP

at the bottom of the heap/pile

be on the scrap heap; see throw sb/sth on the scrap heap fall in a heap throw sb/sth on the scrap heap

HEAR

can barely/hardly hear vourself think can't hear yourself think hear sth on/through the

grapevine

won't hear a word (said) against sb/sth You'll never hear the end of it.

Children should be seen and not heard have heard/seen the last of have not heard the half of it! You could have heard a pin drop.

HEART see also HEARTS

a bleeding heart a change of heart

a heart-to-heart

a man/woman after your own

Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

bare your heart/soul

be all heart break sb's heart close/dear to sb's heart

Cross my heart (and hope to die).

cry/sob your heart out from the bottom of your heart hand on heart: see put your hand on your heart harden your heart have a heart of gold have a heart of stone

Have a heart!

have your heart set on sth/doing sth: see set your heart on sth/doing sth heart and soul: see put your heart and soul into sth/doing sth heart-to-heart: see a heart-to-

heart

Home is where the heart is. in your heart of hearts It's/You're breaking my heart! know/learn sth (off) by heart let your heart rule your head lose heart lose your heart to sb open your heart pour your heart out put your hand on your heart put your heart and soul into sth/doing sth sb's heart is in the right place sb's heart is in their boots sh's heart is in their mouth sh's heart isn't in sth

sb's heart misses/skips a beat

sb's heart sinks

sb, eat your heart out! set your heart on sth/doing sth

sick at heart strike at the heart of sth

take heart take sth to heart

the heart rules the head: see let your heart rule your

to your heart's content

warm the cockles of your heart

wear your heart on your sleeve

your heart bleeds your heart goes out to sb

HEARTH

hearth and home

HEARTS

in your heart of hearts HEARTSTRINGS tear/tug at the heartstrings

tear/tug at your heartstrings HEARTY

hale and hearty

HEAT

If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen. in the heat of the moment put the heat on sb take the heat off sb the heat is on turn up the heat

HEAVE

give sb the (old) heave ho HEAVEN

a marriage/match made in heaven be in seventh heaven God/Heaven help sb manna from heaven move heaven and earth

smell/stink to high heaven HEAVENS

the heavens opened

HEAVY

a heavy date a heavy hitter be heavy-footed: see have a heavy foot

be heavy going have a heavy foot heavy-duty heavy-handed heavy petting hot and heavy

make heavy weather of sth/doing sth

time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's hands)

(just) for the heck of it

HEDGE

hedge your bets HEEBIE-JEEBIES

give sb the heebie-jeebies HEEL

an Achilles' heel bring/call sb to heel come to heel under sh's heel

HEELS

at sh's heels be head over heels (in love) cool your heels

dig your heels in drag your feet/heels fall head over heels (in love): see be head over heels (in

love)

hard/hot on sb's heels hard/hot on the heels of sth kick up vour heels kick your heels show sb a clean pair of heels take to your heels

HELL

(a) hell on earth a hell-raiser: see raise hell

a living hell all hell breaks loose

be hell-bent on sth/doing sth

be hell on wheels

be shot to hell/pieces catch/get hell come hell or high water [fight/run/work etc.] like hell frighten/scare the hell out of

get the hell out give sb hell Give them hell!

go hell for leather go through hell

go to hell in a handbasket/handcart

Go to hell!

Hell hath no fury (like a woman scorned). Hell's bells!

(just) for the hell of it like a bat out of hell not have a cat in hell's chance not have a chance/hope in hell

not have a snowball's chance in hell

play (merry) hell play (merry) hell with sth put sb through hell

raise hell

sure as hell

the [child/house/mother etc.] from hell

The road to hell is paved with good intentions.

there'll be hell to pay to hell with sb/sth until hell freezes over what the hell when hell freezes over: see until hell freezes over would see sb in hell before you would do sth HELL-RAISER a hell-raiser: see raise hell HELP God/Heaven help sb HELTER-SKELTER helter-skelter HEM hem and haw HEMMING hemming and hawing: see hum and haw a hen night/party be as scarce as hen's teeth HERD ride herd on sb/sth HERE have had it (up to here) here goes nothing here today, gone tomorrow neither here nor there HERRING a red herring HIDDEN a hidden agenda HIDE cover/hide a multitude of sins haven't seen hide nor hair of sb/sth hide your light under a bushel tan sb's hide HIDING be on a hiding to nothing HIGH a high-flier a high-flyer: see a high-flier a high roller be as high as a kite be flying high be for the high jump be riding high climb/get on your high horse come hell or high water come/get (down) off your high horse: see climb/get on your high horse from on high Give me a high five!: see Give have friends in high places high and mighty high jinks high on the/sb's agenda hold your head up high

hunt/search high and low

in high dudgeon

it's high time leave sb high and dry live high off/on the hog on high pile it/them high and sell it/them cheap smell/stink to high heaven the high and mighty: see high and mighty the high ground HIGH-FLYER a high-flyer: see a high-flier HIGH-STRUNG high-strung: see highlystrung HIGHLY-STRUNG highly-strung highway robbery HIGHWAYS the highways and byways Take a hike/walk! HILL be over the hill king of the hill not be worth a hill of beans up hill and down dale HIIIS be as old as the hills HIIT (up) to the hilt HIND can talk the hind leg(s) off a donkey HINDMOST (let) the devil take the hindmost be joined at the hip shoot from the hip HISTORY the rest is history HIT see also HITS, HITTING a hit list a hit man aim/hit below the belt: see be below the belt before sb knows what hit them: see not know what hit you hit a/the (brick) wall hit and/or miss hit sh like a ton of bricks hit sb (right) between the eves hit sb where it hurts (most) hit sth hard hit the books hit the hottle hit the buffers hit the ceiling/roof hit the deck/dirt hit the ground running hit the hav

hit the jacknot hit the mark hit the nail on the head hit the road hit the sack hit the skids hit the spot hit the sth mark hit your stride hit/make the headlines hit/press/push the panic button hit/strike home hit/strike pay dirt hit/strike the right note hit/touch a (raw) nerve not know what hit you wouldn't know sth if it hit you in the face HITCH hitch your wagon to a star hitch your wagon to sb/sth HITS the shit hits the fan HITTER a heavy hitter HITTING be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall give sb the (old) heave ho ho-hum HOBBYHORSE on your hobbyhorse HOBSON Hobson's choice HOCKEY be iolly hockey sticks a hard/tough row to hoe HOG a road hog go hog wild go the whole hog go whole hog live high off/on the hog HOIST be hoist by/with your own petard hoist a few be on hold: see put sth on hold can't hold a candle to sb/sth can't hold their drink/liquor Don't hold your breath. get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick

dear life

hold court

hang/hold fire

hang/hold on like grim death

hang/hold on (to sth/sb) for

have/hold all the aces

have/hold all the cards

have/hold the whip hand

hold good

hold down the fort

HOLIES

HOLLOW

the holy of holies

hold out/offer an olive hranch hold sb to ransom hold sb's hand hold the fort hold the key hold the purse strings hold your head up high Hold your horses! hold your own hold your tongue hold/keep sb at arm's length hold/keep sth/sb in check hold/keep your end up hold/put a gun to sb's head hold/stand your ground not hold water on hold put sth on hold HOLDING be left holding the baby be left holding the bag HOLDS no holds barred no-holds-barred: see no holds barred HOLE see also HOLES a hole card a hole in the wall a square peg (in a round hole) an ace in the hole be in a hole be in the hole blow a hole in sth blow/make a hole in sth dig yourself into a hole: see be in a hole dig/get sb out of a hole: see be in a hole go into the hole: see be in the hole have sth burning a hole in your pocket hole-and-corner hole-in-the-corner: see holeand-corner hole-in-the-wall: see a hole in the wall need sth like (you need) a hole in the head HOLE-IN-THE-CORNER hole-in-the-corner: see holeand-corner HOLE-IN-THE-WALL hole-in-the-wall: see a hole in the wall HOLES be full of holes pick holes in sth HOLIDAY a busman's holiday

HOLIER-THAN-THOU

holier-than-thou

ring/sound hollow HOLY the holy of holies HOME a home away from home a home from home a home truth An Englishman's home is his castle be at home he close to home be home and dry be home and hosed be home free be nothing much to write home about bring home the bacon bring sth home to sb Charity begins at home. chickens come home to roost come home to rocet: see chickens come home to roost come home to sb: see bring sth drive/hammer sth home eat sb out of house and home hearth and home hit/strike home Home is where the heart is. keep the home fires burning make yourself at home not much to write home about pick up your marbles (and go home/leave) play away from home something to write home about: see be nothing much to write home about the home straight the home stretch The lights are on but nobody's/no-one's home. until the cows come home What's sth when it's at home? Who's sb when he's/she's at home? HOMEWORK do your homework HONCHO the head honcho HONEST be as honest as the day (is honest to God make an honest woman of sb HONEST-TO-GOODNESS honest-to-goodness HONESTY beat sb hollow a honeymoon period have a hollow ring: see HONOR-BOUND ring/sound hollow be/feel honor-bound to do sth: see be/feel honour-bound to dosth HONORS do the honors: see do the honours HONOUR-BOUND be/feel honour-bound to do HONOURS do the honours HOOF on the hoof HOOK be off the hook be off the hook; see get/let sb off the hook by hook or by crook fall for sb hook, line and sinker fall for sth hook, line and sinker get/let sb off the hook off the hook on your own hook ring off the hook Sling your hook! HOOKS get your hooks into sth/sb HOOKY play hooky HOOPS go/jump through hoops put sb through hoops: see go/jump through hoops HOOT not care/give a hoot HOP catch sb on the hop climb/get/hop into bed with sb: see be in bed with sb HOPE a hope chest Cross my heart (and hope to hope against hope live in hope not have a chance/hope in hell pin your hopes on sth/sb HOPPING be hopping mad HORIZON a cloud on the horizon on the horizon HORIZONS broaden/widen sb's horizons HORN see also HORNS Honesty is the best policy. blow/toot your own horn

HONEY

HONEYMOON

the land of milk and honey

HORNET

a hornet's nest be as mad as a hornet

HORNS

be on the horns of a dilemma draw/pull in your horns lock horns

take the bull by the horns

HORROR

a little horror

HORSE

a charley horse

a dark horse

a horse of another/a different color

a stalking horse

a Trojan horse

back the wrong horse

beat a dead horse

climb/get on your high horse closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has holted come/get (down) off your high horse; see climb/get on your high horse

eat like a horse flog a dead horse

horse sense

I could eat a horse.

not look a gift horse in the mouth

put the cart before the horse (straight) from the horse's mouth You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink).

HORSES

Don't spare the horses. drive a coach and horses through sth Hold your horses!

Horses for courses.

wild horses

HOSED

be home and hosed

HOSTAGE a hostage to fortune

give a hostage to fortune: see a hostage to fortune

HOSTAGES

give hostages to fortune: see a hostage to fortune

HOT

a hot button

a hot dog: see hot dog

a hot potato

a hot spot

(all) hot and bothered be hot off the press

be hot stuff

be in hot water be like a cat on a hot tin roof

be as safe as houses be too hot to handle

blow hot and cold

cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter

drop sb/sth like a hot brick/potato feel/go hot and cold (all over) get (sb) into hot water: see be in hot water go/sell like hot cakes

hard/hot on sb's heels

have [done/seen/had etc.] more sth than sb has had hot dinners

hot air

hot and heavy

hot-button: see a hot button

hot dog Hot dog!

hot-ticket: see the hot ticket

hot-to-trot

hot under the collar in hot pursuit

in the hot seat

on the hot seat

strike while the iron is hot the hot ticket

HOT-BUTTON

hot-button: see a hot button HOT-TICKET

hot-ticket: see the hot ticket

HOTEOOT

hotfoot it

HOTS

to have the hots for sb HOUNDS

run with the hare and hunt with the hounds

HOUR

at the eleventh hour in sb's hour of need The darkest hour is just before the dawn.

the witching hour

HOURS

at all hours (of the day and night)

at all hours (of the night) the small hours till all hours (of the night): see

at all hours (of the night) HOUSE

a halfway house

a house of cards

bring the house down

eat sb out of house and home get on like a house on fire get/put your own house in order

not give sth/sb house room

on the house

There wasn't a dry eye in the house.

HOUSES

go (all) round the houses

People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones).

HOW

a bit of how's your father And how!

How do you like them apples!

HUDDLE

get/go into a huddle

HUE

a hue and cry HUFF

huff and puff in a huff

HUG

a bear hug

HUM see also HUMMING

hum and haw

HUMAN

the milk of human kindness To err is human, (to forgive, divine).

HUMBLE

eat humble pie

HUMMING

humming and hawing: see hum and haw

HUMOR

gallows humor

schoolboy humor

HUMOUR

gallows humour schoolboy humour

HUMP

be over the hump

get the hump

have got the hump; see get the

hump HUNG

I might as well be

hanged/hung for a sheep as a lamh

HUNKY-DORY

be hunky-dory

HUNT

hunt/search high and low run with the hare and hunt

with the hounds HUNTING

a happy hunting ground HURRAH

a last hurrah

HURT Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me). What you don't know won't ## hurt you. wouldn't harm/hurt a fly

hit sb where it hurts (most)

HUSH

hush money HUSTLE

hustle and bustle

imagination

from/since time immemorial

IMMEMORIAL

HYDE IN a Jekyll and Hyde be a [athlete/star/writer etc.] in the making Jekyll and Hyde: see a Jekyll and Hyde be a [crisis/disaster etc.] in the HYMNSHEET making sing from the same be in (a bit of) a jam hymnsheet/songsheet be in a fix be in a hole dot the/your i's and cross be in a lather the/your t's be in a spin ICE be in a stew an ice-breaker: see break the be in a tizz/tizzy: see ice send/throw sb into a be as cold as ice tizz/tizzy be on ice be in bed with sb be (skating/walking) on thin be in business ice be in cahoots break the ice be in clover cut no ice with sb be in deep/the shit put sth on ice: see be on ice be in eclipse ICEBERG be in hand the tip of the iceberg be in line for sth ICING be in luck be in over your head the icing on the cake be in sb's clutches: see fall into not have the faintest (idea) sb's clutches not have the foggiest be in sb's hands (idea/notion) be in sb's line What's the big idea? be in sb's pocket IDEAS be in sb's shoes put ideas into sb's head be in the air IDLE be in the can be bone idle be in the cards The devil finds work for idle be in the chips hands. be in the clear IDOI be in the club a fallen idol be in the dark IF be in the doghouse if and when be in the doldrums If you believe that, you'll be in the frame be in the grip of sth believe anything! If you can't beat 'em, (join be in the groove be in the hole 'em)! be in the know no ifs and buts be in the limelight no ifs, ands or buts be in the loop IGNORANCE be in the market for sth be in the money Ignorance is bliss. be in the picture: see be out of ILL the picture be ill at ease be in the pink It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good). be in the pipeline IMAGE be in the red be the spitting image of sb be in the running IMAGINATION be in the saddle a flight of be in the soup fancy/fantasy/imagination be in the spotlight be a figment of your/the be in the thick of sth imagination be in the throes of sth/doing by no stretch of the imagination be in the wind not by any stretch of the be in the wrong

be in your cups be in your element be in your face be (stuck) in a groove be (stuck) in a rut have been in the wars in a (cold) sweat in a huff in a nutshell in a pinch in all modesty In for a penny, (in for a pound). in harness in keeping with sth in light of sth in my book in sb's eyes in sb's shadow in spades in tandem in the altogether in the bag in the bargain in the bosom of sb in the buff in the closet: see come out of the closet in the light of sth in the main in the name of sth in the nick of time in the raw in the teeth of sth in the wilderness in touch with sth: see be out of touch with sth in tow In your dreams! in/under sth's shadow not be backward in coming forward not in the business of doing (out) in the middle of nowhere You're in there! INCH be every inch sth beat sb to within an inch of their life come within an inch of doing Give sb an inch and they'll take a mile. not budge/give an inch

not trust sb an inch

an Indian summer

enough Indians)

too many chiefs (and not

A friend in need (is a friend

INDEED

INDIAN

INDIANS

be in the/your blood

be in too deep

be in touch

indeed).

INFINITE have itchy feet the patience of Job/a saint in his/her/their (infinite) ITSELF. wisdom an end in itself jobs for the boys INFLUENCE IVORIES IOG under the influence tickle/tinkle the ivories jog your memory INFORMATION IVORY NHOL a mine of information an ivory tower a Dear John letter INJURY IVY JOHNNY-COME-LATELY add insult to injury Ivy League: see the Ivy League a Johnny-come-lately INNINGS the Ivy League JOHNNY-ON-THE-SPOT have had a good innings JACK Johnny-on-the-spot INS a jack of all trades JOIN the ins and outs a Jack the Lad enter/join the frav INSIDE All work and no play (makes If you can't beat 'em, (join an inside job Jack a dull boy). 'em)! have the inside track every man jack (of us/them) Join the club! know sth inside out JACKPOT join the ranks of sth INSIGNIFICANCE hit the jackpot JOINED fade/pale into insignificance JAM be joined at the hip be in (a bit of) a jam JOINT add insult to injury be money for jam put sb's nose out of joint INTENTIONS iam tomorrow JOKE see also JOKING The road to hell is payed with JANE be no joke good intentions. a plain Jane get/go beyond a joke INTENTS 1477 the joke's on sb to all intents and purposes and all that jazz JOKER the joker in the pack INTERESTING JEKYLL be as interesting as watching a Jekvll and Hyde JOKING grass grow Jekvll and Hyde; see a Jekvll You must be joking! be as interesting as watching and Hyde You're joking! paint dry JOLLY INTERFERENCE There's many a true word be jolly hockey sticks run interference spoken in jest. JOLT INTO JETSAM come (back) down to earth into the bargain flotsam and jetsam (with a bang/bump/jolt) INVENT IEWEL JONESES invent sth out of whole cloth the jewel in the crown keep up with the Joneses INVENTION JIGGERY-POKERY JOURNALISM Necessity is the mother of jiggery-pokery yellow journalism invention. JINKS JOWL INVERTED high iinks cheek by jowl in inverted commas JITTERS JOY IRON get the litters a bundle of joy an iron fist/hand in a velvet give sb the jitters: see get the be in a transport of glove jitters delight/joy an iron man JOB jump for joy can talk the legs off an iron pot a bang up job JOYS iron out the kinks a blow job be full of the joys of spring a hatchet job pump iron JUDGE rule (sb) with a rod of iron a iob lot be as sober as a judge rule (sb) with an iron a Job's comforter You can't judge a book by its fist/hand a put-up job cover. strike while the iron is hot a snow job JUDGEMENT IRONS an inside job against your better judgement have [a few/a lot etc.] irons in an uphill job/task more by luck than judgement the fire do a job on sb/sth JUDGMENT see also JUDGE-15 do the job MENT as is Don't give up the day job! a judgment call fall down on the job sit in judgment on/over sb It's/That's (just) not cricket! give sth up as a bad job JUGGLING ITCH have the devil's own job doing a balancing/juggling act the seven year itch sth/to do sth JUGULAR ITCHY It's more than my job's worth. go for the jugular

lie down on the job

make the best of a bad job

JUICE

stew in your own juice/juices

get itchy feet: see have itchy

feet

JUICES

stew in your own juice/juices

JUMBO

mumbo jumbo

JUMP

a quantum jump be for the high jump get a/the jump on sb/sth get/jump/leap on the

bandwagon

Go jump in a/the lake! (Go) take a running jump! go/jump through hoops jump down sb's throat jump for joy jump in at the deep end: see throw sb in at the deep end jump in feet first jump in with both feet

jump out of the frying pan (and) into the fire

jump ship jump the gun jump the queue jump to conclusions nearly jump out of your skin

see which way the cat jumps JUNGLE

the law of the jungle JURY

the jury is (still) out JUST

be just the job be just the ticket be just what the doctor ordered be (just/right) up sb's street get your just deserts Half/Just a mo. I could (just) spit! It's just one of those things. (just) for the heck of it not be just a pretty face The darkest hour is just before the dawn.

(just) for the hell of it Just my luck!

JUSTICE

poetic justice rough justice JUSTIFIES

The end justifies the means.

KANGAROO

a kangaroo court KEEL

on an even keel KEEN

be as keen as mustard

KEEP see also KEEPING, KEEPS, KEPT

bear/keep sth in mind can't keep your hands off sb can't take/keep your eyes off sb/sth

change/keep up/move with the times

have/keep a foot in both camps have/keep an open mind

have/keep half an eye on sth/sb

have/keep one eye on sth/sb have/keep sb on a short/tight have/keep your wits about you hold/keep sb at arm's length hold/keep sth/sb in check hold/keep your end up keep a civil tongue in your head keep a grip on yourself: see get a grip (on yourself)

keep a lid on sth keep a low profile keep a straight face keep a tight rein on sb/sth keep a weather eye on sth/sb keep an eye out for sb/sth keep an/your ear to the ground keep body and soul together keep faith with sth/sb keep sb guessing keep sb in the picture: see put sb in the picture keep sb on the edge of their chair keep sb on the edge of their seat keep sb on their toes

keep sb posted keep sb sweet keep sb/sth on a tight rein

keep sth dark keep sth under your hat

keep sth/sb at bay keep tabs on sth/sb keep the ball rolling: see set/start the ball rolling keep the home fires burning keep the wolf from the door keep track keep up appearances keep up with the Joneses keep your chin up: see Chin up!

keep your cool keep your eye in: see get your eye in keep your eye on the ball keep your finger on the pulse: see have your finger on the

keep your fingers crossed

Keep your hair on! keep your hand in keep your hands clean keep your head

keep your head above water

keep your head down keep your mouth shut keep your nose clean keep your nose out of sth keep your nose to the grindstone keep your own counsel Keep your pecker up! keep your powder dry Keep your shirt on!

keep your/an eye on sth/sb keep your/both feet on the ground

keep yourself to yourself keep/leave sb in the dark: see be in the dark keep/play your cards close to your chest keep/stay in touch: see be in touch keep/stay one step ahead: see be one step ahead Why keep a dog and bark yourself? You can't keep a good man/woman down.

KEEPER

not be sb's keeper not be your brother's keeper

KEEPERS

Finders keepers (losers weepers).

KEEPING

in keeping with sth out of keeping with sth: see in keeping with sth

KEEPS An apple a day keeps the doctor away. for keeps play for keeps KEG

a powder keg

KEN be beyond sb's ken

a kept man/woman

KERB-CRAWLER a kerb-crawler

KETTLE

a fine/pretty kettle of fish be another/a different kettle of fish

the pot calling the kettle black KEY hold the key under lock and key

KIBOSH put the kibosh on sth

KICK

a kick in the teeth a kick up the arse/backside for a kick-off

get a kick out of sth/doing sth kick against the pricks kick over the traces kick sb in the teeth; see a kick in the teeth kick sh upstairs kick sb when they're down kick (sb's) ass kick (sb's) butt kick the bucket kick the habit kick up a fuss/row/stink kick up a stink kick up your heels kick your heels kick yourself KICKING be alive and kicking

KICKS

for kicks KID

a latchkey child/kid be like a kid in a candy store handle/treat sb with kid gloves

the new kid on the block

KIDS

kids' stuff KILL

be dressed to kill go (in) for the kill If looks could kill ... kill or cure kill sb with kindness kill the clock kill the fatted calf kill the goose that lays the golden egg

kill time

kill two birds with one stone move in for the kill

KILLED Curiosity killed the cat.

KILLING make a killing

KILTER out of kilter

KIN kith and kin

KIND be one of a kind be two of a kind not be the marrying kind You have to be cruel to be kind. KINDLY

not take kindly to sth KINDNESS

kill sh with kindness

the milk of human kindness KING

a king's ransom king of the castle king of the hill live like a king turn king's/queen's evidence

KINGDOM

blast/blow sb/sth to kingdom come till/until kingdom come

KINKS

iron out the kinks KISS

give sb the kiss of life kiss and make up kiss and tell kiss-and-tell: see kiss and tell

Kiss my arse! kiss (sb's) ass kiss/lick sb's arse

kiss/say/wave goodbye to sth the kiss of death

KISSING

a kissing cousin

the whole (kit and) caboodle KITCHEN

everything but the kitchen

If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.

kitchen-sink

KITE

be as high as a kite Go fly a kite! kite-flying

KITH

kith and kin KITTEN a sex kitten

KITTENS have kittens

KITTY-CORNER kitty-corner

KITTY-CORNERED

kitty-cornered: see kittycorner

KNEE

at your mother's knee be knee-deep in sth

be knee-high to a grasshopper on bended knee/knees put sb over your knee

KNEES

be the bee's knees bring sb/sth to their knees on bended knee/knees weak at the knees

KNELL

sound/toll the death knell the death knell: see sound/toll the death knell

KNICKERS

get your knickers in a knot get your knickers in a twist

KNIFE see also KNIVES a turn/twist of the knife: see turn/twist the knife cut/go through sth like a (hot) knife through butter go under the knife have your knife into sb on a knife-edge put/stick the knife in turn/twist the knife under the knife; see go under the knife you could cut the atmosphere with a knife

KNIGHT

a knight in shining armor a knight in shining armour a white knight

KNIT

knit your brows KNITTING

stick to your knitting

KNIVES

the knives are out

KNOBS with (brass) knobs on

KNOCK see also KNOCKED,

KNOCKING, KNOCKED beat/knock the (living) daylights out of sb beat/knock the tar out of sb blow/knock your socks off knock-down-drag-out Knock it off! knock (on) wood knock sb for six knock sb off their pedestal: see put sb on a pedestal knock sb off their perch knock sb sideways knock sh's block off knock (some) sense into sh knock spots off sb/sth knock sth on the head knock the bottom out of sth knock the stuffing out of sb knock them/'em dead knock/lick sth/sb into shape knock/throw sb for a loop take a knock

KNOCK-SHOP

a knock-shop: see a knocking shon

KNOCKED

You could have knocked me down/over with a feather! KNOCKING

a knocking shop KNOCKS

the school of hard knocks

KNOT

a Gordian knot cut the Gordian knot: see a Gordian knot get your knickers in a knot

tie the knot KNOTS

at a rate of knots tie yourself (up) in knots KNOTTED

Get knotted!

KNOW see also KNOWS

a know-all

a know-it-all: see a know-all

be in the know

better the devil you know (than the devil you don't) know a thing or two know no bounds know sb through and through know sth backwards know sth backwards and forwards know sth inside out

know sth like the back of your hand

know the ropes: see show sb the ropes know the score know what's what know where you stand know your onions

know your place know your stuff know/learn sth (off) by heart not know beans about sth not know if/whether you are coming or going not know sb from Adam not know the first thing about not know the half of it not know the meaning of the word

not know what hit you not know where to put yourself not know whether to laugh or not know which way to turn not know your arse from your elbow the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing (Well) what do you know! What you don't know won't hurt you. wouldn't know sth if it hit you in the face wouldn't know sth if you fell over one KNOWS

before sh knows what hit them: see not know what hit for all sb knows if sb knows what's good for them

KNUCKLE

a knuckle sandwich be near the knuckle

KNUCKLES

a rap across/on/over the knuckles

rap sb's knuckles; see a rap across/on/over the knuckles LA-DI-DA

la-di-da: see lah-di-dah

LABOUR

a labour of love

LAD see also LADS a Jack the Lad

LADDER

at the bottom of the ladder: see at the top of the ladder at the top of the ladder the [first/highest/next etc.] rung on the ladder

LADS

one of the lads

LADY

a bag lady a lady-killer

It's not over until the fat lady sings.

Lady Bountiful

Lady Muck

LAGER

a lager lout LAH-DI-DAH

lah-di-dah

LAID-BACK

laid-back

LAISSEZ-FAIRE

laissez-faire

laissez-faire: see laissez-faire laissez-faire

laissez-faire: see laissez-faire LAKE

Go jump in a/the lake!

LAM

on the lam

LAMB

be as gentle as a lamb I might as well be hanged/hung for a sheep as a

lamb.

in two shakes (of a lamb's tail)

like a lamb

like a lamb to the slaughter mutton dressed (up) as lamb

LAME

a lame duck

lame-duck: see a lame duck

LAND

a never-never land be in the land of nod be in the land of the living

do a land-office business find out/see how the land lies land on your feet land/sock sb one

live in cloud-cuckoo land live off the fat of the land the land of milk and honey the lay of the land: see find out/see how the land lies the lie of the land: see find out/see how the land lies

the promised land

LANDSCAPE

a blot on the landscape

LANE

life in the fast lane take a stroll/trip down memory lane

LANGUAGE

speak/talk the same language LAP

be in the lap of the gods drop/fall into your lap in the lap of luxury

LARD-ARSE

a lard-arse

LARGE

as large as life be writ large by and large loom large

LARGER

be larger than life

LARK

be up with the lark

LARRY

be as happy as Larry/a sandboy

LAST

a last hurrah

be on its last legs be on your last legs

be the last word in sth every last man (of us/them)

Famous last words.

have heard/seen the last of sb/sth

have the final/last word

have the last laugh

last but not least

last-ditch last-gasp

the final/last straw

the last gasp of sth the last of the big spenders

LASTED

It was fun while it lasted.

LATCHKEY

a latchkey child/kid

LATE

Better late than never. late in the day too little, too late

LATHER

be in a lather get (yourself) in/into a lather:

see be in a lather

LAUGH a belly laugh

be a laugh a minute Don't make me laugh.

have the last laugh laugh in sb's face laugh like a drain laugh sth/sb out of court

not know whether to laugh or cry

LAUGHING

a laughing stock be laughing all the way to the

be laughing on the other side of your face

be laughing out of the other side of your mouth be laughing up your sleeve be no laughing matter

bust a gut (laughing) split your sides (laughing)

LAUGHS

not be a barrel of laughs not be a bundle of laughs

LAUGHTER Laughter is the best medicine.

LAUNDRY

a laundry list air your dirty laundry/linen in public wash your dirty laundry/linen in public

LAURELS

look to your laurels rest on your laurels

LAW

be a law unto yourself find yourself on the wrong side of the law get on the wrong side of the law lay down the law Murphy's law Parkinson's law Possession is nine-tenths of the law sb's word is law Sod's Law take the law into your own the law of averages the law of the jungle the letter of the law the long arm of the law

there's no law against

get/lay your hands on sth

sth/doing sth

LAY

lay a finger on sb/sth lay a hand on sb lay an egg lay bare sth lay down the law lay down your life lay it on the line lay it on thick lay it on with a trowel lay sb low lay sth at sb's door lay the ghost of sth/sb (to rest) lay/put a guilt trip on sb lay/put sth on the line: see be on the line lay/put your cards on the table

lay/set eves on sb/sth the lay of the land: see find out/see how the land lies

LAYS

kill the goose that lays the golden egg

LEAD

go down like a lead balloon have lead in your pencil: see put lead in your pencil have/lead/live a charmed life lead sb a (merry) dance lead shastray lead sb by the nose lead sb down the garden path lead sb up the garden path lead the field lead/live the life of Rilev put lead in your pencil swing the lead You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink).

LEADING

a leading light the blind leading the blind LEADS

one thing leads to another

LEAF

a fig leaf shake like a leaf take a leaf out of sb's book turn over a new leaf

LEAGUE

be out of sb's league bush league not in the same league the Ivy League

LEAK

take a leak

IFAN

bend/lean over backwards to do sth

a quantum leap get/jump/leap on the bandwagon Look before you leap.

LEAPS

by/in leaps and bounds

LEARN

know/learn sth (off) by heart learn sth down pat learn sth off pat learn your lesson Live and learn. You live and learn.

give sb a new lease of life give sb a new lease on life give sth a new lease of life

LEASH

be straining at the leash have/keep sb on a short/tight leash

LEAST

last but not least Least said, soonest mended. take the line/path of least resistance

LEATHER be as tough as shoe leather go hell for leather LEAVE see also LEFT fly/leave the nest French leave have taken leave of your senses I can take it or leave it. I must/I'll love you and leave keep/leave sb in the dark: see be in the dark leave a bad taste in your mouth leave a lot to be desired leave no stone unturned leave sb cold leave sb high and dry leave sb in the lurch leave sb out in the cold leave sb to sb's tender mercies leave sb to stew leave sb to the wolves leave sb to their own devices leave sb/sth standing leave sth in sb's hands: see be in sb's hands leave the field clear for sb leave well alone leave well enough alone leave your/its mark on sb/sth

IFFT

a left-handed compliment be left hanging (in the air/in be left holding the baby be left holding the bag be left on the sidelines: see stay on the sidelines be out in left field hang a left/right left and right left, right and centre right and left the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing

leave/let well alone

home/leave)

Take it or leave it.

leave/let well enough alone

pick up your marbles (and go

Break a leg! cost (sb) an arm and a leg get a leg in the door get a leg up: see give sb a leg up get your leg over give sb a leg up have a leg up on sb not have a leg to stand on pull sh's leg vour feet Pull the other leg/one (it's got LETTER bells on)! Shake a leg! Show a leg! LEGS be on its last legs be on your last legs can talk the legs off an iron pot LETTERS have legs with your tail between your LEVEL legs your sea legs LEISURE Marry in haste, repent at LIBERTIES leisure. LEND lend an ear LIBERTY lend (sb) a hand LENGTH hold/keep sb at arm's length LENGTHS LICENSE go to any lengths to do sth: see go to great lengths to do money sth go to great lengths to do sth LEOPARD A leopard can't/doesn't change its spots. LESSER a lesser evil the lesser of two evils LESSON learn your lesson teach sb a lesson LET get/let sb off the hook LICKING leave/let well alone leave/let well enough alone LID Let bygones be bygones. flip your lid let fly (sth) let it all hang out let it/her rip let it/things slide let nature take its course let off steam let rip a white lie let sb stew let sleeping dogs lie let slip sth let sth ride let sth speak for lie doggo itself/themselves: see speak for itself/themselves lie low let the cat out of the bag let the chips fall where they live a lie (let) the devil take the hindmost let the genie out of the bottle let the side down let your hair down let yourself go LIES

live and let live

a pack of lies

not let the grass grow under a tissue of lies find out/see how the land lies Therein lies the rub a dead letter time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's a Dear John letter hands) a French letter LIFE a poison-pen letter a fact of life the letter of the law a fight for life: see be fighting to the letter for your life a life-saver a man of letters a matter of life and/or death a shelf life a level playing field a slice of life a walk of life be level pegging be on the level as big as life do vour level best as large as life be (all) part of life's rich take liberties pageant/tapestry be another/one of life's great take the liberty of doing sth mysteries be bigger than life be a licence to print money be fighting for your life be larger than life be the life and soul of the be a license to print money: see be a licence to print party be the life of the party poetic license be the light of sb's life LICK see also LICKING beat sb to within an inch of give sth a lick and a promise their life kiss/lick sb's arse breathe (new) life into sth knock/lick sth/sb into shape can't do sth to save your life Lick my arse! can't for the life of me lick sb's boots depart this life lick your lips frighten/scare the life out of lick your wounds sb LICKETY-SPLIT Get a life! lickety-split give sb a new lease of life give sb a new lease on life take a licking give sb the kiss of life give sth a new lease of life blow/take the lid off sth give your life hang/hold on (to sth/sb) for keep a lid on sth dear life lift the lid on sth have the time of your life have/lead/live a charmed Put a lid on it! put the lid on sth life LIE see also LYING, LIES It's a dog's life. It's/That's the story of my life. be/lie at the bottom of sth lay down your life couldn't lie straight in bed lead/live the life of Riley give the lie to sth life in the fast lane let sleeping dogs lie life in the raw life is cheap lie down on the job Life is just a bowl of cherries. life's too short lie through your teeth low life Not on your life! the lie of the land: see find place/put your life in sb's out/see how the land lies hands: see your life is in sb's You made your bed (now lie in hands put your life on the line You've made your bed (and risk life and limb you'll have to lie in it). see life set sb up for life

Such is life.

take your life in/into your hands That's life. the bane of your life the change of life the facts of life the love of your life the staff of life There's life in the old dog yet. This is the life! Variety is the spice of life. you can bet your life/your bottom dollar your life is in sb's hands LIFETIME once in a lifetime once-in-a-lifetime: see once in a lifetime Why break the habit of a lifetime? LIFT lift the lid on sth not lift a finger LIGHT see also LIGHTS a guiding light/spirit a leading light all is sweetness and light: see be all sweetness and light be all sweetness and light be as light as a feather be light years away be light years away from sth be the light of sb's life be/feel light-headed be/go out like a light bring sth to light come to light: see bring sth to get the green light; see give sb/sth the green light give sb/sth the green light hide your light under a bushel in light of sth in the cold light of day in the light of sth light a fire under sb light at the end of the tunnel light dawns light relief light your fire make light of sth make light work of sth/doing see the light see the light (of day) shed/throw light on sth trip the light fantastic LIGHTEN lighten sb's/the load LIGHTNING a lightning rod as quick as lightning Lightning does not strike like greased lightning

LIGHTS have/see your name in lights punch sb's lights out the bright lights The lights are on but nobody's/no-one's home. be like a bear with a sore head be like a bull in a china shop be like a cat on a hot tin roof be like a child in a sweetshop be like a deer/rabbit caught in the headlights be like a fish out of water be like a kid in a candy store be like a red rag to a bull be like a spare prick at a wedding be (like) chalk and cheese be like Fort Knox be like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic be like ships that pass in the night be like watching grass grow be like watching paint dry be of like/one mind [fight/run/work etc.] like hell How do you like them apples! like a bat out of hell like a bull at a gate like a bump on a log like a chicken with its head cut off like a dream like a headless chicken like a lamb like a lamb to the slaughter like a shot like blue blazes like clockwork like crazy like death (warmed over) like death (warmed up) like gangbusters like gold like gold dust like greased lightning like it or lump it like mad like moths to a flame like nobody's business like nothing on earth like the clappers like there's no tomorrow tell it like it is LIKELY A likely story. LILY gild the lily LILY-LIVERED

lily-livered

LILY-WHITE

lily-white

LIMB be out on a limb go out on a limb risk life and limb tear sb limb from limb LIMELIGHT be in the limelight steal the limelight: see be in the limelight The sky's the limit. LIMITS off limits LIMP-WRISTED limp-wristed LINE see also LINES a fine/thin line all along the line all the way down the line be in line for sth be in sb's line be in the firing line be in the front line be on the firing line be on the line be out of line be the end of the line/road cross the line down the line draw a line under sth draw the line draw the line at sth drop sb a line fall for sb hook, line and fall for sth hook, line and sinker fall in/into line feed sb a line get a line on sb/sth have a line on sb/sth: see get a line on sb/sth in the line of duty in the line of fire lay it on the line lay/put sth on the line: see be on the line line sb's pockets line your (own) pockets out of the firing line: see be in the firing line put your life on the line put your neck on the line reach the end of the line/road: see be the end of the line/road sb's ass is on the line sb's bottom line sb's butt is on the line sign on the dotted line somewhere along the line step out of line take the line/path of least resistance

the bottom line

toe/tow the line tread a fine/thin line between sth: see a fine/thin line

air your dirty laundry/linen in public

wash your dirty laundry/linen in public

LINES

along the lines of sth along those lines along/on the same lines: see along the lines of sth be on the right lines get your lines/wires crossed

Hard lines. read between the lines

the battle lines are drawn LINING

Every cloud has a silver lining.

LINK

a weak link (in the chain) LION beard the lion in their den

the lion's share

LIONS

feed/throw sb to the lions the lions' den

LIP

a stiff upper lip curl your lip give/pay lip service to sth

be on everyone's lips lick your lips My lips are sealed.

Read my lips!

LIQUID a liquid lunch liquid refreshment

LIQUOR

can't hold their drink/liquor

LIST

a hit list

a laundry list a list as long as your arm

a wish list be on sb's shit list

LISTEN

listen with half an ear: see have half an ear on sth

LITMUS

a litmus test LITTLE

A little bird told me (so).

a little horror a (little) tin god a nice little earner Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow. no/little love lost between sb too little, too late

twist/wrap sb around/round your little finger

LIVE see also LIVES, LIVED, LIVING

a live wire

be/live below the breadline: see he/live on the breadline he/live in a dream world be/live on the breadline go live have/lead/live a charmed life lead/live the life of Riley

live a lie

live and breathe sth

Live and learn. live and let live live by/on your wits live (from) hand to mouth live high off/on the hog live in a fool's paradise live in cloud-cuckoo land live in each other's pockets live in hope live in sin

live it up live like a king live off the backs of sb live off the fat of the land live on the edge live on your nerves live to a ripe old age live to fight another day live to tell the tale Man cannot live by bread alone.

never live sth down People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones).

You live and learn.

LIVED

you haven't lived LIVELY

Look lively!

LIVES

how the other half lives LIVING

a living death a living hell

be in the land of the living be (living) on another planet be the living end beat/knock the (living) daylights out of sb

frighten/scare the (living) daylights out of sb

in/within living memory living on borrowed time

Pardon me for breathing/living!

LIZARD

a lounge lizard

LO

lo and behold

LOAD

be a load/weight off your mind

Get a load of that! lighten sb's/the load shoot your load

LOADED

loaded for bear the dice are loaded against sb

Half a loaf is better than none

Use your loaf.

LOCK

lock horns

lock, stock, and barrel under lock and key

LOCKER

Davy Jones's locker locker-room

LODE

a mother lode of sth

LOG be as easy as falling off a log be as easy as rolling off a log like a bump on a log sleep like a log/top LOGGERHEADS

be at loggerheads LOINS

gird (up) your loins the fruit of your loins

a (lone) voice in the wilderness

a lone wolf plough a lone/lonely furrow plough a lone/lonely furrow LONG

a face as long as a wet week

a list as long as your arm a long face

a long haul a long shot

be as honest as the day (is

be long in the tooth go a long way

go back a long way have come a long way

How long is a piece of string? in the long/medium/short in the long/short run in/over the long haul: see a long haul It's a long story.

long on sth and short on sth Long time no see.

long-winded

not be long for this world not by a long chalk not by a long shot

So long.

take a long, hard look at sth take the long view

the long and the short of it

the long arm of the law think long and hard to cut a long story short to make a long story short

LOOK

get a look in give/shoot sb a dirty look Look before you leap. look daggers at sb look down your nose at sth/sb look like a drowned rat look like something the cat brought/dragged in look like thunder Look lively! look on the bright side look right/straight through look sb in the eve/eves look sb in the face Look sharp! look the other way look the part

Look who's talking! look/feel (like) a million

Look what the cat's dragged

look to your laurels

look/feel (like) a million dollars

not be much to look at not look a gift horse in the mouth take a long, hard look at sth

LOOKING

be like looking for a needle in a haystack

LOOKS

If looks could kill ...

LOOM

loom large

LOOP

be in the loop be out of the loop: see be in the

knock/throw sb for a loop

LOOSE

a loose cannon all hell breaks loose be at a loose end be at loose ends be on the loose cut loose cut loose sb/sth: see cut loose Hang loose! have a screw loose loose ends play fast and loose with sth/sb

LOOSEN

loosen the purse strings: see hold the purse strings loosen your tongue loosen/relax the reins: see tighten the reins

LORD

as drunk as a lord/skunk lord it over sb your lord and master

LORRY

off the back of a lorry LOSE see also LOSING, LOST have no time to lose: see

There's no time to lose.

lose face

lose ground: see gain ground lose heart

lose sight of sth

lose the plot lose touch: see be in touch

lose track: see keep track lose your cool lose your edge lose your grip lose your head lose your heart to sb lose your marbles lose your mind lose your rag lose your shirt: see put your shirt on sth lose your touch not lose sleep over sth There's no time to lose.

what you lose on the swings, you gain on the roundabouts You win some, you lose some.

LOSERS

Finders keepers (losers weepers).

LOSING

fight a losing battle

LOSS

be a dead loss

be at a loss LOSSES

cut your losses a lost cause

be lost for words Get lost! like a lost soul lost in the mists of time lost in the shuffle make up for lost time

no/little love lost between sb

a fat lot of good/use a job lot be all over the lot be the best of a bad bunch/ lot cast your lot with sb have a lot going for you have a lot of time for sb/sth have a lot to answer for have a lot/enough on your plate leave a lot to be desired throw in your lot with sb

LOUD

For crying out loud! loud and clear loud-mouthed

LOUDER

Actions speak louder than words.

LOUNGE

a lounge lizard LOUT

a lager lout LOVE

a labor of love: see a labour of love

a labour of love a love child

a love-in

a love nest

All's fair in love and war. be head over heels (in love)

cupboard love

fall head over heels (in love): see be head over heels (in

I must/I'll love you and leave love handles

love-making: see make love love sb/sth to bits

make love

no/little love lost between sh not for love nor/or money puppy love

the love of your life

tough love

a low ebb hunt/search high and low keep a low profile lay sb low lie low low-end low-key

low life the low man on the totem pole

drop/lower your guard lower the boom

lower the tone lower your sights LOWEST

Sarcasm is the lowest form of the lowest common denominator

the lowest of the low

LUCK

a stroke of luck and one (more) for luck be down on your luck be in luck

be out of luck: see be in luck

have the devil's own luck have the luck of the devil

Just my luck! more by luck than judgement No such luck! push your luck take pot luck the luck of the draw try your luck Your luck's in!

LUCKY

get lucky strike it lucky strike lucky thank your lucky stars You should be so lucky!

lull sb into a false sense of security

LUMP

bring a lump to your throat like it or lump it

LUMPS

take your lumps

LUNCH

a liquid lunch be out to lunch There's no such thing as a free lunch.

LUNGS

have a [fine/good etc.] pair of

LURCH

leave sb in the lurch LURGY

the dreaded lurgy LUXURY

in the lap of luxury

IVING

not take sth lying down

LYRICAL

wax lyrical

MACHINE

a cog in the machine/wheel MAD

he as mad as a hatter be as mad as a hornet be as mad as a March hare be barking mad be fighting mad be hopping mad be stark raving mad be stark staring mad Don't get mad, get even. like mad be made for sb/sth have (got) it made I'm not made of money! see what sb is made of: see show (sb) what you are made show (sb) what you are made

MADE

They broke the mould when they made sb/sth.

You made your bed (now lie in

You've made your bed (and you'll have to lie in it).

MADNESS

there's a method to sb's madness there's method in sb's madness

MAGIC

a magic moment a magic touch a magic wand What's the magic word?

work like magic work your/its magic

MAID

an old maid MAIL

snail mail MAIN

be sb's main squeeze have an eye for/on the main chance in the main

the main drag (with) might and main

MAJORITY the silent majority

MAKE see also MADE, MAKES, MAKING

be make or break for sb/sth: see make or break sth be on the make blow/make a hole in sth can't make head nor/or tail of eth Do you want to make something of it? do/make (all) the running Don't make me laugh. have/make a stab at sth/doing

sth

hit/make the headlines kiss and make up make a bad/poor fist of sth/doing sth: see make a good fist of sth/doing sth make a beeline for sb/sth make a big play of sth make a big thing (out) of sth make a clean breast of it make a [day/night/weekend etc.l of it make a dent in sth make a fast/quick buck make a federal case (out) of

make a fool of yourself make a go of sth make a good fist of sth/doing make (a) great play of sth make a killing make a man (out) of sb make a martyr of yourself make a meal (out) of sth make a mental note make a mockery of sth make a monkey (out) of sb make a mountain out of a molehill make a move make a move on sb make a name for yourself make a noise about sth make a pass at sb make a pig of yourself make a pig's ear of sth/doing make a pitch for sth

make a martyr of sb

make a play for sb make a play for sth make a production (out) of

make a rod for your own back make a run for it make a song and dance about sth/doing sth

make a spectacle of yourself make a splash make a stand

make a virtue of necessity make all the difference make (all) the right noises make an ass of yourself make an exhibition of

vourself make an honest woman of sb make as if to do sth make believe make (both) ends meet make common cause with sb make do make do and mend make easy meat of sth/sb: see be easy meat make eyes at sb make free with sth make fun of sb/sth make (funny) faces make good on sth make hard work of sth/doing make hav while the sun shines make headway make heavy weather of sth/doing sth

make it make it big make (it) good Make it snappy! make it up to sb make it with sb make light of sth make light work of sth/doing

make love

make mincemeat of sh make no bones about sth make noises make-or-break: see make or break sth make or break sth make (out) a case for sth/doing sth make sb eat their words: see have to eat your words make sb feel small make sb quake in their boots: see be quaking in your boots make sb sit up and take notice make sb's blood boil make sb's blood curdle make sb's blood run cold make sb's day make sb's flesh crawl/creep make (sb's) hackles rise make sh's hair curl make sb's hair stand on end make sb's mouth water make sh's skin crawl make sb's toes curl make sheep's eyes at sb make short work of sth make sth seem like a picnic make sth up out of whole make sth worth your while: see be worth your while make the best of a bad job make the best of sth make the fur fly: see the fur make the grade make the most of sth make the rounds make tracks make up for lost time make up your mind make waves make whoopee make your name make your presence felt make your/a mark make yourself at home make yourself scarce make/pull a face make/raise a stink put the make on sb put two and two together and get/make five: see put two and two together to make a long story short You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink). You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. You can't make an omelette without breaking eggs. You can't make bricks without straw.

MAKER

meet your maker

MAKES

Absence makes the heart grow fonder. Practice makes perfect. That makes two of us.

what makes sb tick

MAKING

be a fathlete/star/writer etc.l in the making be a [crisis/disaster etc.] in the making be of your own making

be the making of sb MAKINGS

have (all) the makings of sth

MALICE

with malice aforethought

MAMA

a mama's boy

MAN see also MEN a dirty old man

a family man

a girl/man/person Friday

a hatchet man

a hit man

a kept man/woman

a man-about-town

a man-eater

a man for all seasons

a man of God

a man of his word

a man of letters

a man of many parts

a man of straw

a man of the cloth

A man's got to do what a man's got to do.

a man's man

a man/woman after your own

a man/woman of means

a man/woman of the world

a marked man

a medallion man

a New Man

a poor man's sb/sth

a Renaissance man

a self-made man

a straw man

a yes man

an iron man

Are you a man or a mouse?

as one man

be a fine figure of a man/woman be man enough to do sth

be no good/use to man or beast

be your own

man/woman/person

every last man (of us/them) every man jack (of us/them)

go to see a man about a dog

It's every man for himself. like a man/woman possessed make a man (out) of sb man and boy

Man cannot live by bread alone.

man-to-man

man's best friend May the best man win.

One man's meat is another man's poison.

sb's right-hand man/woman the grand old man of sth

the low man on the totem pole the man of the moment the man/woman on the

Clapham omnibus

the man/woman/person in the street

the man/woman/sth of your

dreams

the odd man/one out the thinking man's/woman's crumpet

to a man

You can't keep a good man/woman down.

MANGER

a dog in the manger MANNA

manna from heaven

MANNER

(as) to the manner born

MANY

in so many words

many moons ago There's many a slip twixt cup and lin too many chiefs (and not enough Indians) Too many cooks (spoil the broth).

MAP

[blow/bomb/wipe etc.] sth/swh off the map put swh/sth/sb on the map

MARBLES

have all your marbles: see lose your marbles lose your marbles pick up your marbles (and go home/leave)

MARCH

be as mad as a March hare

be on the march march to a different drummer march to a different tune steal a march on sb/sth

MARCHING

get your marching orders: see give sb their marching orders give sb their marching orders

MARE

a mare's nest

Shank's mare: see Shanks's

MARGINS

on the margins of sth

MARINES

(Go) tell it/that to the marines.

MARK

a black mark

a question mark over sth be an easy mark be close to the mark be first/quickest off the mark: see be quick off the mark

be near the mark be off the mark

be quick off the mark be slow off the mark be up to the mark be wide of the mark get off the mark hit the mark hit the sth mark

leave your/its mark on sb/sth make your/a mark

mark time overstep the mark

(You) mark my words.

MARKED a marked man

MARKET

a cattle market

a meat market be in the market for sth corner the market the bottom drops/falls out of

the market MARRIAGE

a marriage/match made in a shotgun marriage an open marriage

MARROW

be chilled to the bone/marrow be chilled/frozen to the marrow

chill sb to the bone/marrow MARRY marry beneath your station Marry in haste, repent at leisure

MARRYING

not be the marrying kind MARTYR

make a martyr of sb make a martyr of yourself MASK

sb's mask slips MAST

nail your colours to the mast MASTER

be your own master your lord and master sweep sth under the mat/rug

MATCH

a marriage/match made in heaven a shouting match

a slanging match be no match for sth/sb meet your match the whole shooting match

MATTER

a matter of life and/or death as a matter of course be a matter of opinion be a matter of record be no laughing matter be only a matter of time gray matter: see grey matter grey matter mind over matter

no matter no matter how you slice it the matter at hand the matter in hand

MATTERS

take matters into your own hands

MAX

to the max

MAY

be that as it may be that as it may come what may May the best man win. Well may you ask! You may well ask!

MCCOY

the real McCov MEAL

a meal ticket

a square meal make a meal (out) of sth

MEALY-MOUTHED mealy-mouthed MEAN

mean husiness

MEANING

not know the meaning of the word

MEANS

a man/woman of means a means to an end by fair means or foul cut your cloth according to your means The end justifies the means.

ways and means MEASURE

for good measure get/take the measure of sb/sth: see have the measure of sh/sth have the measure of sb/sth

MEAT

a meat market be dead meat

be easy meat

be meat and drink to sb be the meat in the sandwich make easy meat of sth/sb: see be easy meat

meat-and-potatoes: see the meat and potatoes meat and two veg One man's meat is another man's poison. the meat and potatoes your meat and two veg

MEDAL deserve a medal

MEDALLION

a medallion man MEDICINE

bitter medicine

give sb a dose/taste of their own medicine

Laughter is the best medicine. MEDIUM

a happy medium in the long/medium/short

term

MEDIUM-TERM long-/short-/medium-term: see in the long/medium/short

term

MEET make (both) ends meet meet a sticky end meet sb halfway meet your maker meet your match meet your Waterloo meet/see sb in the flesh Never the twain shall meet.

MEETING

a meeting of minds

MEETS

There is more to sth/sb than meets the eye.

MELT

butter wouldn't melt in sb's mouth melt in the/your mouth

MELTING a melting pot

MEMBER

be a card-carrying member of be a fully paid-up member of sth

MEMORY

commit sth to memory have a memory like an elephant have a memory/mind like a sieve in/within living memory jog your memory take a stroll/trip down

be all things to all men

memory lane

Dead men tell no tales. separate/sort out the men from the boys the men in grey suits the men in white coats

MEND

he on the mend change/mend your ways make do and mend mend (your) fences

MENDED

Least said, soonest mended. MENTAL go mental

make a mental note

MENTALITY

a siege mentality MERCHANT

a merchant of doom MERCIES be grateful/thankful for small

leave sb to sb's tender mercies

MERCY

be at the mercy of sth/sb throw yourself on/upon sb's mercy

MERRIER

The more the merrier.

MERRY

lead sb a (merry) dance play (merry) hell play (merry) hell with sth

MESS

a mess of sth MESSAGE

get the message

MESSENGER

shoot the messenger MESSING

and no messing no messing

METHOD

there's a method to sh's madness

there's method in sb's madness

METHUSELAH be as old as Methuselah

METTLE be on your mettle

prove/show your mettle MICE

be as poor as church mice When/While the cat's away (the mice will play).

MICK

take the mick/mickey

MICKEY

Mickey-Mouse take the mick/mickey

MICKEY-TAKING

mickey-taking: see take the mick/mickey

MICROSCOPE

put sth under the microscope MIDAIR

be left hanging (in the air/in midair)

MIDAS

the Midas touch

MIDDLE

a middle-aged spread be caught in the middle middle-of-the-road (out) in the middle of nowhere piggy in the middle play both ends against the middle

the middle ground

MIDDLING

fair to middling MIDNIGHT burn the midnight oil

MIGHT

might is right

might makes right (with) might and main

MIGHTIER

The pen is mightier than the sword.

MIGHTY

Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow. high and mighty

the high and mighty: see high and mighty

MILE

a mile off A miss is as good as a mile. by a mile Give sb an inch and they'll take a mile. go the extra mile run a mile stand/stick out a mile

a mile a minute

MILES

be miles away by miles: see by a mile

It's no good/use crying over spilt milk. the land of milk and honey the milk of human kindness There's no point crying over spilt milk.

MILL

(all) grist to the mill go through the mill grist for your mill put sb through the mill

MILLION

be one in a million look/feel (like) a million bucks look/feel (like) a million dollars

Thanks a million!

MILLION-DOLLAR

the million-dollar question MILLSTONE

a millstone around your neck MINCE

not mince (your) words

MINCEMEAT

make mincemeat of sh MIND see also MINDS

a frame of mind at the back of your mind be a load/weight off your mind be all in the/your mind be [bored/scared/worried etc.]

out of your mind: see be out of your mind with [boredom/fear/worry etc.]

be of like/one mind be of the same mind be out of your mind be out of your mind with [boredom/fear/worry etc.] bear/keep sth in mind blow your mind

bring sth/sb to mind cast your mind back come/spring to mind

cross your mind Do you mind! eve/mind candy get your mind around sth give sb a piece of your mind go out of your mind: see be out of your mind have a good mind to do sth have a memory/mind like a sieve have a mind like a steel trap have a mind of its own have a one-track mind have half a mind to do sth have sth in mind have your mind on sth have/keep an open mind in your mind's eye lose your mind make up your mind mind-blowing: see blow your mind mind-boggling: see The mind boggles. mind over matter mind-reader: see read sb's mind mind the store Mind your own business! mind/watch your p's and q's

Mind/Watch your step. on sb's mind Out of sight, out of mind.

pissed out of your head/mind/skull

prey on sb's mind

put sb in mind of sb/sth put your mind to it put/set sb's mind at rest read sb's mind slip your mind speak your mind sticks in the/your mind take sb's mind off sth/sb The mind boggles. to my mind your mind goes blank your mind is a blank: see your mind goes blank your mind is on sth: see have your mind on sth MINDED bloody minded

a meeting of minds be in/of two minds Great minds (think alike).

MINDS

a mine of information Your guess is as good as mine.

MINT

be in mint condition MINTING

be minting it be minting money MINUTE

a mile a minute be a laugh a minute not have a minute to call your

the minute sb's back is turned: see when/while sb's back is turned

There's one born every minute

MIRACLE-WORKER

a miracle-worker: see perform/work miracles MIRACLES

perform/work miracles

MIRE drag sb's name through the

mire/mud MIRRORS smoke and mirrors

MISCHIEF do yourself a mischief

MISERY

a misery guts Misery loves company. put sb out of their misery put sth/sb out of their misery

MISS

A miss is as good as a mile. a near miss give 4th a miss hit and/or miss miss the boat miss the point not miss a trick

MISSES

sb's heart misses/skips a beat MISSING

without missing a beat MISSION

mission accomplished MISSIONARY

the missionary position

lost in the mists of time

mix business with pleasure mix it mix it up pick and mix

MIXED

a mixed bag be a mixed blessing have mixed feelings about sth with mixed feelings: see have mixed feelings about sth

MO

Half/Just a mo. Hang on a mo.

MOCKERS put the mockers on sth

make a mockery of sth

MODEL be a/the model of sth

MODERATION Moderation in all things.

MODESTY in all modesty

MOHAMMED If Mohammed will not go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mohammed.

MOLEHILL

make a mountain out of a molehill

MOMENT a magic moment

from one moment to the next in the heat of the moment on the spur of the moment the man of the moment the moment of truth

MOMENTS have your/its moments

MONDAY

a Monday morning quarterback that Monday morning

feeling MONEY

A fool and his money are soon parted.

a money-spinner

be a licence to print money be a license to print money: see be a licence to print money be coining money be in the money be minting money be money for jam be money for old rope be (right) on the money easy money for my money funny money give sb a run for their money have a good run for your money have money to burn hush money I'm not made of money! Money doesn't grow on trees. Money (is) no object. Money talks. monopoly money not for love nor/or money pin money pots of money put your money on sb/sth put your money where your mouth is ready cash/money see the colour of sb's money seed money spend money like water the smart money throw good money after bad throw money at sth throw (your) money around with money to burn: see have money to burn

You pays your money (and you takes your chances).

You pays your money (and you takes your choice).

MONKEY

a monkey on sb's back be cold enough to freeze the balls off a brass monkey: see brass monkey weather brass monkey weather I'll be a monkey's uncle! make a monkey (out) of sb monkey business not give a monkey's put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works

MONKEYS

be as funny as a barrel of monkeys be more fun than a barrel of monkeys If you pay peanuts, you get

monkeys. MONOPOLY

monopoly money not have a monopoly on sth

MONSTER

a Frankenstein's monster the green-eyed monster MONTH

not in a month of Sundays the flavor of the month: see the flavour of the month

the flavour of the month MONTY

the full monty MOON see also MOONS ask/cry for the moon

be over the moon once in a blue moon promise (sb) the moon reach for the moon/stars

MOONLIGHT

do a moonlight flit not be all moonlight and

MOONS

many moons ago

MOP

mop the floor with sb

MORE

bite off more than you can chew

have had more than your fair share of sth

It's more than my job's worth. more by accident than (by) design

more by luck than judgement More fool you!

More power to you!

More power to your elbow! more sth than you can shake a stick at

No more Mr Nice Guy.

That's more like it. The more fool you! The more the merrier.

There are plenty more where they/that came from. There is more to sth/sb than meets the eye. without further/more ado

MORNING

a Monday morning quarterback morning, noon, and night that Monday morning feeling the morning after (the night before)

MORTAL

shuffle off this mortal coil

MOST

make the most of sth

MOTHER a mother lode of sth

a mummy's/mother's boy an earth mother at your mother's knee be tied to your mother's apron strings

Mother Nature Necessity is the mother of invention.

Shall I be mother? the mother of all sth

MOTHS

like moths to a flame

MOTION

put/set sth in motion set the wheels in motion

MOTIONS

go through the motions

MOULD

be cast in a different mould: see be cast in the same mould be cast in the same mould break the mould They broke the mould when

they made sb/sth.

MOUNTAIN

a mountain to climb If Mohammed will not go to the mountain, the mountain must come to Mohammed. make a mountain out of a molehill

MOUNTAINS

move mountains

MOUSE see also MICE

a cat and mouse game: see play cat and mouse Are you a man or a mouse?

be as quiet as a mouse play cat and mouse

MOUTH see also MOUTHS

a big mouth a mouth to feed a/your smart mouth be all mouth be all mouth and (no) trousers be born with a silver spoon in your mouth be down in the mouth be laughing out of the other side of your mouth be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth butter wouldn't melt in sb's mouth by word of mouth foaming at the mouth

keep your mouth shut leave a bad taste in your mouth live (from) hand to mouth make sb's mouth water melt in the/your mouth mouth-watering: see make sb's mouth water not look a gift horse in the mouth put words in/into sb's mouth put your foot in your mouth put your money where your mouth is run off at the mouth sb's heart is in their mouth shoot your mouth off

Shut your face/gob/mouth/trap! speak with a plum in your mouth

(straight) from the horse's mouth

take the words out of sb's mouth

Wash your mouth out! MOUTHS

Out of the mouths of babes (and sucklings).

MOVABLE

a movable feast MOVE see also MOVED.

MOVES, MOVING

change/keep up/move with the times get a move on

make a move make a move on sb move down in the world move heaven and earth

move in for the kill move mountains move the goal move the goalposts move up in the world: see come/go down in the world Move/Shift your arse! move/step up a gear

not move a muscle

MOVED

the earth moved MOVER

a prime mover

MOVERS

the movers and shakers MOVES

as/when the spirit moves you

MOVIE a snuff movie

MOVING

the moving spirit

MR

Mr Big Mr Right

No more Mr Nice Guy. MUCH

be a bit much be much of a muchness

get a bit much: see be a bit much

How much do you want to bet?

I thought as much! much ado about nothing not be much cop not be much to look at not be much to shout about not be up to much not be up to much not have much going for you: see have a lot going for you not have much time for sb/sth: see have a lot of time for sb/sth set great/much store by sth

too much of a good thing

without so much as a by-yourleave

MUCHNESS

be much of a muchness

MUCK

as common as muck Lady Muck muck-raking treat sb like muck

Where there's muck, there's brass.

MIID

be as clear as mud drag sb's name through the mire/mud

Here's mud in your eye! mud-slinging: see sling/throw mud at sb

Mud sticks. sh's name is mud

sling/throw mud at sb MUDDY

muddy the waters

MUG a mug's game

MULE

be as stubborn as a mule MULTITUDE cover/hide a multitude of sins

MUM

Mum's the word.

MUMBO

mumbo jumbo MUMMY

a mummy's/mother's boy

MUNCHIES

get the munchies MURDER

get away with murder I could murder sth. scream bloody murder scream blue murder

MURMUR

without a murmur

MURPHY Murphy's law

MUSCLE not move a muscle

MUSCLES

flex your muscles

MUSIC

be music to sb's ears elevator music face the music

MUST

needs must

on no account must/should sb do sth

You must be joking!

MUSTARD

be as keen as mustard can't cut the mustard

MUSTER pass muster MUTTON

mutton dressed (up) as lamb MUTUAL

a mutual admiration society MY

My arse! My foot!

MYSTERIES

be another/one of life's great mysteries

NAIL

another nail in the coffin fight tooth and claw/nail hit the nail on the head nail-biting nail sb to the wall nail your colours to the mast

on the nail the final nail in the coffin

NAILS

be a bed of nails be as hard as nails be as tough as nails spit nails

NAKED

buck naked stark naked

NAME

a name to conjure with clear sh's name drag sb's name through the mire/mud give sth/sb a bad name have a bad name: see give sth/sb a bad name have sb's name on it have sb's name written all over it have/see your name in lights

I can't put a name to her/him. in all but name in name only in the name of sth make a name for yourself make your name name names name the day sb's name is mud take sb's name in vain

the name of the game you name it

NAMES

call sb names name names NAPPING

be caught napping

NARROW

a narrow escape the straight and narrow

NASTY

be a nasty piece of work cheap and nasty

NATIVE go native

NATURAL

die a natural death

natural-born

NATURE

answer the call of nature be (in) the nature of the beast let nature take its course

Mother Nature

NAVEL

gaze at/contemplate your navel navel-gazing: see gaze

at/contemplate your navel

NEAR

a near miss be near the bone be near the knuckle be near the mark close/near at hand so near and vet so far

NEAREST

your nearest and dearest NEARLY nearly fall off your chair nearly jump out of your skin

NECESSARY

a necessary evil NECESSITY

make a virtue of necessity Necessity is the mother of invention.

a millstone around your neck albatross around/round your neck

be a pain in the neck be dead from the neck up be up to your neck in sth breathe down sb's neck get it in the neck have the brass (neck) to do sth I'll wring your neck!

neck and neck neck of the woods

put your head/neck on the

put your neck on the line risk your neck save sb's neck

stick your neck out NEED

A friend in need (is a friend indeed). I don't need this!

in sb's hour of need need sth like (you need) a hole in the head

need your head examined/examining

need your head testing That's all you need!

NEEDLE

be like looking for a needle in a haystack

NEEDLES

be on pins and needles have pins and needles

NEEDS

needs must Who needs it/them? With friends like that, who needs enemies?

NEITHER

be neither one thing nor the other neither here nor there

NELLY

Not on your nelly! NERVE

hit/touch a (raw) nerve strain every nerve

NERVES

a battle/war of nerves be a bag of nerves be a bundle of nerves get/grate on sb's nerves live on your nerves nerves of steel

NEST

a hornet's nest

a love nest

a mare's nest

a nest egg

empty nest syndrome feather your own nest fly/leave the nest

a safety net cast your net wide/wider slip through the net grasp the nettle

NETWORK

the old-boy network

NEVER a never-never land

Better late than never. I've never [felt/heard/seen etc.1 sth in all my (born) days! It never rains but it pours.

It'll never fly.

It's now or never. never darken your door again never live sth down Never say die. Never the twain shall meet.

on the never-never Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me).

You'll never hear the end of it.

NEW

a new broom a New Man a whole new ball game be as clean as a new pin be as good as new be new to the game break new ground breathe (new) life into sth give sb a new lease of life give sb a new lease on life

give sth a new lease of life new blood

new pastures open (new) doors pastures new plumb new depths: see plumb the depths

That's a new one on me! the new kid on the block turn over a new leaf You can't teach an old dog new tricks.

NEWCASTLE

carry/take coals to Newcastle NEWS

be bad news

No news is good news. That's news to me. NEWT

as pissed as a newt NEXT

Cleanliness is next to Godliness.

from one moment to the

in next to no time

NICE

a nice little earner

be as nice as pie Nice one!

Nice work if you can get it! No more Mr Nice Guy.

NICK

in the nick of time

Old Nick

NICKEL

nickel-and-dime nickel and dime sb

NICKELS

Don't take any wooden nickels.

not have two nickels to rub together

NIGHT

a hen night/party a night (out) on the razzle: see be/go (out) on the razzle a night (out) on the tiles: see be/go out on the tiles a night (out) on the town: see be/go out on the town

a night owl a stag night/party

at all hours (of the day and night)

at all hours (of the night) be like ships that pass in the

in the dead of night/winter morning, noon, and night the morning after (the night till all hours (of the night): see at all hours (of the night)

NIGHTMARE

the nightmare/worst-case scenario

NINE

a nine/one/seven-day wonder

A stitch in time (saves nine). be on cloud nine go the whole nine yards nine times out of ten the whole nine yards

NINE-TENTHS

Possession is nine-tenths of the law.

NINEPINS

go down/fall like ninepins NINES

be dressed up to the nines MINETEEN

nineteen/ten to the dozen NIP

a nip and (a) tuck a nip in the air be nip and tuck nip sth in the bud

NITTY-GRITTY

the nitty-gritty

NO a no-show and no messing be a no-no be no great shakes be no joke be no match for sth/sb be no oil painting be no picnic be no picnic be no/nobody's fool be up to no good have no time for sb/sth: see have a lot of time for sb/sth have no time to lose: see There's no time to lose. in next to no time in no time (at all) in no uncertain terms no dice no end no end of sth: see no end no expense is spared no expense spared: see no expense is spared No fear!

nogo

no matter no matter how you slice it

no messing

No more Mr Nice Guy.

No news is good news. no prizes for guessing sth no soan

no strings (attached) No such luck!

No sweat!

no thanks to sb

No way!

no/little love lost between sb on no account must/should sb do sth

There's no accounting for taste!

There's no time like the present.

There's no time to lose. NO-HOLDS-BARRED

no-holds-barred: see no holds barred

NO-LOSE

a no-lose situation: see a nowin situation

NO-WIN

a no-win situation

NOBODY

be no/nobody's fool It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good).

like nobody's business

NOD

A nod's as good as a wink. be in the land of nod get the nod: see give sb the nod give sb the nod on the nod

NOISE

a big gun/noise Empty vessels make (the) most noise/sound. make a noise about sth

NOISES

make (all) the right noises make noises

NONE

be none the wiser be second to none Half a loaf is better than none. none of your beeswax

NONSENSE

Stuff and nonsense! NOOK

every nook and cranny

NOON

morning, noon, and night

NOSE be as plain as the nose on your

by a nose

can't see beyond/past the end of your nose

cut off your nose to spite your face

follow your nose

get a bloody nose; see give sb a bloody nose get up sb's nose give sb a bloody nose have a nose for sth have a nose (round) have your nose in a book have your nose in the air: see with your nose in the air

It's no skin off my nose. keep your nose clean keep your nose out of sth keep your nose to the grindstone lead sb by the nose look down your nose at sth/sb nose to tail on the nose

pay through the nose poke/stick your nose into sth powder your nose put sb's nose out of joint rub sb's nose in it rub sb's nose in the dirt thumb your nose at sth/sb turn your nose up under sb's nose

with your nose in the air NOSEY

a nosy/nosey parker

NOSY

a nosy/nosey parker NOT

be not on

Not on your life! Not on your nelly!

hit/strike the right note make a mental note

NOTES

compare notes

NOTHING

all or nothing be nothing much to write home about

be nothing short of

[astonishing/miraculous etc.] be nothing to shout about be nothing to sneeze/sniff at: see not to be sneezed/sniffed be on a hiding to nothing have nothing between the/your ears here goes nothing like nothing on earth much ado about nothing nothing daunted Nothing doing.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained. stop at nothing

There's nothing to it. think nothing of doing sth

NOTHINGS

sweet nothings

make sb sit up and take notice

not take a blind bit of notice NOTION

not have the foggiest (idea/notion)

every now and again/then

It's now or never Now you're talking!

NOWHERE

be all dressed up and/with nowhere to go Flattery will get you nowhere.

(out) in the middle of nowhere

to the nth degree

NUMBER

a number cruncher do a number on sb have sb's number number crunching: see a number cruncher number one public enemy number one sb's number is up

NUMBERED

sb's/sth's days are numbered

NUMBERS

a numbers game There's safety in numbers.

NUT

a hard/tough nut a hard/tough nut to crack be off your nut do vour nut use a sledgehammer to crack a nut

NUTS

can't do sth for nuts from soup to nuts the nuts and bolts

NUTSHELL in a nutshell

NUTTY

be as nutty as a fruitcake OAKS

Great/Mighty oaks from little acorns grow.

put/stick your oar in

get your oats sow your wild oats OBJECT

a sex object

Money (is) no object. OCCASION

rise to the occasion

OCEAN

a drop in the ocean ODD

the odd man/one out

ODDS

against all odds against (all) the odds

be at odds be at odds with sth odds and ends odds and sods pay over the odds put sb at odds with sb: see be at

odds

ODOR see also ODOUR a dirty old man be on record: see go on record be in bad odor with sb an old chestnut be on sb's ass an old flame ODOUR be on sb's back be in bad odour with sb an old hand be on sb's case: see get on sb's OF an old head on young case be (all) of a piece shoulders be on song be of the essence an old maid be on the ball an old wives' tale be on the blink at the ripe old age of sth: see a mile off be on the bottle: see hit the be off base live to a ripe old age hottle be off beam be as old as Methuselah be on the brink of doing sth be off-color; see be off-colour be as old as the hills be on the cards be off-colour be as tough as old boots be on the case be off the hook be money for old rope be on the be off the hook: see get/let sb for old times' sake [expensive/heavy/large etc.] off the hook give sb the (old) heave ho side be on the fiddle be off the mark It's the same old story. be off the (starting) blocks be on the fritz live to a ripe old age of the old school be on the game be off the wall be off your chump old-guard: see the old guard be on the go be off your head old hat be on the level be off your nut Old Nick be on the line be off your rocker open/reopen old wounds be on the loose be on the make be off your trolley settle old scores: see settle a be on the march [blow/bomb/wipe etc.] SCOTE the good old days be on the mend sth/swh off the map have sth off pat: see learn sth the grand old man of sth be on the rocks off pat the Old Bill be on the ropes learn sth off pat the old-boy network be on the run off and on the old country be on the skids off-color: see off-colour the old guard be on the square off-colour the old school tie be on the threshold of doing There's life in the old dog yet. off limits sth off sb's hands be on the threshold of sth You can't teach an old dog new off-the-cuff tricks. be on the up OLDE-WORLDE off the cuff: see off-the-cuff be on the up and up off the hook olde-worlde be on the wagon off the peg OLDEST be on the warpath off the record the oldest profession (in the be on the wing off the/sb's agenda: see on be on top of the world world) the/sb's agenda the oldest trick in the book be on (your) guard off your own bat OLDIE be on your mettle on and off a golden oldie be (out) on the piss on the off-chance be (right) on the money (right) off the bat an olive branch: see hold be/go on at sb OFF-THE-WALL out/offer an olive branch be/go (out) on the razzle be/live on the breadline off-the-wall: see be off the wall hold out/offer an olive branch OMELETTE. can do sth on their ear You can't make an omelette off and on hold out/offer an olive branch without breaking eggs. OFFERING on a dime a peace offering OMNIBUS on a knife-edge OFFICE the man/woman on the on a shoestring the front office Clapham omnibus on and off OFTEN on balance every so often about/on your person on board OIL (all) on your own on deck be no oil painting be not on on high burn the midnight oil be on a roll on hold on paper oil the wheels be on about pour oil on troubled waters be on course for sth on sb's account snake oil be on course to do sth on sb's coat-tails OINTMENT be on edge on sb's doorstep

be on hand

be on ice

be on hold: see put sth on hold

a fly in the ointment

a chip off the old block

OLD

on sb's mind

on spec

on sb's (own) head be it on tenterhooks on the block on the boil on the brink of sth on the button on the cheap on the dot on the double on the face of it on the fly on the hoof on the horizon on the house on the lam on the margins of sth on the nail on the never-never on the nod on the nose on the off-chance on the one hand...on the other hand on the q.t.: see on the q.t. on the quiet on the rack on the rebound on the record: see off the record on the shelf on the side on the spot on the strength of sth on the stump on the table on the trot on the/sb's agenda on the/your (starting) blocks: see be off the (starting) blocks on top of sth on track On ver bike! on your hobbyhorse on your tod (right) on the button ONCE give sb/sth the once-over give sth a once-over once and for all Once bitten, twice shy. once in a blue moon once in a lifetime once upon a time ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME once-in-a-lifetime: see once in a lifetime

ONE a nine/one/seven-day wonder a one-hit wonder a one-horse race a one-horse town a one-man band a one-night stand a one-two punch a one-way ticket to sth a quick one and one (more) for luck as one man at/in one sitting back to square one be another/one of life's great mysteries be at one be neither one thing nor the other be of like/one mind be one in a million be one in the eve for sb be one of a kind be one sandwich short of a picnic be one step ahead be one up on sb/sth can count sth on the fingers of one hand come one, come all from one moment to the next from/since the year one get/put one over on sb go in one ear and out the other go one better Got it in one! have a one-track mind have one foot in the grave have/keep one eye on sth/sb If it's not one thing it's another! in words of one syllable It's all one to me. It's just one of those things. It's (just) one thing after another! keep/stay one step ahead: see be one step ahead kill two birds with one stone land/sock sb one Nice one! number one on the one hand ... on the other hand one and all one for the road One good turn deserves another. One man's meat is another man's poison. one of the boys one of the lads one-on-one: see one-to-one one-shot One step forward, two steps back. one swallow doesn't make a summer one thing leads to another one-to-one

one-upmanship

one way or another

one way or the other public enemy number one pull a fast one Pull the other leg/one (it's got bells on)! put one over on sb six of one and half a dozen of the other That's a new one on me! That's/There's one for the books. the odd man/one out There's more than one way to skin a cat. There's one born every minute We've got a right one here! with one eye on sth/sb: see have/keep one eve on sth/sb You're a fine one to talk! ONE-ON-ONE one-on-one: see one-to-one ONIONS know your onions ONLY be only a matter of time Beauty is only skin deep. in name only not be the only pebble on the beach only have eyes for sb be onto a winner ONWARD onward and upward: see onwards and upwards ONWARDS onwards and upwards Onwards and upwards! an open marriage an open sesame be an open book be wide open be (wide) open to [abuse/criticism etc.] blow sth wide open greet/welcome sb/sth with open arms have/keep an open mind open a Pandora's box open and shut open-ended open-minded: see have/keep an open mind open-mindedness: see have/keep an open mind open (new) doors open sb's eyes to sth open season open the door to sth open the floodgates open the way for/to sth open your eyes to sth: see

close/shut your eyes to sth

open your heart open/reopen old wounds push at an open door with your eyes open

OPENED

the heavens opened OPERATIVE

the operative word

OPINION

be a matter of opinion contrary to popular belief/opinion

OPPOSITE

be different/opposite sides of the same coin

ORANGES

apples and oranges ORDER

a pecking order be a tall order be in apple-pie order be out of order be the order of the day get/put your own house in

ORDERED

be just what the doctor ordered

ORDERS

get your marching orders: see give sb their marching orders give sb their marching orders

ORGANIZE

couldn't organize a piss-up in a brewery

OTHER

a significant other (all) other things being bat for the other side be laughing on the other side of your face be laughing out of the other side of your mouth be neither one thing nor the other

every other

have bigger/other fish to fry how the other half lives look the other way one way or the other Pull the other leg/one (it's got bells on)!

sb's better/other half six of one and half a dozen of the other

The grass is always greener (on the other side of the fence).

the other side of the coin the other/wrong side of the tracks

turn the other cheek wait for the other shoe to drop OTHERS

head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.]

OUNCE

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

OUT

be out for blood be out for the count be out for/after sb's scalp be out in force be out of action be out of bounds he out of it be out of line be out of luck: see be in luck be out of order be out of place be out of pocket be out of sb's hands be out of sb's league be out of sb's way be out of sorts be out of the ark be out of the loop: see be in the

be out of the picture be out of the question be out of the (starting) blocks be out of the way be out of this world be out of touch be out of touch with sth be out of your brain be out of your depth be out of your element be out of your head be out of your mind be out of your mind with [boredom/fear/worry etc.] be out of your tree be out on a limb be (out) on the piss be out on your ear be out to lunch be/go out like a light be/go out on the tiles

be/go out on the town not be out of the wood/woods out-and-out (out) in the middle of nowhere out of a clear (blue) sky: see out of the blue out of circulation out-of-date

out of hand out of keeping with sth: see in keeping with sth out of kilter out of sb's hair: see get in sb's hair out of sight out of the blue out of the doldrums: see be in the doldrums out of the running: see be in the running out of whack Out with it!

OUTRAGEOUS

the slings and arrows (of outrageous fortune)

OUTS

the ins and outs OUTSTAY

outstay/overstay your

welcome OVEN

have a bun in the oven

OVER

all over the place be over and done with: see get sth over and done with be over the hill be over the hump be over the moon be over the top get sth over and done with get sth over with over and above over the counter over-the-counter: see over the counter

put sb over your knee OVER-EGG

over-egg the pudding

OVERBOARD go overboard OVERDRIVE

be in overdrive: see go into overdrive go into overdrive OVERPLAY

overplay your hand

OVERSTAY

outstay/overstay your welcome

OVERSTER

overstep the mark OWL

a night owl OWN

(all) on your own

an own goal as if you own the place be afraid of your own shadow be hoist by/with your own petard be of your own making be your own man/woman/person be your own master be your own worst enemy beat sb at their own game: see play sb at their own game blow your own trumpet blow/toot your own horn come into your/its own cut your own throat

dig your own grave

do your own thing each to his/her own feather your own nest get your own back get your own way have a mind of its own have the devil's own job doing sth/to do sth have the devil's own luck hold your own leave sb to their own devices line your (own) pockets make a rod for your own back Mind your own business! not have a minute to call your of your own accord on sb's (own) head be it on your own account on your own hook pay sb back in their own coin play sb at their own game save your own skin stand on your own two feet tell its own tale to each his/her own ox be as strong as an ox OVSTER the world is your oyster mind/watch your p's and q's PACE at a snail's pace can't stand/take the pace set the pace PACES put sb through their paces PACK a pack of lies a pack rat be ahead of the pack pack a punch pack your bags the joker in the pack PACKED be packed like sardines PACKING send sb packing PADDLE be up shit creek (without a paddle) be up the creek (without a paddle) paddle your own canoe PAGE turn the page PAGEANT be (all) part of life's rich pageant/tapestry PAID put paid to sth

PAID-UP be a fully paid-up member of sth

546 PAIN be a pain in the arse/backside be a pain in the ass/butt be a pain in the neck on/under pain of death PAINS be at pains to do sth go to/take great pains to do growing pains PAINT be as interesting as watching paint dry be like watching paint dry paint a [bleak/rosy etc.] picture of sth paint the town red paint yourself into a corner PAINTED not be as black as you are/it is painted PAINTING be like painting the Forth Bridge be no oil painting PAIR a safe pair of hands have a [fine/good etc.] pair of show sb a clean pair of heels PALE be beyond the pale beyond the pale pale by/in comparison PALL cast a pall on/over sth PALM grease sb's palm of your hand hand PALSY-WALSY palsy-walsy PAN fade/pale into insignificance go beyond the pale: see be have sb eating out of the palm have sb in the palm of your

PANCAKE

a flash in the pan down the pan jump out of the frying pan (and) into the fire be as flat as a pancake PANDORA open a Pandora's box PANIC hit/press/push the panic button panic stations

PANTS

a smarty pants be caught with your pants/trousers down [beat/bore/scare etc.] the pants off sb

by the seat of your pants; see fly by the seat of your pants fly by the seat of your pants have ants in your pants wear the pants

PAPER

a paper chase a paper tiger a paper trail couldn't [act/argue/fight] your way out of a paper bag not be worth the paper it's/they're printed/written

on paper

paper/smooth over the cracks put pen to paper

PAPERS

get your walking papers: see give sb their walking papers give sb their walking papers

be below par be par for the course not be up to par

PARACHUTE a golden parachute PARADE

rain on sb's parade PARADISE

live in a fool's paradise PARAPET

put/stick your head above the parapet

PARCEL part and parcel PARDON

Pardon me for breathing/living! Pardon my French!

PARKER a nosy/nosey parker

PARKINSON Parkinson's law

PARROT be as sick as a parrot

parrot-fashion PART be (all) part of life's rich pageant/tapestry be part of the furniture Discretion is the better part of valor Discretion is the better part of valour.

look the part part and parcel take sb's part take sth in good part PARTED

A fool and his money are soon parted. PARTING

a parting shot the parting of the ways

PARTNER PATCH silent partner not be a patch on sb/sth sleeping partner PARTNERS be off the beaten path partners in crime beat a path to sb's door cross sb's path PARTS lead sb down the garden a man of many parts PARTY path lead sb up the garden path a bucks party take the line/path of least a hen night/party a party animal resistance a party pooper the primrose path a stag night/party PATHS be the life and soul of the sb's paths cross party PATIENCE be the life of the party the patience of Job/a saint piss on sb's party PATTER sb's party piece the patter of tiny feet PASS PAUL be like ships that pass in the rob Peter to pay Paul PAUSE come through/pass with give sb pause (for thought) flying colors PAVE come through/pass with pave the way for sth flying colours PAVED make a pass at sb The road to hell is paved with pass by on the other side good intentions. pass muster PAY pass the baton Crime doesn't pay. pass the buck give/pay lip service to sth pass the hat around/ hit/strike pay dirt round If you pay peanuts, you get pass the time of day monkeys. pay dividends things have come to/reached a pretty pass pay its way pay over the odds PASSAGE a rite of passage pay sb back in their own coin PASSAGES pay the price purple passages: see purple pay through the nose prose pay top dollar PAST pay your dues a blast from the past pay your way be a thing of the past rob Peter to pay Paul be first past the post there'll be hell to pay PAYS be past it be past your sell-by date He who pays the piper calls I wouldn't put it past sb the tune. PASTURE You pays your money (and you put sb out to pasture takes your chances). You pays your money (and you PASTURES greener pastures takes your choice). new pastures PEA-BRAINED pastures new pea-brained PAT PEACE a pat on the back a peace offering have sth down pat: see learn be at peace with the world sth off pat There's no peace/rest for the have sth off pat: see learn sth wicked! PEANUTS off pat learn sth down pat If you pay peanuts, you get learn sth off pat monkeys. pat sb on the back: see a pat on PEAR-SHAPED the back go pear-shaped sit pat stand pat a pearl of wisdom

PEARLS cast pearls before swine PEARLY the pearly gates PEAS be like two peas in a pod PEBBLE not be the only pebble on the heach PECKER Keep your pecker up! PECKING a pecking order PEDESTAL knock sb off their pedestal: see put sb on a pedestal put sb on a pedestal PEELED keep your eyes peeled/skinned PEEPING a peeping Tom PEEVE sb's pet peeve a square peg (in a round hole) bring sb down a peg or two off the peg PEGGED have sb pegged PEGGING be level pegging PELL-MELL pell-mell pell-mell: see pell-mell (at) full pelt/steam/tilt PFN a pen pusher pen pushing: see a pen pusher put pen to paper The pen is mightier than the sword. PENCIL a pencil pusher have lead in your pencil: see put lead in your pencil pencil pushing: see a pen pusher put lead in your pencil PENN'ORTH put in/stick in your two

penn'orth

together

earned.

foolish

A penny for them.

be ten/two a penny

cost (sb) a pretty penny

not have two pennies to rub

A penny for your thoughts.

be penny-wise and pound-

A penny saved is a penny

PENNIES

PENNY

In for a penny, (in for a pound). penny ante spend a penny the penny drops turn up like a bad penny PEOPLE People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones). DED a pep talk PERCH fall off your perch knock sb off their perch PERFECT Practice makes perfect. PERFORM perform/work miracles PERIOD a honeymoon period PERISH Perish the thought! PERSON a girl/man/person Friday about/on your person be your own man/woman/person the man/woman/person in the street PET sb's pet hate sb's pet peeve PETARD be hoist by/with your own petard PETER rob Peter to pay Paul PETTING heavy petting Take a pew. PHRASE a turn of phrase to coin a phrase PICK a pick-me-up have a bone to pick with sb have your pick of sth pick and mix pick-and-mix: see pick and pick holes in sth pick sb's brains pick sb's pocket pick up steam pick up sticks pick up the bill/tab pick up the pieces pick up the threads of sth pick up your marbles (and go home/leave) pick up/take the ball and run (with it) pick/pull sb/sth to pieces pick/take up the gauntlet: see throw down the gauntlet pick/take up the slack take your pick the pick of sth PICKLE be in a (pretty/right) pickle PICNIC be a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic: see be one sandwich short of a picnic be no picnic be no picnic be one sandwich short of a make sth seem like a picnic PICTURE be in the picture: see be out of the picture be out of the picture be the picture of [health/innocence etc.] get the picture keep sb in the picture: see put sb in the picture paint a [bleak/rosy etc.] picture of sth picture-perfect put sb in the picture sb's face is a picture the big picture the whole picture PIE a slice of the pie be as easy as pie be as nice as pie be pie-eved eat humble pie be as American as apple pie have a finger in every pie have a finger in the pie: see have a finger in every pie pie in the sky PIECE a conversation piece a piece/slice of the action be a nasty piece of work be a piece of cake be a piece of piss be (all) of a piece give sb a piece of your mind How long is a piece of string? say your piece sb's party piece take a piece out of sb the villain of the piece PIECES

be shot to hell/pieces be thrilled to pieces bits and pieces go/fall to pieces pick up the pieces pick/pull sb/sth to pieces PIG see also PIGS a guinea pig

a pig in a poke eat like a pig in a pig's eve make a pig of yourself make a pig's ear of sth/doing sth Pig's arse! squeal like a stuck pig sweat like a pig PIGEON a stool pigeon be sb's pigeon PIGEONS put/set the cat among the pigeons PIGGY piggy in the middle PIGS Pigs can fly. Pigs might fly. come down the pike down the pike at the bottom of the heap/pile pile it/them high and sell it/them cheap pile on the agony PILL see also PILLS a bitter pill (to swallow) sugar-coat the pill sugar/sweeten the pill PILLAR a pillar/tower of strength from pillar to post PILLOW pillow talk PILLS pop pills PILOT on automatic pilot PIN see also PINS as straight as a pin be as clean as a new pin pin back your ears pin money pin sth on sb pin your hopes on sth/sb You could have heard a pin drop. PINCH at a pinch feel the pinch in a pinch pinch-hit take sth with a pinch of salt PINK a pink slip be in the pink be tickled pink/to death pink-collar the pink dollar the pink pound PINS be on pins and needles

549 have pins and needles place/put your life in sb's hands: see your life is in sb's get/put a quart into a pint hands put sb in their place pot PIPE sb's heart is in the right place a pipe dream scream the place down Put/stick that in your pipe There's a time and a place. and smoke it! PLACES PIPEL INF go places have friends in high places be in the pipeline PLAGUE avoid sb/sth like the plague He who pays the piper calls PLAIN the tune. PIPPED a plain Jane be as clear/plain as day be pipped at/to the post be as plain as the nose on your be pipped at/to the post a piss-artist be plain sailing PLAN a piss-take: see take the piss a game plan a piss-up be a piece of piss PLANET be full of piss and vinegar be (living) on another planet be (out) on the piss What planet is sb on?: see be couldn't organize a piss-up in (living) on another planet PLANK a brewery go (out) on the piss: see be (out) walk the plank on the piss PLANKS Go piss up a rope! be as thick as two short planks not have a pot to piss in piss on sb's party give/hand sth to sb on a plate Piss or get off the can/pot! have a lot/enough on your plate take the piss have your plate full PISSED sb's head on a plate/platter as pissed as a fart PLATTER as pissed as a newt give/hand sth to sb on a pissed out of your (silver) platter head/mind/skull sb's head on a plate/platter PLAY see also PLAYING PISSING a play on words be pissing in/into the wind act/play the fool a bottomless pit act/play the goat a pit stop All work and no play (makes pit your wits against sb/sth Jack a dull boy). allow/give sth full play be child's play fever pitch make a pitch for sth bring sth into play queer sb's pitch come into full play: see PITCHED allow/give sth full play a pitched battle fair play PLACE foul play a/sb's place in the sun (if you) play your cards right all over the place keep/play your cards close to as if you own the place your chest be in the right place at the make a big play of sth right time make (a) great play of sth be out of place make a play for sb between a rock and a hard make a play for sth play a blinder fall into place play a straight bat give sth pride of place: see

have/take pride of place

have/take pride of place

not a hair out of place

in the first place

know your place

play devil's advocate play dirty play fast and loose with sth/sb play footsie play footsie with sb play for keeps play for time play games play God play gooseberry play hard to get play hardball play hooky play into sb's hands play it by ear play it cool play (it) safe play (merry) hell play (merry) hell with sth play possum play Russian roulette play sb at their own game play sb for a fool play sb for a sucker play second fiddle play silly buggers play the field play the game play to the gallery play with fire play your ace the state of play Turnabout is fair play. two can play at that game When/While the cat's away (the mice will play). PLAYING a level playing field PLEA cop a plea I take/plead the Fifth (Amendment) PLEASED be as pleased as Punch PLEASURE mix business with pleasure PLEDGE sign/take the pledge PLENTY

There are plenty more where plough a lone/lonely furrow beat/turn swords into

pluck sth out of the air

they/that came from.

PLOT

PLUCK

PILIG

play a/the waiting game

play both ends against the play away from home

play cat and mouse

play ball

middle

lose the plotThe plot thickens.

PLOUGHSHARES

ploughshares

a spark plug

pull the plug PLUGHOLE

go down the plughole

PLUM

speak with a plum in your mouth

PLUMB

plumb the depths PLUNGE

take the plunge

PLY

ply your trade

PNEUMONIA

if sb/sth catches a cold, sb/sth gets pneumonia

PO-FACED

po-faced POACHER

a poacher turned gamekeeper

POCKET be in sb's pocket

be out of pocket dig/dip into your pocket have sth burning a hole in your pocket pick sb's pocket

put your hand in your pocket

POCKETS

deep pockets line sb's pockets line your (own) pockets live in each other's pockets

POD

be like two peas in a pod POFTIC

poetic justice

poetic license POINT

a case in point a sore point/spot a sticking point be beside the point be sb's strong point/suit

miss the point not to put too fine a point on it point blank point-blank: see point blank point blank point the finger at sb point the way reach boiling point the point of no return

There's no point crying over spilt milk. POINTS

earn/get brownie points POISON

a poison-pen letter One man's meat is another man's poison. What's your poison?

POISONED

a poisoned chalice

POKE

a pig in a poke

poke fun at sb/sth poke/stick your nose into sth

POLE

be in pole position

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a barge pole.

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a ten-foot pole

the greasy pole

the low man on the totem pole

POLES

be poles apart

POLICY

Honesty is the best policy.

POLISH

spit and polish POLITICAL

a political football POLITICALLY

politically correct

POLLS

go to the polls

POMP

pomp and circumstance POND

a big fish in a small pond

PONY a dog and pony show

Shanks's pony

POOPER a party pooper

POOR

a poor man's sb/sth

a poor relation be as poor as church mice make a bad/poor fist of sth/doing sth: see make a good fist of sth/doing sth POP

pop pills

pop the question pop your clogs

POPPING

sb's eyes are popping out of their head

POPULAR

contrary to popular

belief/opinion

pork barrel

pork-barrel: see pork barrel PORT

a port of call

Any port in a storm.

POSITION

be in pole position

the missionary position

POSSESSED like a man/woman possessed

POSSESSION

Possession is nine-tenths of the law.

POSSUM

play possum

POST

be as deaf as a post be first past the post be pipped at/to the post

be pipped at/to the post from pillar to post

post-haste

POSTAGE

fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp

POSTAL go postal

POSTED

keep sb posted

POT see also POTS

a melting pot

A watched pot never boils. can talk the legs off an iron

get/put a quart into a pint pot

go to pot

not have a pot to piss in Piss or get off the can/pot! Shit or get off the can/pot!

take a pot shot take pot luck

the pot calling the kettle black

throw sth into the pot

POTATO

a couch potato a hot potato drop sb/sth like a hot brick/potato POTATOES

small potatoes

the meat and potatoes

POTS pots of money

POUND

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. In for a penny, (in for a pound). the pink pound

your pound of flesh

POUND-FOOLISH

be penny-wise and poundfoolish

POUR

pour oil on troubled waters pour your heart out pour/throw cold water on sth

POURS

It never rains but it pours.

POWDER

a powder keg keep your powder dry powder your nose take a powder

POWER

do sb a power of good More power to you!

More power to your elbow! the corridors of power the power behind the throne

POWERS

the powers that be

PRACTICE

Practice makes perfect. practice what you preach: see practise what you preach

PRACTISE

practise what you preach

PRAISE

damn sb/sth with faint praise praise sb/sth to the skies

PRAISES

sing sb's/sth's praises PRAWN

come the raw prawn

PRAYER

not have a prayer on a wing and a prayer

PRAYERS

the answer to sb's prayers

PREACH

practice what you preach: see practise what you preach practise what you preach preach to the converted

PREPARE

prepare the ground

PRESENCE

make your presence felt

PRESENT

present company excepted present company excluded There's no time like the present.

PRESS

a full-court press be hot off the press hit/press/push the panic button press the flesh press/push the right button/buttons

PRESSED

be hard pressed

PRETENCES

under false pretences

PRETEND

pretend/say that black is white

PRETTY

a fine/pretty kettle of fish be in a (pretty/right) pickle be sitting pretty cost (sb) a pretty penny not be a pretty sight not be just a pretty face Pretty is as pretty does. things have come to/reached a pretty pass

PREVENTION

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Prevention is better than cure.

PRFY

prey on sb's mind

PRICE

at a price at any price Cheap at half the price!

pay the price What price

[fame/success/victory etc.]?

be like a spare prick at a wedding prick sb's conscience prick your ears up

PRICKS

kick against the pricks

PRIDE

give sth pride of place: see have/take pride of have/take pride of place Pride comes before a fall. Pride goes before a fall. swallow your pride

PRIM

prim and proper PRIME

a prime mover prime the pump

PRIMROSE the primrose path

be a licence to print money be a license to print money: see be a licence to print

the fine/small print

PRINTED

not be worth the paper it's/they're printed/written

PRISONERS

take no prisoners

PRIZES

no prizes for guessing sth

PROBLEMS

teething problems/troubles

PRODIGAL

the prodigal son

PRODUCTION

make a production (out) of sth

PROFESSION

the oldest profession (in the world)

DRUCHE

keep a low profile

PROGRAM

get with the program

PROMISE

give sth a lick and a promise promise (sb) the earth promise (sb) the moon

PROMISED

the promised land

PROMISES

Promises, promises! PROOF

The proof of the pudding (is in the eating).

PROPER

good and proper good/right and proper prim and proper

PROPHET

a prophet of doom PROPORTION

blow sth out of (all) proportion

PROS

the pros and cons

PROSE

purple prose PROTEST protest too much

PROUD

do sb proud

PROVE

prove/show your mettle PROVES

be the exception that proves the rule

PROVIDENCE

tempt fate/providence

a pub crawl PUBLIC

air your dirty laundry/linen in public be in the public eve public enemy number one wash your dirty

laundry/linen in public

PUDDING

be in the pudding club over-egg the pudding The proof of the pudding (is in the eating).

PUFF

huff and puff PULL

bring/pull sb up with a start draw/pull in your horns get/pull your finger out haul/pull yourself up by your bootstraps make/pull a face not pull any punches pick/pull sb/sth to pieces pull a fast one pull a rabbit out of the hat pull out all the stops

pull rank

pull sb up short pull sh's leg

pull something out of the bag pull strings

Pull the other leg/one (it's got bells on)!

pull the plug

pull the rug from under sb's pull the rug from under sb/sth pull the strings pull the wool over sb's eyes pull up short: see pull sb up short pull up stakes pull your socks up pull your weight pull/tear your hair out pull/yank sb's chain PULP beat sb to a pulp PULPIT a bully pulpit PULSE have your finger on the

have your finger on the pulse keep your finger on the pulse: see have your finger on the pulse quicken your/the pulse PUMP prime the pump pump iron

all hands to the pumps PUNCH

a one-two punch
be as pleased as Punch
be punch-drunk
beat sb to the punch
pack a punch
punch sb's lights out
PUNCHES

not pull any punches roll with the punches PUNISHMENT

a glutton for punishment

be sold a pup PUPPY
puppy fat
puppy love

puppy love

be as pure as the driven snow pure and simple: see purely and simply

PURELY
purely and simply PURPLE
purple passages: see purple

prose
purple prose
PURPOSE

accidentally on purpose PURPOSES
to all intents and purpose

to all intents and purposes
PURSE

hold the purse strings loosen the purse strings: see hold the purse strings hold the purse strings tighten the purse strings: see hold the purse strings You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

PURSUIT

in hot pursuit
PUSH see also PUSHED, PUSHING

at a push get the push: see give sb the push give sb the push hit/press/push the panic give so the push

hit/press/push the panic
button
if/when push comes to shove press/push the right
button/buttons
push at an open door
push the boat out
push your luck

push/drive sb over the edge PUSHED be hard pushed

a pen pusher a pencil pusher

PUSHING be pushing up (the) daisies

a glamor girl/puss: see a glamour girl/puss a glamour girl/puss put a put-up job

be hard put to do sth
be put on full/red alert: see be on full/red alert
can't put a foot wrong: see not
put a foot wrong
get/put a quart into a pint pot
get/put one over on sb get/put sb's back up
get/put the wind up sb
get/put your head down
get/put your own house in order

hold/put a gun to sb's head
I can't put a name to her/him.
I wouldn't put it past sb lay/put a guilt trip on sb lay/put sth on the line: see be on the line lay/put your cards on the table not know where to put yourself not put a foot wrong not to put too fine a point on it place/put your life in sb's hands; see your life is in sb's hands

put a bomb under sth/sb
put a brave face/front on sth

put a damper/dampener on sth put a dent in sth Put a lid on it! put a rocket under sb Put a sock in it! put a spoke in sb's wheel put all your eggs in one basket put down roots put flesh on (the bones of) sth put hair(s) on your chest put ideas into sb's head put in a good word for sb put in/stick in your two penn'orth put it about put lead in your pencil put on a brave face/front: see put a brave face/front on sth put on the dog put on/up a front put one over on sb put out feelers put paid to sth put pen to paper put sb at odds with sb: see be at ohho put sb in mind of sb/sth put sb in the picture put sb in their place put sb off their stride put sb off their stroke put sb on a pedestal put sb on edge: see be on edge put sb on the right track: see be on the right track put sb on the spot put sb out of action: see be out of action put sb out of their misery put sb out to pasture put sb over your knee put sb through hell put sb through hoops: see go/jump through hoops put sb through the mill put sb through the wringer put sb through their paces put sb's nose out of joint put sb/sth in the shade

put sb through the mill
put sb through the wringer
put sb through their paces put sb's nose out of joint
put sb'sth in the shade
put sth back on the rails: see be back on the rails
put sth down to experience
put sth on hold
put sth on ice: see be on ice put sth on the back burner; see
be on the back burner
put sth out of action: see be out of action
put sth obed

put sth under the microscope put sth/sb out of their misery put swh/sth/sb on the map put the arm on sb put the ball in sb's court: see

the ball is in sb's court
put the bite on sb
put the boot in
put the brakes on

put the cart before the horse put the fear of God into sb put the finger on sb Put the flags out! put the frighteners on sb put the genie back in the bottle: see let the genie out of the bottle put the heat on sb put the kibosh on sth put the lid on sth put the make on sb put the mockers on sth put the roses in sb's cheeks put the screws on sb put the skids under sb/sth put the squeeze on sb/sth put their heads together put two and two together put two and two together and get/make five: see put two and two together put up or shut up put words in/into sb's mouth put years on sb put your back into sth put your best foot forward put your feet up put your finger on sth put your foot down put your foot in it put your foot in your mouth put your foot to the floor put your hand in your pocket put your hand on your heart put your head/neck on the put your heart and soul into sth/doing sth put your life on the line put your mind to it put your money on sb/sth put your money where your mouth is put your neck on the line put your shirt on sth put your shoulder to the wheel put your thinking cap on put your two cents (worth) in put/get sb/sth back on track: see on track put/set sb on a collision course: see be on a collision course put/set sb's mind at rest put/set sth in motion put/set the cat among the pigeons put/set the record straight put/set the seal on sth Put/stick that in your pipe and smoke it! put/stick the knife in

553 put/stick two fingers up at sh/sth put/stick your head above the parapet put/stick your oar in put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works put/throw a spanner in the works put/throw sb off the scent put/turn the clock back PUTTY be putty in your hands PYRRHIC a Pyrrhic victory OFD QED OUAKE make sb quake in their boots: see be quaking in your boots QUAKING be quaking in your boots QUANTITY an unknown quantity QUANTUM a quantum jump a quantum leap QUART get/put a quart into a pint pot QUARTERBACK a Monday morning quarterback QUEEN turn king's/queen's evidence QUEER a queer fish be in Queer Street queer sb's pitch QUESTION a question mark over sth be out of the question beg the question call sth into question pop the question the million-dollar question the sixty-four-thousand-dollar question QUEUE a queue-jumper: see jump the queue jump the queue queue-jump: see jump the queue QUICK a quick fix a quick one a quick study as quick as a flash/wink as quick as lightning be quick off the mark be quick on the draw cut sb to the quick

quick-fix: see a quick fix OUICKEN quicken your/the pulse QUICKEST be first/quickest off the mark: see be quick off the mark QUID not be the full quid QUIDS be quids in not for quids OUIET be as quiet as a mouse on the quiet QUITS call it quits QUOTE give/quote (sb) chapter and quote, end quote quote, unquote RABBIT be like a deer/rabbit caught in the headlights pull a rabbit out of the hat RABBITS breed like rabbits RACE a one-horse race a race against time/the clock a rat race race against the clock race against time/the clock: see a race against time/the clock RACK go to rack/wrack and ruin on the rack rack your brain/brains RAG see also RAGS be like a red rag to a bull chew the rag lose your rag RAGE be all the rage RAGGED be on the ragged edge run sb ragged RAGS go from rags to riches rags-to-riches: see go from rags to riches your glad rags RAIL be as thin as a rail RAILS be back on the rails go off the rails put sth back on the rails: see be back on the rails be quick on the uptake: see be RAIN see also RAINING, RAINS slow on the uptake ask (sb) for a rain check: see I'll take a rain check make a fast/quick buck be as right as rain

(come) rain or shine I'll get a rain check I'll take a rain check rain on sb's parade

RAINBOWS chase rainbows

RAINING

It's raining cats and dogs! RAINS

It never rains but it pours.

RAINY

a rainy day fund: see save (sth) for a rainy day save (sth) for a rainy day

RAISE

make/raise a stink raise (a few) eyebrows raise Cain raise hell raise (sb's) hackles raise the roof raise the specter of sth: see raise the spectre of sth raise the spectre of sth raise the tone: see lower the

tone

raise your game raise your hand against/to sb raise/rear its (ugly) head raise/up the ante

RAISED

raised eyebrows: see raise (a few) eyebrows

RAKE

a rake-off be as thin as a rake rake over the ashes rake over the coals

RAM

ram sth down sb's throat

RAMROD

be as stiff/straight as a ramrod

RANCH

bet the farm/ranch

RANGE

at point-blank range

pull rank

rank-and-file: see the rank and file

the rank and file

RANKS

break ranks close ranks join the ranks of sth

RANSOM

a king's ransom hold sb to ransom

RAP

a bum rap

a rap across/on/over the knuckles

a rap sheet beat the rap rap sb's knuckles: see a rap across/on/over the knuckles

take the rap RAPTURES

go into raptures RARING

be raring to go RASPBERRY

blow a raspberry give a raspberry

a pack rat a rat fink a rat race look like a drowned rat rat-arsed

rat-assed: see rat-arsed smell a rat

RAT-ASSED

rat-assed: see rat-arsed

RATE at a rate of knots

RATTLE

rattle sb's cage RAVING

be stark raving mad

RAW come the raw prawn get a raw deal hit/touch a (raw) nerve in the raw life in the raw RAY

a ray of sunshine

RAYS

catch a few rays catch some rays

RAZZLE

a night (out) on the razzle: see be/go (out) on the razzle

be/go (out) on the razzle

RAZZLE-DAZZLE razzle-dazzle

razzle-dazzle: see razzledazzle

REACH

reach boiling point reach for the moon/stars reach the end of the line/road: see he the end of the line/road

reach the end of your rope: see be at the end of your tether reach the end of your tether: see be at the end of your tether

REACHED

things have come to/reached a pretty pass

REACTION a gut reaction

READ

read between the lines Read my lips!

read sb like a book

read (sb) the riot act read sb's mind read the runes read/see the handwriting on the wall: see the writing is on the wall

read/see the writing on the wall: see the writing is on the wall

take it as read

READY

be ready to roll fit/ready to drop ready cash/money rough and ready

REAL

Get real! the real McCoy

REAP

As you sow, so shall you reap. reap a/the harvest of sth reap the whirlwind You reap what you sow.

REAPER

the Grim Reaper

REAR

bring up the rear raise/rear its (ugly) head rear-end sth

REARGUARD

fight a rearguard action

REARRANGING

be like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic

REASON

it stands to reason no rhyme or reason without rhyme or reason: see

no rhyme or reason

REBOUND

on the rebound

RECEIVED

the conventional/received wisdom

RECEIVING

be at/on the receiving end RECHARGE

recharge your batteries

be a recipe for [disaster/

happiness/success etc.] RECKONED

be a force to be reckoned with

RECKONING

the day of reckoning RECORD

a track record

be a matter of record be on record: see go on record

for the record go on record

off the record

off-the-record: see off the record

on the record: see off the record put/set the record straight RED a red eve a red herring a red-letter day be in the red be like a red rag to a bull be on full/red alert be put on full/red alert: see be on full/red alert catch sb red-handed go as red as a beet go as red as a beetroot go beet red go beetroot (red) not a red cent paint the town red red-blooded red eve red-eye: see a red eye red-hot red tape roll out the red carpet the red-carpet treatment; see roll out the red carpet the red-light district

RED-CARPET the red-carpet treatment: see roll out the red carpet

REDUCE reduce sb to tears REDUCED

in reduced circumstances REFRESHMENT

liquid refreshment REFUSAL give sb (the right of/to) first refusal have (the right of/to) first refusal: see give sb (the right of/to) first refusal

REGULAR

be as regular as clockwork REIGN

a reign of terror

REIN

allow/give sb (a) free rein allow/give sth (a) free rein keep a tight rein on sb/sth keep sb/sth on a tight rein

REINS hand over the reins loosen/relax the reins: see tighten the reins take over/up the reins tighten the reins

REINVENT

reinvent the wheel RELATION

a poor relation

PELAY

loosen/relax the reins: see tighten the reins

RELIEF

light relief RELIGION

get religion

RENAISSANCE

a Renaissance man

a rent boy REOPEN

open/reopen old wounds

REPENT

Marry in haste, repent at leisure.

DEDITED IC

a banana republic RESISTANCE

take the line/path of least resistance

Give it a rest!

God rest her/his soul. head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.1

I rest my case.

put/set sb's mind at rest rest on your laurels the rest is history

There's no peace/rest for the wicked! RETREAT

beat a retreat

RETURN

return the compliment the point of no return

REVERT

revert to type REVOLVING

a revolving door RHYME

no rhyme or reason without rhyme or reason: see

no rhyme or reason

stick to your ribs

RICH

a rich seam be (all) part of life's rich pageant/tapestry filthy/stinking rich strike it rich That's (a bit) rich!

RICHES

an embarrassment of riches go from rags to riches

RIDDANCE

Good riddance (to bad rubbish)!

RIDDLES

talk in riddles RIDE see also RIDING

a bumpy/rough ride a free ride

an easy/smooth ride: see a bumpy/rough ride come/go along for the ride let sth ride ride herd on sh/sth ride (on) a/the wave ride on the back of sth ride out/weather the storm ride roughshod over sth/sb ride the crest of a wave: see be on the crest of a wave

take sb for a ride RIDICULOUS

from the sublime to the ridiculous

RIDING

be heading/riding for a fall be riding high

RIFF-RAFE

riff-raff

RIGHT

a bit of all right a God-given right be as right as rain be in a (pretty/right) pickle be in the (right) ballpark: see be in the same ballpark

be in the right place at the right time

be (just/right) up sb's street be on the right lines

be (on) the right side of 30/40 etc.: see be (on) the wrong side of 30/40 etc.

be on the right track be (right) on the money be (right) up sb's arse

be (right) up there with sb/sth

get off/start off on the right foot: see get off/start off on the wrong foot give sb (the right of/to) first refusal

good/right and proper hang a left/right have your head screwed on (the right way) hit/strike the right note

(if you) play your cards right left and right

left, right and centre look right/straight through sb make (all) the right noises might is right might makes right Mr Right

not be right in the head press/push the right button/buttons put sb on the right track: see be on the right track right and left (right) off the bat

right-on

(right) on the button Right on! sb's heart is in the right place sb's right-hand man/woman see sb right serve sb right the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing We've got a right one here! would give their right arm RIGHTS catch/have sb bang to rights catch/have sb dead to rights RILEY lead/live the life of Riley RING see also RINGING alarm bells start to ring: see set (the) alarm bells ringing have a familiar ring (to it) have a hollow ring: see ring/sound hollow have a ring to it ring a bell ring any bells: see ring a bell ring off the hook ring the changes ring true ring/sound hollow the brass ring throw/toss your hat in the ring RINGER be a dead ringer for sb/sth RINGING set (the) alarm bells ringing RINGS run rings around/round sb RINGSIDE a ringside seat/view RINKY-DINK rinky-dink read (sb) the riot act run riot DID let it/her rip let rip RIP-OFF a rip-off RIP-ROARING rip-roaring at the ripe old age of sth: see live to a ripe old live to a ripe old age the time is ripe RIPPLE

a ripple effect get a rise out of sb make (sb's) hackles rise Rise and shine! rise from the dead rise to the bait rise to the occasion sb's hackles rise: see raise (sb's) hackles risk life and limb risk vour neck

a rite of passage rite-of-passage: see a rite of passage

RIVER

sell sb down the river

ROAD a road hog

be the end of the line/road down the road go down that road hit the road Let's get the/this show on the road. one for the road reach the end of the line/road:

see be the end of the line/road

road-to-Damascus: see your road to Damascus

The road to hell is paved with good intentions. your road to Damascus

ROARING

do a roaring business do a roaring trade

ROB

rob Peter to pay Paul rob the cradle: see a cradlerobber

ROBBERY

daylight robbery highway robbery

ROCK see also ROCKS

be as solid as a rock between a rock and a hard place like a shag on a rock rock bottom rock-bottom: see rock bottom rock bottom rock the boat rock/shake sth to its foundations rock/shake the foundations of sth ROCKER

be off your rocker go off your rocker: see be off your rocker

ROCKET

get a rocket: see give sb a rocket give sb a rocket go like a rocket it doesn't take a rocket scientist it's not rocket science: see it doesn't take a rocket scientist put a rocket under sb you don't have to be a rocket scientist

ROCKS

be on the rocks get your rocks off The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world).

ROD

a lightning rod make a rod for your own back rule (sb) with a rod of iron

ROLL see also ROLLING a roll in the hay be on a roll be ready to roll heads will roll roll out the red carpet roll with the punches roll your sleeves up roll/trip off the tongue

ROLLER

a high roller a roller coaster roller-coaster: see a roller coaster

ROLLING be as easy as rolling off a log be rolling in it be rolling in the aisles: see have sb rolling in the aisles get rolling get sth rolling: see get rolling have sb rolling in the aisles keep the ball rolling: see

set/start the ball rolling ROMANS

When in Rome (do as the Romans do).

set/start the ball rolling

ROME

fiddle while Rome burns Rome wasn't built in a day. When in Rome (do as the Romans do).

a roof over your head be like a cat on a hot tin roof go through the roof hit the ceiling/roof raise the roof the roof caves/falls in

ROOFTOPS shout sth from the rooftops

ROOM elbow room

not give sth/sb house room not room to swing a cat ROOST chickens come home to roost come home to roost: see chickens come home to roost rule the roost

ROOT see also ROOTS root and branch

root-and-branch: see root and branch take root

ROOTED

glued/rooted to the spot ROOTS

put down roots

the grass roots ROPE

be at the end of your rope be money for old rope give sb enough rope (to hang themselves)

Go piss up a rope! reach the end of your rope: see be at the end of your tether

ROPES

be on the ropes know the ropes: see show sb the ropes show sb the ropes

ROSE-COLORED

rose-colored glasses: see rosecoloured glasses

ROSE-COLOURED

rose-coloured glasses rose-coloured spectacles

ROSE-TINTED rose-tinted glasses rose-tinted spectacles

ROSES

be no bed of roses bring the roses to sb's cheeks come out/up smelling like roses come out/up smelling of roses Everything's coming up

roses.

not be a bed of roses not be all moonlight and roses put the roses in sb's cheeks

Everything in the garden is rosy.

ROT

stop the rot the rot sets in

ROTTEN

a bad/rotten apple be rotten to the core spoil sb rotten

ROUGH

a bit of rough a bumpy/rough ride a diamond in the rough a rough diamond cut up rough give sb a rough time give sb the rough side of your

have a rough time (of it): see give sb a rough time if the going gets rough/tough: see when the going gets rough/tough

rough and ready

rough-and-tumble: see the rough and tumble of sth rough edges rough it rough justice

rough trade take the rough with the smooth

the rough and tumble of sth when the going gets rough/tough

ROUGHSHOD

ride roughshod over sth/sb

ROULETTE

play Russian roulette ROUND see also ROUNDS

a square peg (in a round hole) go (all) round the houses round the bend round the twist

ROUNDABOUTS

it's swings and roundabouts what you lose on the swings, you gain on the roundabouts

ROUNDS

do the rounds make the rounds ROUTE

en route

ROVING

a roving eye ROW

a hard/tough row to hoe get your ducks in a row kick up a fuss/row/stink skid row

RUB

not have two nickels to rub together not have two pennies to rub together rub elbows with sb

rub it in rub salt in/into the wound rub sb the wrong way rub sb up the wrong way rub sh's nose in it rub sb's nose in the dirt rub shoulders with sb the rub of the green There's the rub.

RURRER

a rubber check RUBBER-STAMP

Therein lies the rub.

a rubber stamp: see rubberstamp sth

rubber-stamp sth RURRISH

Good riddance (to bad rubbish)!

Rube Goldberg

RUBICON

cross the Rubicon

RUDE

a rude awakening RUFFLE ruffle sb's feathers

RUFFLED

smooth (sb's) ruffled feathers RUG

be as snug as a bug in a rug cut a rug pull the rug from under sb's pull the rug from under sb/sth sweep sth under the mat/rug RUIN

go to rack/wrack and ruin

RULE

a rule of thumb

be the exception that proves the rule divide and conquer/rule let your heart rule your head rule (sb) with a rod of iron rule (sb) with an iron fist/hand

rule the roost

RULES

bend/stretch the rules no hard and fast rules The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world). the heart rules the head: see

let your heart rule your head

RUM a rum do

RUMPY-PUMPY rumpy-pumpy

RUN see also RUNNING, RUNS

a dry run a dummy run be on the run be run/rushed off your feet cast/run your/an eye over sth cut and run drive/run/work yourself into the ground

give sb a run for their money go/run deep

go/run to seed

go/run/work like clockwork have a good run for your money have sb on the run have the run of swh in the long/short run make a run for it make sb's blood run cold pick up/take the ball and run

(with it) run a mile run a tight ship run and run run around/round in circles

run before you can walk

run in the family run interference run into the ground run its course run like the wind run-of-the-mill run off at the mouth run out of gas run out of steam run out the clock run rings around/round sb run riot run sb ragged run sb to earth run sb to ground run scared run sth into the ground run sth up the flagpole run the gauntlet run the show run with the hare and hunt with the hounds still waters run deep

RUNAROUND

get the runaround: see give sb the runaround

give sb the runaround RUNES

read the runes

RUNG

the [first/highest/next etc.] rung on the ladder

RUNNING

a running battle be in the running be running on empty be up and running do/make (all) the running (Go) take a running jump! hit the ground running out of the running: see be in the running

RUNS

sb's blood runs cold: see make sb's blood run cold

a (sudden) rush of blood (to the head) Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread). the bum's rush

RUSHED

be run/rushed off your feet

RUSSIAN

play Russian roulette

RUT

be (stuck) in a rut [drag/get/lift etc.] sb/sth out of a/their rut: see be (stuck) in a rut get in/into a rut: see be (stuck)

in a rut

SABER-RATTLING saber-rattling: see sabrerattling

SABRE-RATTLING

sabre-rattling

SACK

get the sack give sb the sack: see get the sack hit the sack

SACKCLOTH

sackcloth and ashes

SACRED

a sacred cow

SACRIFICED

be sacrificed on the altar of sth

SADDER

sadder but wiser

SADDLE

be in the saddle

SAFE

a safe bet a safe pair of hands

be as safe as houses be in safe hands Better (to be) safe than sorry. on safe ground: see on dangerous ground

play (it) safe safe and sound

to be on the safe side

SAFETY

a safety net a safety valve There's safety in numbers.

easier said than done Enough said. Least said, soonest mended. No sooner said than done. there's [much/a lot etc.] to be said for sth/doing sth when all is said and done won't hear a word (said) against sb/sth SAIL

sail close to the wind sail close to the wind sail under false colors sail under false colours

SAILING

be plain sailing

SAILS

take the wind out of sb's sails trim your sails

SAINT

the patience of Job/a saint SAKE

for old times' sake

SALAD

your salad days

SALESMAN

a snake-oil salesman: see snake oil

SALT

any [judge/lawyer/teacher etc.] worth their salt

be the salt of the earth rub salt in/into the wound take sth with a grain of salt take sth with a pinch of salt

go through sb/sth like a dose of salts

SAM

Uncle Sam SAMARITAN

a good Samaritan

SAME

along/on the same lines: see along the lines of sth be cast in the same mould be cut from the same cloth be in the same ballpark be in the same boat be of the same mind be on the same wavelength by the same token in the same breath It's all the same to me. It's the same old story. not in the same league Same difference. sing from the same hymnsheet/songsheet sing the same tune

speak/talk the same language

tar sb with the same brush SAND

be built on sand bury your head in the sand SANDBOY

be as happy as Larry/a sandboy

SANDWICH

a knuckle sandwich be one sandwich short of a picnic be the meat in the sandwich

SANDWICHES

be a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic; see be one sandwich short of a picnic

SARCASM

Sarcasm is the lowest form of wit.

SARDINES

be packed like sardines SAUCE

What's sauce for the goose (is sauce for the gander). SAVE can't do sth to save your life save face save sb's bacon save sb's neck save sb's skin save (sth) for a rainy day save the day

save your own skin save/spare sb's blushes scrimp and save

A penny saved is a penny earned.

Saved by the bell.

A stitch in time (saves nine). SAVING

a saving grace

SAVOIR-FAIRE

savoir-faire

SAY see also SAYING, SAYS, SAID

before you can say Jack Robinson

I/You can't say fairer than that

kiss/say/wave goodbye to sth

Never say die. not say boo pretend/say that black is white Say cheese!

say the word say uncle

say your piece wouldn't say boo

wouldn't say boo to a fly wouldn't say boo to a goose You can say that again!

SAYING

It goes without saving.

SAYS

What sb says goes.

SCALES

The scales fall from sb's eyes. tip the scales

SCALP

be out for/after sb's scalp

SCANDAL

a scandal sheet

SCARCE

be as scarce as hen's teeth make vourself scarce

SCARE

frighten/scare sb out of their wite

frighten/scare sb to death frighten/scare the hell out of

frighten/scare the life out of

frighten/scare the (living) daylights out of sb

scare the shit out of sb SCARED

be scared shit

be scared shitless be shit scared: see scare the shit out of sb run scared

SCAREDY-CAT

a scaredy-cat

SCARLET

a scarlet woman

SCATTERED

be scattered to the four winds SCENARIO

the nightmare/worst-case scenario

SCENE

set the scene

set the scene for sth

the scene is set for sth: see set the scene for sth

SCENES

behind the scenes

behind-the-scenes: see behind the scenes

SCENT

put/throw sb off the scent

scent blood SCHEME

in the grand/great scheme of things

SCHOOL

of the old school the old school tie the school of hard knocks

SCHOOLBOY

schoolbov humor schoolboy humour

SCIENCE

blind sb with science it's not rocket science: see it doesn't take a rocket scientist

SCIENTIST

it doesn't take a rocket scientist

you don't have to be a rocket scientist

SCORE

know the score settle a score

SCORNED

Hell hath no fury (like a woman scorned).

SCOT-FREE

get away/off scot-free

SCRAP

be on the scrap heap: see throw sb/sth on the scrap heap throw sb/sth on the scrap heap

SCRAPE

bow and scrape scrape the barrel

SCRATCH

bring sb/sth up to scratch: see not be up to scratch

from scratch

I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine.

not be up to scratch

not come up to scratch: see not be up to scratch scratch the surface

You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

SCREAM

scream bloody murder scream blue murder scream the place down

SCREEN

the silver screen

SCREW

a turn of the screw have a screw loose

screw up vour courage

SCREWED

have your head screwed on (the right way)

SCREWS

put the screws on sb tighten/turn the screws on sb: see put the screws on sb

SCRIMP

scrimp and save SCUM

the scum of the earth

a sea change

he all at sea be at sea

between the devil and the deep blue sea

your sea legs

SEAL

put/set the seal on sth seal sb's fate

SEALED

My lips are sealed. signed and sealed

signed, sealed and delivered

SEAM

a rich seam

SEAMS

be bulging/bursting at the seams be coming/falling apart at the

seams

SEARCH

hunt/search high and low

Search me!

SEASON

open season the silly season

SEASONS

a man for all seasons

SEAT

a ringside seat/view be in the driver's seat be in the driving seat be (sitting) in the catbird seat by the seat of your pants: see fly by the seat of your pants fly by the seat of your pants in the hot seat keep sb on the edge of their

on the hot seat take a back seat

SEATS

seat

bums on seats

fannies in the seats SECOND a second bite at the cherry: see a bite of the cherry a second-class citizen be second to none come off second best get a/your second breath get a/your second wind have second thoughts not give sth a second thought: see without a second thought on second thought: see have second thoughts on second thoughts: see have second thoughts play second fiddle second best second-guess sb/sth without a second thought SECURITY give sb a false sense of security lull sb into a false sense of security SEE see also SEEING, SEEN be [glad/happy/pleased etc.] to see the back of sb/sth can't see beyond/past the end of your nose can't see the forest for the trees can't see the wood for the trees find out/see how the land lies go to see a man about a dog have/see your name in lights I'll believe it when I see it. Long time no see. meet/see sb in the flesh not see sb for dust read/see the handwriting on the wall: see the writing is on the wall read/see the writing on the wall: see the writing is on the see eye to eye see how the wind is blowing see it coming see life see red see sb in their true colours: see show sb in their true colours see sb right see sb's true colours: see show sb in their true colours see sb/sth for what they (really) are

see the light

see the colour of sb's money security

see the error of your ways

see the light (of day)

see what sb is made of: see show (sb) what you are made see which way the cat jumps see which way the wind is blowing see your way (clear) to doing suck it and see would see sb in hell before you would do sth SEED go/run to seed seed money SEEDS sow the seeds of sth SEEING Seeing is believing. SEEM make sth seem like a picnic Children should be seen and not heard. have heard/seen the last of sb/sth have seen better days have to be seen to be believed haven't seen hide nor hair of sh/sth wouldn't be caught/seen dead SEIZE seize the day SELF a self-made man a shadow of your former self SELL see also SOLD go/sell like hot cakes pile it/them high and sell it/them cheap sell sb a bill of goods sell sb down the river sell sb/sth short sell your soul (to the devil) the hard sell the soft sell: see the hard sell SELL-BY be past your sell-by date SEND drive/send sb round the bend drive/send sb round the twist send chills down/up sb's spine send sb away with a flea in their ear send sb packing send sb to Coventry send sb to the showers send shivers down/up sb's spine send/throw sb into a spin: see be in a spin knock (some) sense into sb lull sb into a false sense of security SENSES bring sb to their senses: see come to your senses come to your senses have taken leave of your senses SEPARATE separate the sheep from the separate the wheat from the chaff separate/sort out the men from the boys SERVE serve sb right SERVED First come, first served. SERVICE give/pay lip service to sth SESAME an open sesame SET see also SETS be carved/set in stone be set in concrete have your heart set on sth/doing sth: see set your heart on sth/doing sth lay/set eyes on sb/sth not set the world on fire put/set sb on a collision course: see be on a collision course put/set sb's mind at rest put/set sth in motion put/set the cat among the pigeons put/set the record straight put/set the seal on sth set great/much store by sth set in train set out your stall set sb up for life set the agenda set (the) alarm bells ringing set the fur flying: see the fur flies set the pace set the scene set the scene for sth set the stage for sth set the tone set the wheels in motion set your face against sth/doing sth set your heart on sth/doing sth set your sights on sth/doing send/throw sb into a tizz/tizzy set/start the ball rolling but not in the biblical sense set/start tongues wagging the scene is set for sth: see set give sb a false sense of the scene for sth

horse sense

the stage is set for sth: see set the stage for sth

SETS

the rot sets in

SETTI E

settle a score

settle old scores: see settle a score

SETTLES

the dust settles

SEVEN

a nine/one/seven-day wonder the seven year itch

SEVENS

be at sixes and sevens SEVENTH

be in seventh heaven

SEX

a sex kitten a sex object

the fair/fairer sex

the battle of the sexes

SHADE

put sb/sth in the shade

SHADES

Shades of sb/sth.

SHADOW

a shadow of your former self be afraid of your own shadow beyond/without a shadow of a doubt

in sh's shadow

in/under sth's shadow

SHAFT

get the shaft

give sb the shaft: see get the shaft

SHAG

like a shag on a rock

SHAGGY

a shaggy dog story

SHAKE see also SHAKING,

SHAKES

a fair shake

more sth than you can shake a stick at

rock/shake sth to its

foundations

rock/shake the foundations of sth Shake a leg!

shake like a leaf

SHAKERS

the movers and shakers

SHAKES be no great shakes

in a couple of shakes in two shakes (of a lamb's tail)

SHAKING

be shaking in your boots/shoes

SHALL

Shall I be mother?

SHAME

hang your head (in shame)

It's a crying shame!

SHANKS

Shanks's pony

SHAPE

get bent out of shape

in any shape or form (in) any way, shape, or form knock/lick sth/sb into shape

Shape up or ship out. the shape of things to come

whip sth/sb into shape

SHAPES

all shapes and sizes

SHARE

have had more than your fair share of sth

Share and share alike.

the lion's share

SHARP

a short sharp shock be as sharp as a tack

Look sharp!

the sharp end

SHAVE

a close shave

SHEBANG

the whole shebang

shed/throw light on sth shed/weep crocodile tears

SHEEP

a wolf in sheep's clothing

I might as well be

hanged/hung for a sheep as a lamb. make sheep's eyes at sb separate the sheep from the

sort (out) the sheep from the goats

the black sheep (of the family)

SHEET

a clean sheet

a rap sheet

a scandal sheet

be as white as a sheet

SHEETS

be three sheets to the wind

SHELF

a shelf life

on the shelf

SHELL

a shell game

bring sb out of their shell: see come out of your shell

come out of your shell

SHIFT

Move/Shift your arse! shift your ground the graveyard shift

SHINE

(come) rain or shine

Rise and shine!

take a shine to sb take the shine off sth

SHINES

make hay while the sun shines think the sun shines out (of)

sb's arse/backside SHINGLE

hang out your shingle

SHINING

a knight in shining armor a knight in shining armour

a sinking ship

jump ship

run a tight ship

Shape up or ship out. when your ship comes in

be like ships that pass in the night SHIRT

a hair shirt

a shirt-lifter

a stuffed shirt

Keep your shirt on!

lose your shirt: see put your shirt on sth

put your shirt on sth

would give you the shirt off their back

SHIT see also SHITS, SHITTING

a shit-eating grin

a shit-stirrer

be a crock of shit

be as thick as shit be full of crap/shit

be in deep/the shit

be on sb's shit list

be scared shit

be shit scared: see scare the shit out of sb

be up shit creek (without a paddle)

get your shit together

have shit for brains

not give a shit

scare the shit out of sb shit a brick

Shit or get off the can/pot! the shit hits the fan

Tough shit!

SHITHOUSE

be built like a brick shithouse

SHITLESS

be scared shitless

SHITS give sb the shits

SHITTING

be shitting bricks

SHIVERS

give sb the shivers send shivers down/up sb's

spine SHOCK

a culture shock

a short sharp shock

SHOE

be as tough as shoe leather If the hat/shoe fits (wear it). the shoe is on the other foot wait for the other shoe to drop

SHOES

be in sb's shoes be shaking in your hoots/shoes fill sh's shoes step into sb's shoes

SHOESTRING on a shoestring

SHOO-IN a shoo-in

SHOOT see also SHOOTING

a turkey shoot

fire/shoot blanks give/shoot sb a dirty look shoot from the hip shoot sth/sb down in flames shoot straight: see a straight shooter shoot the breeze/bull shoot the messenger shoot the works shoot your bolt shoot your load shoot your mouth off shoot your wad shoot yourself in the foot

SHOOTER

a straight shooter

SHOOTING the whole shooting match

SHOP a knock-shop: see a knocking shop a knocking shop

be all over the shop be like a bull in a china shop close up shop shop talk: see talk shop shut up shop

talk shop

SHORT

a short-arse

a short fuse

a short sharp shock be a couple of sandwiches short of a picnic: see be one sandwich short of a picnic be as thick as two short planks be caught short

be nothing short of

[astonishing/miraculous etc.] be one card/several cards short of a full deck

be one sandwich short of a picnic draw the short straw fall short of sth get short shrift from sb: see give sb/sth short shrift get the short end of the stick give sb/sth short shrift

have sb by the short and curlies have sb by the short hairs have/keep sb on a short/tight

in the long/medium/short term

in the long/short run

life's too short long on sth and short on sth make short work of sth not be short of a bob or two pull sb up short pull up short: see pull sb up

short

sell sb/sth short short and sweet short-change sb

stop short stop short of sth/doing sth

the long and the short of it to cut a long story short to make a long story short

SHOT see also SHOTS

a big shot/wheel a cheap shot

a long shot

a parting shot a shot in the arm

a shot in the dark

be shot of sb/sth: see get shot of sh/sth

be shot to hell/pieces fire a shot across sb's/the howe get shot of sb/sth give it a shot/whirl give it your best shot give sth a shot: see have a shot

have a shot at sb have a shot at sth like a shot

not by a long shot take a pot shot take a shot at sth

SHOTGUN

a shotgun marriage a shotgun wedding

SHOTS

call the shots/tune

SHOULD

on no account must/should sb do sth

You should be so lucky! You should talk!

SHOULDER

a shoulder to cry on give sb the cold shoulder have a chip on your shoulder put your shoulder to the wheel

shoulder to shoulder

straight from the shoulder

SHOULDERS a wise head on young shoulders

an old head on young shoulders

be a weight off your shoulders have a good head on your shoulders have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders head and shoulders above [the others/the rest etc.1 rub shoulders with sb

SHOUT

be nothing to shout about not be much to shout about shout sth from the rooftops

SHOUTING

a shouting match

It's all over bar the shouting. SHOVE

if/when push comes to shove Shove/Stick sth up your arse! SHOW a dog and pony show a show-stopper

fly/show/wave the flag

go to show (sth) Let's get the/this show on the road.

prove/show your mettle

run the show Show a leg!

show sb a clean pair of heels show sb in their true colours show so the door show sh the ropes show (sb) what you are made show-stopping: see a show-stopper show your face

show your hand show your teeth show your true colours: see show sb in their true colours steal the show

The show must go on.

SHOWER

take a cold shower SHOWERS

send sb to the showers

SHRIFT

get short shrift from sb: see give sb/sth short shrift give sb/sth short shrift

SHRINKING a shrinking violet

SHUDDER

I dread/shudder to think

SHUFFLE

lost in the shuffle shuffle off this mortal coil

SHUFTI

have a shufti

SHUT

close/shut the door on sth close/shut your eves to sth keep your mouth shut open and shut put up or shut up sb could do sth with their eyes closed/shut shut up like a clam shut up shop

Shut your

face/gob/mouth/trap!

SHUTTING

closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has holted

SHUTTLE

shuttle diplomacy

fight shy of sth/doing sth Once bitten, twice shy.

SICK

be as sick as a dog be as sick as a parrot be fed up/sick to the back

be sick and tired of sth/doing

be sick to death of sth/doing

be worried sick feel sick to your stomach

sick at heart SIDE see also SIDES

a bit on the side bat for the other side be a thorn in sb's flesh/side be laughing on the other side of your face

be laughing out of the other side of your mouth

be on the [expensive/heavy/ large etc.] side

be (on) the right side of 30/40 etc.: see be (on) the wrong side of 30/40 etc.

be on the side of the angels be (on) the wrong side of 30/40

err on the side of caution find yourself on the wrong side of the law get on the wrong side of the get out of bed on the wrong side get up on the wrong side of the

give sb the rough side of your tongue have time on your side

know which side your bread is buttered (on)

let the side down

look on the bright side on the side pass by on the other side The grass is always greener

(on the other side of the fence).

the other side of the coin the other/wrong side of the tracks

this side of the grave time is on your side to be on the safe side

SIDELINES

be left on the sidelines: see stay on the sidelines stay on the sidelines

SIDES

be different/opposite sides of the same coin be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth

be two sides of the same coin split your sides (laughing)

SIDEWAYS

knock sb sideways

SIEGE a siege mentality

have a memory/mind like a

sieve SIGHT

at first glance/sight be a sight for sore eyes lose sight of sth not be a pretty sight out of sight Out of sight, out of mind.

SIGHTS

have sb in your sights have sth in your sights have your sights set on sth/doing sth: see set your sights on sth/doing sth lower your sights set your sights on sth/doing

SIGN see also SIGNED, SIGNS

be a sign of the times sign on the dotted line sign sth's death warrant: see sign your own death warrant sign your own death warrant sign/take the pledge

SIGNALS

smoke signals

SIGNED

signed and sealed signed, sealed and delivered

SIGNIFICANT

a significant other

dollar signs in sb's eyes: see

dollar signs in sb's eyes

SILENT

be as silent as the grave silent partner the silent majority

You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

SILLY

play silly buggers the silly season

be born with a silver spoon in your mouth Every cloud has a silver lining. give/hand sth to sb on a (silver) platter silver-tongued

the silver screen

SIMPLE

pure and simple: see purely and simply

SIMPLY

purely and simply SIN see also SINS

a sin tax

be as ugly as sin live in sin

SINCE

from/since time immemorial

SING

sing for your supper sing from the same hymnsheet/songsheet sing sb's/sth's praises sing the same tune

SINGS

It's not over until the fat lady

SINK see also SINKING, SINKS everything but the kitchen

get/sink your teeth into sth sink like a stone sink or swim sink to such depths sink without trace

SINKER

fall for sb hook, line and sinker fall for sth hook, line and sinker

SINKING

a sinking feeling a sinking ship

SINKS

sb's heart sinks

SINS

cover/hide a multitude of sins for my sins make sb sit up and take notice not sit well with sb sit (around) on your backside: see get off your backside sit in judgment on/over sb sit on the fence sit on your arse sit on your hands sit pat sit tight SITTING

a sitting duck

at/in one sitting be (sitting) in the catbird seat be sitting on a goldmine be (sitting) on your tail

be sitting pretty

SITUATION

a catch 22 situation a chicken and egg situation

a no-lose situation: see a nowin situation

a no-win situation

a win-win situation: see a nowin situation

SIX

be six feet under knock sb for six

six of one and half a dozen of the other six of the best

SIXES

be at sixes and sevens

SIXTY-FOUR-THOUSAND-DOL-

the sixty-four-thousand-dollar question

SIZE

cut sb down to size try sth for size try sth on for size

SIZES

all shapes and sizes

SKATES

Get your skates on!

SKATING

be (skating/walking) on thin ice

SKELETON a skeleton in the/your closet

a skeleton in the/your cupboard SKID skid row

skid-row: see skid row

SKIDS

be on the skids hit the skids put the skids under sb/sth

SKIES

praise sb/sth to the skies

SKIN

a banana skin

a thick skin: see thickskinned

a thin skin: see thin-skinned be skin and bone/bones be soaked to the skin Beauty is only skin deep. by the skin of your teeth

get soaked to the skin: see be soaked to the skin

get under sb's skin It's no skin off my (back) teeth.

It's no skin off my nose. make sb's skin crawl

nearly jump out of your

skin

save sb's skin save your own skin skin shalive

There's more than one way to skin a cat.

SKINNED

keep your eyes peeled/skinned

sb's heart misses/skips a beat

SKIRT

a bit of fluff/skirt

SKITTLES

not be all beer and skittles

SKULL

pissed out of your head/mind/skull

SKUNK

as drunk as a lord/skunk

SKY see also SKIES

blow sth sky-high out of a clear (blue) sky: see out of the blue pie in the sky

The sky's the limit.

SLACK

cut sb some slack pick/take up the slack

SLANGING

a slanging match

SLAP

a slap in the face

a slap on the back

a slap on the wrist slap and tickle

SLAPPED

get your wrist slapped: see a slap on the wrist SLATE

a clean slate

wipe the slate clean: see a clean slate

SLAUGHTER

like a lamb to the slaughter

SLEDGEHAMMER

use a sledgehammer to crack a nut

SLEEP

could do sth in their sleep not get a wink of sleep not lose sleep over sth not sleep a wink sb's beauty sleep

sleep like a log/top

sleep on it SLEEPING

let sleeping dogs lie

sleeping partner

SLEEVE

be laughing up your sleeve have a card up your sleeve have an ace up your sleeve have sth up your sleeve wear your heart on your sleeve

SIFFVES

roll your sleeves up SLEIGHT

sleight of hand

SLICE a piece/slice of the action

a slice of life

a slice of the cake

a slice of the pie any way you slice it

no matter how you slice it

SLICED

the best/greatest thing since sliced bread

SLIDE

let it/things slide

SLIME

a slime ball

SLING

Sling your hook! sling/throw mud at sb

SLINGS

the slings and arrows (of outrageous fortune)

SLIP see also SLIPS

a pink slip

a slip of the tongue fall/slip through the cracks give sb the slip let slip sth slip through the net slip through your fingers

slip your mind

There's many a slip twixt cup and lip.

SLIPPERY

a slippery slope be as slippery as an eel

SLIPS

sb's mask slips

SLOG

slog/sweat/work your guts out

SLOPE

a slippery slope

SLOW be slow off the mark be slow on the draw: see be quick on the draw be slow on the uptake do a slow burn

SMACK-BANG

smack-hang SMACK-DAB

smack-dab: see smack-bang

SMALL

a big fish in a small pond a small fortune

be grateful/thankful for small mercies Don't sweat the small stuff. in small doses It's a small world. make sb feel small small beer small fry small potatoes the fine/small print the small hours

SMART a smart alec/aleck

a smart-arse a smart-ass: see a smart-arse

a smart bomb a smart cookie

a/your smart mouth It's easy to be smart after the smart-alec/-aleck: see a smart alec/aleck smart-arse: see a smart-arse smart-ass: see a smart-arse

smart drugs the smart money

SMART-ASS a smart-ass: see a smart-arse smart-ass: see a smart-arse

SMARTS street smarts

SMARTY a smarty pants

SMELL smell a rat

smell fishy smell/stink to high heaven Wake up and smell the coffee!

SMELLING

come out/up smelling like roses come out/up smelling of

roses SMILE

crack a smile grin/smile from ear to ear wipe the smile off sb's face

SMILES

be all smiles SMOKE

blow smoke go up in smoke Put/stick that in your pipe and smoke it! smoke and mirrors smoke-and-mirrors: see smoke and mirrors smoke signals

the (big) smoke There's no smoke without

Where there's smoke, there's fire.

SMOKING a smoking gun SMOOTH an easy/smooth ride: see a bumpy/rough ride paper/smooth over the cracks smooth (sb's) ruffled feathers smooth sb's/sth's way smooth the way for sb/sth take the rough with the smooth

SNAIL

at a snail's pace snail mail

SNAKE

a snake in the grass a snake-oil salesman: see snake oil

snake oil SNAKE-OIL

a snake-oil salesman: see snake oil

SNAP

a cold snap bite/snap sb's head off Snap it up!

Snap to it!

SNAPPY Make it snappy!

SNEEZE

be nothing to sneeze/sniff at: see not to be sneezed/sniffed

SNEEZED

not to be sneezed/sniffed at

SNEEZES when sb/sth sneezes, sb/sth catches a cold

SNIFF

be nothing to sneeze/sniff at: see not to be sneezed/sniffed at

SNIFFED

not to be sneezed/sniffed at

SNOOK

cock a snook

SNOW see also SNOWED

a snow job

be as pure as the driven snow be as white as snow

SNOWBALL

a snowball effect

not have a snowball's chance in hell

SNOWED

be snowed under

SNUFF a snuff movie

up to snuff

SNUG

be as snug as a bug in a rug

SO

So long.

so near and yet so far

SOAKED

be soaked to the skin

get soaked to the skin: see be soaked to the skin

SOAP

no soap SOAPBOX

get on your soapbox SOB

a sob story

cry/sob your heart out SOBER

be as sober as a judge

SOCIAL

a social climber

SOCIETY

a mutual admiration society SOCK

land/sock sb one Put a sock in it!

SOCKS

[beat/bore/charm etc.] the socks off sb Bless her/his cotton socks. blow/knock your socks off pull your socks up work your socks off

SOD Sod's Law

SODS

odds and sods

be an easy/soft touch be soft on sb have a soft spot for sb/sth soft in the head

the soft sell: see the hard sell SOFTEN

cushion/soften the blow

SOFTLY a softly, softly approach

SOLD be sold a pup

SOLDIER a soldier of fortune

SOLID

be as solid as a rock

SOME

and then some

You win some, you lose some. SOMETHING

Do you want to make something of it? have something going with sb look like something the cat brought/dragged in something to write home about: see be nothing much to write home about

SOMEWHERE

somewhere along the line

a favorite son: see a favourite

a favourite son a son of a bitch

a son of a gun

Son of a bitch! Son of a gun! the prodigal son

SONG

a song and dance be on song for a song make a song and dance about sth/doing sth

SONGSHEET

sing from the same hymnsheet/songsheet

SOON

A fool and his money are soon parted.

SOONER

No sooner said than done.

SOONEST

Least said, soonest mended.

a sore point/spot be a sight for sore eyes be like a bear with a sore head stand/stick out like a sore thumb

SORROWS

drown your sorrows

SORRY

Better (to be) safe than sorry.

separate/sort out the men from the boys sort (out) the sheep from the goats

SORTS

be out of sorts It takes all sorts (to make a world.)

SOIII

bare your heart/soul be the life and soul of the be the soul of discretion body and soul God rest her/his soul.

heart and soul: see put your heart and soul into sth/doing keep body and soul together like a lost soul put your heart and soul into sth/doing sth

sell your soul (to the devil)

SOUND

he as sound as a hell be as sound as a dollar Empty vessels make (the) most noise/sound. ring/sound hollow safe and sound sound/toll the death knell

SOUP

be duck soup be in the soup from soup to nuts SOUR sour grapes SOUTH

go south

sow

As you sow, so shall you reap. sow the seeds of sth sow your wild oats You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

You reap what you sow.

SPACE

a space cadet be a waste of space Watch this space.

SPADE

call a spade a spade

SPADES in spades

SPAN

be spick and span

SPANNER

put/throw a spanner in the works

SPARE

be going spare be like a spare prick at a wedding Don't spare the horses. go spare save/spare sb's blushes

SPARED

no expense is spared no expense spared: see no expense is spared

SPARK a bright spark

a spark plug

SPARKS sparks fly SPATE

be in full flow/spate

SPEAK

Actions speak louder than words.

let sth speak for itself/themselves: see speak for itself/themselves

speak for itself/themselves speak volumes speak with (a) forked tongue speak with a plum in your mouth speak your mind

speak/talk of the devil speak/talk out of turn speak/talk the same language SPEAKING

be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth not be on speaking terms

SPEC

on spec SPECTACLE

make a spectacle of yourself

SPECTACLES

rose-coloured spectacles rose-tinted spectacles

SPECTER

raise the specter of sth: see raise the spectre of sth

SPECTRE

raise the spectre of sth the ghost/spectre at the feast

SPEED up to speed

SPELL spell trouble

SPEND

spend a penny spend money like water

SPENDERS

the last of the big spenders

Variety is the spice of life.

SPICK

be spick and span SPIKE

spike sb's guns SPILL

spill the beans spill your guts

It's no good/use crying over spilt milk.

There's no point crying over spilt milk.

SPIN

a spin doctor be in a spin send/throw sb into a spin: see be in a spin spin your wheels

turn over/spin in your grave SPINE

send chills down/up sb's spine send shivers down/up sb's spine SPIRIT

a free spirit a guiding light/spirit as/when the spirit moves you enter/get into the spirit of sth

the moving spirit

SPIT see also SPITTING be the dead spit of sb I could (just) spit!

spit and polish

spit-and-sawdust spit blood spit chips/tacks

spit nails

cut off your nose to spite your face

SPITTING

be spitting in/into the wind be the spitting image of sb in/within spitting distance SPLASH make a splash SPLEEN vent your spleen SPLIT split hairs

split your sides (laughing)

spoil sb rotten Too many cooks (spoil the broth).

SPOILED be spoiled for choice

SPOILING

be spoiling for a fight

be spoilt for choice SPOKE

put a spoke in sb's wheel SPOKEN There's many a true word spoken in jest. SPONGE

throw in the sponge/towel SPOON

a greasy spoon be born with a silver spoon in your mouth be spoon-fed

the wooden spoon SPORTING

a sporting chance SPOT see also SPOTS

a blind spot a bright spot a hot spot a sore point/spot be in a tight corner/spot glued/rooted to the spot have a soft spot for sb/sth have a weak spot for sb/sth hit the spot on the spot on-the-spot: see on the spot on the spot put sb on the spot

SPOTLIGHT be in the spotlight steal the spotlight: see be in the spotlight

SPOTS

A leopard can't/doesn't change its spots. knock spots off sb/sth

SPOUT

be up the spout up the spout

SPREAD a middle-aged spread spread like wildfire spread the word spread your wings spread yourself too thin

SPRING

be full of the joys of spring

be no spring chicken come/spring to mind

SPUR

on the spur of the moment spur-of-the-moment: see on the spur of the moment

SPURS earn/win your spurs

SOUARE

a square meal a square peg (in a round back to square one be on the square fair and square square the circle SOUEAKY

squeaky clean SOUEAL

squeal like a stuck pig SOUEEZE

be sb's main squeeze put the squeeze on sb/sth SQUIB

a damp squib

STAB

a stab in the back: see stab sb in the back

have/make a stab at sth/doing

stab sb in the back STABLE

closing/shutting the stable door after the horse has holted

STACK

blow your stack/top stack the deck STACKED

the cards are stacked against sb

STAFF

the staff of life STAG

a stag night/party go stag

STAGE

be/take center stage: see be/take centre stage be/take centre stage set the stage for sth the stage is set for sth: see set the stage for sth

STAKE

go to the stake stake a/your claim STAKES

pull up stakes STALKING

a stalking horse

STALKS sb's eyes are out on stalks STALL

set out your stall

STAMP

a rubber stamp: see rubberstamp sth

fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp

STAMPING sb's stamping/stomping ground STAND see also STANDING. STANDS

a one-night stand can't stand/take the pace hold/stand your ground If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.

know where you stand make a stand make sb's hair stand on end not have a leg to stand on stand a chance stand by your guns stand on the threshold of sth: see be on the threshold of stand on your dignity stand on your own two feet stand or fall by sth stand pat stand sb in good stead stand the test of time stand up and be counted stand/stick out a mile stand/stick out like a sore thumb stand/turn sth on its head stand/walk tall take a stand

STANDARD

a standard-bearer bog standard

STANDING could do sth standing on your leave sb/sth standing

STANDS as it stands

it stands to reason

STANDSTILL grind to a halt/standstill

STAR see also STARS hitch your wagon to a star

STARING be staring sb in the face

be stark staring mad STARK

be stark raving mad be stark staring mad stark naked

STARRY-EYED starry-eyed

STARS

It's written in the stars. reach for the moon/stars stars in your eyes thank your lucky stars

START

a false start

alarm bells start to ring: see set (the) alarm bells ringing bring/pull sb up with a start get off to a flying start get off/start off on the right foot: see get off/start off on the wrong foot get off/start off on the wrong foot give sb a head start: see have a head start have a head start set/start the ball rolling set/start tongues wagging

STARTING

be off the (starting) blocks be out of the (starting) blocks on the/your (starting) blocks: see be off the (starting)

blocks STARTS

in fits and starts

STATE

state-of-the-art the state of play turn state's evidence

STATION

marry beneath your station

STATIONS panic stations

STAY

keep/stay in touch: see be in touch

keep/stay one step ahead: see be one step ahead stay ahead of the game: see be ahead of the game stay on the sidelines stay the course

STEAD

stand sb in good stead

STEADY

a firm/steady hand on the tiller

steal a march on sb/sth steal sb's thunder steal the limelight: see be in the limelight steal the show steal the spotlight: see be in the spotlight

STEAM

(at) full pelt/steam/tilt blow off steam build/get/work up a head of steam full steam ahead let off steam pick up steam run out of steam under your own steam

STEEL

have a mind like a steel trap

nerves of steel STEEP

It's/That's a bit steep!

STEER

a bum steer steer clear of sth/sb

STEM

from stem to stern stem the tide

STEP

be one step ahead keep/stay one step ahead: see be one step ahead

Mind/Watch your step. move/step up a gear One step forward, two steps

step into sb's shoes step into the breach

Step on it! Step on the gas! step out of line step/tread on sb's toes watch your step

One step forward, two steps hack

STERN

from stem to stern STEVEN

even steven

STEVENS

even stevens

STEW

be in a stew leave sb to stew let sb stew

stew in your own juice/juices STICK see also STICKING,

STICKS a stick-in-the-mud a stick to beat sb/sth with be as thin as a stick come in for [a lot of/some etc.] get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick get on the stick get the short end of the stick get/take [a lot of/some etc.]

stick give sb [a lot of/some etc.] stick: see get/take [a lot of/some etc.] stick in a cleft stick more sth than you can shake a stick at poke/stick your nose into sth put in/stick in your two penn'orth Put/stick that in your pipe and smoke it! put/stick the knife in put/stick two fingers up at sb/sth

put/stick your head above the parapet put/stick your oar in Shove/Stick sth up your arse!

stand/stick out a mile stand/stick out like a sore thumb stick in your craw stick in your gullet/throat stick to your guns stick to your knitting stick to your ribs stick your neck out

STICK-THIN stick-thin: see be as thin as a

STICKING

a sticking point That's my story and I'm sticking to it.

STICKS

be jolly hockey sticks Mud sticks. pick up sticks Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me).

sticks in the/your mind up sticks

STICKY

be (batting) on a sticky wicket come to a sticky end have sticky fingers meet a sticky end

STIFF

a stiff upper lip be as stiff as a board be as stiff/straight as a ramrod be bored stiff bore sb stiff: see be bored to death/tears

Stiff cheddar! Stiff cheese! STILL

still waters run deep STING

a sting in the tail take the sting out of sth STINK

kick up a fuss/row/stink kick up a stink make/raise a stink smell/stink to high heaven

STINKING filthy/stinking rich STIR cause/create a stir STIR-CRAZY

stir-crazy

STITCH A stitch in time (saves nine).

STITCHES have shin stitches

STOCK

a laughing stock lock, stock, and barrel

STOCKING

in (your) stocking/stockinged feet

STOCKINGED

in (your) stocking/stockinged

STOMACH

a strong stomach feel sick to your stomach have butterflies (in your stomach)

have no stomach for sth not have the stomach for sth sb's eyes are bigger than their belly/stomach

STOMPING

sb's stamping/stomping

ground

STONE

a stone's throw be carved/set in stone get blood out of a stone have a heart of stone kill two birds with one stone leave no stone unturned sink like a stone Stone the crows!

STONES

People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw

Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me).

STONY

fall on stony ground

STOOL

a stool pigeon

STOOLS

be caught between two stools fall between two stools

STOP

a pit stop come to a full stop stop at nothing stop (sb) in their tracks stop short stop short of sth/doing sth stop the rot pull out all the stops The buck stops here. The buck stops with sb.: see The buck stops here.

STOPS

STORE

be like a kid in a candy store mind the store set great/much store by sth

STORM

a storm in a teacup Any port in a storm. be in the eye of the storm [dance/sing/talk etc.] up a storm ride out/weather the storm take sb/sth by storm the calm before the storm

a cock-and-bull story

STORY

A likely story. a shaggy dog story a sob story a tall story/tale but that's another story End of story. It's a long story. It's the same old story. It's/That's the story of my life.

That's my story and I'm sticking to it. to cut a long story short to make a long story short

STRAIGHT

a straight arrow

a straight shooter as straight as a die as straight as a pin be as stiff/straight as a ramrod be as straight as a die can't think straight couldn't lie straight in bed Give it to me straight. keep a straight face look right/straight through sb not be thinking straight play a straight bat put/set the record straight shoot straight: see a straight shooter straight-arrow: see a straight arrow straight-faced: see keep a straight face

(straight) from the horse's mouth

straight from the shoulder straight-from-the-shoulder: see straight from the shoulder straight up the home straight the straight and narrow with a straight face: see keep a straight face

STRAIN

strain every nerve

STRAINING

be straining at the leash STRAITS

be in dire straits

STRAW

a man of straw a straw in the wind a straw man draw the short straw the final/last straw the straw that breaks the camel's back You can't make bricks without etraw

STRAWS

clutch/grasp at straws

STRAYS

waifs and strays STREAK

talk a blue streak

STREET

a two-way street be in Queer Street be (just/right) up sb's street street smarts the man/woman/person in the

street STREETS

be streets ahead

STRENGTH

a pillar/tower of strength go from strength to strength on the strength of sth

at full stretch bend/stretch the rules by no stretch of the imagination not by any stretch of the imagination the home stretch

STRICTLY

be (strictly) for the birds

STRIDE

get into your stride hit your stride put sb off their stride take sth in stride take sth in your stride

STRIKE

hit/strike home hit/strike pay dirt hit/strike the right note Lightning does not strike twice strike a blow against/at sth/sb: see strike a blow for strike a blow for sth/sb strike a chord strike at the heart of sth strike gold strike it lucky strike it rich strike lucky strike while the iron is hot strike/touch a chord

STRIKING

in/within striking distance

another string to your bow have sb on a string How long is a piece of string?

the first string STRINGS

be tied to your mother's apron strings

have [a lot of/a few/several etc.] strings to your bow: see another string to your bow hold the purse strings loosen the purse strings: see hold the purse strings no strings (attached)

pull strings pull the strings tighten the purse strings: see hold the purse strings with strings (attached): see no strings (attached)

tear a strip off sb tear sb off a strip

STRIPES earn your stripes

STROKE

a stroke of luck put sb off their stroke STROKES

broad (brush) strokes (It's) different strokes for different folks.

take a stroll/trip down memory lane

STRONG

a strong stomach be as strong as an ox be sb's strong point/suit come on strong

STRUGGLE

an uphill

battle/fight/struggle

STRUT

strut your stuff

STUBBORN

be as stubborn as a mule

STUCK

be (stuck) in a groove be (stuck) in a rut have your head (stuck) up your arse

squeal like a stuck pig STUD-MUFFIN

a stud-muffin

STUDY

a quick study

STUFF be hot stuff

do vour stuff Don't sweat the small stuff. kid stuff: see kids' stuff kids' stuff know your stuff strut your stuff Stuff and nonsense! stuff your face the hard stuff

STUFFED

a stuffed shirt Get stuffed!

STUFFING

knock the stuffing out of sb

STUMBLING

a stumbling block STUMP

on the stump

STYLE

cramp sb's style

SUBLIME

from the sublime to the ridiculous

SUCCEED

If at first you don't succeed, (try, try, and try again).

sink to such depths Such is life.

SHCK

suck it and see teach your grandmother to suck eggs

SUCKER

play sb for a sucker SUCKLINGS

Out of the mouths of babes (and sucklings).

SUDDEN

a (sudden) rush of blood (to the head)

SUFFER

not suffer fools gladly

SUFFICIENT

A word to the wise (is sufficient).

SUGAR sugar-coat the pill

sugar/sweeten the pill SUGAR-COAT

sugar-coat the pill

SUIT

be sb's strong point/suit follow suit in your birthday suit suit sb down to the ground

the men in grey suits

SUMMER

an Indian summer one swallow doesn't make a summer

SUN

a/sb's place in the sun make hay while the sun shines think the sun shines out (of) sb's arse/backside

under the sun

SUNDAYS

not in a month of Sundays SUNSHINE

a ray of sunshine SUPPER

sing for your supper

SURE

a sure bet as sure as eggs (are/is eggs)

be a sure thing sure as hell sure thing

SURFACE

scratch the surface

SWALLOW

a bitter pill (to swallow) hard to swallow one swallow doesn't make a summer swallow your pride swallow/take the bait wish the ground would swallow you up cut a swath/swathe through SWATHE

cut a swath/swathe through sth

SWEAR swear black and blue swear blind swear like a trooper swear up and down

SWEAT

blood, sweat and tears by the sweat of your brow Don't sweat it!

Don't sweat the small stuff. in a (cold) sweat

No sweat!

slog/sweat/work your guts out sweat blood

sweat buckets sweat bullets sweat like a pig

SWEEP

a clean sweep sweep sb off their feet sweep sth under the carpet sweep sth under the mat/rug sweep the board

SWEET

a sweet deal a sweet tooth cop it sweet keep sb sweet short and sweet

sweet FA sweet Fanny Adams

sweet nothings

sweet-talk sb into doing sth You bet your (sweet) ass!

SWEETEN

sugar/sweeten the pill

SWEETNESS

all is sweetness and light: see be all sweetness and light be all sweetness and light SWEETSHOP

be like a child in a sweetshop

SWIM

go/swim against the tide go/swim with the tide: see go/swim against the tide sink or swim

SWINE

cast pearls before swine

SWING

be in full swing get into the swing of it/things go with a swing not room to swing a cat swing both ways swing the lead swing/tip the balance

SWINGING

come out swinging

SWINGS

it's swings and roundabouts what you lose on the swings, you gain on the roundabouts

SWITCH

be asleep at the switch fall asleep at the switch: see be asleep at the switch

SWOOP

at/in one fell swoop

SWORD a sword of Damocles hangs

over sh a sword of Damocles hangs over sb's head The pen is mightier than the

sword. SWORDS

beat/turn swords into ploughshares cross swords with sb

SYLLABLE

in words of one syllable SYMPATHY

tea and sympathy SYNDROME

empty nest syndrome SYSTEM

get it out of your system

SYSTEMS

all systems go

dot the/your i's and cross the/your t's

pick up the bill/tab

TARIF

a coffee table book bring sb to the [bargaining/peace etc.] table come to the [bargaining/peace etc.1 table: see bring sb to the [bargaining/peace etc.] table drink sb under the table get your feet under the table lay/put your cards on the table on the table

under the table under-the-table: see under the table

TARLES

The tables are turned .: see turn the tables on sb turn the tables on sb keep tabs on sth/sb TACK see also TACKS be as sharp as a tack change tack try a different tack TACKLE

your wedding tackle

TACKS

get down to brass tacks spit chips/tacks TAIL see also TAILS a sting in the tail be chasing your tail be (sitting) on your tail can't make head nor/or tail of get off your tail in two shakes (of a lamb's tail) nose to tail

the tail end of sth the tail wagging the dog turn tail

with your tail between your legs

TAILOR-MADE be tailor-made tailor-made

TAILS

be like a dog with two tails TAKE see also TAKEN, TAKES, TAKING accept/take sth as gospel (truth) be/take center stage: see be/take centre stage be/take centre stage bear/take the brunt of sth blow/take the lid off sth can't stand/take the pace can't take/keep your eyes off sh/sth carry/take coals to Newcastle catch/take sb off guard do a double take Don't take any wooden nickels draw/take a bead on sb/sth get/take [a lot of/some etc.] stick

get/take the bit between your teeth

get/take (the) flak get/take the measure of sb/sth: see have the measure of sh/sth give and take: see give-andtake

Give sb an inch and they'll take a mile.

(Go) take a running jump! go to/take great pains to do sth have/take a crack at sth have/take pride of place I can take it or leave it. I take my hat off to sb I take/plead the Fifth (Amendment) I'll take a rain check it doesn't take a rocket scientist let nature take its course (let) the devil take the hindmost

make sb sit up and take notice

not take a blind bit of notice not take kindly to sth not take no for an answer: see not take no for an answer not take sth lying down pick up/take the ball and run

(with it) pick/take up the gauntlet: see throw down the gauntlet pick/take up the slack sign/take the pledge swallow/take the bait take a back seat take a beating take a cold shower Take a hike/walk!

take a knock take a leaf out of sb's book

take a leak take a licking take a long, hard look at sth

Take a pew. take a piece out of sb take a pot shot take a powder

take a shine to sb take a shot at sth take a stand take a stroll/trip down memory lane take a turn for the worse

take a/its/their toll take account of sth/sb take each day as it comes Take five! take heart take it as read take it easy Take it easy!

take it for granted Take it from me. take it into your head to do sth take it on the chin take it one day at a time take-it-or-leave-it: see I can take it or leave it.

take-it-or-leave-it: see Take it or leave it. Take it or leave it. take liberties take matters into your own hands take no prisoners take on board sth take over/up the reins take pot luck take root take shat their word take sb for a ride take sb for granted take sb to task take sb to the cleaner's take sb under your wing take sb's mind off sth/sb take sb's name in vain take sb's part take sb's word for it take sb/sth by storm take sb/sth in hand: see be in hand take sth as it comes take sth at face value take sth by the throat take sth for granted take sth in good part take sth in stride take sth in your stride take sth the wrong way take sth to heart take sth with a grain of salt take sth with a pinch of salt take sth/sb into account take the bad with the good take the biscuit take the bit in your teeth take the bull by the horns take the cake take the cloth take the edge off sth take the fall for sb/sth take the heat off sb take the law into your own hands take the liberty of doing sth take the line/path of least resistance take the long view take the mick/mickey take the piss take the plunge take the rap take the rough with the smooth take the shine off sth take the sting out of sth take the wind out of sb's sails take the words out of sb's mouth take the wraps off sth take to sth like a duck to water take to your heels take umbrage take up the cudgels against sb/sth: see take up the cudgels for sb/sth take up the cudgels for sb/sth take up the cudgels on behalf of sb/sth take years off sb: see put years on sh take your breath away take your eve off the ball: see keep your eye on the ball take your life in/into your hands take your lumps take your pick take/tickle sb's fancy TAKEN have taken leave of your senses TAKES It takes all sorts (to make a world.) It takes two to tango. You pays your money (and you takes your chances).

You pays your money (and you takes your choice).

TAKING be as easy as taking candy from a baby be like taking candy from a be there for the taking be yours for the taking a tall story/tale an old wives' tale live to tell the tale tell its own tale Thereby/Therein hangs a tale. TALES Dead men tell no tales.

TALE

tell tales

TALK see also TALKING, TALKS a pep talk be all talk (and no action) be the talk of the town can talk the hind leg(s) off a donkey can talk the legs off an iron pot could talk under water could talk under wet cement pillow talk shop talk: see talk shop speak/talk of the devil speak/talk out of turn speak/talk the same language talk a blue streak talk dirty talk in riddles talk out of the back of your head talk out of your arse talk shop talk through your arse talk turkey You can talk! You should talk! You're a fine one to talk! TAIKER a fast talker TALKING be like talking to a brick wall be speaking/talking out of both sides of your mouth be talking through your hat Look who's talking! Now you're talking! TALKS Money talks. TALL a tall story/tale be a tall order stand/walk tall TAN tan sh's hide in tandem TANGENT go off at a tangent go off on a tangent

TANDEM

TANGLED a tangled web

TANGO It takes two to tango. TANK be built like a tank TANKED be tanked up TAP on tap TAPE red tape TAPED have sb taped TAPESTRY

be (all) part of life's rich pageant/tapestry TAR beat/knock the tar out of sb tar sb with the same brush

an uphill job/task take sb to task TASTE give sb a dose/taste of their own medicine leave a bad taste in your mouth There's no accounting for taste! TASTED have tasted blood

tit for tat: see tit-for-tat TAX

a sin tax TEA not be sb's cup of tea tea and sympathy would not do sth for all the tea in China

TEACH

teach sha lesson teach your grandmother to suck eggs You can't teach an old dog new tricks.

TEACUP

a storm in a teacup ass over teacup/teakettle

TEAKETTLE ass over teacup/teakettle

TEAPOT

a tempest in a teapot

TEAR

pull/tear your hair out tear a strip off sb tear sb limb from limb tear sb off a strip tear/tug at the heartstrings tear/tug at your heartstrings wear and tear

TEARS

be bored to death/tears blood, sweat and tears bore sb to death/tears; see be bored to death/tears It'll (all) end in tears. reduce sb to tears shed/weep crocodile tears

TEE

to a tee TEETH

a kick in the teeth be armed to the teeth be as scarce as hen's teeth be fed up/sick to the back by the skin of your teeth cut your eye teeth cut your teeth get/sink your teeth into

get/take the bit between your teeth

give your eye teeth for sth give your eye teeth to do sth gnashing of teeth grit your teeth have teeth

have the bit between your teeth: see get/take the bit between your teeth in the teeth of sth It's no skin off my (back)

teeth kick sb in the teeth: see a kick in the teeth lie through your teeth show your teeth take the bit in your teeth

TEETHING

teething problems/troubles

TELEGRAPH

the bush telegraph

TELL see also TELLING, TOLD

Dead men tell no tales. (Go) tell it/that to the marines kiss and tell live to tell the tale tell it like it is tell its own tale Tell me about it! Tell me another (one)! tell sb where to get off tell tales Time will tell.

TELL-TALE

a tell-tale: see tell tales

TELLING

You're telling me! TEMPERS

frayed tempers: see tempers frav tempers become frayed

tempers fray

TEMPEST

a tempest in a teapot TEMPT

tempt fate/providence

be ten/two a penny nine times out of ten nineteen/ten to the dozen

TEN-FOOT

I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a ten-foot pole

TENDER

leave sb to sb's tender mercies

TENTERHOOKS

on tenterhooks

TERM

in the long/medium/short long-/short-/medium-term: see in the long/medium/short torm

TERMS

a contradiction in terms be on bad terms with sb: see be on good terms with sb be on good terms with sb come to terms with sth in no uncertain terms not be on speaking terms TERRIBLE

an enfant terrible TERRITORY

come/go with the territory

TERROR

a reign of terror TEST see also TESTED, TESTING

a litmus test an acid test

stand the test of time test the water/waters

TESTED

tried and tested/trusted

TESTIMONY

bear testimony/witness to sth TESTING

need your head testing

TETHER

be at the end of your tether reach the end of your tether: see be at the end of your tether

THANK see also THANKS

thank your lucky stars

THANKFUL

be grateful/thankful for small mercies

THANKS

no thanks to sb Thanks a million!

THAT

and that's that! It's/That's (just) not cricket! That'll be the day! That's (a bit) rich! That's a new one on me! That's life. That's more like it. That's news to me. That's sb all over!

THEM them and us

THEN

and then some every now and again/then then and there there and then

THERE

as if there was/were no tomorrow like there's no tomorrow neither here nor there then and there there and then There are no flies on sb. There but for the grace of God (go I). there's no law against

sth/doing sth There's no such thing as a free

There's nothing to it. There's the rub. There, there.

You've got me there. THEREBY

Thereby/Therein hangs a tale. THEREIN

Thereby/Therein hangs a tale. Therein lies the rub.

THICK

a thick skin: see thickskinned be as thick as shit be as thick as thieves

be as thick as two short planks

THICKENS be in the thick of sth be thick on the ground; see be thin on the ground lay it on thick thick-skinned through thick and thin THICKENS The plot thickens. THICKER Blood is thicker than water. THIFVES be as thick as thieves THIN a fine/thin line a thin skin: see thin-skinned be as thin as a rail be as thin as a rake be as thin as a stick be (skating/walking) on thin be thin on the ground be thin on top disappear/vanish into thin air: see out of thin air from thin air go thin on top: see be thin on top have a thin time (of it) out of thin air spread yourself too thin stick-thin: see be as thin as a the thin end of the wedge thin-skinned through thick and thin tread a fine/thin line between sth: see a fine/thin line wearthin THING see also THINGS be a sure thing be a thing of the past be neither one thing nor the be on to a good thing Chance would be a fine thing! do your own thing have a thing about sth/sb have a thing going with sb If it's not one thing it's another! If sb thinks sth, they've got another thing/think coming! It's (just) one thing after another! know a thing or two make a big thing (out) of sth not know the first thing about

one thing leads to another

[show/teach/tell etc.] sb a thing or two

sliced bread

sure thing

thing or two: see know a

the best/greatest thing since

574 the done thing the thing to do There's no such thing as a free lunch. THINGS (all) other things being equal all things being equal be all things to all men First things first. in the grand/great scheme of things It's just one of those things. Moderation in all things. not do anything/things by halves the shape of things to come things have come to/reached a pretty pass THINK see also THINKING. THINKS, THOUGHT a think-tank can barely/hardly hear yourself think can't hear yourself think can't think straight Close your eves and think of England. Great minds (think alike). I dread/shudder to think think better of sth think big think long and hard think nothing of doing sth think on your feet think the sun shines out (of) sb's arse/backside think the world of sb think you are God's gift to women THINKING not be thinking straight put your thinking cap on the thinking man's/woman's crumpet wishful thinking THINKS If sb thinks sth, they've got another thing/think coming! THIRD a fifth/third wheel the third degree THIS This is the life! THOMAS a doubting Thomas

THORN be a thorn in sb's flesh/side THOSE Those were the days! THOUGHT a train of thought give sb food for thought give sb pause (for thought) I thought as much!

not give sth a second thought: see without a second thought on second thought: see have second thoughts Perish the thought! without a second thought THOUGHTS

A penny for your thoughts. have second thoughts on second thoughts: see have second thoughts

THOUSAND be batting a thousand THREAD

hang by a thread THREADS pick up the threads of sth

THREE a three-ring circus be three sheets to the wind the three R's two's company (three's a crowd) THRESHOLD be on the threshold of doing

be on the threshold of sth stand on the threshold of sth: see be on the threshold of sth

THRILLED be thrilled to bits be thrilled to pieces

bring a lump to your throat cut your own throat have a frog in your throat jump down sb's throat ram sth down sb's throat stick in your gullet/throat take sth by the throat THROATS be at each other's throats THROES be in the throes of sth/doing

THRONE the power behind the throne THROTTLE (at) full throttle

THROUGH

[Londoner/patriot/politician etc.] through and through be [French/good/honest etc.] through and through know sb through and through

through thick and thin

THROW a stone's throw feed/throw sb to the lions have/throw a fit I wouldn't trust sb as far as I could throw them. knock/throw sb for a loop

People who live in glass houses (shouldn't throw stones). pour/throw cold water on sth put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works put/throw a spanner in the works put/throw sb off the scent send/throw sb into a spin: see be in a spin send/throw sb into a tizz/tizzy shed/throw light on sth sling/throw mud at sb throw a wobbler/wobbly throw caution to the wind(s) throw down the gauntlet throw good money after bad throw in the sponge/towel throw in your hand throw in your lot with sb throw money at sth throw (sb) a curve (ball) throw sb in at the deep end throw sb off balance throw sb to the dogs throw sb to the wolves throw sb/sth on the scrap heap throw sth back in sb's face throw sth into the pot throw the baby out with the bath water throw the book at sb throw (your) money around throw your weight around throw your weight behind

sth/sb throw yourself on/upon sb's mercy throw/toss your hat in the ring

THRUST

the cut and thrust of sth THUMB

a rule of thumb be under sb's thumb be under the thumb: see be under sb's thumb have a green thumb stand/stick out like a sore thumb

thumb your nose at sth/sb

THUMBS

be all fingers and thumbs be all thumbs get the thumbs down: see give sth the thumbs down get the thumbs up; see give sth the thumbs up give sth the thumbs down give sth the thumbs up twiddle your thumbs

THUNDER

blood and thunder

have a face like thunder look like thunder steal sb's thunder with a face like thunder: see have a face like thunder

TICK

be as full as a boot/tick what makes sh tick

TICKET

a dream ticket a meal ticket a one-way ticket to sth be just the ticket big ticket the hot ticket

TICKLE

slap and tickle take/tickle sb's fancy tickle/tinkle the ivories

TICKLED

be tickled pink/to death

TIDE

drift with the tide go/swim against the tide go/swim with the tide: see go/swim against the tide stem the tide the tide turns: see turn the tide turn the tide

TIF

the old school tie tie the knot tie yourself (up) in knots

TIED

be fit to be tied be tied to your mother's apron could do sth with one arm/hand tied behind their sb's hands are tied TIGER a paper tiger TIGHT see also TIGHTEN a tight-arse a tight-ass: see a tight-arse be in a tight corner/spot be tight-arsed be tight-assed: see be tightarsed be tight-lipped have/keep sb on a short/tight

keep a tight rein on sb/sth keep sb/sth on a tight rein

run a tight ship

sit tight TIGHT-ASS

a tight-ass: see a tight-arse

TIGHT-ASSED

be tight-assed: see be tightarsed

TIGHTEN

tighten the purse strings: see hold the purse strings tighten the reins tighten your belt tighten/turn the screws on sb: see put the screws on sb

TIGHTROPE

walk a tightrope

TILES

a night (out) on the tiles: see be/go out on the tiles be/go out on the tiles catch sb with their fingers/hand in the till: see have your fingers/hand in the

have your fingers/hand in the till all hours (of the night): see at all hours (of the night) till/until kingdom come

TILLER

a firm/steady hand on the tiller

THE

(at) full pelt/steam/tilt tilt at windmills

TIME see also TIMES

(And) not before time! a race against time/the clock A stitch in time (saves nine). About time too! All in good time. be before your time be in the right place at the right time be only a matter of time bide your time big time do time every time sb turns around/round for the time being from time to time from/since time immemorial give sb a hard time give sb a rough time have a hard time (of it): see give sb a hard time have a lot of time for sb/sth have a rough time (of it): see give sb a rough time have a thin time (of it) have a whale of a time have no time for sb/sth; see have no time to lose: see There's no time to lose. have the time of your life have time on your hands have time on your side How time flies! in next to no time

have a lot of time for sb/sth

in no time (at all) in the fullness of time in the nick of time It's feeding time at the zoo! it's high time kill time living on borrowed time Long time no see. lost in the mists of time make up for lost time mark time not give sb the time of day not have much time for sb/sth: see have a lot of time for sb/sth once upon a time pass the time of day play for time race against time/the clock: see a race against time/the stand the test of time take it one day at a time the big time the time is ripe There's a time and a place. There's no time like the present. There's no time to lose. time after time time and time again Time flies when you're having Time flies. time hangs/lies heavy (on sb's hands) time is on your side time-out Time will tell. TIMES at the best of times be a sign of the times be behind the times change/keep up/move with the times fall on hard times for old times' sake nine times out of ten

a (little) tin god a tin ear be like a cat on a hot tin roof TINKER not give a tinker's cuss not give a tinker's damn

TINKLE

give sb a tinkle tickle/tinkle the ivories

the patter of tiny feet

TIP

arse over tip be on the tip of your tongue I tip my hat to sb swing/tip the balance the tip of the iceberg

tip sb the wink tip your hand

TIRED

be sick and tired of sth/doing

be tired and emotional

TISSUE a tissue of lies

arse over tit

tit-for-tat tit for tat: see tit-for-tat

TITANIC

be like rearranging the deckchairs on the Titanic

get on sb's tits

TITTLE-TATTLE tittle-tattle

T177

be in a tizz/tizzy: see send/throw sb into a tizz/

send/throw sb into a tizz/tizzy

TIZZY

be in a tizz/tizzy: see send/throw sb into a tizz/tizzy send/throw sb into a tizz/ tizzy

TO

to a fault to a man to a T: see to a T to a tee to hell with sb/sth to my mind to sb's face to the core to the gunwales to the letter to the max to the nth degree

(up) to the hilt TOAST

be the toast of sb

TOD

on your tod

TODAY

here today, gone tomorrow

TOE see also TOES from top to toe toe/tow the line

TOE-CURLING

toe-curling: see make sb's toes curl

TOES

curl sb's toes keep sb on their toes make sb's toes curl step/tread on sb's toes

TOFFEE

can't do sth for toffee TOFFEE-NOSED toffee-nosed

TOGETHER

Birds of a feather flock together. get it together keep body and soul together not have two nickels to rub together not have two pennies to rub together put two and two together put two and two together and get/make five: see put two and two together

TOILET

down the toilet

TOING toing and froing

TOKEN by the same token

TOLD

A little bird told me (so). all told

TOLL

sound/toll the death knell take a/its/their toll

a peeping Tom an Uncle Tom Tom, Dick and/or Harry

TOMORROW as if there was/were no tomorrow here today, gone tomorrow iam tomorrow like there's no tomorrow Tomorrow's another day.

TON

be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks have sb down on you like a ton of bricks: see be/come down on sb like a ton of bricks hit sb like a ton of bricks weigh a ton

TONE

lower the tone

raise the tone: see lower the tone

set the tone

TONGS

be/go at it hammer and tongs TONGUE

a slip of the tongue a tongue-lashing be on the tip of your tongue bite your tongue find your tongue get your tongue around/round sth

give sb the rough side of your

Has the cat got your tongue? hold your tongue

keep a civil tongue in your head loosen your tongue roll/trip off the tongue speak with (a) forked tongue tongue in cheek tongue-in-cheek: see tongue in cheek with your tongue in your cheek TONGUES set/start tongues wagging TOO be too clever by half be too close for comfort be too close to call: see a close call be too good to be true too big for your boots too big for your britches too little, too late too many chiefs (and not enough Indians) Too many cooks (spoil the broth). too much of a good thing A bad workman blames his tools down tools the tools of the/your trade TOOT blow/toot your own horn TOOTH a sweet tooth An eye for an eye (and a tooth for a tooth). be long in the tooth fight tooth and claw/nail at the top of the ladder at the top of the/sb's agenda at the top of your voice be on top of the world be over the top be thin on top blow your stack/top from top to bottom from top to toe from/out of the top drawer get on top of you go over the top: see be over the go thin on top: see be thin on off the top of your head on top of sth pay top dollar sleep like a log/top the top brass the top dog the top flight the top of the tree to cap/crown/top it all to top it all

to top it all off

tough love

top-drawer: see from/out of Tough shit! the top drawer when the going gets top-flight: see the top flight rough/tough top-notch TOPSY a whistle-stop tour grow like Topsy TOW TOPSY-TURVY in tow topsy-turvy toe/tow the line turn (sth) topsy-turvy: see topsy-turvy throw in the sponge/towel TORCH carry a torch for sb a pillar/tower of strength TOSS an ivory tower a toss-up TOWN argue the toss a night (out) on the town: see not care/give a toss be/go out on the town throw/toss your hat in the a one-horse town ring be the talk of the town TOTALLY be/go out on the town a totally different ball game go to town on sth paint the town red the low man on the totem pole TOY TOUCH a boy toy a magic touch a toy boy be an easy/soft touch TRACE be in touch sink without trace be out of touch TRACES be out of touch with sth kick over the traces be touch-and-go TRACK get in touch: see be in touch a fast track a track record hit/touch a (raw) nerve I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a be off the beaten track be on the right track barge pole. I wouldn't touch sb/sth with a be on the wrong track ten-foot pole have the inside track in touch with sth: see be out of keep track touch with sth lose track: see keep track keep/stay in touch: see be in touch put/get sb/sth back on track: lose touch: see be in touch see on track lose your touch TRACKS cover your tracks strike/touch a chord the common touch make tracks the Midas touch stop (sb) in their tracks touch all the bases the other/wrong side of the touch base tracks touch wood TRADE TOUCHY-FEELY do a roaring trade touchy-feely ply your trade TOUGH rough trade a hard/tough nut the tools of the/your trade a hard/tough nut to crack tricks of the trade a hard/tough row to hoe TRADES a tough cookie a jack of all trades be a hard/tough act to follow TRAIL be as tough as nails a paper trail be as tough as old boots a trail-blazer: see blaze a be as tough as shoe leather trail hang tough blaze a trail Hard/Tough cheddar! trail-blazing: see blaze a trail Hard/Tough cheese! TRAIN if the going gets rough/tough: a train of thought see when the going gets be in train: see set in train rough/tough set in train

the gravy train

TRANSPORT

be in a transport of delight/joy

TRAP

a death trap

fall into the trap of doing sth have a mind like a steel trap Shut your face/gob/mouth/trap!

TRASH

white trash

TRAVEL

Have sth will travel!

TREAD

Fools rush in (where angels fear to tread). step/tread on sb's toes tread a fine/thin line between sth: see a fine/thin line tread the boards

tread water

TREADING

be walking/treading on eggshells

TREAT

a Dutch treat go down a treat handle/treat sb with kid gloves treat sb like dirt treat sb like muck work a treat

TREATMENT

the red-carpet treatment: see roll out the red carpet

be barking up the wrong tree be out of your tree be up a gum tree be up a tree the top of the tree can't see the forest for the can't see the wood for the trees

Money doesn't grow on trees.

TRICK

a dirty trick do the trick every trick in the book not miss a trick the oldest trick in the book turn a trick sb's bag of tricks tricks of the trade You can't teach an old dog new tricks.

TRICKS

TRIFD

tried and tested/trusted tried and true

TRIGGER-HAPPY trigger-happy

TRIM

be in fighting trim

trim your sails

a guilt trip an ego trip lay/put a guilt trip on sb roll/trip off the tongue send sb on a guilt trip take a stroll/trip down memory lane

trip the light fantastic TROJAN

a Trojan horse work like a dog/trojan

TROLLEY

be off your trolley go off your trolley: see be off your trolley

TROOPER

swear like a trooper

TROT

on the trot

TROUBLE be asking for trouble

spell trouble TROUBLED

pour oil on troubled waters

TROUBLES

teething problems/troubles TROUSERS

be all mouth and (no) trousers be caught with your pants/trousers down

wear the trousers TROWEL

lay it on with a trowel TRUCK

have no truck with sth/sb off the back of a truck TRUE be too good to be true ring true see sh's true colours: see show sb in their true colours show sb in their true colours show your true colours: see show sb in their true

colours

There's many a true word spoken in jest.

tried and true true-blue

true to form/type

TRULY

well and truly TRUMP see also TRUMPS a trump card

TRUMPET

blow your own trumpet

TRUMPS

come up/turn up trumps

TRUST

a brain trust

I wouldn't trust sb as far as I could throw them. not trust sb an inch

TRUSTED

tried and tested/trusted TRUTH

a grain of truth

a home truth

accept/take sth as gospel (truth)

be economical with the trenth

the gospel truth the moment of truth

Truth will out. TRY see also TRIED

If at first you don't succeed, (try, try, and try again).

try a different tack

try it on try sth for size

try sth on for size try your hand at sth

try your luck try your wings

TUB-THUMPING tub-thumping

tub-thumping: see tub-

thumping TUBE

down the tube/tubes

down the tube/tubes

TUCK

a nip and (a) tuck be nip and tuck

TUCKER

your best bib and tucker

tear/tug at the heartstrings tear/tug at your heartstrings

TUMBLE the rough and tumble of sth

TUNE call the shots/tune change your tune dance to sb's tune He who pays the piper calls the tune.

march to a different tune sing the same tune

TUNNEL

light at the end of the tunnel TUPPENCE

not care/give tuppence TURF

a turf war

TURKEY a turkey shoot cold turkey

talk turkey TURKEYS

like turkeys voting for (an early) Christmas

TURN see also TURNED,

TURNING, TURNS

a turn of phrase a turn of the screw a turn/twist of the knife: see turn/twist the knife at every turn be cooked/done to a turn beat/turn swords into ploughshares come up/turn up trumps come/go/turn full circle not know which way to turn not turn a hair One good turn deserves another. put/turn the clock back speak/talk out of turn stand/turn sth on its head take a turn for the worse tighten/turn the screws on sb: see put the screws on sb turn a blind eye turn a deaf ear turn a trick turn in your grave turn king's/queen's evidence turn on the waterworks turn over a new leaf turn over/spin in your grave turn state's evidence turn (sth) topsy-turvy: see topsy-turvy turn tail

turn heads

turn the page turn the tables on sb turn the tide turn turtle turn up like a bad penny turn up the heat turn your back on sb turn your back on sth turn your hand to sth

turn the corner

turn the other cheek

turn your nose up turn/twist the knife turn/use sth to good account TURN-UP

That's/There's a turn-up for the books TURNABOUT

Turnabout is fair play. TURNED

a poacher turned gamekeeper the minute sb's back is turned: see when/while sb's back is turned

The tables are turned .: see turn the tables on sb The wheel has come/turned full circle.: see come/go/turn full circle

The worm has turned. when/while sb's back is turned your whole world (was) turned upside down

TURNING

the wheels are turning TURNS

every time sb turns around/round the tide turns: see turn the tide

Whatever turns you on.

TURTLE turn turtle

TWAIN

Never the twain shall meet.

Lightning does not strike

Once bitten, twice shy. TWIDDLE

twiddle your thumbs TWILIGHT

the twilight zone

TWINKLE

when sb was a (mere) twinkle in their father's eve

TWINKLING

in the twinkling of an eye TWIST

a turn/twist of the knife: see turn/twist the knife drive/send sb round the twist get your knickers in a twist leave sb to twist in the wind round the twist turn/twist the knife twist sb's arm twist/wrap sb around/round

your little finger TWISTED be bitter and twisted TWIXT There's many a slip twixt cup and lip.

A bird in the hand (is worth two in the bush). a two-way street be as thick as two short planks be caught between two stools be in/of two minds be like a dog with two tails be like two peas in a pod be ten/two a penny be two of a kind

be two sides of the same coin bring sb down a peg or two cut both/two ways fall between two stools for two cents in two shakes (of a lamb's tail) It takes two to tango. kill two birds with one stone know a thing or two meat and two veg not be short of a bob or two not care/give two hoots: see not care/give a hoot

not have two nickels to rub together

not have two pennies to rub together put in/stick in your two penn'orth put two and two together put two and two together and get/make five: see put two and two together put your two cents (worth) in put/stick two fingers up at sh/sth [show/teach/tell etc.] sb a thing or two: see know a thing or two stand on your own two feet That makes two of us. the lesser of two evils (There's) no two ways about it.

two-bit two can play at that game two-faced

two-time sb

two-timer: see two-time sb two-timing: see two-time sb two's company (three's a crowd) your meat and two veg your two cents (worth): see put your two cents (worth) in revert to type true to form/type

UGLY

an ugly duckling be as ugly as sin raise/rear its (ugly) head

UM

um and ah UMBILICAL

cut the (umbilical) cord

UMBRAGE take umbrage

UNBOWED bloodied but unbowed UNCERTAIN

in no uncertain terms

UNCLE an Uncle Tom

Bob's your uncle! I'll be a monkey's uncle! say uncle

Uncle Sam UNDER

be under a cloud be under sb's thumb be under the gun be under the thumb: see be under sb's thumb be under your feet Down Under go under the knife

in/under sth's shadow under sb's heel

under sb's nose under the banner of sth under the counter under the influence under the knife: see go under the knife under the sun under the table under the wing of sth under the wire under wraps under your belt under your breath under your own steam UNGLUED come unglued UNIVERSE be the armpit of the world/universe UNKNOWN an unknown quantity UNOUOTE quote, unquote UNSTUCK come unstuck UNTIL till/until kingdom come until hell freezes over until the cows come home UNTURNED leave no stone unturned UP be (just/right) up sb's street be on the up be on the up and up be (right) up sb's alley be (right) up sb's arse be (right) up there with sb/sth be up a gum tree be up a tree be up against sth/sb be up and about/around be up and down be up and running be up for sth be up in arms be up in the air be up the duff be up the spout be up to no good be up to sth be up to the mark be up to your chin in sth be up to your ears/eyeballs/eyes in sth be up to your neck in sth be up with the crows be up with the lark be up vourself come/go up in the world: see come/go down in the world

[dance/sing/talk etc.] up a

give sth up as a bad job

storm

go up in flames move up in the world: see come/go down in the world not be up to much not be up to much not be up to par not be up to scratch pick up sticks raise/up the ante sb's number is up up-and-coming up for grabs up front up sticks up the spout up to snuff up to speed up-to-the-minute Up yours! What's up? UPHILL an uphill battle/fight/struggle an uphill job/task UPON once upon a time UPPER a stiff upper lip gain/get the upper hand: see have the upper hand have the upper hand the upper crust upper-crust: see the upper crust UPPERS be (down) on your uppers UPRIGHT bolt upright ups and downs upset the applecart UPSTAIRS kick sb upstairs UPTAKE be quick on the uptake: see be slow on the uptake be slow on the uptake UPWARD onward and upward: see onwards and upwards UPWARDS

US

USE

them and us

spilt milk.

a nut

etc.] you used to be business as usual VAIN take sb's name in vain VALOR Discretion is the better part of valor. VALOUR Discretion is the better part of valour. VALUE take sth at face value VALVE a safety valve VANISH disappear/vanish into thin air: see out of thin air disappear/vanish off the face of the earth VARIETY Variety is the spice of life. VEG meat and two veg your meat and two veg VEIL draw a veil over sth VELVET an iron fist/hand in a velvet glove VENT vent your spleen VENTURED Nothing ventured, nothing gained. VERBAL verbal diarrhea verbal diarrhoea VERSE give/quote (sb) chapter and verse VESSEL burst/bust a blood vessel Empty vessels make (the) most noise/sound. VICIOUS a vicious circle VICTIM a fashion victim VICTORY onwards and upwards a Pyrrhic victory VIEW a bird's eye view a fat lot of good/use a ringside seat/view be no good/use to man or a worm's eye view take the long view It's no good/use crying over VILLAIN the villain of the piece VINE turn/use sth to good account use a sledgehammer to crack die on the vine wither on the vine

Use your loaf.

be half the [dancer/writer

VINEGAR

be full of piss and vinegar

VIOLET

a shrinking violet

VIRTUE

make a virtue of necessity

VIRTUES

extoll the virtues of sb/sth

VOICE

a (lone) voice in the wilderness

a voice crying in the wilderness

at the top of your voice VOID

fill a/the void

VOLTE-FACE

a volte-face

VOLUMES

speak volumes VOTE

vote with your feet

VOTING

like turkeys voting for (an early) Christmas

VULTURE

a culture vulture

WAD

shoot your wad WAGGING

set/start tongues wagging the tail wagging the dog

WAGON

be on the wagon fall off the wagon go on the wagon: see be on the wagon

hitch your wagon to a star hitch your wagon to sb/sth waifs and strays

WAIST

be dead from the waist down

WAIT

wait for the other shoe to drop wait on sb hand and foot WAITING an accident waiting to happen be waiting in the wings play a/the waiting game

WAKE

a wake-up call Wake up and smell the coffee!

a walk of life run before you can walk stand/walk tall Take a hike/walk! the cock of the walk walk a tightrope walk the plank

WALKING

be floating/walking on air be (skating/walking) on thin ice

be walking/treading on

eggshells

get your walking papers: see give sb their walking papers give sb their walking papers

WALL a fly on the wall a hole in the wall

be banging/hitting your head against a brick wall be like talking to a brick wall

be off the wall

be/come up against a brick wall

drive sb up the wall

go to the wall have your back against/to the hit a/the (brick) wall nail sb to the wall off-the-wall: see be off the wall read/see the handwriting on the wall: see the writing is on the wall read/see the writing on the wall: see the writing is on the

the handwriting is on the wall the writing is on the wall

WALLS

be climbing the walls Walls have ears.

WAND

a magic wand

wall-to-wall

WANDERING

wandering hands

WANE

wax and wane

WANT

Do you want a/to bet? Do you want to make something of it?

for want of a better word How much do you want to bet? want to curl up and die

WAR see also WARS

a battle/war of nerves a turf war

a war of words

All's fair in love and war.

WARM

warm the cockles of your heart

WARMED

like death (warmed over) like death (warmed up)

WARPATH

be on the warpath

WARRANT

sign sth's death warrant: see sign your own death warrant sign your own death warrant

WARS

have been in the wars

WARTS

warts and all warts-and-all: see warts and

all WASH

come out in the wash It'll all come out in the wash. wash your dirty laundry/linen in public wash your hands of sb/sth Wash your mouth out! will not wash

WASHER

be chief cook and bottle washer

WASTE

a waste of breath: see waste your breath be a waste of space waste your breath

WATCH

mind/watch your p's and q's Mind/Watch your step. watch sb like a hawk watch sb/sth with an eagle eve watch sb/sth with eagle eves watch the clock Watch this space. watch your back watch your step

WATCHED

A watched pot never boils. WATCHING

be as interesting as watching grass grow be as interesting as watching paint dry

be like watching grass grow be like watching paint dry

WATER see also WATERS

be dead in the water be in deep water be in hot water be like a fish out of water be (like) water off a duck's back be water over the dam

be water under the bridge Blood is thicker than water. blow sth/sb out of the water come hell or high water could talk under water get into deep water: see be in deep water

get (sb) into hot water: see be in hot water

go through fire and water hold water: see not hold water keep your head above water make sh's mouth water not hold water pour/throw cold water on sth spend money like water take to sth like a duck to water

test the water/waters

throw the baby out with the bath water tread water

You can lead a horse to water (but you can't make him/it drink).

WATERFRONT

cover the waterfront WATERLOO

meet your Waterloo

WATERS

muddy the waters pour oil on troubled waters still waters run deep test the water/waters

WATERWORKS turn on the waterworks

WAVE see also WAVES

be on the crest of a wave catch the wave fly/show/wave the flag kiss/say/wave goodbye to sth ride (on) a/the wave ride the crest of a wave: see be on the crest of a wave be on the same wavelength WAVES

WAVELENGTH

make waves

WAX

the whole ball of wax wax and wane wax lyrical

WAY see also WAYS

all the way all the way down the line along the way any way you slice it be in a bad way be laughing all the way to the hank be out of sb's way be out of the way claw your way back from sth couldn't [act/argue/fight] your way out of a paper bag every which way get your own way go a long way go all the way

go back a long way go down the wrong way go out of your way to do sth have come a long way have your head screwed on

(the right way) (in) any way, shape, or form in the family way look the other way No way!

not know which way to turn one way or another one way or the other open the way for/to sth

out-of-the-way: see be out of the way pave the way for sth pay its way pay your way point the way rub sb the wrong way rub sb up the wrong way see which way the cat jumps

see which way the wind is blowing see your way (clear) to doing sth smooth sb's/sth's way smooth the way for sb/sth take sth the wrong way That's the way the ball hounces

That's the way the cookie crumbles.

There's more than one way to skin a cat.

way-out Where there's a will there's a wing your/its way

WAYS

change/mend your ways cut both/two ways see the error of your ways swing both ways the parting of the ways (There's) no two ways about it. ways and means

WAYSIDE

fall by the wayside

WEAK

a weak link (in the chain) have a weak spot for sb/sth weak at the knees

WEAR

be the worse for wear If the cap fits (wear it). If the hat/shoe fits (wear it). wear and tear wear sb to a frazzle wear the pants wear the trousers wear thin wear your heart on your wear/work your fingers to the bone

WEARING

be wearing your [teacher's/lawyer's etc.] hat WEASEL

weasel words WEATHER

be/feel under the weather brass monkey weather keep a weather eye on sth/sb make heavy weather of sth/doing sth ride out/weather the storm

a tangled web

WEDDING

a shotgun wedding be like a spare prick at a wedding your wedding tackle

WEDGE

drive a wedge between sb the thin end of the wedge

a face as long as a wet week WEEKEND

a dirty weekend

shed/weep crocodile tears WEEPERS

Finders keepers (losers weepers).

WEIGH

weigh a ton weigh each word weigh your words

WEIGHT a dead weight be a load/weight off your mind be a weight off your shoulders be worth its/vour weight in gold

carry weight

have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders pull your weight throw your weight around throw your weight behind sth/sb

WELCOME

greet/welcome sb/sth with open arms

outstay/overstay your welcome

Welcome to the club!

WELL be alive and well be all very well be all well and good be in well be well away be well in be well up on sth leave well alone leave well enough alone leave/let well alone leave/let well enough alone

not sit well with sb

well and truly well-heeled

well-hung well-to-do

(Well) what do you know!

went/had gone out with the ark

WERE

Were your ears burning?: see your ears must be burning

WEST

go west

WET

a face as long as a wet week a wet blanket

a wet dream

be all wet

be wet behind the ears could talk under wet cement

get your feet wet wet your whistle

WHACK

out of whack WHALE

a whale of a

[bill/difference/problem etc.] a whale of a [job/party/story etc.1

have a whale of a time

WHAMMY

a double whammy

WHAT

and what have you I'll give you what for! know what's what see sb/sth for what they (really) are

(Well) what do you know! What planet is sb on?: see be (living) on another planet

What price

[fame/success/victory etc.]?

what the hell

What you don't know won't hurt you.

What's cooking? what's eating sb? what's his/her face

What's sb's game? What's sth in aid of?

What's sth when it's at home?

What's the deal?

What's the world coming to? What's up?

What's your poison?

WHATEVER

Whatever turns you on.

WHEAT

separate the wheat from the chaff

WHEEL see also WHEELING,

WHEELS

wheel

a big shot/wheel a cog in the machine/wheel a fifth/third wheel be at/behind the wheel get behind the wheel: see be at/behind the wheel put a spoke in sb's wheel put your shoulder to the

reinvent the wheel

The wheel has come/turned full circle.: see come/go/turn full circle

WHEELING

wheeling and dealing

WHEELS be hell on wheels

oil the wheels set the wheels in motion spin your wheels the wheels are turning

WHEN

as and when if and when

When in Rome (do as the Romans do).

when the chips are down

WHERE

know where you stand not know where to put vourself

Where there's a will there's a wav!

Where's the beef?

WHEREFORES

the whys and (the) wherefores

WHET

whet sb's appetite

WHETHER

not know whether to laugh or

(whether) by accident or design

WHICH

every which way

WHILE

be worth your while make sth worth your while: see be worth your while while the going is good

WHIMPER

not with a bang but with a whimper

WHIP

a whip-round

crack the whip get/have a fair crack of the whip: see give sb a fair crack of the whip give sb a fair crack of the whip have/hold the whip hand whip sth/sb into shape

WHIPPING

a whipping boy

WHIRL

give it a shot/whirl WHIRLWIND reap the whirlwind

WHISKER

by a whisker come within a whisker of sth/doing sth

WHISKERS

be the cat's whiskers

WHISTLE

a whistle-blower: see blow the whistle on sb/sth a whistle-stop tour a wolf whistle be as clean as a whistle blow the whistle on sb/sth He/She/They can whistle for itt wet your whistle

WHISTLES

bells and whistles WHISTLING be whistling Dixie

be whistling in the dark WHITE

a white elephant

a white knight a white lie

be as white as a sheet be as white as snow

black and white in black and white

pretend/say that black is white

the men in white coats white-bread

white-collar white trash

WHITER

whiter than white

WHIZZ-KID

a whizz-kid

WHO

Who needs it/them? Who's sb when he's/she's at home?

WHOLE

a whole new ball game go the whole hog go the whole nine yards

go whole hog invent sth out of whole cloth

make sth up out of whole

cloth the whole ball of wax the whole bit

the whole enchilada the whole (kit and) caboodle

the whole nine yards the whole picture

the whole shebang

the whole shooting match the (whole) works your whole world came crashing down around you your whole world (was) turned upside down

WHOOPEE

make whoopee

WHYS

the whys and (the) wherefores

get on sb's wick

WICKED

have your wicked way with sb There's no peace/rest for the wicked!

There's no rest for the wicked!: see There's no rest for the wicked!

WICKET

be (batting) on a sticky wicket

WIDE

a wide boy be wide of the mark be wide open be (wide) open to [abuse/criticism etc.]

blow sth wide open cast your net wide/wider give sb/sth a wide berth into the wide/wild blue vonder

WIDEN

broaden/widen sb's horizons

WIDER

cast your net wide/wider

WIDOW

a grass widow

(all) the world and his wife WILD

a wild card a wild-goose chase go hog wild into the wide/wild blue vonder sow your wild oats wild-card: see a wild card

wild horses WILDERNESS

a (lone) voice in the wilderness a voice crying in the wilderness in the wilderness

WILDEST

beyond your wildest dreams not in my wildest dreams

WILDFIRE spread like wildfire

WILL

Where there's a will there's a with the best will in the world

WILLIES

give sb the creeps/willies WILLS

a battle of wills

WILLY-NILLY willy-nilly

earn/win your spurs May the best man win. win (sth) hands down win the day You can't win 'em all. You win some, you lose some.

WIN-WIN

a win-win situation: see a no-

win situation WIND see also WINDS

a straw in the wind be in the wind be pissing in/into the wind be spitting in/into the wind be three sheets to the wind break wind get a/your second wind get wind of sth get/put the wind up sb It's an ill wind (that blows nobody any good). leave sb to twist in the wind run like the wind sail close to the wind sail close to the wind see how the wind is blowing see which way the wind is blowing take the wind out of sb's sails throw caution to the wind(s)

WINDMILLS tilt at windmills

WINDOW

go out (of) the window

be scattered to the four winds WINE

wine and dine sb WING

be on the wing

on a wing and a prayer take sb under your wing under the wing of sth wing it

wing your/its way WINGS

be waiting in the wings clip sb's wings spread your wings try your wings

A nod's as good as a wink. as quick as a flash/wink not get a wink of sleep not sleep a wink tip sb the wink

WINKS forty winks

WINNER

be onto a winner WINTER

in the dead of night/winter

wipe the floor with sb wipe the slate clean: see a wipe the smile off sb's face

WIRE

a live wire down to the wire under the wire

WIRES

get your lines/wires crossed

WISDOM a pearl of wisdom

in his/her/their (infinite) wisdom

the conventional/received wisdom

WISE

a wise-ass

a wise guy

a wise head on young shoulders

A word to the wise (is sufficient).

It's easy to be wise after the event

wise-ass: see a wise guy wise-guy: see a wise guy

WISE-ASS a wise-ass

WISER

be none the wiser

no one will be any the wiser sadder but wiser

WISH

a wish list

I/You wouldn't wish sth on my/your worst enemy. wish the ground would swallow you up

WISHFUL

wishful thinking

WIT see also WITS

Sarcasm is the lowest form of

WITCH-HUNT a witch-hunt

WITCHING

the witching hour

WITH be with child

he with it

with a capital [A/B/C etc.] with an eve to sth with bells on

with (brass) knobs on

With friends like that, who needs enemies?

with it

with money to burn: see have money to burn

with one eye on sth/sb; see have/keep one eye on sth/sb

with strings (attached): see no strings (attached)

with your bare hands

with your nose in the air WITHER

wither on the vine

be within an ace of sth/doing sth: see come within an ace of sth/doing sth

come within an ace of sth/doing sth

WITHOUT

doubt without a backward glance without a care in the world: see not have a care in the world beyond/without a shadow of a

without a murmur

without fail without further/more ado

without so much as a by-yourleave

WITNESS

bear testimony/witness to eth

WITS

a battle of wits be at your wits' end frighten/scare sb out of their gather your wits have/keep your wits about you live by/on your wits pit your wits against sb/sth

WIVES

an old wives' tale

WOBBLER

throw a wobbler/wobbly WOBBLY

throw a wobbler/wobbly

WOE

woe betide sb WOLF

a lone wolf

a wolf in sheep's clothing a wolf whistle

cry wolf

keep the wolf from the door wolf-whistle sb: see a wolf whistle

WOLVES

leave sb to the wolves throw sb to the wolves

WOMAN

a fallen woman a kept man/woman

a man/woman after your own

heart

a man/woman of means

a man/woman of the world a scarlet woman

a woman of her word

be a fine figure of a man/woman

be your own

man/woman/person Hell hath no fury (like a woman scorned). like a man/woman possessed make an honest woman of sb sh's right-hand man/woman the man/woman on the

Clapham omnibus

the man/woman/person in the

the man/woman/sth of your dreams

the thinking man's/woman's crumpet

You can't keep a good man/woman down.

WOMEN

think you are God's gift to women

WON

be half the battle (won)

WONDER

a chinless wonder

a nine/one/seven-day wonder a one-hit wonder

WONDERS

work wonders

WOOD see also WOODS

can't see the wood for the trees dead wood knock (on) wood

not be out of the wood/woods touch wood

WOODEN

Don't take any wooden nickels. the wooden spoon

WOODS

a babe in the woods neck of the woods not be out of the wood/woods

WOODWORK

come/crawl out of the woodwork

WOOL

pull the wool over sb's eves wrap sb up in cotton wool

WORD

a buzz word a dirty word

a four-letter word

a man of his word

a woman of her word

A word to the wise (is sufficient).

be as good as your word be the last word in sth by word of mouth

for want of a better word from the word go get a word in edgeways get a word in edgewise have a word in sb's ear have the final/last word

in a word

Mum's the word. not believe a word of it not breathe a word

not know the meaning of the

put in a good word for sb say the word sb's word is law spread the word take sb at their word take sb's word for it the operative word There's many a true word spoken in jest. weigh each word What's the magic word? won't hear a word (said) against sb/sth word for word

WORDS

a play on words a war of words Actions speak louder than words be lost for words Famous last words. have to eat your words have words in so many words in words of one syllable make sb eat their words: see have to eat your words not mince (your) words put words in/into sb's mouth Sticks and stones may break my bones (but words will never hurt me). take the words out of sh's mouth weasel words weigh your words

(You) mark my words.

Words fail me!

WORK see also WORKS All work and no play (makes Jack a dull boy). be a nasty piece of work be all in a day's work build/get/work up a head of steam do sb's dirty work donkey work drive/run/work yourself into the ground go/run/work like clockwork grunt work grunt work have your work cut out (for you) make hard work of sth/doing

sth make light work of sth/doing sth make short work of sth Nice work if you can get it! perform/work miracles slog/sweat/work your guts out The devil finds work for idle hands. wear/work your fingers to the bone

work a treat work against the clock work like a charm work like a dog/trojan work like magic work wonders work your arse/backside off work your ass/butt off work your socks off work your/its magic

WORKMAN

A bad workman blames his tools.

WORKS

give sb the works: see the (whole) works gum up the works put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works put/throw a spanner in the

a man/woman of the world

works shoot the works the (whole) works

WORLD

a world of difference (all) the world and his wife be at peace with the world be dead to the world be in a world of your own be in another world be on top of the world be out of this world be the armpit of the world/universe be/live in a dream world come/go down in the world come/go up in the world: see come/go down in the world do sb the world of good have the cares/weight of the world on your shoulders have the world at your feet It takes all sorts (to make a world.) It's a small world. move down in the world move up in the world: see come/go down in the world not be long for this world not be the end of the world not have a care in the world not set the world on fire the four corners of the earth/world The hand that rocks the cradle (rules the world). the oldest profession (in the world) the world is your oyster think the world of sb What's the world coming to? with the best will in the world without a care in the world: see not have a care in the world your whole world came crashing down around you your whole world (was) turned upside down

WORLDS

be worlds apart the best of both worlds the worst of both worlds: see the best of both worlds

WORM

a worm's eye view The early bird catches the worm.

The worm has turned.

WORMS

a can of worms

WORRIED

be worried sick WORSE

be a fate worse than death

be the worse for wear for better or (for) worse for better, for worse go from bad to worse sb's bark is worse than their

take a turn for the worse

WORST

be your own worst enemy bring out the worst in sb: see bring out the best in sb I/You wouldn't wish sth on my/your worst enemy. if the worst comes to the worst if worst comes to worst

the worst of both worlds: see the best of both worlds

WORST-CASE

the nightmare/worst-case scenario

WORTH

A bird in the hand (is worth two in the bush). any [judge/lawyer/teacher etc.] worth their salt be worth its/your weight in gold be worth your while It's more than my job's worth. make sth worth your while: see be worth your while not be worth a dime not be worth a fig not be worth a hill of beans not be worth the paper it's/they're printed/written put your two cents (worth) your two cents (worth): see put your two cents (worth) in

WOULDN'T

wouldn't dream of doing sth wouldn't harm/hurt a fly

WOUND

rub salt in/into the wound

WOUNDS

lick your wounds open/reopen old wounds

WRACK

go to rack/wrack and ruin

WRAP

drape/wrap yourself in the flag twist/wrap sb around/round your little finger wrap sb up in cotton wool

WRAPS

take the wraps off sth under wraps

WRENCH

put/throw a (monkey) wrench in the works

I'll wring your neck! wring your hands

WRINGER

go through the wringer: see put sb through the wringer put sb through the wringer

a slap on the wrist get your wrist slapped: see a slap on the wrist WRIT be writ large

writ large WRITE

be nothing much to write home about fit/write sth on the back of a postage stamp not much to write home about something to write home about: see be nothing much to write home about

WRITING

read/see the writing on the wall: see the writing is on the wall

the writing is on the wall

WRITTEN

be written all over sb's face have sb's name written all over it It's written in the stars. not be worth the paper it's/they're printed/written on

WRONG

back the wrong horse be barking up the wrong tree be in the wrong

be on the wrong end of sth be (on) the wrong side of 30/40

etc. be on the wrong track can't put a foot wrong: see not

put a foot wrong

Don't get me wrong. fall into the wrong hands find yourself on the wrong side of the law get (hold of) the wrong end of the stick get off/start off on the wrong foot get on the wrong side of the get out of bed on the wrong side get up on the wrong side of the bed go down the wrong way not put a foot wrong rub sb the wrong way rub sb up the wrong way take sth the wrong way the other/wrong side of the

tracks
WROTE
That's all she wrote!

YANK pull/yank sb's chain YARDS

go the whole nine yards the whole nine yards

YEAR

from/since the year dot from/since the year one the seven year itch

YEARS
autumn years
be light years away
be light years away from sth

donkey's years put years on sb take years off sb: see put years on sb

YELLOW

yellow journalism

YELLOW-BELLIED yellow-bellied

YES a yes man

YESTERDAY I/he/she wasn't born yesterday! YONDER into the wide/wild blue vonder

YOU

you name it
YOUNG
a wise head on young shoulders an old head on young shoulders

young blood

from A to Z

z's catch/cop/get some z's ZERO-SUM

a zero-sum game

ZONE

the twilight zone

Z00

It's feeding time at the zoo!